(see also 2 Samuel 23:8)

Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.
20 Abishai the brother of Joab was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three. 21 He was doubly honored above the Three and became their commander, even though he was not included among them.
22 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab's best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. 23 And he struck down an Egyptian who was seven and a half feet[c] tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's rod in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club.
He snatched the spear from the Egyp-tian's hand and killed him with his own spear. 24 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men. 25 He was held in greater honor than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

26 The mighty men were:
Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,
27 Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite,
28 Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, Abiezer from Anathoth,
29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite,
30 Maharai the Netophathite,
Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite, 31 Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, 32 Hurai from the ravines of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite,
33 Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, 34 the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan son of Shagee the Hararite, 35 Ahiam son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,
36 Hepher the Mekerathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, 37 Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai son of Ezbai,
38 Joel the brother of Nathan,
Mibhar son of Hagri,
39 Zelek the Ammonite,
Naharai the Berothite, the armor-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah, 40 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite,
41 Uriah the Hittite,
Zabad son of Ahlai,
42 Adina son of Shiza the Reubenite, who was chief of the Reubenites, and the thirty with him, 43 Hanan son of Maacah, Joshaphat the Mithnite, 44 Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, 45 Jediael son of Shimri, his brother Joha the Tizite, 46 Eliel the Mahavite,
Jeribai and Joshaviah the sons of Elnaam, Ithmah the Moabite,
47 Eliel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

Warriors Join David

12 These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was banished from the presence of Saul son of Kish (they were among the warriors who helped him in battle; 2 they were armed with bows and were able to shoot arrows or to sling stones right-handed or left-handed; they were kinsmen of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin):

3 Ahiezer their chief and Joash the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; Jeziel and Pelet the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu the Anathothite, 4 and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the Thirty, who was a leader of the Thirty; Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad the Gederathite, 5 Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah the Haruphite; 6 Elkanah, Isshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam the Korahites; 7 and Joelah
and Zebadiah the sons of Jeroham from Gedor.

8 Some Gadites defected to David at his stronghold in the desert. They were brave warriors, ready for battle and able to handle the shield and spear.
Their faces were the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles in the mountains.

c23 Hebrew five cubits (about 2.3 meters)

9Ezer was the chief,
Obadiah the second in command,
Eliab the third,
10Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah
the fifth,
11Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, 12Johanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, 13Jeremiah the tenth and Macbannai the eleventh.

14These Gadites were army commanders; the least was a match for a hundred,[a] and the greatest for a thousand.[b]
15It was they who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing all its banks,[c] and they put to flight everyone living in the valleys, to the east and to the west.
16Other Benjamites[d] and some men from Judah also came to David in his stronghold.
17David went out to meet them and said to them, "If you have come to me in peace, to help me, I am ready to have you unite with me. But if you have come to betray me to my enemies when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our fathers see it and judge you."
18Then the Spirit[e] came upon Amasai,[f] chief of the Thirty, and he said:

"We are yours, O David!
We are with you, O son of Jesse!
Success,[g] success to you,
and success to those who help
you,
for your God will help you."

So David received them and made them leaders of his raiding bands.
19Some of the men of Manasseh defected to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. (He and his men did not help the Philistines because, after consultation, their rulers sent him away. They said, "It will cost us our heads if he deserts to his master Saul.")[h] 20When David went to Ziklag,[i] these were the men of Manasseh who defected to him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediael, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai, leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh.
21They helped David against raiding bands, for all of them were brave warriors, and they were commanders in his army.
22Day after day men came to help David, until he had a great army, like the army of God.[x]

Others Join David at Hebron

23These are the numbers of the men armed for battle who came to David at Hebron[j] to turn[k] Saul's kingdom over to him, as the LORD had said:[l]

24men of Judah, carrying shield and spear—6,800 armed for battle; 25men of Simeon, warriors ready for battle—7,100;
26men of Levi—4,600, 27including Jehoiada, leader of the family of Aaron, with 3,700 men, 28and Zadok,[m] a brave young warrior, with 22 officers from his family; 29men of Benjamin,[n] Saul's kinsmen—3,000, most[o] of whom had remained loyal to Saul's house until then;
30men of Ephraim, brave warriors, famous in their own clans—20,800;
31men of half the tribe of Manasseh, designated by name to come and make David king—18,000; 32men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do[p]—200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command; 33men of Zebulun, experienced soldiers prepared for battle with every type of weapon, to help David with undivided loyalty—
50,000;
34men of Naphtali—1,000 officers, together with 37,000 men carrying shields and spears; 35men of Dan, ready for battle—
28,600;
36men of Asher, experienced soldiers prepared for battle—40,000;
37and from east of the Jordan, men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, armed with every type of weapon—120,000.

38All these were fighting men who volunteered to serve in the ranks. They came to Hebron fully determined to make David king over all Israel.[q] All the rest of the Israelites were also of one mind to make David king.
39The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking,[r] for their families had supplied provisions for them.
40Also, their neighbors from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali came bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies[s] of flour, fig

13 David conferred with each of his officers, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds. 2He then said to the whole assembly of Israel, "If it seems good to you and if it is the will of the LORD our God, let us send word far and wide to the rest of our brothers throughout the territories of Israel, and also to the priests and Levites who are with them in their towns and pasturelands, to come and join us. 3Let us bring the ark of our God back to us, for we did not inquire[a] of[b] it during the reign of Saul." 4The whole assembly agreed to do this, because it seemed right to all the people.

5So David assembled all the Israelites, from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo[c] Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. 6David and all the Israelites with him went to Baalah of Judah (Kiriath Jearim) to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD, who is enthroned between the cherubim—the ark that is called by the Name.

7They moved the ark of God from Abinadab's house on a new cart, with Uzzah and Ahio guiding it. 8David and all the Israelites were celebrating with all their might before God, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets.

9When they came to the threshing floor of Kidon, Uzzah reached out his hand to steady the ark, because the oxen stumbled. 10The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah, and he struck him down because he had put his hand on the ark. So he died there before God.

11Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.[d]

12David was afraid of God that day and asked, "How can I ever bring the ark of God to me?" 13He did not take the ark to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. 14The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months, and the LORD blessed his household and everything he had.

David's House and Family

14:1-7pp — 2Sa 5:11-16; 1Ch 3:5-8

14 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, stonemasons and carpenters to build a palace for him. 2And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that his kingdom had been highly exalted for the sake of his people Israel.

3In Jerusalem David took more wives and became the father of more sons and daughters. 4These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, 5Ibhar, Elishua, Elpelet, 6Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, 7Elishama, Beeliada[e] and Eliphelet.

David Defeats the Philistines

8When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went out to meet them. 9Now the Philistines had come and raided the Valley of Rephaim; 10so David inquired of God: "Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?"

The LORD answered him, "Go, I will hand them over to you."

11So David and his men went up to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, "As waters break out, God has broken out against my enemies by my hand." So that place was called Baal Perazim.[f] 12The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders to burn them in the fire.

13Once more the Philistines raided the valley; 14so David inquired of God again, and God answered him, "Do not go straight up, but circle around them and attack them in front of the balsam trees. 15As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move out to battle, because that will mean God has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army." 16So David did as God commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army, all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

17So David's fame spread through

The Ark Brought to Jerusalem

15 After David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David, he prepared[b] a place for the ark of God and pitched[c] a tent for it.
2 Then David said, "No one but the Levites[d] may carry[e] the ark of God, because the LORD chose them to carry the ark of the LORD and to minister[f] before him forever."
3 David assembled all Israel[g] in Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the LORD to the place he had prepared for
it. 4 He called together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites:[h]

5 From the descendants of Kohath, Uriel[i] the leader and 120 relatives;
6 from the descendants of Merari, Asaiah the leader and 220 relatives;
7 from the descendants of Gershon,[e]
Joel the leader and 130 relatives;
8 from the descendants of Elizaphan,[j] Shemaiah the leader and 200
relatives;
9 from the descendants of Hebron,[k]
Eliel the leader and 80 relatives;
10 from the descendants of Uzziel, Amminadab the leader and 112
relatives.

11 Then David summoned Zadok[l] and Abiathar[m] the priests, and Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Am-minadab the Levites. 12 He said to them,
"You are the heads of the Levitical families; you and your fellow Levites are to consecrate[n] yourselves and bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place I have prepared for it.
13 It was because you, the Levites,[o] did not bring it up the first time that the LORD our God broke out in anger against us.[p] We did not inquire of him about how to do it in the prescribed way.[q]" 14 So the priests and Levites consecrated themselves in order to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. 15 And the Levites carried the ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded[r] in accordance with the word of the LORD.[s] 16 David[t] told the leaders of the Levites[u] to appoint their brothers as singers[v] to sing joyful songs, accompanied by musical instruments: lyres, harps and cymbals.[w]
17 So the Levites appointed Heman[x] son of Joel; from his brothers, Asaph[y] son of Berekiah; and from their brothers the Merarites,[z] Ethan son of Ku-shaiah; 18 and with them their brothers next in rank: Zechariah,[f] Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom[a] and Jei-el,[g] the gatekeepers.
19 The musicians Heman,[b] Asaph and Ethan were to sound the bronze cymbals; 20 Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play the lyres according to alamoth,[h] 21 and Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azaziah were to play the harps, directing according to sheminith.[h] 22 Kenaniah the head Levite was in charge of the singing; that was his responsibility because he was skillful at it.
23 Berekiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the ark. 24 Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer the priests were to blow trumpets[c] before the ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the ark.
25 So David and the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the ark[d] of the covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom, with rejoicing. 26 Because God had helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams[e] were sacrificed. 27 Now David was clothed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Levites who were carrying the ark, and as were the singers, and Kena-niah, who was in charge of the singing of the choirs. David also wore a linen ephod.[f] 28 So all Israel[g] brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouts,[h] with the sounding of rams' horns[i] and trumpets, and of cymbals, and the playing of lyres and harps.
29 As the ark of the covenant of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King

David's Psalm of Thanks

16:8-22pp — Ps 105:1-15
16:23-33pp — Ps 96:1-13
16:34-36pp — Ps 106:1,47-48

7That day David first committed to Asaph and his associates this psalm of thanks to the LORD:

8Give thanks to the LORD, call on his
name;
make known among the nations
what he has done.
9Sing to him, sing praise to him;
tell of all his wonderful acts.
10Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
11Look to the LORD and his strength;
seek his face always.
12Remember the wonders he has
done,
his miracles, and the judgments
he pronounced,
13O descendants of Israel his servant,
O sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14He is the LORD our God;
his judgments are in all the earth.
15He remembers[j] his covenant
forever,
the word he commanded, for a thousand generations, 16the covenant he made with Abraham,
the oath he swore to Isaac.
17He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree,
to Israel as an everlasting covenant:
18"To you I will give the land of Canaan
as the portion you will inherit."[k]

19When they were but few in number,
few indeed, and strangers in it, 20they wandered from nation to
nation,
from one kingdom to another.
21He allowed no man to oppress them;
for their sake he rebuked kings: 22"Do not touch my anointed ones;
do my prophets no harm."

23Sing to the LORD, all the earth; proclaim his salvation day after
day.
24Declare his glory among the
nations,
his marvelous deeds among all
peoples.
25For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;
he is to be feared above all
gods.
26For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but the LORD made the heavens.
27Splendor and majesty are before
him;
strength and joy in his dwelling
place.
28Ascribe to the LORD, O families of
nations,
ascribe to the LORD glory and
strength,
29 ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name.
Bring an offering and come before
him;
worship the LORD in the splendor
of his[l] holiness.
30Tremble before him, all the earth!
The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.
31Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth
be glad;
let them say among the nations,
"The LORD reigns!" 32Let the sea resound, and all that is
in it;

LORD to minister there regularly, according to each day's requirements.[y] 38He also left Obed-Edom[z] and his

Israel. 41With them were Heman[n] and the other instruments for sacred song.[o]

The sons of Jeduthun[p] were stationed at the gate.
43Then all the people left, each for his own home, and David returned home to bless his family.

God's Promise to David

17 After David was settled in his palace, he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under a tent.[q]" 2Nathan replied to David, "Whatever you have in mind,[r] do it, for God is with you."
3That night the word of God came to Nathan, saying:
4"Go and tell my servant David,
'This is what the LORD says: You[s] are not the one to build me a house to dwell in. 5I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought Israel up out of Egypt to this day. I have moved from one tent site to another, from one dwelling place to another. 6Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their leaders[m] whom I commanded to shepherd my people, "Why have you not built me a house of cedar?[t]" ' 7"Now then, tell my servant David, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock, to be ruler[u] over my people Israel. 8I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name like the names of the greatest men of the earth. 9And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning 10and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders[v] over my people Israel. I will also subdue all your enemies.
" 'I declare to you that the LORD will build a house for you: 11When your days are over and you go to be with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, one of your own sons, and I will establish his kingdom. 12He is the one who will build[w] a house for me, and I will establish his throne forever.[x] 13I will be his father,[y] and he will be my son.[z] I will never take my love away from him, as I took it away from your predecessor. 14I will set him over my house and my kingdom forever; his throne[a] will be established forever.[b]' "

[16]Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said:

"Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far? [17]And as if this were not enough in your sight, O God, you have spoken about the future of the house of your servant.
You have looked on me as though I were the most exalted of men, O LORD God.

[18]"What more can David say to you for honoring your servant? For you know your servant, [19]O LORD.
For the sake[a] of your servant and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made known all these great promises.[b]

[20]"There is no one like you, O LORD, and there is no God but you,[c] as we have heard with our own ears. [21]And who is like your people Israel—the one nation on earth whose God went out to redeem[d] a people for himself, and to make a name for yourself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt? [22]You made your people Israel your very own forever,[e] and you, O LORD, have become their God.

[23]"And now, LORD, let the promise[f] you have made concerning your servant and his house be established forever. Do as you promised, [24]so that it will be established and that your name will be great forever. Then men will say,
'The LORD Almighty, the God over Israel, is Israel's God!' And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

[25]"You, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build a house for him. So your servant has found courage to pray to you.
[26]O LORD, you are God! You have promised these good things to your servant. [27]Now you have been pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever in your sight;[g] for you, O LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed forever."

David's Victories

18:1-13pp — 2Sa 8:1-14

18 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Gath and its surrounding villages from the control of the Philistines.

[2]David also defeated the Moabites,[h] and they became subject to him and brought tribute.

[3]Moreover, David fought Hadadezer king of Zobah,[i] as far as Hamath, when he went to establish his control along the Euphrates River.[j] [4]David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung[k] all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

[5]When the Arameans of Damascus[l]
came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them. [6]He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

[7]David took the gold shields carried by the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. [8]From Tebah[a] and Cun, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, David took a great quantity of bronze, which Solomon used to make the bronze Sea,[m] the pillars and various bronze articles.

[9]When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, [10]he sent his son Hadoram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold and silver and bronze.

[11]King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold he had taken from all these nations: Edom[n] and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek.[o]

[12]Abishai son of Zeruiah struck down eighteen thousand Edomites[p] in the Valley of Salt. [13]He put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory everywhere he went.

David's Officials

18:14-17pp — 2Sa 8:15-18

[14]David reigned[q] over all Israel,[r] doing what was just and right for all his people. 15Joab[z] son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder; 16Zadok[a] son of Ahitub and Ahimelech[b][o] son of Abiathar were priests; Shavsha was secretary; 17Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites;[c] and David's sons were chief officials at the king's side.

The Battle Against the Ammonites

19:1-19pp — 2Sa 10:1-19

19 In the course of time, Nahash king of the Ammonites[d] died, and his son succeeded him as king.
2David thought, "I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me." So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father.

When David's men came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites to express sympathy to him, 3the Am-monite nobles said to Hanun, "Do you think David is honoring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Haven't his men come to you to explore and spy out[f] the country and overthrow it?" 4So Hanun seized David's men, shaved them, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

5When someone came and told David about the men, he sent messengers to meet them, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back."

6When the Ammonites realized that they had become a stench[g] in David's nostrils, Hanun and the Ammonites sent a thousand talents[p] of silver to hire chariots and charioteers from Aram Naharaim,[q] Aram Maacah and Zobah.[h] 7They hired thirty-two thousand chariots and charioteers, as well as the king of Maacah with his troops, who came and camped near Medeba,[i] while the Ammonites were mustered from their towns and moved out for battle.

8On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.
9The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city, while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country.

10Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans. 11He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai[j] his brother, and they were deployed against the Ammonites. 12Joab said, "If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to rescue me; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will rescue you. 13Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight."

14Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him. 15When the Am-monites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they too fled before his brother Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab went back to Jerusalem.

16After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the River,[r] with Shophach the commander of Hadade-zer's army leading them.

17When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel[k] and crossed the Jordan; he advanced against them and formed his battle lines opposite them.
David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, and they fought against him. 18But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven thousand of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also killed Shophach the commander of their army.

19When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with David and became subject to him.

So the Arameans were not willing to help the Ammonites anymore.

The Capture of Rabbah

20 In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, Joab led out the armed forces. He laid waste the land of the Ammonites and went to Rabbah[l] and besieged it, but David remained in Jerusalem. Joab attacked Rabbah and left it in ruins.[m] 2David took the crown from the head of their king[s]—its weight was found to be a plunder from the city ³and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labor with saws and with iron picks and axes. David did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

War With the Philistines

⁴In the course of time, war broke out with the Philistines, at Gezer. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, one of the descendants of the Rephaites, and the Philistines were subjugated.

⁵In another battle with the Philistines, Elhanan son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

⁶In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot—twenty-four in all.
He also was descended from Rapha.
⁷When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimea, David's brother, killed him.

⁸These were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

David Numbers the Fighting Men

21:1-26pp — 2Sa 24:1-25

21 Satan rose up against Israel and incited David to take a census of Israel. ²So David said to Joab and the commanders of the troops, "Go and count the Israelites from Beersheba to Dan. Then report back to me so that I may know how many there are."

³But Joab replied, "May the LORD multiply his troops a hundred times over. My lord the king, are they not all my lord's subjects? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"

⁴The king's word, however, overruled Joab; so Joab left and went throughout Israel and then came back to Jerusalem. ⁵Joab reported the number of the fighting men to David: In all Israel there were one million one hundred thousand men who could handle a sword, including four hundred and seventy thousand in Judah.

⁶But Joab did not include Levi and Benjamin in the numbering, because the king's command was repulsive to him. ⁷This command was also evil in the sight of God; so he punished Israel.

⁸Then David said to God, "I have sinned greatly by doing this. Now, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing."

⁹The LORD said to Gad, David's seer, ¹⁰"Go and tell David, 'This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.' "

¹¹So Gad went to David and said to him, "This is what the LORD says: 'Take your choice: ¹²three years of famine, three months of being swept away before your enemies, with their swords overtaking you, or three days of the sword of the LORD—days of plague in the land, with the angel of the LORD ravaging every part of Israel.' Now then, decide how I should answer the one who sent me."

¹³David said to Gad, "I am in deep distress. Let me fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is very great; but do not let me fall into the hands of
men."

¹⁴So the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel fell dead. ¹⁵And God sent an angel to destroy Jerusalem. But as the angel was doing so, the LORD saw it and was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was destroying the people, "Enough! Withdraw your hand." The angel of the LORD was then standing at the threshing floor of Arau-nah the Jebusite.

¹⁶David looked up and saw the angel of the LORD standing between heaven and earth, with a drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell facedown.

¹⁷David said to God, "Was it not I who ordered the fighting men to be counted? I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? O LORD my God, let your hand fall upon me and my family, but do not let this plague remain on your people."

¹⁸Then the angel of the LORD ordered Gad to tell David to go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. ¹⁹So David went up in obedience to the word

[a]2 That is, about 75 pounds (about 34 kilograms)

[c]15 Hebrew Ornan, a variant of Araunah; also in verses 18-28 that Gad had spoken in the name of the

LORD.
[20]While Araunah was threshing wheat,[e] he turned and saw the angel;
his four sons who were with him hid themselves. [21]Then David approached, and when Araunah looked and saw him, he left the threshing floor and bowed down before David with his face to the ground.
[22]David said to him, "Let me have the site of your threshing floor so I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped.
Sell it to me at the full price." [23]Araunah said to David, "Take it!
Let my lord the king do whatever pleases him. Look, I will give the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I will give all this."
[24]But King David replied to Araunah,
"No, I insist on paying the full price. I will not take for the LORD what is yours, or sacrifice a burnt offering that costs me nothing."
[25]So David paid Araunah six hundred shekels[w] of gold for the site. [26]David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.[x] He called on the LORD, and the LORD answered him with fire[f] from heaven on the altar of burnt offering.
[27]Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put his sword back into its sheath. [28]At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there. [29]The tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the desert, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon.[g] [30]But David could not go before it to inquire of God, because he was afraid of the sword of the angel of the LORD.
22 Then David said, "The house of the LORD God[h] is to be here, and also the altar of burnt offering for Israel."

Preparations for the Temple

[2]So David gave orders to assemble the aliens[i] living in Israel, and from among them he appointed stonecutters[j] to prepare dressed stone for building the house of God. [3]He provided a large amount of iron to make nails for the doors of the gateways and for the fittings, and more bronze than could be weighed.[k] [4]He also provided more cedar logs[l] than could be counted, for the Sidonians and Tyrians had brought large numbers of them to David.
[5]David said, "My son Solomon is young[m] and inexperienced, and the house to be built for the LORD should be of great magnificence and fame and splendor[n] in the sight of all the nations. Therefore I will make preparations for it." So David made extensive preparations before his death.
[6]Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build[o] a house for the LORD, the God of Israel. [7]David said to Solomon: "My son, I had it in my heart[p] to build[q] a house for the Name[r] of the LORD my God. [8]But this word of the LORD came to me: 'You have shed much blood and have fought many wars.[s] You are not to build a house for my Name,[t] because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.
[9]But you will have a son who will be a man of peace[u] and rest,[v] and I will give him rest from all his enemies on every side. His name will be Solomon,[y][w] and I will grant Israel peace and quiet[x] during his reign. [10]He is the one who will build a house for my Name.[y] He will be my son,[z] and I will be his father. And I will establish[a] the throne of his kingdom over Israel forever.'[b]
[11]"Now, my son, the LORD be with[c] you, and may you have success and build the house of the LORD your God, as he said you would. [12]May the LORD give you discretion and understanding[d] when he puts you in command over Israel, so that you may keep the law of the LORD your God. [13]Then you will have success[e] if you are careful to observe the decrees and laws[f] that the LORD gave Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous.[g] Do not be afraid or discouraged.

ents[a] of silver, quantities of bronze and

gin the work, and the LORD be with [17]Then David ordered[m] all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon.

[18]He said to them, "Is not the LORD your God with you?[n] And has he not granted you rest on every side?[o] For he has handed the inhabitants of the land over to me, and the land is subject to the LORD and to his people. [19]Now ing to God into the temple that will be built for the Name of the LORD."

The Levites

23 [1]When David was old and full of years, he made his son Solomon[a] king over Israel.[b] [2]He also gathered together all the leaders of Israel, as well as the priests and Levites. [3]The Levites thirty years old or more[c] were counted,[d] and the total number of men was thirty-eight thousand. [4]David said, "Of these, twenty-four thousand are to supervise[e] the work[f] of the temple of the LORD and six thousand are to be officials and judges.[g] [5]Four thousand are to be gatekeepers and four thousand are to praise the LORD with the musical instruments[h] I have provided for that purpose."[i] [6]David divided[j] the Levites into groups corresponding to the sons of Levi:[k] Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Gershonites

[7]Belonging to the Gershonites:[l] Ladan and Shimei.
[8]The sons of Ladan:
Jehiel the first, Zetham and Joel—three in all.
[9]The sons of Shimei:
Shelomoth, Haziel and Haran—
three in all.
These were the heads of the families of Ladan.
[10]And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Ziza,[b] Jeush and Beriah.
These were the sons of Shimei—four in all.
[11]Jahath was the first and Ziza the second, but Jeush and Beriah did not have many sons; so they were counted as one family with one assignment.

Kohathites

[12]The sons of Kohath:[m] Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel—four in all.
[13]The sons of Amram:[n]
Aaron and Moses.
Aaron was set apart,[o] he and his descendants forever, to consecrate the most holy things, to offer sacrifices before the LORD, to minister[p] before him and to pronounce blessings[q] in his name forever. [14]The sons of Moses the man[r] of God were counted as part of the tribe of Levi.
[15]The sons of Moses:
Gershom and Eliezer.[s]
[16]The descendants of Gershom:[t] Shubael was the first.
[17]The descendants of Eliezer:
Rehabiah[u] was the first.
Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very numerous.
[18]The sons of Izhar:
Shelomith[v] was the first.
[19]The sons of Hebron:[w] Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jeka-meam the fourth.
[20]The sons of Uzziel: Micah the first and Isshiah the second.

Merarites

[21]The sons of Merari:[x]
Mahli and Mushi.[y]
The sons of Mahli:
Eleazar and Kish.
[22]Eleazar died without having sons: he had only daughters.
Their cousins, the sons of Kish, married them.[z]
[23]The sons of Mushi:
Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth—
three in all.

[24]These were the descendants of Levi by their families—the heads of families as they were registered under their names and counted individually, that is, the workers twenty years old or more[a] who served in the temple of the LORD. [25]For David had said, "Since the LORD, the God of Israel, has granted rest[b] to his people and has come to dwell in Jerusalem forever, 26the Levites no longer need to carry the tabernacle or any of the articles used in its service."[a] 27According to the last instructions of David, the Levites were counted from those twenty years old or

more.
28The duty of the Levites was to help Aaron's descendants in the service of the temple of the LORD: to be in charge of the courtyards, the side rooms, the purification[b] of all sacred things and the performance of other duties at the house of God. 29They were in charge of the bread set out on the table,[c] the flour for the grain offerings,[d] the unleavened wafers, the baking and the mixing, and all measurements of quantity and size.[e] 30They were also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They were to do the same in the evening[f] 31and whenever burnt offerings were presented to the LORD on Sabbaths and at New Moon[g] festivals and at appointed feasts.[h]
They were to serve before the LORD regularly in the proper number and in the way prescribed for them.
32And so the Levites[i] carried out their responsibilities for the Tent of Meeting,[j] for the Holy Place and, under their brothers the descendants of Aaron, for the service of the temple of
the LORD.[k]

The Divisions of Priests

24 These were the divisions[l] of the sons of Aaron:[m]
The sons of Aaron were Nadab,
Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.[n] 2But Nadab and Abihu died before their father did,[o] and they had no sons; so Eleazar and Ithamar served as the priests. 3With the help of Zadok[p] a descendant of Eleazar and Ahimelech a descendant of Ithamar, David separated them into divisions for their appointed order of ministering. 4A larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar's descendants than among Ithamar's, and they were divided accordingly: sixteen heads of families from Eleazar's descendants and eight heads of families from Ithamar's descendants. 5They divided them impartially by drawing lots,[q] for there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among the descendants of both Eleazar and Ithamar.
6The scribe Shemaiah son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded their names in the presence of the king and of the officials: Zadok the priest, Ahimelech[r] son of Abiathar and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites—one family being taken from Eleazar and then one from Ithamar.

7The first lot fell to Jehoiarib, the second to Jedaiah,[s] 8the third to Harim,[t]
the fourth to Seorim, 9the fifth to Malkijah,
the sixth to Mijamin, 10the seventh to Hakkoz,
the eighth to Abijah,[u] 11the ninth to Jeshua,
the tenth to Shecaniah, 12the eleventh to Eliashib,
the twelfth to Jakim, 13the thirteenth to Huppah,
the fourteenth to Jeshebeab, 14the fifteenth to Bilgah,
the sixteenth to Immer,[v] 15the seventeenth to Hezir,[w]
the eighteenth to Happizzez, 16the nineteenth to Pethahiah,
the twentieth to Jehezkel, 17the twenty-first to Jakin,
the twenty-second to Gamul, 18the twenty-third to Delaiah and the twenty-fourth to Maaziah.

19This was their appointed order of ministering when they entered the temple of the LORD, according to the regulations prescribed for them by their forefather Aaron, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

The Rest of the Levites

20As for the rest of the descendants of Levi:[x]
from the sons of Amram: Shubael; from the sons of Shubael: Jehdeiah.
21As for Rehabiah,[y] from his sons:
Isshiah was the first.
22From the Izharites: Shelomoth;
from the sons of Shelomoth: Jahath.
23The sons of Hebron:[z] Jeriah the first,[c] Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third and Jekameam
the fourth.
24The son of Uzziel: Micah;
from the sons of Micah: Shamir.
25The brother of Micah: Isshiah; from the sons of Isshiah: Zechariah.

28From Mahli: Eleazar, who had no
sons.
29From Kish: the son of Kish: Jerahmeel.
30And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth.

These were the Levites, according to their families. 31They also cast lots,[b] just as their brothers the descendants of Aaron did, in the presence of King David and of Zadok, Ahimelech, and the heads of families of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the oldest brother were treated the same as those of the youngest.

The Singers

25 David, together with the commanders of the army, set apart some of the sons of Asaph,[c] Heman[d] and Jeduthun[e] for the ministry of prophesying,[f] accompanied by harps, lyres and cymbals.[g] Here is the list of the men[h] who performed this service:[i]

2From the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asarelah. The sons of Asaph were under the supervision of Asaph, who prophesied under the king's supervision.
3As for Jeduthun, from his sons:[j]
Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshaiah, Shimei,[a] Hashabiah and Mattithiah, six in all, under the supervision of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied, using the harp[k] in thanking and praising the LORD.
4As for Heman, from his sons:
Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shubael and Jerimoth; Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti and Romamti-Ezer; Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. 5All these were sons of Heman the king's seer. They were given him through the promises of God to exalt him.[b] God gave Heman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6All these men were under the supervision of their fathers[l] for the music of the temple of the LORD, with cymbals, lyres and harps, for the ministry at the house of God. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman[m] were under the supervision of the king.[n] 7Along with their relatives—

The Gatekeepers

26 The divisions of the gatekeepers:[a]

From the Korahites: Meshelemiah son of Kore, one of the sons of Asaph.
2Meshelemiah had sons:
Zechariah[b] the firstborn, Jediael the second,
Zebadiah the third,
Jathniel the fourth,
3Elam the fifth,
Jehohanan the sixth
and Eliehoenai the seventh.
4Obed-Edom also had sons:
Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second,
Joah the third,
Sacar the fourth,
Nethanel the fifth,
5Ammiel the sixth,
Issachar the seventh and Peullethai the eighth.
(For God had blessed Obed-Edom.[c])

6His son Shemaiah also had sons, who were leaders in their father's family because they were very capable men. 7The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, Rephael, Obed and Elzabad; his relatives Elihu and Semakiah were also able men. 8All these were descendants of Obed-Edom; they and their sons and their relatives were capable men with the strength to do the work—descendants of Obed-Edom, 62 in all.
9Meshelemiah had sons and relatives, who were able men—18 in all.

10Hosah the Merarite had sons: Shimri the first (although he was not the firstborn, his father had appointed him the first),[d] 11Hilkiah the second, Tabaliah the third and Zechariah the fourth. The sons and relatives of Hosah were 13 in all.

12These divisions of the gatekeepers, through their chief men, had duties for ministering[e] in the temple of the LORD, just as their relatives had. 13Lots[f] were cast for each gate, according to their families, young and old alike.

14The lot for the East Gate[g] fell to Shelemiah.[*] Then lots were cast for his son Zechariah,[h] a wise counselor, and the lot for the North Gate fell to him.

Obed-Edom,[i] and the lot for the storehouse fell to his sons. 16The lots for the West Gate and the Shalleketh Gate on the upper road fell to Shuppim and Hosah.

Guard was alongside of guard: 17There were six Levites a day on the east, four a day on the north, four a day on the south and two at a time at the storehouse. 18As for the court to the west, there were four at the road and two at the court itself.

19These were the divisions of the gatekeepers who were descendants of Korah and Merari.[j]

The Treasurers and Other Officials

20Their fellow Levites[k] were[b] in charge of the treasuries of the house of God and the treasuries for the dedicated things.[l]

21The descendants of Ladan, who were Gershonites through Ladan and who were heads of families belonging to Ladan the Gershonite,[m] were Jehieli, 22the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries[n] of the temple of the LORD.
23From the Amramites, the Izharites, the Hebronites and the Uzzielites:[o]

24Shubael,[p] a descendant of Gershom son of Moses, was the officer in charge of the treasuries.
25His relatives through Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, Jeshaiah his son, Joram his son, Zicri his son and Shelomith[q] his son.
26Shelomith and his relatives were in charge of all the treasuries for the things dedicated[r] by King David, by the heads of families who were the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and by the other army commanders.
27Some of the plunder taken in battle they dedicated for the repair of the temple of the LORD.
28And everything dedicated by Samuel the seer[s] and by Saul son of Kish, Abner son of Ner and Joab son of Zeruiah, and all the other dedicated things were in the care of Shelomith and his relatives.

29From the Izharites: Kenaniah and his sons were assigned duties away from the temple, as officials and judges[a] over Israel.

30From the Hebronites: Hashabiah[b] and his relatives—seventeen hundred able men—were responsible in Israel west of the Jordan for all the work of the LORD and for the king's service.
31As for the Hebronites,[c] Jeriah was their chief according to the genealogical records of their families. In the fortieth[d] year of David's reign a search was made in the records, and capable men among the Hebronites were found at Jazer in Gilead. 32Jeriah had twenty-seven hundred relatives, who were able men and heads of families, and King David put them in charge of the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh for every matter pertaining to God and for the affairs of the king.

Army Divisions

27 This is the list of the Israelites—heads of families, commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and their officers, who served the king in all that concerned the army divisions that were on duty month by month throughout the year. Each division consisted of 24,000 men.

2In charge of the first division, for the first month, was Jashobeam[e] son of Zabdiel. There were 24,000 men in his division. 3He was a descendant of Perez and chief of all the army officers for the first month.
4In charge of the division for the second month was Dodai[f] the Aho-hite; Mikloth was the leader of his division. There were 24,000 men in his division.
5The third army commander, for the third month, was Benaiah[g] son of Jehoiada the priest. He was chief and there were 24,000 men in his division. 6This was the Benaiah who was a mighty man among the Thirty and was over the Thirty. His son Ammizabad was in charge of his division.
7The fourth, for the fourth month, was Asahel[h] the brother of Joab; his son Zebadiah was his successor.
There were 24,000 men in his division.

15The twelfth, for the twelfth month, was Heldai[p] the Netophathite, from the family of Othniel.[q]
There were 24,000 men in his
division.

Officers of the Tribes

16The officers over the tribes of Israel:

over the Reubenites: Eliezer son of Zicri;
over the Simeonites: Shephatiah
son of Maacah;
17over Levi: Hashabiah[r] son of Kemuel;
over Aaron: Zadok;[s] 18over Judah: Elihu, a brother of David;
over Issachar: Omri son of Michael;
19over Zebulun: Ishmaiah son of Obadiah;
over Naphtali: Jerimoth son of Azriel;
20over the Ephraimites: Hoshea son of Azaziah;
over half the tribe of Manasseh:
Joel son of Pedaiah; 21over the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead: Iddo son of Zechariah; over Benjamin: Jaasiel son of Abner;
22over Dan: Azarel son of Jeroham.

These were the officers over the tribes of Israel.

23David did not take the number of the men twenty years old or less,[a] because the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars[b] in the sky. 24Joab son of Zeruiah began to count the men but did not finish.
Wrath came on Israel on account of this numbering,[c] and the number was not entered in the book[a] of the annals of King David.

The King's Overseers

25Azmaveth son of Adiel was in charge of the royal storehouses.
Jonathan son of Uzziah was in charge of the storehouses in the outlying districts, in the towns, the villages and the watchtowers.
26Ezri son of Kelub was in charge of the field workers who farmed the land.
27Shimei the Ramathite was in charge of the vineyards.
Zabdi the Shiphmite was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine vats.
28Baal-Hanan the Gederite was in charge of the olive and sycamore-fig[d] trees in the western foothills.
Joash was in charge of the supplies of olive oil.
29Shitrai the Sharonite was in charge of the herds grazing in Sharon.[e] Shaphat son of Adlai was in charge of the herds in the valleys.
30Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels.
Jehdeiah the Meronothite was in charge of the donkeys.
31Jaziz the Hagrite[f] was in charge of the flocks.
All these were the officials in charge of King David's property.

32Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of insight and a scribe. Jehiel son of Hacmoni took care of the king's sons.
33Ahithophel[g] was the king's counselor.
Hushai[h] the Arkite was the king's friend. 34Ahithophel was succeeded by Jehoiada son of Benaiah and by Abiathar.[i] Joab[j] was the commander of the royal army.

David's Plans for the Temple

28 David summoned[k] all the officials[l] of Israel to assemble at Jerusalem: the officers over the tribes, the commanders of the divisions in the service of the king, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials in charge of all the property and livestock belonging to the king and his sons, together with the palace officials, the mighty men and all the brave warriors.

2King David rose to his feet and said:
"Listen to me, my brothers and my people. I had it in my heart[m] to build a house as a place of rest[n] for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, for the foot-stool[o] of our God, and I made plans to build it.[p] 3But God said to me,[q] 'You are not to build a house for my Name,[r] because you are a warrior and have shed blood.'[s]

4"Yet the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me[t] from my whole family[u] to be king over Israel forever. He chose Judah[v] as leader, and from the house of Judah he chose my family, and from my father's sons he was pleased to make me king over all Israel.[w] 5Of all my sons—and the LORD has given me many[x]—he has chosen my son Solomon[y] to sit on the throne[z] of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. 6He said to me: 'Solomon your son is the one who will build[a] my house and my courts, for I have chosen him to be my son,[b] and I will be his father. 7I will establish his kingdom forever if he is unswerving in carrying out my commands and laws,[c] as is being done at this time.'[d]

8"So now I charge you in the sight of all Israel[e] and of the assembly of the LORD, and in the hearing of our God: Be careful to follow all the commands[f] of the LORD your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants forever.[g]

9"And you, my son Solomon, acknowledge the God of your father, and serve him with wholehearted devotion[g] and with a willing mind, for the LORD searches every heart[h] and understands every motive behind the thoughts. If you seek him,[i] he will be found by you; but if you forsake[j] him, he will reject[k] you forever. 10Consider now, for the LORD has chosen you to build a temple as a sanctuary. Be strong and do the work."[l]

11Then David gave his son Solomon the plans[m] for the portico of the temple, its buildings, its storerooms, its upper parts, its inner rooms and the place of atonement. 12 He gave him the plans of all that the Spirit[a] had put in his mind for the courts of the temple of the LORD and all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the temple of God and for the treasuries for the dedicated things.[b] 13 He gave him instructions for the divisions[c] of the priests and Levites, and for all the work of serving in the temple of the LORD, as well as for all the articles to be used in its service. 14 He designated the weight of gold for all the gold articles to be used in various kinds of service, and the weight of silver for all the silver articles to be used in various kinds of service: 15 the weight of gold for the gold lampstands[d] and their lamps, with the weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and the weight of silver for each silver lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand; 16 the weight of gold for each table[e] for consecrated bread; the weight of silver for the silver tables; 17 the weight of pure gold for the forks, sprinkling bowls[f] and pitchers; the weight of gold for each gold dish; the weight of silver for each silver dish; 18 and the weight of the refined gold for the altar of incense.[g]

He also gave him the plan for the chariot,[h] that is, the cherubim of gold that spread their wings and shelter[i] the ark of the covenant of the LORD.

19 "All this," David said, "I have in writing from the hand of the LORD upon me, and he gave me understanding in all the details[j] of the plan.[k]"

20 David also said to Solomon his son,
"Be strong and courageous,[l] and do the work. Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not fail you or forsake[m] you until all the work for the service of the temple of the LORD is finished.[n] 21 The divisions of the priests and Levites are ready for all the work on the temple of God, and every willing man skilled[o] in any craft will help you in all the work. The officials and all the people will obey your every command."

Gifts for Building the Temple

29 Then King David said to the whole assembly: "My son Solomon, the one whom God has chosen, is young and inexperienced.[p] The task is great, because this palatial structure is not for man but for the LORD God.
2 With all my resources I have provided for the temple of my God—gold[q] for the gold work, silver for the silver, bronze for the bronze, iron for the iron and wood for the wood, as well as onyx for the settings, turquoise,[a][r] stones of various colors, and all kinds of fine stone and marble—all of these in large quantities.[s] 3 Besides, in my devotion to the temple of my God I now give my personal treasures of gold and silver for the temple of my God, over and above everything I have provided[t] for this holy temple: 4 three thousand talents[o] of gold (gold of Ophir)[u] and seven thousand talents[p] of refined silver,[v] for the overlaying of the walls of the buildings, 5 for the gold work and the silver work, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now, who is willing to consecrate himself today to
the LORD?"

6 Then the leaders of families, the officers of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, and the officials[w] in charge of the king's work gave willingly.[x] 7 They[y] gave toward the work on the temple of God five thousand talents[q] and ten thousand darics[r] of gold, ten thousand talents[s] of silver, eighteen thousand talents[t] of bronze and a hundred thousand talents[u] of iron. 8 Any who had precious stones[z] gave them to the treasury of the temple of the LORD in the custody of Jehiel the Gershonite.[a] 9 The people rejoiced at the willing response of their leaders, for they had given freely and wholeheartedly[b] to the LORD. David the king also rejoiced greatly.

David's Prayer

10 David praised the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly, saying,

"Praise be to you, O LORD, God of our father Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
11 Yours, O LORD, is the greatness and the power[c]
and the glory and the majesty and
the splendor,
for everything in heaven and earth is yours.[d]
Yours, O LORD, is the kingdom;
you are exalted as head over all.[e]

you. 19And give my son Solomon the wholehearted devotion[i] to keep your commands, requirements and decrees[j] and to do everything to build the palatial structure for which I have provided."[k]

20Then David said to the whole assembly, "Praise the LORD your God." So they all praised the LORD, the God of their fathers; they bowed low and fell prostrate before the LORD and the king.

Solomon Acknowledged as King

29:21-25pp — 1Ki 1:28-53

21The next day they made sacrifices to the LORD and presented burnt offerings to him:[l] a thousand bulls, a thousand rams and a thousand male lambs, together with their drink offerings, and other sacrifices in abundance for all Israel.[m] 22They ate and drank with great joy[n] in the presence of the LORD that
day.

Then they acknowledged Solomon son of David as king a second time, anointing him before the LORD to be ruler and Zadok[o] to be priest. 23So Solomon sat[p] on the throne[q] of the LORD as king in place of his father David. He prospered and all Israel obeyed him.
24All the officers and mighty men, as well as all of King David's sons,[r] pledged their submission to King Solomon.

25The LORD highly exalted[s] Solomon in the sight of all Israel and bestowed on him royal splendor[t] such as no king over Israel ever had before.[u]

The Death of David

29:26-28pp — 1Ki 2:10-12

26David son of Jesse was king[v] over all Israel.[w] 27He ruled over Israel forty years—seven in Hebron[x] and thirty-three in Jerusalem.[y] 28He died[z] at a good old age, having enjoyed long life, wealth and honor. His son Solomon succeeded him as king.[a] 29As for the events of King David's reign, from beginning to end, they are written in the records of Samuel the seer,[b] the records of Nathan[c] the prophet and the records of Gad[d] the seer, 30together with the details of his reign and power, and the circumstances that surrounded him and Israel and the kingdoms of all the other lands.

Solomon Asks for Wisdom

1:2-13pp — 1Ki 3:4-15
1:14-17pp — 1Ki 10:26-29; 2Ch 9:25-28

1 Solomon son of David established[a] himself firmly over his kingdom, for the LORD his God was with[b] him and made him exceedingly great.[c] 2Then Solomon spoke to all Israel[d]—to the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds, to the judges and to all the leaders in Israel, the heads of families— 3and Solomon and the whole assembly went to the high place at Gibeon,[e] for God's Tent of Meeting[f] was there, which Moses[g] the LORD's servant had made in the desert. 4Now David had brought up the ark[h] of God from Kiriath Jearim to the place he had prepared for it, because he had pitched a tent[i] for it in Jerusalem. 5But the bronze altar[j] that Bezalel[k] son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was in Gibeon in front of the tabernacle of the LORD; so Solomon and the assembly inquired[l] of him there.
6Solomon went up to the bronze altar before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting and offered a thousand burnt offerings
on it.
7That night God appeared[m] to Solomon and said to him, "Ask for whatever you want me to give you." 8Solomon answered God, "You have shown great kindness to David my father and have made me[n] king in his place. 9Now, LORD God, let your promise[o] to my father David be confirmed, for you have made me king over a people who are as numerous as the dust of the earth.[p] 10Give me wisdom and knowledge, that I may lead[q] this people, for who is able to govern this great people of yours?" 11God said to Solomon, "Since this is your heart's desire and you have not asked for wealth,[r] riches or honor, nor for the death of your enemies, and since you have not asked for a long life but for wisdom and knowledge to govern my people over whom I have made you king, 12therefore wisdom and knowledge will be given you. And I will also give you wealth, riches and honor,[s] such as no king who was before you ever had and none after you will have.[t]" 13Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting. And he reigned over Israel.
14Solomon accumulated chariots[u]
and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses,[a] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. 15The king made silver and gold[v] as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. 16Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt[b] and from Kue[c]—the royal merchants purchased them from Kue. 17They imported a chariot[w] from Egypt for six hundred shekels[d] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty.[e] They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

Preparations for Building the Temple

2:1-18pp — 1Ki 5:1-16

2 Solomon gave orders to build a temple[x] for the Name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.[y] 2He conscripted seventy thousand men as carriers and eighty thousand as stone-cutters in the hills and thirty-six hundred as foremen over them.[z] 3Solomon sent this message to Hiram[f][a] king of Tyre:

"Send me cedar logs[b] as you did for my father David when you sent him cedar to build a palace to live in. 4Now I am about to build a temple[c] for the Name of the LORD my God and to dedicate it to him for 11Hiram king of Tyre replied by letter to Solomon:

"Because the LORD loves[l] his people, he has made you their king."

12And Hiram added:

"Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who made heaven and earth![m] He has given King David a wise son, endowed with intelligence and discernment, who will build a temple for the LORD and a palace for himself.
13"I am sending you Huram-Abi,[n] a man of great skill, 14whose mother was from Dan[o] and whose father was from Tyre. He is trained[p] to work in gold and silver, bronze and iron, stone and wood,
and with purple and blue[q] and crimson yarn and fine linen. He is experienced in all kinds of engraving and can execute any design given to him. He will work with your craftsmen and with those of my lord, David your father.
15"Now let my lord send his servants the wheat and barley and the olive oil[r] and wine he promised, 16and we will cut all the logs from Lebanon that you need and will float them in rafts by sea down to Joppa.[s] You can then take them up to Jerusalem."

17Solomon took a census of all the aliens[t] who were in Israel, after the census[u] his father David had taken;
and they were found to be 153,600.
18He assigned[v] 70,000 of them to be carriers and 80,000 to be stonecutters in the hills, with 3,600 foremen over them to keep the people working.

Solomon Builds the Temple

3:1-14pp — 1Ki 6:1-29

3 Then Solomon began to build[w] the temple of the LORD[x] in Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David. It was on the threshing floor of Araunah[j][y] the Jebusite, the place provided by David.
2He began building on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.[z] 3The foundation Solomon laid for building the temple of God was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide[k][a] (using the cubit of the old standard).
4The portico at the front of the temple was twenty cubits[l] long across the width of the building and twenty cubits[m] high.
He overlaid the inside with pure gold. 5He paneled the main hall with pine and covered it with fine gold and decorated it with palm tree[b] and chain designs. 6He adorned the temple with precious stones. And the gold he used was gold of Parvaim. 7He overlaid the ceiling beams, doorframes, walls and doors of the temple with gold, and he carved cherubim[c] on the walls.
8He built the Most Holy Place,[d] its length corresponding to the width of twenty cubits wide. He overlaid the inside with six hundred talents[n] of fine gold. 9The gold nails[a] weighed fifty shekels.[o] He also overlaid the upper parts with gold.

10In the Most Holy Place he made a pair[b] of sculptured cherubim and overlaid them with gold. 11The total wing-span of the cherubim was twenty cubits. One wing of the first cherub was five cubits[p] long and touched the temple wall, while its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the other cherub. 12Similarly one wing of the second cherub was five cubits long and touched the other temple wall, and its other wing, also five cubits long, touched the wing of the first cherub.
13The wings of these cherubim[c] extended twenty cubits. They stood on their feet, facing the main hall.[q] 14He made the curtain[d] of blue, purple and crimson yarn and fine linen, with cherubim[e] worked into it.
15In the front of the temple he made two pillars,[f] which ⌞together⌟ were thirty-five cubits[r] long, each with a capital[g] on top measuring five cubits.
16He made interwoven chains[s][h] and put them on top of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates[i] and attached them to the chains. 17He erected the pillars in the front of the temple, one to the south and one to the north.
The one to the south he named Jakin[t]
and the one to the north Boaz.[u]

The Temple's Furnishings

4:2-6,10–5:1pp — 1Ki 7:23-26,38-51

4 He made a bronze altar[j] twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high.[v] 2He made the Sea[k] of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits[w] high. It took a line of thirty cubits[x] to measure around it. 3Below the rim, figures of bulls encircled it—ten to a cubit.[y] The bulls were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.
4The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east.[l]
The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were toward the center. 5It was a handbreadth[z] in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held three thousand baths.[a] 6He then made ten basins[m] for washing and placed five on the south side and five on the north. In them the things to be used for the burnt offerings[n] were rinsed, but the Sea was to be used by the priests for washing.

7He made ten gold lampstands[o] according to the specifications[p] for them and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north.
8He made ten tables[q] and placed them in the temple, five on the south side and five on the north. He also made a hundred gold sprinkling bowls.[r] 9He made the courtyard[s] of the priests, and the large court and the doors for the court, and overlaid the doors with bronze. 10He placed the Sea on the south side, at the southeast corner.
11He also made the pots and shovels and sprinkling bowls.
So Huram finished[t] the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of God:

12the two pillars;
the two bowl-shaped capitals on
top of the pillars;
the two sets of network decorating
the two bowl-shaped capitals on
top of the pillars;
13the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);
14the stands[u] with their basins; 15the Sea and the twelve bulls under
it;
16the pots, shovels, meat forks and all related articles.

All the objects that Huram-Abi[v] made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of polished bronze.
17The king had them cast in clay molds in the plain of the Jordan between Suc-coth[w] and Zarethan.[b] 18All these things that Solomon made amounted to so much that the weight of the bronze[a] was not determined.

19Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in God's temple:

the golden altar;
the tables[b] on which was the bread of the Presence; 20the lampstands[c] of pure gold with their lamps, to burn in front of the inner sanctuary as prescribed; 21the gold floral work and lamps and tongs (they were solid gold); 22the pure gold wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes[d] and censers;[e] and the gold doors of the temple: the inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the main hall.

5 When all the work Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished,[f] he brought in the things his father David had dedicated[g]—the silver and gold and all the furnishings—and he placed them in the treasuries of God's temple.

The Ark Brought to the Temple

5:2–6:11pp — 1Ki 8:1-21

2Then Solomon summoned to Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark[h] of the LORD's covenant from Zion, the City of David. 3And all the men of Israel[i] came together to the king at the time of the festival in the seventh month.
4When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the Levites took up the ark, 5and they brought up the ark and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests, who were Levites,[j] carried them up; 6and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.
7The priests then brought the ark[k] of the LORD's covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim. 8The cher-ubim[l] spread their wings over the place of the ark and covered the ark and its carrying poles. 9These poles were so long that their ends, extending from the ark, could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today. 10There was nothing in the ark except[m] the two tablets[n]
that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.
11The priests then withdrew from the Holy Place. All the priests who were there had consecrated themselves, regardless of their divisions.[o] 12All the Levites who were musicians[p]—Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun and their sons and relatives—stood on the east side of the altar, dressed in fine linen and playing cymbals, harps and lyres. They were accompanied by 120 priests sounding trumpets.[q] 13The trumpeters and singers joined in unison, as with one voice, to give praise and thanks to the LORD.
Accompanied by trumpets, cymbals and other instruments, they raised their voices in praise to the LORD and sang:

"He is good;
his love endures forever."[r]

Then the temple of the LORD was filled with a cloud,[s] 14and the priests could not perform[t] their service because of the cloud,[u] for the glory[v] of the LORD filled the temple of God.

6 Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;[w] 2I have built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell forever.[x]" 3While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned around and blessed them. 4Then he
said:

"Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his hands has fulfilled what he promised with his mouth to my father David. For he said, 5'Since the day I brought my people out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, nor have I chosen anyone to be the leader over my people Israel. 6But now I have chosen Jerusalem[y] for my Name[z] to be there, and I have chosen David[a] to rule my people Israel.' 7"My father David had it in his heart[b] to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel. 8But the LORD said to my father David, 'Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart. 9Nevertheless, you are promised, and I have built the tem-

people of Israel."

Solomon's Prayer of Dedication

6:12-40pp — 1Ki 8:22-53
6:41-42pp — Ps 132:8-10

12Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands. 13Now he had made a bronze platform,[b] five cubits[c] long, five cubits wide and three cubits[d] high, and had placed it in the center of the outer court. He stood on the platform and then knelt down[c] before the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven. 14He said:

"O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you[d] in heaven or on earth—you who keep your covenant of love[e] with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way. 15You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised[f] and with your hand you have fulfilled it—as it is today.
16"Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said, 'You shall never fail[g] to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me according to my law,[h] as you have done.' 17And now, O LORD, God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David come true.
18"But will God really dwell[i] on earth with men? The heavens,[j] even the highest heavens, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built! 19Yet give attention to your servant's prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence. 20May your eyes[k] be open toward this temple day and night, this place of which you said you would put your Name[l] there.
May you hear[m] the prayer your servant prays toward this place.
21Hear the supplications of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray toward this place.
Hear from heaven, your dwelling place; and when you hear, forgive.[n] 22"When a man wrongs his neighbor and is required to take an oath[o] and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple, 23then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, repaying[p] the guilty by bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty and so establish his innocence.
24"When your people Israel have been defeated[q] by an enemy because they have sinned against you and when they turn back and confess your name, praying and making supplication before you in this temple, 25then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to them and their fathers.
26"When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain[r] because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray toward this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them, 27then hear from heaven and forgive[s] the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.
28"When famine[t] or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when enemies besiege them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come, 29and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel—each one aware of his afflictions and pains, and spreading out his hands toward this temple— 30then hear from heaven, your dwelling place.
Forgive,[u] and deal with each man

according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of men),[a] 31so that they will fear you[b] and walk in your ways all the time they live in the land you gave our fathers.
32"As for the foreigner who does all the peoples of the earth may they have a change of heart[j] in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their captivity and say,

'We have sinned, we have done wrong and acted wickedly'; 38and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their captivity where they were taken, and pray toward the land you gave their fathers, toward the city you have chosen and toward the temple I have built for your Name; 39then from heaven, your dwelling place, hear their prayer and their pleas, and uphold their cause. And forgive[k] your people, who have sinned against you.
40"Now, my God, may your eyes be open and your ears attentive[l] to the prayers offered in this place.

41"Now arise,[m] O LORD God, and come to your resting place,[n]
you and the ark of your might.
May your priests,[o] O LORD God,
be clothed with salvation,
may your saints rejoice in your goodness.[p] 42O LORD God, do not reject your anointed one.[q]
Remember the great love[r] promised to David your servant."

The Dedication of the Temple

7:1-10pp — 1Ki 8:62-66

7 When Solomon finished praying, fire[s] came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled[t] the temple.[u] 2The priests could not enter[v] the temple of the LORD because the glory[w] of the LORD filled it.
3When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the LORD above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshiped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying,

"He is good;
his love endures forever."[x]

4Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD. 5And King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the people dedicated the temple of God. 6The priests took their positions, as did the Levites[y] with the LORD's musical instruments,[z] which King David had made for praising the LORD and which were used when he gave thanks, saying, "His love endures forever." Opposite the Levites, the priests blew their trumpets, and all the Israelites were standing.
7Solomon consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings and the fat[a] of the fellowship offerings,[e] because the bronze altar he had made could not hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat portions.
8So Solomon observed the festival[b] at that time for seven days, and all Israel[c] with him—a vast assembly, people from Lebo[f] Hamath[d] to the Wadi of Egypt.[e] 9On the eighth day they held an assembly, for they had celebrated[f] the dedication of the altar

The LORD Appears to Solomon

7:11-22pp — 1Ki 9:1-9

11When Solomon had finished[b] the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had succeeded in carrying out all he had in mind to do in the temple of the LORD and in his own palace, 12the LORD appeared[c] to him at night and
said:

"I have heard your prayer and have chosen[d] this place for myself[e] as a temple for sacrifices.
13"When I shut up the heavens so that there is no rain,[f] or command locusts to devour the land or send a plague among my people, 14if my people, who are called by my name,[g] will humble[h] themselves and pray and seek my face[i]
and turn[j] from their wicked ways, then will I hear[k] from heaven and will forgive[l] their sin and will heal[m] their land. 15Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to the prayers offered in this place.[n] 16I have chosen[o] and consecrated this temple so that my Name may be there forever. My eyes and my heart will always be
there.
17"As for you, if you walk before me[p] as David your father did, and do all I command, and observe my decrees[q] and laws, 18I will establish your royal throne, as I covenanted[r] with David your father when I said, 'You shall never fail to have a man[s] to rule over Israel.'[t] 19"But if you[g] turn away[u] and forsake[v] the decrees and commands I have given you[g] and go off to serve other gods and worship them, 20then I will uproot[w] Israel from my land,[x] which I have given them, and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. I will make it a byword and an object of ridicule[y] among all peoples.
21And though this temple is now so imposing, all who pass by will be appalled[z] and say,[a] 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?' 22People will answer, 'Because they have forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshiping and serving them[b]—that is why he brought all this disaster on them.'"

Solomon's Other Activities

8:1-18pp — 1Ki 9:10-28

8 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built the temple of the LORD and his own palace,[c] 2Solo-mon rebuilt the villages that Hiram[h] had given him, and settled Israelites in them. 3Solomon then went to Hamath Zobah and captured it. 4He also built up Tadmor in the desert and all the store cities he had built in Hamath.[d] 5He rebuilt Upper Beth Horon[e] and Lower Beth Horon as fortified cities, with walls and with gates and bars, 6as
well as Baalath[f] and all his store cities, and all the cities for his chariots and for his horses[i]—whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.
7All the people left from the Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebu-sites[g] (these peoples were not Israelites), 8that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites had not destroyed—these Solomon conscripted[h] for his slave labor force, as it is to this day. 9But Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work; they were his fighting men, commanders of his captains, and commanders of his chariots and chari-oteers. 10They were also King Solomon's chief officials—two hundred and fifty officials supervising the men.
11Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter[i] up from the City of David to the palace he had built for her, for he said,
"My wife must not live in the palace of David king of Israel, because the places the ark of the LORD has entered are holy."
12On the altar[j] of the LORD that he had built in front of the portico, Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD, 13according to the daily requirement[k] for offerings commanded by Moses for Sabbaths,[l] New Moons[m] and the three[n] annual feasts—the Feast of Unleavened Bread,[o] the Feast of Weeks[p] and the Feast of Tabernacles.[q]

father David, he appointed the divisions[a] of the priests for their duties, and the Levites[b] to lead the praise and to assist the priests according to each day's requirement. He also appointed the gatekeepers[c] by divisions for the various gates, because this was what David the man of God[d] had ordered.[e] 15 They did not deviate from the king's commands to the priests or to the Levites in any matter, including that of the treasuries.
16 All Solomon's work was carried out, from the day the foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid until its completion. So the temple of the LORD was finished.
17 Then Solomon went to Ezion Geber and Elath on the coast of Edom. 18 And Hiram sent him ships commanded by his own officers, men who knew the sea. These, with Solomon's men, sailed to Ophir and brought back four hundred and fifty talents[j] of gold,[f] which they delivered to King Solomon.

The Queen of Sheba Visits Solomon

9:1-12pp — 1Ki 10:1-13

9 When the queen of Sheba[g] heard of Solomon's fame, she came to Jerusalem to test him with hard questions. Arriving with a very great caravan—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all she had on her mind. 2 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for him to explain to her. 3 When the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon,[h] as well as the palace he had built, 4 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, the cupbearers in their robes and the burnt offerings he made at[k] the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.
5 She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.
6 But I did not believe what they said until I came[i] and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half the greatness of your wisdom was told me; you have far exceeded the report I heard.
7 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom! 8 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on his throne[j] as king to rule for the LORD your God. Because of the love of your God for Israel and his desire to uphold them forever, he has made you king[k] over them, to maintain justice and righteousness." 9 Then she gave the king 120 talents[l] of gold,[l] large quantities of spices, and precious stones. There had never been such spices as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.
10 (The men of Hiram and the men of Solomon brought gold from Ophir;[m] they also brought algumwood[m] and precious stones. 11 The king used the algumwood to make steps for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. Nothing like them had ever been seen in Judah.) 12 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for; he gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

Solomon's Splendor

9:13-28pp — 1Ki 10:14-29; 2Ch 1:14-17

13 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,[n] 14 not including the revenues brought in by merchants and traders. Also all the kings of Arabia[n] and the governors of the land brought gold and silver to Solomon.
15 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas[o] of hammered gold went into each shield. 16 He also made three hundred small shields[o] of hammered gold, with three hundred bekas[p] of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.[p]
17 Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory[q] and overlaid with pure gold. 18 The throne had six steps, and a footstool of gold was attached to
it. On both sides of the seat were arm-rests, with a lion standing beside each of them. 19 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step.
Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom. 20 All King Solomon's goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold.

Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon's day. 21The king had a fleet of trading ships[q] manned by Hiram's[r] men. Once every three years it returned, carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

22King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.[a] 23All the kings[b] of the earth sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart. 24Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift[c]—articles of silver and gold, and robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

25Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots,[d] and twelve thousand horses,[s] which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem. 26He ruled[e] over all the kings from the River[t][f] to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt.[g] 27The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. 28Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt[u] and from all other countries.

Solomon's Death

29As for the other events of Solomon's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Nathan[h] the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah[i] the Shilonite and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam[j] son of Nebat? 30Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. 31Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David[k] his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

Israel Rebels Against Rehoboam

10 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king. 2When Jeroboam[l] son of Nebat heard this (he was in Egypt, where he had fled[m] from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt. 3So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and all Israel[n] went to Rehoboam and said to him: 4"Your father put a heavy yoke on us,[o] but now lighten the harsh labor and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you."

5Rehoboam answered, "Come back to me in three days." So the people went away.

6Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders[p] who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. "How would you advise me to answer these people?" he asked.

7They replied, "If you will be kind to these people and please them and give them a favorable answer,[q] they will always be your servants."

8But Rehoboam rejected[r] the advice the elders[s] gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him. 9He asked them, "What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me, 'Lighten the yoke your father put on us'?"

10The young men who had grown up with him replied, "Tell the people who have said to you, 'Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter'—tell them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. 11My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.' "

12Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, "Come back to me in three days." 13The king answered them harshly. Rejecting the advice of the elders, 14he followed the advice of the young men and said, "My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions." 15So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from God,[t] to fulfill the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.[u]

16When all Israel[v] saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king:

"What share do we have in David,[w] what part in Jesse's son?
To your tents, O Israel!
 Look after your own house,
 O David!"

So all the Israelites went home. 17But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

18King Rehoboam sent out Adoni-ram,[v][a] who was in charge of forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem. 19So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

11 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem,[b] he mustered the house of Judah and Benjamin—a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men—to make war against Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam.
2But this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah[c] the man of God: 3"Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah and to all the Israelites in Judah and Benjamin, 4'This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers.[d] Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.' " So they obeyed the words of the LORD and turned back from marching against Jeroboam.

Rehoboam Fortifies Judah

5Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built up towns for defense in Judah: 6Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa, 7Beth Zur, Soco, Adullam, 8Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, 9Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, 10Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. These were fortified cities[e] in Judah and Benjamin. 11He strengthened their defenses and put commanders in them, with supplies of food, olive oil and wine. 12He put shields and spears in all the cities, and made them very strong.
So Judah and Benjamin were his.
13The priests and Levites from all their districts throughout Israel sided with him. 14The Levites[f] even abandoned their pasturelands and property,[g] and came to Judah and Jerusalem because Jeroboam and his sons had rejected them as priests of the LORD.
15And he appointed[h] his own priests[i] for the high places and for the goat[j] and calf[k] idols he had made. 16Those from every tribe of Israel[l] who set their hearts on seeking the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their fathers. 17They strengthened[m] the kingdom of Judah and supported Rehoboam son of Solomon three years, walking in the ways of David and Solomon during this time.

Rehoboam's Family

18Rehoboam married Mahalath, who was the daughter of David's son Jerimoth and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab. 19She bore him sons:
Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. 20Then he married Maacah[n] daughter of Absalom, who bore him Abijah,[o] Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. 21Rehoboam loved Maacah daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. In all, he had eighteen wives[p] and sixty concubines, twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.
22Rehoboam appointed Abijah[q] son of Maacah to be the chief prince among his brothers, in order to make him king. 23He acted wisely, dispersing some of his sons throughout the districts of Judah and Benjamin, and to all the fortified cities. He gave them abundant provisions[r] and took many wives
for them.

Shishak Attacks Jerusalem

12:9-16pp — 1Ki 14:21, 25-31

12 After Rehoboam's position as king was established[s] and he had become strong,[t] he and all Israel[w][u] with him abandoned[v] the law of the LORD. 2Because they had been unfaithful[w] to the LORD, Shishak[x] king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam. 3With twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen and the innumerable troops of Libyans,[y] Sukkites and Cushites[x][z] that came with him from Egypt, 4he captured the fortified cities[a] of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem.
5Then the prophet Shemaiah[b] came to Rehoboam and to the leaders of Judah who had assembled in Jerusalem for fear of Shishak, and he said to them, "This is what the LORD says,
'You have abandoned me; therefore, I now abandon[c] you to Shishak.' " 6The leaders of Israel and the king humbled[d] themselves and said, "The LORD is just."[e] 7When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, this word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: "Since they have humbled themselves, I will not destroy them but will soon give them deliverance.[f] My wrath[g] will not be poured out on Jerusalem through Shishak.
8They will, however, become subject[h] to him, so that they may learn the difference between serving me and serving the kings of other lands."

treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including the gold shields[a] Solomon had made. [10]So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.
[11]Whenever the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards went with him, bearing the shields, and afterward they returned them to the guardroom.

[12]Because Rehoboam humbled[b] himself, the LORD's anger turned from him, and he was not totally destroyed. Indeed, there was some good[c] in Judah.

[13]King Rehoboam established[d] himself firmly in Jerusalem and continued as king. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name.[e] His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite. [14]He did evil because he had not set his heart on seeking the LORD.

[15]As for the events of Rehoboam's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the records of Shemaiah[f] the prophet and of Iddo the seer that deal with genealogies? There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. [16]Rehoboam[g] rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Abijah[h] his son succeeded him as king.

Abijah King of Judah

13:1-2,22–14:1pp — 1Ki 15:1-2,6-8

13 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam, Abijah became king of Judah, [2]and he reigned in Jerusalem three years. His mother's name was Maacah,[y][i] a daughter[z] of Uriel of Gibeah.

There was war between Abijah[j] and Jeroboam.[k] [3]Abijah went into battle with a force of four hundred thousand able fighting men, and Jeroboam drew up a battle line against him with eight hundred thousand able troops.

[4]Abijah stood on Mount Zemaraim,[l] in the hill country of Ephraim, and said, "Jeroboam and all Israel,[m] listen to me! [5]Don't you know that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the kingship of Israel to David and his descendants forever[n] by a covenant of salt?[o] [6]Yet Jeroboam son of Nebat, an official of Solomon son of David, rebelled[p] against his master. [7]Some worthless scoundrels[q] gathered around him and opposed Rehoboam son of Solomon when he was young and indecisive[r] and not strong enough to resist them.

[8]"And now you plan to resist the kingdom of the LORD, which is in the hands of David's descendants.[s] You are indeed a vast army and have with you[t] the golden calves[u] that Jeroboam made to be your gods. [9]But didn't you drive out the priests[v] of the LORD,[w] the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and make priests of your own as the peoples of other lands do? Whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull[x] and seven rams[y] may become a priest of what are not gods.[z]

[10]"As for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him. The priests who serve the LORD are sons of Aaron, and the Levites assist them.
[11]Every morning and evening[a] they present burnt offerings and fragrant incense[b] to the LORD. They set out the bread on the ceremonially clean table[c]
and light the lamps[d] on the gold lamp-stand every evening. We are observing the requirements of the LORD our God.
But you have forsaken him. [12]God is with us; he is our leader. His priests with their trumpets will sound the battle cry against you.[e] Men of Israel, do not fight against the LORD,[f] the God of your fathers, for you will not succeed."[g]

[13]Now Jeroboam had sent troops around to the rear, so that while he was in front of Judah the ambush[h] was behind them. [14]Judah turned and saw that they were being attacked at both front and rear. Then they cried out[i] to the LORD. The priests blew their trumpets [15]and the men of Judah raised the battle cry. At the sound of their battle cry, God routed Jeroboam and all Israel[j] before Abijah and Judah. [16]The Israelites fled before Judah, and God delivered[k] them into their hands. [17]Abi-jah and his men inflicted heavy losses on them, so that there were five hundred thousand casualties among Israel's able men. [18]The men of Israel were subdued on that occasion, and the men of Judah were victorious because they relied[l] on the LORD, the God of their fathers.

[19]Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took from him the towns of Bethel, Jeshanah

21But Abijah grew in strength. He married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22The other events of Abijah's reign, what he did and what he said, are written in the annotations of the prophet Iddo.

14 And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. Asa his son succeeded him as king, and in his days the country was at peace for ten years.

Asa King of Judah

2Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God.[a] 3He removed the foreign altars[b] and the high places, smashed the sacred stones[c] and cut down the Asherah poles.[a][d] 4He commanded Judah to seek the LORD,[e] the God of their fathers, and to obey his laws and commands. 5He removed the high places[f] and incense altars[g] in every town in Judah, and the kingdom was at peace under him. 6He built up the fortified cities of Judah, since the land was at peace. No one was at war with him during those years, for the LORD gave him rest.[h]

7"Let us build up these towns," he said to Judah, "and put walls around them, with towers, gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have sought the LORD our God; we sought him and he has given us rest[i] on every side." So they built and prospered.

8Asa had an army of three hundred thousand[j] men from Judah, equipped with large shields and with spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand from Benjamin, armed with small shields and with bows. All these were brave fighting men.

9Zerah the Cushite[k] marched out against them with a vast army[b] and three hundred chariots, and came as far as Mareshah.[l] 10Asa went out to meet him, and they took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah near Mareshah.

11Then Asa called[m] to the LORD his God and said, "LORD, there is no one like you to help the powerless against the mighty. Help us,[n] O LORD our God, for we rely[o] on you, and in your name[p] we have come against this vast army. O LORD, you are our God; do not let man prevail[q] against you."

12The LORD struck down[r] the Cushites before Asa and Judah. The Cushites fled, 13and Asa and his army pursued them as far as Gerar.[s] Such a great number of Cushites fell that they could not recover; they were crushed[t] before the LORD and his forces. The men of Judah carried off a large amount of plunder.[u] 14They destroyed all the villages around Gerar, for the terror[v] of the LORD had fallen upon them. They plundered all these villages, since there was much booty there. 15They also attacked the camps of the herdsmen and carried off droves of sheep and goats and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

Asa's Reform

15 The Spirit of God came upon[w] Azariah son of Oded. 2He went out to meet Asa and said to him, "Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin. The LORD is with you[x] when you are with him.[y] If you seek[z] him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.[a] 3For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach[b] and without the law.[c] 4But in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him,[d] and he was found by them. 5In those days it was not safe to travel about,[e] for all the inhabitants of the lands were in great turmoil. 6One nation was being crushed by another and one city by another,[f] because God was troubling them with every kind of distress. 7But as for you, be strong[g] and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded."[h]

8When Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Azariah son of[c] Oded the prophet, he took courage. He removed the detestable idols[i] from the whole land of Judah and Benjamin and from the towns he had captured[j] in the hills of Ephraim. He repaired the altar[k] of the LORD that was in front of the portico of the LORD's temple.

9Then he assembled all Judah and Benjamin and the people from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who had settled among them, for large numbers[s] had come over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD his God was with him.

[10]They assembled at Jerusalem in the third month[t] of the fifteenth year of Asa's reign. [11]At that time they sacrificed to the LORD seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep and goats from the plunder[u] they had brought back. [12]They entered into a covenant[v] to seek the LORD,[w] the God of their fathers, with all their heart and soul. [13]All who would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, were to be put to death,[x] whether small or great, man or woman. [14]They took an oath to the LORD with loud acclamation, with shouting and with trumpets and horns.
[15]All Judah rejoiced about the oath because they had sworn it wholeheartedly. They sought God[y] eagerly, and he was found by them. So the LORD gave them rest[z] on every side.
[16]King Asa also deposed his grandmother Maacah[a] from her position as queen mother,[b] because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole.[c] Asa cut the pole down, broke it up and burned it in the Kidron Valley.[d] [17]Although he did not remove the high places from Israel, Asa's heart was fully committed to the LORD all his life. [18]He brought into the temple of God the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.[e] [19]There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa's reign.

Asa's Last Years

16:1-6pp — 1Ki 15:17-22
16:11–17:1pp — 1Ki 15:23-24

16 In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign Baasha[f] king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.
[2]Asa then took the silver and gold out of the treasuries of the LORD's temple and of his own palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.[o] [3]"Let there be a treaty[p] between me and you," he said,
"as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so he will withdraw from me."
[4]Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Maim[d][q] and all the store cities of Naphtali.[r] [5]When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and abandoned his work.

[6]Then King Asa brought all the men of Judah, and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using. With them he built up Geba and Mizpah.[r]
[7]At that time Hanani[s] the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him:
"Because you relied[t] on the king of Aram and not on the LORD your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand. [8]Were not the Cushites[e][u] and Libyans a mighty army horsemen[f]? Yet when you relied on the LORD, he delivered[w] them into your hand. [9]For the eyes[x] of the LORD range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. You have done a foolish[y] thing, and from now on you will be at war."[z]

[10]Asa was angry with the seer because of this; he was so enraged that he put him in prison.[a] At the same time Asa brutally oppressed some of the
people.
[11]The events of Asa's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. [12]In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was afflicted[b] with a disease in his feet.
Though his disease was severe, even in his illness he did not seek[c] help from the LORD,[d] but only from the physicians. [13]Then in the forty-first year of his reign Asa died and rested with his fathers. [14]They buried him in the tomb that he had cut out for himself[e] in the City of David. They laid him on a bier covered with spices and various blended perfumes,[f] and they made a huge fire[g] in his honor.

Jehoshaphat King of Judah

17 Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king and strengthened[h] himself against Israel. [2]He stationed troops in all the fortified cities[i] of Judah and put garrisons in Judah and in the towns of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured.[j]
[3]The LORD was with Jehoshaphat because in his early years he walked in the ways his father David[k] had followed. He did not consult the Baals 4but sought[a] the God of his father and followed his commands rather than the practices of Israel. 5The LORD established the kingdom under his control;

and all Judah brought gifts[b] to Jehosh-aphat, so that he had great wealth and honor.[c] 6His heart was devoted[d] to the ways of the LORD; furthermore, he removed the high places[e] and the Asherah poles[f] from Judah.[g] 7In the third year of his reign he sent his officials Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah to teach[h] in the towns of Judah. 8With them were certain Levites[i]—Shemaiah, Netha-niah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah—and the priests Elisha-ma and Jehoram. 9They taught throughout Judah, taking with them the Book of the Law[j] of the LORD; they went around to all the towns of Judah and taught the people.
10The fear[k] of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, so that they did not make war with Jehoshaphat. 11Some Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs[l] brought him flocks:[m] seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred goats.
12Jehoshaphat became more and more powerful; he built forts and store cities in Judah 13and had large supplies in the towns of Judah. He also kept experienced fighting men in Jerusalem.
14Their enrollment[n] by families was as follows:

From Judah, commanders of units of 1,000: Adnah the commander, with 300,000 fighting men;
15next, Jehohanan the commander, with 280,000; 16next, Amasiah son of Zicri, who volunteered[o] himself for the service of the LORD, with 200,- 000.
17From Benjamin:[p] Eliada, a valiant soldier, with 200,000 men armed with bows and shields;
18next, Jehozabad, with 180,000 men armed for battle.

19These were the men who served the king, besides those he stationed in the fortified cities[q] throughout Judah.[r]

Micaiah Prophesies Against Ahab

18:1-27pp — 1Ki 22:1-28

18 Now Jehoshaphat had great wealth and honor,[s] and he allied[t] himself with Ahab[u] by marriage. 2Some years later he went down to visit Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him and urged him to attack Ramoth Gilead. 3Ahab king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me against Ramoth Gilead?" Jehoshaphat replied, "I am as you are, and my people as your people; we will join you in the war." 4But Jehosha-phat also said to the king of Israel,
"First seek the counsel of the LORD." 5So the king of Israel brought together the prophets—four hundred men—and asked them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"
"Go," they answered, "for God will give it into the king's hand." 6But Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD here whom we can inquire of?"
7The king of Israel answered Jehosh-aphat, "There is still one man through whom we can inquire of the LORD, but I hate him because he never prophesies anything good about me, but always bad. He is Micaiah son of Imlah."
"The king should not say that," Jehoshaphat replied.
8So the king of Israel called one of his officials and said, "Bring Micaiah son of Imlah at once."
9Dressed in their royal robes, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah were sitting on their thrones at the threshing floor by the entrance to the gate of Samaria, with all the prophets prophesying before them. 10Now Zedekiah son of Kenaanah had made iron horns, and he declared, "This is what the LORD says: 'With these you will gore the Arameans until they are destroyed.'" 11All the other prophets were prophesying the same thing. "Attack Ramoth Gilead[v] and be victorious," they said, "for the LORD will give it into the king's hand."
12The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah said to him, "Look, as one man the other prophets are predicting success for the king. Let your word agree with theirs, and speak favorably."

18:1 [s]2Ch 17:5 [t]2Ch 19:1-3; 22:3 [u]2Ch 21:6 18:11 [v]2Ch 22:5

13But Micaiah said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I can tell him only what my God says."[a] 14When he arrived, the king asked him, "Micaiah, shall we go to war against Ramoth Gilead, or shall I refrain?"
"Attack and be victorious," he answered, "for they will be given into your hand."
15The king said to him, "How many times must I make you swear to tell me nothing but the truth in the name of
the LORD?"
16Then Micaiah answered, "I saw all Israel[b] scattered on the hills like sheep without a shepherd,[c] and the LORD said, 'These people have no master. Let each one go home in peace.' " 17The king of Israel said to Jehosha-phat, "Didn't I tell you that he never prophesies anything good about me, but only bad?"
18Micaiah continued, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne[d] with all the host of heaven standing on his right and on his left. 19And the LORD said, 'Who will lure Ahab king of Israel into attacking Ramoth Gilead and going to his death
there?'
"One suggested this, and another that. 20Finally, a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, 'I will lure him.'
" 'By what means?' the LORD asked.
21" 'I will go and be a lying spirit[e] in the mouths of all his prophets,' he
said.
" 'You will succeed in luring him,' said the LORD. 'Go and do it.' 22"So now the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours.[f] The LORD has decreed disaster for you."
23Then Zedekiah son of Kenaanah went up and slapped[g] Micaiah in the face. "Which way did the spirit from[g] the LORD go when he went from me to speak to you?" he asked.
24Micaiah replied, "You will find out on the day you go to hide in an inner room." 25The king of Israel then ordered,
"Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon the ruler of the city and to Joash the king's son, 26and say, 'This is what the king says: Put this fellow in prison[h] and give him nothing but bread and water until I return safely.' " 27Micaiah declared, "If you ever return safely, the LORD has not spoken through me." Then he added, "Mark my words, all you people!"

Ahab Killed at Ramoth Gilead

18:28-34pp — 1Ki 22:29-36

28So the king of Israel and Jehosha-phat king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. 29The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will enter the battle in disguise, but you wear your royal robes." So the king of Israel disguised[i] himself and went into battle.
30Now the king of Aram had ordered his chariot commanders, "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel." 31When the chariot commanders saw Jehoshaphat, they thought, "This is the king of Israel." So they turned to attack him, but Jehosha-phat cried out,[j] and the LORD helped him. God drew them away from him, 32for when the chariot commanders saw that he was not the king of Israel, they stopped pursuing him.
33But someone drew his bow at random and hit the king of Israel between the sections of his armor. The king told the chariot driver, "Wheel around and get me out of the fighting. I've been wounded." 34All day long the battle raged, and the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening. Then at sunset he died.[k]

19 When Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem, 2Jehu[l] the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet him and said to the king, "Should you help the wicked[m] and love[h] those who hate the LORD?[n] Because of this, the wrath[o] of the LORD is upon you. 3There is, however, some good[p] in you, for you have rid the land of the Asherah poles[q] and have set your heart on seeking God.[r] "

Jehoshaphat Appoints Judges

4Jehoshaphat lived in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim and turned them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers. 5He appointed judges[s] in the land, in each of the fortified cities of Judah. 6He told them, "Consider carefully what you do,[t] because you are not judging for man[u] but for the LORD, who is with you whenever you give a verdict. 7Now let the fear of the LORD be upon you. Judge carefully, for with the LORD our God

[8]In Jerusalem also, Jehoshaphat appointed some of the Levites,[c] priests[d] and heads of Israelite families to administer[e] the law of the LORD and to settle disputes. And they lived in Jerusalem. [9]He gave them these orders:
"You must serve faithfully and wholeheartedly in the fear of the LORD. [10]In every case that comes before you from your fellow countrymen who live in the cities—whether bloodshed or other concerns of the law, commands, decrees or ordinances—you are to warn them not to sin against the LORD;[f] otherwise his wrath will come on you and your brothers. Do this, and you will not sin.
[11]"Amariah the chief priest will be over you in any matter concerning the LORD, and Zebadiah son of Ishmael, the leader of the tribe of Judah, will be over you in any matter concerning the king, and the Levites will serve as officials before you. Act with courage,[g] and may the LORD be with those who do well."

Jehoshaphat Defeats Moab and Ammon

20 After this, the Moabites[h] and Ammonites with some of the Meunites[i1] came to make war on Jehoshaphat.
[2]Some men came and told Jehosha-phat, "A vast army[i] is coming against you from Edom,[j] from the other side of the Sea.[k] It is already in Hazazon Tamar[k2]" (that is, En Gedi).[l] [3]Alarmed, Jehoshaphat resolved to inquire of the LORD, and he proclaimed a fast[m] for all Judah. [4]The people of Judah[n] came together to seek help from the LORD; indeed, they came from every town in Judah to seek him.
[5]Then Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem at the temple of the LORD in the front of the new courtyard [6]and said:

"O LORD, God of our fathers,[o] are you not the God who is in heaven?[p] You rule over all the kingdoms[q] of the nations. Power and might are in your hand, and no one can withstand you.[r] [7]O our God, did you not drive out the inhabitants of this land[s] before your people Israel and give it forever to the descendants of Abraham your friend?[t] [8]They have lived in it and have built in it a sanctuary[u] for your Name, saying, [9]'If calamity comes upon us, whether the sword[v] of judgment, or plague or famine,[w] we will stand in your presence before this temple that bears your Name and will cry out to you in our distress, and you will hear us and save us.'
[10]"But now here are men from Ammon, Moab and Mount Seir, whose territory you would not allow Israel to invade when they came from Egypt;[w] so they turned away from them and did not destroy them. [11]See how they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of the possession[x] you gave us as an inheritance. [12]O our God, will you not judge them?[y] For we have no power to face this vast army that is attacking us. We do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon you.[z]"

[13]All the men of Judah, with their wives and children and little ones, stood there before the LORD.
[14]Then the Spirit[a] of the LORD came upon Jahaziel son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jejel, the son of Mattaniah,[b] a Levite and descendant of Asaph, as he stood in the assembly.
[15]He said: "Listen, King Jehoshaphat and all who live in Judah and Jerusalem! This is what the LORD says to you:
'Do not be afraid or discouraged[c] because of this vast army. For the battle[d] is not yours, but God's. [16]Tomorrow march down against them. They will be climbing up by the Pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the gorge in the Desert of Jeruel. [17]You will not have to fight this battle. Take up your positions; stand firm and see[e] the deliverance the LORD will give you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Go out to face them tomorrow, and the LORD will be with
you.' "
[18]Jehoshaphat bowed[f] with his face to the ground, and all the people of Judah and Jerusalem fell down in worship before the LORD. [19]Then some Levites from the Kohathites and Korahites stood up and praised the LORD, the God of Israel, with very loud voice.
[20]Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out,

Jehoshaphat stood and said, "Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem!
Have faith[a] in the LORD your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful.[b]" 21 After consulting the people, Jehosha-phat appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise him for the splendor of his[l] holiness[c] as they went out at the head of the army, saying:

"Give thanks to the LORD, for his love endures forever."[d]

22 As they began to sing and praise, the LORD set ambushes[e] against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated. 23 The men of Ammon[f] and Moab rose up against the men from Mount Seir[g] to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another.[h] 24 When the men of Judah came to the place that overlooks the desert and looked toward the vast army, they saw only dead bodies lying on the ground;
no one had escaped. 25 So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing[m] and also articles of value—more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it. 26 On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah, where they praised the LORD. This is why it is called the Valley of Beracah[n]
to this day.
27 Then, led by Jehoshaphat, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem returned joyfully to Jerusalem, for the LORD had given them cause to rejoice over their enemies. 28 They entered Jerusalem and went to the temple of the LORD with harps and lutes and trumpets.
29 The fear[i] of God came upon all the kingdoms of the countries when they heard how the LORD had fought[j] against the enemies of Israel. 30 And the kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace, for his God had given him rest[k] on every side.

The End of Jehoshaphat's Reign

20:31-21:1pp — 1Ki 22:41-50

31 So Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he became king of Judah, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-five years.
His mother's name was Azubah daughter of Shilhi. 32 He walked in the ways of his father Asa and did not stray from them; he did what was right in the eyes of the LORD. 33 The high places,[l] however, were not removed,
and the people still had not set their hearts on the God of their fathers.
34 The other events of Jehoshaphat's reign, from beginning to end, are written in the annals of Jehu[m] son of Hanani, which are recorded in the book of the kings of Israel.
35 Later, Jehoshaphat king of Judah made an alliance[n] with Ahaziah king of Israel, who was guilty of wickedness.[o] 36 He agreed with him to construct a fleet of trading ships.[o] After these were built at Ezion Geber, 37 Eliezer son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have made an alliance with Aha-ziah, the LORD will destroy what you have made." The ships[p] were wrecked and were not able to set sail to trade.[p] 21 Then Jehoshaphat rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. And Je-horam[q] his son succeeded him as king.
2 Jehoram's brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat, were Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariahu, Michael and Shephatiah. All these were sons of Jehosha-phat king of Israel.[q] 3 Their father had given them many gifts[r] of silver and gold and articles of value, as well as fortified cities[s] in Judah, but he had given the kingdom to Jehoram because he was his firstborn son.

Jehoram King of Judah

21:5-10,20pp — 2Ki 8:16-24

4 When Jehoram established[t] himself firmly over his father's kingdom, he put all his brothers[u] to the sword along with some of the princes of Israel. 5 Je-horam was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. 6 He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel,[v] as the house of Ahab had done, for he married a daughter of Ahab.[w] He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. 7 Nevertheless, because of the covenant the LORD had made with David,[x] the LORD was not willing to destroy the house of David.[y]
He had promised to maintain a lamp[z]

8In the time of Jehoram, Edom[a] rebelled against Judah and set up its own king. 9So Jehoram went there with his officers and all his chariots. The Edomites surrounded him and his chariot commanders, but he rose up and broke through by night. 10To this day Edom has been in rebellion against Judah.
Libnah[b] revolted at the same time, because Jehoram had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers. 11He had also built high places on the hills of Judah and had caused the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves and had led Judah astray.
12Jehoram received a letter from Elijah[c] the prophet, which said:

"This is what the LORD, the God of your father[d] David, says: 'You have not walked in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or of Asa[e] king of Judah. 13But you have walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and you have led Judah and the people of Jerusalem to prostitute themselves, just as the house of Ahab did.[f] You have also murdered your own brothers, members of your father's house, men who were better[g] than you. 14So now the LORD is about to strike your people, your sons, your wives and everything that is yours, with a heavy blow. 15You yourself will be very ill with a lingering disease[h] of the bowels, until the disease causes your bowels to come out.' "

16The LORD aroused against Jehoram the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabs[i] who lived near the Cush-ites. 17They attacked Judah, invaded it and carried off all the goods found in the king's palace, together with his sons and wives. Not a son was left to him except Ahaziah,[r] the youngest.[j] 18After all this, the LORD afflicted Je-horam with an incurable disease of the bowels. 19In the course of time, at the end of the second year, his bowels came out because of the disease, and he died in great pain. His people made no fire in his honor,[k] as they had for his fathers.
20Jehoram was thirty-two years old
when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years. He passed away, to no one's regret, and was buried[l] in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Ahaziah King of Judah

22:1-6pp — 2Ki 8:25-29
22:7-9pp — 2Ki 9:21-29

22 The people[m] of Jerusalem[n] made Ahaziah, Jehoram's youngest son, king in his place, since the raiders,[o] who came with the Arabs into the camp, had killed all the older sons. So Ahaziah son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign.
2Ahaziah was twenty-two[s] years old
when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, a granddaughter of Omri.
3He too walked[p] in the ways of the house of Ahab,[q] for his mother encouraged him in doing wrong. 4He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as the house of Ahab had done, for after his father's death they became his advisers, to his undoing. 5He also followed their counsel when he went with Joram[t] son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Aram at Ramoth Gilead.[r] The Arameans wounded Joram; 6so he returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds they had inflicted on him at Ramoth[u] in his battle with Hazael[s] king of Aram.
Then Ahaziah[v] son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to Jezreel to see Joram son of Ahab because he had been wounded.
7Through Ahaziah's[t] visit to Joram, God brought about Ahaziah's downfall. When Ahaziah arrived, he went out with Joram to meet Jehu son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab. 8While Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab,[u] he found the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's relatives, who had been attending Aha-ziah, and he killed them. 9He then went in search of Ahaziah, and his men captured him while he was hiding[v] in Samaria. He was brought to Jehu and put to death. They buried him, for they said, "He was a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought[w] the LORD with all his heart." So there was no one in the house of Ahaziah powerful enough to retain the kingdom.

Athaliah and Joash

22:10-23:21pp — 2Ki 11:1-21

[10]When Athaliah the mother of Aha-ziah saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family of the house of Judah. [11]But Jehosheba,[w] the daughter of King Je-horam, took Joash son of Ahaziah and stole him away from among the royal princes who were about to be murdered and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Because Jehosheba,[w] the daughter of King Jehoram and wife of the priest Jehoiada, was Ahaziah's sister, she hid the child from Athaliah so she could not kill him. [12]He remained hidden with them at the temple of God for six years while Athaliah ruled the
land.

23 In the seventh year Jehoiada showed his strength. He made a covenant with the commanders of units of a hundred: Azariah son of Jero-ham, Ishmael son of Jehohanan, Aza-riah son of Obed, Maaseiah son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat son of Zicri.
[2]They went throughout Judah and gathered the Levites[a] and the heads of Israelite families from all the towns.
When they came to Jerusalem, [3]the whole assembly made a covenant[b] with the king at the temple of God.
Jehoiada said to them, "The king's son shall reign, as the LORD promised concerning the descendants of David.[c] [4]Now this is what you are to do: A third of you priests and Levites who are going on duty on the Sabbath are to keep watch at the doors, [5]a third of you at the royal palace and a third at the Foundation Gate, and all the other men are to be in the courtyards of the temple of the LORD. [6]No one is to enter the temple of the LORD except the priests and Levites on duty; they may enter because they are consecrated, but all the other men are to guard[d] what the LORD has assigned to them.[x] [7]The Levites are to station themselves around the king, each man with his weapons in his hand. Anyone who enters the temple must be put to death. Stay close to the king wherever he goes." [8]The Levites and all the men of Judah did just as Jehoiada the priest ordered.[e] Each one took his men—those who were going on duty on the Sabbath and those who were going off duty—for Jehoiada the priest had not released any of the divisions.[f] [9]Then he gave the commanders of units of a hundred the spears and the large and small shields that had belonged to King David and that were in the temple of God. [10]He stationed all the men, each with his weapon in his hand, around the king—near the altar and the temple, from the south side to the north side of the temple.
[11]Jehoiada and his sons brought out the king's son and put the crown on him; they presented him with a copy[g]
of the covenant and proclaimed him king. They anointed him and shouted,
"Long live the king!"
[12]When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she went to them at the temple of the LORD. [13]She looked, and there was the king,[h] standing by his pillar[i] at the entrance. The officers and the trumpet-ers were beside the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets, and singers with musical instruments were leading the praises. Then Athaliah tore her robes and shouted, "Treason! Treason!" [14]Jehoiada the priest sent out the commanders of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the troops, and said to them: "Bring her out between the ranks[y] and put to the sword anyone who follows her." For the priest had said, "Do not put her to death at the temple of the LORD." [15]So they seized her as she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate[j] on the palace grounds, and there they put her to death.
[16]Jehoiada then made a covenant[k]
that he and the people and the king[z] would be the LORD's people. [17]All the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They smashed the altars and idols and killed[l] Mattan the priest of Baal in front of the altars.
[18]Then Jehoiada placed the oversight of the temple of the LORD in the hands of the priests, who were Levites,[m] to whom David had made assignments in the temple,[n] to present the burnt offerings of the LORD as written in the Law of Moses, with rejoicing and singing, as David had ordered. [19]He also stationed doorkeepers[o] at the gates of the LORD's temple so that no one who was in any way unclean might enter.
[20]He took with him the commanders

Joash Repairs the Temple

24:1-14pp — 2Ki 12:1-16
24:23-27pp — 2Ki 12:17-21

24 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah; she was from Beersheba. 2 Joash did what was right in the eyes of the LORD[c] all the years of Jehoiada the priest. 3 Jehoiada chose two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

4 Some time later Joash decided to restore the temple of the LORD. 5 He called together the priests and Levites and said to them, "Go to the towns of Judah and collect the money[d] due annually from all Israel,[e] to repair the temple of your God. Do it now." But the Levites[f] did not act at once.

6 Therefore the king summoned Jehoiada the chief priest and said to him,
"Why haven't you required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax imposed by Moses the servant of the LORD and by the assembly of Israel for the Tent of the Testimony?"[g]

7 Now the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had broken into the temple of God and had used even its sacred objects for the Baals.

8 At the king's command, a chest was made and placed outside, at the gate of the temple of the LORD. 9 A proclamation was then issued in Judah and Jerusalem that they should bring to the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God had required of Israel in the desert. 10 All the officials and all the people brought their contributions gladly,[h] dropping them into the chest until it was full. 11 Whenever the chest was brought in by the Levites to the king's officials and they saw that there was a large amount of money, the royal secretary and the officer of the chief priest would come and empty the chest and carry it back to its place. They did this regularly and collected a great amount of money. 12 The king and Jehoiada gave it to the men who carried out the work required for the temple of the LORD. They hired[i] masons and carpenters to restore the LORD's temple, and also workers in iron and bronze to repair the temple.

13 The men in charge of the work were diligent, and the repairs progressed under them. They rebuilt the temple of God according to its original design and reinforced it. 14 When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and with it were made articles for the LORD's temple: articles for the service and for the burnt offerings, and also dishes and other objects of gold and silver. As long as Jehoiada lived, burnt offerings were presented continually in the temple of the LORD.

15 Now Jehoiada was old and full of years, and he died at the age of a hundred and thirty. 16 He was buried with the kings in the City of David, because of the good he had done in Israel for God and his temple.

The Wickedness of Joash

17 After the death of Jehoiada, the officials of Judah came and paid homage to the king, and he listened to them.
18 They abandoned[j] the temple of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and worshiped Asherah poles and idols.[k] Because of their guilt, God's anger[l] came upon Judah and Jerusalem. 19 Although the LORD sent prophets to the people to bring them back to him, and though they testified against them, they would not listen.[m]

20 Then the Spirit[n] of God came upon Zechariah[o] son of Jehoiada the priest.
He stood before the people and said,
"This is what God says: 'Why do you disobey the LORD's commands? You will not prosper.[p] Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has forsaken[q]
you.' "

21 But they plotted against him, and by order of the king they stoned[r] him to death[s] in the courtyard of the LORD's temple.[t] 22 King Joash did not remember the kindness Zechariah's father Jehoiada had shown him but killed his son, who said as he lay dying, "May the LORD see this and call you to account."[u]

23 At the turn of the year,[a] the army of Aram marched against Joash; it invaded Judah and Jerusalem and killed all the leaders of the people.[v] They sent all the plunder to their king in Damascus. 24Although the Aramean army had come with only a few men,[a] the LORD delivered into their hands a much larger army.[b] Because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, judgment was executed on Joash. 25When the Arameans withdrew, they left Joash severely wounded. His officials conspired against him for murdering the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they killed him in his bed.

So he died and was buried[c] in the City of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.
26Those who conspired against him were Zabad,[b] son of Shimeath an Am-monite woman, and Jehozabad, son of Shimrith[c][d] a Moabite woman.[e] 27The account of his sons, the many prophecies about him, and the record of the restoration of the temple of God are written in the annotations on the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son succeeded him as king.

Amaziah King of Judah

25:1-4pp — 2Ki 14:1-6
25:11-12pp — 2Ki 14:7
25:17-28pp — 2Ki 14:8-20

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddin[d]; she was from Jerusalem. 2He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not wholeheartedly.[f] 3After the kingdom was firmly in his control, he executed the officials who had murdered his father the king. 4Yet he did not put their sons to death, but acted in accordance with what is written in the Law, in the Book of Moses,[g] where the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sins."[e][h] 5Amaziah called the people of Judah together and assigned them according to their families to commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin. He then mustered[i] those twenty years old[j] or more and found that there were three hundred thousand men ready for military service,[k] able to handle the spear and shield. 6He also hired a hundred thousand fighting men from Israel for a hundred talents[f] of silver.
7But a man of God came to him and said, "O king, these troops from Israel[l] must not march with you, for the LORD is not with Israel—not with any of the people of Ephraim. 8Even if you go and fight courageously in battle, God will overthrow you before the enemy, for God has the power to help or to overthrow."[m]
9Amaziah asked the man of God,
"But what about the hundred talents I paid for these Israelite troops?"
The man of God replied, "The LORD can give you much more than that."[n] 10So Amaziah dismissed the troops who had come to him from Ephraim and sent them home. They were furious with Judah and left for home in a great rage.[o] 11Amaziah then marshaled his strength and led his army to the Valley of Salt, where he killed ten thousand men of Seir. 12The army of Judah also captured ten thousand men alive, took them to the top of a cliff and threw them down so that all were dashed to pieces.[p] 13Meanwhile the troops that Amaziah had sent back and had not allowed to take part in the war raided Judean towns from Samaria to Beth Horon.
They killed three thousand people and carried off great quantities of plunder.
14When Amaziah returned from slaughtering the Edomites, he brought back the gods of the people of Seir. He set them up as his own gods,[q] bowed down to them and burned sacrifices to them. 15The anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, "Why do you consult this people's gods, which could not save[r] their own people from
your hand?"
16While he was still speaking, the king said to him, "Have we appointed you an adviser to the king? Stop! Why be struck down?"
So the prophet stopped but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel." 17After Amaziah king of Judah consulted his advisers, he sent this challenge to Jehoash[g] son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel: "Come, meet me face to face."
18But Jehoash king of Israel replied to Amaziah king of Judah: "A thistle[s] in Lebanon, 'Give your daughter to my son in marriage.' Then a wild beast in Lebanon came along and trampled the thistle underfoot. 19 You say to yourself that you have defeated Edom, and now you are arrogant and proud. But stay at home! Why ask for trouble and cause your own downfall and that of Judah also?"

20 Amaziah, however, would not listen, for God so worked that he might hand them over to Jehoash, because they sought the gods of Edom. 21 So Jehoash king of Israel attacked. He and Amaziah king of Judah faced each other at Beth Shemesh in Judah. 22 Judah was routed by Israel, and every man fled to his home. 23 Jehoash king of Israel captured Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah,[a] at Beth Shemesh. Then Jehoash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate—a section about six hundred feet[b] long. 24 He took all the gold and silver and all the articles found in the temple of God that had been in the care of Obed-Edom, together with the palace treasures and the hostages, and returned to Samaria.

25 Amaziah son of Joash king of Judah lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel. 26 As for the other events of Amaziah's reign, from beginning to end, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? 27 From the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they conspired against him in Jerusalem and he fled to Lachish, but they sent men after him to Lachish and killed him there. 28 He was brought back by horse and was buried with his fathers in the City of Judah.

Uzziah King of Judah

26:1-4pp — 2Ki 14:21-22; 15:1-3
26:21-23pp — 2Ki 15:5-7

26 Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah,[c] who was sixteen years old, and made him king in place of his father Amaziah. 2 He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah after Amaziah rested with his fathers.

3 Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah; she was from Jerusalem. 4 He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Amaziah had done. 5 He sought God during the days of Zechariah, who instructed him in the fear[d] of God. As long as he sought the LORD, God gave him success.

6 He went to war against the Philistines and broke down the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He then rebuilt towns near Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines. 7 God helped him against the Philistines and against the Arabs who lived in Gur Baal and against the Meunites. 8 The Ammonites brought tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful.

9 Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the angle of the wall, and he fortified them. 10 He also built towers in the desert and dug many cisterns, because he had much livestock in the foothills and in the plain. He had people working his fields and vineyards in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil.

11 Uzziah had a well-trained army, ready to go out by divisions according to their numbers as mustered by Jeiel the secretary and Maaseiah the officer under the direction of Hananiah, one of the royal officials. 12 The total number of family leaders over the fighting men was 2,600. 13 Under their command was an army of 307,500 men trained for war, a powerful force to support the king against his enemies. 14 Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, coats of armor, bows and slingstones for the entire army. 15 In Jerusalem he made machines designed by skillful men for use on the towers and on the corner defenses to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. His fame spread far and wide, for he was greatly helped until he became powerful.

16 But after Uzziah became powerful, his pride led to his downfall. He was unfaithful to the LORD his God, and entered the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. 17 Azariah the priest with eighty other courageous priests of the LORD followed him in. 18 They confronted him and said, "It is not right for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD. That is for the priests,[a] the descendants[b] of Aaron,[c] who have been consecrated to burn incense.[d] Leave the sanctuary, for you have been unfaithful; and you will not be honored by the LORD God." 19Uzziah, who had a censer in his hand ready to burn incense, became angry. While he was raging at the priests in their presence before the incense altar in the LORD's temple, lep-rosy[l][e] broke out on his forehead.

20When Azariah the chief priest and all the other priests looked at him, they saw that he had leprosy on his forehead, so they hurried him out. Indeed, he himself was eager to leave, because the LORD had afflicted him.
21King Uzziah had leprosy until the day he died. He lived in a separate house[m][f] —leprous, and excluded from the temple of the LORD. Jotham his son had charge of the palace and governed the people of the land.
22The other events of Uzziah's reign, from beginning to end, are recorded by the prophet Isaiah[g] son of Amoz. 23Uz-ziah[h] rested with his fathers and was buried near them in a field for burial that belonged to the kings, for people said, "He had leprosy." And Jotham his son succeeded him as king.[i]

Jotham King of Judah

27:1-4,7-9pp — 2Ki 15:33-38

27 Jotham[j] was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years.
His mother's name was Jerusha daughter of Zadok. 2He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, just as his father Uzziah had done, but unlike him he did not enter the temple of the LORD.
The people, however, continued their corrupt practices. 3Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the temple of the LORD and did extensive work on the wall at the hill of Ophel.[k] 4He built towns in the Judean hills and forts and towers in the wooded areas.
5Jotham made war on the king of the Ammonites[l] and conquered them.
That year the Ammonites paid him a hundred talents[n] of silver, ten thousand cors[o] of wheat and ten thousand cors of barley. The Ammonites brought him the same amount also in the second and third years.
6Jotham grew powerful[m] because he walked steadfastly before the LORD his
God.
7The other events in Jotham's reign, including all his wars and the other things he did, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. 8He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. 9Jotham rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Ahaz his son succeeded him as king.

Ahaz King of Judah

28:1-27pp — 2Ki 16:1-20

28 Ahaz[n] was twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem sixteen years. Unlike David his father, he did not do
what was right in the eyes of the LORD.
2He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel and also made cast idols[o] for worshiping the Baals. 3He burned sacrifices in the Valley of Ben Hinnom[p] and sacrificed his sons[q] in the fire, following the detestable[r] ways of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. 4He offered sacrifices and burned incense at the high places, on the hilltops and under every spreading tree.
5Therefore the LORD his God handed him over to the king of Aram.[s] The Arameans defeated him and took many of his people as prisoners and brought them to Damascus.
He was also given into the hands of the king of Israel, who inflicted heavy casualties on him. 6In one day Pekah[t] son of Remaliah killed a hundred and twenty thousand soldiers in Judah[u]—because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. 7Zicri, an Ephraimite warrior, killed Maaseiah the king's son, Azrikam the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, second to the king. 8The Israelites took captive from their kinsmen[v] two hundred thousand wives, sons and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder, which they carried back to Samaria.[w]
9But a prophet of the LORD named Oded was there, and he went out to meet the army when it returned to Samaria. He said to them, "Because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry[x] with Judah, he gave them into them in a rage that reaches to heaven.[a] 10And now you intend to make the men and women of Judah and Jerusaguilty of sins against the LORD your God? 11Now listen to me! Send back your fellow countrymen you have taken as prisoners, for the LORD's fierce anger rests on you.[c]"

12Then some of the leaders in Ephraim—Azariah son of Jehohanan, Berekiah son of Meshillemoth, Jehiz-kiah son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Hadlai—confronted those who were arriving from the war. 13"You must not bring those prisoners here," they said,
"or we will be guilty before the LORD.
Do you intend to add to our sin and guilt? For our guilt is already great, and his fierce anger rests on Israel."

14So the soldiers gave up the prisoners and plunder in the presence of the officials and all the assembly. 15The men designated by name took the prisoners, and from the plunder they clothed all who were naked. They provided them with clothes and sandals, food and drink,[d] and healing balm. All those who were weak they put on donkeys. So they took them back to their fellow countrymen at Jericho, the City of Palms,[e] and returned to Samaria.[f]

16At that time King Ahaz sent to the king[p] of Assyria[g] for help. 17The Edomites[h] had again come and attacked Judah and carried away prisoners,[i] 18while the Philistines[j] had raided towns in the foothills and in the Negev of Judah. They captured and occupied Beth Shemesh, Aijalon[k] and Gederoth,[l] as well as Soco,[m] Timnah[n] and Gimzo, with their surrounding villages. 19The LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel,[q] for he had promoted wickedness in Judah and had been most unfaithful[o] to the LORD. 20Tiglath-Pileser[r][p] king of Assyria[q] came to him, but he gave him trouble[r] instead of help.[s] 21Ahaz[t] took some of the things from the temple of the LORD and from the royal palace and from the princes and presented them to the king of Assyria, but that did not help him.[u]

22In his time of trouble King Ahaz became even more unfaithful[v] to the LORD. 23He offered sacrifices to the gods[w] of Damascus, who had defeated him; for he thought, "Since the gods of the kings of Aram have helped them, I will sacrifice to them so they will help me."[x] But they were his downfall and the downfall of all Israel.[y]

24Ahaz gathered together the furnishings[z] from the temple of God[a] and took them away.[s] He shut the doors[b] of the LORD's temple and set up altars[c] at every street corner in Jerusalem. 25In every town in Judah he built high places to burn sacrifices to other gods and provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger.

26The other events of his reign and all his ways, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 27Ahaz rested[d] with his fathers and was buried[e] in the city of Jerusalem, but he was not placed in the tombs of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son succeeded him as king.

Hezekiah Purifies the Temple

29:1-2pp — 2Ki 18:1-3

29 Hezekiah[f] was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abijah daughter of Zechariah. 2He did
what was right in the eyes of the LORD,
just as his father David[g] had done.

3In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the temple of the LORD and repaired[h] them. 4He brought in the priests and the Levites, assembled them in the square on the east side 5and said: "Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate[i] yourselves now and consecrate the temple of the LORD, the God of your fathers.
Remove all defilement from the sanctuary. 6Our fathers[j] were unfaithful;[k] they did evil in the eyes of the LORD our God and forsook him. They turned their faces away from the LORD's dwelling place and turned their backs on him. 7They also shut the doors of the portico and put out the lamps. They did not burn incense[l] or present any burnt offerings at the sanctuary to the God of Israel. 8Therefore, the anger of the LORD has fallen on Judah and Jerusalem; he has made them an object of dread and horror[m] and scorn,[n] as you can see with your own eyes. 9This is why our fathers have fallen by the sword and why our sons and daughters and our wives are in captivity.[o]

10Now I intend to make a covenant[a] with the LORD, the God of Israel, so that his fierce anger[b] will turn away from us.
11My sons, do not be negligent now, for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him and serve him,[c] to minister[d] before him and to burn incense." 12Then these Levites[e] set to work:

from the Kohathites, Mahath son of Amasai and Joel son of Azariah;
from the Merarites, Kish son of Abdi and Azariah son of Jehallelel;
from the Gershonites,
Joah son of Zimmah and Eden[f] son of Joah;
13from the descendants of Elizaphan,[g] Shimri and Jeiel;
from the descendants of Asaph,[h]
Zechariah and Mattaniah; 14from the descendants of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei;
from the descendants of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel.

15When they had assembled their brothers and consecrated themselves, they went in to purify[i] the temple of the LORD, as the king had ordered, following the word of the LORD.
16The priests went into the sanctuary of the LORD to purify it. They brought out to the courtyard of the LORD's temple everything unclean that they found in the temple of the LORD. The Levites took it and carried it out to the Kidron Valley.[j] 17They began the consecration on the first day of the first month, and by the eighth day of the month they reached the portico of the LORD. For eight more days they consecrated the temple of the LORD itself, finishing on the sixteenth day of the first month.
18Then they went in to King Hezekiah and reported: "We have purified the entire temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the table for setting out the consecrated bread, with all its articles.
19We have prepared and consecrated all the articles[k] that King Ahaz removed in his unfaithfulness while he was king. They are now in front of the LORD's altar."
20Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the city officials together and went up to the temple of the LORD.
21They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs and seven male goats[l] as a sin offering[m] for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer these on the altar of the LORD.
22So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar; next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled their blood on the altar; then they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled their blood[n] on the altar.
23The goats[o] for the sin offering were brought before the king and the assembly, and they laid their hands[p] on them.
24The priests then slaughtered the goats and presented their blood on the altar for a sin offering to atone[q] for all Israel, because the king had ordered the burnt offering and the sin offering for all Israel.[r] 25He stationed the Levites in the temple of the LORD with cymbals, harps and lyres in the way prescribed by David[s] and Gad[t] the king's seer and Nathan the prophet; this was commanded by the LORD through his prophets.
26So the Levites stood ready with David's instruments,[u] and the priests with their trumpets.[v] 27Hezekiah gave the order to sacrifice the burnt offering on the altar. As the offering began, singing to the LORD began also, accompanied by trumpets and the instruments[w] of David king of Israel.
28The whole assembly bowed in worship, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the sacrifice of the burnt offering[x] was completed.
29When the offerings were finished, the king and everyone present with him knelt down and worshiped.[y]
30King Hezekiah and his officials ordered the Levites to praise the LORD with the words of David and of Asaph the seer. So they sang praises with gladness and bowed their heads and worshiped.
31Then Hezekiah said, "You have now dedicated yourselves to the LORD. Come and bring sacrifices[z] and thank offerings to the temple of the LORD." So the assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all whose hearts were willing[a] brought burnt offerings.
32The number of burnt offerings[b] the assembly brought was seventy bulls, a hundred rams and two hundred male lambs—all of them for burnt offerings to the LORD.
33The animals consecrated as sacrifices amounted to six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep and goats.
34The priests, however, were too few to skin all the burnt offerings;[c] so their kinsmen the Levites helped them until the task was finished and until other priests had been consecrated,[a] for the Levites had been more conscientious in consecrating themselves than the priests had been. 35There were burnt offerings in abundance, together with the fat[b] of the fellowship offerings[t][c] and the drink offerings[d] that accompanied the burnt offerings.

So the service of the temple of the LORD was reestablished. 36Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced at what God had brought about for his people, because it was done so quickly.[e]

Hezekiah Celebrates the Passover

30 Hezekiah sent word to all Israel[f] and Judah and also wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh,[g] inviting them to come to the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover[h] to the LORD, the God of Israel.
2The king and his officials and the whole assembly in Jerusalem decided to celebrate[i] the Passover in the second month. 3They had not been able to celebrate it at the regular time because not enough priests had consecrated[j] themselves and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem. 4The plan seemed right both to the king and to the whole assembly. 5They decided to send a proclamation throughout Israel, from Beersheba to Dan,[k] calling the people to come to Jerusalem and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. It had not been celebrated in large numbers according to what was written.
6At the king's command, couriers went throughout Israel and Judah with letters from the king and from his officials, which read:
"People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that he may return to you who are left, who have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria. 7Do not be like your fathers[l] and brothers, who were unfaithful[m] to the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he made them an object of horror,[n] as you see.
8Do not be stiff-necked,[o] as your fathers were; submit to the LORD.
Come to the sanctuary, which he has consecrated forever. Serve the LORD your God, so that his fierce anger[p] will turn away from you. 9If you return[q] to the LORD, then your brothers and your children will be shown compassion[r] by their cap-tors and will come back to this land, for the LORD your God is gracious and compassionate.[s] He will not turn his face from you if you return to him."
10The couriers went from town to town in Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun, but the people scorned and ridiculed[t] them. 11Nevertheless, some men of Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled[u] themselves and went to Jerusalem.[v] 12Also in Judah the hand of God was on the people to give them unity[w] of mind to carry out what the king and his officials had ordered, following the word of the LORD.
13A very large crowd of people assembled in Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread[x] in the second month. 14They removed the altars[y] in Jerusalem and cleared away the incense altars and threw them into the Kidron Valley.[z]
15They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were ashamed and consecrated[a] themselves and brought burnt offerings to the temple of the LORD. 16Then they took up their regular positions[b] as prescribed in the Law of Moses the man of God. The priests sprinkled the blood handed to them by the Levites. 17Since many in the crowd had not consecrated themselves, the Levites had to kill[c] the Passover lambs for all those who were not ceremonially clean and could not consecrate ⌊their lambs⌋ to the LORD.
18Although most of the many people who came from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun had not purified themselves,[d] yet they ate the Passover, contrary to what was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying,
"May the LORD, who is good, pardon everyone 19who sets his heart on seeking God—the LORD, the God of his fathers—even if he is not clean according to the rules of the sanctuary." 20And the LORD heard[e] Hezekiah and healed[f]
the people.
21The Israelites who were present in Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread[h] for seven days with great rejoicing, while the Levites and priests sang to the LORD every day, ac-

22Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites, who showed good understanding of the service of the LORD. For the seven days they ate their assigned portion and offered fellowship offerings[v] and praised the LORD,
the God of their fathers.
23The whole assembly then agreed to celebrate[a] the festival seven more days; so for another seven days they celebrated joyfully. 24Hezekiah king of Judah provided[b] a thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep and goats for the assembly, and the officials provided them with a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep and goats. A great number of priests consecrated themselves. 25The entire assembly of Judah rejoiced, along with the priests and Levites and all who had assembled from Israel[c], including the aliens who had come from Israel and those who lived in Judah. 26There was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the days of Solomon[d] son of David king of Israel there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem. 27The priests and the Levites stood to bless[e] the people, and God heard them, for their prayer reached heaven, his holy dwelling place.

31 When all this had ended, the Israelites who were there went out to the towns of Judah, smashed the sacred stones and cut down[f] the Asherah poles. They destroyed the high places and the altars throughout Judah and Benjamin and in Ephraim and Manasseh. After they had destroyed all of them, the Israelites returned to their own towns and to their own property.

Contributions for Worship

31:20-21pp — 2Ki 18:5-7

2Hezekiah[g] assigned the priests and Levites to divisions[h]—each of them according to their duties as priests or Levites—to offer burnt offerings and fellowship offerings,[v] to minister,[i] to give thanks and to sing praises[j] at the gates of the LORD's dwelling.[k] 3The king contributed[l] from his own possessions for the morning and evening burnt offerings and for the burnt offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moons and appointed feasts as written in the Law of the LORD.[m] 4He ordered the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion[n] due the priests and Levites so they could devote themselves to the Law of the LORD. 5As soon as the order went out, the Israelites generously gave the firstfruits[o] of their grain, new wine,[p] oil and honey and all that the fields produced. They brought a great amount, a tithe of everything. 6The men of Israel and Judah who lived in the towns of Judah also brought a tithe[q] of their herds and flocks and a tithe of the holy things dedicated to the LORD their God, and they piled them in heaps.[r] 7They began doing this in the third month and finished in the seventh month.[s] 8When Hezekiah and his officials came and saw the heaps, they praised the LORD and blessed[t] his people Israel.
9Hezekiah asked the priests and Levites about the heaps; 10and Azariah the chief priest, from the family of Zadok,[u] answered, "Since the people began to bring their contributions to the temple of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and plenty to spare, because the LORD has blessed his people, and this great amount is left over."[v] 11Hezekiah gave orders to prepare storerooms in the temple of the LORD, and this was done. 12Then they faithfully brought in the contributions, tithes and dedicated gifts. Conaniah,[w] a Levite, was in charge of these things, and his brother Shimei was next in rank. 13Jehiel, Azaziah, Nahath, Asahel, Jerimoth, Jozabad,[x] Eliel, Is-makiah, Mahath and Benaiah were supervisors under Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by appointment of King Hezekiah and Azariah the official in charge of the temple of God.
14Kore son of Imnah the Levite, keeper of the East Gate, was in charge of the freewill offerings given to God, distributing the contributions made to the LORD and also the consecrated gifts.
15Eden,[y] Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah assisted him faithfully in the towns[z] of the priests, distributing to their fellow priests according to their divisions, old and young alike.
16In addition, they distributed to the males three years old or more whose names were in the genealogical records[a]—all who would enter the temple of the LORD to perform the daily duties of their various tasks, according to their responsibilities and their divisions. 17And they distributed to the priests enrolled by their families in the genealogical records and likewise to the Levites twenty years old or more, according to their responsibilities and their divisions. 18They included all the little ones, the wives, and the sons and daughters of the whole community listed in these genealogical records. For they were faithful in consecrating themselves.

19As for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, who lived on the farm lands around their towns or in any other towns,[a] men were designated by name to distribute portions to every male among them and to all who were recorded in the genealogies of the Levites.
20This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah, doing what was good and right and faithful[b] before the LORD his God. 21In everything that he undertook in the service of God's temple and in obedience to the law and the commands, he sought his God and worked wholeheartedly. And so he prospered.[c]

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

32:9-19pp — 2Ki 18:17-35; Isa 36:2-20
32:20-21pp — 2Ki 19:35-37; Isa 37:36-38

32 After all that Hezekiah had so faithfully done, Sennacherib[d] king of Assyria came and invaded Judah. He laid siege to the fortified cities, thinking to conquer them for himself. 2When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and that he intended to make war on Jerusalem,[e] 3he consulted with his officials and military staff about blocking off the water from the springs outside the city, and they helped him. 4A large force of men assembled, and they blocked all the springs[f] and the stream that flowed through the land. "Why should the kings[a] of Assyria come and find plenty of water?" they said. 5Then he worked hard repairing all the broken sections of the walls[g] and building towers on it.
He built another wall outside that one and reinforced the supporting terraces[b][h] of the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons[i] and shields.
6He appointed military officers over the people and assembled them before him in the square at the city gate and encouraged them with these words: 7"Be strong and courageous.[j] Do not be afraid or discouraged[k] because of the king of Assyria and the vast army with him, for there is a greater power with us than with him.[l] 8With him is only the arm of flesh,[m] but with us[n] is the LORD our God to help us and to fight our battles."[o] And the people gained confidence from what Hezekiah
the king of Judah said.
9Later, when Sennacherib king of Assyria and all his forces were laying siege to Lachish,[p] he sent his officers to Jerusalem with this message for Hezekiah king of Judah and for all the people of Judah who were there:

10"This is what Sennacherib king of Assyria says: On what are you basing your confidence,[q] that you remain in Jerusalem under siege?
11When Hezekiah says, 'The LORD our God will save us from the hand of the king of Assyria,' he is misleading[r] you, to let you die of hunger and thirst. 12Did not Hezekiah himself remove this god's high places and altars, saying to Judah
and Jerusalem, 'You must worship before one altar[s] and burn sacrifices on it'?
13"Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the other lands? Were the gods of those nations ever able to deliver their land from my hand?[t] 14Who of all the gods of these nations that my fathers destroyed has been able to save his people from me? How then can your god deliver you from my hand? 15Now do not let Hezekiah deceive[u] you and mislead you like this. Do not believe him, for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to deliver[v] his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers.[w]
How much less will your god deliver you from my hand!"

16Sennacherib's officers spoke further against the LORD God and against his servant Hezekiah. 17The king also wrote letters[x] insulting[y] the LORD, the God of Israel, and saying this against him: "Just as the gods[z] of the peoples of the other lands did not rescue their people from my hand, so the god of Hezekiah will not rescue his people from my hand." 18Then they called out in Hebrew to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to terrify them and make them afraid in order to capture the city. 19They spoke about the God of Jerusalem as they did about the gods of the other peoples of the world—the work of men's hands.[a]

20King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz cried out in prayer[b] to heaven about this. 21And the LORD sent an angel,[c] who annihilated all the fighting men and the leaders and officers in the camp of the Assyrian king. So he withdrew to his own land in disgrace. And when he went into the temple of his god, some of his sons cut him down with the sword.[d]

22So the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib king of Assyria and from the hand of all others. He took care of them[y] on every side. 23Many brought offerings to Jerusalem for the LORD and valuable gifts[e] for Hezekiah king of Judah. From then on he was highly regarded by all the nations.

Hezekiah's Pride, Success and Death

24In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death. He prayed to the LORD, who answered him and gave him a miraculous sign.[f] 25But Hezekiah's heart was proud[g] and he did not respond to the kindness shown him; therefore the LORD's wrath[h] was on him and on Judah and Jerusalem. 26Then Hezekiah repented[i] of the pride of his heart, as did the people of Jerusalem; therefore the LORD's wrath did not come upon them during the days of Hezekiah.[j]

27Hezekiah had very great riches and honor,[k] and he made treasuries for his silver and gold and for his precious stones, spices, shields and all kinds of valuables. 28He also made buildings to store the harvest of grain, new wine and oil; and he made stalls for various kinds of cattle, and pens for the flocks. 29He built villages and acquired great numbers of flocks and herds, for God had given him very great riches.[l]

30It was Hezekiah who blocked[m] the upper outlet of the Gihon[n] spring and channeled[o] the water down to the west side of the City of David. He succeeded in everything he undertook. 31But when envoys were sent by the rulers of Babylon[p] to ask him about the miraculous sign[q] that had occurred in the land, God left him to test[r] him and to know everything that was in his heart.

32The other events of Hezekiah's reign and his acts of devotion are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. 33Hezekiah rested with his fathers and was buried on the hill where the tombs of David's descendants are. All Judah and the people of Jerusalem honored him when he died. And Manasseh his son succeeded him as king.

Manasseh King of Judah

33:1-10pp — 2Ki 21:1-10
33:18-20pp — 2Ki 21:17-18

33 Manasseh[s] was twelve years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem fifty-five years. 2He did evil in the eyes of the LORD,[t] following the detestable[u] practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. 3He rebuilt the high places his father Hezekiah had demolished; he also erected altars to the Baals and made Asherah poles.[v] He bowed down[w] to all the starry hosts and worshiped them. 4He built altars in the temple of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, "My Name[x] will remain in Jerusalem forever." 5In both courts of the temple of the LORD,[y] he built altars to all the starry hosts. 6He sacrificed his sons[z] in[z] the fire in the Valley of Ben Hinnom, practiced sorcery, divination and witchcraft, and consulted mediums[a] and spiritists.[b] He did much evil in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger.

7He took the carved image he had made and put it in God's temple,[c] of which God had said to David and to his son Solomon, "In this temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will put my Name forever. 8I will not again make the feet of the Israelites leave the land[d] I assigned to your forefathers, if only they will be careful to do everything I commanded them concerning all the laws, decrees and ordinances given through Moses." 9But Manasseh led Judah and the people of Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites.[e]

10The LORD spoke to Manasseh and his people, but they paid no attention. 11So the LORD brought against them the army commanders of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh prisoner,[f] put a hook[g] in his nose, bound him favor of the LORD his God and humbled[b] himself greatly before the God of his fathers. [13]And when he prayed to him, the LORD was moved by his entreaty and listened to his plea; so he brought him back to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God.

[14]Afterward he rebuilt the outer wall of the City of David, west of the Gihon[c] spring in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate[d] and encircling the hill of Ophel;[e] he also made it much higher. He stationed military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah.
[15]He got rid of the foreign gods and removed[f] the image from the temple of the LORD, as well as all the altars he had built on the temple hill and in Jerusalem; and he threw them out of the city. [16]Then he restored the altar of the LORD and sacrificed fellowship offerings[a] and thank offerings[g] on it, and told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. [17]The people, however, continued to sacrifice at the high places, but only to the LORD their God.
[18]The other events of Manasseh's reign, including his prayer to his God and the words the seers spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, are written in the annals of the kings of Israel.[b] [19]His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, as well as all his sins and unfaithfulness, and the sites where he built high places and set up Asherah poles and idols before he humbled[h] himself—all are written in the records of the seers.[c] [20]Manasseh rested with his fathers and was buried[i] in his palace. And Amon his son succeeded him as king.

Amon King of Judah

33:21-25pp — 2Ki 21:19-24

[21]Amon[k] was twenty-two years old
when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem two years. [22]He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, as his father Manasseh had done. Amon worshiped and offered sacrifices to all the idols Manasseh had made. [23]But unlike his father Manasseh, he did not humble[l] himself before the LORD; Amon increased his guilt.
[24]Amon's officials conspired against him and assassinated him in his palace.
[25]Then the people[m] of the land killed all who had plotted against King Amon, and they made Josiah his son king in his place.

Josiah's Reforms

34:1-2pp — 2Ki 22:1-2
34:3-7Ref — 2Ki 23:4-20
34:8-13pp — 2Ki 22:3-7

34 Josiah[n] was eight years old when he became king,[o] and he reigned in Jerusalem thirty-one years.
[2]He did what was right in the eyes of the LORD and walked in the ways of his father David,[p] not turning aside to the right or to the left.
[3]In the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the God[q] of his father David. In his twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem of high places, Asherah poles, carved idols and cast images.
[4]Under his direction the altars of the Baals were torn down; he cut to pieces the incense altars that were above them, and smashed the Asherah poles,[r] the idols and the images. These he broke to pieces and scattered over the graves of those who had sacrificed to them.[s] [5]He burned[t] the bones of the priests on their altars, and so he purged Judah and Jerusalem. [6]In the towns of Manasseh, Ephraim and Simeon, as far as Naphtali, and in the ruins around them, [7]he tore down the altars and the Asherah poles and crushed the idols to powder[u] and cut to pieces all the incense altars throughout Israel.
Then he went back to Jerusalem.
[8]In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign, to purify the land and the temple, he sent Shaphan son of Azaliah and Maaseiah the ruler of the city, with Joah son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the temple of the LORD his God.
[9]They went to Hilkiah[v] the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought into the temple of God, which the Levites who were the doorkeepers had collected from the people of Manasseh, Ephraim and the entire remnant of Israel and from all the people of Judah and Benjamin and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. [10]Then they entrusted it to the men appointed to supervise the work on the LORD's temple. These men paid the workers who repaired and restored the temple.
[11]They also gave money[w] to the carpen-

The Book of the Law Found

34:14-28pp—2Ki 22:8-20
34:29-32pp—2Ki 23:1-3

14While they were bringing out the money that had been taken into the temple of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the Book of the Law of the LORD that had been given through Moses.
15Hilkiah said to Shaphan the secretary,
"I have found the Book of the Law in the temple of the LORD." He gave it to Shaphan.

16Then Shaphan took the book to the king and reported to him: "Your officials are doing everything that has been committed to them. 17They have paid out the money that was in the temple of the LORD and have entrusted it to the supervisors and workers." 18Then Shaphan the secretary informed the king,
"Hilkiah the priest has given me a book." And Shaphan read from it in the presence of the king.

19When the king heard the words of the Law, he tore his robes. 20He gave these orders to Hilkiah, Ahikam son of Shaphan, Abdon son of Micah,[a] Shaphan the secretary and Asaiah the king's attendant: 21"Go and inquire of the LORD for me and for the remnant in Israel and Judah about what is written in this book that has been found. Great is the LORD's anger that is poured out on us because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD; they have not acted in accordance with all that is written in this book."

22Hilkiah and those the king had sent with him[b] went to speak to the prophetess Huldah, who was the wife of Shallum son of Tokhath,[c] the son of Hasrah,[d] keeper of the wardrobe. She lived in Jerusalem, in the Second District.

23She said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell the man who sent you to me, 24'This is what the LORD says: I am going to bring disaster on this place and its people—all the curses written in the book that has been read in the presence of the king of Judah. 25Because they have forsaken me and burned incense to other gods and provoked me to anger by all that their hands have made,[e] my anger will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.' 26Tell
the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says concerning the words you heard: 27Because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard what he spoke against this place and its people, and because you humbled yourself before me and tore your robes and wept in my presence, I have heard you, declares the LORD.
28Now I will gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in peace. Your eyes will not see all the disaster I am going to bring on this place and on those who live here.'"

So they took her answer back to the king.

29Then the king called together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. 30He went up to the temple of the LORD with the men of Judah, the people of Jerusalem, the priests and the Levites—all the people from the least to the greatest. He read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the temple of the LORD. 31The king stood by his pillar and renewed the covenant in the presence of the LORD—to follow the LORD and keep his commands, regulations and decrees with all his heart and all his soul, and to obey the words of the covenant written in this book.

32Then he had everyone in Jerusalem and Benjamin pledge themselves to it;
the people of Jerusalem did this in accordance with the covenant of God,
the God of their fathers.

33Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the territory belonging to the Israelites, and he had all who were present in Israel serve the LORD their God. As long as he lived, they did not

Josiah Celebrates the Passover

35 Josiah celebrated the Passover[a] to the LORD in Jerusalem, and the Passover lamb was slaughtered on the fourteenth day of the first month. 2He appointed the priests to their duties and encouraged them in the service of the LORD's temple. 3He said to the Levites, who instructed[b] all Israel and who had been consecrated to the LORD: "Put the sacred ark in the temple that Solomon son of David king of Israel built. It is not to be carried about on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God and his people Israel. 4Prepare yourselves by families in your divisions,[c] according to the directions written by David king of Israel and by his son Solomon.

5"Stand in the holy place with a group of Levites for each subdivision of the families of your fellow countrymen, the lay people. 6Slaughter the Passover lambs, consecrate yourselves[d] and prepare ⌞the lambs⌟ for your fellow countrymen, doing what the LORD commanded through Moses."

7Josiah provided for all the lay people who were there a total of thirty thousand sheep and goats for the Passover offerings,[e] and also three thousand cattle—all from the king's own possessions.[f]

8His officials also contributed[g] voluntarily to the people and the priests and Levites. Hilkiah,[h] Zechariah and Jehiel, the administrators of God's temple, gave the priests twenty-six hundred Passover offerings and three hundred cattle. 9Also Conaniah[i] along with Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad,[j] the leaders of the Levites, provided five thousand Passover offerings and five hundred head of cattle for the Levites.

10The service was arranged and the priests stood in their places with the Levites in their divisions[k] as the king had ordered.[l] 11The Passover lambs were slaughtered,[m] and the priests sprinkled the blood handed to them, while the Levites skinned the animals. 12They set aside the burnt offerings to give them to the subdivisions of the families of the people to offer to the LORD, as is written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle. 13They roasted the Passover animals over the fire as prescribed,[n] and boiled the holy offerings in pots, caldrons and pans and served them quickly to all the people. 14After this, they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were sacrificing the burnt offerings and the fat portions[o] until nightfall. So the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the Aaronic priests.

16So at that time the entire service of the LORD was carried out for the celebration of the Passover and the offering of burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had ordered. 17The Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover at that time and observed the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. 18The Passover had not been observed like this in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel; and none of the kings of Israel had ever celebrated such a Passover as did Josiah, with the priests, the Levites and all Judah and Israel who were there with the people of Jerusalem. 19This Passover was celebrated in the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign.

The Death of Josiah

20After all this, when Josiah had set the temple in order, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight at Carchemish[q] on the Euphrates,[r] and Josiah marched out to meet him in battle. 21But Neco sent messengers to him, saying, "What quarrel is there between you and me, O king of Judah? It is not you I am attacking at this time, but the house with which I am at war. God has told[s] me to hurry; so stop opposing God, who is with me, or he will destroy you."

22Josiah, however, would not turn away from him, but disguised[t] himself to engage him in battle. He would not listen to what Neco had said at God's command but went to fight him on the plain of Megiddo.

23Archers[u] shot King Josiah, and he told his officers, "Take me away; I am badly wounded." [24]So they took him out of his chariot, put him in the other chariot he had and brought him to Jerusalem, where he died. He was buried in the tombs of his fathers, and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him.

[25]Jeremiah composed laments for Josiah, and to this day all the men and women singers commemorate Josiah in the laments.[a] These became a tradition in Israel and are written in the Laments.[b]

[26]The other events of Josiah's reign and his acts of devotion, according to what is written in the Law of the LORD— [27]all the events, from beginning to end, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 [1]And the people[c] of the land took Jehoahaz son of Josiah and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.

Jehoahaz King of Judah

36:2-4pp — 2Ki 23:31-34

[2]Jehoahaz[i] was twenty-three years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months. [3]The king of Egypt dethroned him in Jerusalem and imposed on Judah a levy of a hundred talents[j] of silver and a talent[k] of gold. [4]The king of Egypt made Eliakim, a brother of Jehoahaz, king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed Eliakim's name to Jehoiakim. But Neco[d] took Eliakim's brother Jehoahaz and carried him off to Egypt.[e]

Jehoiakim King of Judah

[5]Jehoiakim[f] was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD his God. [6]Nebuchadnezzar[g] king of Babylon attacked him and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.[h] [7]Nebuchadnezzar also took to Babylon articles from the temple of the LORD and put them in his temple[l] there.[i]

[8]The other events of Jehoiakim's reign, the detestable things he did and all that was found against him, are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son succeeded him as king.

Jehoiachin King of Judah

[9]Jehoiachin[j] was eighteen[m] years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem three months and ten days. He did evil in the eyes of the LORD. [10]In the spring, King Nebuchadnezzar sent for him and brought him to Babylon,[k] together with articles of value from the temple of the LORD, and he made Jehoiachin's uncle,[n] Zedekiah, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

Zedekiah King of Judah

[11]Zedekiah[l] was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. [12]He did evil in the eyes of the LORD[m] his God and did not humble[n] himself before Jeremiah the prophet, who spoke the word of the LORD. [13]He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him take an oath[o] in God's name. He became stiff-necked[p] and hardened his heart and would not turn to the LORD, the God of Israel. [14]Furthermore, all the leaders of the priests and the people became more and more unfaithful,[q] following all the detestable practices of the nations and defiling the temple of the LORD, which he had consecrated in Jerusalem.

The Fall of Jerusalem

36:22-23pp — Ezr 1:1-3

[15]The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent word to them through his messengers[r] again and again,[s] because he had pity on his people and on his dwelling place. [16]But they mocked God's messengers, despised his words and scoffed[t] at his prophets until the wrath[u] of the LORD was aroused against his people and there was no remedy.[v] [17]He brought up against them the king of the Babylonians,[o] [w] who killed their young men with the sword in the sanctuary, and spared neither young man[x] nor young woman, old man or aged.[y] God handed all of them over to Nebuchadnezzar.[z] [18]He carried to Babylon all the articles[a] from the temple of God, both large and small, and the treasures of the LORD's temple and the treasures of the king and his officials. Cyrus Helps the Exiles to Return

1:1-3pp — 2Ch 36:22-23

1 In the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, in order to fulfill the word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah,[a] the LORD moved the heart[b] of Cyrus king of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his realm and to put it in writing:

[2]"This is what Cyrus king of Persia
says:

"'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth and he has appointed[c] me to build[d] a temple for him at Jerusalem in Judah. [3]Anyone of his people among you—may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem in Judah and build the temple of the LORD, the God of Israel, the God who is in Jerusalem.
[4]And the people of any place where survivors[e] may now be living are to provide him with silver and gold,[f] with goods and livestock, and with freewill offerings[g] for the temple of God[h] in Jerusalem.'"[i]

[5]Then the family heads of Judah and Benjamin,[j] and the priests and Levites—everyone whose heart God had moved[k]—prepared to go up and build the house[l] of the LORD in Jerusalem.
[6]All their neighbors assisted them with articles of silver and gold,[m] with goods and livestock, and with valuable gifts, in addition to all the freewill offerings.
[7]Moreover, King Cyrus brought out the articles belonging to the temple of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god.[a][n] [8]Cyrus king of Persia had them brought by Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar[o] the prince of Judah.

[9]This was the inventory:

gold dishes	30
silver dishes	1,000
silver pans[b]	29
[10]gold bowls	30
matching silver bowls	410
other articles	1,000

[11]In all, there were 5,400 articles of gold and of silver. Sheshbazzar brought all these along when the exiles came up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite[o] and was called by that name).

62 These searched for their family records, but they could not find
them and so were excluded from the priesthood[p] as unclean. 63 The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food[q] until there was a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.[r]

64 The whole company numbered 42,360, 65 besides their 7,337 men-servants and maidservants; and they also had 200 men and women singers.[s] 66 They had 736 horses,[t] 245 mules, 67 435 camels and 6,720
donkeys.

68 When they arrived at the house of the LORD in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the families[u] gave freewill offerings toward the rebuilding of the house of God on its site. 69 According to their ability they gave to the treasury for this work 61,000 drachmas[d] of gold, 5,000 minas[e] of silver and 100 priestly garments.

70 The priests, the Levites, the singers, the gatekeepers and the temple servants settled in their own towns, along with some of the other people, and the rest of the Israelites settled in their towns.[v]

Rebuilding the Altar

3 When the seventh month came and
the Israelites had settled in their towns,[w] the people assembled[x] as one man in Jerusalem. 2 Then Jeshua[y] son of Jozadak[z] and his fellow priests and Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel[a] and his associates began to build the altar of the God of Israel to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what is written in the Law of Moses[b] the man of God. 3 Despite their fear[c] of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed

Rebuilding the Temple

7Then they gave money to the masons and carpenters,[e] and gave food and drink and oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre, so that they would bring cedar logs[f] by sea from Lebanon[g] to Joppa, as authorized by Cyrus[h] king of Persia.

8In the second month[i] of the second year after their arrival at the house of God in Jerusalem, Zerubbabel[j] son of Shealtiel, Jeshua son of Jozadak and the rest of their brothers (the priests and the Levites and all who had returned from the captivity to Jerusalem) began the work, appointing Levites twenty[k] years of age and older to supervise the building of the house of the LORD. 9Jeshua[l] and his sons and brothers and Kadmiel and his sons (descendants of Hodaviah[f]) and the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers—all Levites—joined together in supervising those working on the house of God.

10When the builders laid[m] the foundation of the temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments and with trumpets,[n] and the Levites (the sons of Asaph) with cymbals, took their places to praise[o] the LORD, as prescribed by David[p] king of Israel.[q] 11With praise and thanksgiving they sang to the LORD:

"He is good;
his love to Israel endures forever."[r]

And all the people gave a great shout[s] of praise to the LORD, because the foundation[t] of the house of the LORD was laid. 12But many of the older priests and Levites and family heads, who had seen the former temple,[u] wept[v] aloud when they saw the foundation of this temple being laid, while many others shouted for joy. 13No one could distinguish the sound of the shouts of joy[w] from the sound of weeping, because the people made so much noise. And the sound was heard far away.

Opposition to the Rebuilding

4 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the exiles were building[x] a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel, 2they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of the families and said, "Let us help you build because, like you, we seek your God and have been sacrificing to him since the time of Esarhaddon[y] king of Assyria, who brought us here."[z]

3But Zerubbabel, Jeshua and the rest of the heads of the families of Israel answered, "You have no part with us in building a temple to our God. We alone will build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, commanded us."[a]

4Then the peoples around them set out to discourage the people of Judah and make them afraid to go on building.[g][b] 5They hired counselors to work against them and frustrate their plans during the entire reign of Cyrus king of Persia and down to the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Later Opposition Under Xerxes and Artaxerxes

6At the beginning of the reign of Xerxes,[h][c] they lodged an accusation against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.[d]

7And in the days of Artaxerxes[e] king of Persia, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel and the rest of his associates wrote a letter to Artaxerxes. The letter was written in Aramaic script and in the Aramaic[f] language.[i,j]

8Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king as follows:

9Rehum the commanding officer and Shimshai the secretary, together with the rest of their associates[g]—the judges and officials over the men from Tripolis, Persia,[k] Erech[h] and Babylon, the 11 (This is a copy of the letter they sent him.)

To King Artaxerxes,

From your servants, the men of Trans-Euphrates:

12 The king should know that the Jews who came up to us from you have gone to Jerusalem and are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are restoring the walls and repairing the foundations.[d] 13 Furthermore, the king should know that if this city is built and its walls are restored, no more taxes, tribute or duty[e] will be paid, and the royal revenues will suffer.
14 Now since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not proper for us to see the king dishonored, we are sending this message to inform the king, 15 so that a search may be made in the archives[f] of your predecessors. In these records you will find that this city is a rebellious city, troublesome to kings and provinces, a place of rebellion from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed.[g] 16 We inform the king that if this city is built and its walls are restored, you will be left with nothing in Trans-Euphrates.

17 The king sent this reply:

To Rehum the commanding officer, Shimshai the secretary and the rest of their associates living in Samaria and elsewhere in Trans-Euphrates:[h]

Greetings.

18 The letter you sent us has been read and translated in my presence. 19 I issued an order and a search was made, and it was found that this city has a long history of revolt[i] against kings and has been a place of rebellion and sedition.
20 Jerusalem has had powerful kings ruling over the whole of Trans-Euphrates,[j] and taxes, tribute and duty were paid to them. 21 Now issue an order to these men to stop work, so that this city will not be rebuilt until I so order. 22 Be careful not to neglect this matter. Why let this threat grow, to the detriment of the royal interests?[k]

23 As soon as the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read to Rehum and Shimshai the secretary and their associates,[l] they went immediately to the Jews in Jerusalem and compelled them by force to stop.

24 Thus the work on the house of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill until the second year of the reign of Darius[m] king of Persia.

Tattenai's Letter to Darius

5 Now Haggai[n] the prophet and Zechariah[o] the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied[p] to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them.
2 Then Zerubbabel[q] son of Shealtiel and Jeshua[r] son of Jozadak set to work[s] to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem.
And the prophets of God were with them, helping them.
3 At that time Tattenai,[t] governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai[u] and their associates went to them and asked, "Who authorized you to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?"[v] 4 They also asked, "What are the names of the men constructing this building?"[m] 5 But the eye of their God[w] was watching over the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until a report could go to Darius and his written reply be received.
6 This is a copy of the letter that Tat-tenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates, the officials of Trans-Euphrates, sent to King Darius. 7 The report they sent him read as follows:

To King Darius:

Cordial greetings.

8 The king should know that we went to the district of Judah, to the temple of the great God. The people are building it with large stones and placing the timbers in the walls. The work[x] is being carried on with diligence and is making rapid progress under their direction.
9 We questioned the elders and asked them, "Who authorized you

l10 Aramaic Osnappar, a variant of Ashurbanipal m4 See Septuagint; Aramaic [4]We told them the names of the men constructing this building.

to rebuild this temple and restore this structure?"[a] 10We also asked them their names, so that we could write down the names of their leaders for your information.
11This is the answer they gave us:

"We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the temple[b] that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel built and finished. 12But because our fathers angered[c] the God of heaven, he handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean, king of Babylon, who destroyed this temple and deported the people to Babylon.[d]
13"However, in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree[e] to rebuild this house of God. 14He even removed from the temple[n] of Babylon the gold and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple[n] in Babylon.[f]
"Then King Cyrus gave them to a man named Sheshbazzar,[g]
whom he had appointed governor, 15and he told him, 'Take these articles and go and deposit them in the temple in Jerusalem. And rebuild the house of God on its site.' 16So this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the house of God[h] in Jerusalem. From that day to the present it has been under construction but is not yet finished."

17Now if it pleases the king, let a search be made in the royal archives[i] of Babylon to see if King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree to rebuild this house of God in Jerusalem. Then let the king send us his decision in this matter.

The Decree of Darius

6 King Darius then issued an order, and they searched in the archives[j] stored in the treasury at Babylon. 2A scroll was found in the citadel of Ec-batana in the province of Media, and this was written on it:

Memorandum:

3In the first year of King Cyrus, the king issued a decree concerning the temple of God in Jerusalem:

Let the temple be rebuilt as a place to present sacrifices, and let its foundations be laid.[k] It is to be ninety feet[o] high and ninety feet wide, 4with three courses[l] of large stones and one of timbers. The costs are to be paid by the royal treasury.[m] 5Also, the gold[n] and silver articles of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon, are to be returned to their places in the temple in Jerusalem; they are to be deposited in the house of God.[o]

6Now then, Tattenai,[p] governor
of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai[q] and you, their fellow officials of that province, stay away from there. 7Do not interfere with the work on this temple of God.
Let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders rebuild this house of God on its site.

8Moreover, I hereby decree what you are to do for these elders of the Jews in the construction of this house of God:

The expenses of these men are to be fully paid out of the royal treasury,[r] from the revenues[s] of Trans-Euphrates, so that the work will not stop. 9Whatever is needed—young bulls, rams, male lambs for burnt offerings[t] to the God of heaven, and wheat, salt, wine and oil, as requested by the priests in Jerusalem—must be given them daily without fail, 10so that they may offer sacrifices pleasing to the God of heaven and pray for the well-being of the king and his sons.[u]

11Furthermore, I decree that if anyone changes this edict, a beam is to be pulled from his house and he is to be lifted up and impaled[v] on it. And for this crime his house is to be made a pile of rubble.[w] 12May God, who has caused his Name to dwell there,[x] overthrow any king or people who lifts a hand to change this decree or to destroy this temple in Jerusalem.

I Darius[y] have decreed it. Let it be carried out with diligence.

Completion and Dedication of the Temple

13Then, because of the decree King Darius had sent, Tattenai, governor of Trans-Euphrates, and Shethar-Bozenai and their associates[a] carried it out with diligence. 14So the elders of the Jews continued to build and prosper under the preaching[b] of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo.
They finished building the temple according to the command of the God of Israel and the decrees of Cyrus,[c] Darius[d] and Artaxerxes,[e] kings of Persia.
15The temple was completed on the third day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.[f] 16Then the people of Israel—the priests, the Levites and the rest of the exiles—celebrated the dedication[g] of the house of God with joy. 17For the dedication of this house of God they offered[h] a hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred male lambs and, as a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, one for each of the tribes of Israel. 18And they installed the priests in their divisions[i] and the Levites in their groups[j] for the service of God at Jerusalem, according to what is written in the Book of Moses.[k]

The Passover

19On the fourteenth day of the first month, the exiles celebrated the Passover.[l] 20The priests and Levites had purified themselves and were all ceremonially clean. The Levites slaughtered[m] the Passover lamb for all the exiles, for their brothers the priests and for themselves. 21So the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves[n] from the unclean practices[o] of their Gentile neighbors in order to seek the LORD,[p] the God of Israel. 22For seven days they celebrated with joy the Feast of Unleavened Bread,[q] because the LORD had filled them with joy by changing the attitude[r] of the king of Assyria, so that he assisted them in the work on the house of God, the God of Israel.

Ezra Comes to Jerusalem

7 After these things, during the reign of Artaxerxes[s] king of Persia, Ezra son of Seraiah,[t] the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah,[u] 2the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok,[v] the son of Ahitub,[w] 3the son of Amariah, the son of Aza-riah, the son of Meraioth, 4the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, 5the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas,[x] the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest— 6this Ezra[y] came up from Babylon. He was a teacher well versed in the Law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. The king had granted[z] him everything he asked, for the hand of the LORD his God was on him.[a] 7Some of the Israelites, including priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers and temple servants, also came up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Artaxerxes.[b]
8Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month of the seventh year of the king.
9He had begun his journey from Babylon on the first day of the first month, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the gracious hand of his God was on him.[c] 10For Ezra had devoted himself to the study and observance of the Law of the LORD, and to teaching[d] its decrees and laws in Israel.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

11This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes had given to Ezra the priest and teacher, a man learned in matters concerning the commands and decrees of the LORD for Israel:

12[p]Artaxerxes, king of kings,[e]

To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven:

Greetings.

13Now I decree that any of the Israelites in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who wish to go to Jerusalem with you, may go.
14You are sent by the king and his seven advisers[f] to inquire about Judah and Jerusalem with regard to the Law of your God, which is in your hand. 15Moreover, you are to take with you the silver and gold that the king and his advisers have freely given[g] to the God of Israel, whose dwelling[h] is in Jerusalem, 16together with all the silver and gold[i] you may obtain from the province of Babylon, as well as the freewill offerings of the people and priests for the temple of their God in Jerusalem.[j] 17With this money be sure to buy bulls, rams and male then do whatever seems best with

to you for worship in the temple of needed for the temple of your God that you may have occasion to supply, you may provide from the roy-

21Now I, King Artaxerxes, order all the treasurers of Trans-Euphrates to provide with diligence whatever Ezra the priest, a teacher of the Law of the God of heaven, may ask of you— 22up to a hundred talents[q] of silver, a hundred cors[r] of wheat, a hundred baths[s] of

and salt without limit. 23Whatever
the God of heaven has prescribed, let it be done with diligence for the temple of the God of heaven. Why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and of his sons?[f] 24You are also to know that you have no authority to impose taxes, tribute or duty[g] on any of the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, temple servants or other workers at this house of God.[h] 25And you, Ezra, in accordance with the wisdom of your God, which you possess, appoint[i] magistrates and judges to administer justice to all the people of Trans-Euphrates—all who know the laws of your God. And you are to teach[j] any who do not know them.
26Whoever does not obey the law of your God and the law of the king must surely be punished by death, banishment, confiscation of property, or imprisonment.[k]

27Praise be to the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put it into the king's heart[l] to bring honor[m] to the house of the LORD in Jerusalem in this way 28and who has extended his good favor[n] to me before the king and his advisers and all the king's powerful officials. Because the hand of the LORD my God was on me,[o] I took courage and gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

The Return to Jerusalem

there three days. When I checked among the people and the priests, I found no Levites[a] there. 16So I summoned Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leaders, and Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of learning, 17and I sent them to Iddo, the leader in Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his kinsmen, the temple servants[b] in Casiphia, so that they might bring attendants to us for the house of our God. 18Because the gracious hand of our God was on us,[c] they brought us Sherebiah,[d] a capable man, from the descendants of Mahli son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah's sons and brothers, 18 men; 19and Hashabiah, together with Jeshaiah from the descendants of Merari, and his brothers and nephews, 20 men. 20They also brought 220 of the temple servants[e]—a body that David and the officials had established to assist the Levites. All were registered by name.

21There, by the Ahava Canal,[f] I proclaimed a fast, so that we might humble ourselves before our God and ask him for a safe journey[g] for us and our children, with all our possessions. 22I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers[h] and horsemen to protect us from enemies on the road, because we had told the king, "The gracious hand of our God is on everyone[i] who looks to him, but his great anger is against all who forsake him.[j]" 23So we fasted[k] and petitioned our God about this, and he answered our prayer.

24Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests, together with Sherebiah,[l] Hashabiah and ten of their brothers, 25and I weighed out[m] to them the offering of silver and gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all Israel present there had donated for the house of our God. 26I weighed out to them 650 talents[v] of silver, silver articles weighing 100 talents,[w] 100 talents[w] of gold, 2720 bowls of gold valued at 1,000 darics,[x] and two fine articles of polished bronze, as precious as gold.

28I said to them, "You as well as these articles are consecrated to the LORD.[n] The silver and gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers. 29Guard them carefully until you weigh them out in the chambers of the house of the LORD in Jerusalem before the leading priests and the Levites and the family heads of Israel." 30Then the priests and Levites received the silver and gold and sacred articles that had been weighed out to be taken to the house of our God in Jerusalem.

31On the twelfth day of the first month we set out from the Ahava Canal[o] to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us,[p] and he protected us from enemies and bandits along the way. 32So we arrived in Jerusalem, where we rested three days.[q]

33On the fourth day, in the house of our God, we weighed out[r] the silver and gold and the sacred articles into the hands of Meremoth[s] son of Uriah, the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad[t] son of Jeshua and Noadiah son of Binnui.[u] 34Everything was accounted for by number and weight, and the entire weight was recorded at that time.

35Then the exiles who had returned from captivity sacrificed burnt offerings to the God of Israel: twelve bulls[v] for all Israel,[w] ninety-six rams, seventy-seven male lambs and, as a sin offering, twelve male goats.[x] All this was a burnt offering to the LORD. 36They also delivered the king's orders[y] to the royal satraps and to the governors of Trans-Euphrates,[z] who then gave assistance to the people and to the house of God.[a]

Ezra's Prayer About Intermarriage

9 After these things had been done, the leaders came to me and said, "The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate[b] from the neighboring peoples with their detestable practices, like those of the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites,[c] Ammonites,[d] Moabites,[e] Egyptians and Amorites.[f] 2They have taken some of their daughters[g] as wives for themselves and their sons, and have mingled[h] the holy race[i] with the peoples around them. And the leaders and officials have led the way in this unfaithfulness."[j]

3When I heard this, I tore[k] my tunic and cloak, pulled hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled.[l] 4Then everyone who trembled[m] at the words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of this unfaithfulness of the exiles. And I sat there appalled[a] until the evening sacrifice.

5Then, at the evening sacrifice,[b] I rose from my self-abasement, with my tunic and cloak torn, and fell on my knees with my hands[c] spread out to the LORD my God 6and prayed:

"O my God, I am too ashamed[d] and disgraced to lift up my face to you, my God, because our sins are higher than our heads and our guilt has reached to the heavens.[e] 7From the days of our forefathers[f] until now, our guilt has been great. Because of our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been subjected to the sword[g] and captivity,[h] to pillage and humiliation[i] at the hand of foreign kings, as it is today.

8"But now, for a brief moment, the LORD our God has been gracious[j] in leaving us a remnant[k] and giving us a firm place[l] in his sanctuary, and so our God gives light to our eyes[m] and a little relief in our bondage. 9Though we are slaves,[n] our God has not deserted us in our bondage. He has shown us kindness[o] in the sight of the kings of Persia: He has granted us new life to rebuild the house of our God and repair its ruins,[p] and he has given us a wall of protection in Judah and Jerusalem.

10"But now, O our God, what can we say after this? For we have disregarded the commands[q] 11you gave through your servants the prophets when you said: 'The land you are entering[r] to possess is a land polluted[s] by the corruption of its peoples. By their detestable practices[t] they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other. 12Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take their daughters for your sons. Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them[u] at any time, that you may be strong[v] and eat the good things[w] of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance.'[x]

13"What has happened to us is a result of our evil[y] deeds and our great guilt, and yet, our God, you have punished us less than our sins have deserved[z] and have given us a remnant like this. 14Shall we again break your commands and intermarry[a] with the peoples who commit such detestable practices? Would you not be angry enough with us to destroy us,[b] leaving us no remnant[c] or survivor? 15O LORD, God of Israel, you are righteous![d] We are left this day as a remnant. Here we are before you in our guilt, though because of it not one of us can stand[e] in your presence.[f]"

The People's Confession of Sin

10 While Ezra was praying and confessing,[g] weeping[h] and throwing himself down before the house of God, a large crowd of Israelites—men, women and children—gathered around him. They too wept bitterly. 2Then Shecaniah son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam,[i] said to Ezra, "We have been unfaithful[j] to our God by marrying foreign women from the peoples around us. But in spite of this, there is still hope for Israel.[k] 3Now let us make a covenant[l] before our God to send away[m] all these women and their children, in accordance with the counsel of my lord and of those who fear the commands of our God. Let it be done according to the Law. 4Rise up; this matter is in your hands. We will support you, so take courage and do it."

5So Ezra rose up and put the leading priests and Levites and all Israel under oath[n] to do what had been suggested. And they took the oath. 6Then Ezra withdrew from before the house of God and went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While he was there, he ate no food and drank no water,[o] because he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the exiles.

7A proclamation was then issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the exiles to assemble in Jerusalem. 8Anyone who failed to appear within three days would forfeit all his property, in accordance with the decision of the officials and elders, and would himself be expelled from the assembly of the exiles.

9Within the three days, all the men of Judah and Benjamin[p] had gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month, all the people were sitting in the square before the house of God, greatly distressed by the occasion and because of the rain. 10Then Ezra[q] the priest stood up and said to them, do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples around you and from your foreign wives."[b] 12The whole assembly responded with a loud voice:[c] "You are right! We must do as you say. 13But there are many people here and it is the rainy season; so we cannot stand outside. Besides, this matter cannot be taken care of in a day or two, because we have sinned greatly in this thing. 14Let our officials act for the whole assembly.

Then let everyone in our towns who has married a foreign woman come at a set time, along with the elders and judges[d] of each town, until the fierce anger[e] of our God in this matter is turned away from us." 15Only Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tik-vah, supported by Meshullam and Shabbethai[f] the Levite, opposed this.
16So the exiles did as was proposed.
Ezra the priest selected men who were family heads, one from each family division, and all of them designated by name. On the first day of the tenth month they sat down to investigate the cases, 17and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women.

Those Guilty of Intermarriage

18Among the descendants of the priests, the following had married foreign women:[g]

From the descendants of Jeshua[h] son of Jozadak, and his brothers: Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah. 19(They all gave their hands[i] in pledge to put away their wives, and for their guilt they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt offering.)[j]

Nehemiah's Prayer

1 The words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah:

In the month of Kislev[a] in the twentieth year, while I was in the citadel of Susa,[b] 2Hanani,[c] one of my brothers, came from Judah with some other men, and I questioned them about the Jewish remnant[d] that survived the exile, and also about Jerusalem.

3They said to me, "Those who survived the exile and are back in the province are in great trouble and disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem is broken down, and its gates have been burned with fire.[e]"

4When I heard these things, I sat down and wept.[f] For some days I mourned and fasted[g] and prayed before the God of heaven. 5Then I said:

"O LORD, God of heaven, the great and awesome God,[h] who keeps his covenant of love[i] with those who love him and obey his commands, 6let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to hear[j]
the prayer[k] your servant is praying before you day and night for your servants, the people of Israel. I confess[l] the sins we Israelites, including myself and my father's house, have committed against you. 7We have acted very wickedly[m] toward
you. We have not obeyed the commands, decrees and laws you gave your servant Moses.

8"Remember[n] the instruction you gave your servant Moses, saying, 'If you are unfaithful, I will scatter[o] you among the nations, 9but if you return to me and obey my commands, then even if your exiled people are at the farthest horizon, I will gather[p] them from there and bring them to the place I have chosen as a dwelling for my Name.'[q]

10"They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great strength and your mighty hand.[r] 11O Lord, let your ear be attentive[s] to the prayer of this your servant and to the prayer of your servants who delight in revering your name. Give your servant success today by granting him favor[t] in the presence of this
man."

I was cupbearer[u] to the king.

Artaxerxes Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

2 In the month of Nisan in the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes,[v] when wine was brought for him, I took the wine and gave it to the king. I had not been sad in his presence before; 2so the king asked me, "Why does your face look so sad when you are not ill?
This can be nothing but sadness of
heart."

I was very much afraid, 3but I said to the king, "May the king live forever![w] Why should my face not look sad when the city[x] where my fathers are buried lies in ruins, and its gates have been destroyed by fire?[y]"

4The king said to me, "What is it you want?"

Then I prayed to the God of heaven, 5and I answered the king, "If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favor in his sight, let him send me to the city in Judah where my fathers are buried so that I can rebuild it."

6Then the king[z], with the queen sitting beside him, asked me, "How long will your journey take, and when will you get back?" It pleased the king to send me; so I set a time.

7I also said to him, "If it pleases the king, may I have letters to the governors of Trans-Euphrates,[a] so that they will provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah? 8And may I have a letter to Asaph, keeper of the king's forest, so he will give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel[b] by the temple and for the city wall and for [10]When Sanballat[d] the Horonite and Tobiah[e] the Ammonite official heard about this, they were very much disturbed that someone had come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.[f]

Nehemiah Inspects Jerusalem's Walls

[11]I went to Jerusalem, and after staying there three days[g] [12]I set out during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no mounts with me except the one I was riding on.

[13]By night I went out through the Valley Gate[h] toward the Jackal[a] Well and the Dung Gate,[i] examining the walls[j] of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. [14]Then I moved on toward the Fountain Gate[k] and the King's Pool,[l] but there was not enough room for my mount to get through; [15]so I went up the valley by night, examining the wall. Finally, I turned back and reentered through the Valley Gate. [16]The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing, because as yet I had said nothing to the Jews or the priests or nobles or officials or any others who would be doing the work.

[17]Then I said to them, "You see the trouble we are in: Jerusalem lies in ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire.[m] Come, let us rebuild the wall[n] of Jerusalem, and we will no longer be in disgrace.[o]" [18]I also told them about the gracious hand of my God upon me[p] and what the king had said to me.

They replied, "Let us start rebuilding." So they began this good work.

[19]But when Sanballat[q] the Horonite, Tobiah the Ammonite official and Geshem[r] the Arab heard about it, they mocked and ridiculed us.[s] "What is this you are doing?" they asked. "Are you rebelling against the king?"

[20]I answered them by saying, "The God of heaven will give us success. We his servants will start rebuilding,[t] but as for you, you have no share[u] in Jerusalem or any claim or historic right to it."

Builders of the Wall

3 Eliashib[v] the high priest and his fellow priests went to work and rebuilt[w] the Sheep Gate.[x] They dedicated it and set its doors in place, building as far as the Tower of the Hundred, which they dedicated, and as far as the Tower of Hananel.[y] [2]The men of Jericho[z] built the adjoining section, and Zaccur son of Imri built next to them.

[3]The Fish Gate[a] was rebuilt by the sons of Hassenaah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. [4]Meremoth[b] son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz, repaired the next section. Next to him Meshullam son of Berekiah, the son of Meshezabel, made repairs, and next to him Zadok son of Baana also made repairs. [5]The next section was repaired by the men of Tekoa,[c] but their nobles would not put their shoulders to the work under their supervisors.[b]

[6]The Jeshanah[c] Gate[d] was repaired by Joiada son of Paseah and Meshullam son of Besodeiah. They laid its beams and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. [7]Next to them, repairs were made by men from Gibeon[e] and Mizpah—Melatiah of Gibeon and Jadon of Meronoth—places under the authority of the governor of Trans-Euphrates. [8]Uzziel son of Harhaiah, one of the goldsmiths, repaired the next section; and Hananiah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs next to that. They restored[d] Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.[f] [9]Rephaiah son of Hur, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section. [10]Adjoining this, Jedaiah son of Harumaph made repairs opposite his house, and Hattush son of Hashabneiah made repairs next to him. [11]Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired another section and the Tower of the Ovens.[g] [12]Shallum son of Hallohesh, ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, repaired the next section with the help of his daughters.

[13]The Valley Gate[h] was repaired by Hanun and the residents of Zanoah.[i] They rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place. They also repaired five hundred yards[e] of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.[j]

Malkijah son of Recab, ruler of the district of Beth Hakkerem.[a] He rebuilt it and put its doors and bolts and bars in place.
15The Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun son of Col-Hozeh, ruler of the district of Mizpah. He rebuilt it, roofing it over and putting its doors and bolts and bars in place. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam,[f][b] by the King's Garden, as far as the steps going down from the City of David. 16Beyond him, Nehemiah son of Azbuk, ruler of a half-district of Beth Zur,[c] made repairs up to a point opposite the tombs[g][d] of David, as far as the artificial pool and the House of the Heroes.
17Next to him, the repairs were made by the Levites under Rehum son of Bani. Beside him, Hashabiah, ruler of half the district of Keilah,[e] carried out repairs for his district. 18Next to him, the repairs were made by their countrymen under Binnui[h] son of Henadad, ruler of the other half-district of Keilah.
19Next to him, Ezer son of Jeshua, ruler of Mizpah, repaired another section, from a point facing the ascent to the armory as far as the angle. 20Next to him, Baruch son of Zabbai zealously repaired another section, from the angle to the entrance of the house of Eliashib the high priest. 21Next to him, Mere-moth[f] son of Uriah, the son of Hak-koz, repaired another section, from the entrance of Eliashib's house to the end of it.
22The repairs next to him were made by the priests from the surrounding region. 23Beyond them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs in front of their house; and next to them, Azariah son of Maaseiah, the son of Ananiah, made repairs beside his house. 24Next to him, Binnui[g] son of Henadad repaired another section, from Azariah's house to the angle and the corner, 25and Palal son of Uzai worked opposite the angle and the tower projecting from the upper palace near the court of the guard.[h]
Next to him, Pedaiah son of Parosh[i] 26and the temple servants[j] living on the hill of Ophel[k] made repairs up to a point opposite the Water Gate[l] toward the east and the projecting tower.
27Next to them, the men of Tekoa[m] repaired another section, from the great projecting tower[n] to the wall of Ophel.
28Above the Horse Gate,[o] the priests made repairs, each in front of his own house. 29Next to them, Zadok son of Immer made repairs opposite his house. Next to him, Shemaiah son of Shecaniah, the guard at the East Gate, made repairs. 30Next to him, Hananiah son of Shelemiah, and Hanun, the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another section. Next to them, Meshullam son of Berekiah made repairs opposite his living quarters. 31Next to him, Malkijah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the temple servants and the merchants, opposite the Inspection Gate, and as far as the room above the corner; 32and between the room above the corner and the Sheep Gate[p] the goldsmiths and merchants made repairs.

Opposition to the Rebuilding

4 When Sanballat[q] heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and was greatly incensed. He ridiculed the Jews, 2and in the presence of his associates[r] and the army of Samaria, he said, "What are those feeble Jews doing? Will they restore their wall? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish in a day? Can they bring the stones back to life from those heaps of rubble[s]—burned as they are?"
3Tobiah[t] the Ammonite, who was at his side, said, "What they are building—if even a fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!"[u] 4Hear us, O our God, for we are despised.[v] Turn their insults back on their own heads. Give them over as plunder in a land of captivity. 5Do not cover up their guilt[w] or blot out their sins from your sight,[x] for they have thrown insults in the face of[i] the builders.
6So we rebuilt the wall till all of it reached half its height, for the people worked with all their heart.
7But when Sanballat, Tobiah,[y] the Arabs, the Ammonites and the men of Ashdod heard that the repairs to Jerusalem's walls had gone ahead and that the gaps were being closed, they were very angry. 8They all plotted together[z] to come and fight against Jerusalem and stir up trouble against it.
9But we prayed to our God and posted

10 Meanwhile, the people in Judah said, "The strength of the laborers[a] is giving out, and there is so much rubble that we cannot rebuild the wall." 11 Also our enemies said, "Before they know it or see us, we will be right there among them and will kill them and put an end to the work." 12 Then the Jews who lived near them came and told us ten times over,
"Wherever you turn, they will attack
us."
13 Therefore I stationed some of the people behind the lowest points of the wall at the exposed places, posting them by families, with their swords, spears and bows. 14 After I looked things over, I stood up and said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid[b] of them.
Remember[c] the Lord, who is great and awesome,[d] and fight[e] for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your homes." 15 When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plot and that God had frustrated it,[f] we all returned to the wall, each to his own work.
16 From that day on, half of my men did the work, while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows and armor. The officers posted themselves behind all the people of Judah 17 who were building the wall. Those who carried materials did their work with one hand and held a weapon[g] in the other, 18 and each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. But the man who sounded the trumpet[h] stayed with me.
19 Then I said to the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people, "The work is extensive and spread out, and we are widely separated from each other along the wall. 20 Wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet,[i] join us there. Our God will fight[j] for
us!"
21 So we continued the work with half the men holding spears, from the first light of dawn till the stars came out.
22 At that time I also said to the people, "Have every man and his helper stay inside Jerusalem at night, so they can serve us as guards by night and workmen by day." 23 Neither I nor my brothers nor my men nor the guards with me took off our clothes; each had his weapon, even when he went for water.[1]

Nehemiah Helps the Poor

5 Now the men and their wives raised a great outcry against their Jewish brothers. 2 Some were saying,
"We and our sons and daughters are numerous; in order for us to eat and stay alive, we must get grain." 3 Others were saying, "We are mortgaging our fields,[k] our vineyards and our homes to get grain during the famine."[l]
4 Still others were saying, "We have had to borrow money to pay the king's tax[m] on our fields and vineyards. 5 Although we are of the same flesh and blood[n] as our countrymen and though our sons are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery.[o] Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others."[p] 6 When I heard their outcry and these charges, I was very angry. 7 I pondered them in my mind and then accused the nobles and officials. I told them, "You are exacting usury[q] from your own countrymen!" So I called together a large meeting to deal with them 8 and said: "As far as possible, we have bought[r] back our Jewish brothers who were sold to the Gentiles. Now you are selling your brothers, only for them to be sold back to us!" They kept quiet, because they could find nothing to
say.[s]
9 So I continued, "What you are doing is not right. Shouldn't you walk in the fear of our God to avoid the reproach[t] of our Gentile enemies? 10 I and my brothers and my men are also lending the people money and grain. But let the exacting of usury stop![u] 11 Give back to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive groves and houses,
and also the usury[v] you are charging them—the hundredth part of the money, grain, new wine and oil." 12 "We will give it back," they said.
"And we will not demand anything more from them. We will do as you say."
Then I summoned the priests and made the nobles and officials take an oath[w] to do what they had promised.
13 I also shook[x] out the folds of my robe and said, "In this way may God shake out of his house and possessions every man who does not keep this promise.

So may such a man be shaken out and emptied!"
At this the whole assembly said,
"Amen,"[a] and praised the LORD. And the people did as they had promised.
14 Moreover, from the twentieth year of King Artaxerxes,[b] when I was appointed to be their governor[c] in the land of Judah, until his thirty-second year—twelve years—neither I nor my brothers ate the food allotted to the governor. 15 But the earlier governors—those preceding me—placed a heavy burden on the people and took forty shekels[k] of silver from them in addition to food and wine. Their assistants also lorded it over the people. But out of reverence for God[d] I did not act like that. 16 Instead,[e] I devoted myself to the work on this wall. All my men were assembled there for the work; we[l] did not acquire any land.
17 Furthermore, a hundred and fifty Jews and officials ate at my table, as well as those who came to us from the surrounding nations. 18 Each day one ox, six choice sheep and some poultry[f] were prepared for me, and every ten days an abundant supply of wine of all kinds. In spite of all this, I never demanded the food allotted to the governor, because the demands were heavy on these people.
19 Remember[g] me with favor, O my God, for all I have done for these
people.

Further Opposition to the Rebuilding

6 When word came to Sanballat, Tobiah,[h] Geshem[i] the Arab and the rest of our enemies that I had rebuilt the wall and not a gap was left in it—though up to that time I had not set the doors in the gates— 2 Sanballat and Ge-shem sent me this message: "Come, let us meet together in one of the villages[m] on the plain of Ono.[j]"
But they were scheming to harm me;
3 so I sent messengers to them with this reply: "I am carrying on a great project and cannot go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?" 4 Four times they sent me the same message, and each time I gave them the same answer.
5 Then, the fifth time, Sanballat[k] sent his aide to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter 6 in which was written:
"It is reported among the nations—and Geshem[n][l] says it is true—that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king 7 and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: 'There is a king in Judah!' Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us confer together."
8 I sent him this reply: "Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head."
9 They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, "Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed."
But I prayed, "Now strengthen my hands."
10 One day I went to the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home. He said, "Let us meet in the house of God, inside the temple[m], and let us close the temple doors, because men are coming to kill you—by night they are coming to kill you." 11 But I said, "Should a man like me run away? Or should one like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go!" 12 I realized that God had not sent him, but that he had prophesied against me[n] because Tobiah and Sanballat[o] had hired him. 13 He had been hired to intimidate me so that I would commit a sin by doing this, and then they would give me a bad name to discredit me.[p]
14 Remember[q] Tobiah and Sanballat,[r] O my God, because of what they have done; remember also the prophetess[s] Noadiah and the rest of the prophets[t] who have been trying to intimidate me.

The Completion of the Wall

15 So the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of Elul, in fifty-two days.
16 When all our enemies heard about this, all the surrounding nations were afraid and lost their self-confidence, because they realized that this work had been done with the help of our God.
17 Also, in those days the nobles of Judah were sending many letters to To-

were under oath to him, since he was and his son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Berekiah. 19Moreover, they kept reporting to me his good deeds and then telling him what I said. And Tobiah sent letters to intimidate me.

7 After the wall had been rebuilt and I had set the doors in place, the gatekeepers[a] and the singers[b] and the Levites[c] were appointed. 2I put in charge of Jerusalem my brother Hanani,[d] along with[o] Hananiah[e] the commander of the citadel,[f] because he was a man of integrity and feared[g] God more than most men do. 3I said to them, "The gates of Jerusalem are not to be opened until the sun is hot. While the gatekeepers are still on duty, have them shut the doors and bar them.
Also appoint residents of Jerusalem as guards, some at their posts and some near their own houses."

4Now the city was large and spacious, but there were few people in it,[h] and the houses had not yet been rebuilt. 5So my God put it into my heart to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people for registration by families. I found the genealogical record of those who had been the first to return. This is what I found written
there:

they could not show that their [63]And from among the priests:

the descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai (a man who had married a daughter of Barzillai the Gileadite and was called by that
name).

[64]These searched for their family records, but they could not find
them and so were excluded from the priesthood as unclean. [65]The governor, therefore, ordered them not to eat any of the most sacred food until there should be a priest ministering with the Urim and Thummim.[b]

[66]The whole company numbered 42,360, [67]besides their 7,337 menservants and maidservants; and they also had 245 men and women singers. [68]There were 736 horses, 245 mules,[p] [69]435 camels and 6,720
donkeys.

[70]Some of the heads of the families contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury 1,000 drachmas[q] of gold, 50 bowls and 530 garments for priests. [71]Some of the heads of the families[c] gave to the treasury for the work 20,000 drachmas[r] of gold and 2,200 minas[s] of silver. [72]The total given by the rest of the people was 20,000 drachmas of gold, 2,000 minas[t] of silver and 67 garments for priests.[d]

[73]The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers and the temple servants,[e] along with certain of the people and the rest of the Israelites, settled in their own towns.[f]

Ezra Reads the Law

When the seventh month came and
the Israelites had settled in their 8 towns,[g] [1]all the people assembled as one man in the square before the Water Gate.[h] They told Ezra the scribe to bring out the Book of the Law of Moses,[i] which the LORD had commanded for Israel.

[2]So on the first day of the seventh month[j] Ezra the priest brought the Law[k] before the assembly, which was made up of men and women and all who were able to understand. [3]He read it aloud from daybreak till noon as he faced the square before the Water Gate[l] in the presence of the men, women and others who could understand. And all the people listened attentively to the Book of the Law.

[4]Ezra the scribe stood on a high wooden platform[m] built for the occasion. Beside him on his right stood Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiah, Uriah, Hilkiah and Maaseiah; and on his left were Pedaiah, Mishael, Malkijah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam.

[5]Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing[n] above them; and as he opened it, the people all stood up.
[6]Ezra praised the LORD, the great God;
and all the people lifted their hands[o]
and responded, "Amen! Amen!" Then they bowed down and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

[7]The Levites[p]—Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah—instructed[q]
the people in the Law while the people were standing there. [8]They read from the Book of the Law of God, making it clear[u] and giving the meaning so that the people could understand what was being read.

[9]Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites[r] who were instructing the people said to them all, "This day is sacred to the weep."[a] For all the people had been weeping as they listened to the words of the Law.

10 Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy choice food and sweet drinks, and send some to those who have nothing[b] prepared. This day is sacred to our Lord.
Do not grieve, for the joy[c] of the LORD is your strength."
11 The Levites calmed all the people, saying, "Be still, for this is a sacred day. Do not grieve." 12 Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy,[d] because they now understood the words that had been made known to them.
13 On the second day of the month, the heads of all the families, along with the priests and the Levites, gathered around Ezra the scribe to give attention to the words of the Law. 14 They found written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses, that the Israelites were to live in booths[e] during the feast of the seventh month 15 and that they should proclaim this word and spread it throughout their towns and in Jerusalem: "Go out into the hill country and bring back branches from olive and wild olive trees, and from myrtles, palms and shade trees, to make booths"—as it is written.[v] 16 So the people went out and brought back branches and built themselves booths on their own roofs, in their courtyards, in the courts of the house of God and in the square by the Water Gate[f] and the one by the Gate of Ephraim.[g] 17 The whole company that had returned from exile built booths and lived in them.[h] From the days of Joshua son of Nun until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated[i] it like this. And their joy was very great.
18 Day after day, from the first day to the last, Ezra read[j] from the Book of the Law[k] of God. They celebrated the feast for seven days, and on the eighth day, in accordance with the regulation,[l] there was an assembly.[m]

The Israelites Confess Their Sins

9 On the twenty-fourth day of the same month, the Israelites gathered together, fasting and wearing sackcloth and having dust on their heads.[n] 2 Those of Israelite descent had separated themselves from all foreigners.[o]
They stood in their places and confessed their sins and the wickedness of their fathers.[p] 3 They stood where they were and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD their God for a quarter of the day, and spent another quarter in confession and in worshiping the LORD their God. 4 Standing on the stairs were the Levites[q]—Jeshua, Bani, Kad-miel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Kenani—who called with loud voices to the LORD their God. 5 And the Levites—Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah and Pethahiah—said:
"Stand up and praise the LORD your God,[r] who is from everlasting to everlasting.[w]"

"Blessed be your glorious name,[s] and may it be exalted above all blessing and praise. 6 You alone are the LORD.[t] You made the heavens,[u] even the highest heavens, and all their starry host,[v] the earth[w] and all that is on it, the seas[x] and all that is in them.[y] You multitudes of heaven[z] worship

you.
7 "You are the LORD God, who out of Ur of the Chaldeans[b] and named him Abraham.[c] 8 You found his heart faithful to you, and you made a covenant with him to give

Perizzites, Jebusites and Girgashites.[d] You have kept your promise[e] because you are righteous.[f] forefathers in Egypt;[g] you heard their cry at the Red Sea.[x][h] 10 You sent miraculous signs[i] and wonders[j] against Pharaoh, against all his officials and all the people of his land, for you knew how arrogantly the Egyptians treated them. You made a name[k] for yourself,[l] which remains to this day. 11 You divided the sea before them,[m] so that they passed through it on dry ground, but you hurled their pursuers into the depths,[n] like a stone into separated themselves from the

The New Residents of Jerusalem

11:3-19pp — 1Ch 9:1-17

11 Now the leaders of the people settled in Jerusalem, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while the remaining nine were to stay in their own towns. 2 The people commended all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem.
3 These are the provincial leaders who settled in Jerusalem (now some Israelites, priests, Levites, temple servants and descendants of Solomon's servants lived in the towns of Judah, each on his own property in the various towns, 4 while other people from both Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem):

From the descendants of Judah:

Athaiah son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel, a descendant of Perez; 5 and Maaseiah son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, a descendant of Shelah. 6 The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totaled 468 able men.

7 From the descendants of Benjamin:

Sallu son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiah, 8 and his followers, Gabbai and Sal-lai—928 men. 9 Joel son of Zicri was their chief officer, and Judah son of Hassenuah was over the Second District of the city.

10 From the priests:

Jedaiah; the son of Joiarib; Jakin;
11 Seraiah son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, supervisor in the house of God, 12 and their associates, who carried on work for the temple—822 men; Adaiah son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malkijah, 13 and his associates, who were heads of families—242 men; Amashsai son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 14 and his[a] associates, who were able men—128.
Their chief officer was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.

15 From the Levites:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; 16 Shabbethai and Jozabad, two of the heads of the Levites, who had charge of the outside work of the house of God; 17 Mattaniah son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, the director who led in thanksgiving and prayer; Bakbukiah, second among his associates; and Abda son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. 18 The Levites in the holy city totaled 284.

19 The gatekeepers:

Akkub, Talmon and their asso-cates, who kept watch at the gates—172 men.

20 The rest of the Israelites, with the priests and Levites, were in all the towns of Judah, each on his ancestral property.
21 The temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of them.
22 The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi was one of Asaph's descendants, who were the singers responsible for the service of the house of God. 23 The singers were under the king's orders, which regulated their daily activity.
24 Pethahiah son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah son of Judah, was the king's agent in all affairs relating to the people.
25 As for the villages with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its surrounding settlements, in Dibon and its settlements, in Jekabzeel and its villages, 26 in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet, 27 in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and its settlements, 28 in Ziklag, in Meco-nah and its settlements, 29 in En Rim-mon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, 30 Za-noah, Adullam and their villages, in Lachish and its fields, and in Azekah and its settlements. So they were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.
31 The descendants of the Benjamites from Geba lived in Micmash, Aija, Bethel and its settlements, 32 in Anathoth, Nob and Ananiah, 33 in Hazor, Ramah and Gittaim, 34 in Ha-did, Zeboim and Neballat, 35 in Lod and Ono, and in the Valley of the Craftsmen.
36 Some of the divisions of the Levites of Judah settled in Benjamin.

Priests and Levites

12 These were the priests and Levites who returned with Zerub-babel son of Shealtiel and with Jeshua:

Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
2 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
3 Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
4 Iddo, Ginnethon,[b] Abijah,
5 Mijamin,[c] Moadiah, Bilgah,
6 Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,
7 Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah and Jedaiah.

These were the leaders of the priests and their associates in the days of Jeshua.
8 The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah, who, together with his associates, was in charge of the songs of thanksgiving. 9 Bakbukiah and Unni, their associates, stood opposite them in the services.
10 Jeshua was the father of Joiakim, Joiakim the father of Eliashib, Eliashib the father of Joiada, 11 Joiada the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan the father of Jaddua.
12 In the days of Joiakim, these were the heads of the priestly families:

of Seraiah's family, Meraiah;
of Jeremiah's, Hananiah; 13 of Ezra's, Meshullam;
of Amariah's, Jehohanan; 14 of Malluch's, Jonathan;
of Shecaniah's,[d] Joseph; 15 of Harim's, Adna;
of Meremoth's,[e] Helkai; 16 of Iddo's, Zechariah;
of Ginnethon's, Meshullam; 17 of Abijah's, Zicri;
of Miniamin's and of Moadiah's, Piltai;
18 of Bilgah's, Shammua;
of Shemaiah's, Jehonathan; 19 of Joiarib's, Mattenai;
of Jedaiah's, Uzzi; 20 of Sallu's, Kallai;
of Amok's, Eber;
21 of Hilkiah's, Hashabiah;
of Jedaiah's, Nethanel.

22 The family heads of the Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua, as well as those of the priests, were recorded in the reign of Darius the Persian. 23 The family heads among the descendants of Levi up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were recorded in the book of the annals. 24 And the leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua son of Kadmiel, and their associates, who stood opposite them to give praise and thanksgiving, one section responding to the other, as prescribed by David the man of God.
25 Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

27At the dedication[a] of the wall of Jerusalem, the Levites were sought out from where they lived and were brought to Jerusalem to celebrate joyfully the dedication with songs of thanksgiving and with the music of cymbals,[b] harps and lyres.[c] 28The singers also were brought together from the region around Jerusalem—from the villages of the Netophathites,[d] 29from Beth Gilgal, and from the area of Geba and Azmaveth, for the singers had built villages for themselves around Jerusalem. 30When the priests and Levites had purified themselves ceremonially, they purified the people,[e] the gates and the wall.

40The two choirs that gave thanks then took their places in the house of God; so did I, together with half the officials, 41as well as the priests—Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah with their trumpets— 42and also Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam and Ezer. The choirs sang under the direction of Jezrahiah. 43And on that day they offered great sacrifices, rejoicing because God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing in Jerusalem could be heard far away.

44At that time men were appointed to be in charge of the storerooms[v] for the contributions, firstfruits and tithes.[w] From the fields around the towns they were to bring into the storerooms the portions required by the Law for the priests and the Levites, for Judah was pleased with the ministering priests and Levites.[x] 45They performed the service of their God and the service of purification, as did also the singers and gatekeepers, according to the commands of David[y] and his son Solomon.[z] 46For long ago, in the days of David and Asaph,[a] there had been directors for the singers and for the songs of praise[b] and thanksgiving to God. 47So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all Israel contributed the daily portions for the singers and gatekeepers. They also set aside the portion for the other Levites, and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.[c]

Nehemiah's Final Reforms

13 On that day the Book of Moses was read aloud in the hearing of the people and there it was found written that no Ammonite or Moabite should ever be admitted into the assembly of God,[d] 2because they had not met the Israelites with food and water but had hired Balaam[e] to call a curse down on them.[f] (Our God, however, turned the curse into a blessing.)[g] 3When the people heard this law, they excluded from Israel all who were of foreign descent.[h]

4Before this, Eliashib the priest had been put in charge of the storerooms[i] of the house of our God. He was closely associated with Tobiah,[j] 5and he had provided him with a large room formerly used to store the grain offerings and incense and temple articles, and also the tithes[a] of grain, new wine and oil prescribed for the Levites, singers and gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests.

6 But while all this was going on, I was not in Jerusalem, for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes[b] king of Babylon I had returned to the king. Some time later I asked his permission 7 and came back to Jerusalem. Here I learned about the evil thing Eliashib[c] had done in providing Tobiah[d] a room in the courts of the house of God. 8 I was greatly displeased and threw all To-biah's household goods out of the room.[e] 9 I gave orders to purify the rooms,[f] and then I put back into them
the equipment of the house of God, with the grain offerings and the incense.[g]
10 I also learned that the portions assigned to the Levites had not been given to them,[h] and that all the Levites and singers responsible for the service had gone back to their own fields.[i] 11 So I rebuked the officials and asked them, "Why is the house of God neglected?"[j] Then I called them together and stationed them at their posts.
12 All Judah brought the tithes[k] of grain, new wine and oil into the storerooms.[l] 13 I put Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the scribe, and a Levite named Pedaiah in charge of the storerooms and made Hanan son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, their assistant, because these men were considered trustworthy. They were made responsible for distributing the supplies to their brothers.[m]

14 Remember[n] me for this, O my God, and do not blot out what I have so faithfully done for the house of my God and its services.

15 In those days I saw men in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath and bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys, together with wine, grapes, figs and all other kinds of loads. And they were bringing all this into Jerusalem on the Sabbath.[o] Therefore I warned them against selling food on that day. 16 Men from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise and selling them in Jerusalem on the Sabbath[p] to the people of Judah. 17 I rebuked the nobles of Judah and said to them, "What is this wicked thing you are doing—desecrating the Sabbath day? 18 Didn't your forefathers do the same things, so that our God brought all this calamity upon us and upon this city?[q] Now you are stirring up more wrath against Israel by desecrating the Sabbath."[r] 19 When evening shadows fell on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath,[s] I ordered the doors to be shut and not opened until the Sabbath was over. I stationed some of my own men at the gates so that no load could be brought in on the Sabbath day. 20 Once or twice the merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem. 21 But I warned them and said,
"Why do you spend the night by the wall? If you do this again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on they no longer came on the Sabbath. 22 Then I commanded the Levites to purify themselves and go and guard the gates in order to keep the Sabbath day holy.

Remember[t] me for this also, O my God, and show mercy to me according to your great love.

23 Moreover, in those days I saw men of Judah who had married[u] women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab.[v] 24 Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples, and did not know how to speak the language[w] of Judah. 25 I rebuked them and called curses down on them. I beat some of the men and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath[x] in God's name and said: "You are not to give your daughters in marriage to their sons, nor are you to take their daughters in marriage for your sons or for yourselves.[y] 26 Was it not because of marriages like these that Solomon king of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him.[z] He was loved by his God,[a] and God made him king over all Israel, but even he was led into sin by foreign women.[b] 27 Must we hear now that you too are doing all this terrible wickedness and are being unfaithful to our God by marrying[c] foreign women?"

28 One of the sons of Joiada son of Eliashib[d] the high priest was son-in-law to Sanballat[e] the Horonite. And I drove him away from me.

29 Remember[f] them, O my God, because they defiled the priestly office and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.[g]

Esther

Queen Vashti Deposed

1 This is what happened during the time of Xerxes,[a][a] the Xerxes who ruled over 127 provinces[b] stretching from India to Cush[b]:[c] 2At that time King Xerxes reigned from his royal throne in the citadel of Susa,[d] 3and in the third year of his reign he gave a banquet[e] for all his nobles and officials. The military leaders of Persia and Media, the princes, and the nobles of the provinces were present.

4For a full 180 days he displayed the vast wealth of his kingdom and the splendor and glory of his majesty.
5When these days were over, the king gave a banquet, lasting seven days,[f] in the enclosed garden[g] of the king's palace, for all the people from the least to the greatest, who were in the citadel of Susa. 6The garden had hangings of white and blue linen, fastened with cords of white linen and purple material to silver rings on marble pillars.
There were couches[h] of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl and other costly stones. 7Wine was served in goblets of gold, each one different from the other, and the royal wine was abundant, in keeping with the king's liberality.[i] 8By the king's command each guest was allowed to drink in his own way, for the king instructed all the wine stewards to serve each man what he wished.

9Queen Vashti also gave a banquet[j] for the women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

10On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits[k] from wine,[l] he commanded the seven eu-nuchs who served him—Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona,[m] Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas— 11to bring[n] before him Queen Vashti, wearing her royal crown, in order to display her beauty[o] to the people and nobles, for she was lovely to look at. 12But when the attendants delivered the king's command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious and burned with anger.[p]

13Since it was customary for the king to consult experts in matters of law and justice, he spoke with the wise men who understood the times[q] 14and were closest to the king—Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven nobles[r] of Persia and Media who had special access to the king and were highest in the kingdom.

15"According to law, what must be done to Queen Vashti?" he asked.
"She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs have taken to her."

16Then Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles,
"Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against the king but also against all the nobles and the peoples of all the provinces of King Xerxes. 17For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women, and so they will despise their husbands and say, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought before him, but she would not come.' 18This very day the Persian and Median women of the nobility who have heard about the queen's conduct will respond to all the king's nobles in the same way. There will be no end of disrespect and discord.[s]

19"Therefore, if it pleases the king,[t] let him issue a royal decree and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media, which cannot be repealed,[u] that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Also let the king give her royal position to someone else who is better than she. 20Then when the king's edict is proclaimed throughout all his vast realm, all the women will respect their husbands, from the least to the greatest."

21 The king and his nobles were pleased with this advice, so the king did as Memucan proposed. 22 He sent dispatches to all parts of the kingdom, to each province in its own script and to each people in its own language,[a] proclaiming in each people's tongue that every man should be ruler over his own household.

Esther Made Queen

2 Later when the anger of King Xerxes had subsided,[b] he remembered Vashti and what she had done and what he had decreed about her. 2 Then the king's personal attendants proposed, "Let a search be made for beautiful young virgins for the king. 3 Let the king appoint commissioners in every province of his realm to bring all these beautiful girls into the harem at the citadel of Susa. Let them be placed under the care of Hegai, the king's eunuch, who is in charge of the women; and let beauty treatments be given to them. 4 Then let the girl who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti." This advice appealed to the king, and he followed it.

5 Now there was in the citadel of Susa a Jew of the tribe of Benjamin, named Mordecai son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish,[c] 6 who had been carried into exile from Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, among those taken captive with Jehoiachin[c][d] king of Judah.[e] 7 Mordecai had a cousin named Hadassah, whom he had brought up because she had neither father nor mother. This girl, who was also known as Esther,[f] was lovely[g] in form and features, and Mordecai had taken her as his own daughter when her father and mother died.

8 When the king's order and edict had been proclaimed, many girls were brought to the citadel of Susa[h] and put under the care of Hegai. Esther also was taken to the king's palace and entrusted to Hegai, who had charge of the harem. 9 The girl pleased him and won his favor.[i] Immediately he provided her with her beauty treatments and special food.[j] He assigned to her seven maids selected from the king's palace and moved her and her maids into the best place in the harem.

10 Esther had not revealed her nationality and family background, because Mordecai had forbidden her to do so.[k] 11 Every day he walked back and forth near the courtyard of the harem to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her.

12 Before a girl's turn came to go in to King Xerxes, she had to complete twelve months of beauty treatments prescribed for the women, six months with oil of myrrh and six with perfumes[l] and cosmetics. 13 And this is how she would go to the king: Anything she wanted was given her to take with her from the harem to the king's palace. 14 In the evening she would go there and in the morning return to another part of the harem to the care of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the concubines.[m] She would not return to the king unless he was pleased with her and summoned her by name.[n]

15 When the turn came for Esther (the girl Mordecai had adopted, the daughter of his uncle Abihail[o]) to go to the king,[p] she asked for nothing other than what Hegai, the king's eunuch who was in charge of the harem, suggested. And Esther won the favor[q] of everyone who saw her. 16 She was taken to King Xerxes in the royal residence in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 Now the king was attracted to Esther more than to any of the other women, and she won his favor and approval more than any of the other virgins. So he set a royal crown on her head and made her queen[r] instead of Vashti. 18 And the king gave a great banquet,[s] Esther's banquet, for all his nobles and officials.[t] He proclaimed a holiday throughout the provinces and distributed gifts with royal liberality.[u]

Mordecai Uncovers a Conspiracy

19 When the virgins were assembled a second time, Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate.[v] 20 But Esther had kept secret her family background and nationality just as Mordecai had told her to do, for she continued to follow Mordecai's instructions as she had done when he was bringing her up.[w]

21 During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana[d] and Teresh, two of the king's officers[x] who guarded the doorway, became angry[y] and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes. 22 But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai. 23 And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were hanged[a] on a gallows.[e] All this was recorded in the book of the annals[b] in the presence of the king.[c]

Haman's Plot to Destroy the Jews

3 After these events, King Xerxes honored Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite,[d] elevating him and giving him a seat of honor higher than that of all the other nobles. 2 All the royal officials at the king's gate knelt down and paid honor to Haman, for the king had commanded this concerning him. But Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor.

3 Then the royal officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"[e] 4 Day after day they spoke to him but he refused to comply.[f] Therefore they told Haman about it to see whether Mordecai's behavior would be tolerated, for he had told them he was a Jew.

5 When Haman saw that Mordecai would not kneel down or pay him honor, he was enraged.[g] 6 Yet having learned who Mordecai's people were, he scorned the idea of killing only Mordecai. Instead Haman looked for a way[h] to destroy[i] all Mordecai's people, the Jews,[j] throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes.

7 In the twelfth year of King Xerxes, in the first month, the month of Nisan, they cast the pur[k] (that is, the lot[l]) in the presence of Haman to select a day and month. And the lot fell on[f] the twelfth month, the month of Adar.[m]

8 Then Haman said to King Xerxes, "There is a certain people dispersed and scattered among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom whose customs[n] are different from those of all other people and who do not obey[o] the king's laws; it is not in the king's best interest to tolerate them.[p] 9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be issued to destroy them, and I will put ten thousand talents[g] of silver into the royal treasury for the men who carry out this business."[q]

10 So the king took his signet ring[r] from his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of the Jews. 11 "Keep the money," the king said to Haman, "and do with the people as you please."

12 Then on the thirteenth day of the first month the royal secretaries were summoned. They wrote out in the script of each province and in the language[s] of each people all Haman's orders to the king's satraps, the governors of the various provinces and the nobles of the various peoples. These were written in the name of King Xerxes himself and sealed[t] with his own ring. 13 Dispatches were sent by couriers to all the king's provinces with the order to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews[u]—young and old, women and little children—on a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar,[v] and to plunder[w] their goods. 14 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so they would be ready for that day.[x]

15 Spurred on by the king's command, the couriers went out, and the edict was issued in the citadel of Susa.[y] The king and Haman sat down to drink,[z] but the city of Susa was bewildered.[a]

Mordecai Persuades Esther to Help

4 When Mordecai learned of all that had been done, he tore his clothes,[b] put on sackcloth and ashes,[c] and went out into the city, wailing[d] loudly and bitterly. 2 But he went only as far as the king's gate,[e] because no one clothed in sackcloth was allowed to enter it. 3 In every province to which the edict and order of the king came, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and wailing. Many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 When Esther's maids and eunuchs came and told her about Mordecai, she was in great distress. She sent clothes for him to put on instead of his sackcloth, but he would not accept them. 5 Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs assigned to attend her, and ordered him to find out what was troubling Mordecai and why.

6 So Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city in front of the king's gate. 7 Mordecai told him everything that had happened to him, including the exact amount of money Haman had promised to pay into the royal treasury for the destruction of the Jews.[a] 8He also gave him a copy of the text of the edict for their annihilation, which had been published in Susa, to show to Esther and explain it to her, and he told him to urge her to go into the king's presence to beg for mercy and plead with him for her people.

9Hathach went back and reported to Esther what Mordecai had said. 10Then she instructed him to say to Mordecai, 11"All the king's officials and the people of the royal provinces know that for any man or woman who approaches the king in the inner court without being summoned[b] the king has but one law:[c] that he be put to death. The only exception to this is for the king to extend the gold scepter[d] to him and spare his life. But thirty days have passed since I was called to go to the king."
12When Esther's words were reported to Mordecai, 13he sent back this answer: "Do not think that because you are in the king's house you alone of all the Jews will escape. 14For if you remain silent[e] at this time, relief[f] and deliverance[g] for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to royal position for such a time as this?"[h] 15Then Esther sent this reply to Mordecai: 16"Go, gather together all the Jews who are in Susa, and fast[i] for me.
Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I and my maids will fast as you do. When this is done, I will go to the king, even though it is against the law. And if I perish, I perish."[j] 17So Mordecai went away and carried out all of Esther's instructions.

Esther's Request to the King

5 On the third day Esther put on her royal robes[k] and stood in the inner court of the palace, in front of the king's[l] hall. The king was sitting on his royal throne in the hall, facing the entrance. 2When he saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was pleased with her and held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther approached and touched the tip of the scepter.[m]
3Then the king asked, "What is it, Queen Esther? What is your request?
Even up to half the kingdom,[n] it will be given you."
4"If it pleases the king," replied Esther, "let the king, together with Haman, come today to a banquet I have prepared for him."
5"Bring Haman at once," the king said, "so that we may do what Esther asks."
So the king and Haman went to the banquet Esther had prepared. 6As they were drinking wine,[o] the king again asked Esther, "Now what is your petition? It will be given you. And what is your request? Even up to half the kingdom,[p] it will be granted."[q] 7Esther replied, "My petition and my request is this: 8If the king regards me with favor[r] and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and fulfill my request, let the king and Haman come tomorrow to the banquet[s] I will prepare for them. Then I will answer the king's question."

Haman's Rage Against Mordecai

9Haman went out that day happy and in high spirits. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate and observed that he neither rose nor showed fear in his presence, he was filled with rage[t] against Mordecai.[u] 10Neverthe-less, Haman restrained himself and went home.
Calling together his friends and Zeresh,[v] his wife, 11Haman boasted[w] to them about his vast wealth, his many sons,[x] and all the ways the king had honored him and how he had elevated him above the other nobles and officials. 12"And that's not all," Haman added. "I'm the only person[y] Queen Esther invited to accompany the king to the banquet she gave. And she has invited me along with the king tomorrow. 13But all this gives me no satisfaction as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate."[z] 14His wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, "Have a gallows built, seventy-five feet[h] high,[a] and ask the king in the morning to have Mordecai hanged[b] on it. Then go with the king to the dinner and be happy." This suggestion delighted Haman, and he had the gallows built.

Mordecai Honored

6 That night the king could not sleep;[c] so he ordered the book of the chronicles,[d] the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him. 2It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes.[a]

3"What honor and recognition has Mordecai received for this?" the king asked.

"Nothing has been done for him,"[b] his attendants answered.

4The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows he had erected for him.

5His attendants answered, "Haman is standing in the court."

"Bring him in," the king ordered.

6When Haman entered, the king asked him, "What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman thought to himself, "Who is there that the king would rather honor than me?" 7So he answered the king, "For the man the king delights to honor, 8have them bring a royal robe[c] the king has worn and a horse[d] the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head. 9Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king's most noble princes. Let them robe the man the king delights to honor, and lead him on the horse through the city streets, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!'[e]"

10"Go at once," the king commanded Haman. "Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended."

11So Haman got[f] the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, "This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!"

12Afterward Mordecai returned to the king's gate. But Haman rushed home, with his head covered[g] in grief, 13and told Zeresh[h] his wife and all his friends everything that had happened to him.

His advisers and his wife Zeresh said to him, "Since Mordecai, before whom your downfall[i] has started, is of Jewish origin, you cannot stand against him—you will surely come to ruin!"[j] 14While they were still talking with him, the king's eunuchs arrived and hurried Haman away to the banquet[k] Esther had prepared.

Haman Hanged

7 So the king and Haman went to dine[l] with Queen Esther, 2and as they were drinking wine[m] on that second day, the king again asked, "Queen Esther, what is your petition? It will be given you. What is your request? Even up to half the kingdom,[n] it will be granted.[o]"

3Then Queen Esther answered, "If I have found favor[p] with you, O king, and if it pleases your majesty, grant me my life—this is my petition. And spare my people—this is my request. 4For I and my people have been sold for destruction and slaughter and annihilation.[q] If we had merely been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept quiet, because no such distress would justify disturbing the king.[i]"

5King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, "Who is he? Where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?"

6Esther said, "The adversary and enemy is this vile Haman."

Then Haman was terrified before the king and queen. 7The king got up in a rage,[r] left his wine and went out into the palace garden.[s] But Haman, realizing that the king had already decided his fate,[t] stayed behind to beg Queen Esther for his life.

8Just as the king returned from the palace garden to the banquet hall, Haman was falling on the couch[u] where Esther was reclining.[v]

The king exclaimed, "Will he even molest the queen while she is with me in the house?"[w]

As soon as the word left the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.[x] 9Then Harbona,[y] one of the eunuchs attending the king, said, "A gallows seventy-five feet[j] high[z] stands by Haman's house. He had it made for Mordecai, who spoke up to help the king."

The king said, "Hang him on it!"[a] 10So they hanged[b] Haman[c] on the gallows[d] he had prepared for Mordecai.[e] Then the king's fury subsided.[f]

The King's Edict in Behalf of the Jews

8 That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther the estate of Haman,[g] the enemy of the Jews. And Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had told how he was related to her. 2The king took off his signet ring,[a] which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. And Esther appointed him over Haman's estate.[b]

3 Esther again pleaded with the king, falling at his feet and weeping. She begged him to put an end to the evil plan of Haman the Agagite,[c] which he had devised against the Jews. 4 Then the king extended the gold scepter[d] to Esther and she arose and stood before
him.
5 "If it pleases the king," she said,
"and if he regards me with favor[e] and thinks it the right thing to do, and if he is pleased with me, let an order be written overruling the dispatches that Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, devised and wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces. 6 For how can I bear to see disaster fall on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my family?"[f] 7 King Xerxes replied to Queen Esther and to Mordecai the Jew, "Because Haman attacked the Jews, I have given his estate to Esther, and they have hanged[g] him on the gallows. 8 Now write another decree[h] in the king's name in behalf of the Jews as seems best to you, and seal[i] it with the king's signet ring[j]—for no document written in the king's name and sealed with his ring can be revoked."[k] 9 At once the royal secretaries were summoned—on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan.
They wrote out all Mordecai's orders to the Jews, and to the satraps, governors and nobles of the 127 provinces stretching from India to Cush.[k][l] These orders were written in the script of each province and the language of each people and also to the Jews in their own script and language.[m] 10 Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes, sealed the dispatches with the king's signet ring, and sent them by mounted couriers, who rode fast horses especially bred for
the king.
11 The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble and protect themselves; to destroy, kill and annihilate any armed force of any nationality or province that might attack them and their women and children; and to plunder[n] the property of their enemies. 12 The day appointed for the Jews to do this in all the provinces of King Xerxes was the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar.[o] 13 A copy of the text of the edict was to be issued as law in every province and made known to the people of every nationality so that the Jews would be ready on that day[p] to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 The couriers, riding the royal horses, raced out, spurred on by the king's command. And the edict was also issued in the citadel of Susa.[q] 15 Mordecai[r] left the king's presence wearing royal garments of blue and white, a large crown of gold[s] and a purple robe of fine linen.[t] And the city of Susa held a joyous celebration.[u] 16 For the Jews it was a time of happiness and joy,[v] gladness and honor.[w] 17 In every province and in every city, wherever the edict of the king went,
there was joy[x] and gladness among the Jews, with feasting and celebrating.
And many people of other nationalities became Jews because fear[y] of the Jews had seized them.[z]

Triumph of the Jews

9 On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar,[a] the edict commanded by the king was to be carried out. On this day the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but now the tables were turned and the Jews got the upper hand[b] over those who hated them.[c] 2 The Jews assembled in their cities[d] in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those seeking their destruction. No one could stand against them,[e] because the people of all the other nationalities were afraid of them. 3 And all the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the king's administrators helped the Jews,[f] because fear of Mordecai had seized them.[g] 4 Mordecai[h] was prominent[i] in the palace;
his reputation spread throughout the provinces, and he became more and more powerful.[j]
5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them,[k] and they did what they pleased to those who hated them.
6 In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.
7 They also killed Parshandatha, Dal-phon, Aspatha, 8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, 9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, 10 the ten sons[l] of Haman son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews.[m] But they did not lay their hands on the plunder.[n]

[k]9 That is, the upper Nile region

[11]The number of those slain in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king that same day. [12]The king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? Now what is your petition? It will be given you.
What is your request? It will also be granted."[a]

[13]"If it pleases the king," Esther answered, "give the Jews in Susa permission to carry out this day's edict tomorrow also, and let Haman's ten sons[b] be hanged[c] on gallows."

[14]So the king commanded that this be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and they hanged[d] the ten sons of Haman.
[15]The Jews in Susa came together on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar, and they put to death in Susa three hundred men, but they did not lay their hands on the plunder.[e]

[16]Meanwhile, the remainder of the Jews who were in the king's provinces also assembled to protect themselves and get relief[f] from their enemies.[g] They killed seventy-five thousand of them[h] but did not lay their hands on the plunder.[i] [17]This happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting[j] and joy.

Purim Celebrated

[18]The Jews in Susa, however, had assembled on the thirteenth and fourteenth, and then on the fifteenth they rested and made it a day of feasting and joy.

[19]That is why rural Jews—those living in villages—observe the fourteenth of the month of Adar[k] as a day of joy and feasting, a day for giving presents to each other.[l]

[20]Mordecai recorded these events, and he sent letters to all the Jews throughout the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far, [21]to have them celebrate annually the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Adar [22]as the time when the Jews got relief[m] from their enemies, and as the month when their sorrow was turned into joy and their mourning into a day of celebration.[n] He wrote them to observe the days as days of feasting and joy and giving presents of food[o] to one another and gifts to the poor.[p]

[23]So the Jews agreed to continue the celebration they had begun, doing what Mordecai had written to them.
[24]For Haman son of Hammedatha, the Agagite,[q] the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast the pur[r] (that is, the lot[s]) for their ruin and destruction.[t] [25]But when the plot came to the king's attention,[1] he issued written orders that the evil scheme Haman had devised against the Jews should come back onto his own head,[u] and that he and his sons should be hanged[v] on the gallows.[w] [26](Therefore these days were called Purim, from the word pur.[x]) Because of everything written in this letter and because of what they had seen and what had happened to them, [27]the Jews took it upon themselves to establish the custom that they and their descendants and all who join them should without fail observe these two days every year, in the way prescribed and at the time appointed. [28]These days should be remembered and observed in every generation by every family, and in every province and in every city. And these days of Purim should never cease to be celebrated by the Jews, nor should the memory of them die out among their descendants.

[29]So Queen Esther, daughter of Abihail,[y] along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote with full authority to confirm this second letter concerning Purim.
[30]And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces[z] of the kingdom of Xerxes—words of goodwill and assurance— [31]to establish these days of Purim at their designated times, as Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had decreed for them, and as they had established for themselves and their descendants in regard to their times of fasting[a] and lamentation.[b] [32]Esther's decree confirmed these regulations about Purim, and it was written down in the records.

Job

Prologue

1 In the land of Uz[a] there lived a man whose name was Job.[b] This man was blameless[c] and upright;[d] he feared God[e] and shunned evil.[f] 2He had seven sons[g] and three daughters,[h] 3and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys,[i] and had a large number of servants.[j] He was the greatest man[k]
among all the people of the East.[l] 4His sons used to take turns holding feasts[m] in their homes, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5When a period of feasting had run its course, Job would send and have them purified.[n] Early in the morning he would sacrifice a burnt offering[o] for each of them, thinking,
"Perhaps my children have sinned[p] and cursed God[q] in their hearts." This was Job's regular custom.

Job's First Test

6One day the angels[a][r] came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan[b][s] also came with them.[t] 7The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"
Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming through the earth and going back and forth in it."[u] 8Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job?[v] There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God[w] and shuns evil."[x]
9"Does Job fear God for nothing?"[y] Satan replied. 10"Have you not put a hedge[z] around him and his household and everything he has?[a] You have blessed the work of his hands, so that his flocks and herds are spread throughout the land.[b] 11But stretch out your hand and strike everything he has,[c] and he will surely curse you to your face."[d] 12The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, then, everything he has[e] is in your hands, but on the man himself do not lay a finger."[f]
Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.
13One day when Job's sons and daughters[g] were feasting[h] and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house, 14a messenger came to Job and said,
"The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing[i] nearby, 15and the Sabeans[j] attacked and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"
16While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, "The fire of God fell from the sky[k] and burned up the sheep and the servants,[l] and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"
17While he was still speaking, an-
other messenger came and said, "The Chaldeans[m] formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and carried them off. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!" 18While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, "Your sons and daughters[n] were feasting[o]
and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house, 19when suddenly a mighty wind[p] swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead,[q] and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!"[r] 20At this, Job got up and tore his robe[s] and shaved his head.[t] Then he fell to the ground in worship[u] 21and
said:

"Naked I came from my mother's womb,
and naked I will depart.[c][v]

ing God with wrongdoing.[c]

Job's Second Test

2 On another day the angels[d d] came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came with them[e] to present himself before him. 2And the LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the LORD, "From

3Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him; he is blameless and upright, a man who fears God and shuns evil.[g] And he still maintains his integrity,[h] though you incited me against him to ruin him without any reason."[i]

4"Skin for skin!" Satan replied. "A man will give all he has[j] for his own life. 5But stretch out your hand and strike his flesh and bones,[k] and he will surely curse you to your face."[l]

6The LORD said to Satan, "Very well, then, he is in your hands;[m] but you must spare his life."[n]

7So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD and afflicted Job with painful sores from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.[o] 8Then Job took a piece of broken pottery and scraped himself with it as he sat among the ashes.[p]

9His wife said to him, "Are you still holding on to your integrity?[q] Curse God and die!"[r]

10He replied, "You are talking like a foolish[e] woman. Shall we accept good from God, and not trouble?"[s]

In all this, Job did not sin in what he said.[t]

Job's Three Friends

11When Job's three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite,[u] Bildad the Shuhite[v] and Zophar the Naamathite,[w] heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him.[x] 12When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognize him;[y] they began to weep aloud,[z] and they tore their robes[a] and sprinkled dust on their heads.[b] 13Then they sat on the ground[c] with him for seven days and seven nights.[d] No one said a word to him,[e] because they saw how great his suffering was.

Job Speaks

3 After this, Job opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.[f] 2He said:

3"May the day of my birth perish, and the night it was said, 'A boy is born!'[g] 4That day—may it turn to darkness;
may God above not care about it;
may no light shine upon it.
5May darkness and deep shadow[f h] claim it once more;
may a cloud settle over it;
may blackness overwhelm its
light.
6That night—may thick darkness[i] seize it;
may it not be included among the days of the year
nor be entered in any of the months.
7May that night be barren;
may no shout of joy[j] be heard
in it.
8May those who curse days[g] curse that day,[k]
those who are ready to rouse Leviathan.[l]
9May its morning stars become dark;
may it wait for daylight in vain and not see the first rays of dawn,[m] 10for it did not shut the doors of the womb on me
to hide trouble from my eyes.

11"Why did I not perish at birth, and die as I came from the womb?[n] 12Why were there knees to receive me[o]
and breasts that I might be nursed?
13For now I would be lying down[p] in peace;
I would be asleep and at rest[q] 14with kings and counselors of the earth,[r]
who built for themselves places now lying in ruins,[s]

Eliphaz

4 Then Eliphaz the Temanite[z] replied:

2"If someone ventures a word with you, will you be impatient?
But who can keep from speaking?[a] 3Think how you have instructed many,[b] how you have strengthened feeble hands.[c] 4Your words have supported those who stumbled;[d] you have strengthened faltering knees.[e] 5But now trouble comes to you, and you are discouraged;[f] it strikes[g] you, and you are dismayed.[h] 6Should not your piety be your confidence[i] and your blameless[j] ways your hope?

7"Consider now: Who, being innocent, has ever perished?[k]
Where were the upright ever destroyed?[l] 8As I have observed,[m] those who plow evil[n]
and those who sow trouble reap it.[o] 9At the breath of God[p] they are destroyed;
at the blast of his anger they perish.[q] 10The lions may roar[r] and growl, yet the teeth of the great lions[s] are broken.[t] 11The lion perishes for lack of prey,[u]
and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.[v]

12"A word[w] was secretly brought to me, my ears caught a whisper[x] of it.[y] 13Amid disquieting dreams in the night, when deep sleep falls on men,[z] 14fear and trembling[a] seized me and made all my bones shake.[b] 15A spirit glided past my face, and the hair on my body stood on end.[c] 16It stopped,
but I could not tell what it was.
A form stood before my eyes,
and I heard a hushed voice:[d] 17'Can a mortal be more righteous than God?[e]
Can a man be more pure than his Maker?[f] 18If God places no trust in his servants,[g]
if he charges his angels with error,[h] 19how much more those who live in houses of clay,[i] whose foundations[j] are in the dust,[k] who are crushed[l] more readily than a moth![m]

12Do I have the strength of stone?
Is my flesh bronze?[x] 13Do I have any power to help myself,[y]
now that success has been driven from me?

14"A despairing man[z] should have the devotion[a] of his friends,[b] even though he forsakes the fear of the Almighty.[c] 15But my brothers are as undependable as intermittent streams,[d] as the streams that overflow 16when darkened by thawing ice and swollen with melting snow,[e] 17but that cease to flow in the dry season, and in the heat[f] vanish from their channels.
18Caravans turn aside from their routes;
they go up into the wasteland and perish.
19The caravans of Tema[g] look for water,
the traveling merchants of Sheba[h] look in hope.
20They are distressed, because they had been confident;
they arrive there, only to be disappointed.[i] 21Now you too have proved to be of no help; you see something dreadful and are afraid.[j] 22Have I ever said, 'Give something on my behalf, pay a ransom[k] for me from your wealth,[l] 23deliver me from the hand of the enemy, ransom me from the clutches of the ruthless'?[m]

24"Teach me, and I will be quiet;[n] show me where I have been wrong.[o] 25How painful are honest words![p]
But what do your arguments prove?
26Do you mean to correct what I say, and treat the words of a despairing man as wind?[q] 27You would even cast lots[r] for the fatherless[s] and barter away your friend.

28"But now be so kind as to look at me.
Would I lie to your face?[t] 29Relent, do not be unjust;[u] reconsider, for my integrity[v] is at stake.[k] [w] 30Is there any wickedness on my lips?[x]
Can my mouth not discern[y] malice?

7 "Does not man have hard service[z] on earth?[a]
Are not his days like those of a hired man?[b] 2Like a slave longing for the evening shadows,[c] or a hired man waiting eagerly for his wages,[d] 3so I have been allotted months of futility, and nights of misery have been assigned to me.[e]

[i]6 The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain. [k]29 Or my righteousness still stands

[4]When I lie down I think, 'How long before I get up?'[a]
The night drags on, and I toss till dawn.[b]
[5]My body is clothed with worms[c]
and scabs,
my skin is broken and festering.[d]

[6]"My days are swifter than a weaver's and they come to an end without hope.[f]

[7]Remember, O God, that my life is but a breath;[g]
my eyes will never see happiness again.[h]
[8]The eye that now sees me will see me no longer;
you will look for me, but I will be no more.[i]
[9]As a cloud vanishes[j] and is gone, so he who goes down to the grave[l9] does not return.[k] [10]He will never come to his house
again;
his place[m] will know him no
more.[n]

[11]"Therefore I will not keep silent;[o]

[l]9 Hebrew Sheol [m]20 A few manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, an ancient Hebrew scribal tradition and Septuagint; most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text I have become a burden to myself.

13 Such is the destiny[a] of all who forget God;[b] so perishes the hope of the godless.[c] 14 What he trusts in is fragile[n];
what he relies on is a spider's web.[d] 15 He leans on his web,[e] but it gives way;
he clings to it, but it does not hold.[f] 16 He is like a well-watered plant in the sunshine, spreading its shoots[g] over the garden;[h] 17 it entwines its roots around a pile of rocks and looks for a place among the stones.
18 But when it is torn from its spot, that place disowns[i] it and says, 'I never saw you.'[j] 19 Surely its life withers[k] away, and[o] from the soil other plants grow.[l]

20 "Surely God does not reject a blameless[m] man or strengthen the hands of evildoers.[n] 21 He will yet fill your mouth with laughter[o]
and your lips with shouts of joy.[p] 22 Your enemies will be clothed in shame,[q] and the tents[r] of the wicked will be no more."[s]

Job

9 Then Job replied:

2 "Indeed, I know that this is true.
But how can a mortal be righteous before God?[t] 3 Though one wished to dispute with him,[u] he could not answer him one time out of a thousand.[v] 4 His wisdom[w] is profound, his power is vast.[x]
Who has resisted[y] him and come out unscathed?[z]
5 He moves mountains[a] without their knowing it and overturns them in his anger.[b] 6 He shakes the earth[c] from its place and makes its pillars tremble.[d] 7 He speaks to the sun and it does not shine;[e] he seals off the light of the stars.[f] 8 He alone stretches out the heavens[g] and treads on the waves of the sea.[h] 9 He is the Maker[i] of the Bear and Orion, the Pleiades and the constellations of the south.[j] 10 He performs wonders[k] that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be counted.[l] 11 When he passes me, I cannot see him;
when he goes by, I cannot perceive him.[m] 12 If he snatches away, who can stop him?[n]
Who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'[o] 13 God does not restrain his anger;[p] even the cohorts of Rahab[q] cowered at his feet.

14 "How then can I dispute with him?
How can I find words to argue with him?[r] 15 Though I were innocent, I could not answer him;[s]
I could only plead[t] with my Judge[u] for mercy.[v]
16 Even if I summoned him and he responded, I do not believe he would give me a hearing.[w] 17 He would crush me[x] with a storm[y] and multiply[z] my wounds for no reason.[a] 18 He would not let me regain my breath but would overwhelm me with misery.[b] 19 If it is a matter of strength, he is mighty![c]
And if it is a matter of justice, who will summon him[p]?[d] 20 Even if I were innocent, my mouth would condemn me;
if I were blameless, it would pronounce me guilty.[e]

21 "Although I am blameless,[f]
I have no concern for myself;[g]
I despise my own life.[h]

my complaint
and speak out in the bitterness of my soul.[e] 2I will say to God:[f] Do not condemn
me,
but tell me what charges[g] you have against me.[h] 3Does it please you to oppress me,[i] to spurn the work of your hands,[j] while you smile on the schemes of
the wicked?[k]
4Do you have eyes of flesh?
Do you see as a mortal sees?[l] 5Are your days like those of a mortal or your years like those of a man,[m] 6that you must search out my faults and probe after my sin[n]— 7though you know that I am not guilty[o]
and that no one can rescue me from your hand?[p]

8"Your hands shaped[q] me and made me.
Will you now turn and destroy me?[r] 9Remember that you molded me like clay.[s]
Will you now turn me to dust again?[t] 10Did you not pour me out like milk and curdle me like cheese, 11clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together[u] with bones and sinews?
12You gave me life[v] and showed me kindness,[w]
and in your providence[x] watched over[y] my spirit.

13"But this is what you concealed in
your heart,
and I know that this was in your mind:[z]
14If I sinned, you would be watching me[a]
and would not let my offense go unpunished.[b]
15If I am guilty[c]—woe to me![d]
Even if I am innocent, I cannot lift my head,[e]
for I am full of shame
and drowned in[r] my affliction.[f] 16If I hold my head high, you stalk me like a lion[g]
and again display your awesome power against me.[h] 17You bring new witnesses against me[i]
and increase your anger toward me;[j]
your forces come against me wave upon wave.[k]

18"Why then did you bring me out of the womb?[l]

[q]30 Or snow [r]15 Or and aware of

I wish I had died before any eye saw me.
[19]If only I had never come into being,
or had been carried straight from the womb to the grave!
[20]Are not my few days almost over?
Turn away from me so I can have a moment's joy [21]before I go to the place of no return,
to the land of gloom and deep shadow,[a] [22]to the land of deepest night, of deep shadow and disorder, where even the light is like darkness."

Zophar

11 Then Zophar the Naamathite replied:
[2]"Are all these words to go unanswered?
Is this talker to be vindicated?
[3]Will your idle talk reduce men to silence?
Will no one rebuke you when you mock?
[4]You say to God, 'My beliefs are flawless
and I am pure in your sight.' [5]Oh, how I wish that God would speak,
that he would open his lips against
you
[6]and disclose to you the secrets of wisdom,
for true wisdom has two sides.
Know this: God has even forgotten
some of your sin.
[7]"Can you fathom the mysteries of
God?
Can you probe the limits of the Almighty?
[8]They are higher than the heavens
—what can you do?
They are deeper than the depths of the grave[b]—what can you know?
[9]Their measure is longer than the
earth
and wider than the sea.
[10]"If he comes along and confines you in prison
and convenes a court, who can oppose him?
[11]Surely he recognizes deceitful men;
and when he sees evil, does he not take note?
[12]But a witless man can no more become wise
than a wild donkey's colt can be born a man.[c] [13]"Yet if you devote your heart to
him
and stretch out your hands to
him, [14]if you put away the sin that is in
your hand
and allow no evil to dwell in your tent, [15]then you will lift up your face without shame;
you will stand firm and without fear.
[16]You will surely forget your trouble, recalling it only as waters gone by.
[17]Life will be brighter than noonday, and darkness will become like
morning.
[18]You will be secure, because there is hope;
you will look about you and take your rest in safety.
[19]You will lie down, with no one to make you afraid,
and many will court your favor.
[20]But the eyes of the wicked will fail,
and escape will elude them;
their hope will become a dying gasp."

Job

12 Then Job replied:
[2]"Doubtless you are the people, and wisdom will die with you!
[3]But I have a mind as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Who does not know all these things?
[4]"I have become a laughingstock to my friends,
though I called upon God and he answered—
a mere laughingstock, though righteous and blameless!
[5]Men at ease have contempt for misfortune
as the fate of those whose feet are slipping.
[6]The tents of marauders are undisturbed,

a21 Or and the shadow of death; also in verse 22 b8 Hebrew than Sheol c12 Or wild donkey can be born tame and those who provoke God are secure[a]—

those who carry their god in their hands.[v]

7"But ask the animals, and they will teach you,[b]
or the birds of the air,[c] and they will tell you;[d] 8or speak to the earth, and it will teach you,
or let the fish of the sea inform
you.
9Which of all these does not know[e]
that the hand of the LORD has done
this?[f] 10In his hand is the life[g] of every creature
and the breath of all mankind.[h] 11Does not the ear test words as the tongue tastes food?[i] 12Is not wisdom found among the aged?[j]
Does not long life bring understanding?[k]

13"To God belong wisdom[l] and power;[m]
counsel and understanding are his.[n] 14What he tears down[o] cannot be rebuilt;[p]
the man he imprisons cannot be released.[q] 15If he holds back the waters,[r] there is drought;[s]
if he lets them loose, they devastate the land.[t] 16To him belong strength and victory;[u] both deceived and deceiver are his.[v] 17He leads counselors away stripped[w]
and makes fools of judges.[x] 18He takes off the shackles[y] put on by kings
and ties a loincloth[w] around their waist.[z] 19He leads priests away stripped[a]
and overthrows men long established.[b] 20He silences the lips of trusted advisers
and takes away the discernment of elders.[c] 21He pours contempt on nobles[d]
and disarms the mighty.[e] 22He reveals the deep things of darkness[f]
and brings deep shadows[g] into the light.[h] 23He makes nations great, and destroys them;[i]
he enlarges nations,[j] and disperses them.[k] 24He deprives the leaders of the earth of their reason;[l]
he sends them wandering through a trackless waste.[m] 25They grope in darkness with no light;[n]
he makes them stagger like drunkards.[o]

13 "My eyes have seen all this,[p] my ears have heard and understood it.
2What you know, I also know;
I am not inferior to you.[q] 3But I desire to speak to the Almighty[r]
and to argue my case with God.[s] 4You, however, smear me with lies;[t] you are worthless physicians,[u] all of you![v] 5If only you would be altogether silent![w]
For you, that would be wisdom.[x] 6Hear now my argument;
listen to the plea of my lips.[y] 7Will you speak wickedly on God's behalf?
Will you speak deceitfully for him?[z]
8Will you show him partiality?[a]
Will you argue the case for God?
9Would it turn out well if he examined you?[b]
Could you deceive him as you might deceive men?[c] 10He would surely rebuke you if you secretly showed partiality.[d] 11Would not his splendor[e] terrify you?
Would not the dread of him fall on
you?[f] 12Your maxims are proverbs of ashes;
your defenses are defenses of clay.[g]

13"Keep silent[h] and let me speak;[i] then let come to me what may.[j] 14Why do I put myself in jeopardy and take my life in my hands?[k] 15Though he slay me, yet will I hope[l] in him;[m]
I will surely[x] defend my ways to his face.[n]

16

Then Job replied:

[2]"I have heard many things like these;
miserable comforters[i] are you all![j]
[3]Will your long-winded speeches never end?[k]
What ails you that you keep on arguing?[l]
[4]I also could speak like you,
if you were in my place;
I could make fine speeches against
you
and shake my head[m] at you.
[5]But my mouth would encourage
you;
comfort[n] from my lips would bring you relief.[o]

[6]"Yet if I speak, my pain is not relieved;
and if I refrain, it does not go away.[p]
[7]Surely, O God, you have worn me out;[q]
you have devastated my entire household.[r]
[8]You have bound me—and it has become a witness;
my gauntness[s] rises up and testifies against me.[t] [9]God assails me and tears[u] me in his anger[v]
and gnashes his teeth at me;[w] my opponent fastens on me his piercing eyes.[x]
[10]Men open their mouths[y] to jeer at me;[z]
they strike my cheek[a] in scorn and unite together against me.[b] [11]God has turned me over to evil men and thrown me into the clutches of the wicked.[c] [12]All was well with me, but he shattered me;
he seized me by the neck and crushed me.[d]
He has made me his target;[e] 13 his archers surround me.[f] Without pity, he pierces[g] my kidneys
and spills my gall on the ground.
[14]Again and again[h] he bursts upon
me;
he rushes at me like a warrior.[i]

[15]"I have sewed sackcloth[j] over my skin
and buried my brow in the dust.[k] [16]My face is red with weeping,[l] deep shadows ring my eyes;[m] [17]yet my hands have been free of violence[n]
and my prayer is pure.[o]

[18]"O earth, do not cover my blood;[p] may my cry[q] never be laid to rest![r] [19]Even now my witness[s] is in heaven;[t]
my advocate is on high.[u] [20]My intercessor[v] is my friend[c] [w] as my eyes pour out[x] tears[y] to
God;
[21]on behalf of a man he pleads[z] with
God
as a man pleads for his friend.

[22]"Only a few years will pass before I go on the journey of no return.[a]

17

[1]My spirit[b] is broken, my days are cut short,[c]
the grave awaits me.[d] [2]Surely mockers[e] surround me;[f] my eyes must dwell on their hostility.

[3]"Give me, O God, the pledge you demand.[g]
Who else will put up security[h]
for me?[i] [4]You have closed their minds to understanding;[j]
therefore you will not let them triumph.
[5]If a man denounces his friends for reward,[k]
the eyes of his children will fail.[l]

everyone,[n]
a man in whose face people spit.[o]

4If it is true that I have gone astray, my error[a] remains my concern alone.
5If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me[b] and use my humiliation against me, 6then know that God has wronged me[c]
and drawn his net[d] around me.[e]

7"Though I cry, 'I've been wronged!' I get no response;[f] though I call for help,[g] there is no justice.[h] 8He has blocked my way so I cannot pass;[i] he has shrouded my paths in darkness.[j]

11His anger[q] burns against me;
he counts me among his enemies.[r] 12His troops advance in force;[s] they build a siege ramp[t] against me and encamp around my tent.[u]

13"He has alienated my brothers[v] from me;

23

Then Job replied:
2"Even today my complaint[f] is bitter;[g]
his hand[v] is heavy in spite of[w] my groaning.[h] 3If only I knew where to find him;
if only I could go to his dwelling![i] 4I would state my case[j] before him and fill my mouth with arguments.[k] 5I would find out what he would answer me,[l]
and consider what he would say.
6Would he oppose me with great power?[m]
No, he would not press charges against me.[n] 7There an upright man[o] could present his case before him,[p]
and I would be delivered forever from my judge.[q]

8"But if I go to the east, he is not
there;
if I go to the west, I do not find
him.
9When he is at work in the north, I do not see him;
when he turns to the south, I catch no glimpse of him.[r] 10But he knows the way that I take;[s]

pledge.[u]
4 They thrust the needy[v] from the path
and force all the poor[w] of the land into hiding.[x]
5 Like wild donkeys[y] in the desert, the poor go about their labor[z] of foraging food;
the wasteland[a] provides food for their children.
6 They gather fodder[b] in the fields and glean in the vineyards[c] of the wicked.[d]
7 Lacking clothes, they spend the night naked;
they have nothing to cover themselves in the cold.[e] 8 They are drenched[f] by mountain rains
and hug[g] the rocks for lack of shelter.[h]
9 The fatherless[i] child is snatched[j]
from the breast;
the infant of the poor is seized[k]
for a debt.[l]
10 Lacking clothes, they go about naked;[m]
they carry the sheaves,[n] but still go hungry.
11 They crush olives among the terraces[x];
they tread the winepresses,[o] yet suffer thirst.[p] 12 The groans of the dying rise from the city,
and the souls of the wounded cry out for help.[q]
But God charges no one with wrongdoing.[r]

13 "There are those who rebel against the light,[s]
who do not know its ways
or stay in its paths.[t] 14 When daylight is gone, the murderer rises up
and kills[u] the poor and needy;[v] in the night he steals forth like a thief.[w]
15 The eye of the adulterer[x] watches for dusk;[y]
he thinks, 'No eye will see me,'[z]
and he keeps his face concealed.
16 In the dark, men break into houses,[a] but by day they shut themselves in;
they want nothing to do with the 17 For all of them, deep darkness is their morning[y];

they make friends with the terrors[c] of darkness.[z] [d]

their portion of the land is cursed,[g]

the melted snow,[i]
so the grave[a] [j] snatches away those who have sinned.
20 The womb forgets them,
the worm[k] feasts on them;[l] evil men are no longer remembered[m]

25 Then Bildad the Shuhite[l] replied:

2 "Dominion and awe belong to God;[m] he establishes order in the heights of heaven.[n]
3 Can his forces be numbered?

Job

26 Then Job replied:

2 "How you have helped the powerless![u]
How you have saved the arm that is feeble![v]
3 What advice you have offered to one without wisdom!
And what great insight[w] you have displayed!
4 Who has helped you utter these words?
And whose spirit spoke from your mouth?[x]
5 "The dead are in deep anguish,[y]

that live in them.
6 Death[b][z] is naked before God; Destruction[c][a] lies uncovered.[b]

when God takes away his life?[a] 9Does God listen to his cry when distress comes upon him?[b] 10Will he find delight in the Almighty?[c]
Will he call upon God at all times?

11"I will teach you about the power of God;
the ways[d] of the Almighty I will not conceal.[e] 12You have all seen this yourselves.
Why then this meaningless talk?

13"Here is the fate God allots to the wicked, the heritage a ruthless man receives from the Almighty:[f] 14However many his children,[g] their fate is the sword;[h] his offspring will never have enough to eat.[i] 15The plague will bury those who survive him, and their widows will not weep for them.[j] 16Though he heaps up silver like dust[k] and clothes like piles of clay,[l] 17what he lays up[m] the righteous will wear,[n] and the innocent will divide his silver.[o] 18The house[p] he builds is like a moth's cocoon,[q] like a hut[r] made by a watchman.
19He lies down wealthy, but will do so no more;[s] when he opens his eyes, all is gone.[t] 20Terrors[u] overtake him like a flood;[v] a tempest snatches him away in the night.[w] 21The east wind[x] carries him off, and he is gone;[y] it sweeps him out of his place.[z] 22It hurls itself against him without mercy[a] as he flees headlong[b] from its power.[c] 23It claps its hands[d] in derision and hisses him out of his place.[e]

'Only a rumor of it has reached our ears.'
23God understands the way to it

26when he made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunderstorm, 27then he looked at wisdom and appraised it;
he confirmed it and tested it.
28And he said to man,
'The fear of the Lord—that is wisdom,

29 Job continued his discourse:
2"How I long for the months gone by,
for the days when God watched over me, 3when his lamp shone upon my head and by his light I walked through darkness!
4Oh, for the days when I was in my prime,
when God's intimate friendship blessed my house, 5when the Almighty was still with me and my children were around me, 6when my path was drenched with cream and the rock poured out for me streams of olive oil.
7"When I went to the gate of the city and took my seat in the public square, 8the young men saw me and stepped aside and the old men rose to their feet; 9the chief men refrained from speaking and covered their mouths with their hands; 10the voices of the nobles were hushed,
and their tongues stuck to the roof of their mouths.
11Whoever heard me spoke well of me,
and those who saw me commended me, 12because I rescued the poor who cried for help, and the fatherless who had none to assist him.
13The man who was dying blessed me;
I made the widow's heart sing.
14I put on righteousness as my clothing;
justice was my robe and my turban.
15I was eyes to the blind and feet to the lame.
16I was a father to the needy;
I took up the case of the stranger.
17I broke the fangs of the wicked and snatched the victims from their teeth.
18"I thought, 'I will die in my own house, my days as numerous as the grains of sand.
19My roots will reach to the water, and the dew will lie all night on my branches.
20My glory will remain fresh in me, the bow ever new in my hand.' 21"Men listened to me expectantly, waiting in silence for my counsel.
22After I had spoken, they spoke no more;
my words fell gently on their ears.
23They waited for me as for showers and drank in my words as the spring rain.
24When I smiled at them, they scarcely believed it;
the light of my face was precious to them.[b] 25I chose the way for them and sat as their chief;
I dwelt as a king among his troops;
I was like one who comforts mourners.

would a father,
and from my birth I guided the widow[h]— 19if I have seen anyone perishing for lack of clothing,[i]
or a needy[j] man without a garment, 20and his heart did not bless me[k] for warming him with the fleece[l]
from my sheep, 21if I have raised my hand against the fatherless,[m]
knowing that I had influence in court,[n] 22then let my arm fall from the shoulder,
let it be broken off at the joint.[o] 23For I dreaded destruction from God,[p]
and for fear of his splendor[q] I could not do such things.[r]

24"If I have put my trust in gold[s] or said to pure gold, 'You are my security,'[t]

gained,[v] 26if I have regarded the sun[w] in its radiance
or the moon[x] moving in splendor, 27so that my heart was secretly enticed[y]
and my hand offered them a kiss of homage,[z] 28then these also would be sins to be judged,[a]
for I would have been unfaithful to God on high.[b]

29"If I have rejoiced at my enemy's misfortune[c]

came to him[d]— 30I have not allowed my mouth to sin by invoking a curse against his

The words of Job are ended.[o]

Elihu

32 So these three men stopped answering Job,[o] because he was righteous in his own eyes.[p] 2But Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite,[q] of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job for justifying himself[r] rather than God.[s] 3He was also angry with the three friends,[t] because they had found no way to refute Job,[u] and yet had condemned him.[a][v] 4Now Elihu had waited before speaking to Job because they were older than he.[w] 5But when he saw that the three men had nothing more to say, his anger was aroused.
6So Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite
said:

"I am young in years,
and you are old;[x]
that is why I was fearful, not daring to tell you what I know.
7I thought, 'Age should speak;
advanced years should teach wisdom.'[y] 8But it is the spirit[b][z] in a man, the breath of the Almighty,[a] that gives him understanding.[b] 9It is not only the old[c] who are wise,[c]
not only the aged[d] who understand what is right.[e]

[z]14 Or Spirit [a]2 Or My righteousness is more than God's [b]3 Or you and what do I gain by not sinning?'[a]

4"I would like to reply to you and to your friends with you.
5Look up at the heavens[b] and see;
gaze at the clouds so high above
you.[c]
6If you sin, how does that affect him?
If your sins are many, what does that do to him?[d] 7If you are righteous, what do you give to him,[e]
or what does he receive[f] from your hand?[g]
8Your wickedness affects only a man like yourself,[h]
and your righteousness only the sons of men.[i]

9"Men cry out[j] under a load of oppression;[k]
they plead for relief from the arm of the powerful.[l] 10But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker,[m]
who gives songs[n] in the night,[o] 11who teaches[p] more to[q] us than to[c]
the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than[d] the birds of the air?'
12He does not answer[r] when men cry
out
because of the arrogance[s] of the wicked.[t] 13Indeed, God does not listen to their empty plea;
the Almighty pays no attention to it.[u] 14How much less, then, will he listen when you say that you do not see him,[v]
that your case[w] is before him and you must wait for him,[x] 15and further, that his anger never punishes[y]
and he does not take the least notice of wickedness.[e][z] 16So Job opens his mouth with empty talk;[a]
without knowledge he multiplies words."[b]

36

Elihu continued:
2"Bear with me a little longer and I will show you that there is more to be said in God's behalf.
3I get my knowledge from afar;[c]
I will ascribe justice to my Maker.[d]
4Be assured that my words are not false;[e]
one perfect in knowledge[f] is with you.[g]

5"God is mighty,[h] but does not despise men;[i]
he is mighty, and firm in his purpose.[j] 6He does not keep the wicked alive[k] but gives the afflicted their rights.[l] 7He does not take his eyes off the righteous;[m]
he enthrones them with kings[n]
and exalts them forever.[o] 8But if men are bound in chains,[p] held fast by cords of affliction,[q] 9he tells them what they have done—that they have sinned arrogantly.[r] 10He makes them listen[s] to correction[t]
and commands them to repent of their evil.[u] 11If they obey and serve him,[v] they will spend the rest of their days in prosperity[w]
and their years in contentment.[x] 12But if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword[f][y]
and die without knowledge.[z]

13"The godless in heart[a] harbor resentment;[b]
even when he fetters them, they do not cry for help.[c] 14They die in their youth,[d] among male prostitutes of the shrines.[e] 15But those who suffer[f] he delivers in their suffering;[g]
he speaks[h] to them in their affliction.[i]

16"He is wooing[j] you from the jaws of
distress
to a spacious place[k] free from restriction,[l]
to the comfort of your table[m] laden with choice food.[n] 17But now you are laden with the judgment due the wicked;[o] judgment and justice have taken hold of you.[p] 18Be careful that no one entices you by riches;

wrong'?[k]
24Remember to extol his work,[l] which men have praised in song.[m] 25All mankind has seen it;[n] men gaze on it from afar.
26How great is God—beyond our understanding![o]
The number of his years is past

27"He draws up the drops of water,[q] which distill as rain to the streams[h];[r] 28the clouds pour down their moisture and abundant showers[s] fall on mankind.[t] 29Who can understand how he

about him,
bathing the depths of the sea.[x] 31This is the way he governs[i] the abundance.[a] 32He fills his hands with lightning and commands it to strike its mark.[b] 33His thunder announces the coming ways;[n]

he does great things beyond our

The LORD Speaks

38 Then the LORD answered Job[n]
out of the storm.[o] He said:

2 "Who is this that darkens my counsel[p]
with words without knowledge?[q] 3 Brace yourself like a man;
I will question you,
and you shall answer me.[r]

4 "Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation?[s]
Tell me, if you understand.[t]
5 Who marked off its dimensions?[u]
Surely you know!
Who stretched a measuring line[v]
across it?
6 On what were its footings set,[w] or who laid its cornerstone[x]— 7 while the morning stars[y] sang together[z]
and all the angels[n][a] shouted for joy?[b]

8 "Who shut up the sea behind doors[c] when it burst forth from the womb,[d]
9 when I made the clouds its garment and wrapped it in thick darkness,[e] 10 when I fixed limits for it[f] and set its doors and bars in place,[g]
11 when I said, 'This far you may come and no farther;[h]
here is where your proud waves halt'?[i]

12 "Have you ever given orders to the morning,[j]
or shown the dawn its place,[k] 13 that it might take the earth by the edges
and shake the wicked[l] out of it?[m] 14 The earth takes shape like clay under a seal;[n]
its features stand out like those of a garment.
15 The wicked are denied their light,[o]
and their upraised arm is broken.[p]

16 "Have you journeyed to the springs of the sea
or walked in the recesses of the deep?[q]
17 Have the gates of death[r] been shown to you?
Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death[o]?[s] 18 Have you comprehended the vast expanses of the earth?[t]
Tell me, if you know all this.[u]

19 "What is the way to the abode of light?
And where does darkness reside?[v]
20 Can you take them to their places?
Do you know the paths[w] to their dwellings?
21 Surely you know, for you were already born![x]
You have lived so many years!

22 "Have you entered the storehouses of the snow[y]
or seen the storehouses[z] of the hail,[a] 23 which I reserve for times of trouble,[b] for days of war and battle?[c] 24 What is the way to the place where the lightning is dispersed,[d] or the place where the east winds[e] are scattered over the earth?[f] 25 Who cuts a channel for the torrents of rain,
and a path for the thunderstorm,[g] 26 to water[h] a land where no man lives,
a desert with no one in it,[i] 27 to satisfy a desolate wasteland and make it sprout with grass?[j]

3Then Job answered the LORD:

4"I am unworthy[t]—how can I reply to you?
I put my hand over my mouth.[u] 5I spoke once, but I have no answer[v]—
twice, but I will say no more."[w]

6Then the LORD spoke to Job out of the storm:[x]

7"Brace yourself like a man;
I will question you,
and you shall answer me.[y]

8"Would you discredit my justice?[z]
Would you condemn me to justify yourself?[a] 9Do you have an arm like God's,[b]

Epilogue

7After the LORD had said these things to Job[g], he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "I am angry with you and your two friends,[h] because you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has.[i] 8So now take seven bulls and seven rams[j] and go to my servant Job[k] and sacrifice a burnt offering[l] for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer[m] and not deal with you according to your folly.[n] You have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has."[o] 9So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite[p] did what the LORD told them; and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.[q] 10After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD made him prosperous again[r] and gave him twice as much as he had before.[s] 11All his brothers and sisters and everyone who had known him before[t] came and ate with him in his house. They comforted and consoled him over all the trouble the LORD had brought upon him,[u] and each one gave him a piece of silver[x] and a gold ring.
12The LORD blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the first. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys. 13And he also had seven sons and three daughters. 14The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch. 15Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers.
16After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation.
17And so he died, old and full of years.[v]

BOOK I

Psalms 1-41

Psalm 1

1Blessed is the man[a]
who does not walk[b] in the counsel of the wicked[c]
or stand in the way[d] of sinners[e] or sit[f] in the seat of mockers.[g] 2But his delight[h] is in the law of the LORD,[i]
and on his law he meditates[j] day and night.
3He is like a tree[k] planted by streams[l] of water,[m] which yields its fruit[n] in season and whose leaf[o] does not wither.
Whatever he does prospers.[p]

4Not so the wicked!
They are like chaff[q]
that the wind blows away.
5Therefore the wicked will not stand[r] in the judgment,[s]
nor sinners in the assembly[t] of
the righteous.

6For the LORD watches over[u] the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked will perish.[v]

Psalm 2

1Why do the nations conspire[a]
and the peoples plot[w] in vain?
2The kings[x] of the earth take their stand
and the rulers gather together against the LORD
and against his Anointed[y] One.[b][z] 3"Let us break their chains,[a]" they
say,
"and throw off their fetters."[b]

4The One enthroned[c] in heaven laughs;[d]
the Lord scoffs at them.
5Then he rebukes them in his anger[e] and terrifies them in his wrath,[f]
saying,
6"I have installed my King[c][g]
on Zion,[h] my holy hill.[i]"

7I will proclaim the decree of the
LORD:
He said to me, "You are my Son[d];[j] today I have become your Father.[e][k]
8Ask of me,
and I will make the nations[l] your inheritance,[m]
the ends of the earth[n] your possession.
9You will rule them with an iron scepter[f];[o]
you will dash them to pieces[p] like pottery.[q]"

10Therefore, you kings, be wise;[r] be warned, you rulers[s] of the
earth.
11Serve the LORD with fear[t]
and rejoice[u] with trembling.[v] 12Kiss the Son,[w] lest he be angry and you be destroyed in your way, for his wrath[x] can flare up in a moment.
Blessed[y] are all who take refuge[z]
in him.

Psalm 3

A psalm of David. When he fled from his son Absalom.[a]

1O LORD, how many are my foes!
How many rise up against me!
2Many are saying of me,
"God will not deliver him."[b]

Psalm 5

For the director of music. For flutes.
A psalm of David.

1Give ear[h] to my words, O LORD, consider my sighing.[i] 2Listen to my cry for help,[j] my King and my God,[k]
for to you I pray.
3In the morning,[l] O LORD, you hear my voice;
in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait in expectation.[m]

4You are not a God who takes pleasure in evil;
with you the wicked[n] cannot dwell.
5The arrogant[o] cannot stand[p] in your presence;
you hate[q] all who do wrong.
6You destroy those who tell lies;[r] bloodthirsty and deceitful men the LORD abhors.

7But I, by your great mercy,
will come into your house;
in reverence[s] will I bow down[t] toward your holy temple.[u] 8Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness[v] because of my enemies—
make straight your way[w] before me.

9Not a word from their mouth can be trusted;
their heart is filled with destruction.
Their throat is an open grave;[x]
with their tongue they speak deceit.[y] 10Declare them guilty, O God!
Let their intrigues be their downfall.
Banish them for their many sins,[z]
for they have rebelled[a] against you.

11But let all who take refuge in you be glad;
let them ever sing for joy.[b] Spread your protection over them, that those who love your name[c] may rejoice in you.[d]

Psalm 6

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. According to sheminith.[k] A psalm of David.

1O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger[d] or discipline me in your wrath.
2Be merciful to me,[e] LORD, for I am faint;[f]
O LORD, heal me,[g] for my bones are in agony.[h] 3My soul is in anguish.[i]
How long,[j] O LORD, how long?

4Turn,[k] O LORD, and deliver me;
save me because of your unfailing love.[l] 5No one remembers you when he is dead.
Who praises you from the grave[l]?[m]

6I am worn out[n] from groaning;[o] all night long I flood my bed with weeping[p]
and drench my couch with tears.[q] 7My eyes grow weak[r] with sorrow;
they fail because of all my foes.

8Away from me,[s] all you who do evil,[t]
for the LORD has heard my weeping.
9The LORD has heard my cry for mercy;[u]
the LORD accepts my prayer.
10All my enemies will be ashamed and dismayed;[v]
they will turn back in sudden disgrace.[w]

Psalm 7

A shiggaion[m][x] of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush, a Benjamite.

1O LORD my God, I take refuge[y] in you; save and deliver me[z] from all who pursue me,[a] 2or they will tear me like a lion[b] and rip me to pieces with no one to rescue[c] me.

3O LORD my God, if I have done this and there is guilt on my hands[d]— 4if I have done evil to him who is at peace with me or without cause[e] have robbed my foe—5then let my enemy pursue and overtake[f] me; let him trample my life to the ground[g]
and make me sleep in the dust.[h]

6Arise,[i] O LORD, in your anger; rise up against the rage of my enemies.[j]
Awake,[k] my God; decree justice.
7Let the assembled peoples gather around you.
Rule over them from on high;[l]
8 let the LORD judge[m] the peoples.
Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness,[n] according to my integrity,[o]
O Most High.[p] 9O righteous God,[q]
who searches minds and hearts,[r]
bring to an end the violence of the wicked and make the righteous secure.[s]

10My shield[n][t] is God Most High, who saves the upright in heart.[u] 11God is a righteous judge,[v] a God who expresses his wrath[w] every day.
12If he does not relent,[x]
he[o] will sharpen his sword;[y]
he will bend and string his bow.[z] 13He has prepared his deadly weapons;
he makes ready his flaming arrows.[a] 14He who is pregnant with evil and conceives trouble gives birth[b] to disillusionment.
15He who digs a hole and scoops it out falls into the pit[c] he has made.[d] 16The trouble he causes recoils on himself;
his violence comes down on his own head.

17I will give thanks to the LORD because of his righteousness[e] and will sing praise[f] to the name of the LORD Most High.[g]

Psalm 8

For the director of music. According to gittith.[p] A psalm of David.

1 O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name[a] in all the earth!

You have set your glory[b]
above the heavens.[c] 2 From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise[q] [d]
because of your enemies, to silence the foe[e] and the avenger.
3 When I consider your heavens,[f]
the work of your fingers,[g]
the moon and the stars,[h]
which you have set in place, 4 what is man that you are mindful of him,
the son of man that you care for him?[i] 5 You made him a little lower than the heavenly beings[r] [j] and crowned him with glory and honor.[k]

6 You made him ruler[l] over the works of your hands;[m] you put everything under his feet:[n] [o] 7 all flocks and herds,[p]
and the beasts of the field,[q] 8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,[r]
all that swim the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth![s]

Psalm 9[s]

For the director of music. To ⌊the tune of⌋ "The Death of the Son." A psalm of David.

1 I will praise you, O LORD, with all my heart;[t]
I will tell of all your wonders.[u]
2 I will be glad and rejoice[v] in you;
I will sing praise[w] to your name,[x]
O Most High.

3 My enemies turn back;
they stumble and perish before you.
4 For you have upheld my right[y] and my cause;[z] you have sat on your throne,[a] judging righteously.[b] 5 You have rebuked the nations[c] and destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name[d]
for ever and ever.
6 Endless ruin has overtaken the enemy,
you have uprooted their cities;[e]
even the memory of them[f] has perished.

7 The LORD reigns forever;[g]
he has established his throne[h] for judgment.
8 He will judge the world in righteousness;[i]
he will govern the peoples with justice.[j] 9 The LORD is a refuge[k] for the oppressed,[l] a stronghold in times of trouble.[m] 10 Those who know your name[n] will trust in you, for you, LORD, have never forsaken[o] those who seek you.[p]

11 Sing praises[q] to the LORD, enthroned in Zion;[r] proclaim among the nations[s] what he has done.[t] 12 For he who avenges blood[u] remembers;
he does not ignore the cry of the afflicted.[v]

13 O LORD, see how my enemies[w] persecute me!
Have mercy[x] and lift me up from the gates of death,[y] 14 that I may declare your praises[z] in the gates of the Daughter of Zion[a] and there rejoice in your salvation.[b] 15 The nations have fallen into the pit they have dug;[c] their feet are caught in the net they have hidden.[d] 16 The LORD is known by his justice;
the wicked are ensnared by the work of their hands.[e]

Psalm 10[v]

1Why, O LORD, do you stand far off?[i]
Why do you hide yourself[j] in times of trouble?

2In his arrogance the wicked man hunts down the weak,[k] who are caught in the schemes he devises.
3He boasts[l] of the cravings of his
heart;
he blesses the greedy and reviles
the LORD.[m] 4In his pride the wicked does not seek him;
in all his thoughts there is no room for God.[n] 5His ways are always prosperous;
he is haughty[o] and your laws are far from him;
he sneers at all his enemies.
6He says to himself, "Nothing will shake me;
I'll always be happy[p] and never have trouble."
7His mouth is full of curses[q] and lies and threats;[r]
trouble and evil are under his tongue.[s] 8He lies in wait[t] near the villages;
from ambush he murders the innocent,[u]
watching in secret for his victims.
9He lies in wait like a lion in cover;
he lies in wait to catch the helpless;[v]
he catches the helpless and drags them off in his net.[w] 10His victims are crushed,[x] they collapse;
they fall under his strength.
11He says to himself, "God has forgotten;[y]
he covers his face and never sees."[z]

12Arise,[a] LORD! Lift up your hand,[b]
O God.
Do not forget the helpless.[c]
13Why does the wicked man revile
God?[d]
Why does he say to himself,
"He won't call me to account"?[e] 14But you, O God, do see trouble[f] and grief;
you consider it to take it in hand.
The victim commits himself to you;[g] you are the helper[h] of the fatherless.
15Break the arm of the wicked and evil man;[i]
call him to account for his wickedness
that would not be found out.

16The LORD is King for ever and ever;[j] the nations[k] will perish from his
land.
17You hear, O LORD, the desire of the afflicted;[l]
you encourage them, and you listen to their cry,[m] 18defending the fatherless[n] and the oppressed,[o]
in order that man, who is of the earth, may terrify no more.

Psalm 11

For the director of music. Of David.

1In the LORD I take refuge.[p]
How then can you say to me:
"Flee[q] like a bird to your mountain.[r] 2For look, the wicked bend their bows;[s]
they set their arrows[t] against the strings
to shoot from the shadows[u]
at the upright in heart.[v] 3When the foundations[w] are being
destroyed,
what can the righteous do[w]?"

4The LORD is in his holy temple;[x]
the LORD is on his heavenly throne.[y]
He observes the sons of men;[z]
his eyes examine[a] them.
5The LORD examines the righteous,[b] but the wicked[x] and those who love violence
his soul hates.[c]

Psalm 12

For the director of music. According to sheminith.[y] A psalm of David.

1Help, LORD, for the godly are no more;[g]
the faithful have vanished from
among men.
2Everyone lies[h] to his neighbor;
their flattering lips speak with deception.[i] 3May the LORD cut off all flattering lips[j]
and every boastful tongue[k] 4that says, "We will triumph with our tongues;[l]
we own our lips[z]—who is our master?"
5"Because of the oppression[m] of the weak
and the groaning[n] of the needy,
I will now arise,[o]" says the LORD.
"I will protect them[p] from those who malign them."
6And the words of the LORD are flawless,[q]
like silver refined[r] in a furnace[s] of clay,
purified seven times.
7O LORD, you will keep us safe[t]
and protect us from such people forever.[u] 8The wicked freely strut[v] about when what is vile is honored among men.

Psalm 13

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

1How long,[w] O LORD? Will you forget me[x] forever?
How long will you hide your face[y]
from me?
2How long must I wrestle with my thoughts[z]
and every day have sorrow in my
heart?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?[a] 3Look on me[b] and answer,[c] O LORD
my God.
Give light to my eyes,[d] or I will sleep in death;[e] 4my enemy will say, "I have overcome him,[f]"
and my foes will rejoice when I fall.[g] 5But I trust in your unfailing love;[h]
my heart rejoices in your salvation.[i] 6I will sing[j] to the LORD, for he has been good to me.

Psalm 14

14:1-7pp — Ps 53:1-6

For the director of music. Of David.

1The fool[a] says in his heart,
"There is no God."[k]
They are corrupt, their deeds are vile;
there is no one who does good.
2The LORD looks down from heaven[l]
on the sons of men
to see if there are any who understand,[m] any who seek God.[n] 3All have turned aside,[o]
they have together become corrupt;[p]
there is no one who does good,[q]
not even one.[r] 4Will evildoers never learn—[s] those who devour my people[t] as men eat bread
and who do not call on the LORD?[u] 5There they are, overwhelmed with dread,
for God is present in the company
of the righteous.
6You evildoers frustrate the plans of the poor,
but the LORD is their refuge.[v] 7Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion![w]
When the LORD restores the fortunes[x] of his people, let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!

Psalm 15

A psalm of David.

1 LORD, who may dwell[a] in your sanctuary?[b]
Who may live on your holy hill?[c]

2 He whose walk is blameless[d]
and who does what is righteous, who speaks the truth[e] from his heart 3 and has no slander[f] on his tongue,
who does his neighbor no wrong and casts no slur on his fellow
man,
4 who despises a vile man but honors[g] those who fear the
LORD,
who keeps his oath[h]
even when it hurts,
5 who lends his money without usury[i]
and does not accept a bribe[j] against the innocent.

He who does these things will never be shaken.[k]

Psalm 16

A miktam[b] of David.

1 Keep me safe,[l] O God,
for in you I take refuge.[m]

2 I said to the LORD, "You are my Lord;[n]
apart from you I have no good thing."[o]
3 As for the saints[p] who are in the land,[q]
they are the glorious ones in whom is all my delight.[c] 4 The sorrows[r] of those will increase who run after other gods.[s] I will not pour out their libations of blood
or take up their names[t] on my lips.

5 LORD, you have assigned me my portion[u] and my cup;[v]
you have made my lot[w] secure.
6 The boundary lines[x] have fallen for me in pleasant places;
surely I have a delightful inheritance.[y]
7 I will praise the LORD, who counsels me;[z]
even at night[a] my heart instructs
me.
8 I have set the LORD always before
me.
Because he is at my right hand,[b]
I will not be shaken.[c]

9 Therefore my heart is glad[d] and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will rest secure,[e] 10 because you will not abandon me to the grave,[d][f]
nor will you let your Holy One[e][g] see decay.[h]
11 You have made[f] known to me the path of life;[i]
you will fill me with joy in your presence,[j]
with eternal pleasures[k] at your right hand.[l]

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

1 Hear,[m] O LORD, my righteous plea; listen to my cry.[n]
Give ear[o] to my prayer—it does not rise from deceitful lips.[p]
2 May my vindication[q] come from
you;
may your eyes see what is right.[r] 3 Though you probe my heart[s] and examine me at night, though you test me,[t] you will find nothing;[u]
I have resolved that my mouth will not sin.[v]
4 As for the deeds of men—
by the word of your lips
I have kept myself
from the ways of the violent.
5 My steps have held to your paths;[w] my feet have not slipped.[x]

6 I call on you, O God, for you will answer me;[y]
give ear to me[z] and hear my prayer.[a] 7 Show the wonder of your great love,[b]
you who save by your right hand[c]
those who take refuge[d] in you from their foes.
8 Keep me[e] as the apple of your eye;[f] hide me[g] in the shadow of your wings[h]
9 from the wicked who assail me,

from my mortal enemies who surround me.[a]

10 They close up their callous hearts,[b] and their mouths speak with arrogance.[c]

11 They have tracked me down, they now surround me,[d] with eyes alert, to throw me to the ground.

12 They are like a lion[e] hungry for prey,[f] like a great lion crouching in cover.

13 Rise up,[g] O LORD, confront them, bring them down;[h] rescue me from the wicked by your sword.

14 O LORD, by your hand save me from such men, from men of this world[i] whose reward is in this life.[j]

You still the hunger of those you cherish;
their sons have plenty,
and they store up wealth[k] for their children.

15 And I—in righteousness I will see your face; when I awake,[l] I will be satisfied with seeing your likeness.[m]

Psalm 18

18:Title–50pp — 2Sa 22:1-51

For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD. He sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:

1 I love you, O LORD, my strength.[n]

2 The LORD is my rock,[o] my fortress[p] and my deliverer;[q] my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge.[r]
He is my shield[s] and the horn[g] of my salvation,[t] my stronghold.

3 I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise,[u]
and I am saved from my enemies.[v]

4 The cords of death[w] entangled me;
the torrents[x] of destruction overwhelmed me.

5 The cords of the grave[h] coiled around me;
the snares of death[y] confronted me.

6 In my distress[z] I called to the LORD;[a]
I cried to my God for help.
From his temple he heard my voice;[b]
my cry came[c] before him, into his ears.

7 The earth trembled[d] and quaked,[e]
and the foundations of the mountains shook;[f] they trembled because he was angry.[g]

8 Smoke rose from his nostrils;[h] consuming fire[i] came from his mouth, burning coals[j] blazed out of it.

9 He parted the heavens and came down;[k] dark clouds[l] were under his feet.

10 He mounted the cherubim[m] and flew;
he soared[n] on the wings of the wind.[o]

11 He made darkness his covering,[p] his canopy[q] around him—the dark rain clouds of the sky.

12 Out of the brightness of his presence[r] clouds advanced, with hailstones[s] and bolts of lightning.[t]

13 The LORD thundered[u] from heaven;
the voice of the Most High resounded.[i]

14 He shot his arrows[v] and scattered the enemies, great bolts of lightning[w] and routed them.[x]

15 The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations[y] of the earth laid bare at your rebuke,[z] O LORD,
at the blast of breath from your nostrils.[a]

16 He reached down from on high and took hold of me;
he drew me out of deep waters.[b]

17 He rescued me from my powerful enemy,[c] from my foes, who were too strong for me.[d]

18 They confronted me in the day of my disaster,[e] but the LORD was my support.[f]

19 He brought me out into a spacious place;[g]

he rescued me because he delighted in me.[a]

20The Lord has dealt with me according to my righteousness;[b]
according to the cleanness of my hands[c] he has rewarded me.[d] 21For I have kept the ways of the Lord;[e]
I have not done evil by turning[f]
from my God.
22All his laws are before me;[g]
I have not turned away from his decrees.
23I have been blameless[h] before him and have kept myself from sin.
24The Lord has rewarded me according to my righteousness,[i]
according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.

25To the faithful[j] you show yourself faithful,[k]
to the blameless you show yourself blameless, 26to the pure[l] you show yourself
pure,
but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.[m] 27You save the humble[n]
but bring low those whose eyes are haughty.[o] 28You, O Lord, keep my lamp[p] burning;
my God turns my darkness into light.[q] 29With your help[r] I can advance against a troop[i];
with my God I can scale a wall.

30As for God, his way is perfect;[s]
the word of the Lord is flawless.[t] He is a shield[u]
for all who take refuge[v] in him.
31For who is God besides the Lord?[w]
And who is the Rock[x] except our
God?
32It is God who arms me with strength[y]
and makes my way perfect.[z] 33He makes my feet like the feet of a deer;[a]
he enables me to stand on the heights.[b] 34He trains my hands for battle;[c] my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
35You give me your shield of victory,
and your right hand sustains[d] me;
you stoop down to make me great.
36You broaden the path[e] beneath me, so that my ankles do not turn.[f] 37I pursued my enemies[g] and overtook them;
I did not turn back till they were
destroyed.
38I crushed them[h] so that they could not rise;[i]
they fell beneath my feet.[j] 39You armed me with strength[k] for
battle;
you made my adversaries bow[l] at my feet.
40You made my enemies turn their backs[m] in flight,
and I destroyed[n] my foes.
41They cried for help, but there was no one to save them[o]—
to the Lord, but he did not answer.[p] 42I beat them as fine as dust[q] borne on
the wind;
I poured them out like mud in the streets.

43You have delivered me from the attacks of the people;
you have made me the head of
nations;[r]
people I did not know[s] are subject
to me.
44As soon as they hear me, they obey
me;
foreigners[t] cringe before me.
45They all lose heart;[u] they come trembling[v] from their strongholds.[w]

46The Lord lives![x] Praise be to my Rock![y]
Exalted be God[z] my Savior![a] 47He is the God who avenges[b] me, who subdues nations[c] under me, 48 who saves[d] me from my enemies.[e]
You exalted me above my foes;
from violent men[f] you rescued
me.
49Therefore I will praise you among the nations,[g] O Lord;
I will sing[h] praises to your name.[i] 50He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed,[j]
to David[k] and his descendants forever.[l]

Psalm 19

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

1 The heavens[a] declare[b] the glory of God;[c]
the skies[d] proclaim the work of his hands.[e] 2 Day after day they pour forth speech; night after night they display knowledge.[f] 3 There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard.[k] 4 Their voice[l] goes out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world.[g]

In the heavens he has pitched a tent[h] for the sun,[i] 5 which is like a bridegroom[j] coming forth from his pavilion,[k] like a champion[l] rejoicing to run his course.
6 It rises at one end of the heavens[m] and makes its circuit to the other;[n] nothing is hidden from its heat.

7 The law of the LORD[o] is perfect,[p] reviving the soul.[q]
The statutes of the LORD are trustworthy,[r] making wise the simple.[s] 8 The precepts of the LORD are right,[t] giving joy[u] to the heart.
The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.[v] 9 The fear of the LORD[w] is pure, enduring forever.
The ordinances of the LORD are sure and altogether righteous.[x] 10 They are more precious than gold,[y] than much pure gold;
they are sweeter than honey,[z]
than honey from the comb.[a] 11 By them is your servant warned;
in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can discern his errors?
Forgive my hidden faults.[b] 13 Keep your servant also from willful sins;[c] may they not rule over me.[d]
Then will I be blameless,[e] innocent of great transgression.

14 May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing[f] in your sight,
O LORD, my Rock[g] and my Redeemer.[h]

Psalm 20

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

2 May he send you help[l] from the sanctuary[m] and grant you support[n] from Zion.[o] 3 May he remember[p] all your sacrifices and accept your burnt offerings.[q] Selah 4 May he give you the desire of your heart[r] and make all your plans succeed.[s] 5 We will shout for joy[t] when you are victorious and will lift up our banners[u] in the name of our God.
May the LORD grant all your requests.[v]

6 Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed;[w] he answers him from his holy heaven with the saving power of his right hand.[x] 7 Some trust in chariots[y] and some in horses,[z] but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.[a] 8 They are brought to their knees and fall,[b] but we rise up[c] and stand firm.[d] 9 O LORD, save the king!
Answer[m] us[e] when we call!

Psalm 21

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

1 O LORD, the king rejoices in your strength.[f]
How great is his joy in the victories you give![g] 2 You have granted him the desire of his heart[h] and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah 3You welcomed him with rich blessings

and placed a crown of pure gold[a] on his head.[b] 4He asked you for life, and you gave it to him—
length of days, for ever and ever.[c] 5Through the victories[d] you gave, his glory is great;
you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.[e] 6Surely you have granted him eternal blessings
and made him glad with the joy[f]
of your presence.[g] 7For the king trusts in the LORD;[h] through the unfailing love[i] of the

your right hand will seize your foes.
9At the time of your appearing you will make them like a fiery furnace.
In his wrath the LORD will swallow them up,
and his fire will consume them.[m] 10You will destroy their descendants from the earth,
their posterity from mankind.[n] 11Though they plot evil[o] against you and devise wicked schemes,[p] they cannot succeed;
12for you will make them turn their backs[q]
when you aim at them with drawn bow.

13Be exalted,[r] O LORD, in your strength;[s]
we will sing and praise your might.

Psalm 22

For the director of music. To ⌞the tune of⌟ "The Doe of the Morning."
A psalm of David.

1My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?[t]
Why are you so far[u] from saving
me,
so far from the words of my groaning?[v]
2O my God, I cry out by day, but you do not answer,[w]
by night,[x] and am not silent.

3Yet you are enthroned as the Holy One;[y]
you are the praise[z] of Israel.[n] 4In you our fathers put their trust; they trusted and you delivered them.[a] 5They cried to you[b] and were saved;
in you they trusted[c] and were not disappointed.[d]

6But I am a worm[e] and not a man, scorned by men[f] and despised[g]
by the people.
7All who see me mock me;[h] they hurl insults,[i] shaking their heads:[j] 8"He trusts in the LORD;
let the LORD rescue him.[k] Let him deliver him,[l]
since he delights[m] in him."

9Yet you brought me out of the womb;[n]
you made me trust[o] in you even at my mother's breast.
10From birth[p] I was cast upon you;
from my mother's womb you have been my God.
11Do not be far from me,[q]
for trouble is near[r]
and there is no one to help.[s]

12Many bulls[t] surround me;[u] strong bulls of Bashan[v] encircle me.
13Roaring lions[w] tearing their prey[x]
open their mouths wide[y]
against me.
14I am poured out like water,
and all my bones are out of joint.[z]
My heart has turned to wax;[a] it has melted away[b] within me.
15My strength is dried up like a potsherd,[c]
and my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth;[d]
you lay me[o] in the dust[e] of death.
16Dogs[f] have surrounded me;
a band of evil men has encircled me,
they have pierced[p][g] my hands and my feet.
17I can count all my bones;
people stare[h] and gloat over me.[i]

Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

1The LORD is my shepherd,[k] I shall not be in want.[l]
2 He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters,[m] 3 he restores my soul.[n]
He guides me[o] in paths of righteousness[p]

Psalm 25[v]

Of David.

1To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul;[i]
2 in you I trust,[j] O my God.
Do not let me be put to shame, nor let my enemies triumph over me.
3No one whose hope is in you for they are from of old.

7Remember not the sins of my youth[r] and my rebellious ways;[s] according to your love[t] remember
me,
for you are good,[u] O LORD.

8Good and upright[v] is the LORD; therefore he instructs[w] sinners in his ways.
9He guides[x] the humble in what is right
and teaches them[y] his way.
10All the ways of the LORD are loving and faithful[z]
for those who keep the demands of his covenant.[a] 11For the sake of your name,[b] O LORD, forgive[c] my iniquity,[d] though it is great.

5I abhor[a] the assembly of evildoers and refuse to sit with the wicked.
6I wash my hands in innocence,[b] and go about your altar, O LORD, 7proclaiming aloud your praise[c]

the LORD.

Psalm 27

Of David.

1The LORD is my light[m] and my salvation[n]—
whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the stronghold[o] of my life—
of whom shall I be afraid?[p] 2When evil men advance against me to devour my flesh,[w] when my enemies and my foes attack me,
they will stumble and fall.[q] 3Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear;[r]
though war break out against me, even then will I be confident.[s]

4One thing[t] I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek:
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,[u]
to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.
5For in the day of trouble[v]
he will keep me safe[w] in his dwelling;
he will hide me[x] in the shelter of his tabernacle
and set me high upon a rock.[y] 6Then my head will be exalted[z] above the enemies who surround me;[a]

you have been my helper.[k]
Do not reject me or forsake[l] me,

Psalm 28

Of David.

1To you I call, O LORD my Rock;
do not turn a deaf ear[v] to me.
For if you remain silent,[w]
I will be like those who have gone down to the pit.[x] 2Hear my cry for mercy[y]
as I call to you for help, as I lift up my hands[z] toward your Most Holy Place.[a]

3Do not drag me away with the wicked,
with those who do evil,
who speak cordially with their neighbors
but harbor malice in their hearts.[b] 4Repay them for their deeds and for their evil work;

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

1 Ascribe to the LORD,[q] O mighty ones,[r]
ascribe to the LORD glory[s] and
strength.
2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his
name;
worship the LORD in the splendor
of his[y] holiness.[t]

3 The voice[u] of the LORD is over the waters;
the God of glory[v] thunders,[w]
the LORD thunders over the mighty waters.[x]
4 The voice of the LORD is powerful;[y]
the voice of the LORD is majestic.
5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars;
the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.[z]
6 He makes Lebanon skip[a] like a calf,
Sirion[z][b] like a young wild ox.[c]
7 The voice of the LORD strikes with flashes of lightning.[d] 8 The voice of the LORD shakes the desert;
the LORD shakes the Desert of Kadesh.[e] 9 The voice of the LORD twists the oaks[a][f]
and strips the forests bare.
And in his temple all cry, "Glory!"[g]

10 The LORD sits[b] enthroned over the flood;[h]
the LORD is enthroned as King forever.[i] 11 The LORD gives strength to his people;[j]
the LORD blesses his people with peace.[k]

Psalm 30

A psalm. A song. For the dedication of the temple.[c] Of David.

1 I will exalt[l] you, O LORD, for you lifted me out of the depths[m]
and did not let my enemies gloat
over me.[n]
2 O LORD my God, I called to you for help[o]
and you healed me.[p] 3 O LORD, you brought me up from the grave[d];[q]
you spared me from going down into the pit.[r]

4 Sing[s] to the LORD, you saints[t] of his;
praise his holy name.[u] 5 For his anger[v] lasts only a moment,[w] but his favor lasts a lifetime;[x] weeping[y] may remain for a night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.[z]

6 When I felt secure, I said,
"I will never be shaken."[a] 7 O LORD, when you favored me, you made my mountain[e] stand
firm;
but when you hid your face,[b]
I was dismayed.

8 To you, O LORD, I called;
to the Lord I cried for mercy: 9 "What gain is there in my destruction,[f]
in my going down into the pit?[c]
Will the dust praise you?
Will it proclaim your faithfulness?[d]

Psalm 31

31:1-4pp — Ps 71:1-3

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

1In you, O LORD, I have taken refuge;[j]
let me never be put to shame;
deliver me in your righteousness.[k] 2Turn your ear to me,[l] come quickly to my rescue;[m] be my rock of refuge,[n] a strong fortress to save me.
3Since you are my rock and my fortress,[o]
for the sake of your name[p] lead and guide me.
4Free me from the trap[q] that is set
for me,
for you are my refuge.[r] 5Into your hands I commit my spirit;[s]
redeem me, O LORD, the God of truth.[t]

6I hate those who cling to worthless idols;[u]
I trust in the LORD.[v] 7I will be glad and rejoice in your love,
for you saw my affliction[w]
and knew the anguish[x] of my soul.
8You have not handed me over[y] to the enemy
but have set my feet in a spacious place.[z]

9Be merciful to me, O LORD, for I am in distress;[a]
my eyes grow weak with sorrow,[b] my soul and my body[c] with
grief.
10My life is consumed by anguish[d]
and my years by groaning;[e] my strength fails[f] because of my affliction,[g][k]
and my bones grow weak.[h] 11Because of all my enemies,[i] I am the utter contempt[j] of my neighbors;[k]
I am a dread to my friends—
those who see me on the street flee from me.
12I am forgotten by them as though I were dead;[l]
I have become like broken pottery.
13For I hear the slander[m] of many;
there is terror on every side;[n] they conspire against me[o]
and plot to take my life.[p]

14But I trust[q] in you, O LORD;
I say, "You are my God." 15My times[r] are in your hands;
deliver me from my enemies
and from those who pursue me.
16Let your face shine[s] on your
servant;
save me in your unfailing love.[t] 17Let me not be put to shame,[u]
O LORD,
for I have cried out to you;
but let the wicked be put to shame
and lie silent[v] in the grave.[h] 18Let their lying lips[w] be silenced, for with pride and contempt they speak arrogantly[x] against the righteous.

19How great is your goodness,[y] which you have stored up for those who fear you,
which you bestow in the sight of men[z]
on those who take refuge[a] in you.
20In the shelter[b] of your presence you hide[c] them
from the intrigues of men;[d] in your dwelling you keep them safe
from accusing tongues.

21Praise be to the LORD,[e] for he showed his wonderful love[f]
to me
when I was in a besieged city.[g] 22In my alarm[h] I said,
"I am cut off[i] from your sight!"
Yet you heard my cry[j] for mercy when I called to you for help.

23Love the LORD, all his saints![k]
The LORD preserves the faithful,[l] but the proud he pays back[m] in full.
24Be strong and take heart,[n]
all you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

Of David. A maskil.[i]

1 Blessed is he whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered.[a] 2 Blessed is the man whose sin the LORD does not count against him[b]
and in whose spirit is no deceit.[c] 3 When I kept silent,[d] my bones wasted away[e]
through my groaning[f] all day long.
4 For day and night
your hand was heavy[g] upon me;
my strength was sapped[h] as in the heat of summer. Selah 5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity.[i]
I said, "I will confess[j]
my transgressions[k] to the LORD"— and you forgave
the guilt of my sin.[l] Selah

6 Therefore let everyone who is godly pray to you
while you may be found;[m] surely when the mighty waters[n] rise,[o]
they will not reach him.[p] 7 You are my hiding place;[q] you will protect me from trouble[r] and surround me with songs of deliverance.[s] Selah

8 I will instruct[t] you and teach you[u]
in the way you should go;
I will counsel you and watch over[v]
you.
9 Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle[w]
or they will not come to you.
10 Many are the woes of the wicked,[x]
but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the man who trusts[y] in
him.
11 Rejoice in the LORD[z] and be glad,
you righteous;
sing, all you who are upright in
heart!

Psalm 33

1 Sing joyfully[a] to the LORD, you
righteous;
it is fitting[b] for the upright[c] to praise him.
2 Praise the LORD with the harp;[d] make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre.[e] 3 Sing to him a new song;[f]
play skillfully, and shout for joy.[g] 4 For the word of the LORD is right[h] and true;[i]
he is faithful[j] in all he does.
5 The LORD loves righteousness and justice;[k]
the earth is full of his unfailing love.[l]

6 By the word[m] of the LORD were the heavens made,[n]
their starry host[o] by the breath of his mouth.
7 He gathers the waters[p] of the sea into jars[j];[q]
he puts the deep into storehouses.
8 Let all the earth fear the LORD;[r] let all the people of the world[s] revere him.[t]
9 For he spoke, and it came to be;
he commanded,[u] and it stood
firm.
10 The LORD foils[v] the plans[w] of the nations;[x]
he thwarts the purposes of the
peoples.
11 But the plans of the LORD stand firm[y]
forever,
the purposes[z] of his heart through
all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD,[a]
the people he chose[b] for his inheritance.[c] 13 From heaven the LORD looks down[d]
and sees all mankind;[e] 14 from his dwelling place[f] he watches all who live on earth—15 he who forms[g] the hearts of all, who considers everything they do.[h]
16 No king is saved by the size of his army;[i]
no warrior escapes by his great
strength.
17 A horse[j] is a vain hope for deliverance;
despite all its great strength it cannot save.
18 But the eyes[k] of the LORD are on
those who fear him,
on those whose hope is in his unfailing love,[l]
19 to deliver them from death[m]

Psalm 34[k]

Of David. When he pretended to be insane[f] before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he left.

1 I will extol the LORD at all times;[g] his praise will always be on my lips.
2 My soul will boast[h] in the LORD;
let the afflicted hear and rejoice.[i] 3 Glorify the LORD[j] with me;
let us exalt[k] his name together.

4 I sought the LORD,[l] and he answered me;
he delivered[m] me from all my fears.
5 Those who look to him are radiant;[n]
their faces are never covered with shame.[o]
6 This poor man called, and the LORD heard him;
he saved him out of all his troubles.[p]
7 The angel of the LORD[q] encamps around those who fear him, and he delivers[r] them.

8 Taste and see that the LORD is good;[s] blessed is the man who takes refuge[t] in him.
9 Fear the LORD,[u] you his saints, for those who fear him lack nothing.[v]
10 The lions may grow weak and hungry,
but those who seek the LORD lack
no good thing.[w]

11 Come, my children, listen[x] to me;
I will teach you[y] the fear of the LORD.[z]
12 Whoever of you loves life[a]
and desires to see many good days,
13 keep your tongue[b] from evil and your lips from speaking lies.[c] 14 Turn from evil and do good;[d] seek peace[e] and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the LORD[f] are on the righteous[g]
and his ears are attentive[h] to their cry;

Psalm 35

Of David.

1 Contend,[u] O LORD, with those who contend with me;
fight[v] against those who fight
against me.
2 Take up shield[w] and buckler;
arise[x] and come to my aid.[y] 3 Brandish spear[z] and javelin[1][a] against those who pursue me.
Say to my soul,
"I am your salvation.[b]"

4 May those who seek my life[c] be disgraced[d] and put to shame;[e] may those who plot my ruin be turned back[f] in dismay.
5 May they be like chaff[g] before the wind,
with the angel of the LORD[h]
driving them away;
6 may their path be dark and slippery,
with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.
7 Since they hid their net[i] for me without cause[j]
and without cause dug a pit[k]
for me,

may the net they hid entangle
them,
may they fall into the pit,[b] to their
ruin.
9Then my soul will rejoice[c] in the LORD
and delight in his salvation.[d] 10My whole being will exclaim,
"Who is like you,[e] O LORD?
You rescue the poor from those too strong[f] for them,
the poor and needy[g] from those who rob them."

11Ruthless witnesses[h] come forward; they question me on things I know nothing about.
12They repay me evil for good[i]
and leave my soul forlorn.
13Yet when they were ill, I put on sackcloth[j]
and humbled myself with fasting.[k]
When my prayers returned to me
unanswered,
14 I went about mourning[l] as though for my friend or brother.
I bowed my head in grief
as though weeping for my mother.
15But when I stumbled, they gathered in glee;[m]
attackers gathered against me when I was unaware.
They slandered[n] me without ceasing.
16Like the ungodly they maliciously mocked[m];[o]
they gnashed their teeth[p] at me.
17O Lord, how long[q] will you look on?
Rescue my life from their ravages, my precious life[r] from these lions.[s] 18I will give you thanks in the great assembly;[t]
among throngs[u] of people I will praise you.[v]

19Let not those gloat over me who are my enemies[w] without cause;
let not those who hate me without reason[x]
maliciously wink the eye.[y] 20They do not speak peaceably, but devise false accusations[z] against those who live quietly in
the land.
21They gape[a] at me and say, "Aha!
Aha![b]
With our own eyes we have seen it."

22O LORD, you have seen[c] this; be not silent.
Do not be far[d] from me, O Lord.
23Awake,[e] and rise[f] to my defense!
Contend[g] for me, my God and
Lord.
24Vindicate me in your righteousness,
O LORD my God;
do not let them gloat[h] over me.
25Do not let them think, "Aha,[i] just what we wanted!"
or say, "We have swallowed him up."[j]

26May all who gloat[k] over my distress[l]
be put to shame[m] and confusion;
may all who exalt themselves
over me[n]
be clothed with shame and disgrace.
27May those who delight in my vindication[o]
shout for joy[p] and gladness;
may they always say, "The LORD be exalted,
who delights[q] in the well-being of his servant."[r] 28My tongue will speak of your righteousness[s]
and of your praises all day long.[t]

Psalm 36

For the director of music. Of David the servant of the LORD.

1An oracle is within my heart concerning the sinfulness of the wicked:[n] [u]
There is no fear[v] of God
before his eyes.[w] 2For in his own eyes he flatters himself
too much to detect or hate his sin.[x] 3The words of his mouth[y] are wicked and deceitful;[z]
he has ceased to be wise[a] and to do good.[b] 4Even on his bed he plots evil;[c] he commits himself to a sinful course[d]
and does not reject what is wrong.[e]

Psalm 37[p]

Of David.

1Do not fret because of evil men or be envious[s] of those who do wrong;[t] 2for like the grass they will soon wither,[u]
like green plants they will soon die away.[v]
3Trust in the LORD and do good;
dwell in the land[w] and enjoy safe pasture.[x]
4Delight[y] yourself in the LORD and he will give you the desires of your heart.[z] 5Commit your way to the LORD;
trust in him[a] and he will do this:
6He will make your righteousness[b] shine like the dawn,[c]
the justice of your cause like the noonday sun.
7Be still[d] before the LORD and wait patiently[e] for him;
do not fret[f] when men succeed in their ways,[g]
when they carry out their wicked schemes.[h] 8Refrain from anger[i] and turn from wrath;
do not fret[j]—it leads only to evil.
9For evil men will be cut off,[k] but those who hope[l] in the LORD will inherit the land.[m] 10A little while, and the wicked will be no more;[n]
though you look for them, they will not be found.
11But the meek will inherit the land[o]
and enjoy great peace.[p] 12The wicked plot[q] against the
righteous
and gnash their teeth[r] at them; 13but the Lord laughs at the wicked, for he knows their day is coming.[s] 14The wicked draw the sword[t] and bend the bow[u]
to bring down the poor and needy,[v]
to slay those whose ways are upright.
15But their swords will pierce their own hearts,[w]
and their bows will be broken.[x] 16Better the little that the righteous have
than the wealth[y] of many wicked; 17for the power of the wicked will be broken,[z]
but the LORD upholds[a] the
righteous.
18The days of the blameless are known to the LORD,[b]
and their inheritance will endure forever.[c] 19In times of disaster they will not wither;
in days of famine they will enjoy plenty.
20But the wicked will perish:[d]
The LORD's enemies will be like the beauty of the fields, they will vanish—vanish like smoke.[e] 21The wicked borrow and do not repay,
but the righteous give generously;[f] 22those the LORD blesses will inherit
the land,
but those he curses[g] will be cut off.[h]

[o]7 Or love, O God! / Men find; or love! / Both heavenly beings and men / find [p]This psalm is an acrostic poem, the stanzas of which begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet.

[23]If the LORD delights[a] in a man's way, he makes his steps firm;[b] [24]though he stumble, he will not fall,[c] for the LORD upholds[d] him with his hand.

[25]I was young and now I am old, yet I have never seen the righteous forsaken[e] or their children begging[f] bread.
[26]They are always generous and lend freely;[g] their children will be blessed.[h]

[27]Turn from evil and do good;[i] then you will dwell in the land forever.[j] [28]For the LORD loves the just and will not forsake his faithful ones.[k]

They will be protected forever, but the offspring of the wicked will be cut off;[l] [29]the righteous will inherit the land[m] and dwell in it forever.[n]

[30]The mouth of the righteous man utters wisdom,[o] and his tongue speaks what is just.
[31]The law of his God is in his heart;[p] his feet do not slip.[q]

[32]The wicked lie in wait[r] for the righteous,[s] seeking their very lives; [33]but the LORD will not leave them in their power or let them be condemned[t] when brought to trial.[u]

[34]Wait for the LORD[v]
and keep his way.[w]
He will exalt you to inherit the land;
when the wicked are cut off,[x] you will see[y] it.

[35]I have seen a wicked and ruthless man flourishing[z] like a green tree in its native soil, [36]but he soon passed away and was no more;
though I looked for him, he could not be found.[a]

[37]Consider the blameless,[b] observe the upright;[c] there is a future[q] for the man of peace.[d] [38]But all sinners[e] will be destroyed;[f]
the future[r] of the wicked will be cut off.[g]

[39]The salvation[h] of the righteous comes from the LORD;
he is their stronghold in time of trouble.[i] [40]The LORD helps[j] them and delivers[k] them;
he delivers them from the wicked and saves[l] them, because they take refuge[m] in him.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David. A petition.

[1]O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.[n] [2]For your arrows[o] have pierced me, and your hand has come down upon me.
[3]Because of your wrath there is no health[p] in my body;
my bones[q] have no soundness because of my sin.
[4]My guilt has overwhelmed[r] me like a burden too heavy to bear.[s]

[5]My wounds[t] fester and are loathsome[u] because of my sinful folly.[v] [6]I am bowed down[w] and brought very low;
all day long I go about mourning.[x] [7]My back is filled with searing pain;[y]
there is no health[z] in my body.
[8]I am feeble and utterly crushed;[a]
I groan[b] in anguish of heart.[c]

[9]All my longings[d] lie open before you, O Lord;
my sighing[e] is not hidden from you.
[10]My heart pounds,[f] my strength fails[g] me;
even the light has gone from my eyes.[h] [11]My friends and companions avoid me because of my wounds;[i] my neighbors stay far away.
[12]Those who seek my life set their traps,[j] those who would harm me talk of my ruin;[k]
all day long they plot deception.[l]

[13]I am like a deaf man, who cannot hear,[m] like a mute, who cannot open his mouth; [14]I have become like a man who does not hear, whose mouth can offer no reply.

22Come quickly[o] to help me,[p]
O Lord my Savior.[q]

Psalm 39

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

1I said, "I will watch my ways[r] and keep my tongue from sin;[s] I will put a muzzle on my mouth[t] as long as the wicked are in my presence." 2But when I was silent[u] and still,
not even saying anything good,
my anguish[v] increased.
3My heart grew hot[w] within me,
and as I meditated,[x] the fire[y] burned;
then I spoke with my tongue:

4"Show me, O LORD, my life's end and the number of my days;[z]
let me know how fleeting[a] is my life.[b] 5You have made my days[c] a mere handbreadth;
the span of my years is as nothing before you.
Each man's life is but a breath.[d] Selah 6Man is a mere phantom[e] as he goes to and fro:[f]
He bustles about, but only in vain;[g] he heaps up wealth,[h] not knowing who will get it.[i]

7"But now, Lord, what do I look for?
My hope is in you.[j] 8Save me[k] from all my transgressions;[l]
do not make me the scorn[m] of fools.
9I was silent;[n] I would not open my mouth,[o]
for you are the one who has done this.[p] 10Remove your scourge from me;
I am overcome by the blow[q] of your hand.[r] 11You rebuke[s] and discipline[t] men for their sin;
you consume[u] their wealth like a moth[v]—
each man is but a breath.[w] Selah

12"Hear my prayer, O LORD, listen to my cry for help;[x]
be not deaf[y] to my weeping.[z]
For I dwell with you as an alien,[a] a stranger,[b] as all my fathers were.[c] 13Look away from me, that I may rejoice again before I depart and am no more."[d]

Psalm 40

40:13-17pp — Ps 70:1-5

For the director of music. Of David. A psalm.

1I waited patiently[e] for the LORD;
he turned to me and heard my cry.[f] 2He lifted me out of the slimy pit,[g] out of the mud[h] and mire;[i] he set my feet[j] on a rock[k]
and gave me a firm place to stand.
3He put a new song[l] in my mouth,
a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear[m]
and put their trust[n] in the LORD.

4Blessed is the man[o]
who makes the LORD his trust,[p] who does not look to the proud,[q] to those who turn aside to false gods.[a][r] 5Many, O LORD my God,
are the wonders[s] you have done.
The things you planned for us
no one can recount[t] to you;
were I to speak and tell of them, they would be too many[u] to declare.

it is written about me in the scroll.[v][d]
8 I desire to do your will,[e] O my God;[f]
your law is within my heart."[g]

9 I proclaim righteousness[h] in the great assembly;[i]
I do not seal my lips,
as you know,[j] O LORD.
10 I do not hide your righteousness in
my heart;
I speak of your faithfulness[k] and
salvation.
I do not conceal your love and your truth
from the great assembly.[l]

surround me;
my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see.[r]
They are more than the hairs of my head,[s]
and my heart fails[t] within me.
13 Be pleased, O LORD, to save me;
O LORD, come quickly to help me.[u]
14 May all who seek to take my life[v]
be put to shame and confusion;[w]
may all who desire my ruin[x]
be turned back in disgrace.
15 May those who say to me, "Aha!
Aha!"[y]
be appalled at their own
shame.
16 But may all who seek you[z] rejoice and be glad[a] in you;
may those who love your salvation
always say,
"The LORD be exalted!"[b]

17 Yet I am poor and needy;[c] may the Lord think[d] of me.
You are my help[e] and my deliverer;[f]
O my God, do not delay.[g]

Psalm 41

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

1 Blessed[h] is he who has regard for the weak;[i]
the LORD delivers him in times of trouble.[j]
2 The LORD will protect[k] him and preserve his life;[l]
he will bless him in the land[m]
and not surrender him to the desire of his foes.[n] 3 The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed[o]
and restore him from his bed of illness.[p]

4 I said, "O LORD, have mercy[q] on me; heal[r] me, for I have sinned[s]
against you."
5 My enemies say of me in malice,
"When will he die and his name perish?[t]"
6 Whenever one comes to see me, he speaks falsely,[u] while his heart gathers slander;[v]
then he goes out and spreads[w] it abroad.

7 All my enemies whisper together[x]
against me;
they imagine the worst for me,
saying,
8 "A vile disease has beset him;

Psalms 42–72

Psalm 42[w]

For the director of music. A maskil[x] of the Sons of Korah.

1 As the deer[a] pants for streams of water,[b] so my soul pants[c] for you, O God.
2 My soul thirsts[d] for God, for the living God.[e]
When can I go[f] and meet with God?
3 My tears[g] have been my food day and night, while men say to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"[h] 4 These things I remember as I pour out my soul:[i] how I used to go with the multitude, leading the procession to the house of God,[j] with shouts of joy[k] and thanksgiving[l] among the festive throng.[m]

5 Why are you downcast,[n] O my soul?
Why so disturbed[o] within me?
Put your hope in God,[p]
for I will yet praise[q] him, my Savior[r] and 6 my God.[s]

My[y] soul is downcast within me;
therefore I will remember[t] you from the land of the Jordan,[u] the heights of Hermon[v]—from Mount Mizar.
7 Deep calls to deep[w] in the roar of your waterfalls;
all your waves and breakers have swept over me.[x]

8 By day the LORD directs his love,[y] at night[z] his song[a] is with me—a prayer to the God of my life.[b]

9 I say to God my Rock,[c]
"Why have you forgotten[d] me?
Why must I go about mourning,[e] oppressed[f] by the enemy?"[g] 10 My bones suffer mortal agony[h] as my foes taunt[i] me, saying to me all day long,
"Where is your God?"[j]

11 Why are you downcast, O my soul?
Why so disturbed within me?
Put your hope in God,
for I will yet praise him,
my Savior and my God.[k]

Psalm 44

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A maskil.[x]

1 We have heard with our ears,[c] O God;
our fathers have told us[d]
what you did in their days,
in days long ago.[e] 2 With your hand you drove out[f] the nations and planted[g] our fathers;
you crushed[h] the peoples and made our fathers flourish.[i] 3 It was not by their sword[j] that they won the land, nor did their arm bring them victory;
it was your right hand,[k] your arm,[l] and the light[m] of your face, for you loved[n] them.

4 You are my King[o] and my God,[p] who decrees[z] victories[q] for Jacob.
5 Through you we push back[r] our enemies;

[n]S Dt 4:37 44:4 [o]S Ps 24:7 [p]Ps 5:2 [q]S Ps 21:5 44:5 [r]S Jos 23:5

[w]In many Hebrew manuscripts Psalms 42 and 43 constitute one psalm. [x]Title: Probably a literary or musical term [y]5,6 A few Hebrew manuscripts, Septuagint and Syriac; most Hebrew manuscripts praise him for his saving help. / [6]O my God, my [z]4 Septuagint, Aquila and Syriac; Hebrew King, O God; / command

through your name we trample[a] our foes.
6 I do not trust in my bow,[b]
my sword does not bring me victory;
7 but you give us victory[c] over our enemies,
you put our adversaries to shame.[d]
8 In God we make our boast[e] all day long,[f]
and we will praise your name forever.[g] Selah

9 But now you have rejected[h] and humbled us;[i]
you no longer go out with our armies.[j] 10 You made us retreat[k] before the enemy,
and our adversaries have plundered[l] us.
11 You gave us up to be devoured like sheep[m]
and have scattered us among the nations.[n]
12 You sold your people for a pittance,[o] gaining nothing from their sale.

13 You have made us a reproach[p] to our neighbors,[q]
the scorn[r] and derision[s] of those around us.
14 You have made us a byword[t]
among the nations;
the peoples shake their heads[u]
at us.
15 My disgrace[v] is before me all day
long,
and my face is covered with shame[w]
16 at the taunts[x] of those who reproach and revile[y] me,
because of the enemy,[z] who is bent on revenge.

17 All this happened to us, though we had not forgotten[a] you or been false to your covenant.
18 Our hearts had not turned[b] back;
our feet had not strayed from your
path.
19 But you crushed[c] us and made us a haunt for jackals[d]
and covered us over with deep darkness.[e]

20 If we had forgotten[f] the name of our
God
or spread out our hands to a foreign god,[g]
21 would not God have discovered it, since he knows the secrets of the heart?[h]
22 Yet for your sake we face death all day long;
we are considered as sheep[i] to be slaughtered.[j]

23 Awake,[k] O Lord! Why do you sleep?[l]
Rouse yourself![m] Do not reject us forever.[n] 24 Why do you hide your face[o]
and forget[p] our misery and oppression?[q]

25 We are brought down to the dust;[r] our bodies cling to the ground.
26 Rise up[s] and help us; redeem[t] us because of your unfailing love.[u]

they fled in terror.[s] [6]Trembling seized[t] them there, pain like that of a woman in labor.[u] [7]You destroyed them like ships of Tarshish[v]

Psalm 49

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.

[1]Hear[i] this, all you peoples;[j] listen, all who live in this world,[k] [2]both low and high,[l]
rich and poor alike:
[3]My mouth will speak words of wisdom;[m]
the utterance from my heart will give understanding.[n] [4]I will turn my ear to a proverb;[o] with the harp[p] I will expound my riddle:[q]

[5]Why should I fear[r] when evil days come, when wicked deceivers surround me—[6]those who trust in their wealth[s] and boast[t] of their great riches?[u] [7]No man can redeem the life of another or give to God a ransom for him—[8]the ransom[v] for a life is costly, no payment is ever enough—[w] [9]that he should live on[x] forever and not see decay.[y]
[10]For all can see that wise men die;[z]
the foolish and the senseless[a] alike perish and leave their wealth[b] to others.[c] [11]Their tombs[d][i] will remain their houses[i] forever, their dwellings for endless generations,[e]
though they had[j] named[f] lands after themselves.

[12]But man, despite his riches, does not endure;[g]
he is[k] like the beasts that perish.[h] [13]This is the fate of those who trust in themselves,[i]

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

1The Mighty One, God, the LORD,[m] speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to the place where it sets.[n] 2From Zion,[o] perfect in beauty,[p]
God shines forth.[q] 3Our God comes[r] and will not be silent;[s]
a fire devours[t] before him,[u]
and around him a tempest[v] rages.
4He summons the heavens above, and the earth,[w] that he may judge his people:[x]
5"Gather to me my consecrated ones,[y]
who made a covenant[z] with me
by sacrifice."
6And the heavens proclaim[a] his righteousness,
for God himself is judge.[b] Selah 7"Hear, O my people, and I will
speak,
O Israel, and I will testify[c] against
you:
I am God, your God.[d] 8I do not rebuke[e] you for your sacrifices
or your burnt offerings,[f] which are ever before me.
9I have no need of a bull[g] from your stall
or of goats[h] from your pens,[i] 10for every animal of the forest[j] is mine,
and the cattle on a thousand hills.[k] 11I know every bird[l] in the mountains,
and the creatures of the field[m] are
mine.
12If I were hungry I would not tell
you,
for the world[n] is mine, and all that is in it.[o]
13Do I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?
14Sacrifice thank offerings[p] to God, fulfill your vows[q] to the Most High,[r] 15and call[s] upon me in the day of trouble;[t]
I will deliver[u] you, and you will honor[v] me."

16But to the wicked, God says:
"What right have you to recite my laws
or take my covenant[w] on your lips?[x] 17You hate[y] my instruction and cast my words behind[z]
you.
18When you see a thief, you join[a] with
him;
you throw in your lot with adulterers.[b] 19You use your mouth for evil and harness your tongue to deceit.[c] 20You speak continually against your brother[d]
and slander your own mother's son.
21These things you have done and I kept silent;[e]
you thought I was altogether[n] like
you.
But I will rebuke[f] you
and accuse[g] you to your face.

Psalm 51

For the director of music. A psalm of David. When the prophet Nathan came to him after David had committed adultery with Bathsheba.[e]

1Have mercy[f] on me, O God, according to your unfailing love;[g] according to your great compassion[h] blot out[i] my transgressions.[j] 2Wash away[k] all my iniquity and cleanse[l] me from my sin.

3For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.[m] 4Against you, you only, have I sinned[n]
and done what is evil in your sight,[o]
so that you are proved right when you speak
and justified when you judge.[p] 5Surely I was sinful[q] at birth,[r] sinful from the time my mother conceived me.
6Surely you desire truth in the inner parts[q];
you teach[r] me wisdom[s] in the inmost place.[t]

7Cleanse[u] me with hyssop,[v] and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.[w] 8Let me hear joy and gladness;[x] let the bones[y] you have crushed rejoice.
9Hide your face from my sins[z]
and blot out[a] all my iniquity.

10Create in me a pure heart,[b] O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.[c] 11Do not cast me[d] from your presence[e]
or take your Holy Spirit[f] from me.
12Restore to me the joy of your salvation[g]
and grant me a willing spirit,[h] to sustain me.[i]

13Then I will teach transgressors your ways,[j]
and sinners[k] will turn back to you.[l] 14Save me[m] from bloodguilt,[n] O God, the God who saves me,[o]
and my tongue will sing of your righteousness.[p] 15O Lord, open my lips,[q]
and my mouth will declare your praise.
16You do not delight in sacrifice,[r] or I would bring it;
you do not take pleasure in burnt offerings.
17The sacrifices[s] of God are[s] a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart,[t] O God, you will not despise.

18In your good pleasure make Zion[u]
prosper;
build up the walls of Jerusalem.[v] 19Then there will be righteous sacrifices,[w]
whole burnt offerings[x] to delight
you;
then bulls[y] will be offered on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the director of music. A maskil[t] of David. When Doeg the Edomite[z] had gone to Saul and told him: "David has gone to the house of Ahimelech."

1Why do you boast of evil, you mighty man?
Why do you boast[a] all day long,[b]
you who are a disgrace in the eyes of God?
2Your tongue plots destruction;[c] it is like a sharpened razor,[d]
you who practice deceit.[e] 3You love evil[f] rather than good, falsehood[g] rather than speaking the truth. Selah
4You love every harmful word,
O you deceitful tongue![h]

5Surely God will bring you down to everlasting ruin:
He will snatch you up and tear[i]
you from your tent;

Psalm 53

53:1-6pp — Ps 14:1-7

For the director of music. According to mahalath.[w] A maskil[v] of David.

1The fool[l] says in his heart,
"There is no God."[m]
They are corrupt, and their ways are
vile;
there is no one who does good.

2God looks down from heaven[n]
on the sons of men
to see if there are any who understand,[o]
any who seek God.[p] 3Everyone has turned away,
they have together become corrupt;
there is no one who does good,
not even one.[q]

4Will the evildoers never learn—those who devour my people as
men eat bread
and who do not call on God?
5There they were, overwhelmed with
dread,
where there was nothing to dread.[r]
God scattered the bones[s] of those who attacked you;[t]
you put them to shame,[u] for God despised them.[v]

6Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!
When God restores the fortunes of
his people,
let Jacob rejoice and Israel be glad!

Psalm 54

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A maskil[v] of David. When the Ziphites[w] had gone to Saul and said, "Is not David hiding among us?"

1Save me[x], O God, by your name;[y] vindicate me by your might.[z]

men without regard for God.[e]

6I will sacrifice a freewill offering[j] to
you;
I will praise[k] your name, O LORD,
for it is good.[l] 7For he has delivered me[m] from all my troubles,
and my eyes have looked in triumph on my foes.[n]

Psalm 55

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A maskil[v] of David.

1Listen to my prayer, O God, do not ignore my plea;[o]
2 hear me and answer me.[p]
My thoughts trouble me and I am distraught[q]
3 at the voice of the enemy, at the stares of the wicked;
for they bring down suffering upon me[r]
and revile[s] me in their anger.[t]

4My heart is in anguish[u] within me;
the terrors[v] of death assail me.
5Fear and trembling[w] have beset me;
horror[x] has overwhelmed me.
6I said, "Oh, that I had the wings of a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest—7I would flee far away
and stay in the desert;[y] Selah

[9]Confuse the wicked, O Lord, confound their speech,[b]
for I see violence and strife[c] in the city.[d]
[10]Day and night they prowl[e] about on its walls;
malice and abuse are within it.
[11]Destructive forces[f] are at work in
the city;
threats and lies[g] never leave its
streets.

[12]If an enemy were insulting me,
I could endure it;
if a foe were raising himself
against me,
I could hide from him.
[13]But it is you, a man like myself, my companion, my close friend,[h]
[14]with whom I once enjoyed sweet fellowship[i]
as we walked with the throng at the house of God.[j]

[15]Let death take my enemies by surprise;[k]
let them go down alive to the grave,[w][l]
for evil finds lodging among
them.

[16]But I call to God,
and the LORD saves me.
[17]Evening,[m] morning[n] and noon[o]
I cry out in distress,
and he hears my voice.
[18]He ransoms me unharmed from the battle waged against
me,
even though many oppose me.
[19]God, who is enthroned forever,[p]

he violates his covenant.[t] [21]His speech is smooth as butter,[u] yet war is in his heart;
his words are more soothing than oil,[v]
yet they are drawn swords.[w]

[22]Cast your cares on the LORD and he will sustain you;[x] he will never let the righteous fall.[y]
[23]But you, O God, will bring down the
wicked
into the pit[z] of corruption;
bloodthirsty and deceitful men[a] will not live out half their days.[b]

But as for me, I trust in you.[c]

Psalm 56

For the director of music. To the tune of, "A Dove on Distant Oaks." Of David. A miktam.[x] When the Philistines had seized him in Gath.

[1]Be merciful to me,[d] O God, for men hotly pursue me;[e]
all day long they press their attack.[f]
[2]My slanderers pursue me all day long;[g]
many are attacking me in their pride.[h]

[3]When I am afraid,[i]
I will trust in you.[j]
[4]In God, whose word I praise,[k] in God I trust; I will not be afraid.[l]
What can mortal man do to me?[m]

[5]All day long they twist my words;[n]
they are always plotting to harm me.
[6]They conspire,[o] they lurk, they watch my steps,[p]
eager to take my life.[q] [7]On no account let them escape;[r] in your anger, O God, bring down
the nations.[s]

[8]Record my lament;
list my tears on your scroll[y][t]—
are they not in your record?[u] [9]Then my enemies will turn back[v]
when I call for help.[w]
By this I will know that God is for me.[x]

[10]In God, whose word I praise, in the LORD, whose word I
praise—
[11]in God I trust; I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?

[12]I am under vows[y] to you, O God;
I will present my thank offerings
to you.
[13]For you have delivered me[z] from death[z]
and my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God
in the light of life.[a][a]

Psalm 57

57:7-11pp — Ps 108:1-5

For the director of music.
To the tune of "Do Not Destroy."
Of David. A miktam.[b]
When he had fled
from Saul into the cave.[a]

[1]Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me,
for in you my soul takes refuge.[b]
I will take refuge in the shadow of your wings[c]
until the disaster has passed.[d]

[2]I cry out to God Most High, to God, who fulfills his purpose for me.[e]
[3]He sends from heaven and saves me,[f]
rebuking those who hotly pursue me;[g] Selah
God sends his love and his faithfulness.[h]

[4]I am in the midst of lions;[i]

men whose teeth are spears and arrows,
whose tongues are sharp swords.[j]

[5]Be exalted, O God, above the
heavens;
let your glory be over all the earth.[k]

[6]They spread a net for my feet[l] —
I was bowed down[m] in
distress.
They dug a pit[n] in my path—
but they have fallen into it themselves.[o] Selah

[7]My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast;[p]
I will sing and make music.
[8]Awake, my soul!
Awake, harp and lyre![q]
I will awaken the dawn.

[9]I will praise you, O Lord, among the
nations;
I will sing of you among the
peoples.
[10]For great is your love, reaching to
the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the skies.[r]

[11]Be exalted, O God, above the heavens;[s]
let your glory be over all the earth.[t]

Psalm 58

For the director of music.
To the tune of
"Do Not Destroy."
Of David.
A miktam.[b]

[1]Do you rulers indeed speak justly?[u]
Do you judge uprightly among
men?
[2]No, in your heart you devise injustice,[v]
and your hands mete out violence on the earth.[w]
[3]Even from birth the wicked go astray;
from the womb they are wayward and speak lies.
[4]Their venom is like the venom of a snake,[x]
like that of a cobra that has stopped its ears,
[5]that will not heed[y] the tune of the charmer,[z]
however skillful the enchanter may be.

[6]Break the teeth in their mouths,
O God;[a]
tear out, O LORD, the fangs of the lions![b]
[7]Let them vanish like water that flows away;[c]
when they draw the bow, let their arrows be blunted.[d]
[8]Like a slug melting away as it moves along,[e]
like a stillborn child,[f] may they not see the sun.

[9]Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns[g] —
whether they be green or dry—the wicked will be swept away.[c] [h]
[10]The righteous will be glad[i] when they are avenged,[j]
when they bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.[k] [11]Then men will say,
"Surely the righteous still are rewarded;[l]
surely there is a God who judges
the earth."[m]

Psalm 59

For the director of music. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." Of David. A miktam.[d] When Saul had sent men to watch David's house[a] in order to kill him.

[1]Deliver me from my enemies,
O God;[b]
protect me from those who rise up against me.[c] [2]Deliver me from evildoers[d]
and save me from bloodthirsty men.[e]

[3]See how they lie in wait for me!
Fierce men conspire[f] against me
for no offense or sin of mine,
O LORD.
[4]I have done no wrong,[g] yet they are ready to attack me.[h] Arise to help me; look on my plight![i]
[5]O LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel,[j]
rouse yourself[k] to punish all the nations;[l]
show no mercy to wicked traitors.[m] Selah

[6]They return at evening, snarling like dogs,[n]
and prowl about the city.
[7]See what they spew from their mouths[o]—
they spew out swords[p] from their
lips,
and they say, "Who can hear us?"[q]
[8]But you, O LORD, laugh at them;[r]
you scoff at all those nations.[s] [9]O my Strength,[t] I watch for you;
you, O God, are my fortress,[u] [10]my loving God.

God will go before me
and will let me gloat over those who slander me.
[11]But do not kill them, O Lord our shield,[e v]
or my people will forget.[w] In your might make them wander about,
and bring them down.[x] [12]For the sins of their mouths,[y] for the words of their lips,[z] let them be caught in their pride.[a]
For the curses and lies they utter, 13 consume them in wrath, consume them till they are no more.[b]
Then it will be known to the ends of the earth

Psalm 60

60:5-12pp — Ps 108:6-13

For the director of music. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A miktam[d] of David. For teaching. When he fought Aram Naharaim[f] and Aram Zobah,[g] and when Joab returned and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.[l]

[1]You have rejected us,[m] O God, and burst forth upon us;
you have been angry[n]—now restore us![o]
[2]You have shaken the land[p] and torn it open;
mend its fractures,[q] for it is quaking.
[3]You have shown your people desperate times;[r]
you have given us wine that makes us stagger.[s] [4]But for those who fear you, you have raised a banner[t]
to be unfurled against the bow.
Selah
[5]Save us and help us with your right hand,[u]
that those you love[v] may be delivered.

down—
this leaning wall,[a] this tottering fence?
4They fully intend to topple him
from his lofty place;
they take delight in lies.
With their mouths they bless,
but in their hearts they curse.[b]
Selah

5Find rest, O my soul, in God alone;[c] my hope comes from him.
6He alone is my rock and my
salvation;
he is my fortress, I will not be shaken.
7My salvation and my honor depend on God[h];
he is my mighty rock, my refuge.[d] 8Trust in him at all times, O people;[e] pour out your hearts to him,[f]
for God is our refuge. Selah

9Lowborn men[g] are but a breath,[h]
the highborn are but a lie;
if weighed on a balance,[i] they are
nothing;
together they are only a breath.
10Do not trust in extortion[j] or take pride in stolen goods;[k] though your riches increase,
do not set your heart on them.[l]

11One thing God has spoken,
two things have I heard:
that you, O God, are strong,[m] 12 and that you, O Lord, are loving.[n] Surely you will reward each person according to what he has done.[o]

Psalm 63

A psalm of David. When he was in the Desert of Judah.

1O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you,[p]
my body longs for you,
in a dry and weary land
where there is no water.[q]

2I have seen you in the sanctuary[r] and beheld your power and your glory.[s] 3Because your love is better than life,[t]
my lips will glorify you.
4I will praise you as long as I live,[u] and in your name I will lift up my hands.[v]

h7 Or / God Most High is my salvation and my honor

[5]My soul will be satisfied as with the richest of foods;[a]
with singing lips my mouth will praise you.
[6]On my bed I remember you;
I think of you through the watches of the night.[b]
[7]Because you are my help,[c]
I sing in the shadow of your wings.[d]
[8]My soul clings to you;[e] your right hand upholds me.[f] [9]They who seek my life will be destroyed;[g]
they will go down to the depths of the earth.[h]
[10]They will be given over to the sword[i]
and become food for jackals.[j] [11]But the king will rejoice in God;
all who swear by God's name will praise him,[k]
while the mouths of liars will be silenced.[l]

Psalm 64

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

[1]Hear me, O God, as I voice my complaint;[m]
protect my life from the threat of the enemy.[n]
[2]Hide me from the conspiracy[o] of the wicked,[p]
from that noisy crowd of evildoers.
[3]They sharpen their tongues like swords[q]
and aim their words like deadly arrows.[r] [4]They shoot from ambush at the innocent man;[s]
they shoot at him suddenly,
without fear.[t]
[5]They encourage each other in evil
plans,
they talk about hiding their snares;[u]
they say, "Who will see them[i]?"[v] [6]They plot injustice and say,
"We have devised a perfect plan!" Surely the mind and heart of man are cunning.
[7]But God will shoot them with
arrows;
suddenly they will be struck
down.
[8]He will turn their own tongues against them[w]
and bring them to ruin;
all who see them will shake their heads[x] in scorn.[y] [9]All mankind will fear;[z] they will proclaim the works of
God
and ponder what he has done.[a] [10]Let the righteous rejoice in the LORD[b] and take refuge in him;[c] let all the upright in heart praise him![d]

Psalm 65

For the director of music. A psalm of David. A song.

[1]Praise awaits[j] you, O God, in Zion;[e]
to you our vows will be fulfilled.[f] [2]O you who hear prayer, to you all men will come.[g] [3]When we were overwhelmed by sins,[h]
you forgave[k] our transgressions.[i] [4]Blessed are those you choose[j] and bring near[k] to live in your courts!
We are filled with the good things of your house,[l]
of your holy temple.
[5]You answer us with awesome deeds of righteousness,[m] O God our Savior,[n]
the hope of all the ends of the earth[o]
and of the farthest seas,[p] [6]who formed the mountains[q] by your power,
having armed yourself with strength,[r]
[7]who stilled the roaring of the seas,[s]
the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations.[t] [8]Those living far away fear your wonders;
where morning dawns and evening fades
you call forth songs of joy.[u] [9]You care for the land and water it;[v] you enrich it abundantly.[w]
The streams of God are filled with
water
to provide the people with grain,[x] for so you have ordained it.[l] [10]You drench its furrows and level its ridges;

Psalm 66

For the director of music. A song. A psalm.

1 Shout with joy to God, all the earth![i] 2 Sing the glory of his name;[j] make his praise glorious![k] 3 Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds![l]
So great is your power that your enemies cringe[m] before you.
4 All the earth bows down[n] to you;
they sing praise[o] to you,
they sing praise to your name."
Selah
5 Come and see what God has done, how awesome his works[p] in man's behalf!
6 He turned the sea into dry land,[q] they passed through[r] the waters on foot—come, let us rejoice[s] in him.
7 He rules forever[t] by his power, his eyes watch[u] the nations—
let not the rebellious[v] rise up against him. Selah 8 Praise[w] our God, O peoples, let the sound of his praise be heard; 9 he has preserved our lives[x]
and kept our feet from slipping.[y] 10 For you, O God, tested[z] us;
you refined us like silver.[a] 11 You brought us into prison[b] and laid burdens[c] on our backs.
12 You let men ride over our heads;[d] we went through fire and water, but you brought us to a place of abundance.[e] 13 I will come to your temple with burnt offerings[f] and fulfill my vows[g] to you—14 vows my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.
15 I will sacrifice fat animals to you and an offering of rams;
I will offer bulls and goats.[h] Selah 16 Come and listen,[i] all you who fear God;
let me tell[j] you what he has done for me.
17 I cried out to him with my mouth;
his praise was on my tongue.
18 If I had cherished sin in my heart,
the Lord would not have listened;[k] 19 but God has surely listened and heard my voice[l] in prayer.
20 Praise be to God,
who has not rejected[m] my prayer or withheld his love from me!

Psalm 69

For the director of music. To ⌊the tune of⌋ "Lilies." Of David.

1 Save me, O God,
for the waters[w] have come up to my neck.[x] 2 I sink in the miry depths,[y]
where there is no foothold.
I have come into the deep waters;
the floods engulf me.
3 I am worn out calling for help;[z]
my throat is parched.
My eyes fail,[a]
looking for my God.
4 Those who hate me[b] without reason[c] outnumber the hairs of my head;
many are my enemies without cause,[d]
those who seek to destroy me.[e] I am forced to restore what I did not steal.

5 You know my folly,[f] O God;
my guilt is not hidden from you.[g]

6 May those who hope in you not be disgraced because of me, O Lord, the LORD Almighty;
may those who seek you
not be put to shame because of me,
O God of Israel.
7 For I endure scorn[h] for your sake,[i]
and shame covers my face.[j] 8 I am a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my own mother's sons;[k] 9 for zeal for your house consumes me,[l] and the insults of those who insult you fall on me.[m] 10 When I weep and fast,[n]
I must endure scorn;
11 when I put on sackcloth,[o]
people make sport of me.
12 Those who sit at the gate[p] mock me, and I am the song of the drunkards.[q]

13 But I pray to you, O LORD, in the time of your favor;[r]
in your great love,[s] O God, answer me with your sure salvation.
14 Rescue me from the mire,
do not let me sink;
deliver me from those who hate me,
from the deep waters.[t] 15 Do not let the floodwaters[u] engulf me or the depths swallow me up[v] or the pit close its mouth over me.[w] 16 Answer me, O LORD, out of the goodness of your love;[x] in your great mercy turn to me.
17 Do not hide your face[y] from your servant;
answer me quickly,[z] for I am in trouble.[a] 18 Come near and rescue me; redeem[b] me because of my foes.

19 You know how I am scorned,[c] disgraced and shamed;
all my enemies are before you.
20 Scorn has broken my heart and has left me helpless;
I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
for comforters,[d] but I found none.[e] 21 They put gall in my food and gave me vinegar[f] for my thirst.[g]

22 May the table set before them become a snare;

let your fierce anger overtake
them.
25May their place be deserted;[d] let there be no one to dwell in 29I am in pain and distress;

may your salvation, O God, protect me.[k]

30I will praise God's name in song[l] and glorify him[m] with thanksgiving.
31This will please the LORD more than an ox,
more than a bull with its horns

32The poor will see and be glad[o]— you who seek God, may your hearts live![p]
33The LORD hears the needy[q]

34Let heaven and earth praise him, the seas and all that move in them,[r]

dwell there.[v]

Psalm 70

70:1-5pp — Ps 40:13-17

For the director of music. Of David.
A petition.

1Hasten, O God, to save me;
O LORD, come quickly to help me.[w] 2May those who seek my life[x] be put to shame and confusion;
may all who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.[y] 3May those who say to me, "Aha!
Aha!"[z]
turn back because of their shame.
4But may all who seek you[a] rejoice and be glad[b] in you;
may those who love your salvation
always say,
"Let God be exalted!"[c]

5Yet I am poor and needy;[d]
come quickly to me,[e] O God.
You are my help[f] and my deliverer;[g]
O LORD, do not delay.[h]

Psalm 71

71:1-3pp — Ps 31:1-4

1In you, O LORD, I have taken refuge;[i]
let me never be put to shame.[j] 2Rescue me and deliver me in your
righteousness;
turn your ear[k] to me and save me.
3Be my rock of refuge,
to which I can always go;
give the command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.[l] 4Deliver[m] me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked,[n]
from the grasp of evil and cruel men.[o]

5For you have been my hope,[p]
O Sovereign LORD,
my confidence[q] since my youth.
6From birth[r] I have relied on you;
you brought me forth from my mother's womb.[s]
I will ever praise[t] you.
7I have become like a portent[u] to many,
but you are my strong refuge.[v] 8My mouth[w] is filled with your
praise,
declaring your splendor[x] all day
long.

9Do not cast[y] me away when I am old;[z]
do not forsake[a] me when my strength is gone.
10For my enemies[b] speak against me;
those who wait to kill[c] me conspire[d] together.
11They say, "God has forsaken[e] him;
pursue him and seize him,
for no one will rescue[f] him." 12Be not far[g] from me, O God;

BOOK III

Psalms 73-89

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

1Surely God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.[k] 2But as for me, my feet had almost slipped;[l]
I had nearly lost my foothold.[m] 3For I envied[n] the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.[o]

4They have no struggles;
their bodies are healthy and strong.[z]
5They are free[p] from the burdens common to man;
they are not plagued by human ills.
6Therefore pride[q] is their necklace;[r] they clothe themselves with violence.[s] 7From their callous hearts[t] comes iniquity[a];
the evil conceits of their minds know no limits.
8They scoff, and speak with malice;[u] in their arrogance[v] they threaten oppression.[w] 9Their mouths lay claim to heaven, and their tongues take possession of the earth.
10Therefore their people turn to them

Does the Most High have 12This is what the wicked are like—always carefree,[x] they increase in wealth.[y] 13Surely in vain[z] have I kept my heart

pure;
in vain have I washed my hands
in innocence.[a] 14All day long I have been plagued;[b]
I have been punished every
morning.
15If I had said, "I will speak thus,"
I would have betrayed your children.
16When I tried to understand[c] all this,
it was oppressive to me 17till I entered the sanctuary[d] of God; then I understood their final destiny.[e] 18Surely you place them on slippery ground;[f]
you cast them down to ruin.[g] 19How suddenly[h] are they destroyed, completely swept away[i] by terrors!

so when you arise, O Lord,
you will despise them as fantasies.[l]

21When my heart was grieved and my spirit embittered, 22I was senseless[m] and ignorant;
I was a brute beast[n] before you.
23Yet I am always with you;
you hold me by my right hand.[o] 24You guide[p] me with your counsel,[q] and afterward you will take me into glory.
25Whom have I in heaven but you?[r]
And earth has nothing I desire besides you.[s] 26My flesh and my heart[t] may fail,[u] but God is the strength[v] of my
heart
and my portion[w] forever.
27Those who are far from you will perish;[x]
you destroy all who are unfaithful[y] to you.

[z]4 With a different word division of the Hebrew; Masoretic Text struggles at their death; / their bodies are healthy [a]7 Syriac (see also Septuagint); Hebrew Their eyes bulge with fat [b]10 The meaning of the Hebrew for this verse is uncertain.

28But as for me, it is good to be near God.[a]
I have made the Sovereign LORD
my refuge;[b]
I will tell of all your deeds.[c]

Psalm 74

A maskil[c] of Asaph.

1Why have you rejected[d] us forever,[e]
O God?
Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?[f] 2Remember the people you purchased[g] of old,[h]
the tribe of your inheritance,[i] whom you redeemed[j] —
Mount Zion,[k] where you dwelt.[l] 3Turn your steps toward these everlasting ruins,[m] all this destruction the enemy has brought on the sanctuary.

4Your foes roared[n] in the place where you met with us;
they set up their standards[o] as signs.
5They behaved like men wielding axes
to cut through a thicket of trees.[p] 6They smashed all the carved[q] paneling
with their axes and hatchets.
7They burned your sanctuary to the ground;
they defiled[r] the dwelling place[s]
of your Name.[t] 8They said in their hearts, "We will crush[u] them completely!"
They burned[v] every place where God was worshiped in the
land.
9We are given no miraculous signs;[w] no prophets[x] are left,
and none of us knows how long this will be.
10How long[y] will the enemy mock[z]
you, O God?
Will the foe revile[a] your name
forever?
11Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?[b]
Take it from the folds of your garment[c] and destroy them!

12But you, O God, are my king[d] from
of old;
you bring salvation[e] upon the
earth.
13It was you who split open the sea[f]
by your power;
you broke the heads of the monsters[g] in the waters.
14It was you who crushed the heads of Leviathan[h]
and gave him as food to the creatures of the desert.[i] 15It was you who opened up springs[j]
and streams;
you dried up[k] the ever flowing rivers.
16The day is yours, and yours also the
night;
you established the sun and moon.[l] 17It was you who set all the boundaries[m] of the earth;
you made both summer and winter.[n]

18Remember how the enemy has mocked you, O LORD,
how foolish people[o] have reviled
your name.
19Do not hand over the life of your dove[p] to wild beasts;
do not forget the lives of your afflicted[q] people forever.
20Have regard for your covenant,[r] because haunts of violence fill the dark places[s] of the land.
21Do not let the oppressed[t] retreat in
disgrace;
may the poor and needy[u] praise
your name.
22Rise up,[v] O God, and defend your
cause;
remember how fools[w] mock you
all day long.
23Do not ignore the clamor[x] of your adversaries,[y]
the uproar[z] of your enemies,[a] which rises continually.

Psalm 75

For the director of music. ⌊To the tune of⌋ "Do Not Destroy." A psalm of Asaph. A song.

1We give thanks to you, O God, we give thanks, for your Name is near;[b]
men tell of your wonderful deeds.[c] 2You say, "I choose the appointed time;[d]
it is I who judge uprightly.[e]

he pours it out, and all the wicked of

but the horns of the righteous will be lifted up.[n]

Psalm 76

For the director of music. With stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph. A song.

1In Judah God is known;
his name is great[o] in Israel.
2His tent is in Salem,[p] his dwelling place in Zion.[q] 3There he broke the flashing arrows,[r] the shields and the swords, the weapons of war.[s] Selah 4You are resplendent with light,[t] more majestic than mountains rich with game.
5Valiant men[u] lie plundered, they sleep their last sleep;[v]
not one of the warriors can lift his hands.
6At your rebuke,[w] O God of Jacob, both horse and chariot[x] lie still.
7You alone are to be feared.[y]
Who can stand[z] before you when you are angry?[a] 8From heaven you pronounced judgment,
and the land feared[b] and was quiet—9when you, O God, rose up to judge,[c]
to save all the afflicted[d] of the land. Selah
10Surely your wrath against men brings you praise,[e]
and the survivors of your wrath are restrained.[d] 11Make vows to the LORD your God and fulfill them;[f]
let all the neighboring lands bring gifts[g] to the One to be feared.
12He breaks the spirit of rulers;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the director of music. For Jeduthun. Of Asaph. A psalm.

1I cried out to God[h] for help;
I cried out to God to hear me.
2When I was in distress,[i] I sought
the Lord;
at night[j] I stretched out untiring hands[k]
and my soul refused to be comforted.[l]
3I remembered[m] you, O God, and I groaned;[n]
I mused, and my spirit grew faint.[o] Selah 4You kept my eyes from closing;
I was too troubled to speak.[p] 5I thought about the former days,[q]
the years of long ago;
6I remembered my songs in the night.
My heart mused and my spirit inquired:
7"Will the Lord reject forever?[r]
Will he never show his favor[s]
again?
8Has his unfailing love[t] vanished
forever?
Has his promise[u] failed for all
time?
9Has God forgotten to be merciful?[v]
Has he in anger withheld his compassion?[w]" Selah 10Then I thought, "To this I will appeal:
the years of the right hand[x] of the Most High."
11I will remember the deeds of the LORD;

thunder;[j]
your arrows[k] flashed back and forth.

Psalm 78

A maskil[e] of Asaph.

1 O my people, hear my teaching;[t] listen to the words of my mouth.
2 I will open my mouth in parables,[u] I will utter hidden things, things from of old—
3 what we have heard and known, what our fathers have told us.[v] 4 We will not hide them from their children;[w]
we will tell the next generation[x]
the praiseworthy deeds[y] of the LORD, his power, and the wonders[z] he has done.
5 He decreed statutes[a] for Jacob[b] and established the law in Israel, which he commanded our forefathers
to teach their children, 6 so the next generation would know
them,
even the children yet to be born,[c]
and they in turn would tell their children.
7 Then they would put their trust in
God
and would not forget[d] his deeds but would keep his commands.[e] 8 They would not be like their forefathers[f]—
a stubborn[g] and rebellious[h] generation,
whose hearts were not loyal to God, whose spirits were not faithful to
him.

9 The men of Ephraim, though armed with bows,[i]
turned back on the day of battle;[j] 10 they did not keep God's covenant[k]
and refused to live by his law.[l] 11 They forgot what he had done,[m]
the wonders he had shown them.
12 He did miracles[n] in the sight of their fathers
in the land of Egypt,[o] in the region of Zoan.[p] 13 He divided the sea[q] and led them through;
he made the water stand firm like a wall.[r]
14 He guided them with the cloud by
day
and with light from the fire all night.[s]
15 He split the rocks[t] in the desert and gave them water as abundant as the seas;
16 he brought streams out of a rocky crag
and made water flow down like
rivers.

17 But they continued to sin[u] against
him, rebelling in the desert against the
Most High.
18 They willfully put God to the test[v] by demanding the food they craved.[w] 19 They spoke against God,[x] saying,
"Can God spread a table in the desert?
20 When he struck the rock, water gushed out,[y]
and streams flowed abundantly.
But can he also give us food?
Can he supply meat[z] for his
people?"
21 When the LORD heard them, he was very angry;
his fire broke out[a] against Jacob,
and his wrath rose against Israel,

22for they did not believe in God or trust[s] in his deliverance.
23Yet he gave a command to the skies above and opened the doors of the heavens;[t] 24he rained down manna[u] for the people to eat, he gave them the grain of heaven.
25Men ate the bread of angels;
he sent them all the food they could eat.
26He let loose the east wind[v] from the heavens and led forth the south wind by his power.
27He rained meat down on them like dust, flying birds[w] like sand on the seashore.
28He made them come down inside their camp,
all around their tents.
29They ate till they had more than enough,[x]
for he had given them what they craved.
30But before they turned from the food they craved, even while it was still in their mouths,[y] 31God's anger rose against them;
he put to death the sturdiest[z] among them, cutting down the young men of Israel.

32In spite of all this, they kept on sinning;[a] in spite of his wonders,[b] they did not believe.[c] 33So he ended their days in futility[d]
and their years in terror.
34Whenever God slew them, they would seek[e] him;
they eagerly turned to him again.
35They remembered that God was their Rock,[f] that God Most High was their Redeemer.[g] 36But then they would flatter him with their mouths,[h] lying to him with their tongues; 37their hearts were not loyal[i] to him,
they were not faithful to his covenant.
38Yet he was merciful;[j] he forgave[k] their iniquities[l] and did not destroy them.
Time after time he restrained his anger[m]
and did not stir up his full wrath.

39He remembered that they were but flesh,[n] a passing breeze[o] that does not return.

40How often they rebelled[p] against him in the desert[q]
and grieved him[r] in the wasteland!
41Again and again they put God to the test;[s] they vexed the Holy One of Israel.[t] 42They did not remember[u] his power—the day he redeemed them from the oppressor,[v] 43the day he displayed his miraculous signs[w] in Egypt, his wonders[x] in the region of Zoan.
44He turned their rivers to blood;[y]
they could not drink from their streams.
45He sent swarms of flies[z] that devoured them,
and frogs[a] that devastated them.
46He gave their crops to the grasshopper,[b] their produce to the locust.[c] 47He destroyed their vines with hail[d]
and their sycamore-figs with sleet.
48He gave over their cattle to the hail,
their livestock[e] to bolts of lightning.
49He unleashed against them his hot anger,[f] his wrath, indignation and hostility—a band of destroying angels.[g] 50He prepared a path for his anger;
he did not spare them from death
but gave them over to the plague.
51He struck down all the firstborn of Egypt,[h]
the firstfruits of manhood in the tents of Ham.[i] 52But he brought his people out like a flock;[j] he led them like sheep through the desert.
53He guided them safely, so they were unafraid;
but the sea engulfed[k] their enemies.[l] 54Thus he brought them to the border of his holy land, to the hill country his right hand[m] had taken.
55He drove out nations[n] before them and allotted their lands to them as an inheritance;[o]

he settled the tribes of Israel in their homes.
56But they put God to the test and rebelled against the Most High;
they did not keep his statutes.
57Like their fathers[a] they were disloyal and faithless,
as unreliable as a faulty bow.[b] 58They angered him[c] with their high places;[d]
they aroused his jealousy with their idols.[e] 59When God heard[f] them, he was very angry;[g]
he rejected Israel[h] completely.
60He abandoned the tabernacle of Shiloh,[i]
the tent he had set up among men.[j] 61He sent ⌊the ark of⌋ his might[k] into captivity,[l]
his splendor into the hands of the enemy.
62He gave his people over to the sword;[m]
he was very angry with his inheritance.[n] 63Fire consumed[o] their young men, and their maidens had no wedding songs;[p] 64their priests were put to the sword,[q]
and their widows could not weep.
65Then the Lord awoke as from sleep,[r]
as a man wakes from the stupor of wine.
66He beat back his enemies;
he put them to everlasting shame.[s] 67Then he rejected the tents of Joseph,
he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;[t]
68but he chose the tribe of Judah,[u]
Mount Zion,[v] which he loved.
69He built his sanctuary[w] like the heights,
like the earth that he established
forever.
70He chose David[x] his servant
and took him from the sheep pens; 71from tending the sheep[y] he brought
him
to be the shepherd[z] of his people Jacob,
of Israel his inheritance.
72And David shepherded them with integrity of heart;[a]
with skillful hands he led them.

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

1O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance;[b]
they have defiled[c] your holy
temple,
they have reduced Jerusalem to rubble.[d] 2They have given the dead bodies of your servants
as food to the birds of the air,[e]
the flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.[f] 3They have poured out blood like
water
all around Jerusalem,
and there is no one to bury[g] the dead.[h] 4We are objects of reproach to our neighbors,
of scorn[i] and derision to those around us.[j] 5How long,[k] O Lord? Will you be angry[l] forever?
How long will your jealousy burn like fire?[m] 6Pour out your wrath[n] on the
nations
that do not acknowledge[o] you, on the kingdoms
that do not call on your name;[p] 7for they have devoured[q] Jacob and destroyed his homeland.
8Do not hold against us the sins of the fathers;[r]
may your mercy come quickly to meet us,
for we are in desperate need.[s] 9Help us,[t] O God our Savior, for the glory of your name;
deliver us and forgive our sins
for your name's sake.[u] 10Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"[v] Before our eyes, make known among
the nations
that you avenge[w] the outpoured blood[x] of your servants.
11May the groans of the prisoners come before you;
by the strength of your arm
preserve those condemned to die.
12Pay back into the laps[y] of our neighbors seven times[z]
the reproach they have hurled at
you, O Lord.
13Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture,[a]
will praise you forever;[b]

Psalm 80

For the director of music. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." Of Asaph. A psalm.

1 Hear us, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock;[a] you who sit enthroned between the cherubim,[b] shine forth 2 before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasseh.[c] Awaken[d] your might;
come and save us.[e]
3 Restore[f] us,[g] O God;
make your face shine upon us,
that we may be saved.[h]
4 O LORD God Almighty,
how long[i] will your anger smolder against the prayers of your people?
5 You have fed them with the bread of tears;[k]
you have made them drink tears by the bowlful.[l] 6 You have made us a source of contention to our neighbors, and our enemies mock us.[m] 7 Restore us, O God Almighty;
make your face shine upon us,
that we may be saved.[n] 8 You brought a vine[o] out of Egypt;
you drove out[p] the nations and planted[q] it.
9 You cleared the ground for it, and it took root and filled the land.
10 The mountains were covered with its shade,
the mighty cedars with its branches.
11 It sent out its boughs to the Sea,[f] its shoots as far as the River.[g][r] 12 Why have you broken down its walls[s] so that all who pass by pick its grapes?
13 Boars from the forest ravage[t] it and the creatures of the field feed on it.
14 Return to us, O God Almighty!
Look down from heaven and see![u]
Watch over this vine,
15 the root your right hand has planted,
the son[h] you have raised up for yourself.
16 Your vine is cut down, it is burned with fire;[v] at your rebuke[w] your people perish.
17 Let your hand rest on the man at your right hand, the son of man[x] you have raised up for yourself.
18 Then we will not turn away from you;
revive[y] us, and we will call on your name.
19 Restore us, O LORD God Almighty;
make your face shine upon us,
that we may be saved.

Psalm 81

For the director of music. According to gittith.[i] Of Asaph.

1 Sing for joy to God our strength;
shout aloud to the God of Jacob![z] 2 Begin the music, strike the tambourine,[a] play the melodious harp[b] and lyre.[c] 3 Sound the ram's horn[d] at the New Moon,[e] and when the moon is full, on the day of our Feast; 4 this is a decree for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.[f] 5 He established it as a statute for Joseph when he went out against Egypt,[g] where we heard a language we did not understand.[j][h] 6 He says, "I removed the burden[i] from their shoulders;[j] their hands were set free from the basket.
7 In your distress you called[k] and I rescued you,
I answered[l] you out of a thundercloud;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.[m] Selah

For the director of music. Of the Sons of Korah. A psalm.

1 You showed favor to your land,
O LORD;
you restored the fortunes[y] of
Jacob.
2 You forgave[z] the iniquity[a] of your
people
and covered all their sins. Selah 3 You set aside all your wrath[b] and turned from your fierce anger.[c]
4 Restore[d] us again, O God our Savior,[e]
and put away your displeasure toward us.
5 Will you be angry with us forever?[f]
Will you prolong your anger
through all generations?
6 Will you not revive[g] us again, that your people may rejoice[h] in
you?
7 Show us your unfailing love,[i]
O LORD,
and grant us your salvation.[j] 8 I will listen to what God the LORD
will say;
he promises peace[k] to his people,
his saints—
but let them not return to folly.[l] 9 Surely his salvation[m] is near those who fear him,
that his glory[n] may dwell in our
land.
10 Love and faithfulness[o] meet
together;
righteousness[p] and peace kiss
each other.
11 Faithfulness springs forth from the
earth,
and righteousness[q] looks down
from heaven.
12 The LORD will indeed give what is

and our land will yield[s] its harvest.
13 Righteousness goes before him and prepares the way for his

Psalm 87

Of the sons of Korah. A psalm.
A song.

1He has set his foundation on the holy mountain;[i]
2 the LORD loves the gates of Zion[j]
more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3Glorious things are said of you,
O city of God:[k] Selah
4"I will record Rahab[r] [l] and Babylon among those who acknowledge
me—
Philistia[m] too, and Tyre[n], along with Cush[s]— and will say, 'This[t] one was born in Zion.[o]' " 5Indeed, of Zion it will be said,
"This one and that one were born
in her,
and the Most High himself will establish her."
6The LORD will write in the register[p]
of the peoples:
"This one was born in Zion." Selah 7As they make music[q] they will sing,
"All my fountains[r] are in you."

Psalm 88

A song. A psalm of the Sons of Korah.
For the director of music. According to mahalath leannoth.[u] A maskil[v] of Heman the Ezrahite.

1O LORD, the God who saves me,[s] day and night I cry out[t] before
you.
2May my prayer come before you;
turn your ear to my cry.
3For my soul is full of trouble[u]
and my life draws near the grave.[p] [v]
4I am counted among those who go down to the pit;[w]
I am like a man without strength.[x] 5I am set apart with the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom you remember no more,
who are cut off[y] from your care.
6You have put me in the lowest pit,
in the darkest depths.[z]

7Your wrath[a] lies heavily upon me; you have overwhelmed me with all your waves.[b] Selah 8You have taken from me my closest friends[c]
and have made me repulsive to
them.
I am confined[d] and cannot escape;[e]
9 my eyes[f] are dim with grief.

I call[g] to you, O LORD, every day;
I spread out my hands[h] to you.
10Do you show your wonders to the dead?
Do those who are dead rise up and praise you?[i] Selah 11Is your love declared in the grave, your faithfulness[j] in Destruction[w]?
12Are your wonders known in the place of darkness,
or your righteous deeds in the land of oblivion?

13But I cry to you for help,[k]
O LORD;
in the morning[l] my prayer comes before you.[m] 14Why, O LORD, do you reject[n] me and hide your face[o] from me?

15From my youth[p] I have been afflicted[q] and close to death;
I have suffered your terrors[r] and am in despair.[s] 16Your wrath[t] has swept over me;
your terrors[u] have destroyed me.
17All day long they surround me like a flood;[v]
they have completely engulfed
me.
18You have taken my companions[w]
and loved ones from me;
the darkness is my closest friend.

Psalm 89

A maskil[x] of Ethan the Ezrahite.

1I will sing[x] of the LORD's great love
forever;
with my mouth I will make your faithfulness known[y] through
all generations.
2I will declare that your love stands firm forever,
that you established your faithfulness in heaven itself.[z]

3You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have sworn to David my
servant,
4'I will establish your line forever and make your throne firm through all generations.' "[a] Selah

5The heavens[b] praise your wonders,
O LORD,
your faithfulness too, in the assembly[c] of the holy ones.
6For who in the skies above can compare with the LORD?
Who is like the LORD among the heavenly beings?[d] 7In the council[e] of the holy ones[f]
God is greatly feared;
he is more awesome than all who surround him.[g] 8O LORD God Almighty,[h] who is like you?[i]
You are mighty, O LORD, and your faithfulness surrounds you.

9You rule over the surging sea;
when its waves mount up, you still them.[j] 10You crushed Rahab[k] like one of the slain;
with your strong arm you scattered[l] your enemies.
11The heavens are yours,[m] and yours also the earth;[n]
you founded the world and all that
is in it.[o]
12You created the north and the south;
Tabor[p] and Hermon[q] sing for joy[r] at your name.
13Your arm is endued with power;
your hand is strong, your right hand exalted.[s]

14Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;[t] love and faithfulness go before you.[u] 15Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you,
who walk[v] in the light[w] of your presence, O LORD.
16They rejoice in your name[x] all day
long;
they exult in your righteousness.
17For you are their glory and
strength,[y]
and by your favor you exalt our horn.[y z]
18Indeed, our shield[z a] belongs to the LORD,
our king[b] to the Holy One of Israel.

BOOK IV
Psalms 90–106

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

1Lord, you have been our dwelling place[a] throughout all generations.
2Before the mountains were born[b] or you brought forth the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting[c] you are God.[d]

3You turn men back to dust, saying, "Return to dust, O sons of men."[e] 4For a thousand years in your sight are like a day that has just gone by,
or like a watch in the night.[f] 5You sweep men away[g] in the sleep of death;
they are like the new grass of the morning—6though in the morning it springs up new,
by evening it is dry and withered.[h]

7We are consumed by your anger and terrified by your indignation.
8You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins[i] in the light of your presence.[j] 9All our days pass away under your wrath;
we finish our years with a moan.[k] 10The length of our days is seventy years[l]— or eighty,[m] if we have the strength;
yet their span[a] is but trouble and sorrow,[n]
for they quickly pass, and we fly away.[o] 11Who knows the power of your anger?
For your wrath[p] is as great as the fear that is due you.[q] 12Teach us to number our days[r] aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.[s]

13Relent, O LORD! How long[t] will it be?
Have compassion on your servants.[u] 14Satisfy[v] us in the morning with your unfailing love,[w] that we may sing for joy[x] and be glad all our days.[y] 15Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen trouble.
16May your deeds be shown to your servants, your splendor to their children.[z]

17May the favor[b] of the Lord our God rest upon us; establish the work of our hands for us—yes, establish the work of our hands.[a]

Psalm 91

1He who dwells in the shelter[b] of the Most High will rest in the shadow[c] of the Almighty.[c] 2I will say[d] of the LORD, "He is my refuge[d] and my fortress,[e] my God, in whom I trust."

3Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare[f]
and from the deadly pestilence.[g] 4He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge;[h]
his faithfulness will be your shield[i] and rampart.
5You will not fear[j] the terror of night, nor the arrow that flies by day, 6nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday.
7A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand,
but it will not come near you.
8You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.[k]

9If you make the Most High your dwelling—even the LORD, who is my refuge—10then no harm[l] will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.
11For he will command his angels[m] concerning you to guard you in all your ways;[n] 12they will lift you up in their hands,

Psalm 92

A psalm. A song. For the Sabbath day.

1It is good to praise the LORD and make music[f] to your name,[g] O Most High,[h] 2to proclaim your love in the morning[i]
and your faithfulness at night, 3to the music of the ten-stringed lyre[j]
and the melody of the harp.[k]

4For you make me glad by your deeds, O LORD;
I sing for joy[l] at the works of your hands.[m]
5How great are your works,[n] O LORD, how profound your thoughts![o] 6The senseless man[p] does not know, fools do not understand, 7that though the wicked spring up like grass
and all evildoers flourish,
they will be forever destroyed.[q]

8But you, O LORD, are exalted forever.

9For surely your enemies[r], O LORD, surely your enemies will perish;
all evildoers will be scattered.[s] 10You have exalted my horn[h][t] like that of a wild ox;[u]
fine oils[v] have been poured upon
me.
11My eyes have seen the defeat of my adversaries;
my ears have heard the rout of my wicked foes.[w]

12The righteous will flourish[x] like a palm tree,
they will grow like a cedar of Lebanon;[y]
13planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God.[z] 14They will still bear fruit[a] in old age, they will stay fresh and green, 15proclaiming, "The LORD is upright;
he is my Rock, and there is no wickedness in him.[b]"

Psalm 93

1The LORD reigns,[c] he is robed in majesty;[d]
the LORD is robed in majesty and is armed with strength.[e]
The world is firmly established;[f] it cannot be moved.[g] 2Your throne was established[h] long ago;
you are from all eternity.[i]

3The seas[j] have lifted up, O LORD, the seas have lifted up their voice;[k]
the seas have lifted up their
pounding waves.[l] 4Mightier than the thunder[m] of the great waters,
mightier than the breakers[n] of the sea—
the LORD on high is mighty.[o]

5Your statutes stand firm;
holiness[p] adorns your house[q]
for endless days, O LORD.

Psalm 94

1O LORD, the God who avenges,[r]
O God who avenges, shine forth.[s] 2Rise up,[t] O Judge[u] of the earth; pay back[v] to the proud what they deserve.
3How long will the wicked, O LORD, how long will the wicked be jubilant?[w]

4They pour out arrogant[x] words;
all the evildoers are full of boasting.[y] 5They crush your people,[z] O LORD;
they oppress your inheritance.[a] 6They slay the widow[b] and the alien;
they murder the fatherless.[c] 7They say, "The LORD does not see;[d]
the God of Jacob[e] pays no heed."

8Take heed, you senseless ones[f]
among the people;
you fools, when will you become
wise?
9Does he who implanted the ear not hear?

[h]10 Horn here symbolizes strength.

Does he who formed the eye not see?[a] 10Does he who disciplines[b] nations not punish?
Does he who teaches[c] man lack
knowledge?
11The LORD knows the thoughts[d] of
man;
he knows that they are futile.[e] 12Blessed is the man you discipline,[f]
O LORD,
the man you teach[g] from your
law; 13you grant him relief from days of trouble,[h]
till a pit[i] is dug for the wicked.
14For the LORD will not reject his
people;[j]
he will never forsake his inheritance.
15Judgment will again be founded on righteousness,[k]
and all the upright in heart[l] will follow it.

16Who will rise up[m] for me against the
wicked?
Who will take a stand for me against evildoers?[n]
17Unless the LORD had given me help,[o]
I would soon have dwelt in the silence of death.[p] 18When I said, "My foot is slipping,[q]" your love, O LORD, supported me.
19When anxiety[r] was great within me, your consolation[s] brought joy to my soul.

20Can a corrupt throne[t] be allied with
you—
one that brings on misery by its decrees?[u] 21They band together[v] against the
righteous
and condemn the innocent[w] to death.[x] 22But the LORD has become my fortress,
and my God the rock[y] in whom I take refuge.[z] 23He will repay[a] them for their sins and destroy[b] them for their
wickedness;
the LORD our God will destroy
them.

Psalm 95

1Come,[c] let us sing for joy[d] to the
LORD;
let us shout aloud[e] to the Rock[f]
of our salvation.
2Let us come before him[g] with thanksgiving[h]
and extol him with music[i] and song.

3For the LORD is the great God,[j]
the great King[k] above all gods.[l] 4In his hand are the depths of the earth,[m]
and the mountain peaks belong to
him.
5The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.[n]

6Come, let us bow down[o] in worship,[p]
let us kneel[q] before the LORD our Maker;[r] 7for he is our God
and we are the people of his pasture,[s]
the flock under his care.

Today, if you hear his voice,
8 do not harden your hearts[t] as you did at Meribah,[i] [u]
as you did that day at Massah[j] in the desert,[v] 9where your fathers tested[w] and tried
me,
though they had seen what I did.
10For forty years[x] I was angry with that generation;
I said, "They are a people whose hearts go astray,[y]
and they have not known my ways."[z]
11So I declared on oath[a] in my anger,
"They shall never enter my rest."[b]

Psalm 96

96:1-13pp — 1Ch 16:23-33

1Sing to the LORD[c] a new song;[d]
sing to the LORD, all the earth.
2Sing to the LORD, praise his name;[e] proclaim his salvation[f] day after
day.
3Declare his glory[g] among the
nations,
his marvelous deeds[h] among all
peoples.

4For great is the LORD and most worthy of praise;[i]
he is to be feared[j] above all gods.[k]

Psalm 101

Of David. A psalm.

1 I will sing of your love[o] and
justice;
to you, O LORD, I will sing praise.
2 I will be careful to lead a blameless life[p]—
when will you come to me?

I will walk[q] in my house with blameless heart.
3 I will set before my eyes
no vile thing.[r]

The deeds of faithless men I hate;[s]
they will not cling to me.
4 Men of perverse heart[t] shall be far
from me;
I will have nothing to do with evil.
5 Whoever slanders his neighbor[u] in secret,
him will I put to silence;
whoever has haughty eyes[v] and a proud heart,
him will I not endure.
6 My eyes will be on the faithful in the
land,
that they may dwell with me;
he whose walk is blameless[w]
will minister to me.
7 No one who practices deceit
will dwell in my house;
no one who speaks falsely will stand in my presence.
8 Every morning[x] I will put to silence all the wicked[y] in the land;
I will cut off every evildoer[z]
from the city of the LORD.[a]

A prayer of an afflicted man. When he is faint and pours out his lament before the LORD.

1Hear my prayer,[a] O LORD;
let my cry for help[b] come to you.
2Do not hide your face[c] from me when I am in distress.
Turn your ear[d] to me;
when I call, answer me quickly.
3For my days vanish like smoke;[e] my bones[f] burn like glowing embers.
4My heart is blighted and withered like grass;[g]
I forget to eat my food.[h] 5Because of my loud groaning[i]
I am reduced to skin and bones.
6I am like a desert owl,[j] like an owl among the ruins.
7I lie awake;[k] I have become like a bird alone[l] on a roof.
8All day long my enemies[m] taunt me;[n]
those who rail against me use my name as a curse.[o] 9For I eat ashes[p] as my food and mingle my drink with tears[q] 10because of your great wrath,[r] for you have taken me up and thrown me aside.
11My days are like the evening shadow;[s]
I wither[t] away like grass.
12But you, O LORD, sit enthroned forever;[u] your renown endures[v] through all generations.[w] 13You will arise[x] and have compassion[y] on Zion, for it is time[z] to show favor[a] to her;
the appointed time[b] has come.
14For her stones are dear to your servants;
her very dust moves them to pity.
15The nations will fear[c] the name of the LORD, all the kings[d] of the earth will revere your glory.
16For the LORD will rebuild Zion[e]
and appear in his glory.[f] 17He will respond to the prayer[g] of the destitute;
he will not despise their plea.

18Let this be written[h] for a future generation, that a people not yet created[i] may praise the LORD: 19"The LORD looked down[j] from his sanctuary on high,
from heaven he viewed the earth, 20to hear the groans of the prisoners[k]
and release those condemned to death." 21So the name of the LORD will be declared[l] in Zion and his praise[m] in Jerusalem 22when the peoples and the kingdoms assemble to worship[n] the LORD.

23In the course of my life[a] he broke my strength;
he cut short my days.[o] 24So I said:
"Do not take me away, O my God, in the midst of my days;
your years go on[p] through all generations.
25In the beginning[q] you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens[r] are the work of your hands.[s] 26They will perish,[t] but you remain;
they will all wear out like a garment.
Like clothing you will change them and they will be discarded.
27But you remain the same,[u]
and your years will never end.[v] 28The children of your servants[w] will live in your presence; their descendants[x] will be established before you."

Psalm 103

Of David.

1Praise the LORD,[y] O my soul;[z]
all my inmost being, praise his holy name.[a] 2Praise the LORD,[b] O my soul, and forget not[c] all his benefits—3who forgives all your sins[d]
and heals[e] all your diseases, 4who redeems your life[f] from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion,[g] 5who satisfies[h] your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed[i] like the eagle's.[j]

[a]23 Or By his power

6The LORD works righteousness[a]
and justice for all the oppressed.[b]

7He made known[c] his ways[d] to Moses,
his deeds[e] to the people of Israel: 8The LORD is compassionate and gracious,[f]
slow to anger, abounding in love.
9He will not always accuse, nor will he harbor his anger
forever;[g]
10he does not treat us as our sins deserve[h]
or repay us according to our iniquities.
11For as high as the heavens are above
the earth,
so great is his love[i] for those who fear him;[j] 12as far as the east is from the west,
so far has he removed our transgressions[k] from us.
13As a father has compassion[l] on his
children,
so the LORD has compassion on
those who fear him;
14for he knows how we are formed,[m]
he remembers that we are dust.[n]
15As for man, his days are like grass,[o] he flourishes like a flower[p] of the field;
16the wind blows[q] over it and it is gone,
and its place[r] remembers it no
more.
17But from everlasting to everlasting the LORD's love is with those who fear him,
and his righteousness with their children's children[s] — 18with those who keep his covenant[t] and remember[u] to obey his precepts.[v]

19The LORD has established his throne[w] in heaven,
and his kingdom rules[x] over all.

20Praise the LORD,[y] you his angels,[z] you mighty ones[a] who do his bidding,[b]
who obey his word.
21Praise the LORD, all his heavenly hosts,[c]
you his servants[d] who do his will.
22Praise the LORD, all his works[e] everywhere in his dominion.

Praise the LORD, O my soul.[f]

Psalm 104

1Praise the LORD, O my soul.[g]

O LORD my God, you are very great;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.[h] 2He wraps[i] himself in light[j] as with
a garment;
he stretches[k] out the heavens[l]
like a tent[m]
3 and lays the beams[n] of his upper chambers on their waters.[o]
He makes the clouds[p] his chariot[q]
and rides on the wings of the wind.[r] 4He makes winds his messengers,[p][s] flames of fire[t] his servants.

5He set the earth[u] on its foundations;[v]
it can never be moved.
6You covered it[w] with the deep[x] as
with a garment;
the waters stood[y] above the
mountains.
7But at your rebuke[z] the waters fled, at the sound of your thunder[a]
they took to flight; 8they flowed over the mountains,
they went down into the valleys, to the place you assigned[b] for
them.
9You set a boundary[c] they cannot cross;
never again will they cover the
earth.

10He makes springs[d] pour water into the ravines;
it flows between the mountains.
11They give water[e] to all the beasts of the field;
the wild donkeys[f] quench their thirst.
12The birds of the air[g] nest by the waters;
they sing among the branches.[h] 13He waters the mountains[i] from his upper chambers;[j]
the earth is satisfied by the fruit of his work.[k]
14He makes grass grow[l] for the cattle, and plants for man to cultivate—bringing forth food[m] from the
earth:

planted.

21The lions roar for their prey[n]
and seek their food from God.[o] 22The sun rises, and they steal away;
they return and lie down in their 23Then man goes out to his work,[q] to his labor until evening.[r]

24How many are your works,[s]
O LORD!
In wisdom you made[t] them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.[u] 25There is the sea,[v] vast and spacious, teeming with creatures beyond
number—
living things both large and small.[w] 26There the ships[x] go to and fro, and the leviathan,[y] which you formed to frolic[z] there.[a]

27These all look to you to give them their food[b] at the proper time.
28When you give it to them,
they gather it up;
when you open your hand,
they are satisfied[c] with good
things.
29When you hide your face,[d]
they are terrified;
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to the dust.[e] 30When you send your Spirit,[f]
they are created,
and you renew the face of the
earth.

31May the glory of the LORD[g] endure
forever;
may the LORD rejoice in his works[h]— 32he who looks at the earth, and it trembles,[i]
who touches the mountains,[j] and they smoke.[k]

33I will sing[l] to the LORD all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.
34May my meditation be pleasing to
him,
as I rejoice[m] in the LORD.
35But may sinners vanish[n] from the
earth
and the wicked be no more.[o]

Praise the LORD, O my soul.

Praise the LORD.[r][p]

as the portion you will inherit."[a]

12 When they were but few in number,[b]
few indeed, and strangers in it,[c] 13 they wandered from nation to nation,[d]
from one kingdom to another.
14 He allowed no one to oppress[e]
them;
for their sake he rebuked kings:[f] 15 "Do not touch[g] my anointed ones; do my prophets[h] no harm."

16 He called down famine[i] on the land and destroyed all their supplies of food;
17 and he sent a man before them—
Joseph, sold as a slave.[j] 18 They bruised his feet with shackles,[k]
his neck was put in irons, 19 till what he foretold[l] came to pass, till the word[m] of the LORD proved him true.
20 The king sent and released him,
the ruler of peoples set him free.[n] 21 He made him master of his household,
ruler over all he possessed, 22 to instruct his princes[o] as he pleased
and teach his elders wisdom.[p]

23 Then Israel entered Egypt;[q]
Jacob lived[r] as an alien in the land of Ham.[s] 24 The LORD made his people very fruitful;
he made them too numerous[t] for their foes,
25 whose hearts he turned[u] to hate his
people,
to conspire[v] against his servants.
26 He sent Moses[w] his servant, and Aaron,[x] whom he had chosen.[y]
27 They performed[z] his miraculous signs[a] among them,
his wonders[b] in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness[c] and made the land dark—
for had they not rebelled against[d]
his words?
29 He turned their waters into blood,[e] causing their fish to die.[f] 30 Their land teemed with frogs,[g] which went up into the bedrooms of their rulers.
31 He spoke,[h] and there came swarms of flies,[i]
and gnats[j] throughout their
country.
32 He turned their rain into hail,[k] with lightning throughout their
land;
33 he struck down their vines[l] and fig trees[m]
and shattered the trees of their country.
34 He spoke,[n] and the locusts came,[o] grasshoppers[p] without number;[q] 35 they ate up every green thing in their land,
ate up the produce of their soil.
36 Then he struck down all the firstborn[r] in their land,
the firstfruits of all their manhood.

37 He brought out Israel, laden with silver and gold,[s]
and from among their tribes no
one faltered.
38 Egypt was glad when they left, because dread of Israel[t] had fallen
on them.
39 He spread out a cloud[u] as a covering,
and a fire to give light at night.[v] 40 They asked,[w] and he brought them quail[x]
and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.[y]
41 He opened the rock,[z] and water gushed out;
like a river it flowed in the desert.

42 For he remembered his holy promise[a]
given to his servant Abraham.
43 He brought out his people with rejoicing,[b]
his chosen ones with shouts of joy; 44 he gave them the lands of the nations,[c]
and they fell heir to what others had toiled[d] for—45 that they might keep his precepts and observe his laws.[e]

[s]45 Hebrew Hallelu Yah [t]1 Hebrew Hallelu Yah; also in verse 48

2Who can proclaim the mighty acts[a]
of the LORD
or fully declare his praise?
3Blessed are they who maintain justice,[b]
who constantly do what is right.[c] 4Remember me,[d] O LORD, when you show favor[e] to your people, come to my aid[f] when you save
them, 5that I may enjoy the prosperity[g] of your chosen ones,[h]
that I may share in the joy[i] of your nation
and join your inheritance[j] in giving praise.

6We have sinned,[k] even as our fathers[l] did;
we have done wrong and acted wickedly.[m] 7When our fathers were in Egypt, they gave no thought[n] to your miracles;
they did not remember[o] your many kindnesses,
and they rebelled by the sea,[p] the Red Sea.[a] 8Yet he saved them[q] for his name's sake,[r]
to make his mighty power[s]
known.
9He rebuked[t] the Red Sea, and it dried up;[u]
he led them through[v] the depths
as through a desert.
10He saved them[w] from the hand of the foe;[x]
from the hand of the enemy he redeemed them.[y] 11The waters covered[z] their adversaries;
not one of them survived.
12Then they believed his promises and sang his praise.[a]

13But they soon forgot[b] what he had done
and did not wait for his counsel.[c] 14In the desert[d] they gave in to their craving;
in the wasteland[e] they put God to the test.[f] 15So he gave them[g] what they asked for,
but sent a wasting disease[h] upon
them.

16In the camp they grew envious[i] of Moses
and of Aaron, who was consecrated to the LORD.

17The earth opened[j] up and it buried the company of Abiram.[l] 18Fire blazed[m] among their followers;

a flame consumed the wicked.
19At Horeb they made a calf[n]
and worshiped an idol cast from metal.
20They exchanged their Glory[o]
for an image of a bull, which eats grass.
21They forgot the God[p] who saved
them,
who had done great things[q] in Egypt,
22miracles in the land of Ham[r]
and awesome deeds[s] by the Red Sea.
23So he said he would destroy[t]
them—
had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach[u] before him to keep his wrath from destroying
them.

24Then they despised[v] the pleasant land;[w]
they did not believe[x] his promise.
25They grumbled[y] in their tents and did not obey the LORD.
26So he swore[z] to them with uplifted hand
that he would make them fall in the desert,[a] 27make their descendants fall among
the nations
and scatter[b] them throughout the
lands.

28They yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor[c]
and ate sacrifices offered to lifeless
gods;
29they provoked the LORD to anger[d] by their wicked deeds,[e]
and a plague[f] broke out among
them.
30But Phinehas[g] stood up and intervened,
and the plague was checked.[h] 31This was credited to him[i] as righteousness
for endless generations[j] to come.
32By the waters of Meribah[k] they angered the LORD,

and trouble came to Moses
because of them;
33 for they rebelled[a] against the Spirit[b]
of God,
and rash words came from Moses'
lips.[v] [c] 34 They did not destroy[d] the peoples as the LORD had commanded[e]
them,
35 but they mingled[f] with the
nations
and adopted their customs.
36 They worshiped their idols,[g] which became a snare[h] to them.
37 They sacrificed their sons[i] and their daughters to demons.[j] 38 They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons[k] and
daughters,
whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan,
and the land was desecrated by their blood.
39 They defiled themselves[l] by what they did;
by their deeds they prostituted[m]
themselves.
40 Therefore the LORD was angry[n] with
his people
and abhorred his inheritance.[o] 41 He handed them over[p] to the
nations,
and their foes ruled over them.
42 Their enemies oppressed[q] them and subjected them to their power.
43 Many times he delivered them,[r] but they were bent on rebellion[s]
and they wasted away in their sin.

44 But he took note of their distress when he heard their cry;[t] 45 for their sake he remembered his covenant[u]
and out of his great love[v] he relented.[w]
46 He caused them to be pitied[x]
by all who held them captive.

47 Save us,[y] O LORD our God, and gather us[z] from the nations, that we may give thanks[a] to your holy name[b]
and glory in your praise.

48 Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting.
Let all the people say, "Amen!"[c]

Praise the LORD.

BOOK V

Psalms 107–150

Psalm 107

1 Give thanks to the LORD,[d] for he is good;[e]
his love endures forever.
2 Let the redeemed[f] of the LORD say
this—
those he redeemed from the hand of the foe,
3 those he gathered[g] from the lands, from east and west, from north and south.[w]

4 Some wandered in desert[h]
wastelands,
finding no way to a city[i] where they could settle.
5 They were hungry[j] and thirsty,[k]
and their lives ebbed away.
6 Then they cried out[l] to the LORD in their trouble,
and he delivered them from their
distress.
7 He led them by a straight way[m]
to a city[n] where they could settle.
8 Let them give thanks[o] to the LORD
for his unfailing love[p]
and his wonderful deeds[q] for
men,
9 for he satisfies[r] the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.[s]

10 Some sat in darkness[t] and the deepest gloom,
prisoners suffering[u] in iron chains,[v]
11 for they had rebelled[w] against the words of God
and despised[x] the counsel[y] of the Most High.
12 So he subjected them to bitter labor;
they stumbled, and there was no one to help.[z]
13 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
and he saved them[a] from their
distress.
14 He brought them out of darkness[b] and the deepest gloom[c]
and broke away their chains.[d]

15 Let them give thanks[a] to the LORD for his unfailing love[b] and his wonderful deeds[c] for men, 16 for he breaks down gates of bronze and cuts through bars of iron.

17 Some became fools[d] through their rebellious ways[e]
and suffered affliction[f] because of their iniquities.
18 They loathed all food[g]
and drew near the gates of death.[h] 19 Then they cried[i] to the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them[j] from their distress.
20 He sent forth his word[k] and healed them;[l]
he rescued[m] them from the grave.[n] 21 Let them give thanks[o] to the LORD
for his unfailing love[p]
and his wonderful deeds[q] for men.
22 Let them sacrifice thank offerings[r] and tell of his works[s] with songs of joy.[t]

23 Others went out on the sea[u] in ships;[v] they were merchants on the mighty waters.
24 They saw the works of the LORD,[w] his wonderful deeds in the deep.
25 For he spoke[x] and stirred up a tempest[y] that lifted high the waves.[z] 26 They mounted up to the heavens and went down to the depths;
in their peril[a] their courage melted[b] away.
27 They reeled[c] and staggered like drunken men;
they were at their wits' end.
28 Then they cried[d] out to the LORD in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.[e] 29 He stilled the storm[f] to a whisper;
the waves[g] of the sea were hushed.[h] 30 They were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them[i] to their desired haven.
31 Let them give thanks[j] to the LORD for his unfailing love[k]
and his wonderful deeds[l] for men.
32 Let them exalt[m] him in the assembly[n] of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

33 He turned rivers into a desert,[o] flowing springs[p] into thirsty ground, 34 and fruitful land into a salt waste,[q]
because of the wickedness of those who lived there.
35 He turned the desert into pools of water[r] and the parched ground into flowing springs;[s] 36 there he brought the hungry to live, and they founded a city where they could settle.
37 They sowed fields and planted vineyards[t]
that yielded a fruitful harvest; 38 he blessed them, and their numbers greatly increased,[u]
and he did not let their herds diminish.[v]

39 Then their numbers decreased,[w] and they were humbled[x] by oppression, calamity and sorrow; 40 he who pours contempt on nobles[y] made them wander in a trackless waste.[z] 41 But he lifted the needy[a] out of their affliction and increased their families like flocks.[b] 42 The upright see and rejoice,[c] but all the wicked shut their mouths.[d]

43 Whoever is wise,[e] let him heed these things and consider the great love[f] of the LORD.

Psalm 108

108:1-5pp — Ps 57:7-11
108:6-13pp — Ps 60:5-12

A song. A psalm of David.

1 My heart is steadfast,[g] O God;
I will sing[h] and make music with all my soul.
2 Awake, harp and lyre![i]
I will awaken the dawn.
3 I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations;
I will sing of you among the peoples.

Who will lead me to Edom?
11Is it not you, O God, you who have rejected us
and no longer go out with our armies?[o] 12Give us aid against the enemy, for the help of man is worthless.[p] 13With God we will gain the victory, and he will trample down[q] our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the director of music. Of David.
A psalm.

1O God, whom I praise,[r]
do not remain silent,[s] 2for wicked and deceitful men[t] have opened their mouths
against me;
they have spoken against me with lying tongues.[u] 3With words of hatred[v] they
surround me;
they attack me without cause.[w] 4In return for my friendship they accuse me,
but I am a man of prayer.[x] 5They repay me evil for good,[y]
and hatred for my friendship.

6Appoint[x] an evil man[y] to oppose
him;
let an accuser[z][z] stand at his right
hand.
7When he is tried, let him be found guilty,[a]
and may his prayers condemn[b]
him.
8May his days be few;[c]
may another take his place[d] of leadership.
9May his children be fatherless and his wife a widow.[e] 10May his children be wandering beggars;[f]
may they be driven[a] from their ruined homes.
11May a creditor[g] seize all he has;
may strangers plunder[h] the fruits of his labor.[i] 12May no one extend kindness to him or take pity[j] on his fatherless
children.
13May his descendants be cut off,[k] their names blotted out[l] from the next generation.
14May the iniquity of his fathers[m] be remembered before the LORD;
may the sin of his mother never be blotted out.
15May their sins always remain
before[n] the LORD,
that he may cut off the memory[o]
of them from the earth.

16For he never thought of doing a kindness,
but hounded to death the poor and the needy[p] and the brokenhearted.[q] 17He loved to pronounce a curse—
may it[b] come on him;[r] he found no pleasure in blessing—may it be[c] far from him.
18He wore cursing[s] as his garment; it entered into his body like water,[t]
into his bones like oil.
19May it be like a cloak wrapped[u]
about him,
like a belt tied forever around him.
20May this be the LORD's payment[v] to my accusers,
to those who speak evil[w] of me.
21But you, O Sovereign LORD, deal well with me for your name's sake;[x]
out of the goodness of your love,[y] deliver me.[z]
22For I am poor and needy,

Psalm 110

Of David. A psalm.

1The LORD says[n] to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand[o]
until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet."[p]

2The LORD will extend your mighty scepter[q] from Zion;[r] you will rule[s] in the midst of your enemies.
3Your troops will be willing on your day of battle.
Arrayed in holy majesty,[t]
from the womb of the dawn you will receive the dew of your youth.[d][u]

4The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind:[v]
"You are a priest forever,[w] in the order of Melchizedek.[x]"

5The Lord is at your right hand;[y] he will crush kings[z] on the day of his wrath.[a] 6He will judge the nations,[b] heaping up the dead[c]
and crushing the rulers[d] of the whole earth.
7He will drink from a brook beside the way[e];
therefore he will lift up his head.[e]

Psalm 111[f]

1Praise the LORD.[g]

I will extol the LORD[f] with all my heart[g]
in the council[h] of the upright and in the assembly.[i]

2Great are the works[j] of the
LORD;
they are pondered by all[k] who delight in them.
3Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness endures[l]
forever.
4He has caused his wonders to be remembered;
the LORD is gracious and compassionate.[m] 5He provides food[n] for those who fear him;[o]
he remembers his covenant[p]
forever.
6He has shown his people the power of his works,[q]
giving them the lands of other nations.[r]
7The works of his hands[s] are faithful and just;
all his precepts are trustworthy.[t] 8They are steadfast for ever[u] and ever,
done in faithfulness and uprightness.
9He provided redemption[v] for his
people;
he ordained his covenant
forever—
holy and awesome[w] is his name.
10The fear of the LORD[x] is the beginning of wisdom;[y]
all who follow his precepts have good understanding.[z]
To him belongs eternal praise.[a]

Psalm 112[h]

1Praise the LORD.[i] [x]

Blessed is the man[y] who fears the LORD,[z]
who finds great delight[a] in his commands.
2His children[b] will be mighty in the
land;
the generation of the upright will be blessed.
3Wealth and riches[c] are in his house,
and his righteousness endures[d]
forever.
4Even in darkness light dawns[e] for the upright,
for the gracious and compassionate and righteous[j] man.[f] 5Good will come to him who is generous and lends freely,[g] who conducts his affairs with
justice.
6Surely he will never be shaken;[h] a righteous man will be remembered[i] forever.
7He will have no fear of bad news;
his heart is steadfast,[m] trusting in the LORD.[n]
8His heart is secure, he will have no fear;[o]
in the end he will look in triumph on his foes.[p] 9He has scattered abroad his gifts to the poor,[q]
his righteousness endures[r]
forever;
his horn[k] will be lifted[s] high in honor.

10The wicked man will see[t] and be vexed,
he will gnash his teeth[u] and waste
away;[v]
the longings of the wicked will come to nothing.[w]

Psalm 114

1When Israel came out of Egypt,[m] the house of Jacob from a people of foreign tongue,
2Judah[n] became God's sanctuary,[o]
Israel his dominion.

3The sea looked and fled,[p]
the Jordan turned back;[q] 4the mountains skipped[r] like rams, the hills like lambs.

5Why was it, O sea, that you fled,[s]
O Jordan, that you turned back, 6you mountains, that you skipped like rams,
you hills, like lambs?

7Tremble, O earth,[t] at the presence
of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of
Jacob,
8who turned the rock into a pool, the hard rock into springs of water.[u]

Psalm 115

115:4-11pp — Ps 135:15-20

1Not to us, O LORD, not to us but to your name be the glory,[v] because of your love and faithfulness.[w]

2Why do the nations say,
"Where is their God?"[x] 3Our God is in heaven;[y]
he does whatever pleases him.[z]

[16]The highest heavens belong to the LORD,[l]
but the earth he has given[m] to
man.
[17]It is not the dead[n] who praise the
LORD,
those who go down to silence;
[18]it is we who extol the LORD,[o]
both now and forevermore.[p]

Praise the LORD.[m][q]

Psalm 116

[1]I love the LORD,[r] for he heard my
voice;
he heard my cry[s] for mercy.[t]
[2]Because he turned his ear[u] to me,
I will call on him as long as I live.

[3]The cords of death[v] entangled me, the anguish of the grave[n] came upon me;
I was overcome by trouble and sorrow.
[4]Then I called on the name[w] of the
LORD:
"O LORD, save me!"[x]

[5]The LORD is gracious and righteous;[y] our God is full of compassion.[z] [6]The LORD protects the simplehearted; when I was in great need,[a] he saved me.[b]

[7]Be at rest[c] once more, O my soul, for the LORD has been good[d] to
you.

[8]For you, O LORD, have delivered my soul[e] from death,
my eyes from tears,
my feet from stumbling, [9]that I may walk before the LORD[f] in the land of the living.[g] [10]I believed;[h] therefore[o] I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."[i] [11]And in my dismay I said,
"All men are liars."[j]

[12]How can I repay the LORD for all his goodness[k] to me?
[13]I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name[l] of the LORD.
[14]I will fulfill my vows[m] to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.

[15]Precious in the sight[n] of the LORD is the death of his saints.[o] [16]O LORD, truly I am your servant;[p] I am your servant, the son of your maidservant[p];[q]
you have freed me from my chains.[r]

[17]I will sacrifice a thank offering[s] to
you
and call on the name of the LORD.
[18]I will fulfill my vows[t] to the LORD
in the presence of all his people, [19]in the courts[u] of the house of the LORD—
in your midst, O Jerusalem.[v]

Praise the LORD.[m]

Psalm 117

[1]Praise the LORD,[w] all you nations;[x] extol him, all you peoples.
[2]For great is his love[y] toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD[z] endures forever.

Praise the LORD.[m]

Psalm 118

1Give thanks to the LORD,[a] for he is
good;[b]
his love endures forever.[c]

2Let Israel say:[d]
"His love endures forever."[e] 3Let the house of Aaron say:[f]
"His love endures forever."
4Let those who fear the LORD[g] say:
"His love endures forever."

5In my anguish[h] I cried to the LORD, and he answered[i] by setting me
free.
6The LORD is with me;[j] I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?[k] 7The LORD is with me; he is my helper.[l]
I will look in triumph on my enemies.[m]

8It is better to take refuge in the LORD[n]
than to trust in man.[o] 9It is better to take refuge in the
than to trust in princes.[p] 10All the nations surrounded me, but in the name of the LORD I cut them off.[q] 11They surrounded me[r] on every side,[s]
but in the name of the LORD I cut them off.
12They swarmed around me like bees,[t]
but they died out as quickly as burning thorns;[u]
in the name of the LORD I cut them off.[v] 13I was pushed back and about to fall, but the LORD helped me.[w] 14The LORD is my strength[x] and my
song;
he has become my salvation.[y]

15Shouts of joy[z] and victory resound in the tents of the
righteous:
"The LORD's right hand[a] has done mighty things![b]
16 The LORD's right hand is lifted
high;
the LORD's right hand has done mighty things!"
17I will not die[c] but live, and will proclaim[d] what the LORD
has done.
18The LORD has chastened[e] me severely,
but he has not given me over to death.[f] 19Open for me the gates[g] of
righteousness;
I will enter[h] and give thanks to
the LORD.
20This is the gate of the LORD[i] through which the righteous may enter.[j] 21I will give you thanks, for you answered me;[k]
you have become my salvation.[l]

22The stone[m] the builders rejected has become the capstone;[n] 23the LORD has done this,
and it is marvelous[o] in our eyes.
24This is the day the LORD has made;
let us rejoice and be glad[p] in it.

25O LORD, save us;[q]
O LORD, grant us success.
26Blessed is he who comes[r] in the name of the LORD.
From the house of the LORD we bless you.[s][q] 27The LORD is God,[t]
and he has made his light shine[u]
upon us.
With boughs in hand,[v] join in the festal procession
up[r] to the horns of the altar.[w]

28You are my God, and I will give you thanks;
you are my God,[x] and I will exalt[y]
you.

29Give thanks to the LORD, for he is
good;
his love endures forever.

2Blessed[c] are they who keep his statutes[d]
and seek him[e] with all their heart.[f] 3They do nothing wrong;[g]
they walk in his ways.[h]

11 I have hidden your word in my heart[l]
that I might not sin[m] against you.
12 Praise be[n] to you, O LORD; teach me[o] your decrees.[p] 13 With my lips I recount all the laws that come from your mouth.[q]
14 I rejoice in following your statutes[r] as one rejoices in great riches.
15 I meditate on your precepts[s]

89 Your word, O LORD, is eternal;
it stands firm in the heavens.
90 Your faithfulness continues
through all generations;
you established the earth, and it endures.
91 Your laws endure to this day,
for all things serve you.
92 If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.
93 I will never forget your precepts, for by them you have preserved
my life.
94 Save me, for I am yours;
I have sought out your precepts.
95 The wicked are waiting to destroy
me,
but I will ponder your statutes.
96 To all perfection I see a limit; but your commands are boundless.

97 Oh, how I love your law!
I meditate on it all day long.
98 Your commands make me wiser than my enemies,
for they are ever with me.
99 I have more insight than all my teachers,
for I meditate on your statutes.
100 I have more understanding than the elders,
for I obey your precepts.
101 I have kept my feet from every evil
path
so that I might obey your word.
102 I have not departed from your
laws,
for you yourself have taught me.
103 How sweet are your words to my

Psalm 122

A song of ascents. Of David.

1I rejoiced with those who said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."
2Our feet are standing in your gates, O Jerusalem.
3Jerusalem is built like a city that is closely compacted together.
4That is where the tribes go up,
the tribes of the LORD,
to praise the name of the LORD according to the statute given to Israel.
5There the thrones for judgment
stand,
the thrones of the house of David.
6Pray for the peace of Jerusalem:
"May those who love[d] you be secure.
7May there be peace[e] within your walls
and security within your citadels.[f]" 8For the sake of my brothers and
friends,
I will say, "Peace be within you." 9For the sake of the house of the LORD
our God,
I will seek your prosperity.[g]

Psalm 123

A song of ascents.

1I lift up my eyes to you, to you whose throne[h] is in heaven.
2As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master,
as the eyes of a maid look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD[i] our
God,
till he shows us his mercy.
3Have mercy on us, O LORD, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much
contempt.
4We have endured much ridicule

1If the LORD had not been on our
side—
let Israel say[j]— 2if the LORD had not been on our
side
when men attacked us, 3when their anger flared against us, they would have swallowed us alive;
4the flood[k] would have engulfed
us,
the torrent[l] would have swept

so the LORD surrounds[t] his people both now and forevermore.
3The scepter[u] of the wicked will not remain[v]
over the land allotted to the
righteous,
for then the righteous might use their hands to do evil.[w] 4Do good, O LORD,[x] to those who are
good,
to those who are upright in heart.[y]
5But those who turn[z] to crooked ways[a]

Psalm 126

A song of ascents.

1 When the LORD brought back the captives to Zion,
we were like men who dreamed.
2 Our mouths were filled with laughter,
our tongues with songs of joy.
Then it was said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things
for them."
3 The LORD has done great things
for us,
and we are filled with joy.

4 Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like streams in the Negev.
5 Those who sow in tears will reap with songs of joy.
6 He who goes out weeping, carrying seed to sow,
will return with songs of joy,
carrying sheaves with him.

Psalm 127

A song of ascents. Of Solomon.

1 Unless the LORD builds the house, its builders labor in vain.
Unless the LORD watches over the
city,
the watchmen stand guard in vain.
2 In vain you rise early and stay up late,
toiling for food to eat—
for he grants sleep to those he loves.

3 Sons are a heritage from the LORD, children a reward from him.
4 Like arrows in the hands of a warrior
are sons born in one's youth.
5 Blessed is the man
whose quiver is full of them.
They will not be put to shame when they contend with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A song of ascents.

1 Blessed are all who fear the LORD, who walk in his ways.
2 You will eat the fruit of your labor;
blessings and prosperity will be yours.
3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house;
your sons will be like olive shoots around your table.
4 Thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.

5 May the LORD bless you from Zion
all the days of your life;
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem,
6 and may you live to see your children's children.

Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129

A song of ascents.

1 They have greatly oppressed me from my youth—
let Israel say—
2 they have greatly oppressed me from my youth,
but they have not gained the victory over me.
3 Plowmen have plowed my back and made their furrows long.
4 But the LORD is righteous;
he has cut me free from the cords of the wicked.

5 May all who hate Zion
be turned back in shame.
6 May they be like grass on the roof, which withers before it can grow; 7 with it the reaper cannot fill his
hands,
nor the one who gathers fill his arms.
8 May those who pass by not say,
"The blessing of the LORD be upon
you;
we bless you in the name of the LORD."

Psalm 130

A song of ascents.

1 Out of the depths I cry to you,
O LORD;
2 O Lord, hear my voice.
Let your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.

3 If you, O LORD, kept a record of sins,
O Lord, who could stand?

[illegible]

4 But with you there is forgiveness;[a] therefore you are feared.[b] 5 I wait for the LORD,[c] my soul waits,[d] and in his word[e] I put my hope.
6 My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen[f] wait for the morning, more than watchmen wait for the morning.[g] 7 O Israel, put your hope[h] in the LORD, for with the LORD is unfailing love[i] and with him is full redemption.[j] 8 He himself will redeem[k] Israel from all their sins.[l]

Psalm 131

A song of ascents. Of David.

1 My heart is not proud,[m] O LORD, my eyes are not haughty;[n]
I do not concern myself with great matters[o] or things too wonderful for me.[p] 2 But I have stilled and quieted my soul;[q] like a weaned child with its mother, like a weaned child is my soul[r] within me.
3 O Israel, put your hope[s] in the LORD both now and forevermore.[t]

Psalm 132

132:8-10pp — 2Ch 6:41-42

A song of ascents.

1 O LORD, remember David and all the hardships he endured.[u] 2 He swore an oath to the LORD and made a vow to the Mighty One of Jacob:[v] 3 "I will not enter my house[w] or go to my bed—
4 I will allow no sleep to my eyes,
no slumber to my eyelids, 5 till I find a place[x] for the LORD,
a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob." 6 We heard it in Ephrathah,[y]
we came upon it in the fields of Jaar[z]:[a][z] 7 "Let us go to his dwelling place;[a] let us worship at his footstool[b]— 8 arise, O LORD,[c] and come to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.
9 May your priests be clothed with righteousness;[d] may your saints[e] sing for joy." 10 For the sake of David your servant, do not reject your anointed one.
11 The LORD swore an oath to David,[f] a sure oath that he will not revoke:
"One of your own descendants[g]
I will place on your throne—12 if your sons keep my covenant[h] and the statutes I teach them, then their sons will sit on your throne[i] for ever and ever." 13 For the LORD has chosen Zion,[j] he has desired it for his dwelling:[k] 14 "This is my resting place for ever and ever;[l] here I will sit enthroned,[m] for I have desired it—15 I will bless her with abundant provisions; her poor will I satisfy with food.[n] 16 I will clothe her priests[o] with salvation, and her saints will ever sing for joy.[p] 17 "Here I will make a horn[b] grow[q] for David and set up a lamp[r] for my anointed one.[s] 18 I will clothe his enemies with shame,[t] but the crown on his head[u] will be resplendent."

Psalm 133

A song of ascents. Of David.

1 How good and pleasant it is when brothers live together[v] in unity![w] 2 It is like precious oil poured on the head,[x] running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard,
down upon the collar of his robes.
3 It is as if the dew[y] of Hermon[z] were falling on Mount Zion.[a] For there the LORD bestows his blessing,[b] even life forevermore.[c]

the LORD
who minister[b] by night[c] in the house of the LORD.

135:15-20pp — Ps 115:4-11

1Praise the LORD.[c]

Praise the name of the LORD;
praise him, you servants[i] of the
LORD,
2you who minister in the house[j] of
the LORD,
in the courts[k] of the house of our
God.
3Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good;[l]
sing praise to his name,[m] for that is pleasant.[n] 4For the LORD has chosen Jacob[o] to be his own,
Israel to be his treasured possession.[p] 5I know that the LORD is great,[q] that our Lord is greater than all gods.[r] 6The LORD does whatever pleases
him,[s]
in the heavens and on the earth,[t] in the seas and all their depths.
7He makes clouds rise from the ends
of the earth;
he sends lightning with the rain[u]
and brings out the wind[v] from his storehouses.[w] 8He struck down the firstborn[x] of Egypt,
the firstborn of men and animals.
9He sent his signs[y] and wonders into your midst, O Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.[z] 10He struck down many[a] nations and killed mighty kings—11Sihon[b] king of the Amorites,[c] Og king of Bashan[d]
and all the kings of Canaan[e]— 12and he gave their land as an inheritance,[f]
an inheritance to his people Israel.
13Your name, O LORD, endures
forever,[g]
your renown,[h] O LORD, through
all generations.
14For the LORD will vindicate his people[i]
and have compassion on his servants.[j] 15The idols of the nations[k] are silver and gold,
made by the hands of men.[l] 16They have mouths, but cannot speak,[m]
eyes, but they cannot see; 17they have ears, but cannot hear, nor is there breath[n] in their mouths.
18Those who make them will be like
them,
and so will all who trust in them.
19O house of Israel, praise the LORD;[o]
O house of Aaron, praise the LORD; 20O house of Levi, praise the LORD;
you who fear him, praise the LORD.
21Praise be to the LORD from Zion,[p]
to him who dwells in Jerusalem.[q]

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 136

1Give thanks[r] to the LORD, for he is good.[s]

2Give thanks[u] to the God of gods.[v]
His love endures forever.
3Give thanks[w] to the Lord of lords:[x]
His love endures forever.

4to him who alone does great wonders,[y]
His love endures forever.
5who by his understanding[z] made the heavens,[a]
His love endures forever.
6who spread out the earth[b] upon the waters,[c]
His love endures forever.
7who made the great lights[d]—
His love endures forever.
8the sun to govern[e] the day,
His love endures forever.
9the moon and stars to govern the
night;
His love endures forever.

2There on the poplars[a] we hung our harps,[b] 3for there our captors[c] asked us for songs, our tormentors demanded[d] songs of joy;
they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"[e]

4How can we sing the songs of the LORD[f]
while in a foreign land?
5If I forget you,[g] O Jerusalem, may my right hand forget its skill.
6May my tongue cling to the roof[h] of my mouth
if I do not remember[i] you, if I do not consider Jerusalem[j]

your love, O LORD, endures forever[h]—
do not abandon[i] the works of your hands.[j]

Psalm 139

For the director of music. Of David.
A psalm.

1O LORD, you have searched me[k]
and you know[l] me.
2You know when I sit and when I rise;[m]
you perceive my thoughts[n] from afar.
3You discern my going out[o] and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.[p] 4Before a word is on my tongue
you know it completely,[q] O LORD.
5You hem me in[r]—behind and before;
you have laid your hand upon me.
6Such knowledge is too wonderful for me,[s]
too lofty[t] for me to attain.
7Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee[u] from your presence?
8If I go up to the heavens,[v] you are
there;
if I make my bed[w] in the depths,[e]
you are there.
9If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the
sea, 10even there your hand will guide me,[x]
your right hand[y] will hold me fast.
11If I say, "Surely the darkness will hide me
and the light become night around me," 12even the darkness will not be dark[z]
to you;
the night will shine like the day,
for darkness is as light to you.
13For you created my inmost being;[a] you knit me together[b] in my mother's womb.[c] 14I praise you[d] because I am fearfully and wonderfully made;
your works are wonderful,[e]
I know that full well.
15My frame was not hidden from you when I was made[f] in the secret
place.
When I was woven together[g] in the depths of the earth,[h] 16 your eyes saw my unformed body.
All the days ordained[i] for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.
17How precious to[f] me are your thoughts,[j] O God![k]
How vast is the sum of them!
18Were I to count them,[l] they would outnumber the grains of sand.[m]
When I awake,[n]
I am still with you.
19If only you would slay the wicked,[o]
O God!
Away from me,[p] you bloodthirsty men![q] 20They speak of you with evil intent;
your adversaries[r] misuse your name.[s] 21Do I not hate those[t] who hate you,
O LORD,
and abhor[u] those who rise up
against you?
22I have nothing but hatred for them;
I count them my enemies.[v] 23Search me,[w] O God, and know my heart;[x]
test me and know my anxious thoughts.
24See if there is any offensive way[y]
in me,
and lead me[z] in the way
everlasting.

Psalm 140

For the director of music.
A psalm of David.

1Rescue me,[a] O LORD, from evil men; protect me from men of violence,[b] 2who devise evil plans[c] in their hearts
and stir up war[d] every day.
3They make their tongues as sharp as[e] a serpent's;

A maskil[i] of David. When he was in the cave.[q] A prayer.

1I cry aloud[r] to the LORD;
I lift up my voice to the LORD for mercy.[s] 2I pour out my complaint[t] before
him;
before him I tell my trouble.[u]

3When my spirit grows faint[v] within
me,
it is you who know my way.
In the path where I walk men have hidden a snare for me.
4Look to my right and see;
no one is concerned for me.
I have no refuge;[w]
no one cares[x] for my life.

5I cry to you, O LORD;
I say, "You are my refuge,[y]
my portion[z] in the land of the

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

1O LORD, hear my prayer,[f] listen to my cry for mercy;[g] in your faithfulness[h] and righteousness[i]
come to my relief.
2Do not bring your servant into
judgment,
for no one living is righteous[j]

3The enemy pursues me,
he crushes me to the ground;
he makes me dwell in darkness[k]
like those long dead.[l] 4So my spirit grows faint within me;
my heart within me is dismayed.[m]

5I remember[n] the days of long ago;
I meditate[o] on all your works and consider what your hands have done.
6I spread out my hands[p] to you;
my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Selah

7Answer me quickly,[q] O LORD;
my spirit faints[r] with longing.
Do not hide your face[s] from me or I will be like those who go down to the pit.
8Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love,[t]
for I have put my trust in you.
Show me the way[u] I should go,
for to you I lift up my soul.[v] 9Rescue me[w] from my enemies,[x]
O LORD,
for I hide myself in you.
10Teach me[y] to do your will,
for you are my God;[z]
may your good Spirit
lead[a] me on level ground.[b]

11For your name's sake,[c] O LORD, preserve my life;[d]
in your righteousness,[e] bring me out of trouble.
12In your unfailing love, silence my enemies;[f]
destroy all my foes,[g]
for I am your servant.[h]

Of David.

1Praise be to the LORD my Rock,[i] who trains my hands for war, my fingers for battle.
2He is my loving God and my fortress,[j]
my stronghold[k] and my deliverer, my shield,[l] in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples[a][m] under
me.

3O LORD, what is man[n] that you care
for him,
the son of man that you think of
him?
4Man is like a breath;[o]
his days are like a fleeting shadow.[p]

5Part your heavens,[q] O LORD, and come down;[r]
touch the mountains, so that they smoke.[s] 6Send forth lightning[t] and scatter[u]
the enemies;
shoot your arrows[v] and rout
them.
7Reach down your hand from on high;[w] deliver me and rescue me[x]
from the mighty waters,[y]
from the hands of foreigners[z] 8whose mouths are full of lies,[a] whose right hands[b] are deceitful.[c]

9I will sing a new song[d] to you,
O God;
on the ten-stringed lyre[e] I will make music to you, 10to the One who gives victory to kings,[f]
who delivers his servant David[g]
from the deadly sword.[h]

11Deliver me and rescue me[i] from the hands of foreigners[j] whose mouths are full of lies,[k] whose right hands are deceitful.[l]

12Then our sons in their youth will be like well-nurtured plants,[m]

Psalm 145[l]

A psalm of praise. Of David.

1 I will exalt you,[e] my God the King;[f]
I will praise your name[g] for ever and ever.
2 Every day I will praise[h] you and extol your name[i] for ever and
ever.
3 Great is the LORD[j] and most worthy of praise;[k]
his greatness no one can fathom.[l] 4 One generation[m] will commend your works to another;
they will tell[n] of your mighty acts.[o]
5 They will speak of the glorious splendor[p] of your majesty, and I will meditate on your wonderful works.[m][q] 6 They will tell[r] of the power of your awesome works,[s]
and I will proclaim[t] your great deeds.[u]
7 They will celebrate your abundant goodness[v]
and joyfully sing[w] of your righteousness.[x]
8 The LORD is gracious and compassionate,[y]
slow to anger and rich in love.[z] 9 The LORD is good[a] to all;
he has compassion[b] on all he has made.
10 All you have made will praise you,[c]
O LORD;
your saints will extol[d] you.[e] 11 They will tell of the glory of your kingdom[f]
and speak of your might,[g] 12 so that all men may know of your mighty acts[h]
and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.[i] 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,[j]
and your dominion endures
through all generations.
The LORD is faithful[k] to all his promises[l]
and loving toward all he has made.[n]
14 The LORD upholds[m] all those who fall and lifts up all[n] who are bowed down.[o]
15 The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food[p] at the proper time.
16 You open your hand and satisfy the desires[q] of every living thing.
17 The LORD is righteous[r] in all his ways
and loving toward all he has made.[s]
18 The LORD is near[t] to all who call on him,[u]
to all who call on him in truth.
19 He fulfills the desires[v] of those who fear him;[w]
he hears their cry[x] and saves them.[y]
20 The LORD watches over[z] all who love him,[a]
but all the wicked he will destroy.[b] 21 My mouth will speak[c] in praise of
the LORD.
Let every creature[d] praise his holy name[e]
for ever and ever.

1 Praise the LORD.[o]
Praise the LORD,[f] O my soul.
2 I will praise the LORD all my life;[g]
I will sing praise[h] to my God as long as I live.[i]
3 Do not put your trust in princes,[j] in mortal men,[k] who cannot save.

on that very day their plans come to nothing.[a] 5Blessed is he[b] whose help[c] is the God of Jacob,
whose hope is in the LORD his
God,
6the Maker of heaven[d] and earth, the sea, and everything in them—
the LORD, who remains faithful[e]
forever.
7He upholds[f] the cause of the oppressed[g]
and gives food to the hungry.[h]
The LORD sets prisoners free,[i] 8 the LORD gives sight[j] to the blind,[k]
the LORD lifts up those who are bowed down,[l]
the LORD loves the righteous.[m] 9The LORD watches over the alien[n] and sustains the fatherless[o] and the widow,[p]
but he frustrates the ways of the
wicked.

10The LORD reigns[q] forever, your God, O Zion, for all generations.

Praise the LORD.

Psalm 147

1Praise the LORD.[p]

How good it is to sing praises to our
God,
how pleasant[r] and fitting to praise
him![s]

2The LORD builds up Jerusalem;[t] he gathers the exiles[u] of Israel.
3He heals the brokenhearted[v] and binds up their wounds.[w] 4He determines the number of the stars[x]
and calls them each by name.
5Great is our Lord[y] and mighty in power;[z]
his understanding has no limit.[a] 6The LORD sustains the humble[b] but casts the wicked[c] to the
ground.

7Sing to the LORD[d] with thanksgiving;[e]
make music[f] to our God on the harp.[g] 8He covers the sky with clouds;[h] he supplies the earth with rain[i]
and makes grass grow[j] on the hills.
9He provides food[k] for the cattle and for the young ravens[l] when they call.

10His pleasure is not in the strength[m]
of the horse,[n]
nor his delight in the legs of a
man;
11the LORD delights[o] in those who fear him,[p]
who put their hope[q] in his unfailing love.[r]

12Extol the LORD, O Jerusalem;[s]
praise your God, O Zion, 13for he strengthens the bars of your gates[t]
and blesses your people[u] within
you.
14He grants peace[v] to your borders and satisfies you[w] with the finest of wheat.[x]

15He sends his command[y] to the
earth;
his word runs[z] swiftly.
16He spreads the snow[a] like wool and scatters the frost[b] like ashes.
17He hurls down his hail[c] like pebbles.
Who can withstand his icy blast?
18He sends his word[d] and melts them; he stirs up his breezes,[e] and the waters flow.

19He has revealed his word[f] to Jacob,[g]
his laws and decrees[h] to Israel.
20He has done this for no other nation;[i]
they do not know[j] his laws.

Praise the LORD.[k]

Psalm 148

1Praise the LORD.[q l]

Praise the LORD from the heavens,[m] praise him in the heights above.
2Praise him, all his angels,[n] praise him, all his heavenly hosts.[o]
3Praise him, sun[p] and moon, praise him, all you shining stars.
4Praise him, you highest heavens[q]
and you waters above the skies.[r]

Proverbs

Prologue: Purpose and Theme

1 The proverbs[a] of Solomon[b] son of David, king of Israel:[c]

2for attaining wisdom and discipline;
for understanding words of insight;
3for acquiring a disciplined and prudent life,
doing what is right and just and fair;
4for giving prudence to the simple,[d] knowledge and discretion[e] to the young—5let the wise listen and add to their learning,[f]
and let the discerning get guidance—6for understanding proverbs and parables,[g]
the sayings and riddles[h] of the wise.[i]

7The fear of the LORD[j] is the beginning of knowledge, but fools[a] despise wisdom[k] and discipline.[l]

Exhortations to Embrace Wisdom

Warning Against Enticement

8Listen, my son,[m] to your father's[n] instruction
and do not forsake your mother's teaching.[o]
9They will be a garland to grace your head
and a chain to adorn your neck.[p]

10My son, if sinners entice[q] you, do not give in[r] to them.[s] 11If they say, "Come along with us;
let's lie in wait[t] for someone's
blood,
let's waylay some harmless soul; 12let's swallow[u] them alive, like the grave,[b]
and whole, like those who go down to the pit;[v] 13we will get all sorts of valuable
things
and fill our houses with plunder; 14throw in your lot with us, and we will share a common purse[w]"— 15my son, do not go along with them, do not set foot[x] on their paths;[y] 16for their feet rush into sin,[z] they are swift to shed blood.[a] 17How useless to spread a net in full view of all the birds!
18These men lie in wait[b] for their own
blood;
they waylay only themselves![c] 19Such is the end of all who go after ill-gotten gain;
it takes away the lives of those who get it.[d]

Warning Against Rejecting Wisdom

20Wisdom calls aloud[e] in the street, she raises her voice in the public squares;
21at the head of the noisy streets[c] she cries out,
in the gateways of the city she makes her speech:

22"How long will you simple ones[d][f]
love your simple ways?
How long will mockers delight in mockery
and fools hate[g] knowledge?
23If you had responded to my rebuke,
I would have poured out my heart
to you
and made my thoughts known to
you.
24But since you rejected[h] me when I called[i]
and no one gave heed[j] when I stretched out my hand, 25since you ignored all my advice
and would not accept my rebuke,

[a]7 The Hebrew words rendered fool in Proverbs, and often elsewhere in the Old Testament, denote one who is morally deficient. [b]12 Hebrew Sheol [c]21 Hebrew; Septuagint / on the tops of the walls [d]22 The Hebrew word rendered simple in Proverbs generally denotes one without moral direction and inclined to evil.

26I in turn will laugh[a] at your disaster;[b]
I will mock[c] when calamity overtakes you[d]— 27when calamity overtakes you like a storm,
when disaster[e] sweeps over you like a whirlwind,
when distress and trouble
overwhelm you.

28"Then they will call to me but I will not answer;[f]
they will look for me but will not find me.[g] 29Since they hated knowledge and did not choose to fear the LORD,[h] 30since they would not accept my advice
and spurned my rebuke,[i] 31they will eat the fruit of their ways and be filled with the fruit of their schemes.[j] 32For the waywardness of the simple will kill them,
and the complacency of fools will destroy them;[k] 33but whoever listens to me will live in safety[l]
and be at ease, without fear of harm."[m]

Moral Benefits of Wisdom

2 My son,[n] if you accept my words and store up my commands within
you, 2turning your ear to wisdom and applying your heart to understanding,[o]
3and if you call out for insight[p]
and cry aloud for understanding, 4and if you look for it as for silver and search for it as for hidden treasure,[q] 5then you will understand the fear of
the LORD
and find the knowledge of God.[r] 6For the LORD gives wisdom,[s] and from his mouth come knowledge and understanding.[t] 7He holds victory in store for the upright,
he is a shield[u] to those whose walk is blameless,[v] 8for he guards the course of the just and protects the way of his faithful ones.[w]

9Then you will understand[x] what is right and just
and fair—every good path.

10For wisdom will enter your heart,[y] and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
11Discretion will protect you,
and understanding will guard
you.[z]

12Wisdom will save[a] you from the ways of wicked men,
from men whose words are
perverse,
13who leave the straight paths to walk in dark ways,[b] 14who delight in doing wrong and rejoice in the perverseness of evil,[c] 15whose paths are crooked[d]
and who are devious in their ways.[e]

16It will save you also from the adulteress,[f]
from the wayward wife with her seductive words, 17who has left the partner of her youth and ignored the covenant she made before God.[e][g] 18For her house leads down to death and her paths to the spirits of the dead.[h]
19None who go to her return or attain the paths of life.[i]

20Thus you will walk in the ways of good men
and keep to the paths of the
righteous.
21For the upright will live in the land,[j]
and the blameless will remain in it; 22but the wicked[k] will be cut off from the land,[l]
and the unfaithful will be torn from it.[m]

Further Benefits of Wisdom

3 My son,[n] do not forget my teaching,[o]
but keep my commands in your
heart, 2for they will prolong your life many years[p]
and bring you prosperity.[q]

3Let love and faithfulness[r] never leave you;
bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your
heart.[s] 4Then you will win favor and a good
name
in the sight of God and man.[t]

e17 Or covenant of her God

5Trust in the LORD[a] with all your
heart
and lean not on your own
understanding;
6in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths[b] straight.[f] [c]

7Do not be wise in your own eyes;[d] fear the LORD[e] and shun evil.[f] 8This will bring health to your body[g] and nourishment to your bones.[h]

9Honor the LORD with your wealth, with the firstfruits[i] of all your crops;
10then your barns will be filled[j] to overflowing,
and your vats will brim over with new wine.[k]

11My son,[l] do not despise the LORD's discipline[m]
and do not resent his rebuke, 12because the LORD disciplines those he loves,[n]
as a father[g] the son he delights in.[o]

13Blessed is the man who finds
wisdom,
the man who gains
understanding,
14for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold.[p] 15She is more precious than rubies;[q] nothing you desire can compare with her.[r] 16Long life is in her right hand;[s] in her left hand are riches and honor.[t] 17Her ways are pleasant ways, and all her paths are peace.[u] 18She is a tree of life[v] to those who embrace her;
those who lay hold of her will be blessed.[w]

19By wisdom[x] the LORD laid the earth's foundations,[y]
by understanding he set the heavens[z] in place; 20by his knowledge the deeps were divided,
and the clouds let drop the dew.

21My son,[a] preserve sound judgment and discernment,
do not let them out of your sight;[b] 22they will be life for you,[c] an ornament to grace your neck.[d] 23Then you will go on your way in safety,[e]
and your foot will not stumble;[f]

24when you lie down,[g] you will not be afraid;[h]
when you lie down, your sleep[i] will be sweet.
25Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the
wicked,
26for the LORD will be your confidence[j]
and will keep your foot[k] from being snared.[l]

27Do not withhold good from those who deserve it,
when it is in your power to act.
28Do not say to your neighbor,
"Come back later; I'll give it tomorrow"—
when you now have it with you.[m] 29Do not plot harm against your neighbor,
who lives trustfully near you.[n] 30Do not accuse a man for no reason—when he has done you no harm.

31Do not envy[o] a violent man or choose any of his ways, 32for the LORD detests a perverse man[p] but takes the upright into his confidence.[q] 33The LORD's curse[r] is on the house of the wicked,[s]
but he blesses the home of the righteous.[t] 34He mocks[u] proud mockers[v] but gives grace to the humble.[w] 35The wise inherit honor, but fools he holds up to shame.

Wisdom Is Supreme

4 Listen, my sons,[x] to a father's instruction;[y]
pay attention and gain understanding.[z]
2I give you sound learning,
so do not forsake my teaching.
3When I was a boy in my father's
house,
still tender, and an only child of my mother, 4he taught me and said,
"Lay hold[a] of my words with all
your heart;
keep my commands and you will live.[b] 5Get wisdom,[c] get understanding;
do not forget my words or swerve from them.
6Do not forsake wisdom, and she will protect you;[d]

[f]6 Or will direct your paths [g]12 Hebrew; Septuagint / and he punishes

love her, and she will watch over you.[a] 7 Wisdom is supreme; therefore get wisdom.
Though it cost all[b] you have,[b] get understanding.[c] 8 Esteem her, and she will exalt you; embrace her, and she will honor you.[d] 9 She will set a garland of grace on your head and present you with a crown of splendor.[e]"

10 Listen, my son,[f] accept what I say, and the years of your life will be many.[g] 11 I guide[h] you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths.[i] 12 When you walk, your steps will not be hampered;
when you run, you will not stumble.[j] 13 Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life.[k] 14 Do not set foot on the path of the wicked or walk in the way of evil men.[l] 15 Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn from it and go on your way.
16 For they cannot sleep till they do evil;[m]
they are robbed of slumber till they make someone fall.
17 They eat the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.[n]

18 The path of the righteous[o] is like the first gleam of dawn,[p] shining ever brighter till the full light of day.[q] 19 But the way of the wicked is like deep darkness;[r] they do not know what makes them stumble.[s]

20 My son,[t] pay attention to what I say; listen closely to my words.[u] 21 Do not let them out of your sight,[v] keep them within your heart; 22 for they are life to those who find them and health to a man's whole body.[w] 23 Above all else, guard[x] your heart, for it is the wellspring of life.[y] 24 Put away perversity from your mouth; keep corrupt talk far from your lips.

and take only ways that are firm.

keep your foot from evil.

Warning Against Adultery

5 My son,[c] pay attention to my wisdom, listen well to my words[d] of insight, 2 that you may maintain discretion and your lips may preserve knowledge.
3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey, and her speech is smoother than oil;[e] 4 but in the end she is bitter as gall,[f] sharp as a double-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death;
her steps lead straight to the grave.[j] [g] 6 She gives no thought to the way of life;
her paths are crooked, but she knows it not.[h]

7 Now then, my sons, listen[i] to me;
do not turn aside from what I say.
8 Keep to a path far from her,[j]
do not go near the door of her house, 9 lest you give your best strength to others and your years to one who is cruel, 10 lest strangers feast on your wealth and your toil enrich another man's house.[k] 11 At the end of your life you will groan, when your flesh and body are spent.
12 You will say, "How I hated discipline!
How my heart spurned correction!
13 I would not obey my teachers or listen to my instructors.
14 I have come to the brink of utter ruin[m] in the midst of the whole assembly."[n]

15 Drink water from your own cistern, running water from your own well.

[b]7 Or Whatever else you get [c]26 Or Consider the [j]5 Hebrew Sheol

16Should your springs overflow in the streets, your streams of water in the public squares?
17Let them be yours alone,
never to be shared with strangers.
18May your fountain[a] be blessed, and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth.[b] 19A loving doe, a graceful deer[c]— may her breasts satisfy you always,
may you ever be captivated by her love.
20Why be captivated, my son, by an adulteress?
Why embrace the bosom of another man's wife?

21For a man's ways are in full view[d] of the LORD, and he examines[e] all his paths.[f] 22The evil deeds of a wicked man ensnare him;[g]
the cords of his sin hold him fast.[h] 23He will die for lack of discipline,[i] led astray by his own great folly.[j]

Warnings Against Folly

6 My son,[k] if you have put up security[l] for your neighbor,[m] if you have struck hands in pledge[n] for another, 2if you have been trapped by what you said, ensnared by the words of your mouth, 3then do this, my son, to free yourself, since you have fallen into your neighbor's hands:
Go and humble yourself;
press your plea with your neighbor!
4Allow no sleep to your eyes, no slumber to your eyelids.[o] 5Free yourself, like a gazelle[p] from the hand of the hunter,[q] like a bird from the snare of the fowler.[r]

6Go to the ant, you sluggard;[s] consider its ways and be wise!
7It has no commander,
no overseer or ruler, 8yet it stores its provisions in summer[t]
and gathers its food at harvest.[u]

9How long will you lie there, you sluggard?[v]
When will you get up from your sleep?

12A scoundrel and villain, who goes about with a corrupt mouth, 13 who winks with his eye,[y] signals with his feet
and motions with his fingers,[z] 14 who plots evil[a] with deceit in his heart—he always stirs up dissension.[b] 15Therefore disaster will overtake him in an instant;[c] he will suddenly[d] be destroyed—without remedy.[e]

16There are six things the LORD hates,[f] seven that are detestable to him: 17 haughty eyes,[g]
a lying tongue,[h]
hands that shed innocent blood,[i] 18 a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are quick to rush into evil,[j] 19 a false witness[k] who pours out lies[l] and a man who stirs up dissension among brothers.[m]

Warning Against Adultery

20My son,[n] keep your father's commands and do not forsake your mother's teaching.[o] 21Bind them upon your heart forever; fasten them around your neck.[p] 22When you walk, they will guide you;
when you sleep, they will watch over you;
when you awake, they will speak to you.
23For these commands are a lamp, this teaching is a light,[q]
and the corrections of discipline are the way to life,[r] 24keeping you from the immoral woman, from the smooth tongue of the wayward wife.[s] 25Do not lust in your heart after her beauty or let her captivate you with her eyes,

[k]11 Or like a vagrant / and scarcity like a beggar

26 for the prostitute reduces you to a loaf of bread, and the adulteress preys upon your very life.[a] 27 Can a man scoop fire into his lap without his clothes being burned?
28 Can a man walk on hot coals without his feet being scorched?
29 So is he who sleeps[b] with another man's wife;[c] no one who touches her will go unpunished.

30 Men do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his hunger when he is starving.
31 Yet if he is caught, he must pay sevenfold,[d] though it costs him all the wealth of his house.
32 But a man who commits adultery[e] lacks judgment;[f] whoever does so destroys himself.
33 Blows and disgrace are his lot,
and his shame will never[g] be wiped away; 34 for jealousy[h] arouses a husband's fury,[i]
and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.
35 He will not accept any compensation;
he will refuse the bribe, however great it is.[j]

Warning Against the Adulteress

7 My son,[k] keep my words and store up my commands within you.
2 Keep my commands and you will live;[l] guard my teachings as the apple of your eye.
3 Bind them on your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.[m] 4 Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your kinsman; 5 they will keep you from the adulteress, from the wayward wife with her seductive words.[n]

6 At the window of my house
I looked out through the lattice.
7 I saw among the simple,
I noticed among the young men,
a youth who lacked judgment.[o] 8 He was going down the street near her corner, walking along in the direction of her house 9 at twilight,[p] as the day was fading, as the dark of night set in.

10 Then out came a woman to meet him, dressed like a prostitute and with crafty intent.
11 (She is loud[q] and defiant, her feet never stay at home; 12 now in the street, now in the squares, at every corner she lurks.)[r] 13 She took hold of him[s] and kissed him and with a brazen face she said:[t]

14 "I have fellowship offerings[1][u] at home;
today I fulfilled my vows.
15 So I came out to meet you;
I looked for you and have found you!
16 I have covered my bed with colored linens from Egypt.
17 I have perfumed my bed[v]
with myrrh,[w] aloes and cinnamon.
18 Come, let's drink deep of love till morning;
let's enjoy ourselves with love![x] 19 My husband is not at home;
he has gone on a long journey.
20 He took his purse filled with money and will not be home till full moon."

21 With persuasive words she led him astray;
she seduced him with her smooth talk.[y] 22 All at once he followed her like an ox going to the slaughter, like a deer[m] stepping into a noose[n][z] 23 till an arrow pierces[a] his liver, like a bird darting into a snare, little knowing it will cost him his life.[b]

24 Now then, my sons, listen[c] to me; pay attention to what I say.
25 Do not let your heart turn to her ways or stray into her paths.[d] 26 Many are the victims she has brought down;
her slain are a mighty throng.
27 Her house is a highway to the grave,[o]

Wisdom's Call

8 Does not wisdom call out?[b]
Does not understanding raise her voice?
2 On the heights along the way, where the paths meet, she takes her stand;
3 beside the gates leading into the city, at the entrances, she cries aloud:[c] 4 "To you, O men, I call out;[d]
I raise my voice to all mankind.
5 You who are simple,[e] gain prudence;[f]
you who are foolish, gain
understanding.
6 Listen, for I have worthy things to
say;
I open my lips to speak what is
right.
7 My mouth speaks what is true,[g]
for my lips detest wickedness.
8 All the words of my mouth are just;
none of them is crooked or
perverse.
9 To the discerning all of them are
right;
they are faultless to those who have knowledge.
10 Choose my instruction instead of silver,
knowledge rather than choice
gold,[h]
11 for wisdom is more precious[i] than rubies,
and nothing you desire can compare with her.[j] 12 "I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence;
I possess knowledge and discretion.[k]
13 To fear the LORD[l] is to hate evil;[m]
I hate[n] pride and arrogance, evil behavior and perverse speech.
14 Counsel and sound judgment are
mine;
I have understanding and power.[o] 15 By me kings reign and rulers[p] make laws that are just;
16 by me princes govern,[q]
and all nobles who rule on earth.[p] 17 I love those who love me,[r] and those who seek me find me.[s] 18 With me are riches and honor,[t] enduring wealth and prosperity.[u] 19 My fruit is better than fine gold;[v] what I yield surpasses choice silver.[w]
20 I walk in the way of righteousness,[x]
along the paths of justice, 21 bestowing wealth on those who love
me
and making their treasuries full.[y] 22 "The LORD brought me forth[q] as the first of his works,[r]
before his deeds of old; 23 I was appointed[s] from eternity, from the beginning, before the world began.
24 When there were no oceans, I was given birth,
when there were no springs abounding with water;[z] 25 before the mountains were settled in place,[a]
before the hills, I was given birth,[b] 26 before he made the earth or its fields
or any of the dust of the world.[c] 27 I was there when he set the heavens in place,[d]
when he marked out the horizon[e]
on the face of the deep, 28 when he established the clouds above[f]
and fixed securely the fountains of the deep,[g]
29 when he gave the sea its boundary[h] so the waters would not overstep his command,[i]
and when he marked out the foundations of the earth.[j] 30 Then I was the craftsman at his side.[k]
I was filled with delight day after
day,
rejoicing always in his presence, 31 rejoicing in his whole world and delighting in mankind.[l] 32 "Now then, my sons, listen[m] to me; blessed are[n] those who keep my ways.[o]
33 Listen to my instruction and be wise;
do not ignore it.
34 Blessed is the man who listens[p] to
me,
watching daily at my doors,
waiting at my doorway.
35 For whoever finds me[q] finds life[r] and receives favor from the LORD.[s] 36 But whoever fails to find me harms himself;[t]
all who hate me love death."[u]

Invitations of Wisdom and of Folly

9 Wisdom has built her house;
she has hewn out its seven pillars.
2 She has prepared her meat and mixed her wine;
she has also set her table.
3 She has sent out her maids, and she calls
from the highest point of the
city.
4 "Let all who are simple come in here!"
she says to those who lack
judgment.
5 "Come, eat my food
and drink the wine I have mixed.
6 Leave your simple ways and you will live;
walk in the way of
understanding.
7 "Whoever corrects a mocker invites insult;
whoever rebukes a wicked man
incurs abuse.
8 Do not rebuke a mocker or he will hate you;
rebuke a wise man and he will love you.
9 Instruct a wise man and he will be wiser still;
teach a righteous man and he will add to his learning.
10 "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
11 For through me your days will be
many,
and years will be added to your
life.
12 If you are wise, your wisdom will reward you;
if you are a mocker, you alone will suffer."
13 The woman Folly is loud;
she is undisciplined and without
knowledge.
14 She sits at the door of her house, on a seat at the highest point of
the city,
15 calling out to those who pass by,
who go straight on their way.
16 "Let all who are simple come in
here!"
she says to those who lack
judgment.
17 "Stolen water is sweet;
food eaten in secret is delicious!" 18 But little do they know that the dead are there,
that her guests are in the depths of the grave.

Proverbs of Solomon

10 The proverbs of Solomon:
A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish son grief to his mother.
2 Ill-gotten treasures are of no value,
but righteousness delivers from
death.
3 The LORD does not let the righteous
go hungry
but he thwarts the craving of the
wicked.
4 Lazy hands make a man poor,
but diligent hands bring wealth.
5 He who gathers crops in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps during harvest is a disgraceful son.
6 Blessings crown the head of the
righteous,
but violence overwhelms the
mouth of the wicked.*
7 The memory of the righteous will be a blessing,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
8 The wise in heart accept commands, but a chattering fool comes to
ruin.
9 The man of integrity walks securely,
but he who takes crooked paths
will be found out.
10 He who winks maliciously causes
grief,
and a chattering fool comes to
ruin.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
but violence overwhelms the
mouth of the wicked.
12 Hatred stirs up dissension, but love covers over all wrongs.
13 Wisdom is found on the lips of the discerning,
but a rod is for the back of him who lacks judgment.

9:18 Hebrew Sheol 10:6 Or but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence; also in verse 11

14 Wise men store up knowledge,[a] but the mouth of a fool invites ruin.[b]

15 The wealth of the rich is their fortified city,[c] but poverty is the ruin of the poor.[d]

16 The wages of the righteous bring them life,[e] but the income of the wicked brings them punishment.[f]

17 He who heeds discipline shows the way to life,[g] but whoever ignores correction leads others astray.

18 He who conceals his hatred has lying lips,[h] and whoever spreads slander is a fool.

19 When words are many, sin is not absent, but he who holds his tongue is wise.[i]

20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver, but the heart of the wicked is of little value.

21 The lips of the righteous nourish many,
but fools die for lack of judgment.[j]

22 The blessing of the LORD[k] brings wealth,[l] and he adds no trouble to it.[m]

23 A fool finds pleasure in evil conduct,[n]
but a man of understanding delights in wisdom.

24 What the wicked dreads[o] will overtake him;[p] what the righteous desire will be granted.[q]

25 When the storm has swept by, the wicked are gone, but the righteous stand firm[r] forever.[s]

26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke[t] to the eyes, so is a sluggard to those who send him.[u]

27 The fear of the LORD adds length to life,[v] but the years of the wicked are cut short.[w]

28 The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hopes of the wicked come to nothing.[x]

29 The way of the LORD is a refuge for the righteous, but it is the ruin of those who do evil.[y]

30 The righteous will never be uprooted, but the wicked will not remain in the land.[z]

31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,[a] but a perverse tongue[b] will be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is fitting,[c] but the mouth of the wicked only what is perverse.[d]

11 The LORD abhors dishonest scales,[e] but accurate weights are his delight.[f]

2 When pride comes, then comes disgrace,[g] but with humility comes wisdom.[h]

3 The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.[i]

4 Wealth[j] is worthless in the day of wrath,[k] but righteousness delivers from death.[l]

5 The righteousness of the blameless makes a straight way[m] for them, but the wicked are brought down by their own wickedness.[n]

6 The righteousness of the upright delivers them, but the unfaithful are trapped by evil desires.[o]

7 When a wicked man dies, his hope perishes;[p] all he expected from his power comes to nothing.[q]

8 The righteous man is rescued from trouble, and it comes on the wicked instead.[r]

9 With his mouth the godless destroys his neighbor, but through knowledge the righteous escape.[s]

10 When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices;[t]

is destroyed.[c]

12 A man who lacks judgment derides his neighbor,[d]
but a man of understanding holds

14 For lack of guidance a nation falls,[h] but many advisers make victory sure.[i]

15 He who puts up security[j] for another will surely suffer, but whoever refuses to strike hands in pledge is safe.[k]

16 A kindhearted woman gains respect,[l]
but ruthless men gain only wealth.

17 A kind man benefits himself, but a cruel man brings trouble on himself.

18 The wicked man earns deceptive wages,
but he who sows righteousness
reaps a sure reward.[m]

19 The truly righteous man attains life,[n] but he who pursues evil goes to his death.[o]

20 The LORD detests men of perverse heart[p]
but he delights[q] in those whose ways are blameless.[r]

21 Be sure of this: The wicked will not go unpunished,
but those who are righteous will go free.[s]

22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout is a beautiful woman who shows no discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous ends only in good,
but the hope of the wicked only in
wrath.

24 One man gives freely, yet gains even
more;
another withholds unduly, but comes to poverty.

25 A generous[t] man will prosper;
he who refreshes others will himself be refreshed.[u]

26 People curse the man who hoards grain,
but blessing crowns him who is willing to sell.

27 He who seeks good finds goodwill, but evil comes to him who searches for it.[v]

28 Whoever trusts in his riches will fall,[w]
but the righteous will thrive like a green leaf.[x]

29 He who brings trouble on his family will inherit only wind, and the fool will be servant to the wise.[y]

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,[z]
and he who wins souls is wise.

31 If the righteous receive their due[a] on
earth,
how much more the ungodly and
the sinner!

12 Whoever loves discipline loves
knowledge,
but he who hates correction is stupid.[b]

2 A good man obtains favor from the LORD,[c]
but the LORD condemns a crafty
man.[d]

3 A man cannot be established through wickedness,
but the righteous cannot be uprooted.[e]

4 A wife of noble character[f] is her husband's crown,
but a disgraceful wife is like decay
in his bones.[g]

5 The plans of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.

6 The words of the wicked lie in wait for blood,
but the speech of the upright rescues them.[h]

7 Wicked men are overthrown and are
no more,[i]
but the house of the righteous stands firm.[j]

8 A man is praised according to his
wisdom,
but men with warped[k] minds are despised.

v26 Or man is a guide to his neighbor w27 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

[12]Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a longing fulfilled is a tree of life.[a] [13]He who scorns instruction will pay for it,[b] but he who respects[c] a command is rewarded.[d] [14]The teaching of the wise is a fountain of life,[e] turning a man from the snares of death.[f] [15]Good understanding wins favor, but the way of the unfaithful is hard.[x] [16]Every prudent man acts out of knowledge, but a fool exposes[g] his folly.[h] [17]A wicked messenger falls into trouble,[i] but a trustworthy envoy brings healing.[j] [18]He who ignores discipline comes to poverty and shame,[k] but whoever heeds correction is honored.[l] [19]A longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul,[m] but fools detest turning from evil.
[20]He who walks with the wise grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.[n] [21]Misfortune pursues the sinner,[o] but prosperity[p] is the reward of the righteous.[q] [22]A good man leaves an inheritance for his children's children, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous.[r] [23]A poor man's field may produce abundant food, but injustice sweeps it away.
[24]He who spares the rod[s] hates his son, but he who loves him is careful to discipline[t] him.[u] [25]The righteous eat to their hearts' content, but the stomach of the wicked goes hungry.[v]

[2]He whose walk is upright fears the LORD, but he whose ways are devious despises him.
[3]A fool's talk brings a rod to his back,[x]
but the lips of the wise protect them.[y] [4]Where there are no oxen, the manger is empty, but from the strength of an ox[z] comes an abundant harvest.
[5]A truthful witness does not deceive, but a false witness pours out lies.[a] [6]The mocker seeks wisdom and finds none, but knowledge comes easily to the discerning.[b] [7]Stay away from a foolish man, for you will not find knowledge on his lips.
[8]The wisdom of the prudent is to give thought to their ways,[c] but the folly of fools is deception.[d] [9]Fools mock at making amends for sin, but goodwill is found among the upright.
[10]Each heart knows its own bitterness, and no one else can share its joy.
[11]The house of the wicked will be destroyed,[e] but the tent of the upright will flourish.[f] [12]There is a way that seems right to a man,[g] but in the end it leads to death.[h] [13]Even in laughter[i] the heart may ache, and joy may end in grief.
[14]The faithless will be fully repaid for their ways,[j]
and the good man rewarded for his.[k] [15]A simple man believes anything, but a prudent man gives thought to his steps.[l] [16]A wise man fears the LORD and shuns evil,[m] but a fool[n] is hotheaded and reckless.
[17]A quick-tempered[o] man does foolish things,[p]
and a crafty man is hated.[q]

[x]15 Or unfaithful does not endure

[18]The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

[19]Evil men will bow down in the presence of the good, and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.[a] [20]The poor are shunned even by their neighbors, but the rich have many friends.[b]

[21]He who despises his neighbor sins,[c] but blessed is he who is kind to the needy.[d]

[22]Do not those who plot evil go astray?[e]
But those who plan what is good find[y] love and faithfulness.

[23]All hard work brings a profit, but mere talk leads only to poverty.

[24]The wealth of the wise is their crown, but the folly of fools yields folly.[f]

[25]A truthful witness saves lives, but a false witness is deceitful.[g]

[26]He who fears the LORD has a secure fortress,[h] and for his children it will be a refuge.[i]

[27]The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,[j] turning a man from the snares of death.[k]

[28]A large population is a king's glory, but without subjects a prince is ruined.[l]

[29]A patient man has great understanding,[m] but a quick-tempered man displays folly.[n]

[30]A heart at peace gives life to the body, but envy rots the bones.[o]

[31]He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for their Maker,[p] but whoever is kind to the needy honors God.[q]

[32]When calamity comes, the wicked are brought down,[r] but even in death the righteous have a refuge.[s]

[33]Wisdom reposes in the heart of the discerning[t]
and even among fools she lets herself be known.[z]

[35]A king delights in a wise servant, but a shameful servant incurs his wrath.[v]

15

A gentle answer[w] turns away wrath,[x]
but a harsh word stirs up anger.

[2]The tongue of the wise commends knowledge,[y]
but the mouth of the fool gushes folly.[z]

[3]The eyes[a] of the LORD are everywhere,[b] keeping watch on the wicked and the good.[c]

[4]The tongue[d] that brings healing is a tree of life,[e] but a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.[f]

[5]A fool spurns his father's discipline, but whoever heeds correction shows prudence.[g]

[6]The house of the righteous contains great treasure,[h] but the income of the wicked brings them trouble.[i]

[7]The lips of the wise spread knowledge;[j] not so the hearts of fools.

[8]The LORD detests the sacrifice[k] of the wicked,[l]
but the prayer of the upright pleases him.[m]

[9]The LORD detests the way of the wicked[n]
but he loves those who pursue righteousness.[o]

[10]Stern discipline awaits him who leaves the path;
he who hates correction will die.[p]

[11]Death and Destruction[a] lie open before the LORD[q] — how much more the hearts of men![r]

[12]A mocker resents correction;[s] he will not consult the wise.

[13]A happy heart makes the face cheerful,[t]
but heartache crushes the spirit.[u]

[14]The discerning heart seeks knowledge,[v]

y22 Or show z33 Hebrew; Septuagint and Syriac / but in the heart of fools she is not known a11 Hebrew Sheol and Abaddon

but the mouth of a fool feeds on folly.

15All the days of the oppressed are wretched,
but the cheerful heart has a continual feast.[a]

16Better a little with the fear of the LORD
than great wealth with turmoil.[b]

17Better a meal of vegetables where there is love
than a fattened calf with hatred.[c]

18A hot-tempered man stirs up dissension,[d]
but a patient man calms a quarrel.[e]

19The way of the sluggard is blocked with thorns,[f]
but the path of the upright is a highway.

20A wise son brings joy to his father,[g] but a foolish man despises his mother.

21Folly delights a man who lacks judgment,[h]
but a man of understanding keeps a straight course.

22Plans fail for lack of counsel,[i] but with many advisers[j] they succeed.[k]

23A man finds joy in giving an apt reply[l] —
and how good is a timely word![m]

24The path of life leads upward for the wise
to keep him from going down to the grave.[b]

25The LORD tears down the proud man's house[n]
but he keeps the widow's boundaries intact.[o]

26The LORD detests the thoughts[p] of
the wicked,[q]
but those of the pure[r] are pleasing to him.

27A greedy man brings trouble to his family,
but he who hates bribes will live.[s]

28The heart of the righteous weighs its answers,[t]
but the mouth of the wicked gushes evil.[u]

29The LORD is far from the wicked but he hears the prayer of the righteous.[v]

30A cheerful look brings joy to the
heart,
and good news gives health to the bones.[w]

31He who listens to a life-giving rebuke
will be at home among the wise.[x]

32He who ignores discipline despises himself,[y]
but whoever heeds correction gains understanding.[z]

33The fear of the LORD[a] teaches a man wisdom,[c]
and humility comes before honor.[b]

16 To man belong the plans of the
heart,
but from the LORD comes the reply of the tongue.[c]

2All a man's ways seem innocent to
him,[d]
but motives are weighed[e] by the LORD.[f]

3Commit to the LORD whatever you
do,
and your plans will succeed.[g]

4The LORD works out everything for his own ends[h] —
even the wicked for a day of disaster.[i]

5The LORD detests all the proud of heart.[j]
Be sure of this: They will not go unpunished.[k]

6Through love and faithfulness sin is atoned for;
through the fear of the LORD[l] a man avoids evil.[m]

7When a man's ways are pleasing to
the LORD,
he makes even his enemies live at peace[n] with him.[o]

8Better a little with righteousness than much gain[p] with injustice.[q]

9In his heart a man plans his course, but the LORD determines his more than a hundred lashes a fool.

11An evil man is bent only on rebellion;
a merciless official will be sent against him.

12Better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs
than a fool in his folly.[a]

13If a man pays back evil[b] for good,[c] evil will never leave his house.

14Starting a quarrel is like breaching a dam;
so drop the matter before a dispute breaks out.[d]

15Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent[e] —
the LORD detests them both.[f]

16Of what use is money in the hand of a fool,
since he has no desire to get
wisdom?[g]

17A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.[h]

18A man lacking in judgment strikes hands in pledge
and puts up security for his neighbor.[i]

19He who loves a quarrel loves sin;
he who builds a high gate invites destruction.

20A man of perverse heart does not
prosper;
he whose tongue is deceitful falls
into trouble.

21To have a fool for a son brings
grief;
there is no joy for the father of a fool.[j]

22A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a crushed[k] spirit dries up the bones.[l]

23A wicked man accepts a bribe[m] in secret
to pervert the course of justice.[n]

24A discerning man keeps wisdom in view,
but a fool's eyes[o] wander to the ends of the earth.

25A foolish son brings grief to his father
and bitterness to the one who bore
him.[p]

26It is not good to punish an innocent man,[q]
or to flog officials for their integrity.

27A man of knowledge uses words with restraint,[r]
and a man of understanding is even-tempered.[s]

28Even a fool is thought wise if he keeps silent,
and discerning if he holds his tongue.[t]

18

1An unfriendly man pursues
selfish ends;
he defies all sound judgment.

2A fool finds no pleasure in
understanding but delights in airing his own opinions.[u]

3When wickedness comes, so does
contempt,
and with shame comes disgrace.

4The words of a man's mouth are deep waters,[v]
but the fountain of wisdom is a bubbling brook.

5It is not good to be partial to the wicked[w]
or to deprive the innocent of justice.[x]

6A fool's lips bring him strife, and his mouth invites a beating.[y]

7A fool's mouth is his undoing, and his lips are a snare[z] to his soul.[a]

8The words of a gossip are like choice morsels;
they go down to a man's inmost parts.[b]

9One who is slack in his work is brother to one who destroys.[c]

10The name of the LORD is a strong tower;[d]
the righteous run to it and are safe.[e]

11The wealth of the rich is their fortified city;[f]
they imagine it an unscalable wall.

12Before his downfall a man's heart is proud,
but humility comes before honor.[g]

13He who answers before listening—that is his folly and his shame.[h]

14A man's spirit sustains him in sickness,

but victory rests with the LORD.[m]

22 A good name is more desirable than great riches;
to be esteemed is better than silver or gold.[n]

[2]Rich and poor have this in common:
The LORD is the Maker of them all.[o]

[3]A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge,[p] but the simple keep going and suffer for it.[q]

[4]Humility and the fear of the LORD bring wealth and honor[r] and life.[s]

[5]In the paths of the wicked lie thorns and snares,[t]
but he who guards his soul stays far from them.

[6]Train[b][u] a child in the way he should go,[v] and when he is old he will not turn from it.[w]

[7]The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

[8]He who sows wickedness reaps trouble,[x] and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.[y]

[9]A generous man will himself be blessed,[z] for he shares his food with the poor.[a]

[10]Drive out the mocker, and out goes strife; quarrels and insults are ended.[b]

[11]He who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious will have the king for his friend.[c]

[12]The eyes of the LORD keep watch over knowledge, but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.

[13]The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside!"[d] or, "I will be murdered in the streets!"

[14]The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit;[e] he who is under the LORD's wrath will fall into it.[f]

[15]Folly is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of discipline will drive it far from him.[g]

[16]He who oppresses the poor to increase his wealth and he who gives gifts to the rich—both come to poverty.

Sayings of the Wise

[17]Pay attention[h] and listen to the sayings of the wise;[i] apply your heart to what I teach,[j] [18]for it is pleasing when you keep them in your heart and have all of them ready on your lips.
[19]So that your trust may be in the LORD,
I teach you today, even you.
[20]Have I not written thirty[c] sayings for you, sayings of counsel and knowledge, [21]teaching you true and reliable words,[k] so that you can give sound answers to him who sent you?

plunder them.[d]

24Do not make friends with a hot-tempered man,
do not associate with one easily angered, 25or you may learn his ways and get yourself ensnared.[e]

26Do not be a man who strikes hands in pledge[f]
or puts up security for debts; 27if you lack the means to pay, your very bed will be snatched from under you.[g]

28Do not move an ancient boundary

29Do you see a man skilled[i] in his work?
He will serve[j] before kings;[k]
he will not serve before obscure
men.

23 When you sit to dine with a ruler,
note well what[q] is before you, 2and put a knife to your throat
if you are given to gluttony.
3Do not crave his delicacies,[l]
for that food is deceptive.

4Do not wear yourself out to get rich;
have the wisdom to show restraint.
5Cast but a glance at riches, and they are gone,[m]
for they will surely sprout wings and fly off to the sky like an 6Do not eat the food of a stingy man, do not crave his delicacies;[o] 7for he is the kind of man who is always thinking about the cost.[r]

"Eat and drink," he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
8You will vomit up the little you have eaten
and will have wasted your compliments.

9Do not speak to a fool,
for he will scorn the wisdom of your words.[p]

10Do not move an ancient boundary
stone[q]
or encroach on the fields of the
fatherless,
11for their Defender[r] is strong;[s] he will take up their case against you.[t]

12Apply your heart to instruction[u]

and a wayward wife is a narrow 28Like a bandit she lies in wait,[a] and multiplies the unfaithful

among men.

29Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?
30Those who linger over wine,[b]
who go to sample bowls of mixed
wine.
31Do not gaze at wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly!
32In the end it bites like a snake and poisons like a viper.
33Your eyes will see strange sights and your mind imagine confusing
things.
34You will be like one sleeping on the high seas,
lying on top of the rigging.
35"They hit me," you will say, "but I'm not hurt!
They beat me, but I don't feel it!
When will I wake up
so I can find another drink?"[c]

24 Do not envy[d] wicked men, do not desire their company; 2for their hearts plot violence,[e] and their lips talk about making trouble.[f]

3By wisdom a house is built,[g]
and through understanding it is established;
4through knowledge its rooms are filled
with rare and beautiful treasures.[h]

5A wise man has great power, and a man of knowledge increases
strength;
6for waging war you need guidance, and for victory many advisers.[i]

7Wisdom is too high for a fool;
in the assembly at the gate he has nothing to say.

8He who plots evil
will be known as a schemer.
9The schemes of folly are sin,
and men detest a mocker.

10If you falter in times of trouble, how small is your strength![j] honey from the comb is sweet to your taste.

14Know also that wisdom is sweet to
your soul;
if you find it, there is a future
hope for you,
and your hope will not be cut off.[p][q]

15Do not lie in wait like an outlaw against a righteous man's
house,
do not raid his dwelling place; 16for though a righteous man falls seven times, he rises again, but the wicked are brought down
by calamity.[r]

17Do not gloat[s] when your enemy falls;
when he stumbles, do not let your heart rejoice,[t] 18or the LORD will see and disapprove and turn his wrath away from
him.[u]

19Do not fret[v] because of evil men or be envious of the wicked, 20for the evil man has no future
hope,
and the lamp of the wicked will be snuffed out.[w]

21Fear the LORD and the king,[x] my
son,
and do not join with the rebellious, 22for those two will send sudden destruction[y] upon them, and who knows what calamities they can bring?

Further Sayings of the Wise

23These also are sayings of the wise:[z]

To show partiality[a] in judging is not good:[b] 24Whoever says to the guilty, "You are innocent"[c]—
peoples will curse him and nations denounce him.
25But it will go well with those who convict the guilty,

and rich blessing will come upon them.

26An honest answer
is like a kiss on the lips.

27Finish your outdoor work and get your fields ready;
after that, build your house.

28Do not testify against your neighbor without cause,v
or use your lips to deceive.
29Do not say, "I'll do to him as he has done to me;
I'll pay that man back for what he did."w

30I went past the field of the sluggard,x
past the vineyard of the man who lacks judgment;
31thorns had come up everywhere, the ground was covered with weeds,
and the stone wall was in ruins.
32I applied my heart to what I observed
and learned a lesson from what I saw:
33A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest d—34and poverty will come on you like a bandit
and scarcity like an armed man.t e

More Proverbs of Solomon

2It is the glory of God to conceal a matter;
to search out a matter is the glory of kings.h 3As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.

4Remove the dross from the silver, and out comes material foru the silversmith;
5remove the wicked from the king's presence,i
and his throne will be establishedj through righteousness.k

6Do not exalt yourself in the king's presence,
and do not claim a place among
great men;
7it is better for him to say to you,
"Come up here,"l
than for him to humiliate you before a nobleman.

What you have seen with your eyes 8 do not bringv hastily to court, for what will you do in the end if your neighbor puts you to shame?m

9If you argue your case with a neighbor,
do not betray another man's confidence, 10or he who hears it may shame you and you will never lose your bad reputation.

11A word aptly spoken

listening ear.o

13Like the coolness of snow at harvest
time
is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him;
he refreshes the spirit of his masters.p

14Like clouds and wind without rain is a man who boasts of gifts he does not give.

15Through patience a ruler can be persuaded,q
and a gentle tongue can break a bone.r

16If you find honey, eat just enough—too much of it, and you will vomit.s

17Seldom set foot in your neighbor's
house—
too much of you, and he will hate
you.

you will not remove his folly from
him.

23 Be sure you know the condition of your flocks,[y]
give careful attention to your
herds;

24 for riches do not endure forever,[z] and a crown is not secure for all generations.

25 When the hay is removed and new growth appears
and the grass from the hills is gathered in,

26 the lambs will provide you with clothing,
and the goats with the price of a field.

27 You will have plenty of goats' milk to feed you and your family and to nourish your servant girls.

28 The wicked man flees[a] though no one pursues,[b]
but the righteous are as bold as a lion.[c]

[u]20 Hebrew Sheol and Abaddon

[2]When a country is rebellious, it has many rulers,
but a man of understanding and knowledge maintains order.

[3]A ruler[y] who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain that leaves no crops.

[4]Those who forsake the law praise the
wicked,
but those who keep the law resist
them.

[5]Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.

[6]Better a poor man whose walk is blameless
than a rich man whose ways are perverse.[a]

[7]He who keeps the law is a discerning son,
but a companion of gluttons disgraces his father.[b]

[8]He who increases his wealth by exorbitant interest[c] amasses it for another,[d] who will be kind to the poor.[e]

[9]If anyone turns a deaf ear to the
law,
even his prayers are detestable.[f]

[10]He who leads the upright along an evil path
will fall into his own trap,[g] but the blameless will receive a good inheritance.

[11]A rich man may be wise in his own eyes,
but a poor man who has discernment sees through
him.

[12]When the righteous triumph, there is great elation;[h]
but when the wicked rise to power, men go into hiding.[i]

[13]He who conceals his sins[j] does not prosper,
but whoever confesses[k] and renounces them finds mercy.[l]

[14]Blessed is the man who always fears
the LORD,
but he who hardens his heart falls
into trouble.

[15]Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked man ruling over a helpless people.

[16]A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment, but he who hates ill-gotten gain will enjoy a long life.

[17]A man tormented by the guilt of murder
will be a fugitive[m] till death;
let no one support him.

[18]He whose walk is blameless is kept safe,[n]
but he whose ways are perverse will suddenly fall.[o]

[19]He who works his land will have abundant food,
but the one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.[p]

[20]A faithful man will be richly blessed, but one eager to get rich will not go unpunished.[q]

[21]To show partiality[r] is not good[s] — yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.[t]

[22]A stingy man is eager to get rich and is unaware that poverty awaits him.[u]

[23]He who rebukes a man will in the end gain more favor
than he who has a flattering tongue.[v]

[24]He who robs his father or mother[w] and says, "It's not wrong"— he is partner to him who destroys.[x]

[25]A greedy man stirs up dissension,[y] but he who trusts in the LORD[z] will prosper.

[26]He who trusts in himself is a fool,[a] but he who walks in wisdom is kept safe.[b]

[27]He who gives to the poor will lack nothing,[c]
but he who closes his eyes to them receives many curses.[d]

[28]When the wicked rise to power, people go into hiding;[e] but when the wicked perish, the righteous thrive.

29 A man who remains stiff-necked[f] after many rebukes will suddenly be destroyed[g]—without remedy.[h]

[2]When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice;[i]

[y]3 Or A poor man

when the wicked rule,[a] the people groan.[b]

[3]A man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father,[c]
but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.[d]

[4]By justice a king gives a country stability,[e]
but one who is greedy for bribes tears it down.

[5]Whoever flatters his neighbor is spreading a net for his feet.[f]

[6]An evil man is snared by his own sin,[g]
but a righteous one can sing and
be glad.

[7]The righteous care about justice for the poor,[h]
but the wicked have no such concern.

[8]Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger.[i]

[9]If a wise man goes to court with a fool,
the fool rages and scoffs, and there is no peace.

[10]Bloodthirsty men hate a man of integrity
and seek to kill the upright.[j]

[11]A fool gives full vent to his anger,[k] but a wise man keeps himself under control.[l]

[12]If a ruler[m] listens to lies, all his officials become wicked.[n]

[13]The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.[o]

[14]If a king judges the poor with fairness,
his throne will always be secure.[p]

[15]The rod of correction imparts
wisdom,
but a child left to himself disgraces
his mother.[q]

[16]When the wicked thrive, so does sin, but the righteous will see their downfall.[r]

[17]Discipline your son, and he will give you peace;
he will bring delight to your soul.[s]

[18]Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint;
but blessed is he who keeps the law.[t]

[19]A servant cannot be corrected by mere words;
though he understands, he will not respond.

[20]Do you see a man who speaks in haste?
There is more hope for a fool than
for him.[u]

[21]If a man pampers his servant from youth,
he will bring grief[z] in the end.

[22]An angry man stirs up dissension, and a hot-tempered one commits many sins.[v]

[23]A man's pride brings him low,[w] but a man of lowly spirit gains honor.[x]

[24]The accomplice of a thief is his own

gets justice.[d]

the wicked detest the upright.[e]

Sayings of King Lemuel

2 "O my son, O son of my womb,

4 "It is not for kings, O Lemuel—not for kings to drink wine,[c]
not for rulers to crave beer, 5 lest they drink[d] and forget what the law decrees,[e]
and deprive all the oppressed of their rights.
6 Give beer to those who are perishing, wine[f] to those who are in anguish; 7 let them drink[g] and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more.

8 "Speak[h] up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for the rights of all who are destitute.
9 Speak up and judge fairly;
defend the rights of the poor and needy."[i]

Epilogue: The Wife of Noble Character

10 [h]A wife of noble character[j] who can find?[k]
She is worth far more than rubies.
11 Her husband[l] has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value.[m] 12 She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life.
13 She selects wool and flax and works with eager hands.[n] 14 She is like the merchant ships, bringing her food from afar.
15 She gets up while it is still dark; she provides food for her family and portions for her servant girls.
16 She considers a field and buys it;
out of her earnings she plants a vineyard.
17 She sets about her work vigorously;
her arms are strong for her tasks.

18 She sees that her trading is profitable, and her lamp does not go out at night.
19 In her hand she holds the distaff and grasps the spindle with her fingers.
20 She opens her arms to the poor and extends her hands to the needy.[o] 21 When it snows, she has no fear for her household; for all of them are clothed in scarlet.
22 She makes coverings for her bed;
she is clothed in fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders[p] of the land.
24 She makes linen garments and sells them,
and supplies the merchants with sashes.
25 She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.
26 She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction is on her tongue.[q] 27 She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her: 29 "Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all." 30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
31 Give her the reward she has earned,
and let her works bring her praise[r] at the city gate.

Ecclesiastes

Everything Is Meaningless

1 The words of the Teacher,[a a] son of David, king in Jerusalem:[b]

2 "Meaningless! Meaningless!"[c] says the Teacher.
"Utterly meaningless!
Everything is meaningless."[c]

3 What does man gain from all his labor
at which he toils under the sun?[d] 4 Generations come and generations go,
but the earth remains forever.[e] 5 The sun rises and the sun sets, and hurries back to where it rises.[f]
6 The wind blows to the south and turns to the north;
round and round it goes,
ever returning on its course.
7 All streams flow into the sea,
yet the sea is never full.
To the place the streams come from,
there they return again.[g] 8 All things are wearisome, more than one can say.
The eye never has enough of seeing,[h]
nor the ear its fill of hearing.
9 What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again;[i]
there is nothing new under the sun.
10 Is there anything of which one can
say,
"Look! This is something new"?
It was here already, long ago;
it was here before our time.
11 There is no remembrance of men of old,[j]
and even those who are yet to come
will not be remembered
by those who follow.[k]

Wisdom Is Meaningless

12 I, the Teacher,[l] was king over Israel in Jerusalem.[m] 13 I devoted myself to study and to explore by wisdom all that is done under heaven.[n] What a heavy burden God has laid on men![o] 14 I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.[p]

15 What is twisted cannot be straightened;[q]
what is lacking cannot be counted.

16 I thought to myself, "Look, I have grown and increased in wisdom more than anyone who has ruled over Jerusalem before me;[r] I have experienced much of wisdom and knowledge." 17 Then I applied myself to the understanding of wisdom,[s] and also of madness and folly,[t] but I learned that this, too, is a chasing after the wind.

18 For with much wisdom comes much sorrow;[u]
the more knowledge, the more grief.[v]

Pleasures Are Meaningless

2 I thought in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure[w] to find out what is good." But that also proved to be meaningless. 2 "Laughter,"[x] I said, "is foolish. And what does pleasure accomplish?" 3 I tried cheering myself with wine,[y] and embracing folly[z]—my mind still guiding me with wisdom. I wanted to see what was worthwhile for men to do under heaven during the few days of their lives.

4 I undertook great projects: I built houses for myself[a] and planted vineyards.[b] 5 I made gardens and parks and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.
6 I made reservoirs to water groves of flourishing trees. 7 I bought male and female slaves and had other slaves[c] who were born in my house. I also owned more herds and flocks than anyone in Jerusalem before me. 8 I amassed silver and gold[a] for myself, and the treasure of kings and provinces.[b] I acquired men and women singers,[c] and a harem[b] as well—the delights of the heart of man. 9I became greater by far than anyone in Jerusalem[d] before me.[e] In all this my wisdom stayed with me.

10I denied myself nothing my eyes desired;
I refused my heart no pleasure.
My heart took delight in all my
work,
and this was the reward for all my
labor.
11Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done
and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind;[f] nothing was gained under the sun.[g]

Wisdom and Folly Are Meaningless

12Then I turned my thoughts to consider wisdom,
and also madness and folly.[h]
What more can the king's successor
do
than what has already been done?[i] 13I saw that wisdom[j] is better than folly,[k]
just as light is better than
darkness.
14The wise man has eyes in his head, while the fool walks in the
darkness;
but I came to realize that the same fate overtakes them both.[l] 15Then I thought in my heart,

"The fate of the fool will overtake me also.
What then do I gain by being wise?"[m]
I said in my heart,
"This too is meaningless." 16For the wise man, like the fool, will not be long remembered;[n] in days to come both will be forgotten.[o]
Like the fool, the wise man too must die![p]

Toil Is Meaningless

17So I hated life, because the work that is done under the sun was grievous to me. All of it is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.[q] 18I hated all the things I had toiled for under the sun, because I must leave them to the one who comes after me.[r] 19And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool?[s] Yet he will have control over all the work into which I have poured my effort and skill under the sun. This too is meaningless. 20So my heart began to despair over all my toilsome labor under the sun. 21For a man may do his work with wisdom, knowledge and skill, and then he must leave all he owns to someone who has not worked for it. This too is meaningless and a great misfortune. 22What does a man get for all the toil and anxious striving with which he labors under the sun?[t] 23All his days his work is pain and grief;[u] even at night his mind does not rest.[v] This too is meaningless.

24A man can do nothing better than to eat and drink[w] and find satisfaction in his work.[x] This too, I see, is from the hand of God,[y] 25for without him, who can eat or find enjoyment?[z] 26To the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom,[a] knowledge and happiness, but to the sinner he gives the task of gathering and storing up wealth[b] to hand it over to the one who pleases God.[c] This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

A Time for Everything

3 There is a time[d] for everything, and a season for every activity
under heaven:

2 a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,[e]
3 a time to kill[f] and a time to heal, a time to tear down and a time to build,
4 a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
5 a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to
refrain,
6 a time to search and a time to give
up,
a time to keep and a time to throw
away,
7 a time to tear and a time to mend, a time to be silent[g] and a time to
speak,

[b]8 The meaning of the Hebrew for this phrase is uncertain.

8 a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for
peace.

9What does the worker gain from his toil?[a] 10I have seen the burden God has laid on men.[b] 11He has made everything beautiful in its time.[c] He has also set eternity in the hearts of men; yet they cannot fathom[d] what God has done from beginning to end.[e] 12I know that there is nothing better for men than to be happy and do good while they live. 13That everyone may eat and drink,[f] and find satisfaction[g] in all his toil—this is the gift of God.[h] 14I know that everything God does will endure forever; nothing can be added to it and nothing taken from it. God does it so that men will revere him.[i]

15Whatever is has already been,[j]
and what will be has been before;[k]
and God will call the past to account.[c]

16And I saw something else under
the sun:

In the place of judgment—
wickedness was there, in the place of justice—wickedness was there.

17I thought in my heart,

"God will bring to judgment[l] both the righteous and the
wicked,
for there will be a time for every activity,
a time for every deed."[m]

18I also thought, "As for men, God tests them so that they may see that they are like the animals.[n] 19Man's fate[o] is like that of the animals; the same fate awaits them both: As one dies, so dies the other. All have the same breath[d]; man has no advantage over the animal. Everything is meaningless. 20All go to the same place; all come from dust, and to dust all return.[p] 21Who knows if the spirit of man rises upward[q] and if the spirit of the animal[e] goes down into the earth?" 22So I saw that there is nothing better for a man than to enjoy his work,[r] because that is his lot.[s] For who can bring him to see what will happen after
him?

3:9 [a]S Ecc 1:3 3:10 [b]S Ecc 1:13 3:11 [c]S ver 1 [d]S Job 11:7 [e]S Job 28:23; Ro 11:33 3:13 [f]Ecc 2:3 [g]Ps 34:12 [h]S Dt 12:7, 18; S Ecc 2:24 3:14 [i]S Job 23:15; Ecc 5:7; 7:18; 8:12-13 3:15 [j]Ecc 6:10 [k]S Ecc 1:9 3:17 [l]S Job 19:29; Ecc 11:9; 12:14 [m]ver 1 3:18 [n]S Ps 73:22 3:19 [o]S Ecc 2:14 3:20 [p]S Ge 2:7; S Job 34:15 3:21 [q]Ecc 12:7 3:22 [r]S Ecc 2:24 [s]S Job 31:2

Oppression, Toil, Friendlessness

4 Again I looked and saw all the oppression[t] that was taking place under the sun:

I saw the tears of the oppressed—
and they have no comforter;
power was on the side of their oppressors—
and they have no comforter.[u] 2And I declared that the dead,[v]
who had already died,
are happier than the living,
who are still alive.[w] 3But better than both is he who has not yet been,[x]
who has not seen the evil that is done under the sun.[y]

4And I saw that all labor and all achievement spring from man's envy of his neighbor. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.[z]

5The fool folds his hands[a] and ruins himself.
6Better one handful with tranquillity than two handfuls with toil[b] and chasing after the wind.

7Again I saw something meaningless under the sun:

8There was a man all alone;
he had neither son nor brother.
There was no end to his toil, yet his eyes were not content[c]
with his wealth.
"For whom am I toiling," he asked,
"and why am I depriving myself of enjoyment?"
This too is meaningless—
a miserable business!

9Two are better than one,
because they have a good return
for their work:
10If one falls down,
his friend can help him up.
But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up!
11Also, if two lie down together, they will keep warm.
But how can one keep warm
alone?
12Though one may be overpowered,
two can defend themselves.
A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.

Advancement Is Meaningless

13Better a poor but wise youth than an old but foolish king who no longer knows how to take warning. 14The youth may have come from prison to the kingship, or he may have been born in poverty within his kingdom. 15I saw that all who lived and walked under the sun followed the youth, the king's successor. 16There was no end to all the people who were before them.
But those who came later were not pleased with the successor. This too is meaningless, a chasing after the wind.

Stand in Awe of God

5 Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not know that they do wrong.

2Do not be quick with your mouth, do not be hasty in your heart to utter anything before God.[a] God is in heaven
and you are on earth,
so let your words be few.[b] 3As a dream[c] comes when there are many cares,
so the speech of a fool when there are many words.[d]

4When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it.[e] He has no pleasure in fools; fulfill your vow.[f] 5It is better not to vow than to make a vow and not fulfill it.[g] 6Do not let your mouth lead you into sin. And do not protest to the temple messenger, "My vow was a mistake." Why should God be angry at what you say and destroy the work of your hands? 7Much dreaming and many words are meaningless.
Therefore stand in awe of God.[h]

Riches Are Meaningless

8If you see the poor oppressed[i] in a district, and justice and rights denied, do not be surprised at such things; for one official is eyed by a higher one, and over them both are others higher still.
9The increase from the land is taken by all; the king himself profits from the fields.

10Whoever loves money never has money enough;
whoever loves wealth is never satisfied with his income.
This too is meaningless.

11As goods increase,
so do those who consume them.
And what benefit are they to the owner
except to feast his eyes on them?

12The sleep of a laborer is sweet, whether he eats little or much,
but the abundance of a rich man permits him no sleep.[j]

13I have seen a grievous evil under the sun:[k]

wealth hoarded to the harm of its owner,
14 or wealth lost through some misfortune,
so that when he has a son
there is nothing left for him.
15Naked a man comes from his mother's womb,
and as he comes, so he departs.[l]
He takes nothing from his labor[m] that he can carry in his hand.[n]

16This too is a grievous evil:

As a man comes, so he departs,
and what does he gain,
since he toils for the wind?[o] 17All his days he eats in darkness, with great frustration, affliction and anger.

18Then I realized that it is good and proper for a man to eat and drink,[p]
and to find satisfaction in his toilsome labor[q] under the sun during the few days of life God has given him—for this is his lot. 19Moreover, when God gives any man wealth and possessions,[r] and enables him to enjoy them,[s] to accept his lot[t] and be happy in his work—this is a gift of God.[u] 20He seldom reflects on the days of his life, because God keeps him occupied with gladness of heart.[v]

6 I have seen another evil under the sun, and it weighs heavily on men: 2God gives a man wealth, possessions and honor, so that he lacks nothing his heart desires, but God does not enable him to enjoy them,[w] and a stranger enjoys them instead. This is meaningless, a grievous evil.[x] 3A man may have a hundred children and live many years; yet no matter how long he lives, if he cannot enjoy his prosperity and does not receive proper burial, I say that a stillborn[y] child is better off than he.[z] 4It comes without meaning, it departs in darkness, and in darkness its name is shrouded. 5Though it never saw the sun or knew anything, it has more rest

over a fool?[c]

himself before others?
⁹Better what the eye sees than the roving of the appetite.
This too is meaningless,
a chasing after the wind.[d]

¹⁰Whatever exists has already been named,[e]
and what man is has been known;
no man can contend
with one who is stronger than he.

ingless days[f] he passes through like a

Wisdom

7 A good name is better than fine perfume,[h]
and the day of death better than the day of birth.[i] ²It is better to go to a house of mourning
than to go to a house of feasting, for death[j] is the destiny[k] of every
man;
the living should take this to heart.
³Sorrow is better than laughter,[l] because a sad face is good for the heart.
⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,
but the heart of fools is in the house of pleasure.[m] ⁵It is better to heed a wise man's rebuke[n]
than to listen to the song of fools.
⁶Like the crackling of thorns[o] under the pot,
so is the laughter[p] of fools.
This too is meaningless.

⁷Extortion turns a wise man into a
fool,
and a bribe[q] corrupts the heart.
⁸The end of a matter is better than its beginning,
and patience[r] is better than pride.
⁹Do not be quickly provoked[s] in your
spirit,
for anger resides in the lap of fools.[t]

¹⁰Do not say, "Why were the old days[u] better than these?"
For it is not wise to ask such questions.

¹¹Wisdom, like an inheritance, is a good thing[v]
and benefits those who see the sun.[w] ¹²Wisdom is a shelter
as money is a shelter,
but the advantage of knowledge is
this:
that wisdom preserves the life of its possessor.

¹³Consider what God has done:[x]

Who can straighten
what he has made crooked?[y] ¹⁴When times are good, be happy;
but when times are bad, consider:
God has made the one
as well as the other.[z] Therefore, a man cannot discover anything about his future.

¹⁵In this meaningless life[a] of mine I have seen both of these:

a righteous man perishing in his
righteousness,
and a wicked man living long in his wickedness.[b] ¹⁶Do not be overrighteous, neither be overwise—
why destroy yourself?
¹⁷Do not be overwicked, and do not be a fool—
why die before your time?[c] ¹⁸It is good to grasp the one and not let go of the other.
The man who fears God[d] will avoid all extremes.[a] ¹⁹Wisdom[e] makes one wise man more powerful[f]
than ten rulers in a city.
²⁰There is not a righteous man[g] on
earth
who does what is right and never
sins.[h]
²¹Do not pay attention to every word or you[i] may hear your servant cursing you—

a18 Or will follow them both that many times you yourself have cursed others.

23All this I tested by wisdom and I
said,

"I am determined to be wise"[a]—
but this was beyond me.
24Whatever wisdom may be,
it is far off and most profound—who can discover it?[b] 25So I turned my mind to understand, to investigate and to search out wisdom and the scheme of things[c]
and to understand the stupidity of
wickedness
and the madness of folly.[d]

26I find more bitter than death the woman who is a snare,[e] whose heart is a trap
and whose hands are chains.
The man who pleases God will escape her,
but the sinner she will ensnare.[f]

27"Look," says the Teacher,[g][g] "this is what I have discovered:

"Adding one thing to another to discover the scheme of
things—
28 while I was still searching but not finding—
I found one ˌuprightˌ man among a thousand,
but not one ˌuprightˌ woman[h]
among them all.
29This only have I found:
God made mankind upright, but men have gone in search of many schemes."

8 Who is like the wise man?
Who knows the explanation of
things?
Wisdom brightens a man's face and changes its hard appearance.

Obey the King

2Obey the king's command, I say, because you took an oath before God.
3Do not be in a hurry to leave the king's presence.[i] Do not stand up for a bad cause, for he will do whatever he pleases. 4Since a king's word is supreme, who can say to him, "What are you doing?[j] "

5Whoever obeys his command will come to no harm,
and the wise heart will know the proper time and procedure.

6For there is a proper time and procedure for every matter,[k] though a man's misery weighs heavily upon him.
7Since no man knows the future,
who can tell him what is to come?
8No man has power over the wind to contain it[h];
so no one has power over the day of his death.
As no one is discharged in time of
war,
so wickedness will not release
those who practice it.

9All this I saw, as I applied my mind to everything done under the sun.
There is a time when a man lords it over others to his own[i] hurt. 10Then too, I saw the wicked buried[l]—those who used to come and go from the holy place and receive praise[j] in the city where they did this. This too is meaningless.
11When the sentence for a crime is not quickly carried out, the hearts of the people are filled with schemes to do wrong. 12Although a wicked man commits a hundred crimes and still lives a long time, I know that it will go better[m] with God-fearing men,[n] who are reverent before God.[o] 13Yet because the wicked do not fear God,[p] it will not go well with them, and their days[q] will not lengthen like a shadow.
14There is something else meaningless that occurs on earth: righteous men who get what the wicked deserve, and wicked men who get what the righteous deserve.[r] This too, I say, is meaningless.[s] 15So I commend the enjoyment of life[t], because nothing is better for a man under the sun than to eat and drink[u] and be glad.[v] Then joy will accompany him in his work all the days of the life God has given him under the sun.
16When I applied my mind to know wisdom[w] and to observe man's labor on earth[x]—his eyes not seeing sleep day or night— 17then I saw all that God has done.[y] No one can comprehend what goes on under the sun. Despite all his efforts to search it out, man cannot discover its meaning. Even if a wise man claims he knows, he cannot really comprehend it.[z]

A Common Destiny for All

9 So I reflected on all this and concluded that the righteous and the wise and what they do are in God's hands, but no man knows whether love or hate awaits him.[a] 2All share a common destiny—the righteous and the wicked, the good and the bad,[k] the clean and the unclean, those who offer sacrifices and those who do not.

As it is with the good man,
so with the sinner;
as it is with those who take oaths,
so with those who are afraid to take them.[b]

3This is the evil in everything that happens under the sun: The same destiny overtakes all.[c] The hearts of men, moreover, are full of evil and there is madness in their hearts while they live,[d] and afterward they join the dead.[e] 4Anyone who is among the living has hope[l]—even a live dog is better off than a dead lion!

5For the living know that they will
die,
but the dead know nothing;[f]
they have no further reward, and even the memory of them[g] is forgotten.[h] 6Their love, their hate and their jealousy have long since vanished;
never again will they have a part in anything that happens under the sun.[i]

7Go, eat your food with gladness, and drink your wine[j] with a joyful heart,[k] for it is now that God favors what you do. 8Always be clothed in white,[l] and always anoint your head with oil. 9Enjoy life with your wife,[m] whom you love, all the days of this meaningless life that God has given you under the sun—all your meaningless days. For this is your lot[n] in life and in your toilsome labor under the sun. 10Whatever[o] your hand finds to do, do it with all your might,[p] for in the grave,[m][q] where you are going, there is neither working nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom.[r]

11I have seen something else under
the sun:

The race is not to the swift or the battle to the strong,[s] nor does food come to the wise[t] or wealth to the brilliant or favor to the learned;
but time and chance[u] happen to them all.[v]

12Moreover, no man knows when his hour will come:

As fish are caught in a cruel net,
or birds are taken in a snare, so men are trapped by evil times[w] that fall unexpectedly upon them.[x]

Wisdom Better Than Folly

13I also saw under the sun this example of wisdom[y] that greatly impressed me: 14There was once a small city with only a few people in it. And a powerful king came against it, surrounded it and built huge siegeworks against it. 15Now there lived in that city a man poor but wise, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But nobody remembered that poor man.[z] 16So I said, "Wisdom is better than strength." But the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are no longer heeded.[a] 17The quiet words of the wise are more to be heeded

than the shouts of a ruler of fools.
18Wisdom[b] is better than weapons of
war,
but one sinner destroys much
good.

10 As dead flies give perfume a bad smell,
so a little folly[c] outweighs wisdom and honor.
2The heart of the wise inclines to the
right,
but the heart of the fool to the left.
3Even as he walks along the road,
the fool lacks sense
and shows everyone[d] how stupid
he is.
4If a ruler's anger rises against you, do not leave your post;[e] calmness can lay great errors to rest.[f]

5There is an evil I have seen under
the sun,
the sort of error that arises from a
ruler:
6Fools are put in many high positions,[g]
while the rich occupy the low ones.
7I have seen slaves on horseback, whoever breaks through a wall

may be bitten by a snake.[c] 9Whoever quarries stones may be whoever splits logs may be endangered by them.[d]

10If the ax is dull
and its edge unsharpened,
more strength is needed
but skill will bring success.

11If a snake bites before it is charmed, there is no profit for the charmer.[e]

12Words from a wise man's mouth are gracious,[f]
but a fool is consumed by his own lips.[g] 13At the beginning his words are folly;
at the end they are wicked madness—
14 and the fool multiplies words.[h]

No one knows what is coming—who can tell him what will happen after him?[i]

15A fool's work wearies him;
he does not know the way to town.

16Woe to you, O land whose king was a servant[a] [j]
and whose princes feast in the
morning.
17Blessed are you, O land whose king is of noble birth
and whose princes eat at a proper time—
for strength and not for drunkenness.[k]

18If a man is lazy, the rafters sag;
if his hands are idle, the house leaks.[l]

19A feast is made for laughter, and wine[m] makes life merry, but money is the answer for everything.

20Do not revile the king[n] even in your thoughts,
or curse the rich in your bedroom, because a bird of the air may carry your words,
and a bird on the wing may report
what you say.

Bread Upon the Waters

11 Cast[o] your bread upon the
waters,
for after many days you will find it again.[p] 2Give portions to seven, yes to eight, for you do not know what disaster may come upon the land.

3If clouds are full of water,
they pour rain upon the earth.
Whether a tree falls to the south or to the north,
in the place where it falls, there will it lie.
4Whoever watches the wind will not plant;
whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.

5As you do not know the path of the wind,[q]
or how the body is formed[b] in a mother's womb,[r]
so you cannot understand the work
of God,
the Maker of all things.

6Sow your seed in the morning, and at evening let not your hands be idle,[s]
for you do not know which will succeed,
whether this or that,
or whether both will do equally
well.

Remember Your Creator While Young

7Light is sweet,
and it pleases the eyes to see the sun.[t] 8However many years a man may
live,
let him enjoy them all.
But let him remember[u] the days of
darkness,
for they will be many.
Everything to come is meaningless.

9Be happy, young man, while you are young,
and let your heart give you joy in the days of your youth.
Follow the ways of your heart and whatever your eyes see, but know that for all these things
God will bring you to judgment.[v] 10So then, banish anxiety[w] from your heart
and cast off the troubles of your body,
for youth and vigor are meaningless.[x]

[a]16 Or king is a child [b]5 Or know how life (or the spirit) / enters the body being formed

12 Remember[a] your Creator in the days of your youth, before the days of trouble[b] come and the years approach when you
will say,
"I find no pleasure in them"— 2before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark,
and the clouds return after the rain; 3when the keepers of the house tremble,
and the strong men stoop,
when the grinders cease because they are few,
and those looking through the windows grow dim;
4when the doors to the street are closed
and the sound of grinding fades;
when men rise up at the sound of birds,
but all their songs grow faint;[c] 5when men are afraid of heights and of dangers in the streets;
when the almond tree blossoms and the grasshopper drags himself along
and desire no longer is stirred.
Then man goes to his eternal home[d]
and mourners[e] go about the streets.

6Remember him—before the silver cord is severed,
or the golden bowl is broken;
before the pitcher is shattered at the spring,
or the wheel broken at the well, 7and the dust returns[f] to the ground it came from,
and the spirit returns to God[g] who gave it.[h]

8"Meaningless! Meaningless!" says the Teacher.[p][i]
"Everything is meaningless![j] "

The Conclusion of the Matter

9Not only was the Teacher wise, but also he imparted knowledge to the people. He pondered and searched out and set in order many proverbs.[k] 10The Teacher[l] searched to find just the right words, and what he wrote was upright and true.[m] 11The words of the wise are like goads, their collected sayings like firmly embedded nails[n]—given by one Shepherd. 12Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to them.
Of making many books there is no end, and much study wearies the body.[o]

13Now all has been heard;
here is the conclusion of the
matter:
Fear God[p] and keep his commandments,[q]
for this is the whole ⌞duty⌟ of man.[r] 14For God will bring every deed into judgment,[s]
including every hidden thing,[t] whether it is good or evil.

for your love[b] is more delightful than wine.[c] [3]Pleasing is the fragrance of your perfumes;[d] your name[e] is like perfume poured out.
No wonder the maidens[f] love you!
[4]Take me away with you—let us hurry!
Let the king bring me into his chambers.[g]

Friends

We rejoice and delight[h] in you[b];
we will praise your love[i] more than wine.

Beloved

How right they are to adore you!

[5]Dark am I, yet lovely,[j] O daughters of Jerusalem,[k] dark like the tents of Kedar,[l]
like the tent curtains of Solomon.[c] [6]Do not stare at me because I am dark, because I am darkened by the sun.
My mother's sons were angry with me and made me take care of the vineyards;[m]
my own vineyard I have neglected.
[7]Tell me, you whom I love, where you graze your flock and where you rest your sheep[n] at midday.
Why should I be like a veiled[o] woman beside the flocks of your friends?

Friends

[8]If you do not know, most beautiful of women,[p]

and graze your young goats
by the tents of the shepherds.

Lover

[9]I liken you, my darling, to a mare harnessed to one of the chariots[q] of Pharaoh.
[10]Your cheeks[r] are beautiful with earrings, your neck with strings of jewels.[s] [11]We will make you earrings of gold, studded with silver.

Beloved

[12]While the king was at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.[t] [13]My lover is to me a sachet of myrrh[u] resting between my breasts.
[14]My lover[v] is to me a cluster of henna[w] blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.[x]

Lover

[15]How beautiful[y] you are, my darling!
Oh, how beautiful!
Your eyes are doves.[z]

Beloved

[16]How handsome you are, my lover![a] Oh, how charming!
And our bed is verdant.

4 How beautiful you are, my darling!
Oh, how beautiful!
Your eyes behind your veil are doves.
Your hair is like a flock of goats descending from Mount Gilead.
2 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep just shorn, coming up from the washing.
Each has its twin;
not one of them is alone.
3 Your lips are like a scarlet ribbon;
your mouth is lovely.
Your temples behind your veil
are like the halves of a pomegranate.
4 Your neck is like the tower of David,
built with elegance;
on it hang a thousand shields,
all of them shields of warriors.
5 Your two breasts are like two fawns, like twin fawns of a gazelle that browse among the lilies.
6 Until the day breaks
and the shadows flee,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh
and to the hill of incense.
7 All beautiful you are, my darling;
there is no flaw in you.

8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Descend from the crest of Amana, from the top of Senir, the summit of Hermon, from the lions' dens
and the mountain haunts of the leopards.
9 You have stolen my heart, my sister, my bride;
you have stolen my heart
with one glance of your eyes, with one jewel of your necklace.
10 How delightful is your love, my sister, my bride!
How much more pleasing is your love than wine,
and the fragrance of your perfume than any spice!
11 Your lips drop sweetness as the honeycomb, my bride;
milk and honey are under your tongue.
The fragrance of your garments is like that of Lebanon.
12 You are a garden locked up, my sister, my bride;
you are a spring enclosed, a sealed fountain.
13 Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with choice fruits,
with henna and nard, 14 nard and saffron,
calamus and cinnamon,
with every kind of incense tree,
with myrrh and aloes
and all the finest spices.
15 You are a garden fountain, a well of flowing water streaming down from Lebanon.

Blow on my garden,
that its fragrance may spread abroad.
Let my lover come into his garden and taste its choice fruits.

Lover

5 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride;
I have gathered my myrrh with my spice.
I have eaten my honeycomb and my honey;
I have drunk my wine and my milk.

Friends

Eat, O friends, and drink;
drink your fill, O lovers.

Beloved

2 I slept but my heart was awake.
Listen! My lover is knocking:
"Open to me, my sister, my darling,
my dove, my flawless one.
My head is drenched with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night." 3 I have taken off my robe—must I put it on again?

a10 Or its inlaid interior a gift of love / from ... b14 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain. c15 Or I am (spoken by the Beloved)

I have washed my feet—
must I soil them again?
[4]My lover thrust his hand through the latch-opening;
my heart began to pound for him.
[5]I arose to open for my lover, and my hands dripped with myrrh,[a]
my fingers with flowing myrrh,
on the handles of the lock.
[6]I opened for my lover,[b] but my lover had left; he was gone.[c]
My heart sank at his departure.[j]
I looked[d] for him but did not find
him.
I called him but he did not answer.
[7]The watchmen found me as they made their rounds in the city.[e]
They beat me, they bruised me;
they took away my cloak,
those watchmen of the walls!
[8]O daughters of Jerusalem, I charge
you[f]—
if you find my lover,[g]
what will you tell him?
Tell him I am faint with love.[h]

Friends

[9]How is your beloved better than others,
most beautiful of women?[i] How is your beloved better than
others,
that you charge us so?

Beloved

[10]My lover is radiant and ruddy, outstanding among ten thousand.[j] [11]His head is purest gold;
his hair is wavy
and black as a raven.
[12]His eyes are like doves[k]
by the water streams, washed in milk,[l]
mounted like jewels.
[13]His cheeks[m] are like beds of spice[n] yielding perfume.
His lips are like lilies[o]
dripping with myrrh.[p] [14]His arms are rods of gold set with chrysolite.
His body is like polished ivory decorated with sapphires.[k][q] [15]His legs are pillars of marble set on bases of pure gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon,[r] choice as its cedars.

Where has your lover[v] gone, most beautiful of women?[w]
Which way did your lover turn, that we may look for him with
you?

Beloved

[2]My lover has gone[x] down to his garden,[y]
to the beds of spices,[z]
to browse in the gardens and to gather lilies.
[3]I am my lover's and my lover is mine;[a]
he browses among the lilies.[b]

Lover

[4]You are beautiful, my darling, as Tirzah,[c]
lovely as Jerusalem,[d] majestic as troops with banners.[e] [5]Turn your eyes from me;
they overwhelm me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
descending from Gilead.[f] [6]Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
coming up from the washing.
Each has its twin,
not one of them is alone.[g] [7]Your temples behind your veil[h] are like the halves of a pomegranate.[i] [8]Sixty queens[j] there may be,
and eighty concubines,[k]
and virgins beyond number; [9]but my dove,[l] my perfect one,[m] is unique,
the only daughter of her mother,
the favorite of the one who bore her.[n]
The maidens saw her and called her blessed;
the queens and concubines praised
her.

fair as the moon, bright as the
sun,
majestic as the stars in procession?

Lover

11I went down to the grove of nut trees
to look at the new growth in the valley,
to see if the vines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.
12Before I realized it, my desire set me among the royal chariots of my people.

Friends

13Come back, come back,
O Shulammite;
come back, come back, that we may gaze on you!

Lover

Why would you gaze on the Shulammite
as on the dance of Mahanaim?

7 How beautiful your sandaled
feet,
O prince's daughter!
Your graceful legs are like jewels,
the work of a craftsman's hands.
2Your navel is a rounded goblet that never lacks blended wine.
Your waist is a mound of wheat encircled by lilies.
3Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.
4Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are the pools of Heshbon
by the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon
looking toward Damascus.
5Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel.
Your hair is like royal tapestry;
the king is held captive by its tresses.
6How beautiful you are and how pleasing,
O love, with your delights!
7Your stature is like that of the palm,
and your breasts like clusters of fruit.
8I said, "I will climb the palm tree;
I will take hold of its fruit."
May your breasts be like the clusters of the vine,
the fragrance of your breath like apples,
9 and your mouth like the best wine.

Beloved

May the wine go straight to my
lover,
flowing gently over lips and teeth.
10I belong to my lover,
and his desire is for me.
11Come, my lover, let us go to the countryside,
let us spend the night in the villages.
12Let us go early to the vineyards to see if the vines have budded, if their blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates are in bloom—
there I will give you my love.
13The mandrakes send out their fragrance,
and at our door is every delicacy,
both new and old,
that I have stored up for you, my
lover.

8 If only you were to me like a brother,
who was nursed at my mother's breasts!
Then, if I found you outside,
I would kiss you,
and no one would despise me.
2I would lead you
and bring you to my mother's
house—
she who has taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to
drink,
the nectar of my pomegranates.
3His left arm is under my head and his right arm embraces me.
4Daughters of Jerusalem, I charge
you:
Do not arouse or awaken love
until it so desires.

Friends

5Who is this coming up from the desert
leaning on her lover?

Beloved

Under the apple tree I roused you;
there your mother conceived
you,
there she who was in labor gave you birth.

like a seal on your arm;

If one were to give
all the wealth of his house for love, it[r] would be utterly scorned.[c]

Friends

8We have a young sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
What shall we do for our sister for the day she is spoken for?
9If she is a wall,
we will build towers of silver on her.
If she is a door,
we will enclose her with panels of cedar.

Beloved

10I am a wall,
and my breasts are like towers.
Thus I have become in his eyes like one bringing contentment.
11Solomon had a vineyard[d] in Baal Hamon;
he let out his vineyard to tenants.
Each was to bring for its fruit
a thousand shekels[s e] of silver.
12But my own vineyard[f] is mine to give;
the thousand shekels are for you, O Solomon, and two hundred[t] are for those who tend its fruit.

Lover

13You who dwell in the gardens with friends in attendance, let me hear your voice!

Beloved

14Come away, my lover,

1 The vision[a] concerning Judah and Jerusalem[b] that Isaiah son of Amoz saw[c] during the reigns of Uzziah,[d] Jotham,[e] Ahaz[f] and Hezekiah,[g] kings of Judah.

A Rebellious Nation

[2]Hear, O heavens! Listen, O earth![h]
For the LORD has spoken:[i]
"I reared children[j] and brought them up, but they have rebelled[k] against me.
[3]The ox knows[l] his master, the donkey his owner's manger,[m] but Israel does not know,[n] my people do not understand."[o]

[4]Ah, sinful nation,
a people loaded with guilt,[p] a brood of evildoers,[q]
children given to corruption![r]
They have forsaken[s] the LORD;
they have spurned the Holy One[t] of Israel and turned their backs[u] on him.

[5]Why should you be beaten[v] anymore?
Why do you persist[w] in rebellion?[x]
Your whole head is injured, your whole heart[y] afflicted.[z] [6]From the sole of your foot to the top of your head[a] there is no soundness[b]— only wounds and welts[c]
and open sores,
not cleansed or bandaged[d]
or soothed with oil.[e]

[7]Your country is desolate,[f] your cities burned with fire;[g] your fields are being stripped by foreigners[h] right before you,
laid waste as when overthrown by strangers.[i] [8]The Daughter of Zion[j] is left[k] like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut[l] in a field of melons,
like a city under siege.

[9]Unless the LORD Almighty had left us some survivors,[m]
we would have become like Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.[n]

[10]Hear the word of the LORD,[o] you rulers of Sodom;[p]
listen to the law[q] of our God, you people of Gomorrah![r] [11]"The multitude of your sacrifices—what are they to me?" says the LORD.
"I have more than enough of burnt offerings, of rams and the fat of fattened animals;[s] I have no pleasure[t]
in the blood of bulls[u] and lambs and goats.[v] [12]When you come to appear before me, who has asked this of you,[w]
this trampling of my courts?
[13]Stop bringing meaningless offerings![x]
Your incense[y] is detestable[z] to me.
New Moons,[a] Sabbaths and convocations[b]—
I cannot bear your evil assemblies.
[14]Your New Moon[c] festivals and your appointed feasts[d] my soul hates.[e]
They have become a burden to me;[f]
I am weary[g] of bearing them.
[15]When you spread out your hands[h] in prayer,
I will hide[i] my eyes from you;
even if you offer many prayers,
I will not listen.[j]

though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.[m] 19 If you are willing and obedient,[n] you will eat the best from the land;[o]

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.[r]

They do not defend the cause of the fatherless;
the widow's case does not come before them.[z] 24 Therefore the Lord, the LORD Almighty, the Mighty One[a] of Israel, declares:
"Ah, I will get relief from my foes

27 Zion will be redeemed with justice, her penitent[l] ones with righteousness.[m] 28 But rebels and sinners[n] will both be broken, and those who forsake[o] the LORD will perish.[p]

29 "You will be ashamed[q] because of the sacred oaks[r]

The Mountain of the LORD

2:1-4pp — Mic 4:1-3

2 This is what Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:[v]

2 In the last days[w]

the mountain[x] of the LORD's temple will be established as chief among the mountains;[y]
it will be raised[z] above the hills, and all nations will stream to it.[a]

3 Many peoples[b] will come and say,
"Come, let us go[c] up to the mountain[d] of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob.
He will teach us his ways,
so that we may walk in his paths."
The law[e] will go out from Zion, the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.[f] 4 He will judge[g] between the nations and will settle disputes[h] for many peoples.
They will beat their swords into plowshares

5 Come, O house of Jacob,[b] let us walk in the light[c] of the
LORD.

The Day of the LORD

6 You have abandoned[d] your people, the house of Jacob.[e]
They are full of superstitions from the East;
they practice divination[f] like the Philistines[g]
and clasp hands[h] with pagans.[i] 7 Their land is full of silver and gold;[j] there is no end to their treasures.[k]
Their land is full of horses;[l]
there is no end to their chariots.[m] 8 Their land is full of idols;[n] they bow down[o] to the work of their hands,[p]
to what their fingers[q] have made.
9 So man will be brought low[r] and mankind humbled[s]— do not forgive them.[b][t]

10 Go into the rocks, hide[u] in the ground
from dread of the LORD
and the splendor of his majesty![v] 11 The eyes of the arrogant[w] man will be humbled[x]
and the pride[y] of men brought low;[z]
the LORD alone will be exalted[a] in that day.[b]

12 The LORD Almighty has a day[c] in store
for all the proud[d] and lofty,[e] for all that is exalted[f]
(and they will be humbled),[g] 13 for all the cedars of Lebanon,[h] tall and lofty,[i]
and all the oaks of Bashan,[j] 14 for all the towering mountains and all the high hills,[k] 15 for every lofty tower[l] and every fortified wall,[m] 16 for every trading ship[c][n]
and every stately vessel.
17 The arrogance of man will be brought low[o]
and the pride of men humbled;[p]
the LORD alone will be exalted in that day,[q]
18 and the idols[r] will totally disappear.[s]

19 Men will flee to caves[t] in the rocks and to holes in the ground[u]
from dread[v] of the LORD and the splendor of his majesty,[w] when he rises to shake the earth.[x] 20 In that day[y] men will throw away to the rodents and bats[z] their idols of silver and idols of gold,[a]
which they made to worship.
21 They will flee to caverns in the rocks[b]
and to the overhanging crags
from dread of the LORD
and the splendor of his majesty,[c] when he rises[d] to shake the earth.[e] 22 Stop trusting in man,[f]
who has but a breath[g] in his nostrils.
Of what account is he?[h]

Judgment on Jerusalem and Judah

3 See now, the Lord,
the LORD Almighty,
is about to take from Jerusalem and Judah
both supply and support:[i]
all supplies of food[j] and all supplies of water,[k]
2 the hero and warrior,[l]
the judge and prophet,
the soothsayer[m] and elder,[n] 3 the captain of fifty[o] and man of rank,[p]
the counselor, skilled craftsman[q]
and clever enchanter.[r]

4 I will make boys their officials; mere children will govern them.[s] 5 People will oppress each other—man against man, neighbor against neighbor.[t]
The young will rise up against the old,
the base against the honorable.

6 A man will seize one of his brothers at his father's home, and say,
"You have a cloak, you be our leader;
take charge of this heap of ruins!"
7 But in that day[u] he will cry out,

14The LORD enters into judgment[u] against the elders and leaders of
his people:

the plunder[v] from the poor[w] is in your houses.
15What do you mean by crushing my people[x]
and grinding[y] the faces of the

declares the Lord,
the LORD Almighty.[a]

"The women of Zion[b] are haughty,
walking along with outstretched necks,[c]
flirting with their eyes, tripping along with mincing steps, with ornaments jingling on their ankles.
17Therefore the Lord will bring sores on the heads of the women of Zion;
the LORD will make their scalps
bald.[d]"

18In that day[e] the Lord will snatch away their finery: the bangles and headbands and crescent necklaces,[f]

mourn;[x]

The Branch of the LORD

2In that day[e] the Branch of the LORD[f] will be beautiful[g] and glorious, and the fruit[h] of the land will be the pride and glory[i] of the survivors[j] in Israel.

wash away the filth[o] of the women of Zion;[p] he will cleanse[q] the bloodstains[r] from Jerusalem by a spirit[d] of judgment[s] and a spirit[d] of fire.[t] 5Then the LORD will create[u] over all of Mount Zion[v] and over those who assemble there a cloud of smoke by day and a glow of flaming fire by night;[w] over all the glory[x] will be a canopy.[y] 6It will be

The Song of the Vineyard

5 I will sing for the one I love a song about his vineyard:[c]
My loved one had a vineyard on a fertile hillside.
2He dug it up and cleared it of stones and planted it with the choicest vines.[d]
He built a watchtower[e] in it and cut out a winepress[f] as well.
Then he looked for a crop of good grapes,
but it yielded only bad fruit.[g]

3"Now you dwellers in Jerusalem and men of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard.[h] 4What more could have been done for my vineyard
than I have done for it?[i] When I looked for good grapes, why did it yield only bad?[j] 5Now I will tell you what I am going to do to my
vineyard:
I will take away its hedge,
and it will be destroyed;[k]
I will break down its wall,[l] and it will be trampled.[m] 6I will make it a wasteland,[n] neither pruned nor cultivated, and briers and thorns[o] will grow
there.
I will command the clouds not to rain[p] on it."

7The vineyard[q] of the LORD Almighty is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah
are the garden of his delight.
And he looked for justice,[r] but saw bloodshed;
for righteousness,[s] but heard cries of distress.[t]

Woes and Judgments

8Woe[u] to you who add house to
house
and join field to field[v] till no space is left
and you live alone in the land.
9The LORD Almighty[w] has declared in my hearing:[x]

"Surely the great houses will become desolate,[y]
the fine mansions left without occupants.
10A ten-acre[e] vineyard will produce only a bath[f] of wine, a homer[g] of seed only an ephah[h]
of grain."[z]

11Woe[a] to those who rise early in the morning
to run after their drinks, who stay up late at night till they are inflamed with wine.[b] 12They have harps and lyres at their banquets,
tambourines[c] and flutes[d] and
wine,
but they have no regard[e] for the
deeds of the LORD,
no respect for the work of his hands.[f] 13Therefore my people will go into exile[g]
for lack of understanding;[h]
their men of rank[i] will die of hunger and their masses will be parched with thirst.[j] 14Therefore the grave[i][k] enlarges its appetite
and opens its mouth[l] without limit;
into it will descend their nobles and masses
with all their brawlers and revelers.[m] 15So man will be brought low[n]
and mankind humbled,[o]
the eyes of the arrogant[p] humbled.
16But the LORD Almighty will be exalted[q] by his justice,[r] and the holy God will show himself holy[s] by his
righteousness.
17Then sheep will graze as in their own pasture;[t]
lambs will feed[j] among the ruins of the rich.

18Woe[u] to those who draw sin along with cords[v] of deceit, and wickedness[w] as with cart ropes, 19to those who say, "Let God hurry, let him hasten[x] his work
so we may see it.
Let it approach,

20Woe[c] to those who call evil good[d]

Yet for all this, his anger is not his hand is still upraised.[z]

Isaiah's Commission

6 In the year that King Uzziah[t] died,[u] I saw the Lord[v] seated on a throne,[w] high and exalted,[x] and the train of his robe[y] filled the temple.
2Above him were seraphs,[z] each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet,[a] and with two they were flying. 3And they were calling to one another:

"Holy, holy[b], holy is the LORD Almighty;[c]
the whole earth[d] is full of his glory."[e]

4At the sound of their voices the door-posts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.[f] 5"Woe[g] to me!" I cried. "I am ruined![h] For I am a man of unclean lips,[i][j] and I live among a people of unclean lips,[k] and my eyes have seen[l]
the King,[m] the LORD Almighty."[n] 6Then one of the seraphs flew to me with a live coal[o] in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar.
7With it he touched my mouth and said, "See, this has touched your lips;[p] your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.[q]" 8Then I heard the voice[r] of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send?[s] And who will go for us?[t]"
And I said, "Here am I.[u] Send me!" 9He said, "Go[v] and tell this people:

" 'Be ever hearing, but never
understanding;
be ever seeing, but never perceiving.'[w] 10Make the heart of this people calloused;[x]
make their ears dull

11Then I said, "For how long, O Lord?"[d]
And he answered:
"Until the cities lie ruined[e]
and without inhabitant, until the houses are left deserted[f]
and the fields ruined and ravaged,[g] 12until the LORD has sent everyone far away[h] and the land is utterly forsaken.[i] 13And though a tenth remains[j] in the land, it will again be laid waste.[k]
But as the terebinth and oak leave stumps[l] when they are cut down, so the holy[m] seed will be the stump in the land."[n]

The Sign of Immanuel

7 When Ahaz[o] son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin[p] of Aram[q] and Pekah[r] son of Remaliah[s] king of Israel marched up to fight against Jerusalem, but they could not overpower it.
2Now the house of David[t] was told,
"Aram has allied itself with[l] Ephraim[u]"; so the hearts of Ahaz and his people were shaken,[v] as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind.
3Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out, you and your son Shear-Jashub,[m][w] to meet Ahaz at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman's Field.[x] 4Say to him,
'Be careful, keep calm[y] and don't be afraid.[z] Do not lose heart[a] because of these two smoldering stubs[b] of firewood—because of the fierce anger[c] of Rezin and Aram and of the son of Remaliah.[d] 5Aram, Ephraim and Remaliah's[e] son have plotted[f] your ruin, saying, 6"Let us invade Judah; let us tear it apart and divide it among ourselves, and make the son of Tabeel king over it." 7Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says:[g]

"'It will not take place,
it will not happen,[h] 8for the head of Aram is Damascus,[i] and the head of Damascus is only Rezin.[j] Within sixty-five years
Ephraim will be too shattered[k] to be a people.
9The head of Ephraim is Samaria,[l] and the head of Samaria is only Remaliah's son.
If you do not stand[m] firm in your faith,[n]
you will not stand at all.'"[o]

10Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, 11"Ask the LORD your God for a sign,[p] whether in the deepest depths or in the highest heights.[q]" 12But Ahaz said, "I will not ask; I will not put the LORD to the test.[r]" 13Then Isaiah said, "Hear now, you house of David![s] Is it not enough[t] to try the patience of men? Will you try the patience[u] of my God[v] also?
14Therefore the Lord himself will give you[n] a sign:[w] The virgin[x] will be with child and will give birth to a son,[y] and[o] will call him Immanuel.[p][z] 15He will eat curds[a] and honey[b] when he knows enough to reject the wrong and choose the right. 16But before the boy knows[c] enough to reject the wrong and choose the right,[d] the land of the two kings you dread will be laid waste.[e] 17The LORD will bring on you and on your people and on the house of your father a time unlike any since Ephraim broke away[f] from Judah—he will bring the king of Assyria.[g]" 18In that day[h] the LORD will whistle[i] for flies from the distant streams of Egypt and for bees from the land of Assyria.[j] 19They will all come and settle in the steep ravines and in the crevices[k] in the rocks, on all the thorn-bushes[l] and at all the water holes. 20In that day[m] the Lord will use[n] a razor hired from beyond the River[q][o]—the king of Assyria[p]—to shave your head and the hair of your legs, and to take off your beards[q] also.[r] 21In that day,[s] a man will keep alive a young cow and two goats.[t] 22And because of the abundance of the milk they give, he will

Assyria, the Lord's Instrument

8 The LORD said to me, "Take a large scroll[j] and write on it with an ordinary pen: Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.[s k] 2 And I will call in Uriah[l] the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah as reliable witnesses[m] for me."

3 Then I went to the prophetess,[n] and she conceived and gave birth to a son.[o]
And the LORD said to me, "Name him Maher-Shalal-Hash-Baz.[p] 4 Before the boy knows[q] how to say 'My father' or
'My mother,' the wealth of Damascus[r] and the plunder of Samaria will be carried off by the king of Assyria.[s]"

5 The LORD spoke to me again:

6 "Because this people has rejected[t]
the gently flowing waters of Shiloah[u]
and rejoices over Rezin
and the son of Remaliah,[v] 7 therefore the Lord is about to bring against them
the mighty floodwaters[w] of the River[t] —
the king of Assyria[x] with all his pomp.[y]
It will overflow all its channels, run over all its banks[z] 8 and sweep on into Judah, swirling over it,[a]
passing through it and reaching up to the neck.
Its outspread wings[b] will cover the breadth of your land,
O Immanuel[u]!"[c]

9 Raise the war cry,[v d] you nations, and be shattered![e]
Listen, all you distant lands.
Prepare[f] for battle, and be shattered!
Prepare for battle, and be shattered!
10 Devise your strategy, but it will be thwarted;[g]
propose your plan, but it will not stand,[h]
for God is with us.[w i]

Fear God

11 The LORD spoke to me with his strong hand upon me,[j] warning me not to follow[k] the way of this people.
He said:

12 "Do not call conspiracy[l] everything that these people call conspiracy[x];
do not fear what they fear,[m]
and do not dread it.[n] 13 The LORD Almighty is the one you are to regard as holy,[o]
he is the one you are to fear,[p] he is the one you are to dread,[q] 14 and he will be a sanctuary;[r] but for both houses of Israel he will be
a stone[s] that causes men to stumble[t]
and a rock that makes them fall.[u]
And for the people of Jerusalem he
will be
a trap and a snare.[v] 15 Many of them will stumble;[w]
they will fall and be broken, they will be snared and captured."

16 Bind up the testimony[x] and seal[y] up the law among my disciples.
17 I will wait[z] for the LORD, who is hiding[a] his face from the house of Jacob.
I will put my trust in him.[b]

18 Here am I, and the children the LORD has given me.[c] We are signs[d] and symbols[e] in Israel from the LORD Almighty, who dwells on Mount Zion.[f]

19 When men tell you to consult[g] mediums and spiritists,[h] who whisper and mutter,[i] should not a people inquire[j] of their God? Why consult the dead on behalf of the living? 20 To the law[k] and to the testimony![l] If they do not speak according to this word, they have no light[m] of dawn. 21 Distressed and hungry,[n] they will roam through the land;[o] when they are famished, they will become enraged and, looking upward, will curse[p] their king and their God. 22 Then they will look toward the earth and see only distress and darkness and fearful gloom,[a] and they will be thrust into utter darkness.[b]

To Us a Child Is Born

9 Nevertheless, there will be no more gloom[c] for those who were in distress. In the past he humbled the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali,[d] but in the future he will honor Galilee of the Gentiles, by the way of the sea, along the Jordan—

2The people walking in darkness[e] have seen a great light;[f] on those living in the land of the shadow of death[y][g] a light has dawned.[h] 3You have enlarged the nation[i] and increased their joy;[j] they rejoice before you
as people rejoice at the harvest, as men rejoice
when dividing the plunder.[k] 4For as in the day of Midian's defeat,[l] you have shattered[m]
the yoke[n] that burdens them,
the bar across their shoulders,[o]
the rod of their oppressor.[p] 5Every warrior's boot used in battle and every garment rolled in blood will be destined for burning,[q] will be fuel for the fire.
6For to us a child is born,[r]
to us a son is given,[s] and the government[t] will be on his shoulders.[u]
And he will be called Wonderful Counselor,[z][v] Mighty God,[w]
Everlasting[x] Father,[y] Prince of Peace.[z] 7Of the increase of his government[a] and peace[b]
there will be no end.[c]
He will reign[d] on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice[e] and righteousness[f] from that time on and forever.[g]
The zeal[h] of the LORD Almighty will accomplish this.

The LORD's Anger Against Israel

8The Lord has sent a message[i] against Jacob;
it will fall on Israel.
9All the people will know it—Ephraim[j] and the inhabitants of Samaria[k]— who say with pride
and arrogance[l] of heart, 10"The bricks have fallen down, but we will rebuild with dressed stone;[m]
the fig[n] trees have been felled, but we will replace them with cedars."[o] 11But the LORD has strengthened Rezin's[p] foes against them and has spurred their enemies on.
12Arameans[q] from the east and Philistines[r] from the west have devoured[s] Israel with open mouth.

Yet for all this, his anger[t] is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.[u]

13But the people have not returned[v] to him who struck[w] them, nor have they sought[x] the LORD Almighty.
14So the LORD will cut off from Israel both head and tail,
both palm branch and reed[y] in a single day;[z] 15the elders[a] and prominent men[b] are the head, the prophets[c] who teach lies[d] are the tail.
16Those who guide[e] this people mislead them,
and those who are guided are led astray.[f] 17Therefore the Lord will take no pleasure in the young men,[g] nor will he pity[h] the fatherless and widows, for everyone is ungodly[i] and wicked,[j] every mouth speaks vileness.[k]
Yet for all this, his anger is not turned away, his hand is still upraised.[l]

18Surely wickedness burns like a fire;[m] it consumes briers and thorns,[n] it sets the forest thickets ablaze,[o]
so that it rolls upward in a column of smoke.
19By the wrath[p] of the LORD Almighty the land will be scorched[q]
and the people will be fuel for the fire;[r]

God's Judgment on Assyria

5"Woe[r] to the Assyrian,[s] the rod[t] of my anger,
in whose hand is the club[u] of my wrath![v] 6I send him against a godless[w]
nation,
I dispatch[x] him against a people who anger me,[y]
to seize loot and snatch plunder,[z] and to trample[a] them down like mud in the streets.
7But this is not what he intends,[b]
this is not what he has in mind;
his purpose is to destroy,
to put an end to many nations.
8'Are not my commanders[c] all kings?' he says.
9 'Has not Calno[d] fared like Carchemish?[e]
Is not Hamath[f] like Arpad,[g]
and Samaria[h] like Damascus?[i] 10As my hand seized the kingdoms of the idols,[j]
kingdoms whose images excelled those of Jerusalem and Samaria—11shall I not deal with Jerusalem and her images
as I dealt with Samaria and her idols?[k]' "

12When the Lord has finished all his work[l] against Mount Zion[m] and Jerusalem, he will say, "I will punish the king of Assyria[n] for the willful pride[o] of his heart and the haughty look[p] in his eyes. 13For he says:

" 'By the strength of my hand[q] I have done this,[r]
and by my wisdom, because I have understanding.
I removed the boundaries of nations,
I plundered their treasures;[s] like a mighty one I subdued[b] their kings.[t] 14As one reaches into a nest,[u] so my hand reached for the wealth[v] of the nations;
as men gather abandoned eggs,
so I gathered all the countries;[w]
not one flapped a wing, or opened its mouth to chirp.[x]' "

or the saw boast against him who uses it?[y]

lifts it up,
or a club[z] brandish him who is not wood!
16Therefore, the Lord, the LORD
Almighty,
will send a wasting disease[a] upon his sturdy warriors;[b] under his pomp[c] a fire[d] will be kindled
like a blazing flame.
17The Light of Israel will become a fire,[e]
their Holy One[f] a flame;
in a single day it will burn and consume
his thorns[g] and his briers.[h]

The Remnant of Israel

20In that day[c] the remnant of Israel, the survivors[d] of the house of Jacob,
will no longer rely[e] on him
who struck them down[f]
but will truly rely[g] on the LORD, will return to the Mighty God.[k]

like the sand[l] by the sea, only a remnant will return.[m] Destruction has been decreed,[n] overwhelming and righteous.
23The Lord, the LORD Almighty, will carry out
the destruction decreed[o] upon the whole land.[p]

24Therefore, this is what the Lord,
the LORD Almighty, says:

"O my people who live in Zion,[q]
do not be afraid[r] of the Assyrians, who beat[s] you with a rod[t]
and lift up a club against you, as Egypt did.
25Very soon[u] my anger against you will end
and my wrath[v] will be directed to their destruction.[w]" 26The LORD Almighty will lash[x] them and he will raise his staff[z] over the waters,[a]

as he did in Egypt.

33See, the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will lop off[s] the boughs with great the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD—3and he will delight in the fear[h] of

the LORD.

He will not judge by what he sees

4but with righteousness[k] he will judge the needy,[l]
with justice[m] he will give decisions

the calf and the lion and the yearling[e] together;
and a little child will lead them.
7The cow will feed with the bear, their young will lie down together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox.[a] 8The infant[b] will play near the hole of the cobra,
and the young child put his hand
into the viper's[c] nest.
9They will neither harm nor destroy[d] on all my holy mountain,[e] for the earth[f] will be full of the knowledge[g] of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

10In that day[h] the Root of Jesse[i] will stand as a banner[j] for the peoples; the nations[k] will rally to him,[l] and his place of rest[m] will be glorious.[n] 11In that day[o] the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to reclaim the remnant[p] that is left of his people from Assyria,[q] from Lower Egypt, from Upper Egypt,[f][r] from Cush,[g][s] from Elam,[t] from Babylonia,[h] from Hamath[u] and from the islands[v] of the sea.[w]

12He will raise a banner[x] for the
nations
and gather[y] the exiles of Israel;[z]
he will assemble the scattered people[a] of Judah
from the four quarters of the earth.[b] 13Ephraim's jealousy will vanish, and Judah's enemies[i] will be cut off;
Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, nor Judah hostile toward Ephraim.[c]
14They will swoop down on the slopes of Philistia[d] to the west;
together they will plunder the people to the east.[e]
They will lay hands on Edom[f] and Moab,[g]
and the Ammonites[h] will be subject to them.[i] 15The LORD will dry up[j]
the gulf of the Egyptian sea;

Songs of Praise

12 In that day[s] you will say:
"I will praise[t] you, O LORD.
Although you were angry with
me,
your anger has turned away[u]
and you have comforted[v] me.
2Surely God is my salvation;[w]
I will trust[x] and not be afraid.
The LORD, the LORD,[y] is my strength[z] and my song;
he has become my salvation."[a] 3With joy you will draw water[b] from the wells[c] of salvation.

4In that day[d] you will say:

"Give thanks to the LORD, call on his
name;[e]
make known among the nations[f]
what he has done,
and proclaim that his name is exalted.[g]
5Sing[h] to the LORD, for he has done glorious things;[i]
let this be known to all the world.
6Shout aloud and sing for joy,[j] people of Zion,
for great[k] is the Holy One of Israel[l] among you."[m]

A Prophecy Against Babylon

13 An oracle[n] concerning Babylon[o] that Isaiah son of Amoz[p] saw:[q]

2Raise a banner[r] on a bare hilltop, shout to them;
beckon to them
to enter the gates[s] of the nobles.
3I have commanded my holy ones;
I have summoned my warriors[t] to carry out my wrath[u]—
those who rejoice[v] in my triumph.

4Listen, a noise on the mountains,

like that of a great multitude![a] Listen, an uproar[b] among the kingdoms, like nations massing together!
The LORD Almighty[c] is mustering[d] an army for war.
5They come from faraway lands, from the ends of the heavens[e] —
the LORD and the weapons[f] of his wrath[g] — to destroy[h] the whole country.

6Wail,[i] for the day[j] of the LORD is near;
it will come like destruction[k] from the Almighty.[k][l] 7Because of this, all hands will go limp,[m] every man's heart will melt.[n] 8Terror[o] will seize them, pain and anguish will grip[p] them;
they will writhe like a woman in labor.[q]
They will look aghast at each other,
their faces aflame.[r]

9See, the day[s] of the LORD is coming —a cruel[t] day, with wrath[u] and fierce anger[v] — to make the land desolate and destroy the sinners within it.
10The stars of heaven and their constellations will not show their light.[w]
The rising sun[x] will be darkened[y]
and the moon will not give its light.[z] 11I will punish[a] the world for its evil, the wicked[b] for their sins.
I will put an end to the arrogance of the haughty[c]
and will humble[d] the pride of the ruthless.[e] 12I will make man[f] scarcer than pure gold, more rare than the gold of Ophir.[g] 13Therefore I will make the heavens tremble;[h] and the earth will shake[i] from its place at the wrath[j] of the LORD Almighty, in the day of his burning anger.[k]

14Like a hunted[l] gazelle, like sheep without a shepherd,[m]
each will return to his own people, each will flee[n] to his native land.[o] 15Whoever is captured will be thrust through;
all who are caught will fall[p] by the sword.[q] 16Their infants[r] will be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses will be looted and their wives ravished.[s]

17See, I will stir up[t] against them the Medes,[u] who do not care for silver and have no delight in gold.[v] 18Their bows[w] will strike down the young men;[x] they will have no mercy[y] on infants nor will they look with compassion on children.[z] 19Babylon,[a] the jewel of kingdoms,[b] the glory[c] of the Babylonians'[l]
pride,
will be overthrown[d] by God
like Sodom and Gomorrah.[e] 20She will never be inhabited[f] or lived in through all generations;
no Arab[g] will pitch his tent there,
no shepherd will rest his flocks there.
21But desert creatures[h] will lie there, jackals[i] will fill her houses;
there the owls[j] will dwell,
and there the wild goats[k] will leap about.
22Hyenas[l] will howl in her strongholds,[m] jackals[n] in her luxurious palaces.
Her time is at hand,[o]
and her days will not be prolonged.[p]

14 The LORD will have compassion[q] on Jacob; once again he will choose[r] Israel and will settle them in their own land.[s] Aliens[t] will join them and unite with the house of Jacob.
2Nations will take them and bring[u] them to their own place.
And the house of Israel will possess the nations[v] as menservants and maidservants in the LORD's land.
They will make captives[w] of their captors and rule over their oppressors.[a]

3 On the day the LORD gives you relief[b] from suffering and turmoil[c] and cruel bondage,[d] 4 you will take up this taunt[e] against the king of Babylon:[f]

How the oppressor[g] has come to an end!
How his fury[m] has ended!
5 The LORD has broken the rod[h] of the wicked,[i]
the scepter[j] of the rulers, 6 which in anger struck down peoples[k]
with unceasing blows,
and in fury subdued[l] nations with relentless aggression.[m] 7 All the lands are at rest and at peace;[n]
they break into singing.[o] 8 Even the pine trees[p] and the cedars of Lebanon
exult over you and say,
"Now that you have been laid low,
no woodsman comes to cut us down."[q]
9 The grave[r][n] below is all astir to meet you at your coming;
it rouses the spirits of the departed[s]
to greet you—
all those who were leaders[t] in the world;
it makes them rise from their thrones—
all those who were kings over the nations.[u]
10 They will all respond,
they will say to you,
"You also have become weak, as we are;
you have become like us."[v] 11 All your pomp has been brought down to the grave,[w]
along with the noise of your harps;[x]
maggots are spread out beneath you and worms[y] cover you.[z] 12 How you have fallen[a] from heaven,
O morning star,[b] son of the dawn!
You have been cast down to the
earth,
you who once laid low the
nations![c]
13 You said in your heart,
"I will ascend[d] to heaven;
I will raise my throne[e]
above the stars of God;
I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly,[f]
on the utmost heights[g] of the sacred mountain.[o] 14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds;[h]
I will make myself like the Most High."[i] 15 But you are brought down[j] to the grave,[k]
to the depths[l] of the pit.[m] 16 Those who see you stare at you, they ponder your fate:[n]
"Is this the man who shook[o] the
earth
and made kingdoms tremble, 17 the man who made the world a desert,[p]
who overthrew[q] its cities and would not let his captives go home?"[r] 18 All the kings of the nations lie in state,
each in his own tomb.[s] 19 But you are cast out[t] of your tomb like a rejected branch;
you are covered with the slain,[u] with those pierced by the sword,[v] those who descend to the stones of the pit.[w]
Like a corpse trampled underfoot, 20 you will not join them in burial,[x] for you have destroyed your land and killed your people.

The offspring[y] of the wicked[z]
will never be mentioned[a] again.
21 Prepare a place to slaughter his sons[b]
for the sins of their forefathers;[c] they are not to rise to inherit the
land
and cover the earth with their cities.
22 "I will rise up[d] against them," declares the LORD Almighty.
"I will cut off from Babylon her name[e] and survivors,
her offspring and descendants,[f]"
declares the LORD.
23 "I will turn her into a place for owls[g]
and into swampland;
I will sweep her with the broom of destruction,[h]"
declares the LORD Almighty.[i]

A Prophecy Against Assyria

24The LORD Almighty has sworn,[x]
"Surely, as I have planned,[y] so it will be,
and as I have purposed, so it will stand.[z] 25I will crush the Assyrian[a] in my land;
on my mountains I will trample him down.
His yoke[b] will be taken from my people,
and his burden removed from their shoulders."[c] 26This is the plan[d] determined for the whole world;
this is the hand[e] stretched out over all nations.
27For the LORD Almighty has purposed,[f] and who can thwart him?
His hand[g] is stretched out, and who can turn it back?[h]

A Prophecy Against the Philistines

28This oracle[i] came in the year[j] King Ahaz[k] died:

29Do not rejoice, all you Philistines,[l]
that the rod that struck you is broken;
from the root of that snake will spring up a viper,[m] its fruit will be a darting, venomous serpent.[n] 30The poorest of the poor will find pasture, and the needy[o] will lie down in safety.[p]
But your root I will destroy by famine;[q]
it will slay[r] your survivors.[s] 31Wail,[t] O gate![u] Howl, O city!
Melt away, all you Philistines![v]
A cloud of smoke comes from the north,[w]
and there is not a straggler in its ranks.[x] 32What answer shall be given to the envoys[y] of that nation?
"The LORD has established Zion,[z] and in her his afflicted people will find refuge."[a]

A Prophecy Against Moab

15:1-16:12pp — Jer 48:29-36

15 An oracle[b] concerning Moab:[c]

Ar[d] in Moab is ruined,[e] destroyed in a night!
Kir[f] in Moab is ruined,
destroyed in a night!
2Dibon goes up to its temple,
to its high places to weep;
Moab wails over Nebo and Medeba.
Every head is shaved
and every beard cut off.
3In the streets they wear sackcloth;
on the roofs and in the public squares they all wail,
prostrate with weeping.
4Heshbon and Elealeh cry out, their voices are heard all the way to Jahaz.
Therefore the armed men of Moab cry out,
and their hearts are faint.

5My heart cries out over Moab;
her fugitives flee as far as Zoar,
as far as Eglath Shelishiyah.
They go up the way to Luhith, weeping as they go;
on the road to Horonaim
they lament their destruction.
6The waters of Nimrim are dried up and the grass is withered;
the vegetation is gone
and nothing green is left.
7So the wealth they have acquired and stored up they carry away over the Ravine of the Poplars.
8Their outcry echoes along the border of Moab;
their wailing reaches as far as Eglaim, their lamentation as far as Beer Elim.
9Dimon's[a] waters are full of blood, but I will bring still more upon Dimon—a lion upon the fugitives of Moab and upon those who remain in the land.

16 Send lambs as tribute to the ruler of the land,
from Sela, across the desert,
to the mount of the Daughter of Zion.
2Like fluttering birds pushed from the nest,
so are the women of Moab
at the fords of the Arnon.

a9 Masoretic Text, Dead Sea Scrolls, some Septuagint manuscripts and Vulgate Dibon 3"Give us counsel,

render a decision.
Make your shadow like night—
at high noon.
Hide the fugitives,[a]
do not betray the refugees.
4Let the Moabite fugitives stay with
you;
be their shelter[b] from the destroyer."

The oppressor[c] will come to an
end,
and destruction will cease;[d]
the aggressor will vanish from the
land.
5In love a throne[e] will be established;[f]
in faithfulness a man will sit
on it—
one from the house[q] of David[g]— one who in judging seeks justice[h] and speeds the cause of
righteousness.

6We have heard of Moab's[i] pride[j]—
her overweening pride and
conceit,
her pride and her insolence—
but her boasts are empty.
7Therefore the Moabites wail,[k]
they wail together for Moab.
Lament and grieve
for the men[r][l] of Kir Hareseth.[m] 8The fields of Heshbon[n] wither,[o]
the vines of Sibmah[p] also.
The rulers of the nations have trampled down the choicest vines,[q]
which once reached Jazer[r] and spread toward the desert.
Their shoots spread out[s] and went as far as the sea.[t] 9So I weep,[u] as Jazer weeps, for the vines of Sibmah.
O Heshbon, O Elealeh,[v]
I drench you with tears![w]
The shouts of joy[x] over your ripened fruit
and over your harvests[y] have been stilled.
10Joy and gladness are taken away from the orchards;[z]
no one sings or shouts[a] in the vineyards;
no one treads[b] out wine at the presses,[c]
for I have put an end to the shouting.
11My heart laments for Moab[d] like a harp,[e]
my inmost being[f] for Kir Hareseth.

ready spoken concerning Moab. 14But now the LORD says: "Within three tract[k] would count them,[l] Moab's splendor and all her many people will

An Oracle Against Damascus

17 An oracle[o] concerning Damascus:[p]

"See, Damascus will no longer be a city
but will become a heap of ruins.[q] 2The cities of Aroer[r] will be deserted and left to flocks,[s] which will lie down,[t]
with no one to make them afraid.[u] 3The fortified[v] city will disappear from Ephraim,
and royal power from Damascus;
the remnant of Aram will be like the glory[w] of the Israelites,"[x]
declares the LORD Almighty.

4"In that day[y] the glory[z] of Jacob will fade;
the fat of his body will waste[a]
away.
5It will be as when a reaper gathers the standing grain
and harvests[b] the grain with his arm—
as when a man gleans heads of grain[c]
in the Valley of Rephaim.[d] 6Yet some gleanings will remain,[e] as when an olive tree is beaten,[f] leaving two or three olives on the topmost branches,
four or five on the fruitful boughs,"
declares the LORD,
the God of Israel.

7In that day[g] men will look[h] to their Maker[i]
and turn their eyes to the Holy
One[j] of Israel.
8They will not look to the altars,[k]
the work of their hands,[l]

[i]S Ps 95:6 [j]S Isa 12:6 17:8 [k]S Lev 26:30 [l]S 2Ch 32:19; Isa 2:18,20; 30:22; 46:6; Rev 9:20

[q]5 Hebrew tent [r]7 Or "raisin cakes," a wordplay and they will have no regard for the Asherah poles[a]

and the incense altars their fingers have made.

9 In that day their strong cities, which they left because of the Israelites, will be like places abandoned to thickets and undergrowth. And all will be desolation.

10 You have forgotten God your Savior;
you have not remembered the Rock, your fortress.
Therefore, though you set out the finest plants
and plant imported vines, 11 though on the day you set them out,
you make them grow,
and on the morning when you plant them, you bring them to bud,
yet the harvest will be as
nothing
in the day of disease and incurable pain.

12 Oh, the raging of many nations—they rage like the raging sea!
Oh, the uproar of the peoples—they roar like the roaring of great waters!
13 Although the peoples roar like the roar of surging waters, when he rebukes them they flee far away,
driven before the wind like chaff on
the hills,
like tumbleweed before a gale.
14 In the evening, sudden terror!
Before the morning, they are
gone!
This is the portion of those who loot
us,
the lot of those who plunder us.

A Prophecy Against Cush

18 Woe to the land of whirring wings[b]
along the rivers of Cush,[c] 2 which sends envoys by sea in papyrus boats over the water.

Go, swift messengers,
to a people tall and
smooth-skinned,
to a people feared far and wide,
an aggressive nation of strange
speech,
whose land is divided by rivers.

3 All you people of the world,
you who live on the earth,
when a banner is raised on the
mountains,
you will see it,
and when a trumpet sounds,
you will hear it.
4 This is what the LORD says to me:
"I will remain quiet and will look on from my dwelling place, like shimmering heat in the sunshine,
like a cloud of dew in the heat of
harvest."
5 For, before the harvest, when the blossom is gone
and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
he will cut off the shoots with pruning knives,
and cut down and take away the spreading branches.
6 They will all be left to the mountain birds of prey
and to the wild animals;
the birds will feed on them all summer,
the wild animals all winter.

7 At that time gifts will be brought to
the LORD Almighty

from a people tall and
smooth-skinned,
from a people feared far and
wide,
an aggressive nation of strange
speech,
whose land is divided by rivers—

the gifts will be brought to Mount Zion, the place of the Name of the LORD
Almighty.

A Prophecy About Egypt

19 An oracle concerning Egypt:
See, the LORD rides on a swift cloud
and is coming to Egypt.
The idols of Egypt tremble before
him,
and the hearts of the Egyptians melt within them.

declares the Lord, the LORD
Almighty.

5 The waters of the river will dry up, and the riverbed will be parched and dry.
6 The canals will stink;
the streams of Egypt will dwindle and dry up.
The reeds and rushes will wither, 7 also the plants along the Nile,
at the mouth of the river.
Every sown field along the Nile will become parched, will blow away and be no more.
8 The fishermen will groan and lament,
all who cast hooks into the Nile;
those who throw nets on the water will pine away.
9 Those who work with combed flax will despair,
the weavers of fine linen will lose
hope.
10 The workers in cloth will be dejected,
and all the wage earners will be sick at heart.

11 The officials of Zoan are nothing but fools;
the wise counselors of Pharaoh give senseless advice.
How can you say to Pharaoh,
"I am one of the wise men,
a disciple of the ancient kings"?

12 Where are your wise men now?
Let them show you and make known
what the LORD Almighty
has planned against Egypt.
13 The officials of Zoan have become fools,
the leaders of Memphis are deceived;
the cornerstones of her peoples
have led Egypt astray.
14 The LORD has poured into them
a spirit of dizziness;
they make Egypt stagger in all that
she does,
as a drunkard staggers around in his vomit.
15 There is nothing Egypt can do—head or tail, palm branch or reed.

16 In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will shudder with fear at the uplifted hand that the LORD Almighty raises against them.
17 And the land of Judah will bring terror to the Egyptians; everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be terrified, because of what the LORD Almighty is planning against them.
18 In that day five cities in Egypt will speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD Almighty. One of them will be called the City of Destruction.
19 In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the heart of Egypt, and a monument to the LORD at its border.
20 It will be a sign and witness to the LORD Almighty in the land of Egypt.
When they cry out to the LORD because of their oppressors, he will send them a savior and defender, and he will rescue them. 21 So the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and in that day they will acknowledge the LORD. They will worship with sacrifices and grain offerings; they will make vows to the LORD and keep them. 22 The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague; he will strike them and heal them. They will turn to the LORD, and he will respond to their pleas and heal them.
23 In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will go to Egypt and the Egyptians to Assyria. The Egyptians and Assyrians will worship together. 24 In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing on the earth. 25 The LORD Almighty will bless them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria my handiwork, and Israel my inheritance."

A Prophecy Against Egypt and Cush

20 In the year that the supreme commander, sent by Sargon king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and attacked and captured it— 2 at that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of

[a]13 Hebrew Noph [b]18 Most manuscripts of the Masoretic Text; some manuscripts of the Masoretic Text, Dead Sea Scrolls and Vulgate City of the Sun (that is, Heliopolis)

Amoz. He said to him, "Take off the sackcloth from your body and the sandals from your feet." And he did so, going around stripped and barefoot.
3Then the LORD said, "Just as my servant Isaiah has gone stripped and barefoot for three years, as a sign and portent against Egypt and Cush,[a] 4so the king of Assyria will lead away stripped and barefoot the Egyptian captives and Cushite exiles, young and old, with buttocks bared—to Egypt's shame. 5Those who trusted in Cush and boasted in Egypt will be afraid and put to shame. 6In that day the people who live on this coast will say, 'See what has happened to those we relied on,

A Prophecy Against Babylon

21 An oracle concerning the Desert by the Sea:

Like whirlwinds sweeping through the southland,
an invader comes from the desert,
from a land of terror.

2A dire vision has been shown to
me:
The traitor betrays, the looter takes loot.
Elam, attack! Media, lay siege!
I will bring to an end all the groaning she caused.

3At this my body is racked with pain,
pangs seize me, like those of a woman in labor;
I am staggered by what I hear,
I am bewildered by what I see.
4My heart falters,
fear makes me tremble;
the twilight I longed for
has become a horror to me.

5They set the tables,
they spread the rugs,
they eat, they drink!
Get up, you officers,
oil the shields!

6This is what the Lord says to me:

"Go, post a lookout
and have him report what he sees.
7When he sees chariots
with teams of horses,
riders on donkeys
or riders on camels,
let him be alert,
fully alert."

8And the lookout[b] shouted,

"Day after day, my lord, I stand on the watchtower;
every night I stay at my post.
9Look, here comes a man in a chariot
with a team of horses.
And he gives back the answer:
'Babylon has fallen, has fallen!
All the images of its gods lie shattered on the ground!' "

10O my people, crushed on the threshing floor,
I tell you what I have heard from the LORD Almighty, from the God of Israel.

A Prophecy Against Edom

11An oracle concerning Dumah[c]:

Someone calls to me from Seir,
"Watchman, what is left of the
night?
Watchman, what is left of the
night?" 12The watchman replies,
"Morning is coming, but also the
night.
If you would ask, then ask;
and come back yet again."

A Prophecy Against Arabia

13An oracle concerning Arabia:

You caravans of Dedanites, who camp in the thickets of Arabia, 14 bring water for the thirsty;
you who live in Tema,
bring food for the fugitives.
15They flee from the sword,
from the drawn sword,
from the bent bow
and from the heat of battle.

16This is what the Lord says to me:
"Within one year, as a servant bound by contract would count it, all the pomp of Kedar will come to an end.
17The survivors of the bowmen, the warriors of Kedar, will be few." The LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken.

A Prophecy About Jerusalem

22 An oracle[a] concerning the Valley[b] of Vision:[c]

What troubles you now,
that you have all gone up on the roofs,[d] 2O town full of commotion,
O city of tumult[e] and revelry?[f]
Your slain[g] were not killed by the sword,[h] nor did they die in battle.
3All your leaders have fled[i] together;
they have been captured[j] without using the bow.
All you who were caught were taken prisoner together, having fled while the enemy was still far away.
4Therefore I said, "Turn away from me;
let me weep[k] bitterly.
Do not try to console me
over the destruction of my people."[l]

5The Lord, the LORD Almighty, has a day[m] of tumult and trampling[n] and terror[o]
in the Valley of Vision,[p] a day of battering down walls[q]
and of crying out to the mountains.
6Elam[r] takes up the quiver,[s]
with her charioteers and horses;
Kir[t] uncovers the shield.
7Your choicest valleys[u] are full of chariots, and horsemen are posted at the city gates;[v] 8 the defenses of Judah are stripped away.

And you looked in that day[w] to the weapons[x] in the Palace of the Forest;[y] 9you saw that the City of David had many breaches[z] in its defenses; you stored up water
in the Lower Pool.[a] 10You counted the buildings in Jerusalem and tore down houses[b] to strengthen the wall.[c] 11You built a reservoir between the two walls[d] for the water of the Old Pool,[e] but you did not look to the One who made it, or have regard[f] for the One who planned[g] it long ago.

12The Lord, the LORD Almighty, called you on that day[h]
to weep[i] and to wail, to tear out your hair[j] and put on sackcloth.[k] 13But see, there is joy and revelry,[l] slaughtering of cattle and killing of sheep, eating of meat and drinking of wine![m]
"Let us eat and drink," you say,
"for tomorrow we die!"[n]

14The LORD Almighty has revealed this in my hearing:[o] "Till your dying day this sin will not be atoned[p] for," says the Lord, the LORD Almighty.

15This is what the Lord, the LORD Almighty, says:

"Go, say to this steward, to Shebna,[q] who is in charge[r] of the palace:[s] 16What are you doing here and who gave you permission to cut out a grave[t] for yourself[u] here, hewing your grave on the height and chiseling your resting place in the rock?
17"Beware, the LORD is about to take firm hold of you and hurl[v] you away, O you mighty man.
18He will roll you up tightly like a ball and throw[w] you into a large country.
There you will die
and there your splendid chariots[x] will remain—
you disgrace to your master's house!
19I will depose you from your office, and you will be ousted[y] from your position.[z]

20"In that day[a] I will summon my servant,[b] Eliakim[c] son of Hilkiah. 21I will clothe him with your robe and fasten your sash[d] around him and hand your authority[e] over to him. He will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. 22I will place on his shoulder[f] the key[g] to the house of David;[h] what he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open.[i] 23I will drive him like a peg[j] into a firm place;[k] he will be a seat[a] of

A Prophecy About Tyre

23 An oracle concerning Tyre:[a] Wail,[b] O ships[c] of Tarshish![d]
For Tyre is destroyed[e]
and left without house or harbor.
From the land of Cyprus[b] word has come to them.

[2]Be silent,[f] you people of the island and you merchants[g] of Sidon,[h] whom the seafarers have enriched.
[3]On the great waters came the grain of the Shihor;[m]
the harvest of the Nile[c][n] was the revenue of Tyre,[o]
and she became the marketplace of
the nations.

[4]Be ashamed, O Sidon,[p] and you, O fortress of the sea,
for the sea has spoken:
"I have neither been in labor nor given birth;[q]
I have neither reared sons nor brought up daughters."
[5]When word comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish[r] at the report from Tyre.[s]

[6]Cross over to Tarshish;[t] wail, you people of the island.
[7]Is this your city of revelry,[u]
the old, old city,
whose feet have taken her
to settle in far-off lands?
[8]Who planned this against Tyre,
the bestower of crowns,
whose merchants[v] are princes, whose traders[w] are renowned in
the earth?
[9]The LORD Almighty planned[x] it, to bring low[y] the pride of all glory and to humble[z] all who are renowned[a] on the earth.

[10]Till[d] your land as along the Nile, O Daughter of Tarshish,
for you no longer have a harbor.
[11]The LORD has stretched out his hand[b] over the sea
and made its kingdoms tremble.[c]
He has given an order concerning Phoenicia[e]
that her fortresses be destroyed.[d] [12]He said, "No more of your reveling,[e]
O Virgin Daughter[f] of Sidon, now crushed!

"Up, cross over to Cyprus[b];[g] even there you will find no rest." [13]Look at the land of the Babylonians,[f][h]
this people that is now of no account!
The Assyrians[i] have made it a place for desert creatures;[j] they raised up their siege towers,[k] they stripped its fortresses bare and turned it into a ruin.[l]

[14]Wail, you ships[m] of Tarshish;[n] your fortress is destroyed![o]

[15]At that time Tyre[p] will be forgotten for seventy years,[q] the span of a king's life. But at the end of these seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

[16]"Take up a harp, walk through the
city,
O prostitute[r] forgotten;
play the harp well, sing many a
song,
so that you will be remembered."

[17]At the end of seventy years,[s] the LORD will deal with Tyre. She will return to her hire as a prostitute[t] and will ply her trade with all the kingdoms on the face of the earth.[u] [18]Yet her profit and her earnings will be set apart for the LORD;[v] they will not be stored up or hoarded. Her profits will go to those who live before the LORD,[w] for abundant food and fine clothes.[x]

The LORD's Devastation of the Earth

24 See, the LORD is going to lay waste the earth[y]
and devastate[z] it;
he will ruin its face
and scatter[a] its inhabitants—[2]it will be the same for priest as for people,[b]
for master as for servant,
for mistress as for maid,
for seller as for buyer,[c]
for borrower as for lender,

for debtor as for creditor.[a] 3The earth will be completely laid waste[b]
and totally plundered.[c]
The LORD has spoken[d]
this word.

4The earth dries up[e] and withers,[f]
the world languishes and withers, the exalted[g] of the earth languish.[h] 5The earth is defiled[i] by its
people;
they have disobeyed[j] the laws, violated the statutes
and broken the everlasting covenant.[k] 6Therefore a curse[l] consumes the
earth;
its people must bear their guilt.
Therefore earth's inhabitants are burned up,[m]
and very few are left.
7The new wine dries up[n] and the vine withers;[o]
all the merrymakers groan.[p] 8The gaiety of the tambourines[q] is stilled,
the noise[r] of the revelers[s] has stopped,
the joyful harp[t] is silent.[u] 9No longer do they drink wine[v] with
a song;
the beer is bitter[w] to its drinkers.
10The ruined city[x] lies desolate;[y]
the entrance to every house is barred.
11In the streets they cry out[z] for wine;[a]
all joy turns to gloom,[b] all gaiety is banished from the
earth.
12The city is left in ruins,[c] its gate[d] is battered to pieces.
13So will it be on the earth and among the nations,
as when an olive tree is beaten,[e] or as when gleanings are left after the grape harvest.[f]

14They raise their voices, they shout for joy;[g]
from the west[h] they acclaim the LORD's majesty.
15Therefore in the east[i] give glory[j] to
the LORD;
exalt[k] the name[l] of the LORD, the God of Israel,
in the islands[m] of the sea.
16From the ends of the earth[n] we hear singing:[o]
"Glory[p] to the Righteous One."[q]

a22 Or released

the foreigners' stronghold[a] a city no
more;
it will never be rebuilt.[b] 3Therefore strong peoples will honor
you;[c]
cities of ruthless[d] nations will revere you.
4You have been a refuge[e] for the poor,[f]
a refuge for the needy[g] in his
distress,
a shelter from the storm[h]
and a shade from the heat.
For the breath of the ruthless[i] is like a storm driving against a wall
5 and like the heat of the desert.
You silence[j] the uproar of foreigners;[k]
as heat is reduced by the shadow of a cloud,
so the song of the ruthless[l] is stilled.

6On this mountain[m] the LORD Almighty will prepare a feast[n] of rich food for all
peoples,
a banquet of aged wine—
the best of meats and the finest of wines.[o] 7On this mountain he will destroy the shroud[p] that enfolds all peoples,[q]
the sheet that covers all nations;
8 he will swallow up death[r] forever.
The Sovereign LORD will wipe away the tears[s]
from all faces;
he will remove the disgrace[t] of his
people
from all the earth.
The LORD has spoken.[u]

9In that day[v] they will say,

"Surely this is our God;[w] we trusted[x] in him, and he saved[y]
us.
This is the LORD, we trusted in him;
let us rejoice[z] and be glad in his salvation."[a]

10The hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain;[b]
but Moab[c] will be trampled under
him
as straw is trampled down in the manure.
11They will spread out their hands
in it,
as a swimmer spreads out his hands to swim.
God will bring down[d] their pride[e] despite the cleverness[h] of their hands.
12He will bring down your high fortified walls[f]
and lay them low;[g]
he will bring them down to the
ground,
to the very dust.

A Song of Praise

26

In that day[h] this song will be sung[i] in the land of Judah:

We have a strong city;[j]
God makes salvation
its walls[k] and ramparts.[l] 2Open the gates[m]
that the righteous[n] nation may enter,
the nation that keeps faith.
3You will keep in perfect peace[o] him whose mind is steadfast, because he trusts[p] in you.
4Trust[q] in the LORD forever,[r] for the LORD, the LORD, is the Rock[s] eternal.
5He humbles those who dwell on
high,
he lays the lofty city low;
he levels it to the ground[t]
and casts it down to the dust.[u] 6Feet trample[v] it down—the feet of the oppressed,[w]
the footsteps of the poor.[x]

7The path of the righteous is level;[y] O upright One,[z] you make the way of the righteous smooth.[a] 8Yes, LORD, walking in the way of your laws,[i] [b]
we wait[c] for you;
your name[d] and renown
are the desire of our hearts.
9My soul yearns for you in the night;[e]
in the morning my spirit longs[f]
for you.
When your judgments[g] come upon
the earth,
the people of the world learn righteousness.[h] 10Though grace is shown to the wicked,[i]
they do not learn righteousness;

11 O LORD, your hand is lifted high,[c] but they do not see[d] it.
Let them see your zeal[e] for your people and be put to shame;[f]
let the fire[g] reserved for your enemies consume them.

12 LORD, you establish peace[h] for us;
all that we have accomplished you have done[i] for us.

we have not given birth to people of the world.[y]

Deliverance of Israel

27 In that day,[l]
the LORD will punish with his sword,[m]
his fierce, great and powerful sword, Leviathan[n] the gliding serpent,[o] Leviathan the coiling serpent;
he will slay the monster[p] of the sea.

2 In that day[q]—

"Sing[r] about a fruitful vineyard:[s] 3 I, the LORD, watch over it;
I water[t] it continually.
I guard[u] it day and night
so that no one may harm[v] it.
4 I am not angry.
If only there were briers and thorns confronting me!
I would march against them in battle;
I would set them all on fire.[w]
5 Or else let them come to me for refuge;[x] let them make peace[y] with me, yes, let them make peace with me."

6 In days to come Jacob will take root,[z] Israel will bud and blossom[a] and fill all the world with fruit.[b]

7 Has the LORD struck her as he struck[c] down those who struck her?
Has she been killed
as those were killed who killed her?
8 By warfare[k] and exile[d] you contend with her—
with his fierce blast he drives her out, as on a day the east wind[e] blows.
9 By this, then, will Jacob's guilt be atoned[f] for,

10 The fortified city stands desolate, an abandoned settlement,
forsaken like the desert;
there the calves graze,
there they lie down;
they strip its branches bare.
11 When its twigs are dry, they are broken off

with them.
For this is a people without
understanding;
so their Maker has no compassion
on them,
and their Creator shows them no favor.

12 In that day the LORD will thresh from the flowing Euphrates[h] to the Wadi of Egypt, and you, O Israelites, will be gathered up one by one. 13 And in that day a great trumpet will sound. Those who were perishing in Assyria and those who were exiled in Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusa-

Woe to Ephraim

28 Woe to that wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards, to the fading flower, his glorious beauty,
set on the head of a fertile valley—
to that city, the pride of those laid low by wine!
2 See, the Lord has one who is powerful and strong.
Like a hailstorm and a destructive wind,
like a driving rain and a flooding downpour,
he will throw it forcefully to the
ground.
3 That wreath, the pride of Ephraim's drunkards,
will be trampled underfoot.
4 That fading flower, his glorious
beauty,
set on the head of a fertile valley,
will be like a fig ripe before harvest—
as soon as someone sees it and takes it in his hand,
he swallows it.

5 In that day the LORD Almighty will be a glorious crown, a beautiful wreath
for the remnant of his people.
6 He will be a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, a source of strength
to those who turn back the battle
at the gate.

7 And these also stagger from wine and reel from beer:
Priests and prophets stagger from beer
and are befuddled with wine;
they reel from beer,
they stagger when seeing visions,
they stumble when rendering decisions.
8 All the tables are covered with vomit
and there is not a spot without filth.

9 "Who is it he is trying to teach?
To whom is he explaining his message?
To children weaned from their milk,
to those just taken from the breast?
10 For it is:
Do and do, do and do,
rule on rule, rule on rule[i];
a little here, a little there."

11 Very well then, with foreign lips and strange tongues
God will speak to this people, 12 to whom he said,
"This is the resting place, let the weary rest";
and, "This is the place of repose"—
but they would not listen.
13 So then, the word of the LORD to them will become:
Do and do, do and do,
rule on rule, rule on rule;
a little here, a little there—
so that they will go and fall backward,
be injured and snared and
captured.

14 Therefore hear the word of the LORD,[a] you scoffers[b] who rule this people in Jerusalem.
15 You boast, "We have entered into a covenant with death,[c] with the grave[a] we have made an agreement.
When an overwhelming scourge sweeps by,[d]
it cannot touch us,
for we have made a lie[b] our refuge and falsehood[e] our hiding place.[f]"

16 So this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"See, I lay a stone in Zion,[g] a tested stone,[h]
a precious cornerstone for a sure foundation;[i]
the one who trusts will never be dismayed.[j] 17 I will make justice[k] the measuring line and righteousness the plumb line;[l] hail[m] will sweep away your refuge, the lie, and water will overflow[n] your hiding place.
18 Your covenant with death will be annulled;
your agreement with the grave will not stand.[o]
When the overwhelming scourge sweeps by,[p] you will be beaten down[q] by it.
19 As often as it comes it will carry you away;[r] morning after morning,[s] by day and by night, it will sweep through."

The understanding of this message will bring sheer terror.[t] 20 The bed is too short to stretch out on,
the blanket too narrow to wrap around you.[u] 21 The LORD will rise up as he did at Mount Perazim,[v] he will rouse himself as in the Valley of Gibeon[w]— to do his work,[x] his strange work, and perform his task, his alien task.
22 Now stop your mocking,[y]
or your chains will become heavier;
the Lord, the LORD Almighty, has told me of the destruction decreed against the whole land.[z]

23 Listen[a] and hear my voice;
pay attention and hear what I say.
24 When a farmer plows for planting,[b]
does he plow continually?
Does he keep on breaking up and harrowing the soil?
25 When he has leveled the surface, does he not sow caraway and scatter cummin?[c] Does he not plant wheat in its place,[c] barley[d] in its plot,[e]
and spelt[f] in its field?
26 His God instructs him and teaches[g] him the right way.
27 Caraway is not threshed[h] with a sledge,[i] nor is a cartwheel rolled over cummin; caraway is beaten out with a rod,[j]
and cummin with a stick.
28 Grain must be ground to make bread;
so one does not go on threshing it forever.
Though he drives the wheels of his threshing cart[k] over it, his horses do not grind it.
29 All this also comes from the LORD Almighty, wonderful in counsel[l] and magnificent in wisdom.[m] a15 Hebrew Sheol; also in verse 18 b15 Or false gods c25 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain. d2 The Hebrew for altar hearth sounds like the Hebrew for Ariel.

5 But your many enemies will become like fine dust,[a]
the ruthless[b] hordes like blown chaff.[c]
Suddenly,[d] in an instant,
6 the LORD Almighty will come[e] with thunder[f] and earthquake[g] and great noise,
with windstorm and tempest[h] and flames of a devouring fire.[i] 7 Then the hordes of all the nations[j] that fight against Ariel,[k] that attack her and her fortress and besiege her,
will be as it is with a dream,[l]
with a vision in the night—8 as when a hungry man dreams that he is eating,
but he awakens,[m] and his hunger
remains;
as when a thirsty man dreams that he is drinking,
but he awakens faint, with his thirst unquenched.[n]
So will it be with the hordes of all
the nations
that fight against Mount Zion.[o]

9 Be stunned and amazed,[p] blind yourselves and be sightless;[q] be drunk,[r] but not from wine,[s] stagger,[t] but not from beer.
10 The LORD has brought over you a deep sleep:[u]
He has sealed your eyes[v] (the prophets);[w]
he has covered your heads (the seers).[x]

11 For you this whole vision[y] is nothing but words sealed[z] in a scroll. And if you give the scroll to someone who can read, and say to him, "Read this, please," he will answer, "I can't; it is sealed." 12 Or if you give the scroll to someone who cannot read, and say,
"Read this, please," he will answer, "I don't know how to read."

13 The Lord says:

"These people[a] come near to me with their mouth
and honor me with their lips,[b]
but their hearts are far from me.[c] Their worship of me
is made up only of rules taught by men.[s][d]
14 Therefore once more I will astound
these people
with wonder upon wonder;[e]
the wisdom of the wise[f] will perish, the intelligence of the intelligent will vanish.[g]"
15 Woe to those who go to great depths to hide[h] their plans from the LORD, who do their work in darkness and think,
"Who sees us?[i] Who will know?"[j] 16 You turn things upside down, as if the potter were thought to be like the clay![k]
Shall what is formed say to him who formed[l] it,
"He did not make me"?
Can the pot say of the potter,[m]
"He knows nothing"?[n]

17 In a very short time,[o] will not Lebanon[p] be turned into a fertile field[q]
and the fertile field seem like a forest?[r]
18 In that day[s] the deaf[t] will hear the words of the scroll,
and out of gloom and darkness[u]
the eyes of the blind will see.[v] 19 Once more the humble[w] will rejoice in the LORD;
the needy[x] will rejoice in the Holy
One[y] of Israel.
20 The ruthless[z] will vanish,[a]
the mockers[b] will disappear, and all who have an eye for evil[c] will be cut down—21 those who with a word make a man out to be guilty,
who ensnare the defender in court[d]
and with false testimony[e] deprive the innocent of justice.[f]

22 Therefore this is what the LORD, who redeemed[g] Abraham,[h] says to the house of Jacob:

"No longer will Jacob be ashamed;[i] no longer will their faces grow pale.[j] 23 When they see among them their children,[k]
the work of my hands,[l]
they will keep my name holy;[m] they will acknowledge the holiness of the Holy One[n] of Jacob,

Woe to the Obstinate Nation

30 "Woe[d] to the obstinate children,"[e]
declares the LORD,
"to those who carry out plans that are not mine,
forming an alliance,[f] but not by my Spirit,
heaping sin upon sin;
2 who go down to Egypt[g]
without consulting[h] me;
who look for help to Pharaoh's protection,[i]
to Egypt's shade for refuge.[j] 3 But Pharaoh's protection will be to your shame,
Egypt's shade[k] will bring you disgrace.[l]
4 Though they have officials in Zoan[m] and their envoys have arrived in Hanes,
5 everyone will be put to shame because of a people[n] useless[o] to
them,
who bring neither help[p] nor advantage,
but only shame and disgrace."[q]

6 An oracle[r] concerning the animals of the Negev:[s]

Through a land of hardship and distress,[t]
of lions[u] and lionesses, of adders and darting snakes,[v]
the envoys carry their riches on donkeys'[w] backs,
their treasures[x] on the humps of camels,
to that unprofitable nation, 7 to Egypt, whose help is utterly useless.[y]
Therefore I call her
Rahab[z] the Do-Nothing.

8 Go now, write it on a tablet[a] for
them,
inscribe it on a scroll,[b]
that for the days to come it may be an everlasting witness.[c] 9 These are rebellious[d] people, deceitful[e] children,
children unwilling to listen to the LORD's instruction.[f]
10 They say to the seers,[g]
"See no more visions[h]!" and to the prophets,
"Give us no more visions of what is right!
Tell us pleasant things,[i] prophesy illusions.[j] 11 Leave this way,[k]
get off this path,
and stop confronting[l] us with the Holy One[m] of Israel!"

12 Therefore, this is what the Holy One[n] of Israel says:

"Because you have rejected this message,[o]
relied on oppression[p]
and depended on deceit, 13 this sin will become for you like a high wall,[q] cracked and bulging,
that collapses[r] suddenly,[s] in an instant.
14 It will break in pieces like pottery,[t] shattered so mercilessly that among its pieces not a fragment will be found
for taking coals from a hearth or scooping water out of a cistern."

15 This is what the Sovereign[u] LORD,
the Holy One[v] of Israel, says:

"In repentance and rest[w] is your
salvation,
in quietness and trust[x] is your
strength,
but you would have none of it.[y] 16 You said, 'No, we will flee[z] on horses.'[a]
Therefore you will flee!
You said, 'We will ride off on swift horses.'
Therefore your pursuers will be swift!
17 A thousand will flee
at the threat of one;
at the threat of five[b]
you will all flee[c] away, till you are left[d]
like a flagstaff on a mountaintop, like a banner[e] on a hill."

18 Yet the LORD longs[f] to be gracious to
you;
he rises to show you compassion.[g]
For the LORD is a God of justice.[h]
Blessed are all who wait for him![i]

19 O people of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more.[j]

How gracious he will be when you cry for help![a] As soon as he hears, he will answer[b] you. 20 Although the Lord gives you the bread[c] of adversity and the water of affliction, your teachers[d] will be hidden[e] no more; with your own eyes you will see them. 21 Whether you turn to the right or to the left, your ears will hear a voice[f] behind you, saying, "This is the way;[g] walk in it." 22 Then you will defile your idols[h] overlaid with silver and your images covered with gold;[i] you will throw them away like a menstrual[j] cloth and say to them, "Away with you![k]"

23 He will also send you rain[l] for the seed you sow in the ground, and the food that comes from the land will be rich[m] and plentiful.[n] In that day[o] your cattle will graze in broad meadows.[p] 24 The oxen[q] and donkeys that work the soil will eat fodder[r] and mash, spread out with fork[s] and shovel. 25 In the day of great slaughter,[t] when the towers[u] fall, streams of water will flow[v] on every high mountain and every lofty hill. 26 The moon will shine like the sun,[w] and the sunlight will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven full days, when the LORD binds up the bruises of his people and heals[x] the wounds he inflicted.

27 See, the Name[y] of the LORD comes from afar,
with burning anger[z] and dense clouds of smoke;
his lips are full of wrath,[a]
and his tongue is a consuming fire.[b]
28 His breath[c] is like a rushing torrent,[d]
rising up to the neck.[e]
He shakes the nations in the sieve[f]
of destruction;
he places in the jaws of the
peoples
a bit[g] that leads them astray.
29 And you will sing
as on the night you celebrate a holy festival;[h]
your hearts will rejoice[i]
as when people go up with flutes[j]
to the mountain[k] of the LORD, to the Rock[l] of Israel.
30 The LORD will cause men to hear his majestic voice[m]
and will make them see his arm[n]
coming down
with raging anger[o] and consuming fire,[p]
with cloudburst, thunderstorm[q]
and hail.[r]
31 The voice of the LORD will shatter Assyria;[s]
with his scepter he will strike[t]
them down.
32 Every stroke the LORD lays on them with his punishing rod[u] will be to the music of tambourines[v]
and harps,
as he fights them in battle with the blows of his arm.[w] 33 Topheth[x] has long been prepared;
it has been made ready for the
king.
Its fire pit has been made deep and
wide,
with an abundance of fire and wood;
the breath[y] of the LORD,
like a stream of burning sulfur,[z] sets it ablaze.[a]

Woe to Those Who Rely on Egypt

31 Woe[b] to those who go down to Egypt[c] for help,
who rely on horses,[d]
who trust in the multitude of their chariots[e]
and in the great strength of their horsemen,
but do not look to the Holy One[f] of Israel,
or seek help from the LORD.[g] 2 Yet he too is wise[h] and can bring disaster;[i]
he does not take back his words.[j]
He will rise up against the house of
the wicked,[k]
against those who help evildoers.
3 But the Egyptians[l] are men and not God;[m]
their horses[n] are flesh and not
spirit.
When the LORD stretches out his hand,[o]
he who helps will stumble,
he who is helped[p] will fall;
both will perish together.[q]

is called together against him, he is not frightened by their shouts or disturbed by their clamor[b] — so the LORD Almighty will come down[c]
to do battle on Mount Zion and on its heights.
5Like birds hovering[d] overhead,
the LORD Almighty will shield[e]
Jerusalem;
he will shield it and deliver[f] it, he will 'pass over'[g] it and will rescue it."

6Return[h] to him you have so greatly revolted[i] against, O Israelites. 7For in that day[j] every one of you will reject the idols of silver and gold[k] your sinful hands have made.[l]

8"Assyria[m] will fall by a sword that is not of man;
a sword, not of mortals, will devour[n] them.
They will flee before the sword and their young men will be put to forced labor.[o] 9Their stronghold[p] will fall because of terror;
at sight of the battle standard[q] their commanders will panic,"[r]
declares the LORD,
whose fire[s] is in Zion,
whose furnace[t] is in Jerusalem.

The Kingdom of Righteousness

32 See, a king[u] will reign in righteousness
and rulers will rule with justice.[v] 2Each man will be like a shelter[w] from
the wind
and a refuge from the storm,[x]
like streams of water[y] in the desert[z] and the shadow of a great rock in a thirsty land.
3Then the eyes of those who see will no longer be closed,[a]
and the ears[b] of those who hear will listen.
4The mind of the rash will know and understand,[c]
and the stammering tongue[d] will be fluent and clear.
5No longer will the fool[e] be called noble
nor the scoundrel be highly respected.
6For the fool speaks folly,[f]
his mind is busy with evil:[g]
He practices ungodliness[h] and spreads error[i] concerning the LORD;
the hungry he leaves empty[j]
and from the thirsty he withholds
water.
7The scoundrel's methods are wicked,[k]
he makes up evil schemes[l]
to destroy the poor with lies, even when the plea of the needy[m]
is just.[n]
8But the noble man makes noble
plans,
and by noble deeds[o] he stands.[p]

The Women of Jerusalem

9You women[q] who are so complacent,
rise up and listen[r] to me;
you daughters who feel secure,[s] hear what I have to say!
10In little more than a year[t]
you who feel secure will tremble;
the grape harvest will fail,[u]
and the harvest of fruit will not come.
11Tremble,[v] you complacent women; shudder, you daughters who feel secure![w]
Strip off your clothes,[x]
put sackcloth[y] around your waists.
12Beat your breasts[z] for the pleasant fields,
for the fruitful vines[a] 13and for the land of my people, a land overgrown with thorns and briers[b] — yes, mourn[c] for all houses of merriment
and for this city of revelry.[d] 14The fortress[e] will be abandoned, the noisy city deserted;[f] citadel and watchtower[g] will become a wasteland forever,
the delight of donkeys,[h] a pasture for flocks,[i] 15till the Spirit[j] is poured upon us from on high,
and the desert becomes a fertile field,[k]
and the fertile field seems like a forest.[l]
16Justice[m] will dwell in the desert[n]
and righteousness[o] live in the fertile field.

17The fruit of righteousness[a] will be peace;[b]
the effect of righteousness will be quietness and confidence[c] forever.
18My people will live in peaceful[d] dwelling places, in secure homes,[e]
in undisturbed places of rest.[f] 19Though hail[g] flattens the forest[h] and the city is leveled[i] completely, 20how blessed you will be,
sowing[j] your seed by every stream,[k]
and letting your cattle and donkeys range free.[l]

Distress and Help

33 Woe[m] to you, O destroyer, you who have not been destroyed!
Woe to you, O traitor,
you who have not been betrayed!
When you stop destroying,
you will be destroyed;[n]
when you stop betraying,
you will be betrayed.[o]

2O LORD, be gracious[p] to us;
we long for you.
Be our strength[q] every morning,
our salvation[r] in time of distress.[s] 3At the thunder of your voice,[t] the peoples flee;[u] when you rise up,[v] the nations scatter.
4Your plunder,[w] O nations, is harvested[x] as by young locusts;[y] like a swarm of locusts men pounce on it.

5The LORD is exalted,[z] for he dwells on high;[a] he will fill Zion with justice[b] and righteousness.[c] 6He will be the sure foundation for your times, a rich store of salvation[d] and wisdom and knowledge;
the fear[e] of the LORD is the key to this treasure.[f] [6]

7Look, their brave men[g] cry aloud in the streets;
the envoys[h] of peace weep bitterly.
8The highways are deserted, no travelers[i] are on the roads.[j]
The treaty is broken,[k] its witnesses[8] are despised,
no one is respected.
9The land mourns[l][9] and wastes away,
Lebanon[m] is ashamed and withers;[n]
Sharon[o] is like the Arabah, and Bashan[p] and Carmel[q] drop their leaves.

10"Now will I arise,[r]" says the LORD.
"Now will I be exalted;[s] now will I be lifted up.
11You conceive[t] chaff,
you give birth[u] to straw;
your breath is a fire[v] that consumes you.
12The peoples will be burned as if to lime;[w] like cut thornbushes[x] they will be set ablaze.[y]"

13You who are far away,[z] hear[a] what I have done;
you who are near, acknowledge my power!
14The sinners[b] in Zion are terrified;
trembling[c] grips the godless:
"Who of us can dwell with the consuming fire?[d] Who of us can dwell with everlasting burning?" 15He who walks righteously[e] and speaks what is right,[f] who rejects gain from extortion[g]
and keeps his hand from accepting bribes,[h] who stops his ears against plots of murder and shuts his eyes[i] against contemplating evil—16this is the man who will dwell on the heights,[j] whose refuge[k] will be the mountain fortress.[l]
His bread will be supplied, and water will not fail[m] him.

17Your eyes will see the king[n] in his beauty[o]
and view a land that stretches afar.[p] 18In your thoughts you will ponder the former terror:[q]
"Where is that chief officer?
Where is the one who took the revenue?
Where is the officer in charge of the towers?[r]"

6 Or is a treasure from him 8 Dead Sea Scrolls; Masoretic Text the cities 9 Or dries up

[19]You will see those arrogant people[a] no more,
those people of an obscure speech,
with their strange,
incomprehensible tongue.[b] [20]Look upon Zion,[c] the city of our festivals;
your eyes will see Jerusalem,
a peaceful abode,[d] a tent[e] that will not be moved;[f]
its stakes will never be pulled up, nor any of its ropes broken.
[21]There the LORD will be our Mighty[g]
One.
It will be like a place of broad rivers and streams.[h]
No galley with oars will ride them, no mighty ship[i] will sail them.
[22]For the LORD is our judge,[j]
the LORD is our lawgiver,[k]
the LORD is our king;[l] it is he who will save[m] us.

[23]Your rigging hangs loose:
The mast is not held secure,
the sail is not spread.
Then an abundance of spoils will be divided
and even the lame[n] will carry off plunder.[o]
[24]No one living in Zion will say, "I am ill";[p]
and the sins of those who dwell
there will be forgiven.[q]

Judgment Against the Nations

34 Come near, you nations, and listen;[r]
pay attention, you peoples![s] Let the earth[t] hear, and all that is
in it,
the world, and all that comes out of it![u]
[2]The LORD is angry with all nations;
his wrath[v] is upon all their armies.
He will totally destroy[w][w] them,
he will give them over to slaughter.[x]
[3]Their slain[y] will be thrown out, their dead bodies[z] will send up a stench;[a]
the mountains will be soaked with their blood.[b]
[4]All the stars of the heavens will be dissolved[c]
and the sky rolled up[d] like a scroll;
all the starry host will fall[e] like withered[f] leaves from the vine,
like shriveled figs from the fig tree.

[5]My sword[g] has drunk its fill in the heavens;
see, it descends in judgment on Edom,[h]
the people I have totally destroyed.[i] [6]The sword[j] of the LORD is bathed in
blood,
it is covered with fat—
the blood of lambs and goats, fat from the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice[k] in Bozrah[l]
and a great slaughter[m] in Edom.
[7]And the wild oxen[n] will fall with
them,
the bull calves and the great bulls.[o]
Their land will be drenched with blood,[p]
and the dust will be soaked with fat.

[8]For the LORD has a day[q] of vengeance,[r]
a year of retribution,[s] to uphold Zion's cause.
[9]Edom's streams will be turned into pitch,
her dust into burning sulfur;[t] her land will become blazing pitch!
[10]It will not be quenched[u] night and
day;
its smoke will rise forever.[v]
From generation to generation[w] it will lie desolate;[x]
no one will ever pass through it
again.
[11]The desert owl[x][y] and screech owl[x]
will possess it;
the great owl[x] and the raven[z] will nest there.
God will stretch out over Edom[a]
the measuring line of chaos[b] and the plumb line[c] of desolation.
[12]Her nobles will have nothing there to be called a kingdom,
all her princes[d] will vanish[e] away.
[13]Thorns[f] will overrun her citadels, nettles and brambles her strongholds.[g]
She will become a haunt for jackals,[h] a home for owls.[i]

[w]2 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 5. [x]11 The precise identification of these birds is uncertain.

[14]Desert creatures[a] will meet with hyenas,[b]
and wild goats will bleat to each other;
there the night creatures[c] will also repose
and find for themselves places of rest.
[15]The owl will nest there and lay eggs, she will hatch them, and care for her young under the shadow of her wings;[d]
there also the falcons[e] will gather,
each with its mate.

[16]Look in the scroll[f] of the LORD and read:

None of these will be missing,[g] not one will lack her mate.
For it is his mouth[h] that has given the order,[i]
and his Spirit will gather them
together.
[17]He allots their portions;[j] his hand distributes them by measure.
They will possess it forever and dwell there from generation to generation.[k]

Joy of the Redeemed

35 The desert[l] and the parched land will be glad;
the wilderness will rejoice and blossom.[m]
Like the crocus,[n] [2]it will burst into
bloom;
it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy.[o]
The glory of Lebanon[p] will be given to it,
the splendor of Carmel[q] and Sharon;[r]
they will see the glory[s] of the LORD, the splendor of our God.[t]

[3]Strengthen the feeble hands, steady the knees[u] that give way;
[4]say[v] to those with fearful hearts,[w]
"Be strong, do not fear;[x] your God will come,[y]
he will come with vengeance;[z]
with divine retribution
he will come to save[a] you."

[5]Then will the eyes of the blind be opened[b]
and the ears of the deaf[c] unstopped.
[6]Then will the lame[d] leap like a deer,[e]
and the mute tongue[f] shout for joy.[g]

Sennacherib Threatens Jerusalem

36:1-22pp — 2Ki 18:13,17-37; 2Ch 32:9-19

36 In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's[x] reign, Sennacherib[y] king of Assyria attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.[z] [2]Then the king of Assyria sent his field commander with a large army from Lachish[a] to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. When the commander stopped at the aqueduct of the Upper Pool, on the road to the Washerman's Field,[b] [3]Eliakim[c] son of Hilkiah the palace administrator,[d] Shebna[e] the secretary,[f] and Joah[g] son of Asaph the recorder[h] went out to him.
[4]The field commander said to them,
"Tell Hezekiah,

" 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, says: On what are you basing this confidence of yours? [5]You say you have strategy and military strength—but you speak only empty words. On whom are you depending, that you rebel[a] against me? 6Look now, you are depending[b] on Egypt,[c][d] that splintered reed[e] of a staff, which pierces a man's hand and wounds him if he leans on it! Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who depend on him. 7And if you say to me, "We are depending[f] on the LORD our God"—isn't he the one whose high places and altars Hezekiah removed,[g] saying to Judah

and Jerusalem, "You must worship
before this altar"?[h] 8" 'Come now, make a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses[i]—if you can put riders on them! 9How then can you repulse one officer of the least of my master's officials, even though you are depending on Egypt[j] for chariots[k] and horsemen?[l] 10Furthermore, have I come to attack and destroy this land without the LORD? The LORD himself told[m] me to march against this country and destroy
it.' "

11Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah[n] said to the field commander, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic,[o] since we understand it. Don't speak to us in Hebrew in the hearing of the people on the wall." 12But the commander replied, "Was it only to your master and you that my master sent me to say these things, and not to the men sitting on the wall—who, like you, will have to eat their own filth and drink their own urine?[p]" 13Then the commander stood and called out in Hebrew,[q] "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria![r] 14This is what the king says: Do not let Hezekiah deceive[s] you. He cannot deliver you! 15Do not let Hezekiah persuade you to trust in the LORD when he says, 'The LORD will surely deliver[t] us; this city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'[u] 16"Do not listen to Hezekiah. This is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me.
Then every one of you will eat from his own vine and fig tree[v] and drink water from his own cistern,[w] 17until I come and take you to a land like your own[x]—a land of grain and new wine,[y] a land of bread and vineyards.

18"Do not let Hezekiah mislead you when he says, 'The LORD will deliver us.' Has the god of any nation ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? 19Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad?[z] Where are the gods of Sepharvaim?[a] Have they rescued Samaria[b] from my hand? 20Who of all the gods[c] of these countries has been able to save his land from me?
How then can the LORD deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"[d] 21But the people remained silent and said nothing in reply, because the king had commanded, "Do not answer him."[e] 22Then Eliakim[f] son of Hilkiah the palace administrator, Shebna the secretary, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder[g] went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn,[h] and told him what the field commander had said.

Jerusalem's Deliverance Foretold

37:1-13pp — 2Ki 19:1-13

37 When King Hezekiah heard this,
he tore his clothes[i] and put on sackcloth[j] and went into the temple[k] of the LORD. 2He sent Eliakim[l] the palace administrator, Shebna[m] the secretary, and the leading priests, all wearing sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.[n] 3They told him, "This is what Hezekiah says: This day is a day of distress[o] and rebuke and disgrace, as when children come to the point of birth[p] and there is no strength to deliver them. 4It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the field commander, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to ridicule[q] the living God,[r] and that he will rebuke him for the words the LORD your God has heard.[s] Therefore pray[t] for the remnant[u] that still survives." 5When King Hezekiah's officials came to Isaiah, 6Isaiah said to them,
"Tell your master, 'This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid[v] of what you have heard—those words with which the underlings of the king of Assyria have blasphemed[w] me. 7Listen! I am going to put a spirit[x] in him so that when he hears a certain report,[y] he will return to his own country, and there I will have him cut down[z] with the sword.' "
8When the field commander heard that the king of Assyria had left Lachish,[a] he withdrew and found the king fighting against Libnah.[b]

[14]Hezekiah received the letter[m] from the messengers and read it. Then he went up to the temple[n] of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD. [15]And Hezekiah prayed[o] to the LORD: [16]"O

Sennacherib's Fall

37:21-38pp — 2Ki 19:20-37; 2Ch 32:20-21

[21]Then Isaiah son of Amoz[h] sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, [22]this is the word the LORD has spoken against him:

"The Virgin Daughter[i] of Zion[j]

Hezekiah's Illness

38:1-8pp — 2Ki 20:1-11; 2Ch 32:24-26

38 In those days Hezekiah became ill and was at the point of death.
The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz[x] went to him and said, "This is what the LORD says: Put your house in order,[y] because you are going to die; you will not recover."[z] 2Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, 3"Remember, O LORD, how I have walked[a] before you faithfully and with wholehearted devotion[b] and have done what is good in your eyes."[c] And Hezekiah wept[d] bitterly.
4Then the word[e] of the LORD came to Isaiah: 5"Go and tell Hezekiah, 'This is what the LORD, the God of your father David,[f] says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears;[g] I will add fifteen years[h] to your life. 6And I will deliver you and this city from the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend[i] this city.
7" 'This is the LORD's sign[j] to you that the LORD will do what he has promised: 8I will make the shadow cast by the sun go back the ten steps it has gone down on the stairway of Ahaz.' " So the sunlight went back the ten steps it had gone down.[k]

9A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah after his illness and recovery:

10I said, "In the prime of my life[l] must I go through the gates of death[d][m]
and be robbed of the rest of my years?"[n] 11I said, "I will not again see the LORD, the LORD,[o] in the land of the living;[p]
no longer will I look on mankind, or be with those who now dwell in this world.[e] 12Like a shepherd's tent[q] my house has been pulled down[r] and taken
from me.
Like a weaver I have rolled[s] up my
life,
and he has cut me off from the loom;[t]
day and night[u] you made an end
of me.
13I waited patiently[v] till dawn, but like a lion he broke[w] all my bones;[x]
day and night[y] you made an end
of me.
14I cried like a swift or thrush,
I moaned like a mourning dove.[z]
My eyes grew weak[a] as I looked to
the heavens.
I am troubled; O Lord, come to my aid!"[b]
15But what can I say?[c]
He has spoken to me, and he himself has done this.[d] I will walk humbly[e] all my years because of this anguish of my soul.[f] 16Lord, by such things men live;

and my spirit finds life in them too.
You restored me to health and let me live.[a] 17Surely it was for my benefit[b] that I suffered such anguish.[c]
In your love you kept me from the pit[d] of destruction;
you have put all my sins[e]
behind your back.[f] 18For the grave[l][g] cannot praise you, death cannot sing your praise;[h] those who go down to the pit[i] cannot hope for your faithfulness.
19The living, the living—they praise[j] you,
as I am doing today;
fathers tell their children[k]
about your faithfulness.

20The LORD will save me, and we will sing[l] with stringed instruments[m] all the days of our lives[n]
in the temple[o] of the LORD.

21Isaiah had said, "Prepare a poultice of figs and apply it to the boil, and he will recover."

22Hezekiah had asked, "What will be the sign[p] that I will go up to the temple of the LORD?"

Envoys From Babylon

39:1-8pp — 2Ki 20:12-19

39 At that time Merodach-Baladan son of Baladan king of Babylon[q] sent Hezekiah letters and a gift, because he had heard of his illness and recovery. 2Hezekiah received the envoys[r] gladly and showed them what was in his storehouses—the silver, the gold,[s] the spices, the fine oil, his entire armory and everything found among his treasures.[t] There was nothing in his palace or in all his kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

3Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked, "What did those men say, and where did they come from?"

"From a distant land,[u]" Hezekiah replied. "They came to me from Babylon."

4The prophet asked, "What did they see in your palace?"

"They saw everything in my palace," Hezekiah said. "There is nothing among my treasures that I did not show them."

5Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word[v] of the LORD Almighty: 6The time will surely come when everything in your palace, and all that your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried off to Babylon.[w] Nothing will be left, says the LORD. 7And some of your descendants, your own flesh and blood who will be born to you, will be taken away, and they will become eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.[x]"

8"The word of the LORD you have spoken is good,[y]" Hezekiah replied. For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my lifetime.[z]"

Comfort for God's People

40 Comfort, comfort[a] my people, says your God.
2Speak tenderly[b] to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her
that her hard service[c] has been completed,[d]
that her sin has been paid for,[e] that she has received from the LORD's hand double[f] for all her sins.

3A voice of one calling:
"In the desert prepare
the way[g] for the LORD[a];
make straight[h] in the wilderness a highway for our God.[b][i] 4Every valley shall be raised up,[j] every mountain and hill[k] made low;
the rough ground shall become level,[l]
the rugged places a plain.
5And the glory[m] of the LORD will be revealed, and all mankind together will see it.[n]
For the mouth of the LORD has spoken."[o]

6A voice says, "Cry out."
And I said, "What shall I cry?"

"All men are like grass,[p] and all their glory is like the flowers of the field.
7The grass withers[q] and the flowers fall, because the breath[r] of the LORD blows[s] on them.
Surely the people are grass.
8The grass withers and the flowers[t] fall, but the word[u] of our God stands[v] forever.[w]"

9You who bring good tidings[a] to Zion,
go up on a high mountain.
You who bring good tidings to Jerusalem,[i] [b]
lift up your voice with a shout, lift it up, do not be afraid;
say to the towns of Judah,
"Here is your God!"[c] 10See, the Sovereign LORD comes[d] with power,[e]
and his arm[f] rules[g] for him.
See, his reward[h] is with him, and his recompense accompanies
him.
11He tends his flock like a shepherd:[i]
He gathers the lambs in his arms[j] and carries them close to his heart;[k] he gently leads[l] those that have young.[m]

12Who has measured the waters[n] in the hollow of his hand,[o] or with the breadth of his hand marked off the heavens?[p]
Who has held the dust of the earth
in a basket,
or weighed the mountains on the scales
and the hills in a balance?[q] 13Who has understood the mind[j] [r]
of the LORD,
or instructed him as his counselor?[s] 14Whom did the LORD consult to enlighten him,
and who taught him the right way?
Who was it that taught him knowledge[t]
or showed him the path of understanding?[u]

15Surely the nations are like a drop in a bucket;
they are regarded as dust on the scales;[v]
he weighs the islands as though they were fine dust.[w] 16Lebanon[x] is not sufficient for altar fires,
nor its animals[y] enough for burnt
offerings.
17Before him all the nations[z] are as nothing;[a]
they are regarded by him as worthless
and less than nothing.[b]

18To whom, then, will you compare God?[c]
What image[d] will you compare him to?
19As for an idol,[e] a craftsman casts it, and a goldsmith[f] overlays it with gold[g]
and fashions silver chains for it.
20A man too poor to present such an offering
selects wood[h] that will not rot.
He looks for a skilled craftsman to set up an idol[i] that will not topple.[j]

21Do you not know?
Have you not heard?[k]
Has it not been told[l] you from the beginning?[m]
Have you not understood[n] since the earth was founded?[o] 22He sits enthroned[p] above the circle
of the earth,
and its people are like grasshoppers.[q]
He stretches out the heavens[r] like a canopy,[s]
and spreads them out like a tent[t]
to live in.[u] 23He brings princes[v] to naught and reduces the rulers of this world to nothing.[w] 24No sooner are they planted, no sooner are they sown,
no sooner do they take root[x] in the ground,
than he blows[y] on them and they wither,[z]
and a whirlwind sweeps them away like chaff.[a]

25"To whom will you compare me?[b]
Or who is my equal?" says the Holy One.[c] 26Lift your eyes and look to the heavens:[d]
Who created[e] all these?
He who brings out the starry host[f]
one by one,
and calls them each by name.
Because of his great power and mighty strength,[g]
not one of them is missing.[h]

27Why do you say, O Jacob, and complain, O Israel,
"My way is hidden from the LORD;
my cause is disregarded by my God"?[i]
28Do you not know?

Have you not heard?[a]
The LORD is the everlasting[b] God,
the Creator[c] of the ends of the earth.[d]
He will not grow tired or weary,[e]
and his understanding no one can fathom.[f] 29 He gives strength[g] to the weary[h] and increases the power of the weak.
30 Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men[i] stumble and fall;[j] 31 but those who hope[k] in the LORD will renew their strength.[l]
They will soar on wings like eagles;[m]
they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.[n]

The Helper of Israel

41 "Be silent[o] before me, you islands![p]
Let the nations renew their strength![q]
Let them come forward[r] and speak;
let us meet together[s] at the place of judgment.
2 "Who has stirred[t] up one from the east,[u] calling him in righteousness[v] to his service[a]?[w] He hands nations over to him and subdues kings before him.
He turns them to dust[x] with his sword, to windblown chaff[y] with his bow.[z] 3 He pursues them and moves on unscathed,[a] by a path his feet have not traveled before.
4 Who has done this and carried it through, calling[b] forth the generations from the beginning?[c] I, the LORD—with the first of them and with the last[d]—I am he.[e]" 5 The islands[f] have seen it and fear;
the ends of the earth[g] tremble.
They approach and come forward;
6 each helps the other and says to his brother, "Be strong![h]" 7 The craftsman[i] encourages the goldsmith,[j] and he who smooths with the hammer spurs on him who strikes the anvil.
He says of the welding, "It is good."
He nails down the idol so it will not topple.[k]
8 "But you, O Israel, my servant,[l] Jacob, whom I have chosen,[m]
you descendants of Abraham[n] my friend,[o] 9 I took you from the ends of the earth,[p] from its farthest corners I called[q] you.
I said, 'You are my servant';[r]
I have chosen[s] you and have not rejected you.
10 So do not fear,[t] for I am with you;[u]
do not be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen[v] you and help[w] you;
I will uphold you[x] with my righteous right hand.[y] 11 "All who rage[z] against you will surely be ashamed and disgraced;[a] those who oppose[b] you will be as nothing and perish.[c] 12 Though you search for your enemies, you will not find them.[d]
Those who wage war against you will be as nothing[e] at all.
13 For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand[f]
and says to you, Do not fear;
I will help[g] you.
14 Do not be afraid,[h] O worm[i] Jacob, O little Israel,
for I myself will help[j] you," declares the LORD, your Redeemer,[k] the Holy One[l] of Israel.
15 "See, I will make you into a threshing sledge,[m] new and sharp, with many teeth.
You will thresh the mountains[n] and crush them,
and reduce the hills to chaff.[o] 16 You will winnow[p] them, the wind will pick them up, and a gale[q] will blow them away.[r]
But you will rejoice[s] in the LORD and glory[t] in the Holy One[u] of Israel.

thirst.[b]
But I the LORD will answer[c] them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake[d] them.
18 I will make rivers flow[e] on barren
heights,
and springs within the valleys.
I will turn the desert[f] into pools of water,[g]
and the parched ground into springs.[h]
19 I will put in the desert[i] the cedar and the acacia,[j] the myrtle and the olive.
I will set pines[k] in the wasteland,
the fir and the cypress[l] together,[m] 20 so that people may see and know,[n] may consider and understand,[o] that the hand[p] of the LORD has done
this,
that the Holy One[q] of Israel has created[r] it.

21 "Present your case,[s]" says the LORD.
"Set forth your arguments," says
Jacob's King.[t]
22 "Bring in your idols, to tell us what is going to happen.[u] Tell us what the former things[v] were,
so that we may consider them
and know their final outcome.
Or declare to us the things to come,[w] 23 tell us what the future holds, so we may know[x] that you are
gods.
Do something, whether good or bad,[y]
so that we will be dismayed[z] and filled with fear.
24 But you are less than nothing[a]
and your works are utterly worthless;[b]
he who chooses you is detestable.[c]

25 "I have stirred[d] up one from the north,[e] and he comes—one from the rising sun who calls on my name.
He treads[f] on rulers as if they were mortar,
as if he were a potter treading the
clay.
26 Who told of this from the beginning,[g] so we could
know,
or beforehand, so we could say,
'He was right'?
No one told of this,
no one foretold[h] it,
no one heard any words[i] from
you.
27 I was the first to tell[j] Zion, 'Look, here they are!'
I gave to Jerusalem a messenger of good tidings.[k]
28 I look but there is no one[l] — no one among them to give counsel,[m]
no one to give answer[n] when I ask
them.
29 See, they are all false!
Their deeds amount to nothing;[o] their images[p] are but wind[q] and confusion.

The Servant of the LORD

42 "Here is my servant,[r] whom I uphold,
my chosen one[s] in whom I delight;[t]
I will put my Spirit[u] on him and he will bring justice[v] to the nations.[w]
2 He will not shout or cry out,[x]
or raise his voice in the streets.
3 A bruised reed[y] he will not break,[z] and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out.[a]
In faithfulness he will bring forth
justice;[b]
4 he will not falter or be discouraged till he establishes justice[c] on earth.
In his law[d] the islands[e] will put their hope."[f]

5 This is what God the LORD says—he who created the heavens[g] and stretched them out,
who spread out the earth[h] and all that comes out of it,[i] who gives breath[j] to its people, and life to those who walk on it: 6 "I, the LORD, have called[k] you in righteousness;[l]
I will take hold of your hand.[m]
I will keep[n] you and will make you to be a covenant[o] for the people and a light[p] for the Gentiles,[q] 7 to open eyes that are blind,[r] to free[s] captives from prison[t] and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness.[u]

I announce[d] them to you."

Song of Praise to the LORD

10Sing[e] to the LORD a new song,[f] his praise[g] from the ends of the earth,[h]
you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it,[i]
you islands,[j] and all who live in
them.
11Let the desert[k] and its towns raise their voices;
let the settlements where Kedar[l]
lives rejoice.
Let the people of Sela[m] sing for
joy;
let them shout from the mountaintops.[n]
12Let them give glory[o] to the LORD and proclaim his praise[p] in the islands.[q] 13The LORD will march out like a mighty[r] man,
like a warrior[s] he will stir up his zeal;[t]
with a shout[u] he will raise the battle cry
and will triumph over his enemies.[v]

14"For a long time I have kept silent,[w]
I have been quiet and held myself back.[x]
But now, like a woman in childbirth,
I cry out, I gasp and pant.[y] 15I will lay waste[z] the mountains[a] and hills
and dry up all their vegetation;
I will turn rivers into islands and dry up[b] the pools.
16I will lead[c] the blind[d] by ways they have not known,
along unfamiliar paths I will guide
them;
I will turn the darkness into light[e]
before them
and make the rough places smooth.[f]
These are the things I will do;
I will not forsake[g] them.
17But those who trust in idols, who say to images, 'You are our gods,'[h]
will be turned back in utter shame.[i]

Israel Blind and Deaf

18"Hear, you deaf;[j]
look, you blind, and see!
19Who is blind[k] but my servant,[l] and deaf like the messenger[m] I send?
Who is blind like the one committed[n] to me,
blind like the servant of the LORD?
20You have seen many things, but have paid no attention;
your ears are open, but you hear nothing."[o] 21It pleased the LORD
for the sake[p] of his righteousness to make his law[q] great and glorious.
22But this is a people plundered[r] and looted,
all of them trapped in pits[s]
or hidden away in prisons.[t]
They have become plunder, with no one to rescue them;[u]
they have been made loot, with no one to say, "Send them back."

23Which of you will listen to this or pay close attention[v] in time to come?
24Who handed Jacob over to become loot,
and Israel to the plunderers?[w] Was it not the LORD,[x] against whom we have sinned?
For they would not follow[y] his
ways;
they did not obey his law.[z] 25So he poured out on them his burning anger,[a]
the violence of war.
It enveloped them in flames,[b] yet they did not understand;[c] it consumed them, but they did not take it to heart.[d]

Israel's Only Savior

43 But now, this is what the LORD
says—
he who created[e] you, O Jacob,
he who formed[f] you, O Israel:[g]
"Fear not, for I have redeemed[h] you;
I have summoned you by name;[i]
you are mine.[j]
2When you pass through the waters,[k]
I will be with you;[l]

God's Mercy and Israel's Unfaithfulness

of Israel:
"For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives[p] all the Babylonians,[m][q]
in the ships in which they took
pride.
15 I am the LORD,[r] your Holy One, Israel's Creator,[s] your King.[t]"
16 This is what the LORD says—
he who made a way through the
sea,
a path through the mighty waters,[u] 17 who drew out[v] the chariots and horses,[w]
the army and reinforcements together,[x]
and they lay[y] there, never to rise
again,
extinguished, snuffed out like a

18 "Forget the former things;[a]

19 See, I am doing a new thing![b]
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the desert[c]

8Do not tremble, do not be afraid.
Did I not proclaim[u] this and foretell it long ago?
You are my witnesses. Is there any God[v] besides me?
No, there is no other Rock;[w] I

9All who make idols[x] are nothing, and the things they treasure are worthless.[y]
Those who would speak up for them are blind;[z]
they are ignorant, to their own shame.[a] 10Who shapes a god and casts an idol,[b]
which can profit him nothing?[c] 11He and his kind will be put to shame;[d]

Let them all come together and take their stand;
they will be brought down to terror and infamy.[e] 12The blacksmith[f] takes a tool and works with it in the coals;
he shapes an idol with hammers, he forges it with the might of his arm.[g]
He gets hungry and loses his
strength;
he drinks no water and grows faint.[h] 13The carpenter[i] measures with a line and makes an outline with a marker;
he roughs it out with chisels and marks it with compasses.

[a]28 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them.

He shapes it in the form of man,[f]
of man in all his glory, that it may dwell in a shrine.[g] 14He cut down cedars,
or perhaps took a cypress or oak.
He let it grow among the trees of the forest, or planted a pine,[h] and the rain made it grow.
15It is man's fuel[i] for burning;
some of it he takes and warms himself,
he kindles a fire and bakes bread.
But he also fashions a god and worships[j] it;
he makes an idol and bows[k] down to it.
16Half of the wood he burns in the fire;
over it he prepares his meal,
he roasts his meat and eats his fill.
He also warms himself and says,
"Ah! I am warm; I see the fire.[l]" 17From the rest he makes a god, his idol;
he bows down to it and worships.[m]
He prays[n] to it and says,
"Save[o] me; you are my god." 18They know nothing, they understand[p] nothing;
their eyes[q] are plastered over so they cannot see,
and their minds closed so they cannot understand.
19No one stops to think,
no one has the knowledge or understanding[r] to say,
"Half of it I used for fuel;[s]
I even baked bread over its coals,
I roasted meat and I ate.
Shall I make a detestable[t] thing from what is left?
Shall I bow down to a block of wood?"[u] 20He feeds on ashes,[v] a deluded[w] heart misleads him;
he cannot save himself, or say,
"Is not this thing in my right hand a lie?[x]"

21"Remember[y] these things, O Jacob, for you are my servant, O Israel.[z]
I have made you, you are my servant;[a]
O Israel, I will not forget you.[b] 22I have swept away[c] your offenses like a cloud, your sins like the morning mist.
Return[d] to me,
for I have redeemed[e] you."

23Sing for joy,[g] O heavens, for the LORD has done this;
shout aloud, O earth[h] beneath.
Burst into song, you mountains,[i] you forests and all your trees,[j]
for the LORD has redeemed[k] Jacob, he displays his glory[l] in Israel.

Jerusalem to Be Inhabited

24"This is what the LORD says—

I am the LORD,
who has made all things,
who alone stretched out the heavens,[p]

who says of Jerusalem,[x] 'It shall be inhabited,' of the towns of Judah, 'They shall be built,' and of their ruins,[y] 'I will restore them,'[z] 27who says to the watery deep, 'Be dry, and I will dry up[a] your streams,' 28who says of Cyrus,[b] 'He is my shepherd and will accomplish all that I please;
he will say of Jerusalem,[c] "Let it be rebuilt," and of the temple,[d] "Let its foundations[e] be laid."'

45 "This is what the LORD says to his anointed,[a] and to strip kings of their armor, to open doors before him

so that gates will not be shut:

The Fall of Babylon

47 "Go down, sit in the dust, Virgin Daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne, Daughter of the Babylonians.[a]
No more will you be called tender or delicate.
2 Take millstones and grind flour;
take off your veil.
Lift up your skirts, bare your legs,
and wade through the streams.
3 Your nakedness will be exposed and your shame uncovered.
I will take vengeance;
I will spare no one."

4 Our Redeemer—the LORD Almighty is his name—is the Holy One of Israel.

5 "Sit in silence, go into darkness, Daughter of the Babylonians;
no more will you be called queen of kingdoms.
6 I was angry with my people and desecrated my inheritance;
I gave them into your hand,
and you showed them no mercy.
Even on the aged
you laid a very heavy yoke.
7 You said, 'I will continue forever—
the eternal queen!'
But you did not consider these things or reflect on what might happen.

8 "Now then, listen, you wanton creature, lounging in your security and saying to yourself,
'I am, and there is none besides me.
I will never be a widow or suffer the loss of children.' 9 Both of these will overtake you in a moment, on a single day:
loss of children and widowhood.
They will come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and all your potent spells.
10 You have trusted in your wickedness and have said, 'No one sees me.' Your wisdom and knowledge mislead you
when you say to yourself,
'I am, and there is none besides me.'
11 Disaster will come upon you, and you will not know how to conjure it away.
A calamity will fall upon you that you cannot ward off with a ransom;
a catastrophe you cannot foresee will suddenly come upon you.

12 "Keep on, then, with your magic spells and with your many sorceries, which you have labored at since childhood.
Perhaps you will succeed,
perhaps you will cause terror.
13 All the counsel you have received has only worn you out!
Let your astrologers come forward, those stargazers who make predictions month by month, let them save you from what is coming upon you.
14 Surely they are like stubble;
the fire will burn them up.
They cannot even save themselves from the power of the flame.
Here are no coals to warm anyone;
here is no fire to sit by.
15 That is all they can do for you—these you have labored with and trafficked with since childhood.
Each of them goes on in his error;
there is not one that can save you.

Stubborn Israel

48 "Listen to this, O house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and come from the line of Judah, you who take oaths in the name of the LORD and invoke the God of Israel—but not in truth or righteousness—2 you who call yourselves citizens of the holy city

a1 Or Chaldeans; also in verse 5 and rely[a] on the God of Israel—

the Lord Almighty is his name:[b] 3I foretold the former things[c] long
ago,
my mouth announced[d] them and I made them known;
then suddenly[e] I acted, and they came to pass.
4For I knew how stubborn[f] you were;
the sinews of your neck[g] were iron,
your forehead[h] was bronze.
5Therefore I told you these things long ago;
before they happened I announced[i] them to you
so that you could not say,
'My idols did them;[j]
my wooden image and metal god ordained them.'
6You have heard these things; look at them all.
Will you not admit them?

"From now on I will tell you of new things,[k]
of hidden things unknown to you.
7They are created[l] now, and not long ago;[m]
you have not heard of them before today.
So you cannot say,
'Yes, I knew[n] of them.'
8You have neither heard nor understood;[o]
from of old your ear[p] has not been open.
Well do I know how treacherous[q]
you are;
you were called a rebel[r] from birth.
9For my own name's sake[s] I delay my wrath;[t]
for the sake of my praise I hold it back from you,
so as not to cut you off.[u] 10See, I have refined[v] you, though not as silver;
I have tested[w] you in the furnace[x]
of affliction.
11For my own sake,[y] for my own sake, I do this.
How can I let myself be defamed?[z]
I will not yield my glory to another.[a]

Israel Freed

12"Listen[b] to me, O Jacob, Israel, whom I have called:[c]
I am he;[d]
I am the first and I am the last.[e] 13My own hand laid the foundations of the earth,[f]
and my right hand spread out the heavens;[g]
when I summon them,
they all stand up together.[h]

14"Come together,[i] all of you, and listen:
Which of the idols has foretold these things?[j]
The Lord's chosen ally[k]
will carry out his purpose[l] against Babylon;[m]
his arm will be against the Babylonians.[a] 15I, even I, have spoken;
yes, I have called[n] him.
I will bring him,
and he will succeed[o] in his mission.

16"Come near[p] me and listen[q] to
this:

"From the first announcement I have not spoken in secret;[r] at the time it happens, I am
there."
And now the Sovereign Lord[s] has sent[t] me,
with his Spirit.[u]

17This is what the Lord says—
your Redeemer,[v] the Holy One[w]
of Israel:
"I am the Lord your God, who teaches[x] you what is best for
you,
who directs[y] you in the way[z] you should go.
18If only you had paid attention[a] to my commands,
your peace[b] would have been like a river,[c]
your righteousness[d] like the waves of the sea.
19Your descendants[e] would have been like the sand,[f]
your children like its numberless grains;[g]
their name would never be cut off[h] nor destroyed from before me."

20Leave Babylon,
flee[i] from the Babylonians!
Announce this with shouts of joy[j]
and proclaim it.
Send it out to the ends of the earth;[k]

say, "The LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob." 21They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;
he made water flow for them
from the rock;
he split the rock
and water gushed out.
22"There is no peace," says the LORD,
"for the wicked."

The Servant of the LORD

49 Listen to me, you islands;
hear this, you distant nations:
Before I was born the LORD called
me;
from my birth he has made mention of my name.
2He made my mouth like a sharpened sword,
in the shadow of his hand he hid
me;
he made me into a polished arrow
and concealed me in his quiver.
3He said to me, "You are my
servant,
Israel, in whom I will display my splendor."
4But I said, "I have labored to no purpose;
I have spent my strength in vain
and for nothing.
Yet what is due me is in the LORD's
hand,
and my reward is with my
God."

5And now the LORD says—
he who formed me in the womb to be his servant
to bring Jacob back to him and gather Israel to himself, for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD
and my God has been my strength—
6he says:
"It is too small a thing for you to be my servant
to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back those of Israel I have kept.
I will also make you a light for the Gentiles,
that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth."

7This is what the LORD says—
the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel—
to him who was despised and abhorred by the nation,
to the servant of rulers:
"Kings will see you and rise up, princes will see and bow down, because of the LORD, who is faithful,
the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

Restoration of Israel

8This is what the LORD says:

"In the time of my favor I will answer you,
and in the day of salvation I will help you;
I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people, to restore the land
and to reassign its desolate inheritances,
9to say to the captives, 'Come out,'
and to those in darkness, 'Be
free!'

"They will feed beside the roads and find pasture on every barren hill.
10They will neither hunger nor thirst, nor will the desert heat or the sun beat upon them.
He who has compassion on them will guide them
and lead them beside springs of
water.
11I will turn all my mountains into roads,
and my highways will be raised
up.
12See, they will come from afar—some from the north, some from the west,
some from the region of Aswan.[a]" 13Shout for joy, O heavens;
rejoice, O earth;
burst into song, O mountains!
For the LORD comforts his people and will have compassion on his afflicted ones.

14But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me,
the Lord has forgotten me." 15"Can a mother forget the baby at her breast
and have no compassion on the child she has borne?
Though she may forget,

a12 Dead Sea Scrolls; Masoretic Text Sinim

I will not forget you![a] 16See, I have engraved[b] you on the palms of my hands;
your walls[c] are ever before me.
17Your sons hasten back, and those who laid you waste[d] depart from you.
18Lift up your eyes and look around;
all your sons gather[e] and come to
you.
As surely as I live,[f]" declares the
LORD,
"you will wear[g] them all as
ornaments;
you will put them on, like a bride.

19"Though you were ruined and made desolate[h]
and your land laid waste,[i] now you will be too small for your
people,[j]
and those who devoured[k] you will be far away.
20The children born during your bereavement
will yet say in your hearing,
'This place is too small for us;
give us more space to live in.'[l] 21Then you will say in your heart,
'Who bore me these?[m]
I was bereaved[n] and barren;
I was exiled and rejected.[o]
Who brought these[p] up?
I was left[q] all alone,[r]
but these—where have they come from?' "

22This is what the Sovereign LORD[s]
says:

"See, I will beckon to the Gentiles, I will lift up my banner[t] to the
peoples;
they will bring[u] your sons in their
arms
and carry your daughters on their shoulders.[v] 23Kings[w] will be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers.[x]
They will bow down[y] before you
with their faces to the
ground;
they will lick the dust[z] at your
feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD;[a]
those who hope[b] in me will not be disappointed.[c]"

Israel's Sin and the Servant's Obedience

50 This is what the LORD says:
"Where is your mother's certificate of divorce[r]
with which I sent her away?
Or to which of my creditors
did I sell[s] you?
Because of your sins[t] you were sold;[u]
because of your transgressions your mother was sent away.
2When I came, why was there no
one?
When I called, why was there no one to answer?[v]
Was my arm too short[w] to ransom
you?
Do I lack the strength[x] to rescue
you?
By a mere rebuke[y] I dry up the sea,[z]
I turn rivers into a desert;[a] their fish rot for lack of water and die of thirst.
3I clothe the sky with darkness[b] and make sackcloth[c] its covering."

Everlasting Salvation for Zion

51 "Listen[b] to me, you who pursue righteousness[c]
and who seek[d] the LORD:
Look to the rock[e] from which you were cut
and to the quarry from which you were hewn;
2look to Abraham,[f] your father,
and to Sarah, who gave you birth.
When I called him he was but one,
and I blessed him and made him

3The LORD will surely comfort[h] Zion[i] and will look with compassion on all her ruins;[j]
he will make her deserts like Eden,[k] her wastelands[l] like the garden of Joy and gladness[m] will be found in

her,
thanksgiving[n] and the sound of singing.

4"Listen to me, my people;[o]
hear me,[p] my nation:
The law[q] will go out from me;
my justice[r] will become a light to
the nations.[s] 5My righteousness draws near speedily,
my salvation[t] is on the way,[u]
and my arm[v] will bring justice to
the nations.
The islands[w] will look to me and wait in hope[x] for my arm.
6Lift up your eyes to the heavens,
look at the earth beneath;
the heavens will vanish like smoke,[y] the earth will wear out like a garment[z]
and its inhabitants die like flies.
But my salvation[a] will last forever,[b] my righteousness will never fail.[c]

7"Hear me, you who know what is right,[d]
you people who have my law in your hearts:[e]
Do not fear the reproach of men or be terrified by their insults.[f] 8For the moth will eat them up like a the worm[h] will devour them like wool.

But my righteousness will last forever,[i]
my salvation through all generations."

9Awake, awake![j] Clothe yourself with strength,[k]

awake, as in days gone by,
as in generations of old.[m]
Was it not you who cut Rahab[n] to pieces,
who pierced that monster[o]
through?
10Was it not you who dried up the sea,[p]
the waters of the great deep,[q] who made a road in the depths of made drunk,[p] but not with wine.

"See, I have taken out of your hand

4"At first my people went down to Egypt[a] to live;
lately, Assyria[b] has oppressed
them.

5"And now what do I have here?"
declares the LORD.

"For my people have been taken away for nothing,

declares the LORD.
"And all day long
my name is constantly
blasphemed.[c] 6Therefore my people will know[d] my therefore in that day[f] they will know

that it is I who foretold[g] it.

7How beautiful on the mountains[h] are the feet of those who bring good news,[i]
who proclaim peace,[j]
who bring good tidings,
who proclaim salvation,
who say to Zion,
"Your God reigns!"[k] 8Listen! Your watchmen[l] lift up their voices;[m]
together they shout for joy.[n]
When the LORD returns[o] to Zion,[p] they will see it with their own
eyes.
9Burst into songs of joy[q] together,
you ruins[r] of Jerusalem,
for the LORD has comforted[s] his
people,
he has redeemed Jerusalem.[t] 10The LORD will lay bare his holy arm[u]
in the sight of all the nations,[v] and all the ends of the earth[w] will see

LORD.
12But you will not leave in haste[c] or go in flight;
for the LORD will go before you,[d]
the God of Israel will be your rear guard.[e]

The Suffering and Glory of the Servant

13See, my servant[f] will act wisely[y];
he will be raised and lifted up and highly exalted.[g] 14Just as there were many who were appalled[h] at him[z]—
his appearance was so disfigured[i] beyond that of any man
and his form marred beyond human likeness[j]— 15so will he sprinkle[k] many nations,[a]
and kings[l] will shut their mouths[m] because of him.
For what they were not told, they will see,
and what they have not heard,
they will understand.[n]

53 Who has believed our message[o] and to whom has the arm[p] of the LORD been revealed?[q] 2He grew up before him like a tender shoot,[r]
and like a root[s] out of dry ground.
He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him,
nothing in his appearance[t] that we should desire him.
3He was despised and rejected by
men,
a man of sorrows,[u] and familiar with suffering.[v]
Like one from whom men hide[w] their faces
he was despised,[x] and we esteemed him not.

4Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows,[y] yet we considered him stricken by God,[z]
smitten by him, and afflicted.[a] 5But he was pierced[b] for our transgressions,[c]
he was crushed[d] for our iniquities;
the punishment[e] that brought us peace[f] was upon him,
and by his wounds[g] we are healed.[h] 6We all, like sheep, have gone astray,[i]
each of us has turned to his own way;[j]
and the LORD has laid on him
the iniquity[k] of us all.

7He was oppressed[l] and afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth;[a]

he was led like a lamb[b] to the slaughter,[c]
and as a sheep before her shearers is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
8 By oppression[b] and judgment[d] he was taken away.
And who can speak of his descendants?
For he was cut off from the land of the living;[e]
for the transgression[f] of my people he was stricken.[c] 9 He was assigned a grave with the wicked,[g]
and with the rich[h] in his death, though he had done no violence,[i] nor was any deceit in his mouth.[j]

10 Yet it was the LORD's will[k] to crush[l] him and cause him to suffer,[m]
and though the LORD makes[d] his life a guilt offering,[n] he will see his offspring[o] and prolong his days,
and the will of the LORD will prosper[p] in his hand.
11 After the suffering[q] of his soul, he will see the light[r] ⌊of life⌋[e] and
be satisfied[f];
by his knowledge[g] my righteous servant[s] will justify[t] many,
and he will bear their iniquities.[u] 12 Therefore I will give him a portion among the great,[h v]
and he will divide the spoils[w] with the strong,[i]
because he poured out his life unto death,[x]
and was numbered with the transgressors.[y]
For he bore[z] the sin of many,[a]
and made intercession[b] for the transgressors.

14 In righteousness you will be established: Tyranny will be far from you;
you will have nothing to fear.
Terror will be far removed;
it will not come near you.
15 If anyone does attack you, it will not be my doing; whoever attacks you will surrender to you.

Invitation to the Thirsty

55 "Come, all you who are thirsty,[z] come to the waters;[a]
and you who have no money, come, buy[b] and eat!
Come, buy wine and milk[c]
without money and without cost.[d] 2 Why spend money on what is not bread, and your labor on what does not satisfy?[e] Listen, listen to me, and eat what is good,[f]
and your soul will delight in the richest[g] of fare.
3 Give ear and come to me;
hear[h] me, that your soul may live.[i] I will make an everlasting covenant[j] with you, my faithful love[k] promised to David.[l] 4 See, I have made him a witness[m] to the peoples, a leader and commander[n] of the peoples.
5 Surely you will summon nations[o] you know not,
and nations that do not know you will hasten to you,[p]
because of the LORD your God,
the Holy One[q] of Israel,
for he has endowed you with splendor."[r]

6 Seek[s] the LORD while he may be found;[t] call[u] on him while he is near.
7 Let the wicked forsake[v] his way and the evil man his thoughts.[w] Let him turn[x] to the LORD, and he will have mercy[y] on him, and to our God, for he will freely pardon.[z]

8 "For my thoughts[a] are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,"[b]

so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.[d]

Salvation for Others

56 This is what the LORD says:

"Maintain justice
and do what is right,
for my salvation[l] is close at hand and my righteousness[m] will soon be revealed.
2Blessed[n] is the man who does this,
the man who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath[o] without
desecrating it,
and keeps his hand from doing any evil."
3Let no foreigner[p] who has bound himself to the LORD say,
"The LORD will surely exclude me from his people."[q]
And let not any eunuch[r] complain,
"I am only a dry tree."
4For this is what the LORD says:

"To the eunuchs[s] who keep my Sabbaths,
who choose what pleases me
and hold fast to my covenant[t]— 5to them I will give within my temple and its walls[u]
a memorial[v] and a name better than sons and daughters;
I will give them an everlasting name[w]
that will not be cut off.[x] 6And foreigners[y] who bind themselves to the LORD
to serve[z] him,
to love the name[a] of the LORD,
and to worship him,
all who keep the Sabbath[b] without
desecrating it
and who hold fast to my covenant—
7these I will bring to my holy mountain[c]
and give them joy in my house of prayer.
Their burnt offerings and sacrifices[d]
will be accepted on my altar;
for my house will be called a house of prayer for all nations."[e][f] 8The Sovereign LORD declares—
he who gathers the exiles of Israel:
"I will gather[g] still others to them besides those already gathered."

God's Accusation Against the Wicked

9Come, all you beasts of the field,[h] come and devour, all you beasts of the forest!
10Israel's watchmen[i] are blind, they all lack knowledge;[j]
they are all mute dogs,
they cannot bark;
they lie around and dream,
they love to sleep.[k] 11They are dogs with mighty appetites;
they never have enough.
They are shepherds[l] who lack understanding;[m]
they all turn to their own way,[n]
each seeks his own gain.[o] 12"Come," each one cries, "let me get wine![p]
Let us drink our fill of beer!
And tomorrow will be like today,
or even far better."[q]

57 The righteous perish,[r] and no one ponders it in his heart;[s]
devout men are taken away,
and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil.[t] 2Those who walk uprightly[u]
enter into peace;
they find rest[v] as they lie in death.

3"But you—come here, you sons of a sorceress,[w]
you offspring of adulterers[x] and prostitutes![y]
4Whom are you mocking?
At whom do you sneer
and stick out your tongue?
Are you not a brood of rebels,[z]
the offspring of liars?
5You burn with lust among the oaks[a] and under every spreading tree;[b] you sacrifice your children[c] in the ravines
and under the overhanging crags.

Comfort for the Contrite

14And it will be said:

"Build up, build up, prepare the road![y] Remove the obstacles out of the way of my people."[z] 15For this is what the high and lofty[a] One says—he who lives forever,[b] whose name is holy:
"I live in a high[c] and holy place, but also with him who is contrite[d] and lowly in spirit,[e]
to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.[f] 16I will not accuse[g] forever, nor will I always be angry,[h] for then the spirit of man would grow faint before me—
the breath[i] of man that I have created.
17I was enraged by his sinful greed;[j]
I punished him, and hid[k] my face in anger, yet he kept on in his willful ways.[l] 18I have seen his ways, but I will heal[m] him;
I will guide[n] him and restore comfort[o] to him, 19 creating praise on the lips[p] of the mourners in Israel.
Peace, peace,[q] to those far and near,"[r] says the LORD. "And I will heal them." 20But the wicked[s] are like the tossing sea,[t]
which cannot rest,
whose waves cast up mire[u] and mud.
21"There is no peace,"[v] says my God,
"for the wicked."[w]

[a]8 Or your righteous One

They rely[a] on empty arguments and speak lies;[b]
they conceive trouble and give birth to evil.[c] 5They hatch the eggs of vipers[d]
and spin a spider's web.[e] Whoever eats their eggs will die, and when one is broken, an adder is hatched.
6Their cobwebs are useless for
clothing;
they cannot cover themselves with what they make.[f]
Their deeds are evil deeds, and acts of violence[g] are in their hands.
7Their feet rush into sin;
they are swift to shed innocent blood.[h]
Their thoughts are evil thoughts;[i] ruin and destruction mark their
ways.[j] 8The way of peace they do not know;[k]
there is no justice in their paths.
They have turned them into crooked roads;[l]
no one who walks in them will know peace.[m]

9So justice is far from us, and righteousness does not reach
us.
We look for light, but all is darkness;[n]
for brightness, but we walk in deep shadows.
10Like the blind[o] we grope along the
wall,
feeling our way like men without
eyes.
At midday we stumble[p] as if it were twilight;
among the strong, we are like the dead.[q] 11We all growl like bears;
we moan mournfully like doves.[r]
We look for justice, but find none;
for deliverance, but it is far away.

12For our offenses[s] are many in your sight,
and our sins testify[t] against us.
Our offenses are ever with us, and we acknowledge our iniquities:[u] 13rebellion[v] and treachery against the LORD,
turning our backs[w] on our God,
fomenting oppression[x] and revolt, uttering lies[y] our hearts have conceived.
14So justice[z] is driven back, and righteousness[a] stands at a distance;
truth[b] has stumbled in the streets,
honesty cannot enter.
15Truth[c] is nowhere to be found, and whoever shuns evil becomes a prey.

The LORD looked and was displeased that there was no justice.[d] 16He saw that there was no one,[e] he was appalled that there was no one to intervene;[f]
so his own arm worked salvation[g]
for him,
and his own righteousness[h]
sustained him.
17He put on righteousness as his breastplate,[i]
and the helmet[j] of salvation on his head;
he put on the garments[k] of vengeance[l]
and wrapped himself in zeal[m] as in a cloak.
18According to what they have done, so will he repay[n]
wrath to his enemies
and retribution to his foes;
he will repay the islands[o] their due.
19From the west,[p] men will fear the
name of the LORD,
and from the rising of the sun,[q]
they will revere his glory.[r]
For he will come like a pent-up flood that the breath[s] of the LORD drives along.[p]
20"The Redeemer[t] will come to Zion,[u] to those in Jacob who repent of their sins,"[v]
declares the LORD.

21"As for me, this is my covenant[w] with them," says the LORD. "My Spirit,[x] who is on you, and my words that I have put in your mouth[y] will not depart from your mouth,[z] or from the mouths of your children, or from the mouths of their descendants from this time on and forever," says the LORD.

The Year of the LORD's Favor

61 The Spirit[k] of the Sovereign LORD[l] is on me, because the LORD has anointed[m] me to preach good news[n] to the poor.[o]
He has sent me to bind up[p] the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom[q] for the captives[r] and release from darkness for the prisoners,[r] 2to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor[s] and the day of vengeance[t] of our God, to comfort[u] all who mourn,[v] 3 and provide for those who grieve in Zion—to bestow on them a crown[w] of beauty instead of ashes,[x]
the oil[y] of gladness
instead of mourning,[z]
and a garment of praise
instead of a spirit of despair.
They will be called oaks of righteousness,
a planting[a] of the LORD
for the display of his splendor.[b]

4They will rebuild the ancient ruins[c]
and restore the places long devastated;
they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.
5Aliens[d] will shepherd your flocks; foreigners will work your fields and vineyards.

God's Day of Vengeance and Redemption

63 Who is this coming from Edom,[f]
from Bozrah,[g] with his garments stained crimson?[h]
Who is this, robed in splendor, striding forward in the greatness of his strength?[i]

"It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save."[j]

2Why are your garments red, like those of one treading the winepress?[k]

3"I have trodden the winepress[l]
alone;
from the nations no one was
with me.
I trampled[m] them in my anger and trod them down in my wrath;[n]
their blood spattered my garments,[o]
and I stained all my clothing.
4For the day of vengeance[p] was in
my heart,
and the year of my redemption
has come.
5I looked, but there was no one[q] to help,
I was appalled that no one gave support;
so my own arm[r] worked salvation
for me,
and my own wrath sustained me.[s] 6I trampled[t] the nations in my anger;
in my wrath I made them drunk[u] and poured their blood[v] on the ground."

Praise and Prayer

7I will tell of the kindnesses[w] of the LORD,
the deeds for which he is to be praised,
according to all the LORD has done
for us—
yes, the many good things[x] he has
done
for the house of Israel,

[s]4 Hephzibah means my delight is in her. [t]4 Beulah means married. [u]5 Or Builder according to his compassion[a] and many kindnesses.

8He said, "Surely they are my people,[b]
sons who will not be false to
me";
and so he became their Savior.[c] 9In all their distress he too was distressed,
and the angel[d] of his presence[e]
saved them.
In his love and mercy he redeemed[f]
them;
he lifted them up and carried[g]
them
all the days of old.[h] 10Yet they rebelled[i]
and grieved his Holy Spirit.[j]
So he turned and became their enemy[k]
and he himself fought[l] against
them.

11Then his people recalled[v] the days
of old,
the days of Moses and his
people—
where is he who brought them through the sea,[m]
with the shepherd of his flock?[n]
Where is he who set
his Holy Spirit[o] among them, 12who sent his glorious arm[p] of power to be at Moses' right hand, who divided the waters[q] before
them,
to gain for himself everlasting renown,[r] 13who led[s] them through the depths?[t]
Like a horse in open country,
they did not stumble;[u] 14like cattle that go down to the plain, they were given rest[v] by the Spirit
of the LORD.
This is how you guided your people to make for yourself a glorious
name.

15Look down from heaven[w] and see from your lofty throne,[x] holy and
glorious.
Where are your zeal[y] and your
might?
Your tenderness and compassion[z]
are withheld[a] from us.
16But you are our Father,[b] though Abraham does not know
us
or Israel acknowledge[c] us;
you, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer[d] from of old is your
name.

19We are yours from of old;
but you have not ruled over them, they have not been called by your 64 Oh, that you would rend the

that the mountains[p] would tremble before you!
2As when fire sets twigs ablaze
and causes water to boil, come down to make your name[q]

wait for him.[v] 5You come to the help of those who gladly do right,[w]
who remember your ways.
But when we continued to sin
against them,
you were angry.[x]
How then can we be saved?
6All of us have become like one who is unclean,[y]

filthy rags;
we all shrivel up like a leaf,[a]
and like the wind our sins sweep us away.[b]

we are all the work of your hand.[e] 9 Do not be angry[f] beyond measure,
O LORD;
do not remember our sins[g]
forever.
Oh, look upon us, we pray,
for we are all your people.[h] 10 Your sacred cities[i] have become a desert;
even Zion is a desert, Jerusalem a desolation.[j]
11 Our holy and glorious temple,[k]

you,
has been burned with fire,
and all that we treasured[l] lies in
ruins.
12 After all this, O LORD, will you hold yourself back?[m]
Will you keep silent[n] and punish us beyond measure?

Judgment and Salvation

a fire that keeps burning all day.

back[b] in full;

fathers,"[e]
says the LORD.
"Because they burned sacrifices on
the mountains
and defied me on the hills,[f]
I will measure into their laps the full payment[g] for their former deeds."

8 This is what the LORD says:

"As when juice is still found in a cluster of grapes[h]
and men say, 'Don't destroy it, there is yet some good in it,' so will I do in behalf of my servants;[i]
I will not destroy them all.
9 I will bring forth descendants[j] from Jacob,
and from Judah those who will possess[k] my mountains;
my chosen[l] people will inherit
them,
and there will my servants live.[m] 10 Sharon[n] will become a pasture for flocks,[o]
and the Valley of Achor[p] a resting place for herds,
for my people who seek[q] me.

11 "But as for you who forsake[r] the
LORD
and forget my holy mountain,[s] who spread a table for Fortune and fill bowls of mixed wine[t] for Destiny,
12 I will destine you for the sword,[u] and you will all bend down for the slaughter;[v]
for I called but you did not answer,[w]
I spoke but you did not listen.[x]
You did evil in my sight and chose what displeases me."[y]

13 Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"My servants will eat,[z] but you will go hungry;[a] my servants will drink,[b] but you will go thirsty;[c] my servants will rejoice,[d] but you will be put to shame.[e]

but you will cry out[a] from anguish of heart
and wail in brokenness of spirit.
15You will leave your name to my chosen ones as a curse;[b]

death,
but to his servants he will give another name.[c] 16Whoever invokes a blessing[d] in the
land
will do so by the God of truth;[e] he who takes an oath in the land will swear[f] by the God of truth.
For the past troubles[g] will be forgotten
and hidden from my eyes.

New Heavens and a New Earth

17"Behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth.[h]
The former things will not be remembered,[i]
nor will they come to mind.
18But be glad and rejoice[j] forever in what I will create,
for I will create Jerusalem[k] to be a delight
and its people a joy.
19I will rejoice[l] over Jerusalem and take delight[m] in my people;
the sound of weeping and of crying[n]
will be heard in it no more.

20"Never again will there be in it an infant[o] who lives but a few
days,
or an old man who does not live out his years;[p]
he who dies at a hundred will be thought a mere youth;
he who fails to reach[x] a hundred will be considered accursed.
21They will build houses[q] and dwell in
them;
they will plant vineyards and eat their fruit.[r] 22No longer will they build houses and others live in them,[s]
or plant and others eat.
For as the days of a tree,[t]
so will be the days[u] of my people;
my chosen[v] ones will long enjoy the works of their hands.
23They will not toil in vain[w] or bear children doomed to misfortune;[x]
for they will be a people blessed[y] by
the LORD,
they and their descendants[z] with
them.
24Before they call[a] I will answer;[b] while they are still speaking[c] I will hear.
25The wolf and the lamb[d] will feed
together,
and the lion will eat straw like the ox,[e]
but dust will be the serpent's[f]
food.
They will neither harm nor destroy on all my holy mountain,"[g]
says the LORD.

Judgment and Hope

66

This is what the LORD says:
"Heaven is my throne,[h] and the earth is my footstool.[i] Where is the house[j] you will build
for me?
Where will my resting place be?
2Has not my hand made all these things,[k]
and so they came into being?"
declares the LORD.

"This is the one I esteem:
he who is humble and contrite in spirit,[l]
and trembles at my word.[m] 3But whoever sacrifices a bull[n] is like one who kills a man, and whoever offers a lamb,
like one who breaks a dog's neck;
whoever makes a grain offering is like one who presents pig's[o]
blood,
and whoever burns memorial incense,[p]
like one who worships an idol.
They have chosen their own ways,[q] and their souls delight in their abominations;[r] 4so I also will choose harsh treatment
for them
and will bring upon them what they dread.[s]
For when I called, no one answered,[t]
when I spoke, no one listened.
They did evil[u] in my sight and chose what displeases me."[v]

5Hear the word of the LORD,
you who tremble at his word:[w]
"Your brothers who hate[x] you, and exclude you because of my name, have said,
'Let the LORD be glorified,
that we may see your joy!'

Yet they will be put to shame.[a] 6Hear that uproar from the city, hear that noise from the temple!
It is the sound[b] of the LORD repaying[c] his enemies all they deserve.

7"Before she goes into labor,[d]
she gives birth;
before the pains come upon her,
she delivers a son.[e] 8Who has ever heard of such a thing?
Who has ever seen[f] such things?
Can a country be born in a day[g] or a nation be brought forth in a moment?
Yet no sooner is Zion in labor than she gives birth to her children.[h] 9Do I bring to the moment of birth[i]
and not give delivery?" says the
LORD.
"Do I close up the womb when I bring to delivery?" says
your God.
10"Rejoice[j] with Jerusalem and be glad for her,
all you who love[k] her;
rejoice greatly with her,
all you who mourn[l] over her.
11For you will nurse[m] and be satisfied
at her comforting breasts;[n] you will drink deeply and delight in her overflowing abundance."[o]

12For this is what the LORD says:

"I will extend peace[p] to her like a river,[q]
and the wealth[r] of nations like a flooding stream;
you will nurse and be carried[s] on her arm
and dandled on her knees.
13As a mother comforts her child,[t]
so will I comfort[u] you;
and you will be comforted over Jerusalem." 14When you see this, your heart will rejoice[v]
and you will flourish[w] like grass;
the hand[x] of the LORD will be made known to his servants,[y] but his fury[z] will be shown to his foes.
15See, the LORD is coming with fire,[a]
and his chariots[b] are like a whirlwind;[c]
he will bring down his anger with fury,
and his rebuke[d] with flames of
fire.
16For with fire[e] and with his sword[f]
the LORD will execute judgment[g]
upon all men,
and many will be those slain[h] by
the LORD.

17"Those who consecrate and purify themselves to go into the gardens,[i] following the one in the midst of[y] those who eat the flesh of pigs[j] and rats[k] and other abominable things—they will meet their end[l] together," declares the LORD.
18"And I, because of their actions and their imaginations,[m] am about to come[z] and gather all nations[n] and tongues, and they will come and see my glory.[o]
19"I will set a sign[p] among them, and I will send some of those who survive[q] to the nations—to Tarshish,[r] to the Libyans[a] and Lydians[s] (famous as archers), to Tubal[t] and Greece,[u] and to the distant islands[v] that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory.[w] They will proclaim my glory among the nations. 20And they will bring[x] all your brothers, from all the nations, to my holy mountain[y] in Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD—on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels," says the LORD. "They will bring them, as the Israelites bring their grain offerings, to the temple of the LORD in ceremonially clean vessels.[a] 21And I will select some of them also to be priests[b] and Levites," says the
LORD.
22"As the new heavens and the new earth[c] that I make will endure before me," declares the LORD, "so will your name and descendants endure.[d] 23From one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath[e] to another, all mankind will come and bow down[f] before me," says the LORD. 24"And they will go out and look upon the dead bodies[g]
of those who rebelled[h] against me; their worm[i] will not die, nor will their fire be quenched,[j] and they will be loathsome to all mankind."

Jeremiah

1 The words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests at Anathoth[a] in the territory of Benjamin.
2The word of the LORD came[b] to him in the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah[c] son of Amon king of Judah, 3and through the reign of Jehoiakim[d] son of Josiah king of Judah, down to the fifth month of the eleventh year of Zedekiah[e] son of Josiah king of Judah, when the people of Jerusalem went into exile.[f]

The Call of Jeremiah

4The word of the LORD came to me,
saying,

5"Before I formed you in the womb[g] I knew[a][h] you,
before you were born[i] I set you apart;[j]
I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.[k]"

6"Ah, Sovereign LORD," I said, "I do not know how to speak;[l] I am only a child."[m]

7But the LORD said to me, "Do not say, 'I am only a child.' You must go to everyone I send you to and say whatever I command you. 8Do not be afraid[n] of them, for I am with you[o] and will rescue[p] you," declares the LORD.[q]

9Then the LORD reached out his hand and touched[r] my mouth and said to me, "Now, I have put my words in your mouth.[s] 10See, today I appoint you over nations[t] and kingdoms to uproot[u] and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant."[v]

11The word of the LORD came to me:
"What do you see, Jeremiah?"[w]

"I see the branch of an almond tree,"
I replied.

12The LORD said to me, "You have seen correctly, for I am watching[b][x] to see that my word is fulfilled."

13The word of the LORD came to me again: "What do you see?"[y]

"I see a boiling pot, tilting away from the north," I answered.

14The LORD said to me, "From the north[z] disaster will be poured out on all who live in the land. 15I am about to summon all the peoples of the northern kingdoms," declares the LORD.

"Their kings will come and set up their thrones
in the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem;
they will come against all her surrounding walls
and against all the towns of Judah.[a] 16I will pronounce my judgments[b] on my people
because of their wickedness[c] in forsaking me,[d]
in burning incense to other gods[e] and in worshiping[f] what their hands have made.[g]

17"Get yourself ready! Stand up and say[h] to them whatever I command you. Do not be terrified[i] by them, or I will terrify you before them. 18Today I have made you[j] a fortified city, an iron pillar and a bronze wall to stand against the whole land—against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests and the people of the land. 19They will fight against you but will not overcome[k] you, for I am with you[l] and will rescue[m] you," declares the LORD.

Israel Forsakes God

2 The word[n] of the LORD came to me:
2"Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem:

" 'I remember the devotion of your youth,[o]
how as a bride you loved me and followed me through the desert,[p]
through a land not sown.
3Israel was holy[q] to the LORD,[r]

declares the LORD.

4Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob,
all you clans of the house of Israel.

5This is what the LORD says:

"What fault did your fathers find in
me,
that they strayed so far from me?
They followed worthless idols[c]
and became worthless[d]
themselves.
6They did not ask, 'Where is the
LORD,
who brought us up out of Egypt[e]
and led us through the barren wilderness,
through a land of deserts[f] and rifts,[g]
a land of drought and darkness,[c] a land where no one travels[h] and no one lives?'
7I brought you into a fertile land to eat its fruit and rich produce.[i] But you came and defiled my land and made my inheritance detestable.[j] 8The priests did not ask,
'Where is the LORD?'
Those who deal with the law did not know me;[k]
the leaders[l] rebelled against me.
The prophets prophesied by Baal,[m] following worthless idols.[n]

9"Therefore I bring charges[o] against you again,"
declares the LORD.
"And I will bring charges against your children's children.
10Cross over to the coasts of Kittim[d] [p]
and look,
send to Kedar[e] [q] and observe closely;
see if there has ever been anything like this:
11Has a nation ever changed its gods?
(Yet they are not gods[r] at all.) But my people have exchanged their[f] Glory[s]
for worthless idols.
12Be appalled at this, O heavens, and shudder with great horror,"
declares the LORD.
13"My people have committed two sins:
They have forsaken[t] me,
the spring of living water,[u]
and have dug their own cisterns, broken cisterns that cannot hold
water.
14Is Israel a servant, a slave[v] by birth?
Why then has he become plunder?
15Lions[w] have roared;
they have growled at him.
They have laid waste[x] his land;
his towns are burned[y] and deserted.[z]
16Also, the men of Memphis[g] [a] and Tahpanhes[b]
have shaved the crown of your head.[h] 17Have you not brought this on yourselves[c]
by forsaking[d] the LORD your God when he led you in the way?
18Now why go to Egypt[e]
to drink water from the Shihor[i] ?[f]
And why go to Assyria[g]
to drink water from the River[j] ?[h] 19Your wickedness will punish you; your backsliding[i] will rebuke[j]
you.
Consider then and realize how evil and bitter[k] it is for you when you forsake[l] the LORD your
God
and have no awe[m] of me,"
declares the Lord,
the LORD Almighty.

20"Long ago you broke off your yoke[n]
and tore off your bonds;[o]
you said, 'I will not serve you!'[p] Indeed, on every high hill[q]
and under every spreading tree[r] you lay down as a prostitute.[s] 21I had planted[t] you like a choice vine[u]
of sound and reliable stock.
How then did you turn against me into a corrupt,[v] wild vine?
22Although you wash[w] yourself with soda[x]
and use an abundance of soap,
the stain of your guilt is still before
me,"
declares the Sovereign LORD.[y] 23"How can you say, 'I am not defiled;[z]
I have not run after the Baals'?[a] See how you behaved in the valley;[b] consider what you have done.
You are a swift she-camel

[k]2 Or an Arab

what faithless[a] Israel has done? She has gone up on every high hill and under every spreading tree[b] and has committed adultery[c] there. 7 I thought that after she had done all this she would return to me but she did not, and her unfaithful sister[d] Judah saw it.[e] 8 I gave faithless Israel[f] her certificate of divorce[g] and sent her away because of all her adulteries. Yet I saw that her unfaithful sister Judah had no fear;[h] she also went out and committed adultery.
9 Because Israel's immorality mattered so little to her, she defiled the land[i] and committed adultery[j] with stone[k] and wood.[l] 10 In spite of all this, her unfaithful sister Judah did not return[m] to me with all her heart, but only in pretense,[n]" declares the LORD.[o] 11 The LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel is more righteous[p] than unfaithful[q] Judah.[r] 12 Go, proclaim this message toward the north:[s]

" 'Return,[t] faithless[u] Israel,'
declares the LORD,
'I will frown on you no longer,
for I am merciful,'[v] declares the
LORD,
'I will not be angry[w] forever.
13 Only acknowledge[x] your guilt—you have rebelled against the LORD
your God,
you have scattered your favors to foreign gods[y]
under every spreading tree,[z] and have not obeyed[a] me,' "
declares the LORD.

14 "Return,[b] faithless people," declares the LORD, "for I am your husband.[c] I will choose you—one from a town and two from a clan—and bring you to Zion. 15 Then I will give you shepherds[d] after my own heart,[e] who will lead you with knowledge and understanding. 16 In those days, when your numbers have increased greatly in the land," declares the LORD, "men will no longer say, 'The ark[f] of the covenant of the LORD.' It will never enter their minds or be remembered;[g] it will not be missed, nor will another one be made. 17 At that time they will call Jerusalem The Throne[h] of the LORD, and all nations[i] will gather in Jerusalem to honor[j] the name of the LORD.
No longer will they follow the stubbornness of their evil hearts.[k] 18 In those days the house of Judah will join the house of Israel,[l] and together[m] they will come from a northern[n] land to the land[o] I gave your forefathers as an inheritance.
19 "I myself said,

" 'How gladly would I treat you like
sons
and give you a desirable land,[p]
the most beautiful inheritance[q] of any nation.'
I thought you would call me
'Father'[r]
and not turn away from following
me.
20 But like a woman unfaithful to her husband,
so you have been unfaithful[s] to me, O house of Israel,"
declares the LORD.

21 A cry is heard on the barren heights,[t]
the weeping[u] and pleading of the people of Israel,
because they have perverted their
ways
and have forgotten[v] the LORD their
God.
22 "Return,[w] faithless people;
I will cure[x] you of backsliding."[y]

"Yes, we will come to you, for you are the LORD our God.
23 Surely the ⌊idolatrous⌋ commotion on the hills[z]
and mountains is a deception;
surely in the LORD our God is the salvation[a] of Israel.
24 From our youth shameful[b] gods have consumed
the fruits of our fathers' labor—
their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters.
25 Let us lie down in our shame,[c]
and let our disgrace cover us.
We have sinned[d] against the LORD
our God,
both we and our fathers;[e]
from our youth[f] till this day we have not obeyed[g] the LORD our
God."

4 "If you will return[h], O Israel, return to me,"
declares the LORD.
"If you put your detestable idols[i] out of my sight
and no longer go astray, 2 and if in a truthful, just and righteous way

3 This is what the LORD says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem:

"Break up your unplowed ground and do not sow among thorns.
4 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, circumcise your hearts,
you men of Judah and people of Jerusalem,
or my wrath will break out and burn like fire
because of the evil you have
done—
burn with no one to quench it.

Disaster From the North

5 "Announce in Judah and proclaim in Jerusalem and say:
'Sound the trumpet throughout
the land!'
Cry aloud and say:
'Gather together!
Let us flee to the fortified cities!'
6 Raise the signal to go to Zion!
Flee for safety without delay!
For I am bringing disaster from the north,
even terrible destruction."

7 A lion has come out of his lair;
a destroyer of nations has set
out.
He has left his place
to lay waste your land.
Your towns will lie in ruins without inhabitant.
8 So put on sackcloth,
lament and wail,
for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.

9 "In that day," declares the LORD,
"the king and the officials will lose
heart,
the priests will be horrified,
and the prophets will be appalled."

10 Then I said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, how completely you have deceived
this people and Jerusalem by saying,
'You will have peace,' when the sword is at our throats."

11 At that time this people and Jerusalem will be told, "A scorching wind from the barren heights in the desert blows toward my people, but not to winnow or cleanse; 12 a wind too strong for that comes from me.[1] Now I pronounce my judgments against
them."

13 Look! He advances like the clouds, his chariots come like a whirlwind,
his horses are swifter than eagles.
Woe to us! We are ruined!
14 O Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart and be saved.
How long will you harbor wicked
thoughts?
15 A voice is announcing from Dan, proclaiming disaster from the hills of Ephraim.
16 "Tell this to the nations,
proclaim it to Jerusalem:
'A besieging army is coming from a distant land,
raising a war cry against the cities
of Judah.
17 They surround her like men guarding a field,
because she has rebelled against
me,'"
declares the LORD.
18 "Your own conduct and actions have brought this upon you.
This is your punishment.
How bitter it is!
How it pierces to the heart!"

19 Oh, my anguish, my anguish!
I writhe in pain.
Oh, the agony of my heart!
My heart pounds within me,
I cannot keep silent.
For I have heard the sound of the trumpet;
I have heard the battle cry.
20 Disaster follows disaster;
the whole land lies in ruins.
In an instant my tents are
destroyed,
my shelter in a moment.
21 How long must I see the battle standard
and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22 "My people are fools;
they do not know me.
They are senseless children;
they have no understanding.
They are skilled in doing evil;
they know not how to do good."

23I looked at the earth, and it was formless and empty;[a]
and at the heavens,
and their light[b] was gone.
24I looked at the mountains, and they were quaking;[c] all the hills were swaying.
25I looked, and there were no people;
every bird in the sky had flown away.[d] 26I looked, and the fruitful land was a desert;[e]
all its towns lay in ruins[f]
before the LORD, before his fierce anger.[g]

27This is what the LORD says:

"The whole land will be ruined,[h] though I will not destroy[i] it completely.
28Therefore the earth will mourn[j]
and the heavens above grow dark,[k]
because I have spoken and will not relent,[l]
I have decided and will not turn back.[m]"

29At the sound of horsemen and archers[n]
every town takes to flight.[o]
Some go into the thickets;
some climb up among the rocks.[p]
All the towns are deserted;[q]
no one lives in them.

30What are you doing,[r] O devastated
one?
Why dress yourself in scarlet and put on jewels[s] of gold?
Why shade your eyes with paint?[t]
You adorn yourself in vain.
Your lovers[u] despise you;
they seek your life.[v]

31I hear a cry as of a woman in labor,[w]
a groan as of one bearing her first child—
the cry of the Daughter of Zion[x] gasping for breath,[y]
stretching out her hands[z] and
saying,
"Alas! I am fainting;
my life is given over to murderers."[a]

Not One Is Upright

5 "Go up and down[b] the streets of Jerusalem,
look around and consider,[c]
search through her squares.
If you can find but one person[d] who deals honestly[e] and seeks the
truth,
I will forgive[f] this city.
2Although they say, 'As surely as the LORD lives,'[g]
still they are swearing falsely.[h]" 3O LORD, do not your eyes[i] look for
truth?
You struck[j] them, but they felt no
pain;
you crushed them, but they refused correction.[k]

stone[l]
and refused to repent.[m] 4I thought, "These are only the poor; they are foolish,[n]
for they do not know[o] the way of
the LORD,
the requirements of their God.
5So I will go to the leaders[p]
and speak to them;
surely they know the way of the
LORD,
the requirements of their God."
But with one accord they too had broken off the yoke
and torn off the bonds.[q] 6Therefore a lion from the forest[r] will attack them,
a wolf from the desert will ravage[s]
them,
a leopard[t] will lie in wait near their towns
to tear to pieces any who venture
out,
for their rebellion is great and their backslidings many.[u]

7"Why should I forgive you?
Your children have forsaken me and sworn[v] by gods that are not gods.[w]
I supplied all their needs, yet they committed adultery[x]
and thronged to the houses of prostitutes.[y]
8They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for another man's wife.[z]

declares the LORD.
"Should I not avenge[b] myself

Raise the signal over Beth Hakkerem![a]
For disaster looms out of the north,[b]
even terrible destruction.
2I will destroy the Daughter of Zion,[c] so beautiful and delicate.[d] 3Shepherds[e] with their flocks will come against her;
they will pitch their tents around[f]
her,
each tending his own portion."

4"Prepare for battle against her!
Arise, let us attack at noon![g]
But, alas, the daylight is fading, and the shadows of evening grow
long.
5So arise, let us attack at night and destroy her fortresses!"

6This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"Cut down the trees[h]
and build siege ramps[i] against Jerusalem.
This city must be punished;
it is filled with oppression.[j] 7As a well pours out its water, so she pours out her wickedness.
Violence[k] and destruction[l] resound
in her;
her sickness and wounds are ever before me.
8Take warning, O Jerusalem, or I will turn away[m] from you and make your land desolate so no one can live in it."

9This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"Let them glean the remnant[n] of Israel
as thoroughly as a vine;
pass your hand over the branches
again,
like one gathering grapes."

10To whom can I speak and give warning?
Who will listen[o] to me?
Their ears are closed[m][p]
so they cannot hear.[q]
The word[r] of the LORD is offensive to
them;
they find no pleasure in it.
11But I am full of the wrath[s] of the LORD,
and I cannot hold it in.[t]

"Pour it out on the children in the street
and on the young men[u] gathered
together;
both husband and wife will be caught in it,
and the old, those weighed down
with years.[v] 12Their houses will be turned over to others,[w]
together with their fields and their wives,[x]
when I stretch out my hand[y] against those who live in the
land,"
declares the LORD.
13"From the least to the greatest,
all[z] are greedy for gain;[a] prophets and priests alike, all practice deceit.[b] 14They dress the wound of my people as though it were not serious.
'Peace, peace,' they say,

15Are they ashamed of their loathsome conduct?
No, they have no shame at all;
they do not even know how to blush.[d]
So they will fall among the fallen;
they will be brought down when I punish[e] them,"
says the LORD.

16This is what the LORD says:

"Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask for the ancient paths,[f] ask where the good way[g] is, and walk in it,
and you will find rest[h] for your souls.
But you said, 'We will not walk in
it.' 17I appointed watchmen[i] over you and said,
'Listen to the sound of the trumpet!'[j]
But you said, 'We will not listen.'[k] 18Therefore hear, O nations; observe, O witnesses,
what will happen to them.
19Hear, O earth:[l]
I am bringing disaster[m] on this
people,
the fruit of their schemes,[n] because they have not listened to my words[o]
and have rejected my law.[p]

False Religion Worthless

7 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2 "Stand[z] at the gate of the LORD's house and there proclaim this message:

" 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who come through these gates to worship the LORD. 3 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Reform your ways[a] and your actions, and I will let you live[b] in words and say, "This is the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD!" 5 If you really change[e] your ways and your actions and deal with each other justly,[f] 6 if you do not oppress[g] the alien, the fatherless or the widow and do not shed innocent blood[h] in this place, and if you do not follow other gods[i] to your own harm, 7 then I will let you live in this place, in the land[j] I gave your Heaven. They pour out drink offerings to other gods to provoke me to anger. 19But am I the one they are provoking? declares the LORD. Are they not rather harming themselves, to their own shame?

20"'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: My anger and my wrath will be poured out on this place, on man and beast, on the trees of the field and on the fruit of the ground, and it will burn and not be quenched.

21"'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go ahead, add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the meat yourselves! 22For when I brought your forefathers out of Egypt and spoke to them, I did not just give them commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices, 23but I gave them this command: Obey me, and I will be your God and you will be my people. Walk in all the ways I command you, that it may go well with you. 24But they did not listen or pay attention; instead, they followed the stubborn inclinations of their evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. 25From the time your forefathers left Egypt until now, day after day, again and again I sent you my servants the prophets. 26But they did not listen to me or pay attention. They were stiff-necked and did more evil than their forefathers.'

27"When you tell them all this, they will not listen to you; when you call to them, they will not answer. 28Therefore say to them, 'This is the nation that has not obeyed the LORD its God or responded to correction. Truth has perished; it has vanished from their lips. 29Cut off your hair and throw it away; take up a lament on the barren heights, for the LORD has rejected and abandoned this generation that is under his wrath.

The Valley of Slaughter

30"'The people of Judah have done evil in my eyes, declares the LORD. They have set up their detestable idols in the house that bears my Name and have defiled it. 31They have built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom to burn their sons and daughters in the fire—something I did not command, nor did it enter my mind. 32So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call it Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter, for they will bury the dead in Topheth until there is no more room. 33Then the carcasses of this people will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no one to frighten them away. 34I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride and bridegroom in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem, for the land will become desolate.

8

"'At that time, declares the LORD, the bones of the kings and officials of Judah, the bones of the priests and prophets, and the bones of the people of Jerusalem will be removed from their graves. 2They will be exposed to the sun and the moon and all the stars of the heavens, which they have loved and served and which they have followed and consulted and worshiped. They will not be gathered up or buried, but will be like refuse lying on the ground. 3Wherever I banish them, all the survivors of this evil nation will prefer death to life, declares the LORD Almighty.'

Sin and Punishment

4"Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says:

"'When men fall down, do they not get up?
When a man turns away, does he not return?
5Why then have these people turned
away?
Why does Jerusalem always turn

declares the LORD.

[o]13 The meaning of the Hebrew for this sentence is uncertain. [p]18 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain. [q]3 Or lies; / they are not valiant for truth [r]4 Or a deceiving Jacob [s]6 That is, Jeremiah (the Hebrew is singular)

in their deceit they refuse to acknowledge me,"
declares the LORD.

7 Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty says:

"See, I will refine[a] and test[b] them,
for what else can I do
because of the sin of my people?
8 Their tongue[c] is a deadly arrow;
it speaks with deceit.
With his mouth each speaks cordially to his neighbor,[d] but in his heart he sets a trap[e] for him.[f] 9 Should I not punish them for this?"
declares the LORD.
"Should I not avenge[g] myself on such a nation as this?"

10 I will weep and wail for the
mountains
and take up a lament concerning the desert pastures.[h]
They are desolate and untraveled, and the lowing of cattle is not heard.
The birds of the air[i] have fled and the animals are gone.

11 "I will make Jerusalem a heap[j] of
ruins,
a haunt of jackals;[k]
and I will lay waste the towns of Judah[l]
so no one can live there."[m]

12 What man is wise[n] enough to understand this? Who has been instructed by the LORD and can explain it? Why has the land been ruined and laid waste like a desert that no one can cross?
13 The LORD said, "It is because they have forsaken my law, which I set before them; they have not obeyed me or followed my law.[o] 14 Instead, they have followed[p] the stubbornness of their hearts;[q] they have followed the Baals, as their fathers taught them." 15 Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "See, I will make this people eat bitter food[r] and drink poisoned water.[s] 16 I will scatter them among nations[t] that neither they nor their fathers have known,[u] and I will pursue them with the sword[v] until I have destroyed them."[w]

17 This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"Consider now! Call for the wailing women[x] to come;
send for the most skillful of them.
18 Let them come quickly and wail over us
till our eyes overflow with tears and water streams from our eyelids.[y]
19 The sound of wailing is heard from Zion:
'How ruined[z] we are!
How great is our shame!
We must leave our land
because our houses are in ruins.'"[a]

20 Now, O women, hear the word of
the LORD;
open your ears to the words of his mouth.[b]
Teach your daughters how to wail;
teach one another a lament.[c] 21 Death has climbed in through our windows[d]
and has entered our fortresses;
it has cut off the children from the
streets
and the young men[e] from the public squares.

22 Say, "This is what the LORD declares:

" 'The dead bodies of men will lie like refuse[f] on the open field, like cut grain behind the reaper,
with no one to gather them.' "

23 This is what the LORD says:

"Let not the wise man boast of his wisdom[g]
or the strong man boast of his strength[h]
or the rich man boast of his riches,[i] 24 but let him who boasts boast[j] about
this:
that he understands and knows[k]
me,
that I am the LORD,[l] who exercises kindness,[m]
justice and righteousness[n] on
earth,
for in these I delight,"
declares the LORD.

25 "The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I will punish all who are circumcised only in the flesh[o]— 26 Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab and all who live in the desert in distant places.[p][a] For all these nations are really uncircumcised,[q] and even the whole house of Israel is uncircumcised in heart.[r]"

God and Idols

10:12-16pp — Jer 51:15-19

10 Hear what the LORD says to you, O house of Israel. [2]This is what the LORD says:

"Do not learn the ways of the nations[a] or be terrified by signs[b] in the sky, though the nations are terrified by them.
[3]For the customs of the peoples are worthless;
they cut a tree out of the forest,
and a craftsman[c] shapes it with his chisel.[d] [4]They adorn it with silver[e] and gold;
they fasten it with hammer and nails
so it will not totter.[f] [5]Like a scarecrow in a melon patch, their idols cannot speak;[g] they must be carried
because they cannot walk.[h]
Do not fear them;
they can do no harm[i]
nor can they do any good."[j]

[6]No one is like you,[k] O LORD;
you are great,[l]
and your name is mighty in power.
[7]Who should not revere[m] you,
O King of the nations?[n]
This is your due.
Among all the wise men of the nations
and in all their kingdoms, there is no one like you.
[8]They are all senseless[o] and foolish;[p] they are taught by worthless wooden idols.[q] [9]Hammered silver is brought from Tarshish[r] and gold from Uphaz.
What the craftsman and goldsmith have made[s] is then dressed in blue and purple—all made by skilled workers.
[10]But the LORD is the true God;
he is the living God,[t] the eternal King.[u]
When he is angry,[v] the earth trembles;[w]
the nations cannot endure his wrath.[x]

[11]"Tell them this: 'These gods, who did not make the heavens and the earth, will perish[y] from the earth and from under the heavens.' "[a]

for he is the Maker of all things,[l] including Israel, the tribe of his inheritance[m]—
the LORD Almighty is his name.[n]

Coming Destruction

[17]Gather up your belongings[o] to leave the land, you who live under siege.
[18]For this is what the LORD says:
"At this time I will hurl[p] out those who live in this land;
I will bring distress[q] on them so that they may be captured."

[19]Woe to me because of my injury!
My wound[r] is incurable!
Yet I said to myself,
"This is my sickness, and I must endure[s] it." [20]My tent[t] is destroyed;
all its ropes are snapped.
My sons are gone from me and are no more;[u] no one is left now to pitch my tent or to set up my shelter.
[21]The shepherds[v] are senseless[w] and do not inquire of the LORD;[x] so they do not prosper[y]
and all their flock is scattered.[z] [22]Listen! The report is coming—a great commotion from the land of the north![a]

[a]11 The text of this verse is in Aramaic.

It will make the towns of Judah desolate,[a]
a haunt of jackals.[b]

Jeremiah's Prayer

23I know, O LORD, that a man's life is not his own;
it is not for man to direct his steps.[c] 24Correct me, LORD, but only with justice—
not in your anger,[d]
lest you reduce me to nothing.[e][f] 25Pour out your wrath on the nations[g] that do not acknowledge you, on the peoples who do not call on your name.[h]
For they have devoured[i] Jacob;
they have devoured him
completely
and destroyed his homeland.[j]

The Covenant Is Broken

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2"Listen to the terms of this covenant[k] and tell them to the people of Judah and to those who live in Jerusalem. 3Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Cursed[l] is the man who does not obey the terms of this covenant— 4the terms I commanded your forefathers when I brought them out of Egypt,[m] out of the iron-smelting furnace.[n]' I said, 'Obey[o] me and do everything I command you, and you will be my people,[p] and I will be your God. 5Then I will fulfill the oath I swore[q] to your forefathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey'[r]—the land you possess today."
I answered, "Amen,[s] LORD." 6The LORD said to me, "Proclaim[t] all these words in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Listen to the terms of this covenant and follow[u] them. 7From the time I brought your forefathers up from Egypt until today, I warned them again and again,[v] saying, "Obey me." 8But they did not listen or pay attention;[w] instead, they followed the stubbornness of their evil hearts.[x] So I brought on them all the curses[y] of the covenant I had commanded them to follow but that they did not keep.[z]'" 9Then the LORD said to me, "There is a conspiracy[a] among the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem.
10They have returned to the sins of their forefathers,[b] who refused to listen to my words.[c] They have followed other gods[d] to serve them.[e] Both the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken the covenant[f] I made with their forefathers. 11Therefore this is what the LORD says: 'I will bring on them a disaster[g] they cannot escape.[h] Although they cry[i] out to me, I will not listen[j] to them. 12The towns of Judah and the people of Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they burn incense,[k] but they will not help them at all when disaster[l] strikes.
13You have as many gods[m] as you have towns,[n] O Judah; and the altars you have set up to burn incense[o] to that shameful[p] god Baal are as many as the streets of Jerusalem.' 14"Do not pray[q] for this people nor offer any plea or petition for them, because I will not listen[r] when they call to me in the time of their distress.

15"What is my beloved doing in my temple
as she works out her evil schemes with many?
Can consecrated meat[s] avert your punishment?[t]
When you engage in your
wickedness,
then you rejoice.[v]" 16The LORD called you a thriving olive tree[u]
with fruit beautiful in form.
But with the roar of a mighty storm
he will set it on fire,[v]
and its branches will be broken.[w]

17The LORD Almighty, who planted[x] you, has decreed disaster[y] for you, because the house of Israel and the house of Judah have done evil and provoked[z] me to anger by burning incense to Baal.[a]

Plot Against Jeremiah

18Because the LORD revealed their plot to me, I knew it, for at that time he showed me what they were doing. 19I had been like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter;[b] I did not realize that they had plotted[c] against me, saying,

"Let us destroy the tree and its fruit;
let us cut him off from the land of the living,[d]
that his name be remembered[e] no
more."

Jeremiah's Complaint

12 You are always righteous,[l] O LORD, when I bring a case[m] before you.
Yet I would speak with you about your justice:[n]
Why does the way of the wicked prosper?[o]
Why do all the faithless live at ease?
2 You have planted[p] them, and they have taken root;
they grow and bear fruit.[q]
You are always on their lips but far from their hearts.[r] 3 Yet you know me, O LORD;
you see me and test[s] my thoughts about you.
Drag them off like sheep[t] to be butchered!
Set them apart for the day of slaughter![u]
4 How long will the land lie parched[w][v]
and the grass in every field be withered?[w]
Because those who live in it are
wicked,
the animals and birds have perished.[x]
Moreover, the people are saying,
"He will not see what happens to
us."

God's Answer

5 "If you have raced with men on foot and they have worn you out, how can you compete with horses?
If you stumble in safe country,[x]
how will you manage in the thickets[y] by[y] the Jordan?
6 Your brothers, your own family—even they have betrayed you;
they have raised a loud cry against
you.[z]
Do not trust them,
though they speak well of you.[a]

7 "I will forsake[b] my house, abandon[c] my inheritance;
I will give the one I love[d]
into the hands of her enemies.[e] 8 My inheritance has become to me like a lion[f] in the forest.
She roars at me;
therefore I hate her.[g] 9 Has not my inheritance become
to me
like a speckled bird of prey that other birds of prey surround and attack?
Go and gather all the wild beasts;
bring them to devour.[h] 10 Many shepherds[i] will ruin my vineyard
and trample down my field;
they will turn my pleasant field into a desolate wasteland.[j] 11 It will be made a wasteland,[k] parched and desolate before me;[l]
the whole land will be laid waste because there is no one who cares.
12 Over all the barren heights in the desert
destroyers will swarm,
for the sword[m] of the LORD[n] will devour[o]
from one end of the land to the other;[p]
no one will be safe.[q] 13 They will sow wheat but reap thorns;
they will wear themselves out but gain nothing.[r]
So bear the shame of your harvest because of the LORD's fierce anger."[s]

14 This is what the LORD says: "As for all my wicked neighbors who seize the inheritance[t] I gave my people Israel, I will uproot[u] them from their lands and I will uproot[v] the house of Judah from among them. 15 But after I uproot them, I will again have compassion[w] and will bring[x] each of them back to his own inheritance and his own country.
16 And if they learn[y] well the ways of my people and swear by my name, people to swear by Baal[b]—then they will be established among my people.[c] 17But if any nation does not listen, I will completely uproot and destroy[d] it,"

declares the LORD.

A Linen Belt

13 This is what the LORD said to me:
"Go and buy a linen belt and put it around your waist, but do not let it touch water." 2So I bought a belt, as the LORD directed, and put it around my waist.
3Then the word of the LORD came to me a second time:[e] 4"Take the belt you bought and are wearing around your waist, and go now to Perath[z][f] and hide it there in a crevice in the rocks." 5So I went and hid it at Perath, as the LORD told me.[g]
6Many days later the LORD said to me,
"Go now to Perath and get the belt I told you to hide there." 7So I went to Perath and dug up the belt and took it from the place where I had hidden it, but now it was ruined and completely useless.
8Then the word of the LORD came to me: 9"This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way I will ruin the pride of Judah and the great pride[h] of Jerusalem. 10These wicked people, who refuse to listen[i] to my words, who follow the stubbornness of their hearts[j] and go after other gods[k] to serve and worship them,[l] will be like this belt—completely useless![m] 11For as a belt is bound around a man's waist, so I bound the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah to me,' declares the LORD, 'to be my people for my renown[n] and praise and honor.[o]
But they have not listened.'[p]

Wineskins

12"Say to them: 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin should be filled with wine.'
And if they say to you, 'Don't we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine?' 13then tell them, 'This is what the LORD says: I am going to fill with drunkenness[q] all who live in this land, including the kings who sit on David's throne, the priests, the prophets and all those living in Jerusalem. 14I will smash them one against the other, fathers and sons alike, declares the LORD. I will allow no pity[r] or mercy or compassion[s] to keep me from destroying[t] them.'"

Threat of Captivity

15Hear and pay attention,
do not be arrogant,
for the LORD has spoken.[u] 16Give glory[v] to the LORD your God before he brings the darkness, before your feet stumble[w] on the darkening hills.
You hope for light,
but he will turn it to thick
darkness
and change it to deep gloom.[x] 17But if you do not listen,[y]
I will weep in secret
because of your pride;
my eyes will weep bitterly, overflowing with tears,[z] because the LORD's flock[a] will be taken captive.[b]

18Say to the king[c] and to the queen mother,[d]
"Come down from your thrones, for your glorious crowns[e] will fall from your heads." 19The cities in the Negev will be shut
up,
and there will be no one to open
them.
All Judah[f] will be carried into exile, carried completely away.

20Lift up your eyes and see those who are coming from the north.[g]
Where is the flock[h] that was entrusted to you,
the sheep of which you boasted?
21What will you say when ⌊the LORD⌋ sets over you
those you cultivated as your special allies?[i]
Will not pain grip you like that of a woman in labor?[j] 22And if you ask yourself,
"Why has this happened to me?"[k]—
it is because of your many sins[l] that your skirts have been torn off[m]
and your body mistreated.[n] 23Can the Ethiopian[a] change his skin or the leopard its spots?
Neither can you do good who are accustomed to doing evil.[o]

Drought, Famine, Sword

14 This is the word of the LORD to Jeremiah concerning the drought:[j]

2"Judah mourns,[k]
her cities languish;
they wail for the land,
and a cry goes up from Jerusalem.
3The nobles send their servants for
water;
they go to the cisterns
but find no water.[l]
They return with their jars unfilled;
dismayed and despairing,
they cover their heads.[m] 4The ground is cracked because there is no rain in the land;[n]
the farmers are dismayed
and cover their heads.
5Even the doe in the field deserts her newborn fawn because there is no grass.[o] 6Wild donkeys stand on the barren heights[p]
and pant like jackals;
their eyesight fails
for lack of pasture."[q]

7Although our sins testify[r] against
us,
O LORD, do something for the sake of your name.[s]
For our backsliding[t] is great;
we have sinned[u] against you.
8O Hope[v] of Israel,
its Savior[w] in times of distress,[x]
why are you like a stranger in the
land,
like a traveler who stays only a
night?
9Why are you like a man taken by surprise,
like a warrior powerless to save?[y]
You are among[z] us, O LORD, and we bear your name;[a] do not forsake[b] us!

10This is what the LORD says about this people:

"They greatly love to wander;
they do not restrain their feet.[c]
So the LORD does not accept[d] them;
he will now remember[e] their
wickedness
and punish them for their sins."[f]

11Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray[g] for the well-being of this people.
12Although they fast, I will not listen to their cry;[h] though they offer burnt offerings[i] and grain offerings,[j] I will not accept[k] them. Instead, I will destroy them with the sword,[l] famine[m] and plague."[n]

13But I said, "Ah, Sovereign LORD, the prophets[o] keep telling them, 'You will not see the sword or suffer famine.[p] Indeed, I will give you lasting peace[q] in this place.' "

14Then the LORD said to me, "The prophets are prophesying lies[r] in my name. I have not sent[s] them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to you false visions,[b] divinations,[u] idolatries[t] and the delusions of their own minds. 15Therefore, this is what the LORD says about the prophets who are prophesying in my name: I did not send them, yet they are saying, 'No sword or famine will touch this land.' Those same prophets will perish[v] by sword and famine.[w] 16And the people they are prophesying to will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and sword.
There will be no one to bury[x] them or their wives, their sons or their daughters.[y] I will pour out on them the calamity they deserve.[z]

17"Speak this word to them:

" 'Let my eyes overflow with tears[a] night and day without ceasing;
for my virgin[b] daughter—my
people—
has suffered a grievous wound, a crushing blow.[c] 18If I go into the country,
I see those slain by the sword;
if I go into the city,
I see the ravages of famine.[d]

[b]14 Or visions, worthless divinations

Both prophet and priest have gone to a land they know not.[a]' "

[19]Have you rejected Judah completely?[b]
Do you despise Zion?
Why have you afflicted us
so that we cannot be healed?[c] We hoped for peace
but no good has come,
for a time of healing
but there is only terror.[d] [20]O LORD, we acknowledge[e] our
wickedness
and the guilt of our fathers;[f] we have indeed sinned[g] against
you.
[21]For the sake of your name[h] do not despise us;
do not dishonor your glorious throne.[i] Remember your covenant[j] with us and do not break it.
[22]Do any of the worthless idols[k] of the nations bring rain?[l]
Do the skies themselves send down showers?
No, it is you, O LORD our God.
Therefore our hope is in you,
for you are the one who does all this.[m]

15 Then the LORD said to me: "Even if Moses[n] and Samuel[o] were to stand before me, my heart would not go out to this people.[p] Send them away from my presence![q] Let them go!
[2]And if they ask you, 'Where shall we go?' tell them, 'This is what the LORD
says:

" 'Those destined for death, to
death;
those for the sword, to the sword;[r]
those for starvation, to starvation;[s] those for captivity, to captivity.'[t]

[3]"I will send four kinds of destroyers[u] against them," declares the LORD,
"the sword[v] to kill and the dogs[w] to drag away and the birds[x] of the air and the beasts of the earth to devour and destroy.[y] [4]I will make them abhorrent[z] to all the kingdoms of the earth[a] because of what Manasseh[b] son of Hezekiah king of Judah did in Jerusalem.

[5]"Who will have pity[c] on you,
O Jerusalem?
Who will mourn for you?
Who will stop to ask how you are?
[6]You have rejected[d] me," declares
the LORD.
"You keep on backsliding.
So I will lay hands[e] on you and destroy you;
I can no longer show compassion.[f]

declares the LORD.

[10]Alas, my mother, that you gave me birth,[s]
a man with whom the whole land strives and contends![t]
I have neither lent[u] nor borrowed, yet everyone curses[v] me.

[11]The LORD said,

"Surely I will deliver you[w] for a good purpose;
surely I will make your enemies plead[x] with you
in times of disaster and times of
distress.

that will burn against you."

[15]You understand, O LORD; remember me and care for me.

me away;
think of how I suffer reproach for your sake.[c] 16When your words came, I ate[d] them;
they were my joy and my heart's delight,[e]
for I bear your name,[f]
O LORD God Almighty.
17I never sat[g] in the company of revelers,
never made merry with them;
I sat alone because your hand[h] was on me
and you had filled me with indignation.
18Why is my pain unending and my wound grievous and incurable?[i]
Will you be to me like a deceptive brook,
like a spring that fails?[j]

19Therefore this is what the LORD
says:

"If you repent, I will restore you that you may serve[k] me;
if you utter worthy, not worthless,
words,
you will be my spokesman.[l]
Let this people turn to you, but you must not turn to them.

people,
a fortified wall of bronze;
they will fight against you but will not overcome[n] you, for I am with you
to rescue and save you,"[o]
declares the LORD.
21"I will save[p] you from the hands of
the wicked[q]
and redeem[r] you from the grasp of the cruel."[s]

Day of Disaster

16 Then the word of the LORD came to me: 2"You must not marry[t] and have sons or daughters in this place." 3For this is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters born in this land and about the women who are their mothers and the men who are their fathers:[u] 4"They will die of deadly diseases. They will not be mourned or buried[v] but will be like refuse lying on the ground.[w] They will perish by sword and famine,[x] and their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth."[y] 5For this is what the LORD says: "Do not enter a house where there is a funeral meal; do not go to mourn or show sympathy, because I have withdrawn my blessing, my love and my pity[z]
from this people," declares the LORD.
6"Both high and low will die in this land.[a] They will not be buried or mourned,[b] and no one will cut[c] himself or shave[d] his head for them. 7No one will offer food[e] to comfort those who mourn[f] for the dead—not even for a father or a mother—nor will anyone give them a drink to console[g]
them.
8"And do not enter a house where there is feasting and sit down to eat and drink.[h] 9For this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Before your eyes and in your days I will bring an end to the sounds[i] of joy and gladness and to the voices of bride[j] and bridegroom in this place.[k] 10"When you tell these people all this and they ask you, 'Why has the LORD decreed such a great disaster against us? What wrong have we done? What sin have we committed against the LORD our God?'[l] 11then say to them, 'It is because your fathers forsook me,' declares the LORD, 'and followed other gods and served and worshiped[m] them. They forsook me and did not keep my law.[n] 12But you have behaved more wickedly than your fathers.[o] See how each of you is following the stubbornness of his evil heart[p] instead of obeying me. 13So I will throw you out of this land[q] into a land neither you nor your fathers have known,[r] and there you will serve other gods[s] day and night, for I will show you no favor.'[t]
14"However, the days are coming,"[u] declares the LORD, "when men will no longer say, 'As surely as the LORD lives,
who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'[v] 15but they will say, 'As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north[w] and out of all the countries where he had banished them.'[x] For I will restore[y] them to the land I gave their forefathers.[z]
16"But now I will send for many fishermen," declares the LORD, "and they will catch them.[a] After that I will send for many hunters, and they will hunt[b] them down on every mountain and hill and from the crevices of the rocks.[c] 17My eyes are on all their ways; they

fortress,
my refuge[n] in time of distress,
to you the nations will come from the ends of the earth and
say,
"Our fathers possessed nothing but false gods,[o]

good.[q]
20Do men make their own gods?
Yes, but they are not gods!"[r]

21"Therefore I will teach them—

Then they will know that my name[s] is the LORD.

17 "Judah's sin is engraved with an inscribed with a flint point, on the tablets of their hearts[u]

I will enslave you to your enemies[c]

for you have kindled my anger, and it will burn[e] forever."

5This is what the LORD says:

"Cursed is the one who trusts in man,[b]
who depends on flesh for his
strength
and whose heart turns away from the LORD.[c] 6He will be like a bush in the
wastelands;
he will not see prosperity when it comes.
He will dwell in the parched places[d]
of the desert,
in a salt[e] land where no one lives.

7"But blessed[f] is the man who trusts[g] in the LORD,
whose confidence is in him.
8He will be like a tree planted by the
water
that sends out its roots by the stream.[h]
It does not fear when heat comes;
its leaves are always green.
It has no worries in a year of drought[i]
and never fails to bear fruit."[j]

9The heart[k] is deceitful above all things
and beyond cure.
Who can understand it?

10"I the LORD search the heart[l] and examine the mind,[m]
to reward[n] a man according to his conduct,
according to what his deeds deserve."[o]

11Like a partridge that hatches eggs it did not lay
is the man who gains riches by unjust means.
When his life is half gone, they will desert him,
and in the end he will prove to be a fool.[p]

Keeping the Sabbath Holy

19 This is what the LORD said to me:
"Go and stand at the gate of the people, through which the kings of Judah go in and out; stand also at all the other gates of Jerusalem.[f] 20 Say to them, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah and all people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem[g] who come through these gates.[h] 21 This is what the LORD says: Be careful not to carry a load on the Sabbath[i] day or bring it through the gates of Jerusalem.
22 Do not bring a load out of your houses or do any work on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your forefathers.[j] 23 Yet they did not listen or pay attention;[k] they were stiff-necked[l] and would not listen or respond to discipline.[m] 24 But if you are careful to obey me, declares the LORD, and bring no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath, but keep the Sabbath day holy[n] by not doing any work on it, 25 then kings who sit on David's throne[o] will come through the gates of this city with their officials.
They and their officials will come riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by the men of Judah and those living in Jerusalem, and this city will be inhabited forever.[p] 26 People will come from the towns of Judah and the villages around Jerusalem, from the territory of Benjamin and the western foothills, from the hill country and the Negev,[q] bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain offerings, incense and thank offerings to the house of the LORD. 27 But if you do not obey[r] me to keep the Sabbath[s] day holy by not carrying any load as you come through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I will kindle an unquenchable fire[t] in the gates of Jerusalem that will consume her fortresses.'"[u]

At the Potter's House

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2 "Go down to the potter's house, and there I will give you my message." 3 So I went down to the potter's house, and I saw him working at the wheel. 4 But the pot he was shaping from the clay was marred in his hands; so the potter formed it into another pot, shaping it as seemed best to him.
5 Then the word of the LORD came to me: 6 "O house of Israel, can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares the LORD. "Like clay[v] in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand,[w] O house of Israel. 7 If at any time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be uprooted,[x] torn down and destroyed, 8 and if that nation I warned repents of its evil, then I will relent[y] and not inflict on it the disaster[z] I had planned. 9 And if at another time I announce that a nation or kingdom is to be built[a] up and planted, 10 and if it does evil[b] in my sight and does not obey me, then I will reconsider[c] the good I had intended to do for it.[d] 11 "Now therefore say to the people of Judah and those living in Jerusalem,
'This is what the LORD says: Look! I am preparing a disaster[e] for you and devising a plan[f] against you. So turn[g] from your evil ways,[h] each one of you, and reform your ways and your actions.'[i] 12 But they will reply, 'It's no use.[j] We will continue with our own plans; each of us will follow the stubbornness of his evil heart.[k]'"

13 Therefore this is what the LORD
says:

"Inquire among the nations:
Who has ever heard anything like this?[l]
A most horrible[m] thing has been
done
by Virgin[n] Israel.
14 Does the snow of Lebanon ever vanish from its rocky slopes?
Do its cool waters from distant sources
ever cease to flow?[f]
15 Yet my people have forgotten[o] me;
they burn incense[p] to worthless idols,[q]
which made them stumble[r] in their
ways
and in the ancient paths.[s]

[f]14 The meaning of the Hebrew for this sentence is uncertain.

They made them walk in bypaths and on roads not built up.[a] 16 Their land will be laid waste,[b] an object of lasting scorn;[c] all who pass by will be appalled[d]
and will shake their heads.[e] 17 Like a wind[f] from the east,
I will scatter them before their
enemies;
I will show them my back and not my face[g]
in the day of their disaster."

18 They said, "Come, let's make plans[h] against Jeremiah; for the teaching of the law by the priest[i] will not be lost, nor will counsel from the wise,[j] nor the word from the prophets.[k] So come, let's attack him with our tongues[l] and pay no attention to anything he says."

19 Listen to me, O LORD; hear what my accusers[m] are
saying!
20 Should good be repaid with evil?[n]
Yet they have dug a pit[o] for me.
Remember that I stood[p] before you and spoke in their behalf[q] to turn your wrath away from
them.
21 So give their children over to famine;[r]
hand them over to the power of the sword.[s]
Let their wives be made childless and widows;[t]
let their men be put to death, their young men[u] slain by the sword in battle.

houses

for they have dug a pit[w] to capture
me
and have hidden snares[x] for my
feet.
23 But you know, O LORD,
all their plots to kill[y] me.
Do not forgive[z] their crimes or blot out their sins from your sight.
Let them be overthrown before you;
deal with them in the time of your anger.[a]

19 This is what the LORD says: "Go and buy a clay jar from a potter.[b] Take along some of the elders[c] of the people and of the priests 2 and go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom,[d] near the entrance of the Potsherd Gate.
There proclaim the words I tell you,
3 and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, O kings[e] of Judah and people of Jerusalem. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Listen! I am going to bring a disaster[f] on this place that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.[g] 4 For they have forsaken[h] me and made this a place of foreign gods[i]; they have burned sacrifices[j] in it to gods that neither they nor their fathers nor the kings of Judah ever knew, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent.[k] 5 They have built the high places of Baal to burn their sons[l] in the fire as offerings to Baal—something I did not command or mention, nor did it enter my mind.[m] 6 So beware, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when people will no longer call this place Topheth[n] or the Valley of Ben Hinnom,[o] but the Valley of Slaughter.[p] 7 "'In this place I will ruin[g] the plans[q] of Judah and Jerusalem. I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies,[r] at the hands of those who seek their lives, and I will give their carcasses[s] as food[t] to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth. 8 I will devastate this city and make it an object of scorn;[u] all who pass by will be appalled[v] and will scoff because of all its wounds.[w] 9 I will make them eat[x]
the flesh of their sons and daughters, and they will eat one another's flesh during the stress of the siege imposed on them by the enemies[y] who seek their lives.'
10 "Then break the jar[z] while those who go with you are watching, 11 and say to them, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says: I will smash[a] this nation and this city just as this potter's jar is smashed and cannot be repaired. They will bury[b] the dead in Topheth until there is no more room. 12 This is what I will do to this place and to those who live here, declares the LORD. I will make this city like Topheth. 13 The houses[c] in Jerusalem and those of the kings of Judah will be defiled[d] like this place, Topheth—all the houses where they burned incense on the roofs[e] to all the starry hosts[f] and poured out drink offerings[g] to other gods.'"

Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy, and stood in the court[a] of the LORD's temple and said to all the people, 15"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'Listen! I am going to bring on this city and the villages around it every disaster[b] I pronounced against them, because they were stiff-necked[c] and would not listen[d] to my words.' "

Jeremiah and Pashhur

20 When the priest Pashhur son of Immer,[e] the chief officer[f] in the temple of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things, 2he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten[g] and put in the stocks[h] at the Upper Gate of Benjamin[i] at the LORD's temple. 3The next day, when Pashhur released him from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him, "The LORD's name[j] for you is not Pashhur, but Magor-Missabib.[h][k] 4For this is what the LORD says: 'I will make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends; with your own eyes[l] you will see them fall by the sword of their enemies. I will hand[m] all Judah over to the king of Babylon, who will carry[n] them away to Babylon or put them to the sword. 5I will hand over to their enemies all the wealth[o] of this city—all its products, all its valuables and all the treasures of the kings of Judah. They will take it away[p] as plunder and carry it off to Babylon. 6And you, Pashhur, and all who live in your house will go into exile to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you have prophesied[q] lies.' "

Jeremiah's Complaint

7O LORD, you deceived[i][r] me, and I was deceived[i];
you overpowered[s] me and prevailed.
I am ridiculed[t] all day long;
everyone mocks[u] me.
8Whenever I speak, I cry out proclaiming violence and destruction.[v]
So the word of the LORD has brought
me
insult and reproach[w] all day long.
9But if I say, "I will not mention him or speak any more in his name,"[x] his word is in my heart like a fire,[y] a fire shut up in my bones.
I am weary of holding it in;[z] indeed, I cannot.
10I hear many whispering,
"Terror[a] on every side!
Report[b] him! Let's report him!"
All my friends[c] are waiting for me to slip,[d] saying,
"Perhaps he will be deceived;
then we will prevail[e] over him and take our revenge[f] on him." 11But the LORD[g] is with me like a mighty warrior;
so my persecutors[h] will stumble and not prevail.[i]
They will fail and be thoroughly disgraced;[j]
their dishonor will never be forgotten.
12O LORD Almighty, you who examine
the righteous
and probe the heart and mind,[k] let me see your vengeance[l] upon
them,
for to you I have committed[m] my
cause.
13Sing[n] to the LORD!
Give praise to the LORD!
He rescues[o] the life of the needy from the hands of the wicked.[p] 14Cursed be the day I was born![q]
May the day my mother bore me not be blessed!
15Cursed be the man who brought my father the news,
who made him very glad, saying,
"A child is born to you—a son!" 16May that man be like the towns[r]
the LORD overthrew without pity.
May he hear wailing[s] in the
morning,
a battle cry at noon.
17For he did not kill me in the womb,[t]
with my mother as my grave, her womb enlarged forever.
18Why did I ever come out of the womb[u]
to see trouble[v] and sorrow and to end my days in shame?[w]

God Rejects Zedekiah's Request

21 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD when King Zedekiah[x] sent to him Pashhur[y] son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah[z] son of Maaseiah. They said: 2"Inquire[a] now of the LORD for us because Nebuchadnezzar[j][b] king of Babylon[c] is attacking us.

Perhaps the LORD will perform wonders[a] for us as in times past so that he will withdraw from us." 3But Jeremiah answered them, "Tell Zedekiah, 4'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to turn[b] against you the weapons of war that are in your hands, which you are using to fight the king of Babylon and the Babylonians[k] who are outside the wall besieging[c] you. And I will gather them inside this city. 5I myself will fight[d] against you with an outstretched hand[e] and a mighty arm[f] in anger and fury and great wrath. 6I will strike[g] down those who live in this city—both men and animals—and they will die of a terrible plague.[h] 7After that, declares the LORD, I will hand over Zedekiah[i] king of Judah, his officials and the people in this city who survive the plague,[j] sword and famine, to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon[k] and to their enemies[l] who seek their lives.[m]
He will put them to the sword;[n] he will show them no mercy or pity or compassion.'[o]
8"Furthermore, tell the people, 'This is what the LORD says: See, I am setting before you the way of life[p] and the way of death. 9Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague.[q] But whoever goes out and surrenders[r] to the Babylonians who are besieging you will live; he will escape with his life.[s] 10I have determined to do this city harm[t] and not good, declares the LORD. It will be given into the hands[u] of the king of Babylon, and he will destroy it with fire.'[v] 11"Moreover, say to the royal house[w] of Judah, 'Hear the word of the LORD; 12O house of David, this is what the LORD says:

"'Administer justice[x] every
morning;
rescue from the hand of his

Who can enter our refuge?"[e]

deserve,
declares the LORD.
I will kindle a fire[g] in your forests[h]

Judgment Against Evil Kings

22 This is what the LORD says: "Go down to the palace of the king[i] of Judah and proclaim this message there: 2'Hear[j] the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, you who sit on David's throne[k]—you, your officials and your people who come through these gates.[l] 3This is what the LORD says: Do what is just[m] and right. Rescue from the hand of his oppressor[n] the one who has been robbed. Do no wrong or violence to the alien, the fatherless or the widow,[o] and do not shed innocent blood[p] in this place. 4For if you are careful to carry out these commands, then kings[q] who sit on David's throne will come through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, accompanied by their officials and their people. 5But if you do not obey[r] these commands, declares the LORD, I swear[s] by myself that this palace will become a ruin.'"
6For this is what the LORD says about the palace of the king of Judah:

"Though you are like Gilead[t] to me, like the summit of Lebanon,[u] I will surely make you like a desert,[v]
like towns not inhabited.
7I will send destroyers[w] against you,
each man with his weapons,
and they will cut[x] up your fine cedar beams
and throw them into the fire.[y]

8"People from many nations will pass by this city and will ask one another, 'Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?'[z] 9And the answer will be: 'Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God and have worshiped and served other gods.[a]'"

10Do not weep for the dead[b] king, or mourn[c] his loss;
rather, weep bitterly for him who
is exiled,
because he will never return[d]
nor see his native land again.

k4 Or Chaldeans; also in verse 9

11 For this is what the LORD says about Shallum[l][a] son of Josiah, who succeeded his father as king of Judah but has gone from this place: "He will never return. 12 He will die[b] in the place where they have led him captive; he will not see this land again."

13 "Woe[c] to him who builds[d] his palace by unrighteousness, his upper rooms by injustice, making his countrymen work for
nothing,
not paying[e] them for their labor.
14 He says, 'I will build myself a great palace[f]
with spacious upper rooms.'
So he makes large windows in it, panels it with cedar[g]
and decorates it in red.[h]

15 "Does it make you a king to have more and more cedar?
Did not your father have food and drink?
He did what was right and just,[i] so all went well[j] with him.
16 He defended the cause of the poor and needy,[k]
and so all went well.
Is that not what it means to know[l]
me?"
declares the LORD.
17 "But your eyes and your heart are set only on dishonest gain,[m] on shedding innocent blood[n]
and on oppression and extortion."[o]

18 Therefore this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah:

"They will not mourn[p] for him:
'Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!'
They will not mourn for him:
'Alas, my master! Alas, his
splendor!'
19 He will have the burial[q] of a donkey—
dragged away and thrown[r]
outside the gates of Jerusalem."

20 "Go up to Lebanon and cry out,[s] let your voice be heard in Bashan,[t]
cry out from Abarim,[u]
for all your allies[v] are crushed.
21 I warned you when you felt secure,[w]
but you said, 'I will not listen!'
This has been your way from your youth;[x]
you have not obeyed[y] me.
22 The wind[z] will drive all your shepherds[a] away,
and your allies[b] will go into exile.
Then you will be ashamed and disgraced[c]
because of all your wickedness.
23 You who live in 'Lebanon,[m][d]' who are nestled in cedar buildings,
how you will groan when pangs
come upon you,
pain[e] like that of a woman in
labor!

24 "As surely as I live," declares the LORD, "even if you, Jehoiachin[n][f] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, were a signet ring[g] on my right hand, I would still pull you off. 25 I will hand you over[h] to those who seek your life, those you fear—to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and to the Babylonians.[o] 26 I will hurl[i] you and the mother[j] who gave you birth into another country, where neither of you was born, and there you both will die. 27 You will never come back to the land you long to return[k]
to."

28 Is this man Jehoiachin[l] a despised, broken pot,[m]
an object no one wants?
Why will he and his children be hurled[n] out,
cast into a land[o] they do not
know?
29 O land,[p] land, land,
hear the word of the LORD!
30 This is what the LORD says:
"Record this man as if childless,[q] a man who will not prosper[r] in his lifetime,
for none of his offspring[s] will
prosper,
none will sit on the throne[t] of David
or rule anymore in Judah."

The Righteous Branch

23 "Woe to the shepherds[u] who are

LORD. 2 Therefore this is what the LORD, stowed care on them, I will bestow have done," declares the LORD. 3"I myself will gather the remnant[a] of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them and will bring them back to their pasture,[b] where they will be fruitful and increase in number. 4I will place shepherds[c] over them who will tend them, and they will no longer be afraid[d] or terrified, nor will any be missing," declares the LORD.

5"The days are coming," declares the
LORD,
"when I will raise up to David[p][e] a righteous Branch,[f]
a King[g] who will reign[h] wisely and do what is just and right[i] in
the land.
6In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety.[j]
This is the name[k] by which he will be called:
The LORD Our Righteousness.[l]

7"So then, the days are coming,"[m] declares the LORD, "when people will no longer say, 'As surely as the LORD lives,
who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,'[n] 8but they will say, 'As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the descendants of Israel up out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had banished them.' Then they will live in their own land."[o]

Lying Prophets

9Concerning the prophets:

My heart[p] is broken within me;
all my bones tremble.[q]
I am like a drunken man,
like a man overcome by wine, because of the LORD
and his holy words.[r] 10The land is full of adulterers;[s] because of the curse[q][t] the land lies parched[r]
and the pastures[u] in the desert are withered.[v]
The prophets follow an evil course and use their power unjustly.

11"Both prophet and priest are godless;[w]
even in my temple[x] I find their
wickedness,"
declares the LORD.
12"Therefore their path will become slippery;[y]
they will be banished to darkness and there they will fall.
I will bring disaster on them in the year they are punished,[z]"
declares the LORD.

13"Among the prophets of Samaria
I saw this repulsive thing:
They prophesied by Baal[a]
and led my people Israel astray.[b] 14And among the prophets of
Jerusalem
I have seen something horrible:[c]
They commit adultery and live a lie.[d]
They strengthen the hands of evildoers,[e]
so that no one turns from his wickedness.[f]
They are all like Sodom[g] to me;
the people of Jerusalem are like Gomorrah."[h]

15Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty says concerning the prophets:

"I will make them eat bitter food and drink poisoned water,[i] because from the prophets of Jerusalem
ungodliness[j] has spread throughout the land."

16This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"Do not listen[k] to what the prophets are prophesying to you;
they fill you with false hopes.
They speak visions[l] from their own minds,
not from the mouth[m] of the LORD.
17They keep saying[n] to those who despise me,
'The LORD says: You will have peace.'[o]
And to all who follow the stubbornness[p] of their hearts they say, 'No harm[q] will come to
you.' 18But which of them has stood in the council[r] of the LORD
to see or to hear his word?
Who has listened and heard his word?
19See, the storm[s] of the LORD
will burst out in wrath,
a whirlwind[t] swirling down
on the heads of the wicked.
20The anger[u] of the LORD will not turn back[v]
until he fully accomplishes
the purposes of his heart.
In days to come
you will understand it clearly.
21I did not send[w] these prophets,

in the hearts of these lying prophets, who prophesy the delusions[j] of their they tell one another will make my people forget[l] my name, just as their worship.[n] 28 Let the prophet who has a dream[o] tell his dream, but let the one who has my word[p] speak it faithfully.

declares the LORD. 29 "Is not my word like fire,"[q] declares the LORD, "and like a hammer[r] that breaks a rock in pieces?

30 "Therefore," declares the LORD, "I am against[s] the prophets[t] who steal from one another words supposedly from me. 31 Yes," declares the LORD, "I am against the prophets who wag their own tongues and yet declare, 'The LORD declares.'[u] 32 Indeed, I am against those who prophesy false dreams,[v]" declares the LORD. "They tell them and lead my people astray[w] with their reckless lies,[x] yet I did not send[y] or appoint them. They do not benefit[z] these people in the least," declares the LORD.

False Oracles and False Prophets

33 "When these people, or a prophet or a priest, ask you, 'What is the oracle[s][a] of the LORD?' say to them, 'What the LORD.' 34 If a prophet or a priest or anyone else claims, 'This is the oracle[c] of the LORD,' I will punish[d] that man and his household. 35 This is what each of you keeps on saying to his friend or relative: 'What is the LORD's answer?'[e]

Two Baskets of Figs

24 After Jehoiachin[u][j] son of Jehoia-kim king of Judah and the officials, the craftsmen and the artisans of Judah were carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the LORD showed me two baskets of figs[k] placed in front of the temple of the LORD. 2 One basket had very good figs, like those that ripen early;[l] the other basket had very poor[m] figs, so bad they could not be eaten.

3 Then the LORD asked me, "What do you see,[n] Jeremiah?"

"Figs," I answered. "The good ones are very good, but the poor ones are so bad they cannot be eaten."

4 Then the word of the LORD came to me: 5 "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'Like these good figs, I regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I sent[o] away from this place to the land of the Babylonians.[v] 6 My eyes will watch over them for their good, and I will bring them back[p] to this land. I will build[q] them up and not tear them down; I will plant[r] them and not uproot them. 7 I will give them a heart to know[s] me, that I am the LORD. They will be my people,[t] and I will be their God, for they will return[u] to me with all their heart.[v]

so bad they cannot be eaten,' says the

Seventy Years of Captivity

25 The word came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim[m] son of Josiah king of Judah, which was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar[n] king of Babylon. 2So Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people of Judah[o] and to all those living in Jerusalem: 3For twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of Josiah[p] son of Amon king of Judah until this very day—the word of the LORD has come to me and I have spoken to you again and again,[q] but you have not listened.[r] 4And though the LORD has sent all his servants the prophets[s] to you again and again, you have not listened or paid any attention.[t] 5They said,
"Turn[u] now, each of you, from your evil ways and your evil practices, and you can stay in the land[v] the LORD gave to you and your fathers for ever and ever. 6Do not follow other gods[w] to serve and worship them; do not provoke me to anger with what your hands have made. Then I will not harm
you."
7"But you did not listen to me," declares the LORD, "and you have provoked[x] me with what your hands have made,[y] and you have brought harm[z] to yourselves."
8Therefore the LORD Almighty says this: "Because you have not listened to my words, 9I will summon[a] all the peoples of the north[b] and my servant[c] Nebuchadnezzar[d] king of Babylon," declares the LORD, "and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants and against all the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy[w][e] them and make them an object of horror and scorn,[f] and an everlasting ruin.[g] 10I will banish from them the sounds[h] of joy and gladness, the voices of bride and bridegroom,[i] the sound of millstones[j] and the light of the lamp.[k] 11This whole country will become a desolate wasteland,[l] and these nations will serve[m] the king of Babylon seventy years.[n] 12"But when the seventy years[o] are fulfilled, I will punish the king of Babylon[p] and his nation, the land of the Babylonians,[x] for their guilt," declares the LORD, "and will make it desolate[q] forever. 13I will bring upon that land all the things I have spoken against it, all that are written[r] in this book and prophesied by Jeremiah against all the nations. 14They themselves will be enslaved[s] by many nations[t] and great kings; I will repay[u] them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."

The Cup of God's Wrath

15This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from my hand this cup[v] filled with the wine of my wrath and make all the nations to whom I send[w] you drink it. 16When they drink[x] it, they will stagger[y] and go mad[z] because of the sword[a] I will send among them."
17So I took the cup from the LORD's hand and made all the nations to whom he sent[b] me drink it: 18Jerusa-lem[c] and the towns of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a ruin[d] and an object of horror and scorn[e] and cursing,[f] as they are today;[g] 19Pharaoh king[h] of Egypt,[i] his attendants, his officials and all his people, 20and all the foreign people there; all the kings of Uz;[j] all the kings of the Philistines[k] (those of Ashkelon,[l] Gaza,[m] Ekron, and the people left at Ashdod); 21Edom,[n] Moab[o] and Ammon;[p] 22all the kings of Tyre[q] and Sidon;[r] the kings of the coastlands[s] across the sea; 23Dedan,[t] Tema,[u] Buz[v] and all who are in distant places[y];[w] 24all the kings of Arabia[x] and all the kings of the foreign people[y] who live in the desert;

Jeremiah Threatened With Death

26 Early in the reign of Jehoiakim[m] son of Josiah king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: 2 "This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard[n] of the LORD's house and speak to all the people of the towns of Judah who come to worship in the house of the LORD.[o] Tell[p] them everything I command you; do not omit[q] a word.
3 Perhaps they will listen and each will turn[r] from his evil way. Then I will relent[s] and not bring on them the disaster I was planning because of the evil they have done. 4 Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: If you do not listen[t] to me and follow my law,[u] which I have set before you, 5 and if you do not listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I have sent to you again and again (though you have not listened[v]), 6 then I will make this house like Shiloh[w] and this city an object of cursing[x] among all the nations of the
earth.' "
7 The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speak these words in the house of the LORD. 8 But as soon as Jeremiah finished telling all the people everything the LORD had commanded[y] him to say, the priests, the prophets and all the people seized[z] him and said, "You must die![a] 9 Why do you prophesy in the LORD's name that this house will be like Shiloh and this city will be desolate and deserted?"[b] And all the people crowded[c]

[*]26 Sheshach is a cryptogram for Babylon.
[*]38 Some Hebrew manuscripts and Septuagint (see also Jer. 46:16 and 50:16); most Hebrew manuscripts anger around Jeremiah in the house of the

LORD.
10 When the officials[a] of Judah heard about these things, they went up from the royal palace to the house of the LORD and took their places at the entrance of the New Gate[b] of the LORD's house. 11 Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and all the people, "This man should be sentenced to death[c] because he has prophesied against this city. You have heard it with your own ears!"[d] 12 Then Jeremiah said to all the officials[e] and all the people: "The LORD sent me to prophesy[f] against this house and this city all the things you have heard.[g] 13 Now reform[h] your ways and your actions and obey[i] the LORD your God. Then the LORD will relent[j] and not bring the disaster he has pronounced against you. 14 As for me, I am in your hands;[k] do with me whatever you think is good and right. 15 Be assured, however, that if you put me to death, you will bring the guilt of innocent blood[l] on yourselves and on this city and on those who live in it, for in truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words[m] in your hearing."
16 Then the officials[n] and all the people said to the priests and the prophets, "This man should not be sentenced to death![o] He has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our
God."
17 Some of the elders of the land stepped forward and said to the entire assembly of people, 18 "Micah[p] of Moresheth prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah. He told all the people of Judah, 'This is what the LORD Almighty says:

" 'Zion[q] will be plowed like a
field,
Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble,[r]
the temple hill[s] a mound overgrown with thickets.'[b][t]

19 "Did Hezekiah king of Judah or anyone else in Judah put him to death? Did not Hezekiah[u] fear the LORD and seek[v] his favor? And did not the LORD relent,[w] so that he did not bring the disaster[x] he pronounced against them?
We are about to bring a terrible disaster[y] on ourselves!" 20 (Now Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath Jearim[z] was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD; he prophesied the same things against this city and this land as Jeremiah did.
21 When King Jehoiakim[a] and all his officers and officials[b] heard his words, the king sought to put him to death.[c]
But Uriah heard of it and fled[d] in fear to Egypt. 22 King Jehoiakim, however, sent Elnathan[e] son of Acbor to Egypt, along with some other men. 23 They brought Uriah out of Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim, who had him struck down with a sword[f] and his body thrown into the burial place of the common people.)[g] 24 Furthermore, Ahikam[h] son of Shaphan supported Jeremiah, and so he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.

Judah to Serve Nebuchadnezzar

27 Early in the reign of Zedekiah[c][i]
son of Josiah king of Judah, this
word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:
2 This is what the LORD said to me:
"Make a yoke[j] out of straps and cross-bars and put it on your neck. 3 Then send[k] word to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon,[l] Tyre and Sidon[m] through the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah.
4 Give them a message for their masters and say, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "Tell this to your masters: 5 With my great power and outstretched arm[n] I made[o]
the earth and its people and the animals[p] that are on it, and I give[q] it to anyone I please. 6 Now I will hand all your countries over to my servant[r] Nebuchadnezzar[s] king of Babylon; I will make even the wild animals subject to him.[t] 7 All nations will serve[u] him and his son and his grandson until the time[v] for his land comes; then many nations and great kings will subjugate[w] him.
8 " ' "If, however, any nation or kingdom will not serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon or bow its neck under his yoke, I will punish[x] that nation with the sword,[y] famine[z] and plague,[a] declares the LORD, until I destroy it by his hand. 9 So do not listen to will perish. 11But if any nation will bow its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him, I will let that nation remain in its own land to till it and to live there, declares the

LORD.'"

12I gave the same message to Zedekiah king of Judah. I said, "Bow your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon; serve him and his people, and you will live. 13Why will you and your people die by the sword, famine and plague with which the LORD has threatened any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14Do not listen to the words of the prophets who say to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,' for they are prophe-sying lies to you. 15'I have not sent them,' declares the LORD. 'They are prophesying lies in my name. Therefore, I will banish you and you will perish, both you and the prophets who prophesy to you.'"

16Then I said to the priests and all these people, "This is what the LORD says: Do not listen to the prophets who say, 'Very soon now the articles from the LORD's house will be brought back from Babylon.' They are prophesying lies to you. 17Do not listen to them.
Serve the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this city become a ruin? 18If they are prophets and have the word of the LORD, let them plead with the LORD Almighty that the furnishings remaining in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem not be taken to Babylon. 19For this is what the LORD Almighty says about the pillars, the Sea, the movable stands and the other furnishings that are left in this city, 20which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon did not take away when he carried Jehoiachin[a] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, along with all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem— 21yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about the things that are left in the house of the LORD and in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem: 22'They will be taken to Babylon and there they will remain until the day I come for them,' declares the LORD. 'Then I will bring them back and restore them to this place.'"

The False Prophet Hananiah

28 In the fifth month of that same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, said to me in the house of the LORD in the presence of the priests and all the people: 2"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. 3Within two years I will bring back to this place all the articles of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon removed from here and took to Babylon. 4I will also bring back to this place Jehoiachin[a] son of Jehoiakim king of Judah and all the other exiles from Judah who went to Babylon,' declares the LORD,
'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

5Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah before the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the LORD. 6He said, "Amen! May the LORD do so! May the LORD fulfill the words you have prophesied by bringing the articles of the LORD's house and all the exiles back to this place from Babylon. 7Neverthe-less, listen to what I have to say in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people: 8From early times the prophets who preceded you and me have prophesied war, disaster and plague against many countries and great kingdoms.
9But the prophet who prophesies peace will be recognized as one truly sent by the LORD only if his prediction comes true."

10Then the prophet Hananiah took the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it, 11and he said before all the people, "This is what the LORD says: 'In the same way will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon off the neck of all the nations within two years.'" At this, the prophet Jeremiah went on his way.

12Shortly after the prophet Hananiah had broken the yoke off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 13"Go and tell Hana-niah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but in its place you will get a yoke of iron. 14This
is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations to make them serve Nebuchadnezzar king of

[a]20,4 Hebrew Jeconiah, a variant of Jehoiachin

Babylon, and they will serve him. I will even give him control over the wild animals.[e]' "

15 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent[f] you, yet you have persuaded this nation to trust in lies.[g] 16 Therefore, this is what the LORD says: 'I am about to remove you from the face of the earth.[h] This very year you are going to die,[i] because you have preached rebellion[j] against the LORD.' "

17 In the seventh month of that same year, Hananiah the prophet died.[k]

A Letter to the Exiles

29 This is the text of the letter[l] that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders among the exiles and to the priests, the prophets and all the other people Nebuchadnezzar had carried into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.[m] 2 (This was after King Jehoiachin[a][n] and the queen mother,[o] the court officials and the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen and the artisans had gone into exile from Jerusalem.) 3 He entrusted the letter to Elasah son of Shaphan and to Gemariah son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to King Nebuchadnezzar in Babylon. It said:

4 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says to all those I carried[p] into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: 5 "Build[q] houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce. 6 Marry and have sons and daughters; find wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Increase in number there; do not decrease.[r] 7 Also, seek[s] the peace and prosperity of the city to which I have carried you into exile. Pray[t] to the LORD for it, because if it prospers, you too will prosper." 8 Yes, this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "Do not let the prophets[u] and diviners among you deceive[v] you. Do not listen to the dreams[w] you encourage them to have.[x] 9 They are prophesying lies[y] to you in my name. I have not sent[z] them," declares the LORD.

10 This is what the LORD says: "When seventy years[a] are completed for Babylon, I will come to you[b] and fulfill my gracious promise[c] to bring you back[d] to this place. 11 For I know the plans[e] I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper[f] you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.[g] 12 Then you will call[h] upon me and come and pray[i] to me, and I will listen[j] to you. 13 You will seek[k] me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.[l] 14 I will be found by you," declares the LORD, "and will bring you back[m] from captivity.[b] I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have banished you," declares the LORD, "and will bring you back to the place from which I carried you into exile."[n]

15 You may say, "The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon," 16 but this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and all the people who remain in this city, your countrymen who did not go with you into exile— 17 yes, this is what the LORD Almighty says: "I will send the sword, famine and plague[o] against them and I will make them like poor figs[p] that are so bad they cannot be eaten. 18 I will pursue them with the sword, famine and plague and will make them abhorrent[q] to all the kingdoms of the earth and an object of cursing[r] and horror,[s] of scorn[t] and reproach, among all the nations where I drive them. 19 For they have not listened to my words,"[u] declares the LORD, "words that I sent to them again and again[v] by my servants the prophets.[w] And you exiles have not listened either," declares the LORD.

20 Therefore, hear the word of the LORD, all you exiles whom I have sent[x] away from Jerusalem to Babylon. 21 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying lies[y] to you in my name: "I will hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he will put them to death before your very eyes. 22 Because of them, all the exiles from Judah who are in Babylon will use this curse:

The LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned[a] in the fire.' 23For they have done outrageous things in Israel; they have committed adultery[b] with their neighbors' wives

declares the LORD.

Message to Shemaiah

24Tell Shemaiah the Nehelamite, 25"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You sent letters in your own name to all the people in Jerusalem, to Zephaniah[e] son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the other priests. You said to Zephaniah, 26'The LORD has appointed you priest in place of Jehoiada to be in charge of the house of the LORD; you should put any madman[f] who acts like a prophet into the stocks[g] and neck-irons. 27So why have you not reprimanded Jeremiah from Anathoth, who poses as a prophet among you? 28He has sent this message[h] to us in Babylon: It will be a long time.[i] Therefore build[j] houses and settle down; plant gardens and eat what they produce.'"

29Zephaniah[k] the priest, however, read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet.
30Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 31"Send this message to all the exiles: 'This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah[l] the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, even though I did not send[m] him, and has led you to believe a lie, 32this is what the LORD says: I will surely punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite and his descendants.[n] He will have no one left among this people, nor will he see the good[o] things I will do for my people, declares the LORD, because he has preached rebellion[p] against me.'"

Restoration of Israel

30 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:
'Write[q] in a book all the words I have spoken to you. 3The days[r] are coming,' declares the LORD, 'when I will bring[s] my people Israel and Judah back from captivity[g] and restore[t] them to the land I gave their forefathers to possess,' says the LORD."

4These are the words the LORD spoke concerning Israel and Judah: 5"This is terror, not peace.

6Ask and see:
Can a man bear children?
Then why do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labor,[v]
every face turned deathly pale?[w] 7How awful that day[x] will be!
None will be like it.
It will be a time of trouble[y] for Jacob, but he will be saved[z] out of it.

8" 'In that day,' declares the LORD
Almighty,
'I will break the yoke[a] off their necks
and will tear off their bonds;[b] no longer will foreigners enslave them.[c] 9Instead, they will serve the LORD
their God
and David[d] their king,[e] whom I will raise up for them.

10" 'So do not fear,[f] O Jacob my do not be dismayed, O Israel,'

declares the LORD.
'I will surely save[h] you out of a distant place,
your descendants from the land of their exile.
Jacob will again have peace and security,[i]
and no one will make him afraid.[j]

declares the LORD.

nations
among which I scatter you,
I will not completely destroy[l] you.
I will discipline[m] you but only with
justice;
I will not let you go entirely unpunished.'[n]

your injury beyond healing.[p] cause,[q]

no remedy for your sore,
no healing[r] for you.
14All your allies[s] have forgotten you;
they care nothing for you.

and your sins[a] so many.
15Why do you cry out over your wound, your pain that has no cure?[b]
Because of your great guilt and many sins
I have done these things to you.[c] all who make spoil of you I will despoil.

17But I will restore you to health and heal[g] your wounds,
declares the LORD,
'because you are called an outcast,[h]

18"This is what the LORD says:

" 'I will restore the fortunes[j] of Jacob's tents[k]
and have compassion[l] on his dwellings;
the city will be rebuilt[m] on her ruins,
and the palace will stand in its proper place.

declares the LORD.

23See, the storm[a] of the LORD
will burst out in wrath,
a driving wind swirling down
on the heads of the wicked.

In days to come
you will understand[d] this.

31 "At that time," declares the LORD, "I will be the God[e] of all the clans of Israel, and they will be my
people."
2This is what the LORD says:

"The people who survive the sword will find favor[f] in the desert;
I will come to give rest[g] to Israel."

3The LORD appeared to us in the past,[b] saying:

"I have loved[h] you with an everlasting love;
I have drawn[i] you with loving-kindness.
4I will build you up again and you will be rebuilt,[j] O Virgin[k] Israel.
Again you will take up your tambourines[l] and go out to dance[m] with the joyful.[n] 5Again you will plant[o] vineyards on the hills of Samaria;[p] the farmers will plant them and enjoy their fruit.[q] 6There will be a day when watchmen[r] cry out on the hills of Ephraim,
'Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.' "[s]

7This is what the LORD says:

"Sing[t] with joy for Jacob;
shout for the foremost[u] of the nations.
Make your praises heard, and say,
'O LORD, save[v] your people,
the remnant[w] of Israel.' 8See, I will bring them from the land of the north[x] and gather[y] them from the ends of the earth.
Among them will be the blind[z] and the lame,[a] expectant mothers and women in labor;
a great throng will return.
9They will come with weeping;[b]
they will pray as I bring them back.
I will lead[c] them beside streams of water[d] on a level[e] path where they will not stumble,

[b]3 Or LORD has appeared to us from afar

because I am Israel's father,[a] and Ephraim is my firstborn son.

10"Hear the word of the LORD,
O nations;
proclaim it in distant coastlands:[b]
'He who scattered[c] Israel will gather[d] them
and will watch over his flock like a shepherd.'[e] 11For the LORD will ransom Jacob and redeem[f] them from the hand of those stronger[g] than they.
12They will come and shout for joy[h] on the heights[i] of Zion;
they will rejoice in the bounty[j] of
the LORD—
the grain, the new wine and the oil,[k]
the young of the flocks[l] and
herds.
They will be like a well-watered garden,[m]
and they will sorrow[n] no more.
13Then maidens will dance and be glad,
young men and old as well.
I will turn their mourning[o] into gladness;
I will give them comfort[p] and joy[q]
instead of sorrow.
14I will satisfy[r] the priests[s] with abundance,
and my people will be filled with my bounty,[t]"
declares the LORD.

15This is what the LORD says:

"A voice is heard in Ramah,[u] mourning and great weeping, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted,[v] because her children are no more."[w]

16This is what the LORD says:

"Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears,[x] for your work will be rewarded,[y]"
declares the LORD.
"They will return[z] from the land of the enemy.
17So there is hope[a] for your future,"
declares the LORD.
"Your children[b] will return to their own land.

18"I have surely heard Ephraim's moaning:
'You disciplined[c] me like an unruly calf,[d]
and I have been disciplined.
Restore[e] me, and I will return, because you are the LORD my God.
19After I strayed,[f]
I repented;
after I came to understand,
I beat[g] my breast.
I was ashamed[h] and humiliated because I bore the disgrace of my youth.'[i] 20Is not Ephraim my dear son,
the child[j] in whom I delight?
Though I often speak against him,
I still remember[k] him.
Therefore my heart yearns for him;
I have great compassion[l] for
him,"
declares the LORD.

21"Set up road signs;
put up guideposts.[m]
Take note of the highway,[n]
the road that you take.
Return,[o] O Virgin[p] Israel, return to your towns.
22How long will you wander,[q]
O unfaithful[r] daughter?
The LORD will create a new thing[s] on
earth—
a woman will surround[i][t] a man."

23This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: "When I bring them back from captivity,[j][u] the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: 'The LORD bless[v] you, O righteous dwelling,[w] O sacred mountain.'[x] 24People will live[y] together in Judah and all its towns—farmers and those who move about with their flocks.[z] 25I will refresh the weary[a] and satisfy the faint."[b] 26At this I awoke[c] and looked around. My sleep had been pleasant to
me.
27"The days are coming,"[d] declares the LORD, "when I will plant[e] the house of Israel and the house of Judah
with the offspring of men and of animals. 28Just as I watched[f] over them to uproot[g] and tear down, and to overthrow, destroy and bring disaster,[h] so I will watch over them to build and to plant,"[i] declares the LORD. 29"In those days people will no longer say,

'The fathers[j] have eaten sour
grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge.'[k]

30 Instead, everyone will die for his own sin;[a] whoever eats sour grapes—his own teeth will be set on edge.

31 "The time is coming," declares the LORD,
"when I will make a new covenant[b]
with the house of Israel
and with the house of Judah.
32 It will not be like the covenant[c] I made with their forefathers[d] when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt,[e] because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband[f] to[k] them,[l]"
declares the LORD.
33 "This is the covenant I will make
with the house of Israel
after that time," declares the LORD.
"I will put my law in their minds[g]
and write it on their hearts.[h] I will be their God,
and they will be my people.[i] 34 No longer will a man teach[j] his neighbor,
or a man his brother, saying,
'Know the LORD,'
because they will all know[k] me, from the least of them to the greatest,"
declares the LORD.
"For I will forgive[l] their wickedness and will remember their sins[m] no
more."

35 This is what the LORD says,

he who appoints[n] the sun
to shine by day,
who decrees the moon and stars to shine by night,[o]
who stirs up the sea[p]
so that its waves roar[q]—
the LORD Almighty is his name:[r] 36 "Only if these decrees[s] vanish from my sight,"
declares the LORD,
"will the descendants[t] of Israel ever cease
to be a nation before me."

37 This is what the LORD says:

"Only if the heavens above can be measured[u]
and the foundations of the earth below be searched out will I reject[v] all the descendants of Israel
because of all they have done,"
declares the LORD.

38 "The days are coming," declares
the LORD, "when this city will be rebuilt[w] for me from the Tower of Hananel[x] to the Corner Gate.[y] 39 The measuring line[z] will stretch from there straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to Goah. 40 The whole valley[a] where dead bodies[b] and ashes are thrown, and all the terraces out to the Kidron Valley[c] on the east as far as the corner of the Horse Gate,[d] will be holy[e] to the LORD. The city will never again be uprooted or demolished."

Jeremiah Buys a Field

32 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth[f] year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth[g] year of Nebuchadnezzar. 2 The army of the king of Babylon was then besieging[h] Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was confined[i] in the courtyard of the guard[j] in the royal palace of Judah.
3 Now Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him there, saying, "Why do you prophesy[k] as you do? You say,
'This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture[l] it.
4 Zedekiah[m] king of Judah will not escape[n] out of the hands of the Babylonians[m][o] but will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, and will speak with him face to face and see him with his own eyes. 5 He will take[p] Zedekiah to Babylon, where he will remain until I deal with him,[q] declares the LORD. If you fight against the Babylonians, you will not succeed.'"[r] 6 Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to me: 7 Hanamel son of Shallum your uncle is going to come to you and say, 'Buy my field at Anathoth,[s] because as nearest relative it is your right and duty[t] to buy it.' 8 "Then, just as the LORD had said, my cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard and said, 'Buy my field[u] at Anathoth in the territory of Benjamin. Since it is your right to redeem it and possess it, buy it for yourself.'
"I knew that this was the word of the LORD; 9 so I bought the field[v] at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel and weighed out for him seventeen shekels[n] of silver.[w] 10 I signed and sealed the deed,[x] had it witnessed,[y]

will the priests,[b] who are Levites,[c]

me continually to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings and to present sacrifices.[d]' " 19The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 20"This is what the LORD says: 'If you can break my covenant with the day[e] and my covenant with the night, so that day and night no longer come at their appointed time,[f] 21then my covenant[g] with David my servant—and my covenant with the Levites[h] who are priests ministering before me—can be broken and David will no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne.[i] 22I will make the descendants of David my servant and the Levites who minister before me as countless[j] as the stars of the sky and as measureless as the sand on the seashore.' "
23The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 24"Have you not noticed that these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two kingdoms[t][k] he chose'? So they despise[l] my people and no longer regard them as a nation.[m] 25This is what the LORD says: 'If I have not established my covenant with day and night[n] and the fixed laws[o] of heaven and earth,[p] 26then I will reject[q] the descendants of Jacob[r] and David my servant and will not choose one of his sons to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes[u][s] and have compassion[t] on them.' "

Warning to Zedekiah

34 While Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms and peoples[u] in the empire he ruled were fighting against Jerusalem[v] and all its surrounding towns, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Go to Zedekiah[w] king of Judah and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.[x] 3You will not escape from his grasp but will surely be captured and handed over[y] to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes, and he will speak with you face to face. And you will go to Babylon.
4" 'Yet hear the promise of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah. This is what the LORD says concerning you: You will not die by the sword;[z] 5you will die peacefully. As people made a funeral fire[a] in honor of your fathers, the former kings who preceded you, so they will make a fire in your honor and lament, "Alas,[b] O master!" I myself make this promise, declares the
LORD.' "
6Then Jeremiah the prophet told all this to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem, 7while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah that were still holding out—Lachish[c] and Azekah.[d] These were the only fortified cities left in Judah.

Freedom for Slaves

8The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people[e] in Jerusalem to proclaim freedom[f] for the slaves. 9Everyone was to free his Hebrew slaves, both male and female; no one was to hold a fellow Jew in bondage.[g] 10So all the officials and people who entered into this covenant agreed that they would free their male and female slaves and no longer hold them in bondage. They agreed, and set them free. 11But afterward they changed their minds[h] and took back the slaves they had freed and enslaved them
again.
12Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 13"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your forefathers[i] when I brought them out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.[j] I said, 14'Every seventh year each of you must free any fellow Hebrew who has sold himself to you. After he has served you six years, you must let him go free.'[v][k] Your fathers, however, did not listen to me or pay attention[l] to me. 15Recently you repented and did what is right in my sight: Each of you proclaimed freedom to his countrymen.[m] You even made a covenant before me in the house that bears my Name.[n] 16But now you have turned around[o] and profaned[p] my name; each of you has taken back the male and female slaves you had set free to go where they wished. You have forced them to become your slaves
again.
17"Therefore, this is what the LORD

The Recabites

35 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the reign of Jehoiakim[s] son of Josiah king of Judah: 2 "Go to the Recabite[t] family and invite them to come to one of the side rooms[u] of the house of the LORD and give them wine to drink."

3 So I went to get Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers and all his sons—the whole family of the Recabites. 4 I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah the man of God.[v] It was next to the room of the officials, which was over that of Maaseiah son of Shallum[w] the doorkeeper.[x] 5 Then I set bowls full of wine and some cups before the men of the Recabite family and said to them, "Drink some wine."

6 But they replied, "We do not drink wine, because our forefather Jonadab[y] son of Recab gave us this command:
'Neither you nor your descendants must ever drink wine.[z] 7 Also you must never build houses, sow seed or plant vineyards; you must never have any of these things; but must always live in tents.[a] Then you will live a long time in the land[b] where you are nomads.' 8 We have obeyed everything our fore-father[c] Jonadab son of Recab commanded us. Neither we nor our wives nor our sons and daughters have ever drunk wine 9 or built houses to live in or had vineyards, fields or crops.[d] 10 We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed everything our forefather Jonadab commanded us. 11 But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon invaded[e] this land, we said, 'Come, we must go to Jerusalem[f] to escape the Babylonian[w] and Aramean armies.' So we have remained in Jerusalem."

12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: 13 "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Go and tell[g] the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem, 'Will you not learn a lesson[h] and obey my words?' declares the LORD. 14 'Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine and this command has been kept. To this day they do not drink wine, because they obey their forefather's command.[i] But I have spoken to you again and again,[j] yet you have not obeyed[k]
me. 15 Again and again I sent all my servants the prophets[l] to you. They said,
"Each of you must turn[m] from your wicked ways and reform[n] your actions;
do not follow other gods[o] to serve them. Then you will live in the land[p] I have given to you and your fathers."
But you have not paid attention or listened[q] to me. 16 The descendants of Jonadab son of Recab have carried out the command their forefather[r] gave them, but these people have not obeyed me.'

17 "Therefore, this is what the LORD
God Almighty, the God of Israel, says:
'Listen! I am going to bring on Judah and on everyone living in Jerusalem every disaster[s] I pronounced against them. I spoke to them, but they did not listen;[t] I called to them, but they did not answer.'"[u]

18 Then Jeremiah said to the family of the Recabites, "This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'You have obeyed the command of your forefather[v] Jonadab and have followed all his instructions and have done everything he ordered.' 19 Therefore,
this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'Jonadab son of Recab will never fail[w] to have a man to serve[x] me.'"

Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah's Scroll

36 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, this
word came to Jeremiah from the LORD:
2 "Take a scroll and write on it all the words I have spoken to you concerning Israel, Judah and all the other nations from the time I began speaking to you in the reign of Josiah till now.
3 Perhaps when the people of Judah hear about every disaster I plan to inflict on them, each of them will turn from his wicked way; then I will forgive their wickedness and their sin." 4 So Jeremiah called Baruch son of Neriah, and while Jeremiah dictated all the words the LORD had spoken to him, Baruch wrote them on the scroll.
5 Then Jeremiah told Baruch, "I am restricted; I cannot go to the LORD's temple. 6 So you go to the house of the LORD on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll the words of the LORD that you wrote as I dictated.
Read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their towns. 7 Perhaps they will bring their petition before the LORD, and each will turn from his wicked ways, for the anger and wrath pronounced against this people by the LORD are great."
8 Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do; at the LORD's temple he read the words of the LORD from the scroll. 9 In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim son of Josiah king of Judah, a time of fasting before the LORD was proclaimed for all the people in Jerusalem and those who had come from the towns of Judah. 10 From the room of Gemariah son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper courtyard at the entrance of the New Gate of the temple, Baruch read to all the people at the LORD's temple the words of Jeremiah from the scroll.
11 When Micaiah son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, 12 he went down to the secretary's room in the royal palace, where all the officials were sitting: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. 13 After Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read to the people from the scroll, 14 all the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, "Bring the scroll from which you have read to the people and come." So Baruch son of Neriah went to them with the scroll in his hand. 15 They said to him,
"Sit down, please, and read it to us."
So Baruch read it to them. 16 When they heard all these words, they looked at each other in fear and said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king." 17 Then they asked Baruch,
"Tell us, how did you come to write all this? Did Jeremiah dictate it?" 18 "Yes," Baruch replied, "he dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them in ink on the scroll." 19 Then the officials said to Baruch,
"You and Jeremiah, go and hide.
Don't let anyone know where you
are."
20 After they put the scroll in the room of Elishama the secretary, they went to the king in the courtyard and reported everything to him. 21 The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and Jehudi brought it from the room of Elisha-ma the secretary and read it to the king and all the officials standing beside him. 22 It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter apartment, with a fire burning in the fire-pot in front of him. 23 Whenever Jehudi had read three or four columns of the scroll, the king cut them off with a scribe's knife and threw them into the firepot, until the entire scroll was burned in the fire. 24 The king and all his attendants who heard all these words showed no fear, nor did they tear their clothes. 25 Even though Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. 26 Instead, the king commanded Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. But the LORD had hidden
them.
27 After the king burned the scroll containing the words that Baruch had written at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 28 "Take another scroll and write on it all the words that were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim king of Judah burned up. 29 Also tell Jehoiakim king of Judah, 'This is what the LORD says: You burned that scroll and said, "Why did make[p] from it?"[q] 30Therefore, this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim king of Judah: He will have no one to sit on the throne of David; his body will be thrown out[r] and exposed[s] to the heat by day and the frost by night.[t] 31I will punish him and his children[u] and his attendants for their wickedness; I will bring on them and those living in Jerusalem and the people of Judah every disaster[v] I pronounced against them, because they have not listened.[w]

32So Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated,[x] Baruch wrote[y] on it all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned[z] in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah in Prison

37 Zedekiah[m] son of Josiah was made king[n] of Judah by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; he reigned in place of Jehoiachin[o,*] son of Jehoia-kim. 2Neither he nor his attendants nor the people of the land paid any attention[p] to the words the LORD had spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.
3King Zedekiah, however, sent[q] Jehucal[r] son of Shelemiah with the priest Zephaniah[s] son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah the prophet with this message: "Please pray[t] to the LORD our God for us."
4Now Jeremiah was free to come and go among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison.[u] 5Pharaoh's army had marched out of Egypt,[v] and when the Babylonians[y] who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them, they withdrew[w] from Jerusalem.[x]
6Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: 7"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Tell
the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire[y] of me, 'Pharaoh's army, which has marched[z] out to support you, will go back to its own land, to Egypt.[a] 8Then the Babylonians will return and attack this city; they will capture[b] it and burn[c] it down.' 9"This is what the LORD says: Do not deceive[d] yourselves, thinking, 'The Babylonians will surely leave us.' They will not! 10Even if you were to defeat the entire Babylonian[z] army that is attacking you and only wounded men were left in their tents, they would come out and burn[e] this city down."

11After the Babylonian army had withdrawn[f] from Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's army, 12Jeremiah started to leave the city to go to the territory of Benjamin to get his share of the property[g] among the people there. 13But when he reached the Benjamin Gate,[h]
the captain of the guard, whose name was Irijah son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested him and said, "You are deserting to the Babylonians!"[i] 14"That's not true!" Jeremiah said. "I am not deserting to the Babylonians." But Irijah would not listen to him; instead, he arrested[j] Jeremiah and brought him to the officials. 15They were angry with Jeremiah and had him beaten[k] and imprisoned[l] in the house[m] of Jonathan the secretary, which they had made into a prison.
16Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon, where he remained a long time. 17Then King Zedekiah sent[n] for him and had him brought to the palace, where he asked[o] him privately,[p] "Is there any word from the LORD?"
"Yes," Jeremiah replied, "you will be handed over[q] to the king of Babylon." 18Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, "What crime[r] have I committed against you or your officials or this people, that you have put me in prison? 19Where are your prophets[s] who prophesied to you, 'The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land'?
20But now, my lord the king, please listen. Let me bring my petition before you: Do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, or I will die there."[t] 21King Zedekiah then gave orders for Jeremiah to be placed in the courtyard of the guard and given bread from the street of the bakers each day until all the bread[u] in the city was gone.[v] So Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.[w]

liah son of Pashhur[x], Jehucal[a,y] son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah was telling all the people when he said, 2"This is what the LORD says: 'Whoever stays in this city will die by the sword, famine or plague,[z] but whoever goes over to the Babylonians will live. He will escape with his life; he will live.' 3And this is what the LORD says: 'This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture it.' "

4Then the officials said to the king,
"This man should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as all the people, by the things he is saying to them. This man is not seeking the good of these people but their ruin."

5"He is in your hands," King Zedekiah answered. "The king can do nothing to oppose you."

6So they took Jeremiah and put him into the cistern of Malkijah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They lowered Jeremiah by ropes into the cistern; it had no water in it, only mud, and Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

7But Ebed-Melech, a Cushite, an official in the royal palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. While the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate, 8Ebed-Melech went out of the palace and said to him, 9"My lord the king, these men have acted wickedly in all they have done to Jeremiah the prophet. They have thrown him into a cistern, where he will starve to death when there is no longer any bread in the city."

10Then the king commanded Ebed-Melech the Cushite, "Take thirty men from here with you and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies."

11So Ebed-Melech took the men with him and went to a room under the treasury in the palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from there and let them down with ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. 12Ebed-Melech the Cushite said to Jeremiah, "Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms to pad the ropes." Jeremiah did so, 13and they pulled him up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Zedekiah Questions Jeremiah Again

14Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and had him brought to the third entrance to the temple of the LORD. "I am going to ask you something," the king said to Jeremiah. "Do not hide anything from me."

15Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I give you an answer, will you not kill me? Even if I did give you counsel, you would not listen to me."

16But King Zedekiah swore this oath secretly to Jeremiah: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has given us breath, I will neither kill you nor hand you over to those who are seeking your life."

17Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah,
"This is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'If you surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared and this city will not be burned down; you and your family will live. 18But if you will not surrender to the officers of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Babylonians and they will burn it down; you yourself will not escape from their hands.' "

19King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, "I am afraid of the Jews who have gone over to the Babylonians, for the Babylonians may hand me over to them and they will mistreat me."

20"They will not hand you over," Jeremiah replied. "Obey the LORD by doing what I tell you. Then it will go well with you, and your life will be spared. 21But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me: 22All the women left in the palace of the king of Judah will be brought out to the officials of the king of Babylon. Those women will say to you:

" 'They misled you and overcame
you—
those trusted friends of yours.
Your feet are sunk in the mud;
your friends have deserted you.'

23"All your wives and children will be brought out to the Babylonians. You yourself will not escape from their hands but will be captured by the king of Babylon; and this city will be burned down."

24Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah,
"Do not let anyone know about this conversation, or you may die. 25If the officials hear that I talked with you, and they come to you and say, 'Tell us what you said to the king and what the king said to you; do not hide it from us or we will kill you,' 26then tell them, 'I was pleading with the king not to send me back to Jonathan's house to die
there.' "

28And Jeremiah remained in the Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

39:1-10pp — 2Ki 25:1-12; Jer 52:4-16

39 This is how Jerusalem[b] was taken: 1In the ninth year of Zedekiah[c] king of Judah, in the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar[d] king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army and laid siege[e] to it.
2And on the ninth day of the fourth[f] month of Zedekiah's eleventh year, the city wall[g] was broken through.[h] 3Then all the officials[i] of the king of Babylon came and took seats in the Middle Gate: Nergal-Sharezer of Samgar, Nebo-Sarsekim[f] a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officials of the king of Babylon.
4When Zedekiah king of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled; they left the city at night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls,[j] and headed toward the Arabah.[k][g] 5But the Babylonian[h] army pursued them and overtook Zedekiah[l] in the plains of Jericho. They captured[m] him and took him to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon at Riblah[n] in the land of Hamath, where he pronounced sentence on him. 6There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes and also killed all the nobles[o] of Judah. 7Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes[p] and bound him with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon.[q] 8The Babylonians[i] set fire[r] to the royal palace and the houses of the people and broke down the walls[s] of Jerusalem. 9Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard carried into exile to Babylon the people who remained in the city, along with those who had gone over to him,[t] and the rest of the people.[u] 10But Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard left behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people, who owned nothing; and at that time he gave them vineyards and fields.
11Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had given these orders about Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard: 12"Take him and look after him; don't harm[v] him but do for him whatever he asks." 13So Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard, Nebushazban a chief officer, Nergal-Sharezer a high official and all the other officers[w] of the king of Babylon 14sent and had Jeremiah taken out of the courtyard of the guard.[x] They turned him over to Gedaliah[y] son of Ahikam,[z] the son of Shaphan,[a] to take him back to his home. So he remained among his own people.[b] 15While Jeremiah had been confined in the courtyard of the guard, the word of the LORD came to him: 16"Go and tell Ebed-Melech[c] the Cushite, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I am about to fulfill my words[d] against this city through disaster,[e] not prosperity. At that time they will be fulfilled before your eyes. 17But I will rescue[f] you on that day, declares the LORD; you will not be handed over to those you fear. 18I will save[g] you;
you will not fall by the sword[h] but will escape with your life,[i] because you trust[j] in me, declares the LORD.' "[j]

Jeremiah Freed

40 The word came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had released him at Ramah.[k] He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the captives[l] from Jerusalem and Judah who were being carried into exile to Babylon. 2When the commander[m] of the guard found Jeremiah, he said to him, "The LORD your God decreed[n] this disaster[o] for this place.[p] 3And now the LORD has brought it about; he has done just as he said he would. All this happened because you people sinned[q] against the LORD and did not obey[r] him. 4But today I am freeing[s] you from the chains[t] on your wrists. Come with me to Babylon, if you like, and I will look after you; but if you do not want to, then don't come. Look, the whole country lies before you; go wherever you please."[u] 5However, before Jeremiah turned to go,[j] Nebuzaradan added, "Go back to Gedaliah[v] son of Ahikam,[w] the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has appointed[x] over the towns[y] of Judah, and live

Then the commander gave him provisions and a present[b] and let him go. [6]So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah[c] and stayed with him among the people who were left behind in the land.

Gedaliah Assassinated

40:7-9; 41:1-3pp — 2Ki 25:22-24

[7]When all the army officers and their men who were still in the open country heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam as governor[d] over the land and had put him in charge of the men, women and children who were the poorest[e] in the land and who had not been carried into exile to Babylon, [8]they came to Geda-liah at Mizpah[f]—Ishmael[g] son of Nethaniah, Johanan[h] and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netoph-athite,[i] and Jaazaniah[k] the son of the Maacathite,[j] and their men. [9]Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, took an oath to reassure them and their men. "Do not be afraid to serve[k] the Babylonians,[l]" he said. "Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.[m] [10]I myself will stay at Mizpah[n] to represent you before the Babylonians who come to us, but you are to harvest the wine,[o] summer fruit and oil, and put them in your storage jars,[p] and live in the towns you have taken over."[q] [11]When all the Jews in Moab,[r] Ammon, Edom[s] and all the other countries[t] heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant in Judah and had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over them, [12]they all came back to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah at Mizpah, from all the countries where they had been scattered.[u] And they harvested an abundance of wine and summer
fruit.
[13]Johanan[v] son of Kareah and all the army officers still in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah[w] [14]and said to him, "Don't you know that Baalis king of the Ammonites[x] has sent Ishmael[y] son of Nethaniah to take your life?" But Gedaliah son of Ahikam did not believe them.
[15]Then Johanan[z] son of Kareah said privately to Gedaliah in Mizpah, "Let me go and kill[a] Ishmael son of Netha-niah, and no one will know it. Why should he take your life and cause all the Jews who are gathered around you to be scattered[b] and the remnant[c] of Judah to perish?"

[16]But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan[d] son of Kareah, "Don't do such a thing! What you are saying about Ishmael is not true."

41 In the seventh month Ishmael[e] son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, who was of royal blood and had been one of the king's officers, came with ten men to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. While they were eating together there, [2]Ishmael[f] son of Nethaniah and the ten men who were with him got up and struck down Gedaliah son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword,[g] killing the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed[h] as governor over the land.[i] [3]Ishmael also killed all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Babylonian[m] soldiers who were
there.
[4]The day after Gedaliah's assassination, before anyone knew about it, [5]eighty men who had shaved off their beards,[j] torn their clothes[k] and cut[l] themselves came from Shechem,[m] Shiloh[n] and Samaria,[o] bringing grain offerings and incense[p] with them to the house of the LORD.[q] [6]Ishmael son of Nethaniah went out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping[r] as he went.
When he met them, he said, "Come to Gedaliah son of Ahikam."[s] [7]When they went into the city, Ishmael son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw them into a cistern.[t] [8]But ten of them said to Ishmael, "Don't kill us! We have wheat and barley, oil and honey, hidden in a field."[u] So he let them alone and did not kill them with the others. [9]Now the cistern where he threw all the bodies of the men he had killed along with Geda-liah was the one King Asa[v] had made as part of his defense[w] against Baasha[x] king of Israel. Ishmael son of Netha-niah filled it with the dead.
[10]Ishmael made captives of all the rest of the people[y] who were in Mizpah—the king's daughters[z] along with all the others who were left there, over whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had appointed Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael son of Netha-niah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.[a] 11When Johanan[b] son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about all the crimes Ishmael son of Nethaniah had committed, 12they took all their men and went to fight[c] Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him near the great pool[d] in Gibeon. 13When all the people[e] Ishmael had with him saw Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him, they were glad. 14All the people Ishmael had taken captive at Mizpah[f] turned and went over to Johanan son of Kareah. 15But Ishmael son of Nethaniah and eight of his men escaped[g] from Johanan and fled to the Ammonites.

Flight to Egypt

16Then Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers[h] who were with him led away all the survivors[i] from Mizpah whom he had recovered from Ishmael son of Nethaniah after he had assassinated Gedaliah son of Ahikam: the soldiers, women, children and court officials he had brought from Gibeon.
17And they went on, stopping at Geruth Kimham[j] near Bethlehem[k] on their way to Egypt[l] 18to escape the Babylonians.[a] They were afraid[m] of them because Ishmael son of Netha-niah had killed Gedaliah[n] son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed as governor over the land.

42 Then all the army officers, including Johanan[o] son of Kareah and Jezaniah[b] son of Hoshaiah,[p] and all the people from the least to the greatest[q] approached 2Jeremiah the prophet and said to him, "Please hear our petition and pray[r] to the LORD your God for this entire remnant.[s] For as you now see, though we were once many, now only a few[t] are left. 3Pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do."[u]
4"I have heard you," replied Jeremiah the prophet. "I will certainly pray[v] to the LORD your God as you have requested; I will tell[w] you everything the LORD says and will keep nothing back from you."[x] 5Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true[y] and faithful[z] witness[a] against us if we do not act in accordance with everything the LORD your God sends you to tell us.
6Whether it is favorable or unfavorable, we will obey the LORD our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it will go well[b] with us, for we will obey[c]
the LORD our God."
7Ten days later the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. 8So he called together Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers[d] who were with him and all the people from the least to the greatest.[e] 9He said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your petition,[f] says:[g] 10'If you stay in this land,[h] I will build[i] you up and not tear you down; I will plant[j] you and not uproot you,[k] for I am grieved over the disaster I have inflicted on you.[l] 11Do not be afraid of the king of Babylon,[m] whom you now fear.[n] Do not be afraid of him, declares the LORD, for I am with you and will save[o] you and deliver you from his hands.[p] 12I will show you compassion[q] so that he will have compassion on you and restore you to your land.'[r] 13"However, if you say, 'We will not stay in this land,' and so disobey[s] the LORD your God, 14and if you say, 'No, we will go and live in Egypt,[t] where we will not see war or hear the trumpet[u] or be hungry for bread,'[v] 15then hear the word of the LORD,[w] O remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: 'If you are determined to go to Egypt and you do go to settle there, 16then the sword[x] you fear[y] will overtake you there, and the famine[z] you dread will follow you into Egypt, and there you will die.[a] 17Indeed, all who are determined to go to Egypt to settle there will die by the sword, famine and plague;[b] not one of them will survive or escape the disaster I will bring on them.' 18This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:
'As my anger and wrath[c] have been poured out on those who lived in Jerusalem,[d] so will my wrath be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You will be an object of cursing[e] and horror,[f] of condemnation and reproach;[g] you will never see this place again.'[h]

has told you, 'Do not go to Egypt.'[a] Be sure of this: I warn you today 20that you made a fatal mistake[p] when you sent me to the LORD your God and said,
'Pray to the LORD our God for us; tell us everything he says and we will do it.'[b] 21I have told you today, but you still have not obeyed the LORD your God in all he sent me to tell you.[c] 22So now, be sure of this: You will die by the sword, famine[d] and plague[e] in the place where you want to go to settle."[f]

43 When Jeremiah finished telling the people all the words of the LORD their God—everything the LORD had sent him to tell them[g]— 2Azariah son of Hoshaiah[h] and Johanan[i] son of Kareah and all the arrogant[j] men said to Jeremiah, "You are lying![k] The LORD our God has not sent you to say, 'You must not go to Egypt to settle there.'[l] 3But Baruch[m] son of Neriah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Babylonians,[q] so they may kill us or carry us into exile to Babylon."[n]

4So Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers and all the people[o] disobeyed the LORD's command[p] to stay in the land of Judah.[q] 5Instead, Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers led away all the remnant of Judah who had come back to live in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been scattered.[r] 6They also led away all the men, women[s] and children and the king's daughters
whom Nebuzaradan commander of the imperial guard had left with Gedaliah
son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch[t] son of Neriah. 7So they entered Egypt[u] in disobedience to the LORD and went as far as Tahpanhes.[v]

8In Tahpanhes[w] the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 9"While the Jews are watching, take some large stones[x] with you and bury them in clay in the brick[y] pavement at the entrance to Pharaoh's palace[z] in Tahpanhes. 10Then say to them, 'This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: I will send for my servant[a] Nebuchadnezzar[b] king of Babylon, and I will set his throne[c] over these stones I have buried here; he will spread his royal canopy[d] above them.
11He will come and attack Egypt,[e] bringing death[f] to those destined[g] for death, captivity to those destined for captivity,[h] and the sword to those destined for the sword.[i] 12He[r] will set fire[j] to the temples[k] of the gods[l] of Egypt; he will burn their temples and take their gods captive.[m] As a shepherd wraps[n] his garment around him, so will he wrap Egypt around himself and depart from there unscathed. 13There in the temple of the sun[s][o] in Egypt he will demolish the sacred pillars[p] and will burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.' "

Disaster Because of Idolatry

44 This word came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews living in Lower Egypt[q]—in Migdol,[r] Tahpan-hes[s] and Memphis[t][t]—and in Upper Egypt[u]:[u] 2"This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says: You saw the great disaster[v] I brought on Jerusalem and on all the towns of Judah.[w] Today they lie deserted and in ruins[x] 3because of the evil[y] they have done. They provoked me to anger[z] by burning incense[a] and by worshiping other gods[b] that neither they nor you nor your fathers[c] ever knew. 4Again and again[d] I sent my servants the prophets,[e] who said, 'Do not do this detestable[f] thing that I hate!' 5But they did not listen or pay attention;[g][h] they did not turn from their wickedness[i] or stop burning incense[j] to other gods.[k] 6Therefore, my fierce anger was poured out;[l] it raged against the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem and made them the desolate ruins[m] they are today.

7"Now this is what the LORD God Almighty, the God of Israel, says: Why bring such great disaster[n] on yourselves by cutting off from Judah the men and women,[o] the children and infants, and so leave yourselves without a remnant?[p] 8Why provoke me to anger with what your hands have made,[q] burning incense[r] to other gods in Egypt,[s] where you have come to live?[t]
You will destroy yourselves and make yourselves an object of cursing and reproach[u] among all the nations on earth. 9Have you forgotten the wickedness committed by your fathers[v] and by the kings[w] and queens[x] of Judah and the wickedness committed by you and your wives[a] in the land of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem?[b] 10To this day they have not humbled[c] themselves or shown reverence,[d] nor have they followed my law[e] and the decrees[f] I set before you and your fathers.[g]

11"Therefore, this is what the LORD Almighty,[h] the God of Israel, says: I am determined to bring disaster[i] on you and to destroy all Judah. 12I will take away the remnant[j] of Judah who were determined to go to Egypt to settle there. They will all perish in Egypt; they will fall by the sword or die from famine. From the least to the greatest,[k] they will die by sword or famine.[l]
They will become an object of cursing and horror, of condemnation and reproach.[m] 13I will punish[n] those who live in Egypt with the sword,[o] famine and plague,[p] as I punished Jerusalem.
14None of the remnant of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape or survive to return to the land of Judah, to which they long to return and live; none will return except a few fugitives."[q] 15Then all the men who knew that their wives[r] were burning incense[s] to other gods, along with all the women[t] who were present—a large assembly—and all the people living in Lower and Upper Egypt,[v][u] said to Jeremiah, 16"We will not listen[v] to the message you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD![w] 17We will certainly do everything we said we would:[x] We will burn incense[y] to the Queen of Heaven[z] and will pour out drink offerings to her just as we and our fathers, our kings and our officials[a] did in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem.[b] At that time we had plenty of food[c] and were well off and suffered no harm.[d] 18But ever since we stopped burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and pouring out drink offerings[e] to her, we have had nothing and have been perishing by sword and famine.[f][g]" 19The women added, "When we burned incense[h] to the Queen of Heaven[i] and poured out drink offerings to her, did not our husbands[j] know that we were making cakes[k] like her image[l] and pouring out drink offerings to her?"
20Then Jeremiah said to all the people, both men and women, who were answering him, 21"Did not the LORD remember[m] and think about the incense[n] burned in the towns of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem[o] by you and your fathers,[p] your kings and your officials and the people of the land?[q] 22When the LORD could no longer endure[r] your wicked actions and the detestable things you did, your land became an object of cursing[s] and a desolate waste[t] without inhabitants, as it is today.[u] 23Because you have burned incense and have sinned against the LORD and have not obeyed him or followed[v] his law or his decrees[w] or his stipulations, this disaster[x]
has come upon you, as you now see."[y] 24Then Jeremiah said to all the people, including the women,[z] "Hear the word of the LORD, all you people of Judah in Egypt.[a] 25This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:
You and your wives[b] have shown by your actions what you promised when you said, 'We will certainly carry out the vows we made to burn incense and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.'[c]
"Go ahead then, do what you promised! Keep your vows![d] 26But hear the word of the LORD, all Jews living in Egypt:[e] 'I swear[f] by my great name,' says the LORD, 'that no one from Judah living anywhere in Egypt will ever again invoke my name or swear, "As surely as the Sovereign[g] LORD lives."[h] 27For I am watching[i] over them for harm,[j] not for good; the Jews in Egypt will perish[k] by sword and famine[l] until they are all destroyed.[m] 28Those who escape the sword[n] and return to the land of Judah from Egypt will be very few.[o] Then the whole remnant[p] of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word will stand[q]—mine or theirs.[r]
29" 'This will be the sign[s] to you that I will punish[t] you in this place,' declares the LORD, 'so that you will know that my threats of harm against you will surely stand.'[u] 30This is what the LORD says: 'I am going to hand Pharaoh[v] Hophra king of Egypt over to his enemies who seek his life, just as I handed Zedekiah[w] king of Judah over to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,

A Message to Baruch

45 This is what Jeremiah the prophet told Baruch[b] son of Neriah[c] in the fourth year of Jehoiakim[d] son of Josiah king of Judah, after Baruch had written on a scroll[e] the words Jeremiah was then dictating: 2"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: 3You said, 'Woe[f] to me! The LORD has added sorrow[g] to my pain;[h] I am worn out with groaning[i]
and find no rest.' "[j]

4⌞The LORD said,⌟ "Say this to him:
'This is what the LORD says: I will overthrow what I have built and uproot[k] what I have planted,[l] throughout the land.[m] 5Should you then seek great[n] things for yourself? Seek them not.[o] people,[q] declares the LORD, but wherever you go I will let you escape[r]

A Message About Egypt

46 This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations:[t]

2Concerning Egypt:[u]

This is the message against the army of Pharaoh Neco[v] king of Egypt, which was defeated at Carchemish[w] on the Euphrates[x] River by Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon in the fourth year of Jehoiakim[y] son of Josiah king of Judah:

3"Prepare your shields,[z] both large and small,
and march out for battle!
4Harness the horses,
mount the steeds!
Take your positions
with helmets on!
Polish[a] your spears,
put on your armor![b] 5What do I see?
They are terrified,
they are retreating,
their warriors are defeated.
They flee[c] in haste
without looking back,
and there is terror[d] on every
side,"
declares the LORD.
6"The swift cannot flee[e]
nor the strong escape.
In the north by the River Euphrates[f]
they stumble and fall.[g]

7"Who is this that rises like the Nile, like rivers of surging waters?[h] 8Egypt rises like the Nile,[i] like rivers of surging waters.
She says, 'I will rise and cover the
earth;
I will destroy cities and their
people.'[j]
9Charge, O horses!
Drive furiously, O charioteers![k]
March on, O warriors—men of Cush[w][l] and Put who carry
shields,
men of Lydia[m] who draw the bow.
10But that day[n] belongs to the Lord,
the LORD Almighty—
a day of vengeance[o], for vengeance on his foes.
The sword will devour[p] till it is
satisfied,
till it has quenched its thirst with blood.[q]
For the Lord, the LORD Almighty, will offer sacrifice[r]
in the land of the north by the River Euphrates.[s]

11"Go up to Gilead and get balm,[t] O Virgin[u] Daughter of Egypt.
But you multiply remedies in vain;
there is no healing[v] for you.
12The nations will hear of your shame;
your cries will fill the earth.
One warrior will stumble over another;
both will fall[w] down together."

13This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon[x] to attack Egypt:[y]

14"Announce this in Egypt, and proclaim it in Migdol;
proclaim it also in Memphis[x][z] and Tahpanhes:[a]
'Take your positions and get ready, for the sword devours[b] those around you.'
15Why will your warriors be laid low?
They cannot stand, for the LORD will push them down.[c] 16They will stumble[d] repeatedly;
they will fall[e] over each other.
They will say, 'Get up, let us go back to our own people[f] and our native
lands,
away from the sword of the oppressor.'[g] 17There they will exclaim,

A Message About the Philistines

47 This is the word of the LORD that
came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines[e] before Pharaoh attacked Gaza:[f]

[2]This is what the LORD says:

"See how the waters are rising in the
north;[g]
they will become an overflowing torrent.
They will overflow the land and everything in it,
the towns and those who live in
them.
The people will cry out;
all who dwell in the land will wail[h]
[3]at the sound of the hoofs of galloping steeds,
at the noise of enemy chariots[i]
and the rumble of their wheels.
Fathers will not turn to help their
children;
their hands will hang limp.[j] [4]For the day has come to destroy all the Philistines and to cut off all survivors who could help Tyre[k] and Sidon.[l]
The LORD is about to destroy the Philistines,[m]
the remnant from the coasts of Caphtor.[z][n]
[5]Gaza will shave[o] her head in mourning;
Ashkelon[p] will be silenced.
O remnant on the plain,
how long will you cut[q] yourselves?

[6]" 'Ah, sword[r] of the LORD,' you cry,
'how long till you rest?
Return to your scabbard;
cease and be still.'[s] [7]But how can it rest
when the LORD has commanded it, when he has ordered it
to attack Ashkelon and the coast?"[t]

A Message About Moab

48:29-36pp — Isa 16:6-12

48 Concerning Moab:[a]

This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

"Woe to Nebo,[b] for it will be ruined.
Kiriathaim[c] will be disgraced and
captured;
the stronghold[a] will be disgraced and shattered.
2Moab will be praised[d] no more;
in Heshbon[b][e] men will plot her downfall:
'Come, let us put an end to that nation.'[f]
You too, O Madmen,[c] will be silenced;
the sword will pursue you.
3Listen to the cries from Horonaim,[g] cries of great havoc and
destruction.
4Moab will be broken;
her little ones will cry out.[d] 5They go up the way to Luhith,[h] weeping bitterly as they go; on the road down to Horonaim[i] anguished cries over the destruction are heard.
6Flee![j] Run for your lives;
become like a bush[e] in the desert.[k] 7Since you trust in your deeds and riches,[l]
you too will be taken captive, and Chemosh[m] will go into exile,[n] together with his priests and officials.[o] 8The destroyer[p] will come against every town,
and not a town will escape.
The valley will be ruined and the plateau[q] destroyed, because the LORD has spoken.
9Put salt[r] on Moab,
for she will be laid waste[f];[s]
her towns will become desolate, with no one to live in them.

10"A curse on him who is lax in doing the LORD's work!
A curse on him who keeps his sword[t] from bloodshed![u]

11"Moab has been at rest[v] from youth, like wine left on its dregs,[w] not poured from one jar to another—she has not gone into exile.
So she tastes as she did,
and her aroma is unchanged.
12But days are coming,"
declares the LORD,
"when I will send men who pour from jars,
and they will pour her out;
they will empty her jars
and smash her jugs.
13Then Moab will be ashamed[x] of Chemosh,[y]
as the house of Israel was ashamed
when they trusted in Bethel.[z]

14"How can you say, 'We are warriors,[a]
men valiant in battle'?
15Moab will be destroyed and her towns invaded;
her finest young men[b] will go down in the slaughter,[c]" declares the King,[d] whose name is the LORD Almighty.[e] 16"The fall of Moab is at hand;[f]
her calamity will come quickly.
17Mourn for her, all who live around
her,
all who know her fame;[g]
say, 'How broken is the mighty scepter,[h]
how broken the glorious staff!'

18"Come down from your glory[i] and sit on the parched ground,[j] O inhabitants of the Daughter of Dibon,[k]
for he who destroys Moab will come up against you and ruin your fortified cities.[l] 19Stand by the road and watch, you who live in Aroer.[l]
Ask the man fleeing and the woman escaping,
ask them, 'What has happened?' 20Moab is disgraced, for she is shattered.
Wail[m] and cry out!
Announce by the Arnon[n]
that Moab is destroyed.
21Judgment has come to the plateau[o]—
to Holon,[p] Jahzah[q] and Mephaath,[r]
22 to Dibon,[s] Nebo[t] and Beth Diblathaim,
23 to Kiriathaim,[u] Beth Gamul and Beth Meon,[v]
24 to Kerioth[w] and Bozrah[x]— to all the towns[y] of Moab, far and near.
25Moab's horn[g][z] is cut off;

declares the LORD.

26 "Make her drunk,[b]

Let Moab wallow in her vomit;[d] let her be an object of ridicule.[e] 27 Was not Israel the object of your ridicule?[f]
Was she caught among thieves,[g]

29 "We have heard of Moab's pride[l] — her overweening pride and
conceit,
her pride and arrogance
and the haughtiness[m] of her heart.
30 I know her insolence but it is futile,"
declares the LORD,
"and her boasts[n] accomplish
nothing.
31 Therefore I wail[o] over Moab,

33 Joy and gladness are gone from the orchards and fields of Moab.
I have stopped the flow of wine[s]
from the presses;

joy.[t]
Although there are shouts,
they are not shouts of joy.

34 "The sound of their cry rises from Heshbon[u] to Elealeh[v] and Jahaz,[w]
from Zoar[x] as far as Horonaim[y] and Eglath Shelishiyah, for even the waters of Nimrim are dried up.[z]
35 In Moab I will put an end to those who make offerings on the high places[a]
and burn incense[b] to their gods,"
declares the LORD.
36 "So my heart laments[c] for Moab like a flute;
it laments like a flute for the men of Kir Hareseth.[d]
The wealth they acquired[e] is
gone.
37 Every head is shaved[f]
and every beard[g] cut off;
every hand is slashed and every waist is covered with sackcloth.[h]
38 On all the roofs in Moab and in the public squares[i] there is nothing but mourning, for I have broken Moab
like a jar[j] that no one wants,"
declares the LORD.
39 "How shattered[k] she is! How they wail!
How Moab turns her back in
shame!
Moab has become an object of ridicule,[l]
an object of horror to all those around her."

40 This is what the LORD says:

"Look! An eagle is swooping[m]
down,
spreading its wings[n] over Moab.
41 Kerioth[h][o] will be captured and the strongholds taken.
In that day the hearts of Moab's warriors[p]
will be like the heart of a woman in labor.[q] 42 Moab will be destroyed[r] as a nation[s]
because she defied[t] the LORD.
43 Terror[u] and pit and snare[v] await
you,
O people of Moab,"
declares the LORD.
44 "Whoever flees[w] from the terror will fall into a pit, whoever climbs out of the pit
will be caught in a snare;
for I will bring upon Moab
the year[x] of her punishment,"
declares the LORD.

45 "In the shadow of Heshbon the fugitives stand helpless, for a fire has gone out from Heshbon,
a blaze from the midst of Sihon;[y]
it burns the foreheads of Moab, the skulls[z] of the noisy boasters.

A Message About Ammon

49 Concerning the Ammonites:[b]
This is what the LORD says:

"Has Israel no sons?
Has she no heirs?
Why then has Molech[1][c] taken possession of Gad?[d]
Why do his people live in its
towns?
2But the days are coming,"
declares the LORD,
"when I will sound the battle cry[e] against Rabbah[f] of the Ammonites;
it will become a mound of ruins,[g]
and its surrounding villages will be set on fire.
Then Israel will drive out those who drove her out,[h]"
says the LORD.
3"Wail, O Heshbon,[i] for Ai[j] is
destroyed!
Cry out, O inhabitants of Rabbah!
Put on sackcloth[k] and mourn;
rush here and there inside the
walls,
for Molech[l] will go into exile,[m]
together with his priests and
officials.
4Why do you boast of your valleys, boast of your valleys so fruitful?
O unfaithful daughter,[n]
you trust in your riches[o] and say,
'Who will attack me?'[p] 5I will bring terror on you from all those around you,"
declares the Lord,
the LORD Almighty.
"Every one of you will be driven
away,
and no one will gather the
fugitives.[q]
6"Yet afterward, I will restore[r] the fortunes of the Ammonites,"
declares the LORD.

A Message About Edom

49:9-10pp — Ob 5-6
49:14-16pp — Ob 1-4

7Concerning Edom:[s]

This is what the LORD Almighty says:

"Is there no longer wisdom in Teman?[t]
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom decayed?
8Turn and flee, hide in deep caves,[u]
you who live in Dedan,[v] for I will bring disaster on Esau at the time I punish him.
9If grape pickers came to you, would they not leave a few
grapes?
If thieves came during the night,
would they not steal only as much as they wanted?
10But I will strip Esau bare;
I will uncover his hiding places,[w]
so that he cannot conceal himself.
His children, relatives and neighbors will perish,
and he will be no more.[x] 11Leave your orphans;[y] I will protect their lives.
Your widows[z] too can trust in
me."

12This is what the LORD says: "If those who do not deserve to drink the cup[a] must drink it, why should you go unpunished?[b] You will not go unpun-ished, but must drink it. 13I swear[c] by myself," declares the LORD, "that Bozrah[d] will become a ruin and an object of horror,[e] of reproach[f] and of cursing; and all its towns will be in ruins
forever."[g]

14I have heard a message from the
LORD:
An envoy was sent to the nations
to say,
"Assemble yourselves to attack it!
Rise up for battle!"

15"Now I will make you small among
the nations,
despised among men.
16The terror you inspire and the pride[h] of your heart have deceived you,
you who live in the clefts of the rocks,[i]
who occupy the heights of the hill.
Though you build your nest[j] as high as the eagle's,
from there I will bring you down,"
declares the LORD.
17"Edom will become an object of horror;[k]
all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff
because of all its wounds.[l]

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

28Concerning Kedar[d] and the king-

This is what the LORD says:

"Arise, and attack Kedar and destroy the people of the East.[g] 29Their tents and their flocks[h] will be taken;
their shelters will be carried off
with all their goods and camels.
Men will shout to them,

30"Flee quickly away!
Stay in deep caves,[j] you who live in Hazor,[k]"
declares the LORD.
"Nebuchadnezzar[l] king of Babylon has plotted against you;
he has devised a plan against you.
31"Arise and attack a nation at ease, which lives in confidence,"
declares the LORD,
"a nation that has neither gates nor bars;[m]
its people live alone.
32Their camels[n] will become plunder, and their large herds[o] will be booty.
I will scatter to the winds[p] those who are in distant places[l] [q] and will bring disaster on them from every side,"
declares the LORD.
33"Hazor[r] will become a haunt of jackals,[s]
a desolate[t] place forever.
No one will live there;
no man will dwell[u] in it."

A Message About Elam

34This is the word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam,[v] early in the reign of Zedekiah[w] king of Judah:

35This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"See, I will break the bow[x] of Elam,
the mainstay of their might.
36I will bring against Elam the four winds[y]
from the four quarters of the heavens;[z]
I will scatter them to the four winds, and there will not be a nation

where Elam's exiles do not go.
37 I will shatter Elam before their
foes,
before those who seek their lives;
I will bring disaster upon them, even my fierce anger,"[a]
declares the LORD.
"I will pursue them with the sword[b]
until I have made an end of them.
38 I will set my throne in Elam and destroy her king and
officials,"
declares the LORD.
39 "Yet I will restore[c] the fortunes of Elam
in days to come,"
declares the LORD.

A Message About Babylon

51:15-19pp — Jer 10:12-16

50 This is the word the LORD spoke through Jeremiah the prophet concerning Babylon[d] and the land of the Babylonians[m]:

2 "Announce and proclaim[e] among
the nations,
lift up a banner[f] and proclaim it;
keep nothing back, but say,
'Babylon will be captured;[g]
Bel[h] will be put to shame,[i] Marduk[j] filled with terror.
Her images will be put to shame and her idols[k] filled with terror.' 3 A nation from the north[l] will attack
her
and lay waste her land.
No one will live[m] in it;
both men and animals[n] will flee
away.

4 "In those days, at that time,"
declares the LORD,
"the people of Israel and the people of Judah together[o]
will go in tears[p] to seek[q] the LORD
their God.
5 They will ask the way[r] to Zion and turn their faces toward it.
They will come[s] and bind themselves to the LORD
in an everlasting covenant[t]
that will not be forgotten.

6 "My people have been lost sheep;[u] their shepherds[v] have led them astray[w]
and caused them to roam on the
mountains.
They wandered over mountain and hill[x]
and forgot their own resting place.[y]

them;

guilty,[a]
for they sinned against the LORD,

the LORD, the hope[b] of their fathers.'

8 "Flee[c] out of Babylon;[d]
leave the land of the Babylonians, and be like the goats that lead the flock.
9 For I will stir[e] up and bring against Babylon
an alliance of great nations[f] from the land of the north.[g]
They will take up their positions against her,
and from the north she will be captured.[h]
Their arrows[i] will be like skilled warriors
who do not return empty-handed.
10 So Babylonia[n] will be plundered;[j] all who plunder her will have their fill,"
declares the LORD.

11 "Because you rejoice and are glad,
you who pillage my inheritance,[k] because you frolic like a heifer[l] threshing grain
and neigh like stallions, 12 your mother will be greatly
ashamed;
she who gave you birth will be disgraced.[m]
She will be the least of the nations—a wilderness, a dry land, a desert.[n]
13 Because of the LORD's anger she will not be inhabited
but will be completely desolate.[o]
All who pass Babylon will be horrified[p] and scoff[q]
because of all her wounds.[r]

14 "Take up your positions around Babylon,
all you who draw the bow.[s] Shoot at her! Spare no arrows,[t] for she has sinned against the
LORD.
15 Shout[u] against her on every side!
She surrenders, her towers fall,
her walls[v] are torn down.
Since this is the vengeance[w] of the
LORD,
take vengeance on her;

m1 Or Chaldeans; also in verses 8, 25, 35 and 45

do to her[a] as she has done to others.[b] 16Cut off from Babylon the sower, and the reaper with his sickle at harvest.
Because of the sword[c] of the oppressor
let everyone return to his own people,[d]
let everyone flee to his own land.[e]

17"Israel is a scattered flock[f] that lions[g] have chased away.
The first to devour[h] him was the king[i] of Assyria; the last to crush his bones[j] was Nebuchadnezzar[k] king[l] of Babylon."

18Therefore this is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

"I will punish the king of Babylon and his land
as I punished the king[m] of Assyria.[n] 19But I will bring[o] Israel back to his own pasture
and he will graze on Carmel and Bashan;
his appetite will be satisfied[p] on the hills[q] of Ephraim and Gilead.[r]
20In those days, at that time,"
declares the LORD,
"search will be made for Israel's guilt,
but there will be none,[s]
and for the sins[t] of Judah,
but none will be found,
for I will forgive[u] the remnant[v] I spare.

21"Attack the land of Merathaim and those who live in Pekod.[w] Pursue, kill and completely destroy[a]
them,"
declares the LORD.
"Do everything I have commanded you.
22The noise[x] of battle is in the land,
the noise of great destruction!

and brought out the weapons[e] of his wrath,
for the Sovereign LORD Almighty has work to do
in the land of the Babylonians.[f] 26Come against her from afar.[g] Break open her granaries;
pile her up like heaps of grain.[h] Completely destroy[i] her and leave her no remnant.
27Kill all her young bulls;[j] let them go down to the slaughter![k]
Woe to them! For their day[l] has
come,
the time[m] for them to be punished.
28Listen to the fugitives[n] and refugees from Babylon
declaring in Zion[o]
how the LORD our God has taken vengeance,[p]
vengeance for his temple.[q]

29"Summon archers against Babylon, all those who draw the bow.[r] Encamp all around her;
let no one escape.[s] Repay[t] her for her deeds;[u]
do to her as she has done.
For she has defied[v] the LORD,
the Holy One[w] of Israel.
30Therefore, her young men[x] will fall in the streets;
all her soldiers will be silenced in that day,"
declares the LORD.
31"See, I am against[y] you, O arrogant
one,"
declares the Lord, the LORD
Almighty,
"for your day[z] has come,
the time for you to be punished.
32The arrogant[a] one will stumble and fall[b]
and no one will help her up;[c]
I will kindle a fire[d] in her towns that will consume all who are
around her."

33This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"The people of Israel are oppressed,[e]
and the people of Judah as well.
All their captors hold them fast, refusing to let them go.[f] 34Yet their Redeemer[g] is strong;

[a]21 The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD, often by totally destroying them; also in verse 26.

the LORD Almighty is his name.
He will vigorously defend their cause
so that he may bring rest to their land, but unrest to those who live in Babylon.

35"A sword against the Babylonians!"
declares the LORD—
"against those who live in Babylon and against her officials and wise men!
36A sword against her false prophets!
They will become fools.
A sword against her warriors!
They will be filled with terror.
37A sword against her horses and chariots and all the foreigners in her ranks!
They will become women.
A sword against her treasures!
They will be plundered.
38A drought on her waters!
They will dry up.
For it is a land of idols,
idols that will go mad with terror.

39"So desert creatures and hyenas will live there, and there the owl will dwell.
It will never again be inhabited or lived in from generation to generation.
40As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah along with their neighboring towns,"
declares the LORD,
"so no one will live there;
no man will dwell in it.

41"Look! An army is coming from the north;
a great nation and many kings are being stirred up from the ends of the earth.
42They are armed with bows and spears;
they are cruel and without mercy.
They sound like the roaring sea
as they ride on their horses;
they come like men in battle formation to attack you, O Daughter of Babylon.
43The king of Babylon has heard reports about them,
and his hands hang limp.
Anguish has gripped him,
pain like that of a woman in labor.
44Like a lion coming up from Jordan's thickets to a rich pastureland,
I will chase Babylon from its land in an instant.
Who is the chosen one I will appoint for this?
Who is like me and who can challenge me?
And what shepherd can stand against me?" 45Therefore, hear what the LORD has planned against Babylon, what he has purposed against the land of the Babylonians:
The young of the flock will be dragged away;
he will completely destroy their pasture because of them.
46At the sound of Babylon's capture the earth will tremble;
its cry will resound among the nations.

51 This is what the LORD says:
"See, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon and the people of Leb Kamai.
2I will send foreigners to Babylon to winnow her and to devastate her land; they will oppose her on every side in the day of her disaster.
3Let not the archer string his bow, nor let him put on his armor.
Do not spare her young men;
completely destroy her army.
4They will fall down slain in Babylon, fatally wounded in her streets.
5For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken by their God, the LORD Almighty, though their land is full of guilt before the Holy One of Israel.

6"Flee from Babylon!
Run for your lives!
Do not be destroyed because of her sins.
It is time for the LORD's vengeance;
he will pay her what she deserves.

Prepare the nations for battle against
her;
summon against her these kingdoms:[a] Ararat,[b] Minni and Ashkenaz.[c] Appoint a commander against her;
send up horses like a swarm of locusts.[d] 28 Prepare the nations for battle against
her—
the kings of the Medes,[e]
their governors and all their officials, and all the countries they rule.[f] 29 The land trembles[g] and writhes, for the LORD's purposes[h] against Babylon stand—
to lay waste[i] the land of Babylon so that no one will live there.[j] 30 Babylon's warriors[k] have stopped fighting;
they remain in their strongholds.
Their strength is exhausted;
they have become like women.[l]
Her dwellings are set on fire;[m]
the bars[n] of her gates are broken.
31 One courier[o] follows another and messenger follows messenger to announce to the king of Babylon that his entire city is captured,[p] 32 the river crossings seized, the marshes set on fire,[q]
and the soldiers terrified."[r]

33 This is what the LORD Almighty, the God of Israel, says:

"The Daughter of Babylon[s] is like a threshing floor[t]
at the time it is trampled;
the time to harvest[u] her will soon come."[v]

34 "Nebuchadnezzar[w] king of Babylon has devoured[x] us,[y]
he has thrown us into confusion,
he has made us an empty jar.
Like a serpent he has swallowed us and filled his stomach with our delicacies,
and then has spewed[z] us out.
35 May the violence[a] done to our flesh[a] be upon Babylon," say the inhabitants of Zion.
"May our blood be on those who live in Babylonia," says Jerusalem.[b]

36 Therefore, this is what the LORD says:

"See, I will defend your cause[c]
and avenge[d] you;
I will dry up[e] her sea
and make her springs dry.

37 Babylon will be a heap of ruins,
a haunt[f] of jackals,
an object of horror and scorn,[g] a place where no one lives.[h] 38 Her people all roar like young lions,[i]
they growl like lion cubs.
39 But while they are aroused,
I will set out a feast for them and make them drunk,[j]
so that they shout with laughter—then sleep forever[k] and not

declares the LORD.[l] 40 "I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats.[m]

41 "How Sheshach[b][n] will be seized!

What a horror[p] Babylon will be
among the nations!
42 The sea will rise over Babylon;
its roaring waves[q] will cover her.
43 Her towns will be desolate, a dry and desert[r] land,
a land where no one lives,
through which no man travels.[s] 44 I will punish Bel[t] in Babylon and make him spew out[u] what he has swallowed.
The nations will no longer stream to
him.
And the wall[v] of Babylon will fall.

45 "Come out[w] of her, my people!
Run[x] for your lives!
Run from the fierce anger[y] of the
LORD.
46 Do not lose heart[z] or be afraid[a] when rumors[b] are heard in the
land;
one rumor comes this year, another
the next,
rumors of violence in the land and of ruler against ruler.
47 For the time will surely come when I will punish the idols[c] of Babylon;
her whole land will be disgraced[d]
and her slain will all lie fallen within her.[e]
48 Then heaven and earth and all that is in them
will shout[f] for joy over Babylon, for out of the north[g] destroyers[h] will attack her,"
declares the LORD.

a35 Or done to us and to our children b41 Sheshach is a cryptogram for Babylon.

49 "Babylon must fall because of Israel's slain,
just as the slain in all the earth have fallen because of Babylon.[a] 50 You who have escaped the sword, leave[b] and do not linger!
Remember[c] the LORD in a distant land,[d]
and think on Jerusalem."

51 "We are disgraced,[e] for we have been insulted and shame covers our faces, because foreigners have entered the holy places of the LORD's house."[f]

52 "But days are coming," declares the
LORD,
"when I will punish her idols,[g]
and throughout her land
the wounded will groan.[h] 53 Even if Babylon reaches the sky[i] and fortifies her lofty stronghold, I will send destroyers[j] against
her,"
declares the LORD.

54 "The sound of a cry[k] comes from Babylon,
the sound of great destruction[l]
from the land of the Babylonians.[x] 55 The LORD will destroy Babylon;
he will silence[m] her noisy din.
Waves[n] ⌞of enemies⌟ will rage like
great waters;
the roar of their voices will resound.
56 A destroyer[o] will come against Babylon;
her warriors will be captured,
and their bows will be broken.[p]
For the LORD is a God of retribution;
he will repay[q] in full.
57 I will make her officials[r] and wise[s] men drunk,[t]
her governors, officers and warriors as well;
they will sleep[u] forever and not awake,"
declares the King,[v] whose name is
the LORD Almighty.

58 This is what the LORD Almighty
says:

"Babylon's thick wall[w] will be leveled
and her high gates[x] set on fire;
the peoples[y] exhaust[z] themselves
for nothing,
the nations' labor is only fuel for the flames."[a]

59 This is the message Jeremiah gave to the staff officer Seraiah son of Neriah,[b] the son of Mahseiah, when he went to Babylon with Zedekiah[c] king of Judah in the fourth[d] year of his reign. 60 Jeremiah had written on a scroll[e] about all the disasters that would come upon Babylon—all that had been recorded concerning Babylon. 61 He said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, see that you read all these words aloud. 62 Then say, 'O LORD, you have said you will destroy this place, so that neither man nor animal will live in it; it will be desolate[f] forever.' 63 When you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates.[g] 64 Then say, 'So will Babylon sink to rise no more[h] because of the disaster I will bring upon her. And her people[i] will fall.'"[j]

The words of Jeremiah end[k] here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

52 Zedekiah[l] was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years.
His mother's name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah; she was from Libnah.[m] 2 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, just as Jehoiakim[n] had done. 3 It was because of the LORD's anger that all this happened to Jerusalem and Judah,[o] and in the end he thrust them from his presence.[p]

Now Zedekiah rebelled[q] against the king of Babylon.

4 So in the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, on the tenth[r] day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon marched against Jerusalem[s] with his whole army. They camped outside the city and built siege works[t] all around it.[u] 5 The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

6 By the ninth day of the fourth month the famine in the city had become so severe that there was no food for the people to eat.[v] 7 Then the city wall was broken through, and the whole army fled.[w] They left the city at night through the gate between the two walls near the king's garden, though the Babylonians[y] were surrounding the city. They fled toward the Arabah,[z] 8 but the Babylonian[a] army pursued King Zedekiah and overtook him in the plains of Jericho. All his soldiers were separated from him and scattered, 9and he was captured.[a]

He was taken to the king of Babylon at Riblah[b] in the land of Hamath,[c] where he pronounced sentence on him. 10There at Riblah the king of Babylon slaughtered the sons[d] of Zedekiah before his eyes; he also killed all the officials of Judah. 11Then he put out Zedekiah's eyes, bound him with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon, where he put him in prison till the day of his death.[e] 12On the tenth day of the fifth[f] month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan[g] commander of the imperial guard, who served the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. 13He set fire[h] to the temple[i] of the LORD, the royal palace and all the houses[j] of Jerusalem. Every important building he burned down.
14The whole Babylonian army under the commander of the imperial guard broke down all the walls[k] around Jerusalem. 15Nebuzaradan the commander of the guard carried into exile[l] some of the poorest people and those who remained in the city, along with the rest of the craftsmen[b] and those who had gone over[m] to the king of Babylon. 16But Nebuzaradan left behind[n]
the rest of the poorest people of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
17The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars,[o] the movable stands[p] and the bronze Sea[q] that were at the temple of the LORD and they carried all the bronze to Babylon.[r] 18They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls,[s] dishes and all the bronze articles used in the temple service.[t] 19The commander of the imperial guard took away the basins, cen-sers,[u] sprinkling bowls, pots, lamp-stands,[v] dishes[w] and bowls used for drink offerings[x]—all that were made of pure gold or silver.[y] 20The bronze from the two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls[z] under it, and the movable stands, which King Solomon had made for the temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed.[a] 21Each of the pillars was eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits in circumference[c]; each was four fingers thick, and hollow.[b] 22The bronze capital[c] on top of the one pillar was five cubits[d] high and was decorated with a network and pomegranates[d]
of bronze all around. The other pillar, with its pomegranates, was similar.
23There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; the total number of pomegranates[e] above the surrounding network was a hundred.[f] 24The commander of the guard took as prisoners Seraiah[g] the chief priest, Zephaniah[h] the priest next in rank and the three doorkeepers.[i] 25Of those still in the city, he took the officer in charge of the fighting men, and seven royal advisers. He also took the secretary[j] who was chief officer in charge of con-scripting the people of the land and sixty of his men who were found in the city. 26Nebuzaradan[k] the commander took them all and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27There at Riblah,[l] in the land of Hamath, the king had them executed.
So Judah went into captivity, away[m] from her land. 28This is the number of the people Nebuchadnezzar carried into exile:[n]

in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews; 29in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year,
832 people from Jerusalem;
30in his twenty-third year, 745 Jews taken into exile[o] by Nebuzaradan
the commander of the imperial guard.
There were 4,600 people in all.[p]

Jehoiachin Released

52:31-34pp — 2Ki 25:27-30

31In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin[q] king of Judah, in the year Evil-Merodach[e] became king of Babylon, he released Jehoiachin king of Judah and freed him from prison on the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month. 32He spoke kindly to him and gave him a seat of honor higher than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. 33So Jehoiachin put aside his prison clothes and for the rest of his life ate regularly at the king's table.[r] 34Day by day the king of Babylon gave Jehoiachin a regular allowance[s] as long as he lived, till the day of his death.

Lamentations

1[a] How deserted[a] lies the city, once so full of people![b]
How like a widow[c] is she,
who once was great[d] among the nations!
She who was queen among the provinces has now become a slave.[e]

2 Bitterly she weeps[f] at night, tears are upon her cheeks.
Among all her lovers[g]
there is none to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed[h] her;
they have become her enemies.[i]

3 After affliction and harsh labor, Judah has gone into exile.[j]
She dwells among the nations;
she finds no resting place.[k]
All who pursue her have overtaken her[l] in the midst of her distress.

4 The roads to Zion mourn,[m]
for no one comes to her appointed feasts.
All her gateways are desolate,[n]
her priests groan,
her maidens grieve,
and she is in bitter anguish.[o]

5 Her foes have become her masters;
her enemies are at ease.
The LORD has brought her grief[p] because of her many sins.[q]
Her children have gone into exile,[r] captive before the foe.[s]

6 All the splendor has departed from the Daughter of Zion.[t] Her princes are like deer that find no pasture;
in weakness they have fled[u]
before the pursuer.

7 In the days of her affliction and wandering Jerusalem remembers all the treasures that were hers in days of old.
When her people fell into enemy hands,
there was no one to help her.[v]
Her enemies looked at her and laughed[w] at her destruction.

8 Jerusalem has sinned[x] greatly and so has become unclean.[y]
All who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness;[z] she herself groans[a]
and turns away.

9 Her filthiness clung to her skirts;
she did not consider her future.[b]
Her fall[c] was astounding;
there was none to comfort[d] her.
"Look, O LORD, on my affliction,[e] for the enemy has triumphed."

10 The enemy laid hands on all her treasures;[f] she saw pagan nations
enter her sanctuary[g]—
those you had forbidden[h]
to enter your assembly.

11 All her people groan[i] as they search for bread;[j] they barter their treasures for food
to keep themselves alive.
"Look, O LORD, and consider,
for I am despised."

12 "Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?[k]
Look around and see.
Is any suffering like my suffering[l]
that was inflicted on me, that the LORD brought on me in the day of his fierce anger?[m]

13 "From on high he sent fire, sent it down into my bones.[n]
He spread a net[o] for my feet and turned me back.
He made me desolate,[p]
faint[q] all the day long.

14 "My sins have been bound into a yoke[b];[r]
by his hands they were woven together.

against me
to[c] crush my young men.[d]
In his winepress[e] the Lord has trampled[f]
the Virgin Daughter[g] of Judah.

16"This is why I weep
and my eyes overflow with tears.[h]
No one is near to comfort[i] me, no one to restore my spirit.
My children are destitute because the enemy has prevailed."[j]

17Zion stretches out her hands,[k] but there is no one to comfort her.
The LORD has decreed for Jacob that his neighbors become his foes;[l]
Jerusalem has become an unclean[m] thing[n] among them.

18"The LORD is righteous,[o] yet I rebelled[p] against his command.
Listen, all you peoples;
look upon my suffering.[q]
My young men and maidens have gone into exile.[r]

19"I called to my allies[s] but they betrayed me.
My priests and my elders perished[t] in the city while they searched for food
to keep themselves alive.

20"See, O LORD, how distressed[u] I am!
I am in torment[v] within,
and in my heart I am disturbed,[w]
for I have been most rebellious.[x] Outside, the sword bereaves;
inside, there is only death.[y]

21"People have heard my groaning,[z] but there is no one to comfort
me.[a]
All my enemies have heard of my
distress;
they rejoice[b] at what you have
done.
May you bring the day[c] you have announced
so they may become like me.

22"Let all their wickedness come before you;
deal with them
as you have dealt with me because of all my sins.[d] My groans[e] are many
and my heart is faint."

2 How[d] the Lord has covered the Daughter of Zion
with the cloud of his anger[e]![f]
He has hurled down the splendor of Israel
from heaven to earth;
he has not remembered his footstool[g]
in the day of his anger.[h]

2Without pity[i] the Lord has swallowed[j] up
all the dwellings of Jacob;
in his wrath he has torn down the strongholds[k] of the Daughter of Judah.
He has brought her kingdom and its princes
down to the ground[l] in dishonor.

3In fierce anger he has cut off every horn[f][m] of Israel.
He has withdrawn his right hand[n]
at the approach of the enemy.
He has burned in Jacob like a flaming fire
that consumes everything around it.[o]

4Like an enemy he has strung his bow;[p]
his right hand is ready.
Like a foe he has slain
all who were pleasing to the eye;[q] he has poured out his wrath[r] like
fire[s]
on the tent[t] of the Daughter of Zion.

5The Lord is like an enemy;[u]
he has swallowed up Israel.
He has swallowed up all her palaces and destroyed her strongholds.[v]
He has multiplied mourning and lamentation[w]
for the Daughter of Judah.[x]

6He has laid waste his dwelling like a garden;
he has destroyed[y] his place of meeting.[z]
The LORD has made Zion forget her appointed feasts and her Sabbaths;[a]

in his fierce anger he has spurned
both king and priest.[a]

7The Lord has rejected his altar and abandoned his sanctuary.[b]
He has handed over to the enemy the walls of her palaces;[c] they have raised a shout in the
house of the LORD
as on the day of an appointed feast.[d]

8The LORD determined to tear down the wall around the Daughter of Zion.[e]
He stretched out a measuring line[f]
and did not withhold his hand from destroying.
He made ramparts[g] and walls
lament;
together they wasted away.[h]

9Her gates[i] have sunk into the
ground;
their bars[j] he has broken and
destroyed.
Her king and her princes are exiled[k]
among the nations,
the law[l] is no more,
and her prophets[m] no longer find visions[n] from the LORD.

10The elders of the Daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence;[o] they have sprinkled dust[p] on their heads[q]
and put on sackcloth.[r]
The young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.[s]

11My eyes fail from weeping,[t]
I am in torment within,[u]
my heart[v] is poured out[w] on the
ground
because my people are destroyed,[x]
because children and infants faint[y]
in the streets of the city.

12They say to their mothers,
"Where is bread and wine?"[z]
as they faint like wounded men
in the streets of the city, as their lives ebb away[a]
in their mothers' arms.[b]

13What can I say for you?[c]
With what can I compare you,
O Daughter[d] of Jerusalem?
To what can I liken you,
that I may comfort you,
O Virgin Daughter of Zion?[e]
Your wound is as deep as the sea.[f]
Who can heal you?

The oracles they gave you were false and misleading.[i]

15All who pass your way clap their hands[j] at you;
they scoff[k] and shake their heads[l]
at the Daughter of Jerusalem:[m]
"Is this the city that was called the perfection of beauty,[n]
the joy of the whole earth?"[o]

16All your enemies open their mouths wide against you;[p]
they scoff and gnash their teeth[q]
and say, "We have swallowed her up.[r]
This is the day we have waited for;
we have lived to see it."[s]

17The LORD has done what he planned;
he has fulfilled[t] his word,
which he decreed long ago.[u]
He has overthrown you without pity,[v]
he has let the enemy gloat over you,[w]
he has exalted the horn[a] of your foes.[x]

18The hearts of the people cry out to the Lord.[z] O wall of the Daughter of Zion,[a] let your tears[b] flow like a river day and night;[c]
give yourself no relief,
your eyes no rest.[d]

19Arise, cry out in the night, as the watches of the night begin;
pour out your heart[e] like water in the presence of the Lord.[f] Lift up your hands[g] to him for the lives of your children, who faint[h] from hunger
at the head of every street.

20"Look, O LORD, and consider:
Whom have you ever treated like
this?
Should women eat their offspring,[i]
the children they have cared for?[j] Should priest and prophet be killed[k] in the sanctuary of the Lord?[l]

no one escaped[c] or survived;
those I cared for and reared,[d]
my enemy has destroyed."

3 I[h] am the man who has seen affliction[e] by the rod of his wrath.[f] 2He has driven me away and made me walk in darkness[g] rather than light; 3indeed, he has turned his hand against me[h]
again and again, all day long.
4He has made my skin and my flesh grow old[i]
and has broken my bones.[j] 5He has besieged me and surrounded me with bitterness[k] and hardship.[l] 6He has made me dwell in darkness like those long dead.[m]

7He has walled me in so I cannot escape;[n]
he has weighed me down with chains.[o] 8Even when I call out or cry for help,[p] he shuts out my prayer.[q] 9He has barred[r] my way with blocks of stone;
he has made my paths crooked.[s]

10Like a bear lying in wait, like a lion[t] in hiding,[u] 11he dragged me from the path and mangled[v] me and left me without help.
12He drew his bow[w]
and made me the target[x] for his arrows.[y]

13He pierced[z] my heart with arrows from his quiver.[a] 14I became the laughingstock[b] of all my people;[c] they mock me in song[d] all day long.
15He has filled me with bitter herbs and sated me with gall.[e]

16He has broken my teeth with gravel;[f] he has trampled me in the dust.[g] 17I have been deprived of peace;
I have forgotten what prosperity is.
18So I say, "My splendor is gone and all that I had hoped from the LORD."[h]

19I remember my affliction and my wandering, the bitterness[i] and the gall.[j] 20I well remember them, and my soul is downcast[k] within me.[l] 21Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope:

22Because of the LORD's great love[m] we are not consumed,[n] for his compassions never fail.[o] 23They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.[p] 24I say to myself, "The LORD is my portion;[q] therefore I will wait for him."

25The LORD is good to those whose hope is in him, to the one who seeks him;[r] 26it is good to wait quietly[s] for the salvation of the LORD.[t] 27It is good for a man to bear the yoke while he is young.

28Let him sit alone in silence,[u]
for the LORD has laid it on him.
29Let him bury his face in the dust[v]—
there may yet be hope.[w] 30Let him offer his cheek to one who would strike him,[x] and let him be filled with disgrace.[y]

31For men are not cast off by the Lord forever.[z] 32Though he brings grief, he will show compassion, so great is his unfailing love.[a] 33For he does not willingly bring affliction or grief to the children of men.[b]

34To crush underfoot
all prisoners in the land, 35to deny a man his rights before the Most High,[c] 36to deprive a man of justice—would not the Lord see such things?[d]

37Who can speak and have it happen if the Lord has not decreed it?[e]

38 Is it not from the mouth of the Most

4[i] How the gold has lost its luster, the fine gold become dull!
The sacred gems are scattered at the head of every street.[q]

2 How the precious sons of Zion,[r] once worth their weight in gold, are now considered as pots of clay,
the work of a potter's hands!

3 Even jackals offer their breasts to nurse their young, but my people have become heartless
like ostriches in the desert.[s]

4 Because of thirst[t] the infant's tongue sticks to the roof of its mouth;[u]
the children beg for bread, but no one gives it to them.[v]

5 Those who once ate delicacies are destitute in the streets.
Those nurtured in purple[w]
now lie on ash heaps.[x]

6 The punishment of my people is greater than that of Sodom,[y] which was overthrown in a moment without a hand turned to help her.

7 Their princes were brighter than snow
and whiter than milk,
their bodies more ruddy than rubies,
their appearance like sapphires.[j]

8 But now they are blacker[z] than soot;

[i] This chapter is an acrostic poem, the verses of which begin with the successive letters of the Hebrew alphabet. [j]7 Or lapis lazuli

they are not recognized in the streets.
Their skin has shriveled on their bones;[a]
it has become as dry as a stick.

9Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of famine;[b] racked with hunger, they waste away for lack of food from the field.[c]

10With their own hands compassionate women have cooked their own children,[d]

11The LORD has given full vent to his wrath;[e] he has poured out[f] his fierce anger.[g]
He kindled a fire[h] in Zion that consumed her foundations.[i]

12The kings of the earth did not believe, nor did any of the world's people, that enemies and foes could enter the gates of Jerusalem.[j]

13But it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests,[k] who shed within her
the blood[l] of the righteous.

14Now they grope through the streets like men who are blind.[m]
They are so defiled with blood[n] that no one dares to touch their garments.

15"Go away! You are unclean!" men cry to them.
"Away! Away! Don't touch us!"
When they flee and wander[o] about, people among the nations say,
"They can stay here no longer."[p]

16The LORD himself has scattered them;
he no longer watches over them.[q]
The priests are shown no honor, the elders[r] no favor.[s]

17Moreover, our eyes failed, looking in vain[t] for help;[u]
from our towers we watched for a nation[v] that could not save us.

18Men stalked us at every step,
so we could not walk in our streets.
Our end was near, our days were numbered,
for our end had come.[w]

19Our pursuers were swifter than eagles[x] in the sky;
they chased us[y] over the mountains and lay in wait for us in the desert.[z]

20The LORD's anointed,[a] our very life breath, was caught in their traps.[b]
We thought that under his shadow[c]
we would live among the nations.

21Rejoice and be glad, O Daughter of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz.[d]
But to you also the cup[e] will be passed;
you will be drunk and stripped naked.[f]

22O Daughter of Zion, your punishment will end;[g] he will not prolong your exile.
But, O Daughter of Edom, he will punish your sin and expose your wickedness.[h]

5 Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us; look, and see our disgrace.[i] 2Our inheritance[j] has been turned over to aliens,[k] our homes[l] to foreigners.[m] 3We have become orphans and fatherless, our mothers like widows.[n] 4We must buy the water we drink;[o] our wood can be had only at a price.[p] 5Those who pursue us are at our heels;
we are weary[q] and find no rest.[r] 6We submitted to Egypt and Assyria[s] to get enough bread.
7Our fathers[t] sinned and are no more,
and we bear their punishment.[u] 8Slaves[v] rule over us, and there is none to free us from their hands.[w] 9We get our bread at the risk of our lives because of the sword in the desert.
10Our skin is hot as an oven, feverish from hunger.[x] 11Women have been ravished[y] in Zion, and virgins in the towns of Judah.
12Princes have been hung up by their hands; elders[z] are shown no respect.[a]

Ezekiel

The Living Creatures and the Glory of the LORD

1 In the[a] thirtieth year, in the fourth month on the fifth day, while I was among the exiles[a] by the Kebar River,[b] the heavens were opened[c] and I saw visions[d] of God.
2 On the fifth of the month—it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin[e]— 3 the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel[f] the priest, the son of Buzi,[b] by the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians.[c] There the hand of the LORD was upon him.[g]
4 I looked, and I saw a windstorm[h] coming out of the north[i]—an immense cloud with flashing lightning and surrounded by brilliant light. The center of the fire looked like glowing metal,[j] 5 and in the fire was what looked like four living creatures.[k] In appearance their form was that of a man,[l] 6 but each of them had four faces[m] and four wings. 7 Their legs were straight; their feet were like those of a calf and gleamed like burnished bronze.[n] 8 Under their wings on their four sides they had the hands of a man.[o] All four of them had faces and wings, 9 and their wings touched one another. Each one went straight ahead; they did not turn as they moved.[p]
10 Their faces looked like this: Each of the four had the face of a man, and on the right side each had the face of a lion, and on the left the face of an ox;
each also had the face of an eagle.[q] 11 Such were their faces. Their wings[r] were spread out upward; each had two wings, one touching the wing of another creature on either side, and two wings covering its body. 12 Each one went straight ahead. Wherever the spirit would go, they would go, without turning as they went.[s] 13 The appearance of the living creatures was like burning coals[t] of fire or like torches. Fire moved back and forth among the creatures; it was bright, and lightning[u] flashed out of it. 14 The creatures sped back and forth like flashes of lightning.[v]
15 As I looked at the living creatures,[w] I saw a wheel[x] on the ground beside each creature with its four faces. 16 This was the appearance and structure of the wheels: They sparkled like chryso-lite,[y] and all four looked alike. Each appeared to be made like a wheel intersecting a wheel. 17 As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the creatures faced; the wheels did not turn[z] about[d] as the creatures went. 18 Their rims were high and awesome, and all four rims were full of eyes[a] all around.
19 When the living creatures moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels also rose.
20 Wherever the spirit would go, they would go,[b] and the wheels would rise along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.
21 When the creatures moved, they also moved; when the creatures stood still,
they also stood still; and when the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose along with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.[c] 22 Spread out above the heads of the living creatures was what looked like an expanse,[d] sparkling like ice, and awesome. 23 Under the expanse their wings were stretched out one toward the other, and each had two wings covering its body. 24 When the creatures moved, I heard the sound of their wings, like the roar of rushing[e] waters, like the voice[f] of the Almighty,[e] like the tumult of an army.[g] When they stood still, they lowered their wings.
25 Then there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads as they stood with lowered wings. 26 Above the expanse over their heads was what looked like a throne[a] of sapphire,[a] [b] and high above on the throne was a figure like that of a man.[c] 27I saw that from what appeared to be his waist up he looked like glowing metal, as if full of fire, and that from there down he looked like fire; and brilliant light surrounded him.[d] 28Like the appearance of a rainbow[e] in the clouds on a rainy day, so was the radiance around him.[f]

This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory[g] of the LORD. When I saw it, I fell facedown,[h] and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel's Call

2 He said to me, "Son of man,[i] stand[j] up on your feet and I will speak to you.[k]" 2As he spoke, the Spirit came into me and raised me[l] to my feet, and I heard him speaking to
me.

3He said: "Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me; they and their fathers have been in revolt against me to this very day.[m] 4The people to whom I am sending you are obstinate and stubborn.[n] Say to them,
'This is what the Sovereign LORD
says.'[o] 5And whether they listen or fail to listen[p]—for they are a rebellious house[q]—they will know that a prophet has been among them.[r] 6And you, son of man, do not be afraid[s] of them or their words. Do not be afraid, though briers and thorns[t] are all around you and you live among scorpions. Do not be afraid of what they say or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house.[u] 7You must speak[v] my words to them, whether they listen or fail to listen, for they are rebellious.[w] 8But you, son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not rebel[x][y] like that rebellious house;[z] open your mouth and eat[a] what I give you."

9Then I looked, and I saw a hand[b] stretched out to me. In it was a scroll,[c] 10which he unrolled before me. On both sides of it were written words of lament and mourning and woe.[d]

3 And he said to me, "Son of man, eat what is before you, eat this scroll; then go and speak to the house of Israel." 2So I opened my mouth, and he gave me the scroll to eat.

3Then he said to me, "Son of man, eat this scroll I am giving you and fill your stomach with it." So I ate[e] it, and it tasted as sweet as honey[f] in my mouth.

difficult language,[h] but to the house of Israel— 6not to many peoples of obscure speech and difficult language, whose words you cannot understand.
Surely if I had sent you to them, they would have listened to you.[i] 7But the house of Israel is not willing to listen[j] to you because they are not willing to listen to me, for the whole house of Israel is hardened and obstinate.[k] 8But I will make you as unyielding and hardened as they are.[l] 9I will make your forehead[m] like the hardest stone, harder than flint.[n] Do not be afraid of them or terrified by them, though they are a rebellious house.[o]"

10And he said to me, "Son of man, listen carefully and take to heart[p] all the words I speak to you. 11Go[q] now to your countrymen in exile and speak to them. Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says,'[r] whether they listen or fail to listen.[s]"

12Then the Spirit lifted me up,[t] and I heard behind me a loud rumbling sound—May the glory of the LORD be praised in his dwelling place!— 13the sound of the wings of the living creatures[u] brushing against each other and the sound of the wheels beside them, a loud rumbling sound.[v] 14The Spirit[w] then lifted me up[x] and took me away, and I went in bitterness and in the anger of my spirit, with the strong hand of the LORD[y] upon me. 15I came to the exiles who lived at Tel Abib near the Kebar River.[z] And there, where they were living, I sat among them for seven days[a]—overwhelmed.

Warning to Israel

16At the end of seven days the word of the LORD came to me:[b] 17"Son of man, I have made you a watchman[c] for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me.[d] 18When I say to a wicked man, 'You will surely die,'[e] and you do not warn him or speak out to dissuade him from his evil ways in order to save his life, that wicked man will die for[b] his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood.[f] 19But if you do warn the wicked man and he does not turn[a] from his wickedness[b] or from his evil ways, he will die[c] for his sin; but you will have saved yourself.[d] 20 "Again, when a righteous man turns[e] from his righteousness and does evil, and I put a stumbling block[f] before him, he will die. Since you did not warn him, he will die for his sin.

The righteous things he did will not be remembered, and I will hold you accountable for his blood.[g] 21 But if you do warn the righteous man not to sin and he does not sin, he will surely live because he took warning, and you will

22 The hand of the LORD[i] was upon me there, and he said to me, "Get up and go[j] out to the plain,[k] and there I will speak to you." 23 So I got up and went out to the plain. And the glory of the LORD was standing there, like the glory I had seen by the Kebar River,[l] and I fell facedown.[m] 24 Then the Spirit came into me and raised me[n] to my feet. He spoke to me and said: "Go, shut yourself inside your house.[o] 25 And you, son of man, they will tie with ropes; you will be bound so that you cannot go out among the people.[p] 26 I will make your tongue stick to the roof[q] of your mouth so that you will be silent and unable to rebuke them, though they are a rebellious house.[r] 27 But when I speak to you, I will open your mouth and you shall say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says.'[s] Whoever will listen let him listen, and whoever will refuse let him refuse; for they are a rebellious

Siege of Jerusalem Symbolized

4 "Now, son of man, take a clay tablet, put it in front of you and draw the city of Jerusalem on it. 2 Then lay siege to it: Erect siege works against it, build a ramp[u] up to it, set up camps against it and put battering rams around it.[v] 3 Then take an iron pan,[w] place it as an iron wall between you and the city and turn your face toward[x] it. It will be under siege, and you shall besiege it. This will be a sign[y] to the house of Israel.[z] 4 "Then lie on your left side and put the sin of the house of Israel upon yourself.[a] You are to bear their sin for the number of days you lie on your side. 5 I have assigned you the same number of days as the years of their sin. So for 390 days you will bear the sin of the house of Israel.

6 "After you have finished this, lie down again, this time on your right side, and bear the sin[b] of the house of Judah. I have assigned you 40 days, a day for each year.[c] 7 Turn your face[d] toward the siege of Jerusalem and with bared arm prophesy against her. 8 I will tie you up with ropes so that you cannot turn from one side to the other until you have finished the days of your siege.[e] 9 "Take wheat and barley, beans and lentils, millet and spelt;[f] put them in a storage jar and use them to make bread for yourself. You are to eat it during the 390 days you lie on your side. 10 Weigh out twenty shekels[g][i] of food to eat each day and eat it at set times. 11 Also measure out a sixth of a hin[j] of water and drink it at set times.[h] 12 Eat the food as you would a barley cake; bake it in the sight of the people, using human excrement[i] for fuel." 13 The LORD said, "In this way the people of Israel will eat defiled food among the nations where I will drive them."[j] 14 Then I said, "Not so, Sovereign
LORD![k] I have never defiled myself.
From my youth until now I have never eaten anything found dead[l] or torn by wild animals. No unclean meat has ever entered my mouth.[m]" 15 "Very well," he said, "I will let you bake your bread over cow manure instead of human excrement." 16 He then said to me: "Son of man, I will cut off[n] the supply of food in Jerusalem. The people will eat rationed food in anxiety and drink rationed water in despair,[o] 17 for food and water will be scarce.[p] They will be appalled at the sight of each other and will waste away because of[k] their sin.[q] 5 "Now, son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a barber's razor[r] to shave[s] your head and your beard.[t] Then take a set of scales and divide up the hair. 2 When the days of your siege come to an end, burn a third[u] of the hair with fire[v] inside the city. Take a third and strike it with the sword all around the city. And scatter a third to the wind.[w] For I will pursue them with drawn sword.[x] 3 But take a few strands of hair and tuck them away in the folds of your garment.[y] 4 Again, take a few of these and throw them into the fire[z] and burn them up. A fire will spread from there to the whole house of Israel.

5 “This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This is Jerusalem, which I have set in the center of the nations, with countries all around her.[a] 6 Yet in her wickedness she has rebelled against my laws and decrees more than the nations and countries around her. She has rejected my laws and has not followed my decrees.[b]
7 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have been more unruly than the nations around you and have not followed my decrees or kept my laws. You have not even[f] conformed to the standards of the nations around you.[c]
8 “Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself am against you, Jerusalem, and I will inflict punishment on you in the sight of the nations.[d] 9 Because of all your detestable idols, I will do to you what I have never done before and will never do again.[e] 10 Therefore in your midst fathers will eat their children, and children will eat their fathers.[f] I will inflict punishment on you and will scatter all your survivors to the winds.[g] 11 Therefore as surely as I live,[h] declares the Sovereign[i] LORD, because you have defiled my sanctuary[j] with all your vile images[k] and detestable practices,[l] I myself will withdraw my favor; I will not look on you with pity or spare you.[m] 12 A third of your people will die of the plague or perish by famine inside you; a third will fall by the sword outside your walls; and a third I will scatter to the winds[n] and pursue with drawn sword.[o]
13 “Then my anger will cease and my wrath[p] against them will subside, and I will be avenged.[q] And when I have spent my wrath upon them, they will know that I the LORD have spoken in my zeal.[r]
14 “I will make you a ruin and a reproach among the nations around you, in the sight of all who pass by.[s] 15 You will be a reproach[t] and a taunt, a warning[u] and an object of horror to the nations around you when I inflict punishment on you in anger and in wrath and with stinging rebuke.[v] I the LORD have spoken.[w] 16 When I shoot at you with my deadly and destructive arrows of famine, I will shoot to destroy you. I will bring more and more famine upon you and cut off your supply of food.[x] 17 I will send famine and wild beasts[y] against you, and they will leave you childless. Plague and bloodshed[z] will sweep through you, and I will bring the sword against you. I the LORD have spoken.[a]”

A Prophecy Against the Mountains of Israel

6 The word of the LORD came to me:
2 “Son of man, set your face[b] against the mountains[c] of Israel; prophesy against them[d] 3 and say: ‘O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys:[e] I am about to bring a sword against you, and I will destroy your high places.[f] 4 Your altars will be demolished and your incense altars[g] will be smashed; and I will slay your people in front of your idols.[h] 5 I will lay the dead bodies of the Israelites in front of their idols, and I will scatter your bones[i] around your altars.[j] 6 Wherever you live,[k] the towns will be laid waste and the high places[l] demolished, so that your altars will be laid waste and devastated, your idols[m] smashed and ruined, your incense altars[n] broken down, and what you have made wiped out.[o] 7 Your people will fall slain[p] among you, and you will know that I am the LORD.[q] 8 “ ‘But I will spare some, for some of you will escape[r] the sword when you are scattered among the lands and nations.[s] 9 Then in the nations where they have been carried captive, those who escape will remember[t] me—how I have been grieved[u] by their adulterous hearts, which have turned away from me, and by their eyes, which have lusted after their idols.[v] They will loathe themselves for the evil[w] they have done and for all their detestable practices.[x] 10 And they will know that I am the LORD;[y] I did not threaten in vain to bring this calamity on them.[z]
11 “ ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Strike your hands together and stamp your feet and cry out “Alas!” because of all the wicked and detestable practices of the house of Israel, for they will fall by the sword, famine and

The End Has Come

7 The word of the LORD came to me:
2 "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to the land of Israel:
The end![i] The end has come upon the four corners[j] of the land. 3 The end is now upon you and I will unleash my anger against you. I will judge you according to your conduct[k] and repay you for all your detestable practices.[l] 4 I will not look on you with pity[m] or spare you; I will surely repay you for your conduct and the detestable practices among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.[n]
5 "This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Disaster![o] An unheard-of[n] disaster is coming. 6 The end[p] has come! The end has come! It has roused itself against you. It has come! 7 Doom has come upon you—you who dwell in the land. The time has come, the day[q] is near;[r] there is panic, not joy, upon the mountains. 8 I am about to pour out my wrath[s] on you and spend my anger against you; I will judge you according to your conduct and repay you for all your detestable practices.[t] 9 I will not look on you with pity or spare you;[u] I will repay you in accordance with your conduct and the detestable practices among you.[v] Then you will know that it is I the LORD who strikes the blow.[w] 10 "The day is here! It has come!
Doom has burst forth, the rod[x] has budded, arrogance has blossomed!
11 Violence[y] has grown into[o] a rod to punish wickedness; none of the people will be left, none of that crowd—no wealth, nothing of value.[z] 12 The time has come, the day has arrived. Let not the buyer[a] rejoice nor the seller grieve, for wrath is upon the whole crowd.[b] 13 The seller will not recover the land he has sold as long as both of them live, for the vision concerning the whole crowd will not be reversed. Because of their sins, not one of them will preserve his life.[c] 14 Though they blow the trumpet[d] and get everything ready, no one will go into battle, for my wrath[e] is upon the whole crowd.
15 "Outside is the sword, inside are plague and famine; those in the country will die by the sword, and those in the city will be devoured by famine and plague.[f] 16 All who survive[g] and escape will be in the mountains, moaning like doves[h] of the valleys, each because of his sins.[i] 17 Every hand will go limp,[j] and every knee will become as weak as water.[k] 18 They will put on sackcloth[l] and be clothed with terror.[m]
Their faces will be covered with shame and their heads will be shaved.[n] 19 They will throw their silver into the streets,[o]
and their gold will be an unclean thing.
Their silver and gold will not be able to save them in the day of the LORD's wrath.[p] They will not satisfy[q] their hunger or fill their stomachs with it, for it has made them stumble[r] into sin.[s] 20 They were proud of their beautiful jewelry and used it to make[t] their detestable idols and vile images.[u] Therefore I will turn these into an unclean thing for them.[v] 21 I will hand it all over as plunder[w] to foreigners and as loot to the wicked of the earth, and they will defile it.[x] 22 I will turn my face[y] away from them, and they will desecrate my treasured place; robbers will enter it and desecrate it.[z] 23 "Prepare chains, because the land is full of bloodshed[a] and the city is full of violence.[b] 24 I will bring the most wicked of the nations to take possession of their houses; I will put an end to the pride of the mighty, and their sanctuaries[c] will be desecrated.[d] 25 When terror comes, they will seek peace, but there will be none.[e] 26 Calamity upon calamity[f] will come, and rumor upon rumor. They will try to get a vision law by the priest will be lost, as will the counsel of the elders.[h] 27 The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed with

Idolatry in the Temple

8 In the sixth year, in the sixth month on the fifth day, while I was sitting in my house and the elders[d] of Judah were sitting before[e] me, the hand of the Sovereign LORD came upon me there.[f] 2I looked, and I saw a figure like that of a man.[p] From what appeared to be his waist down he was like fire, and from there up his appearance was as bright as glowing metal.[g] 3He stretched out what looked like a hand[h] and took me by the hair of my head. The Spirit lifted me up[i] between earth and heaven and in visions[j] of God he took me to Jerusalem, to the entrance to the north gate of the inner court,[k] where the idol that provokes to jealousy[l] stood. 4And there before me was the glory[m] of the God of Israel, as in the vision I had seen in the plain.[n]

5Then he said to me, "Son of man, look toward the north." So I looked, and in the entrance north of the gate of the altar I saw this idol[o] of jealousy.

6And he said to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing—the utterly detestable[p] things the house of Israel is doing here, things that will drive me far from my sanctuary?[q] But you will see things that are even more detestable."

7Then he brought me to the entrance to the court. I looked, and I saw a hole in the wall. 8He said to me, "Son of man, now dig into the wall." So I dug into the wall and saw a doorway there.

9And he said to me, "Go in and see the wicked and detestable things they are doing here." 10So I went in and looked, and I saw portrayed all over the walls[r] all kinds of crawling things and detestable[s] animals and all the idols of the house of Israel.[t] 11In front of them stood seventy elders[u] of the house of Israel, and Jaazaniah son of Shaphan was standing among them. Each had a censer[v] in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense[w] was rising.[x]

12He said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness,[y] each at the shrine of his own idol? They say, 'The LORD does not see[z] us; the LORD has forsaken the land.'" 13Again, he said, "You will see them doing things that are even more detestable."

14Then he brought me to the entrance to the north gate of the house of the LORD, and I saw women sitting there, mourning for Tammuz.[a] 15He said to me, "Do you see this, son of man? You will see things that are even more detestable than this."

16He then brought me into the inner court[b] of the house of the LORD, and there at the entrance to the temple, between the portico and the altar,[c] were about twenty-five men. With their backs toward the temple of the LORD and their faces toward the east, they were bowing down to the sun[d] in the east.[e]

17He said to me, "Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a trivial matter for the house of Judah to do the detestable things[f] they are doing here? Must they also fill the land with violence[g] and continually provoke me to anger?[h] Look at them putting the branch to their nose! 18Therefore I will deal with them in anger;[i] I will not look on them with pity[j] or spare them. Although they shout in my ears, I will not listen[k] to them."

Idolaters Killed

9 Then I heard him call out in a loud voice, "Bring the guards of the city here, each with a weapon in his hand." 2And I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate, which faces north, each with a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man clothed in linen[l] who had a writing kit at his side. They came in and stood beside the bronze altar.

3Now the glory[m] of the God of Israel went up from above the cherubim,[n] where it had been, and moved to the threshold of the temple. Then the LORD called to the man clothed in linen who had the writing kit at his side 4and said to him, "Go throughout the city of Jerusalem[o] and put a mark[p] on the foreheads of those who grieve and lament[q] over all the detestable things that are done in it.[r]"

5As I listened, he said to the others, "Follow him through the city and kill, without showing pity[s] or compassion.[t] 6Slaughter[u] old men, young men and maidens, women and children,[v] but do not touch anyone who has the mark.[w] Begin at my sanctu-any." So they began with the elders who were in front of the temple.

7Then he said to them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go!" So they went out and began killing throughout the city. 8While they were killing and I was left alone, I fell facedown, crying out, "Ah, Sovereign LORD! Are you going to destroy the entire remnant of Israel in this outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

9He answered me, "The sin of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great; the land is full of bloodshed and the city is full of injustice. They say, 'The LORD has forsaken the land;
the LORD does not see.' 10So I will not look on them with pity or spare them, but I will bring down on their own heads what they have done."

11Then the man in linen with the writing kit at his side brought back word, saying, "I have done as you commanded."

The Glory Departs From the Temple

10 I looked, and I saw the likeness of a throne of sapphire[a] above the expanse that was over the heads of the cherubim. 2The LORD said to the man clothed in linen, "Go in among the wheels beneath the cher-ubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and scatter them over the city." And as I watched, he went in.

3Now the cherubim were standing on the south side of the temple when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court. 4Then the glory of the LORD rose from above the cherubim and moved to the threshold of the temple. The cloud filled the temple, and the court was full of the radiance of the glory of the LORD. 5The sound of the wings of the cherubim could be heard as far away as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty[b] when he speaks.

6When the LORD commanded the man in linen, "Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cher-ubim," the man went in and stood beside a wheel. 7Then one of the cher-ubim reached out his hand to the fire that was among them. He took up some of it and put it into the hands of the man in linen, who took it and went out. 8(Under the wings of the cherubim could be seen what looked like the hands of a man.)

9I looked, and I saw beside the cher-ubim four wheels, one beside each of the cherubim; the wheels sparkled like chrysolite. 10As for their appearance, the four of them looked alike; each was like a wheel intersecting a wheel. 11As they moved, they would go in any one of the four directions the cherubim faced; the wheels did not turn about[c] as the cherubim went. The cherubim went in whatever direction the head faced, without turning as they went.
12Their entire bodies, including their backs, their hands and their wings, were completely full of eyes, as were their four wheels. 13I heard the wheels being called "the whirling wheels." 14Each of the cherubim had four faces: One face was that of a cherub, the second the face of a man, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15Then the cherubim rose upward.
These were the living creatures I had seen by the Kebar River. 16When the cherubim moved, the wheels beside them moved; and when the cherubim spread their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels did not leave their side. 17When the cherubim stood still, they also stood still; and when the cherubim rose, they rose with them, because the spirit of the living creatures was in them.

18Then the glory of the LORD departed from over the threshold of the temple and stopped above the cher-ubim. 19While I watched, the cher-ubim spread their wings and rose from the ground, and as they went, the wheels went with them. They stopped at the entrance to the east gate of the LORD's house, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.

20These were the living creatures I had seen beneath the God of Israel by the Kebar River, and I realized that they were cherubim. 21Each had four faces and four wings, and under their wings was what looked like the hands of a man. 22Their faces had the same appearance as those I had seen by the Kebar River. Each one went straight ahead.

Judgment on Israel's Leaders

11 Then the Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the gate of the house of the LORD that faces east. There

[a]1 Or lapis lazuli [b]5 Hebrew El-Shaddai [c]11 Or aside at the entrance to the gate were twenty-five men, and I saw among them Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah[a] son of Benaiah, leaders[b] of the people.[c] 2The LORD said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are plot-ting evil[d] and giving wicked advice in this city.[e] 3They say, 'Will it not soon be time to build houses?[t] This city is a cooking pot,[f] and we are the meat.'[g] 4Therefore prophesy[h] against them;

prophesy, son of man."
5Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon me, and he told me to say: "This is what the LORD says: That is what you are saying, O house of Israel, but I know what is going through your mind.[i] 6You have killed many people in this city and filled its streets with the dead.[j]
7"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The bodies you have thrown there are the meat and this city is the pot,[k] but I will drive you out of it.[l] 8You fear the sword,[m] and the sword is what I will bring against you, declares the Sovereign LORD.[n] 9I will drive you out of the city and hand you over[o] to foreigners and inflict punishment on you.[p] 10You will fall by the sword, and I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel.[q] Then you will know that I am the LORD. 11This city will not be a pot[r] for you, nor will you be the meat in it; I will execute judgment on you at the borders of Israel.
12And you will know that I am the LORD,[s] for you have not followed my decrees[t] or kept my laws but have conformed to the standards of the nations around you.[u]" 13Now as I was prophesying, Pelatiah[v] son of Benaiah died. Then I fell facedown and cried out in a loud voice,
"Ah, Sovereign LORD! Will you completely destroy the remnant of Israel?[w]"
14The word of the LORD came to me:
15"Son of man, your brothers—your brothers who are your blood relatives[u] and the whole house of Israel—are those of whom the people of Jerusalem have said, 'They are[v] far away from the LORD; this land was given to us as our possession.'[x]

Promised Return of Israel

16"Therefore say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I sent them far away among the nations and scattered them among the countries, yet for a little while I have been a sanctuary[y] for them in the countries where they have gone.'
17"Therefore say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will gather you from the nations and bring you back from the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you back the land of Israel again.'[z] 18"They will return to it and remove all its vile images[a] and detestable idols.[b] 19I will give them an undivided heart[c] and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone[d] and give them a heart of flesh.[e] 20Then they will follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.[f] They will be my people,[g] and I will be their God.[h] 21But as for those whose hearts are devoted to their vile images and detestable idols,[i] I will bring down on their own heads what they have done, declares the Sovereign LORD.[j]" 22Then the cherubim, with the wheels beside them, spread their wings, and the glory[k] of the God of Israel was above them.[l] 23The glory[m] of the LORD went up from within the city and stopped above the mountain[n] east of it. 24The Spirit[o] lifted me up and brought me to the exiles in Babylonia[w] in the vision[p] given by the Spirit of
God.
Then the vision I had seen went up from me, 25and I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.[q]

The Exile Symbolized

12 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, you are living among a rebellious people.[r] They have eyes to see but do not see and ears to hear but do not hear, for they are a rebellious people.[s] 3"Therefore, son of man, pack your belongings for exile and in the daytime, as they watch, set out and go from where you are to another place. Perhaps[t] they will understand,[u] though they are a rebellious house.[v] 4During the daytime, while they watch, bring out your belongings packed for exile.
Then in the evening, while they are watching, go out like those who go into exile.[w] 5While they watch, dig through the wall[x] and take your belongings out through it. 6Put them on your shoulder as they are watching and carry them out at dusk. Cover your face so that ing the day I brought out my things packed for exile. Then in the evening I dug through the wall with my hands. I took my belongings out at dusk, carrying them on my shoulders while they watched.

8In the morning the word of the LORD came to me: 9"Son of man, did not that rebellious house of Israel ask you,
'What are you doing?'[c] 10"Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This oracle concerns the prince in Jerusalem and the whole

tives.[e]

countries. 16But I will spare a few of them from the sword, famine and plague, so that in the nations where they go they may acknowledge all their detestable practices. Then they will know that I am the LORD.[o]"
17The word of the LORD came to me:
18"Son of man, tremble as you eat your food,[p] and shudder in fear as you drink your water. 19Say to the people of the land: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says about those living in Jerusa-water in despair, for their land will be stripped of everything[q] in it because of the violence of all who live there.[r]

waste and the land will be desolate.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.[s]'"
21The word of the LORD came to me:

you have in the land of Israel: 'The will, and it shall be fulfilled without delay.[y] For in your days, you rebellious house, I will fulfill[z] whatever I

26The word of the LORD came to me:
27"Son of man, the house of Israel is saying, 'The vision he sees is for many years from now, and he prophesies about the distant future.'[b] 28"Therefore say to them, 'This is my words will be delayed any longer; whatever I say will be fulfilled, declares

the Sovereign LORD.'"

False Prophets Condemned

13 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, prophesy against the prophets[c] of Israel who are now prophesying. Say to those who prophesy out of their own imagination:[d] 'Hear the word of the LORD![e] 3This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
Woe to the foolish* prophets[f] who follow their own spirit and have seen nothing![g] 4Your prophets, O Israel, are like jackals among ruins. 5You have not gone up to the breaks in the wall to repair[h] it for the house of Israel so that it will stand firm in the battle on the day of the LORD.[i] 6Their visions are false[j] and their divinations a lie. They say, "The LORD declares," when the LORD has not sent[k] them; yet they expect their words to be fulfilled.[l] 7Have you not seen false visions[m] and uttered lying divinations when you say, "The LORD declares," though I have not spoken?
8" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because of your false words and lying visions, I am against you,[n] declares the Sovereign LORD. 9My hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying[o] divi-nations. They will not belong to the council of my people or be listed in the records[p] of the house of Israel, nor will they enter the land of Israel. Then you

*3 Or wicked

will know that I am the Sovereign
LORD.[a]

10" 'Because they lead my people astray,[b] saying, "Peace,"[c] when there is no peace, and because, when a flimsy wall is built, they cover it with whitewash,[d] 11therefore tell those who cover it with whitewash that it is going to fall. Rain will come in torrents, and I will send hailstones[e] hurtling down,[f]
and violent winds will burst forth.[g] 12When the wall collapses, will people not ask you, "Where is the whitewash you covered it with?"

13" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my wrath I will unleash a violent wind, and in my anger hailstones[h] and torrents of rain[i] will fall with destructive fury.[j] 14I will tear down the wall[k] you have covered with whitewash and will level it to the ground so that its foundation[l] will be laid bare. When it[y] falls,[m] you will be destroyed in it; and you will know that I am the LORD. 15So I will spend my wrath against the wall and against those who covered it with whitewash. I will say to you, "The wall is gone and so are those who whitewashed it, 16those prophets of Israel who prophesied to Jerusalem and saw visions of peace for her when there was no peace, declares the Sovereign LORD."[n] '

17"Now, son of man, set your face[o] against the daughters[p] of your people who prophesy out of their own imagination. Prophesy against them[q] 18and say, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the women who sew magic charms on all their wrists and make veils of various lengths for their heads in order to ensnare people. Will you ensnare the lives of my people but preserve your own? 19You have profaned[r] me among my people for a few handfuls of barley and scraps of bread.[s] By lying to my people, who listen to lies, you have killed those who should not have died and have spared those who should not live.[t]

20" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against your magic charms with which you ensnare people like birds and I will tear them from your arms; I will set free the people that you ensnare like birds.[u] 21I will tear off your veils and save my people from your hands, and they will no longer fall prey to your power. Then you will know that I am the LORD.[v] 22Because you disheartened the righteous with your lies,[w] when I had brought them no grief, and because you encouraged the wicked not to turn from their evil ways and so save their lives,[x] 23therefore you will no longer see false visions[y] or practice divination.[z] I will save[a] my people from your hands. And then you will know that I am the LORD.[b] ' "

Idolaters Condemned

14 Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me.[c] 2Then the word of the LORD came to me: 3"Son of man, these men have set up idols in their hearts[d] and put wicked stumbling blocks[e] before their faces. Should I let them inquire of me at all?[f] 4Therefore speak to them and tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When any Israelite sets up idols in his heart and puts a wicked stumbling block before his face and then goes to a prophet, I the LORD will answer him myself in keeping with his great idolatry. 5I will do this to recapture the hearts of the people of Israel, who have all deserted[g] me for their idols.'[h]

6"Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Repent![i] Turn from your idols and renounce all your detestable practices![j]

7" 'When any Israelite or any alien[k] living in Israel separates himself from me and sets up idols in his heart and puts a wicked stumbling block[l] before his face and then goes to a prophet to inquire[m] of me, I the LORD will answer him myself. 8I will set my face against[n] that man and make him an example[o] and a byword.[p] I will cut him off from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.[q]

9" 'And if the prophet[r] is enticed[s] to utter a prophecy, I the LORD have enticed that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand against him and destroy him from among my people Israel.[t] 10They will bear their guilt—the prophet will be as guilty as the one who consults him. 11Then the people of Israel will no longer stray[u] from me, nor will they defile themselves anymore with all their sins. They will be my people,[v] and I will be their God, declares the Sovereign LORD.[w] ' "

y14 Or the city

13"Son of man, if a country sins[a] against me by being unfaithful and I stretch out my hand against it to cut off its food supply[b] and send famine upon it and kill its men and their animals,[c] 14even if these three men—Noah,[d] Daniel[a][e] and Job[f]—were in it, they could save only themselves by their righteousness,[g] declares the Sovereign
LORD.
15"Or if I send wild beasts[h] through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no one can pass through it because of the beasts,[i] 16as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be desolate.[j] 17"Or if I bring a sword[k] against that country and say, 'Let the sword pass throughout the land,' and I kill its men and their animals,[l] 18as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if these three men were in it, they could not save their own sons or daughters.
They alone would be saved.
19"Or if I send a plague into that land and pour out my wrath[m] upon it through bloodshed,[n] killing its men and their animals,[o] 20as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, even if Noah, Daniel and Job were in it, they could save neither son nor daughter.
They would save only themselves by their righteousness.[p] 21"For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How much worse will it be when I send against Jerusalem my four dreadful judgments[q]—sword[r] and famine[s] and wild beasts and plague[t]—to kill its men and their animals![u] 22Yet there will be some survivors[v]—sons and daughters who will be brought out of it.[w] They will come to you, and when you see their conduct[x] and their actions, you will be consoled[y] regarding the disaster I have brought upon Jerusalem—every disaster I have brought upon it. 23You will be consoled when you see their conduct and their actions, for you will know that I have done nothing in it without cause, declares the Sovereign LORD.[z]"

Jerusalem, A Useless Vine

15 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, how is the wood of a vine[a] better than that of a branch on any of the trees in the forest?
3Is wood ever taken from it to make anything useful?[b] Do they make pegs[c] from it to hang things on? 4And after it is thrown on the fire as fuel and the fire burns both ends and chars the middle,
is it then useful for anything?[d] 5If it was not useful for anything when it was whole, how much less can it be made into something useful when the fire has burned it and it is charred?
6"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As I have given the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest as fuel for the fire, so will I treat the people living in Jerusalem. 7I will set my face against[e] them. Although they have come out of the fire[f][g], the fire will yet consume them.
And when I set my face against them, you will know that I am the LORD.[h] 8I will make the land desolate[i] because they have been unfaithful,[j] declares
the Sovereign LORD."

An Allegory of Unfaithful Jerusalem

16 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, confront[k] Jerusalem with her detestable practices[l] 3and say, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Jerusalem: Your ancestry[m] and birth were in the land of the Canaanites; your father[n] was an Amorite[o] and your mother a Hittite.[p] 4On the day you were born[q] your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to make you clean, nor were you rubbed with salt or wrapped in cloths.
5No one looked on you with pity or had compassion enough to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, for on the day you were born you were despised.
6" 'Then I passed by and saw you kicking about in your blood, and as you lay there in your blood I said to you, "Live!"[b][r] 7I made you grow[s] like a plant of the field. You grew up and developed and became the most beautiful of jewels.[c] Your breasts were formed and your hair grew, you who were naked and bare.[t] 8" 'Later I passed by, and when I looked at you and saw that you were old enough for love, I spread the corner of my garment[u] over you and ointments on you. 10I clothed you with an embroidered[d] dress and put leather sandals on you. I dressed you in fine linen[e] and covered you with costly gar-

I put bracelets[h] on your arms and a necklace[i] around your neck, 12and I put a ring on your nose,[j] earrings[k] on your ears and a beautiful crown[l] on your head.[m] 13So you were adorned with gold and silver; your clothes[n] were of fine linen and costly fabric and embroidered cloth. Your food was fine became very beautiful and rose to be a queen.[p] 14And your fame[q] spread beauty,[r] because the splendor I had tute. You lavished your favors on any-tion.[w] Such things should not happen, them.[x] 18And you took your embroidered clothes to put on them, and you offered my oil and incense[y] before them. 19Also the food I provided for you—the fine flour, olive oil and honey I gave you to eat—you offered as fragrant incense before them. That is what happened, declares the Sovereign

LORD.[z]

idols. Was your prostitution not enough?[c] 21You slaughtered my chil-

for yourself and made a lofty shrine[i] in every public square.[j] 25At the head of every street[k] you built your lofty shrines and degraded your beauty, offering your body with increasing pro-miscuity to anyone who passed by.[l] 26You engaged in prostitution[m] with the Egyptians,[n] your lustful neighbors, and provoked[o] me to anger with your increasing promiscuity.[p] 27So I stretched out my hand[q] against you and reduced your territory; I gave you over[r] to the greed of your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines,[s] who were shocked by your lewd conduct.
28You engaged in prostitution with the Assyrians[t] too, because you were insatiable; and even after that, you still were not satisfied.[u] 29Then you increased your promiscuity to include Babylonia,[f][v] a land of merchants, but even with this you were not satisfied.[w] 30“ ‘How weak-willed you are, declares the Sovereign LORD, when you do all these things, acting like a brazen prostitute![x] 31When you built your mounds at the head of every street and made your lofty shrines[y] in every public square, you were unlike a prostitute, because you scorned payment.
32“ ‘You adulterous wife! You prefer strangers to your own husband!
33Every prostitute receives a fee,[z] but you give gifts[a] to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from everywhere for your illicit favors.[b] 34So in your prostitution you are the opposite of others; no one runs after you for your favors. You are the very opposite, for you give payment and none is given to you.
35“ ‘Therefore, you prostitute, hear the word of the LORD! 36This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you poured out your wealth[g] and exposed your nakedness in your promiscuity with your lovers, and because of all your detestable idols, and because you gave them your children's blood,[c] 37therefore I am going to gather all your lovers, with whom you found pleasure, those you loved as well as those you hated. I will gather them against you from all around and will strip[d] you your nakedness.[a] 38I will sentence you to the punishment of women who commit adultery and who shed blood;[b] I will bring upon you the blood vengeance of my wrath and jealous anger.[c] 39Then I will hand you over[d] to your lovers, and they will tear down your mounds and destroy your lofty shrines. They will strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewelry and leave you naked and bare.[e] 40They will bring a mob against you, who will stone[f] you and hack you to pieces with their swords. 41They will burn down[g] your houses and inflict punishment on you in the sight of many women.[h] I will put a stop[i] to your prostitution, and you will no longer pay your lovers.

42Then my wrath against you will subside and my jealous anger will turn away from you; I will be calm and no longer angry.[j]

43" 'Because you did not remember[k]
the days of your youth but enraged me with all these things, I will surely bring down[l] on your head what you have done, declares the Sovereign LORD. Did you not add lewdness to all your other detestable practices?[m]

44" 'Everyone who quotes proverbs[n] will quote this proverb about you:
"Like mother, like daughter." 45You are a true daughter of your mother, who despised[o] her husband[p] and her children; and you are a true sister of your sisters, who despised their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amo-rite.[q] 46Your older sister[r] was Samaria, who lived to the north of you with her daughters; and your younger sister, who lived to the south of you with her daughters, was Sodom.[s] 47You not only walked in their ways and copied their detestable practices, but in all your ways you soon became more depraved than they.[t] 48As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign[u] LORD, your sister Sodom[v] and her daughters never did what you and your daughters have done.[w]

49" 'Now this was the sin of your sister Sodom:[x] She and her daughters were arrogant,[y] overfed and unconcerned;[z] they did not help the poor and needy.[a] 50They were haughty[b] and did detestable things before me.
Therefore I did away with them as you have seen.[c] 51Samaria did not commit half the sins you did. You have done more detestable things than they, and have made your sisters seem righteous by all these things you have done.[d] 52Bear your disgrace, for you have furnished some justification for your sisters. Because your sins were more vile than theirs, they appear more righteous[e] than you. So then, be ashamed and bear[f] your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous.

53" 'However, I will restore[g] the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and of Samaria and her daughters, and your fortunes along with them,[h] 54so that you may bear your disgrace[i] and be ashamed of all you have done in giving them comfort. 55And your sisters, Sodom with her daughters and Samaria with her daughters, will return to what they were before; and you and your daughters will return to what you were before.[j] 56You would not even mention your sister Sodom in the day of your pride, 57before your wickedness was uncovered. Even so, you are now scorned[k] by the daughters of Edom[h,l] and all her neighbors and the daughters of the Philistines—all those around you who despise you. 58You will bear the consequences of your lewdness and your detestable practices, declares
the LORD.[m]

59" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will deal with you as you deserve, because you have despised my oath by breaking the covenant.[n] 60Yet I will remember the covenant[o] I made with you in the days of your youth,[p]
and I will establish an everlasting covenant[q] with you. 61Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed[r] when you receive your sisters, both those who are older than you and those who are younger. I will give them to you as daughters,[s] but not on the basis of my covenant with you. 62So
I will establish my covenant[t] with you, and you will know that I am the LORD.[u] 63Then, when I make atonement[v] for you for all you have done, you will remember and be ashamed[w] and never again open your mouth[x] because of your humiliation, declares the Sovereign LORD.[y] ' "

parable.[a] 3Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: A great eagle[b] with powerful wings, long feathers and full plumage of varied colors came to Lebanon.[c] Taking hold of the top of a cedar, 4he broke off[d] its topmost shoot and carried it away to a land of merchants, where he planted it in a city of traders.

5" 'He took some of the seed of your land and put it in fertile soil. He planted it like a willow by abundant water,[e] 6and it sprouted and became a low, spreading vine. Its branches[f] turned toward him, but its roots remained under it. So it became a vine and produced branches and put out leafy boughs.[g]

7" 'But there was another great eagle with powerful wings and full plumage.
The vine now sent out its roots toward him from the plot where it was planted and stretched out its branches to him for water.[h] 8It had been planted in good soil by abundant water so that it would produce branches,[i] bear fruit and become a splendid vine.'

9"Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will it thrive? Will it not be uprooted and stripped of its fruit so that it withers? All its new growth will wither. It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it up by the roots.[j] 10Even if it[k] is transplanted, will it thrive? Will it not wither completely when the east wind strikes it—wither away in the plot where it grew?[l] ' "

11Then the word of the LORD came to me: 12"Say to this rebellious house, 'Do you not know what these things mean?[m]' Say to them: 'The king of Babylon went to Jerusalem and carried off her king and her nobles,[n] bringing them back with him to Babylon.[o] 13Then he took a member of the royal family and made a treaty[p] with him, putting him under oath.[q] He also carried away the leading men[r] of the land, 14so that the kingdom would be brought low,[s] unable to rise again, surviving only by keeping his treaty. 15But the king rebelled[t] against him by sending his envoys to Egypt[u] to get horses and a large army.[v] Will he succeed?
Will he who does such things escape?
Will he break the treaty and yet escape?[w]

16" 'As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, he shall die[x] in Babylon, in the land of the king who put him on the throne, whose oath he despised and whose treaty he broke.[y] 17Pharaoh[z] with his mighty army and great horde will be of no help to him in war, when ramps[a] are built and siege works erected to destroy many lives.[b] 18He despised the oath by breaking the covenant. Because he had given his hand in pledge[c] and yet did all these things, he shall not escape.

19" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will bring down on his head my oath that he despised and my covenant that he broke.[d] 20I will spread my net[e] for him, and he will be caught in my snare.
I will bring him to Babylon and execute judgment[f] upon him there because he was unfaithful[g] to me. 21All his fleeing troops will fall by the sword,[h] and the survivors[i] will be scattered to the winds.[j] Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken.[k]

22" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will take a shoot[l] from the very top of a cedar and plant it; I will break off a tender sprig from its topmost shoots and plant it on a high and lofty mountain.[m] 23On the mountain heights[n] of Israel I will plant it; it will produce branches and bear fruit[o] and become a splendid cedar. Birds of every kind will nest in it; they will find shelter in the shade of its branches.[p] 24All the trees of the field[q] will know that I the LORD bring down[r] the tall tree and make the low tree grow tall. I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish.[s]

" 'I the LORD have spoken, and I will do it.[t] ' "

The Soul Who Sins Will Die

18 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"What do you people mean by quoting this proverb about the land
of Israel:

" 'The fathers eat sour grapes,
and the children's teeth are set on edge'?[u]

3"As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, you will no longer quote this proverb[v] in Israel. 4For every living soul belongs to me, the father as well as the son—both alike belong to me. The soul who sins[w] is the one who will die.[x]

5"Suppose there is a righteous man who does what is just and right.

declares the Sovereign LORD.

10"Suppose he has a violent son, who sheds blood[n] or does any of these other things[b] 11(though the father has done none of them):

"He eats at the mountain shrines.[o]
He defiles his neighbor's wife.
12He oppresses the poor[p] and needy.
He commits robbery.
He does not return what he took in pledge.[q]
He looks to the idols.
He does detestable things.[r] 13He lends at usury and takes excessive interest.[s]

Will such a man live? He will not! Because he has done all these detestable things, he will surely be put to death and his blood will be on his own head.[t]
14"But suppose this son has a son who sees all the sins his father commits, and though he sees them, he does not do such things:[u]

17He withholds his hand from sin[c] and takes no usury or excessive interest.
He keeps my laws[z] and follows my
decrees.

He will not die for his father's sin; he will surely live. 18But his father will die for his own sin, because he practiced extortion, robbed his brother and did what was wrong among his people.
19"Yet you ask, 'Why does the son not share the guilt of his father?' Since the son has done what is just and right and has been careful to keep all my decrees, he will surely live.[a] 20The soul who sins is the one who will die.[b] The son will not share the guilt of the father, nor will the father share the guilt of the son. The righteousness of the righteous man will be credited to him, and the wickedness of the wicked will be charged against him.[c] 21"But if[d] a wicked man turns away from all the sins he has committed and keeps all my decrees[e] and does what is has committed will be remembered against him. Because of the righteous things he has done, he will live.[g] 23Do I take any pleasure in the death of the wicked? declares the Sovereign LORD.

Rather, am I not pleased[h] when they turn from their ways and live?[i] 24"But if a righteous man turns[j] from wicked man does, will he live? None of the righteous things he has done will

that are unjust? 26If a righteous man turns from his righteousness and commits sin, he will die for it; because of the sin he has committed he will die.

the princes[k] of Israel 2and say:

"'What a lioness[l] was your mother

She lay down among the young lions and reared her cubs.[m]

He learned to tear the prey

for he was now a strong lion.
He learned to tear the prey

The land and all who were in it were terrified by his roaring.
8Then the nations[t] came against him, those from regions round about.
They spread their net[u] for him,
and he was trapped in their pit.[v]

Babylon.[x]
They put him in prison,

Rebellious Israel

20 In the seventh year, in the fifth month on the tenth day, some of the elders of Israel came to inquire[m] of the LORD, and they sat down in front of
me.[n]
2Then the word of the LORD came to me: 3"Son of man, speak to the elders[o] of Israel and say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Have you come to inquire[p] of me? As surely as I live, I will not let you inquire of me, declares the Sovereign LORD.[q]' 4"Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Then confront them with the detestable practices of their fathers[r] 5and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day I chose[s] Israel, I swore with uplift-ed hand[t] to the descendants of the house of Jacob and revealed myself to them in Egypt. With uplifted hand I said to them, "I am the LORD your God.[u]" 6On that day I swore[v] to them that I would bring them out of Egypt into a land I had searched out for them,
a land flowing with milk and honey,[w] the most beautiful of all lands.[x] 7And I said to them, "Each of you, get rid of the vile images[y] you have set your eyes on, and do not defile yourselves with the idols[z] of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.[a]"

[l]7 Targum (see Septuagint); Hebrew He knew manuscripts your blood [n]14 Or from under its

[8]“ ‘But they rebelled against me and would not listen to me;[a] they did not get rid of the vile images they had set their eyes on, nor did they forsake the idols of Egypt.[b] So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger against them in Egypt.[c] [9]But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned[d] in the eyes of the nations they lived among and in whose sight I had revealed myself to the Israelites by bringing them out of Egypt.[e] [10]Therefore I led them out of Egypt and brought them into the desert.[f] [11]I gave them my decrees and made known to them my laws, for the man who obeys them will live by them.[g] [12]Also I gave them my Sabbaths[h] as a sign[i] between us,[j] so they would know that I the LORD made them holy.[k]

[13]“ ‘Yet the people of Israel rebelled[l] against me in the desert. They did not follow my decrees but rejected my laws[m]—although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they utterly desecrated my Sabbaths.[n] So I said I would pour out my wrath[o] on them and destroy[p] them in the desert.[q] [14]But for the sake of my name I did what would keep it from being profaned[r] in rejected my laws[v] and did not follow baths. For their hearts[w] were devoted to their idols.[x] [17]Yet I looked on them with pity and did not destroy[y] them or put an end to them in the desert. [18]I said to their children in the desert, “Do not follow the statutes of your fathers[z] or keep their laws or defile yourselves[a] with their idols. [19]I am the LORD your God;[b] follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws.[c] [20]Keep my Sabbaths[d] holy, that they may be a sign[e] between us. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.[f]”

[21]“ ‘But the children rebelled against me: They did not follow my decrees, they were not careful to keep my laws[g]—although the man who obeys them will live by them—and they desecrated my Sabbaths. So I said I would pour out my wrath on them and spend my anger[h] against them in the desert.[i] [22]But I withheld[j] my hand, and for the sake of my name[k] I did what would keep it from being profaned in the eyes of the nations in whose sight I had brought them out. [23]Also with uplifted hand I swore to them in the desert that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter[l] them through the countries, [24]because they had not obeyed my laws but had rejected my decrees[m] and desecrated my Sabbaths,[n] and their eyes lusted after[o] their fathers' idols.[p] [25]I also gave them over[q] to statutes that were not good and laws they could not live by;[r] [26]I let them become defiled through their gifts—the sacrifice[s] of every first-born[o]—that I might fill them with horror so they would know that I am the LORD.[t]’

[27]“Therefore, son of man, speak to the people of Israel and say to them,
‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
In this also your fathers[u] blasphemed[v] me by forsaking me:[w] [28]When I brought them into the land[x] I had sworn to give them and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, there they offered their sacrifices, made offerings that provoked me to anger, presented their fragrant incense and poured out their drink offerings.[y] [29]Then I said to them: What is this high place[z] you go to?’ ” (It is called Bamah[p] to this day.)

Judgment and Restoration

[30]“Therefore say to the house of Israel: ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Will you defile yourselves[a] the way your fathers did and lust after their vile images?[b] [31]When you offer your gifts—the sacrifice of your sons[c] in[q] the fire—you continue to defile yourselves with all your idols to this day. Am I to let you inquire of me, O house of Israel? As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will not let you inquire of me.[d]

[32]“ ‘You say, “We want to be like the nations, like the peoples of the world, who serve wood and stone.” But what you have in mind will never happen.
[33]As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will rule over you with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm[e] and with outpoured wrath.[f] [34]I will bring you from the nations[g] and gath-

Babylon, God's Sword of Judgment

21 The word of the LORD came to me:[m] 2"Son of man, set your face against[n] Jerusalem and preach against the sanctuary.[o] Prophesy against[p] the land of Israel 3and say to her: 'This is what the LORD says: I am against you.[q] I will draw my sword[r] from its scabbard and cut off from you both the righteous and the wicked.[s] 4Because I am going to cut off the righteous and the wicked, my sword[t] will be unsheathed against everyone from south to north.[u] 5Then all people will know that I the LORD have drawn my sword[v] from its scabbard; it will not return[w] again.'[x]
6"Therefore groan, son of man!
Groan before them with broken heart and bitter grief.[y] 7And when they ask you, 'Why are you groaning?'[z] you shall say, 'Because of the news that is coming. Every heart will melt[a] and every hand go limp;[b] every spirit will become faint[c] and every knee become as weak as water.'[d] It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD."
8The word of the LORD came to me:
9"Son of man, prophesy and say, 'This is what the Lord says:

" 'A sword, a sword,
  sharpened and polished—10sharpened for the slaughter,[e] polished to flash like lightning!

" 'Shall we rejoice in the scepter of my son ⌞Judah⌟? The sword despises every such stick.[f]

11" 'The sword is appointed to be polished,[g]
  to be grasped with the hand;
it is sharpened and polished, made ready for the hand of the slayer.
12Cry out and wail, son of man, take, both starting from the same country. Make a signpost[j] where the road branches off to the city. 20Mark out one road for the sword to come against other against Judah and fortified Jerusalem. 21For the king of Babylon will stop at the fork in the road, at the junction of the two roads, to seek an omen: He will cast lots[l] with arrows, he will consult his idols,[m] he will examine the liver.[n] 22Into his right hand will come the lot for Jerusalem, where he is to set up battering rams, to give the command to slaughter, to sound the battle cry,[o] to set battering rams against the gates, to build a ramp[p] and to erect siege works.[q] 23It will seem like a false omen to those who have sworn allegiance to him, but he will remind[r] them of their guilt[s] and take them cap-

Jerusalem's Sins

22 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, will you judge her? Will you judge this city of bloodshed?[k] Then confront her with all her detestable practices[l] 3and say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O city that brings on herself doom by shedding blood[m] in her midst and defiles herself by making idols, 4you have become guilty because of the blood you have shed[n] and have become defiled by the idols you have made. You have brought your days to a close, and the end of your years has come.[a] Therefore I will make you an object of scorn[b] to the nations and a laughingstock to all the countries.[c] 5Those who are near and those who are far away will mock you, O infamous city, full of turmoil.[d] 6" 'See how each of the princes of Israel who are in you uses his power to shed blood.[e] 7In you they have treated father and mother with contempt;[f] in you they have oppressed the alien[g] and mistreated the fatherless and the widow.[h] 8You have despised my holy things and desecrated my Sabbaths.[i] 9In you are slanderous men[j] bent on shedding blood;[k] in you are those who eat at the mountain shrines[l] and commit lewd acts.[m] 10In you are those who dishonor their fathers' bed;[n] in you are those who violate women during their period,[o] when they are ceremonially unclean.[p] 11In you one man commits a detestable offense with his neighbor's wife,[q] another shamefully defiles his daughter-in-law,[r] and another violates his sister,[s] his own father's daughter.[t] 12In you men accept bribes[u] to shed blood; you take usury[v] and excessive interest[t] and make unjust gain from your neighbors[w] by extortion. And you have forgotten[x] me, declares the Sovereign LORD.[y]

13" 'I will surely strike my hands[z] together at the unjust gain[a] you have made and at the blood[b] you have shed in your midst.[c] 14Will your courage endure[d] or your hands[e] be strong in the day I deal with you? I the LORD have spoken,[f] and I will do it.[g] 15I will disperse you among the nations and scatter[h] you through the countries; and I will put an end to[i] your uncleanness.[j] 16When you have been defiled[u] in the eyes of the nations, you will know that I am the LORD.' "
17Then the word of the LORD came to me: 18"Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross[k] to me; all of them are the copper, tin, iron and lead left inside a furnace.[l] They are but the dross of silver.[m] 19Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: 'Because you have all become dross,[n] I will gather you into Jerusalem. 20As men gather silver, copper, iron, lead and tin into a furnace to melt it with a fiery blast, so will I gather you in my anger and my wrath and put you inside the city and melt you.[o] 21I will gather you and I will blow[p] on you with my fiery wrath, and you will be melted inside her.[q] 22As silver is melted[r] in a furnace, so you will be melted inside her, and you will know that I the LORD have poured out my wrath[s] upon you.' "[t] 23Again the word of the LORD came to me: 24"Son of man, say to the land,
'You are a land that has had no rain or showers[v] in the day of wrath.'[u] 25There is a conspiracy[v] of her princes[w] within her like a roaring lion[w] tearing its prey; they devour people,[x] take treasures and precious things and make many widows[y] within her. 26Her priests do violence to my law[z] and profane my holy things; they do not distinguish between the holy and the common;[a] they teach that there is no difference between the unclean and the clean;[b] and they shut their eyes to the keeping of my Sabbaths, so that I am profaned[c] among them.[d] 27Her officials[e] within her are like wolves[f] tearing their prey; they shed blood and kill people[g] to make unjust gain.[h] 28Her prophets whitewash[i] these deeds for them by false visions and lying divinations.[j] They say, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says'—when the LORD has not spoken.[k] 29The people of the land practice extortion and commit robbery;[l] they oppress the poor and needy and mistreat the alien,[m] denying them justice.[n]
30"I looked for a man among them who would build up the wall[o] and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found none.[p] 31So I will pour out my wrath on them and consume them with my fiery anger,[q] bringing down[r] on their own heads all they have done, declares the Sovereign
LORD.[s] "

Two Adulterous Sisters

me: 2"Son of man, there were their youth.[w] In that land their breasts were fondled and their virgin bosoms lah, and her sister was Oholibah. They were mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

5 "Oholah engaged in prostitution while she was still mine; and she lusted after her lovers, the Assyrians—warriors 6 clothed in blue, governors and commanders, all of them handsome young men, and mounted horsemen. 7 She gave herself as a prostitute to all the elite of the Assyrians and defiled herself with all the idols of everyone she lusted after. 8 She did not give up the prostitution she began in Egypt, when during her youth men slept with her, caressed her virgin bosom and poured out their lust upon
her.
9 "Therefore I handed her over to her lovers, the Assyrians, for whom she lusted. 10 They stripped her naked, took away her sons and daughters and killed her with the sword. She became a byword among women, and punishment was inflicted on her.
11 "Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet in her lust and prostitution she was more depraved than her sister. 12 She too lusted after the Assyrians—governors and commanders, warriors in full dress, mounted horsemen, all handsome young men. 13 I saw that she too defiled herself; both of them went the same way.
14 "But she carried her prostitution still further. She saw men portrayed on a wall, figures of Chaldeans[a] portrayed in red, 15 with belts around their waists and flowing turbans on their heads; all of them looked like Babylonian chariot officers, natives of Chaldea.[b] 16 As soon as she saw them, she lusted after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. 17 Then the Babylonians came to her, to the bed of love, and in their lust they defiled her.
After she had been defiled by them,
she turned away from them in disgust. 18 When she carried on her prostitution openly and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, just as I had turned away from her sister. 19 Yet she became more and more promiscuous as she recalled the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in Egypt. 20 There she lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses. 21 So you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when in Egypt your bosom was caressed and your young breasts fon-dled.[c] 22 "Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stir up your lovers against you, those you turned away from in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side— 23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, the men of Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, handsome young men, all of them governors and commanders, chariot officers and men of high rank, all mounted on horses. 24 They will come against you with weapons,[d] chariots and wagons and with a throng of people; they will take up positions against you on every side with large and small shields and with helmets. I will turn you over to them for punishment, and they will punish you according to their standards. 25 I will direct my jealous anger against you, and they will deal with you in fury. They will cut off your noses and your ears, and those of you who are left will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and daughters, and those of you who are left will be consumed by fire. 26 They will also strip you of your clothes and take your fine jewelry. 27 So I will put a stop to the lewdness and prostitution you began in Egypt. You will not look on these things with longing or remember Egypt anymore.
28 "For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to hand you over to those you hate, to those you turned away from in disgust. 29 They will deal with you in hatred and take away everything you have worked for.
They will leave you naked and bare, and the shame of your prostitution will be exposed. Your lewdness and pro-miscuity 30 have brought this upon you, because you lusted after the nations and defiled yourself with their idols. 31 You have gone the way of your sister; so I will put her cup into
your hand.
32 "This is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

"You will drink your sister's cup,
a cup large and deep;
it will bring scorn and derision,
for it holds so much.

[a]14 Or Babylonians [b]15 Or Babylonia; also in verse 16 [c]21 Syriac (see also verse 3); Hebrew caressed because of your young breasts [d]24 The meaning of the Hebrew for this word is uncertain.

33You will be filled with drunkenness and sorrow,
the cup of ruin and desolation,
the cup of your sister Samaria.[a] 34You will drink it[b] and drain it dry;
you will dash it to pieces and tear your breasts.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign
LORD.[c]

35"Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you have forgotten[d] me and thrust me behind your back,[e] you must bear[f] the consequences of your lewdness and prostitution."
36The LORD said to me: "Son of man,
will you judge Oholah and Oholibah?
Then confront[g] them with their detestable practices,[h] 37for they have committed adultery and blood is on their hands. They committed adultery with their idols; they even sacrificed their children, whom they bore to me,[b] as food for them.[i] 38They have also done this to me: At that same time they defiled my sanctuary[j] and desecrated my Sabbaths.[k] 39On the very day they sacrificed their children to their idols, they entered my sanctuary and desecrated[l] it. That is what they did in my house.[m] 40"They even sent messengers for men who came from far away,[n] and when they arrived you bathed yourself for them, painted your eyes[o] and put on your jewelry.[p] 41You sat on an elegant couch,[q] with a table[r] spread before it on which you had placed the incense[s] and oil that belonged to me.[t] 42"The noise of a carefree[u] crowd was around her; Sabeans[c][v] were brought from the desert along with men from the rabble, and they put bracelets[w] on the arms of the woman and her sister and beautiful crowns on their heads.[x] 43Then I said about the one worn out by adultery, 'Now let them use her as a prostitute,[y] for that is all she is.' 44And they slept with her.
As men sleep with a prostitute, so they slept with those lewd women, Oholah and Oholibah. 45But righteous men will sentence them to the punishment of women who commit adultery and shed blood,[z] because they are adulterous and blood is on their hands.[a]
46"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Bring a mob[b] against them and give them over to terror and plunder.[c] 47The mob will stone them and cut them down with their swords; they will

The Cooking Pot

24 In the ninth year, in the tenth month on the tenth day, the word of the LORD came to me:[k] 2"Son of man, record[l] this date, this very date, because the king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day.[m] 3Tell this rebellious house[n] a parable[o] and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

" 'Put on the cooking pot;[p] put it on
and pour water into it.
4Put into it the pieces of meat, all the choice pieces—the leg and the shoulder.
Fill it with the best of these bones;[q]
5 take the pick of the flock.[r]
Pile wood beneath it for the bones;
bring it to a boil
and cook the bones in it.[s]

6" 'For this is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

" 'Woe[t] to the city of bloodshed,[u]
to the pot now encrusted, whose deposit will not go away!
Empty it piece by piece without casting lots[v] for them.[w]

7" 'For the blood she shed is in her midst:
She poured it on the bare rock;
she did not pour it on the ground,
where the dust would cover it.[x] 8To stir up wrath and take revenge[y]
I put her blood on the bare rock, so that it would not be covered.

9" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign
LORD says:

" 'Woe to the city of bloodshed!
I, too, will pile the wood high.
10So heap on the wood and kindle the fire.
Cook the meat well,
mixing in the spices;
and let the bones be charred.
11Then set the empty pot on the coals till it becomes hot and its copper glows

b37 Or even made the children they bore to me pass through the fire c42 Or drunkards

so its impurities may be melted and its deposit burned away.[a] 12 It has frustrated all efforts; its heavy deposit has not been removed,
not even by fire.

13 "'Now your impurity is lewdness.
Because I tried to cleanse you but you would not be cleansed[b] from your impurity, you will not be clean again until my wrath against you has subsided.[c]

14 "'I the LORD have spoken.[d] The time has come for me to act.[e] I will not hold back; I will not have pity,[f] nor will I relent.[g] You will be judged according to your conduct and your actions,[h] declares the Sovereign

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

15 The word of the LORD came to me:
16 "Son of man, with one blow[j] I am about to take away from you the delight of your eyes.[k] Yet do not lament or weep or shed any tears.[l] 17 Groan quietly;[m] do not mourn for the dead.
Keep your turban[n] fastened and your sandals[o] on your feet; do not cover the lower part of your face[p] or eat the customary food ⌊of mourners⌋.[q]"

18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded.[r]

19 Then the people asked me, "Won't you tell us what these things have to do with us?[s]"

20 So I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me: 21 Say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am about to desecrate my sanctuary[t]—the stronghold in which you take pride,[u] the delight of your eyes,[v] the object of your affection. The sons and daughters[w] you left behind will fall by the sword.[x] 22 And you will do as I have done. You will not cover the lower part of your face[y] or eat the customary food ⌊of mourners⌋.[z] 23 You will keep your turbans[a] on your heads and your sandals[b] on your feet. You will not mourn[c] or weep but will waste away[d] because of[d] your sins and groan among yourselves.[e] 24 Ezekiel[f] will be a sign[g] to you; you will do just as he has done. When this happens, you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.'

25 "And you, son of man, on the day I take away their stronghold, their joy and glory, the delight of their eyes,[h] their heart's desire,[i] and their sons and daughters[j] as well— 26 on that day a fugitive will come to tell you[k] the news. 27 At that time your mouth will be opened; you will speak with him and will no longer be silent.[l] So you will be a sign to them, and they will know that I am the LORD.[m]"

A Prophecy Against Ammon

25 The word of the LORD came to me: 2 "Son of man, set your face against[n] the Ammonites[o] and prophesy against them.[p] 3 Say to them, 'Hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you said "Aha!"[q] over my sanctuary when it was desecrated[r] and over the land of Israel when it was laid waste and over the people of Judah when they went into exile,[s] 4 therefore I am going to give you to the people of the East[t] as a possession. They will set up their camps[u] and pitch their tents among you; they will eat your fruit and drink your milk.[v] 5 I will turn Rabbah[w] into a pasture for camels and Ammon into a resting place for sheep.[x] Then you will know that I am the LORD. 6 For
this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
Because you have clapped your hands[y] and stamped your feet, rejoicing with all the malice of your heart against the land of Israel,[z] 7 therefore I will stretch out my hand[a] against you and give you as plunder[b] to the nations. I will cut you off from the nations and exterminate you from the countries. I will destroy[c] you, and you will know that I am the LORD.[d]'"

A Prophecy Against Moab

8 "This is what the Sovereign LORD
says: 'Because Moab[e] and Seir[f] said,
"Look, the house of Judah has become like all the other nations," 9 therefore I will expose the flank of Moab, beginning at its frontier towns—Beth Jeshi-moth[g], Baal Meon[h] and Kiriathaim[i]—the glory of that land. 10 I will give Moab along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, so that the Ammonites will not be remembered[j] among the nations; 11 and I will inflict punishment on Moab. Then they will know that I am
the LORD.'"[k]

12"This is what the Sovereign LORD guilty by doing so, 13therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will stretch out my hand[b] against Edom says: 'Because the Philistines[i] acted in vengeance and took revenge with malice[j] in their hearts, and with ancient hostility sought to destroy Judah,

A Prophecy Against Tyre

26 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me:[s] 2"Son of man, because Tyre[t] has said of Jerusalem,
'Aha![u] The gate to the nations is broken, and its doors have swung open to me; now that she lies in ruins I will prosper,' 3therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the sea[v] casting up its waves. 4They will destroy[w] the walls of Tyre[x] and pull down her towers; I will scrape away her rubble and make her a bare rock. 5Out in the sea[y] she will become a place to spread fishnets,[z] for
I have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD. She will become plunder[a] for the nations,[b] 6and her settlements on the mainland will be ravaged by the sword.
Then they will know that I am the
LORD.
7"For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: From the north I am going to bring against Tyre Nebuchadnezzar[e c] king of Babylon, king of kings,[d] with horses and chariots,[e] with horsemen and a great army. 8He will ravage your settlements on the mainland with the sword; he will set up siege works[f] against you, build a ramp[g] up to your walls and raise his shields against you.
9He will direct the blows of his battering rams against your walls and demolish your towers with his weapons.[h] 10His horses will be so many that they will cover you with dust. Your walls will tremble at the noise of the war horses, wagons and chariots[i] when he enters your gates as men enter a city whose walls have been broken through. 11The hoofs[j] of his horses will trample all your streets; he will kill your people with the sword, and your strong pillars[k] will fall to the ground.[l] 12They will plunder your wealth and loot your merchandise; they will break down your walls and demolish your fine houses and throw your stones, timber and rubble into the sea.[m] 13I will put an end[n] to your noisy songs,[o] and the music of your harps[p] will be heard no more.[q] 14I will make you a bare rock, and you will become a place to spread fishnets. You will never be rebuilt,[r] for I the LORD have spoken, declares the Sovereign LORD.
15"This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Tyre: Will not the coastlands[s] tremble[t] at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan[u] and the slaughter takes place in you? 16Then all the princes of the coast will step down from their thrones and lay aside their robes and take off their embroidered[v] garments. Clothed[w] with terror, they will sit on the ground,[x] trembling[y] every moment, appalled[z] at you.
17Then they will take up a lament[a] concerning you and say to you:

" 'How you are destroyed, O city of renown,
peopled by men of the sea!
You were a power on the seas,
you and your citizens;
you put your terror
on all who lived there.[b] 18Now the coastlands tremble[c] on the day of your fall;
the islands in the sea
are terrified at your collapse.'[d]

19"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I make you a desolate city,

A Lament for Tyre

27 The word of the LORD came to me: 2 "Son of man, take up a lament[g] concerning Tyre. 3 Say to Tyre,[h] situated at the gateway to the sea,[i] merchant of peoples on many coasts,
'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

"'You say, O Tyre,
"I am perfect in beauty.[j]" 4 Your domain was on the high seas;
your builders brought your beauty to perfection.[k]
5 They made all your timbers of pine trees from Senir[g];[l]
they took a cedar from Lebanon[m]
to make a mast for you.
6 Of oaks[n] from Bashan
they made your oars;
of cypress wood[h] from the coasts of Cyprus[i][o]
they made your deck, inlaid with ivory.
7 Fine embroidered linen[p] from Egypt was your sail
and served as your banner;
your awnings were of blue and purple[q]
from the coasts of Elishah.[r] 8 Men of Sidon and Arvad[s] were your oarsmen;
your skilled men, O Tyre, were aboard as your seamen.[t] 9 Veteran craftsmen of Gebal[j][u] were on board
as shipwrights to caulk your seams.
All the ships of the sea[v] and their sailors
came alongside to trade for your wares.

10 "'Men of Persia,[w] Lydia[x] and Put[y] served as soldiers in your army.
They hung their shields[z] and helmets on your walls, bringing you splendor.
11 Men of Arvad and Helech manned your walls on every side;
men of Gammad
were in your towers.
They hung their shields around your
walls;
they brought your beauty to perfection.[a]

12 "'Tarshish[b] did business with you because of your great wealth of goods;[c] they exchanged silver, iron, tin and lead for your merchandise.
13 "'Greece,[d] Tubal and Meshech[e] traded with you; they exchanged slaves[f] and articles of bronze for your wares.
14 "'Men of Beth Togarmah[g] exchanged work horses, war horses and mules for your merchandise.
15 "'The men of Rhodes[k][h] traded with you, and many coastlands[i] were your customers; they paid you with ivory[j] tusks and ebony.
16 "'Aram[l][k] did business with you because of your many products; they exchanged turquoise,[l] purple fabric, embroidered work, fine linen,[m] coral[n]
and rubies for your merchandise.
17 "'Judah and Israel traded with you;
they exchanged wheat[o] from Minnith[p] and confections,[m] honey, oil and balm[q] for your wares.[r] 18 "'Damascus,[s] because of your many products and great wealth of goods,[t] did business with you in wine from Helbon and wool from Zahar.
19 "'Danites and Greeks[u] from Uzal[v] bought your merchandise; they exchanged wrought iron, cassia[w] and calamus for your wares.
20 "'Dedan[x] traded in saddle blankets with you.
21 "'Arabia[y] and all the princes of Kedar[z] were your customers; they did business with you in lambs, rams and goats.
22 "'The merchants of Sheba[a] and Raamah traded with you; for your merchandise they exchanged the finest of all kinds of spices[b] and precious stones, and gold.[c] 23 "'Haran,[d] Canneh and Eden[e] and merchants of Sheba, Asshur[f] and Kilmad traded with you. 24 In your market-

A Prophecy Against the King of Tyre

28 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man[w], say to the ruler of Tyre, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:

" 'In the pride of your heart
you say, "I am a god;
I sit on the throne[x] of a god
in the heart of the seas."[y]
But you are a man and not a god, though you think you are as wise
as a god.[z]
3Are you wiser than Daniel[a]?[a]
Is no secret hidden from you?
4By your wisdom and understanding you have gained wealth for yourself
and amassed gold and silver in your treasuries.[b] 5By your great skill in trading[c] you have increased your wealth,[d]
and because of your wealth your heart has grown proud.[e]

6" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says:

" 'Because you think you are wise,
as wise as a god,
7I am going to bring foreigners
against you,
the most ruthless of nations;[f] they will draw their swords against your beauty and wisdom[g]
and pierce your shining splendor.[h] 8They will bring you down to the pit,[i]
and you will die a violent death[j]
in the heart of the seas.[k] 9Will you then say, "I am a god," in the presence of those who kill
you?
You will be but a man, not a god,[l] in the hands of those who slay you.[m] 10You will die the death of the uncircumcised[n]
at the hands of foreigners.

I have spoken, declares the Sovereign
LORD.' "

wrenched.[r] [e]
8" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will bring a sword against you and kill your men and their animals.[f] 9Egypt will become a desolate wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.
" 'Because you said, "The Nile[g] is mine; I made it,[h]" 10therefore I am against you[i] and against your streams, and I will make the land of Egypt[j] a ruin and a desolate waste[k] from Migdol[l] to Aswan,[m] as far as the border of Cush.[s] [n] 11No foot of man or animal will pass through it; no one will live there for forty years.[o] 12I will make the land of Egypt desolate[p] among devastated lands, and her cities will lie desolate forty years among ruined cities.
And I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries.[q] 13" 'Yet this is what the Sovereign LORD says: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the nations where they were scattered. 14I will bring them back from captivity and return them to Upper Egypt,[t] the land of their ancestry. There they will be a lowly[s] kingdom.[t] 15It will be the lowliest of kingdoms and will never again exalt itself above the other nations.[u] I will make it so weak that it will never again rule over the nations. 16Egypt will no longer be a source of confidence[v] for the people of Israel but will be a reminder[w] of their sin in turning to her for help.[x] Then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.[y]' "

17In the twenty-seventh year, in the first month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:[z] 18"Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar[a] king of Babylon drove his army in a hard campaign against Tyre; every head was rubbed bare[b] and every shoulder made raw.[c] Yet he and his army got no reward from the campaign he led against Tyre. 19Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king[d] of Babylon, and he will carry off its wealth. He will loot and plunder[e] the land as pay for his army.[f] 20I have given him Egypt[g] as a reward for his efforts because he and his army did it for me, declares the Sovereign LORD.[h] 21"On that day I will make a horn[u] [i] grow for the house of Israel, and I will open your mouth[j] among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.[k]"

A Lament for Egypt

30 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, prophesy and
say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

" 'Wail[l] and say,
"Alas for that day!"
3For the day is near,[m]
the day of the LORD[n] is near—
a day of clouds,
a time of doom for the nations.
4A sword will come against Egypt,[o]
and anguish will come upon Cush.[v] [p]
When the slain fall in Egypt, her wealth will be carried away and her foundations torn down.[q]

5Cush and Put,[r] Lydia and all Arabia,[s] Libya[w] and the people[t] of the covenant land will fall by the sword along with Egypt.[u]

" 'The allies of Egypt will fall
and her proud strength will fail.
From Migdol to Aswan[v]
they will fall by the sword within
her,
declares the Sovereign LORD.
7" 'They will be desolate among desolate lands,
and their cities will lie
among ruined cities.[w] 8Then they will know that I am the
LORD,
when I set fire[x] to Egypt and all her helpers are crushed.[y]

20In the eleventh year, in the first month on the seventh day, the word of the LORD came to me:[x] 21"Son of man, I have broken the arm[y] of Pharaoh[z] king of Egypt. It has not been bound up for healing[a] or put in a splint so as to become strong enough to hold a sword. 22Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt.[b] I will break both his arms, the good arm as well as the broken one, and make the sword fall from his hand.[c] 23I will disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through the countries.[d] 24I will strengthen[e] the arms of the king of

A Cedar in Lebanon

31 In the eleventh year,[k] in the third month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:[l] 2"Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his hordes:

" 'Who can be compared with you in majesty?
3Consider Assyria,[m] once a cedar in Lebanon,[n]
with beautiful branches overshadowing the forest;
it towered on high,
its top above the thick foliage.[o] 4The waters[p] nourished it, deep springs made it grow tall;
their streams flowed
all around its base
and sent their channels to all the trees of the field.[q] 5So it towered higher[r] than all the trees of the field;

its boughs increased
and its branches grew long, spreading because of abundant
waters.[a] 6All the birds of the air nested in its boughs,
all the beasts of the field
gave birth[b] under its branches;
all the great nations
lived in its shade.[c] 7It was majestic in beauty, with its spreading boughs,
for its roots went down to abundant waters.[d] 8The cedars[e] in the garden of God could not rival it,
nor could the pine trees
equal its boughs,
nor could the plane trees[f] compare with its branches—no tree in the garden of God could match its beauty.[g] 9I made it beautiful
with abundant branches, the envy of all the trees of Eden[h]
in the garden of God.[i]

10" 'Therefore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because it towered on high, lifting its top above the thick foliage, and because it was proud[j] of its height, 11I handed it over to the ruler of the nations, for him to deal with according to its wickedness. I cast it aside,[k] 12and the most ruthless of foreign nations[l] cut it down and left it. Its boughs fell on the mountains and in all the valleys;[m] its branches lay broken in all the ravines of the land. All the nations of the earth came out from under its shade and left it.[n] 13All the birds of the air settled on the fallen tree, and all the beasts of the field were among its branches.[o] 14Therefore no other trees by the waters are ever to tower proudly on high, lifting their tops above the thick foliage. No other trees so well-watered are ever to reach such a height; they are all destined[p] for death,[q] for the earth below, among mortal men, with those who go down to the pit.[r]

15" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On the day it was brought down to the grave[d] I covered the deep springs with mourning for it; I held back its streams, and its abundant waters were restrained. Because of it I clothed Lebanon with gloom, and all the trees of the field withered away.[s] 16I made the nations tremble[t] at the sound of its fall when I brought it down to the grave with those who go down to the pit. Then all the trees[u] of Eden,[v] the choicest and best of Lebanon, all the trees that were well-watered, were consoled[w] in the earth below.[x] 17Those who lived in its shade, its allies among the nations, had also gone down to the grave with it, joining those killed by the sword.[y]

18" 'Which of the trees of Eden can be compared with you in splendor and majesty? Yet you, too, will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the earth below; you will lie among the uncircumcised,[z] with those killed by the sword.

declares the Sovereign LORD.' "

A Lament for Pharaoh

32 In the twelfth year, in the twelfth month on the first day, the word of the LORD came to me:[a] 2"Son of man, take up a lament[b] concerning Pharaoh king of Egypt and say to him:

" 'You are like a lion[c] among the
nations;
you are like a monster[d] in the seas[e]
thrashing about in your streams, churning the water with your feet and muddying the streams.[f]

3" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD
says:

" 'With a great throng of people
I will cast my net over you, and they will haul you up in my net.[g] 4I will throw you on the land and hurl you on the open field.
I will let all the birds of the air settle on you
and all the beasts of the earth gorge themselves on you.[h] 5I will spread your flesh on the
mountains
and fill the valleys[i] with your
remains.
6I will drench the land with your flowing blood[j]
all the way to the mountains, and the ravines will be filled with your flesh.[k]
7When I snuff you out, I will cover
the heavens
and darken their stars;
I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light.[l]

those who go down to the pit.[a]

will see them and he will be consoled[b] for all his hordes that were killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD.

the land of the living, Pharaoh[c] and all his hordes will be laid among the uncircumcised, with those killed by the sword, declares the Sovereign LORD."[d]

Ezekiel a Watchman

33 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, speak to your countrymen and say to them: 'When I bring the sword[e] against a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman,[f] 3and he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet[g] to warn the people, 4then if anyone hears the trumpet but does not take warning[h] and the sword comes and takes his life, his blood will be on his own head.[i] 5Since he heard the sound of the trumpet but did not take warning, his blood will be on his own head.[j] If he had taken warning, he would have saved himself.[k] 6But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet to warn the people and the sword comes and takes the life of one of them, that man will be taken away because of his sin, but I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood.'[l]
7"Son of man, I have made you a watchman[m] for the house of Israel; so hear the word I speak and give them warning from me.[n] 8When I say to the wicked, 'O wicked man, you will surely die,'[o] and you do not speak out to dissuade him from his ways, that wicked man will die for[g] his sin, and I will hold you accountable for his blood.[p] 9But if you do warn the wicked man to turn from his ways and he does not do so,[q] he will die for his sin, but you will have saved yourself.[r] 10"Son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'This is what you are saying:
"Our offenses and sins weigh us down, and we are wasting away[s] because of[h] them. How then can we live?"'[t] 11Say to them, 'As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but rather that they turn from their ways and live.[u] Turn![v] Turn from your evil ways! Why will you die, O house of Israel?'[w]

Jerusalem's Fall Explained

21In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month on the fifth day, a man who had escaped[k] from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has fallen!"[l] 22Now the evening before the man arrived, the hand of the LORD was upon me,[m] and he opened my mouth[n] before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened and I was no longer silent.[o] 23Then the word of the LORD came to me: 24"Son of man, the people living in those ruins[p] in the land of Israel are saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he possessed the land. But we are many;[q] surely the land has been given to us as our possession.'[r] 25Therefore
say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Since you eat[s] meat with the blood[t] still in it and look to your idols and shed blood, should you g8 Or in; also in verse 9 h10 Or away in then possess the land?[a] 26 You rely on your sword, you do detestable things,[b] and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife.[c] Should you then possess the

land?'
27 "Say this to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those who are left in the ruins will fall by the sword, those out in the country I will give to the wild animals to be devoured, and those in strongholds and caves will die of a plague.[d] 28 I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains[e] of Israel will become desolate so that no one will cross them.[f] 29 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate[g] waste because of all the detestable things they have done.'[h] 30 "As for you, son of man, your countrymen are talking together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, saying to each other, 'Come and hear the message that has come from the LORD.' 31 My people come to you, as they usually do, and sit before[i] you to listen to your words, but they do not put them into practice. With their mouths they express devotion, but their hearts are greedy[j] for unjust gain.[k] 32 Indeed, to them you are nothing more than one who sings love songs[l] with a beautiful voice and plays an instrument well, for they hear your words but do not put them into practice.[m]
33 "When all this comes true—and it surely will—then they will know that a prophet has been among them.[n]"

Shepherds and Sheep

34 The word of the LORD came to me: 2 "Son of man, prophesy
against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy and say to them: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Woe to the shepherds of Israel who only take care of themselves! Should not shepherds take care of the flock?[o] 3 You eat the curds, clothe yourselves with the wool and slaughter the choice animals, but you do not take care of the flock.[p] 4 You have not strengthened the weak or healed[q] the sick or bound up[r] the injured. You have not brought back the strays or searched for the lost. You have ruled them harshly and brutally.[s] 5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd,[t] and when they were scattered they became food for all the wild animals.[u] 6 My sheep wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill.[v] They were scattered[w] over the whole earth, and no one searched or looked for them.[x] 7 "'Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8 As surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, because my flock lacks a shepherd and so has been plundered[y] and has become food for all the wild animals,[z] and because my shepherds did not search for my flock but cared for themselves rather than for my flock,[a] 9 therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD:
10 This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
I am against[b] the shepherds and will hold them accountable for my flock. I will remove them from tending the flock so that the shepherds can no longer feed themselves. I will rescue[c] my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them.[d]
11 "'For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search for my sheep[e] and look after them. 12 As a shepherd[f] looks after his scattered flock when he is with them, so will I look after my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on a day of clouds and darkness.[g] 13 I will bring them out from the nations and gather[h] them from the countries, and I will bring them into their own land.[i,j,k,l] I will pasture them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the settlements in the land.[m,n,o] 14 I will tend them in a good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel[p] will be their grazing land. There they will lie down in good grazing land, and there they will feed in a rich pasture[q] on the mountains of Israel.[r] 15 I myself will tend my sheep and have them lie down,[s] declares the Sovereign LORD.[t] 16 I will search for the lost and bring back the strays. I will bind up[u] the injured and strengthen the weak,[v] but the sleek and the strong I will destroy.[w] I will shepherd the flock with justice.[x]
17 "'As for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will judge between one sheep and another, and between rams and goats.[y] 18 Is it not enough[z] for you to feed on the good pasture? Must you also trample the rest of your pasture with your feet?[a] Is it

They will live in safety, and no one will make them afraid. 29I will provide for them a land renowned for its crops, and they will no longer be victims of famine in the land or bear the scorn of the nations. 30Then they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, declares the Sovereign LORD. 31You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are people, and I am your God, declares the Sovereign LORD.'"

A Prophecy Against Edom

35 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir; prophesy against it 3and say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you and make you a desolate waste. 4I will turn your towns into ruins and you will be desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

5"'Because you harbored an ancient hostility and delivered the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, the time their punishment reached its climax, 6therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will give you over to bloodshed and it will pursue you. Since you did not hate bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. 7I will make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who come and go. 8I will fill your mountains with the slain; those killed by the sword will fall on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines. 9I will make you desolate forever; your towns will not be inhabited. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

10"'Because you have said, "These two nations and countries will be ours and we will take possession of them," even though I the LORD was there, 11therefore as surely as I live, declares the Sovereign LORD, I will treat you in accordance with the anger and jealousy you showed in your hatred of them and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. 12Then you will know that I the LORD have heard all the contemptible things you have said against the mountains of Israel. You said, "They have been laid waste and have been given over to us to devour." 13You boasted against me and spoke against me without restraint, and I heard it. 14This is what the Sovereign LORD says: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. 15Because you rejoiced when the inheritance of the house of Israel became desolate, that is how I will treat you. You will be desolate, O Mount Seir, you and all of Edom. Then they will know that I am the LORD.'"

26 Or I will make them and the places surrounding my hill a blessing

Sovereign LORD says: Because they ravaged[a] and hounded you from every side so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations and the object of people's malicious talk and slander,[b] 4therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD:
This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys,[c] to the desolate ruins[d] and the deserted[e] towns that have been plundered and ridiculed[f] by the rest of the nations around you[g]— 5this is what the Sovereign LORD says: In my burning[h] zeal I have spoken against the rest of the nations, and against all Edom, for with glee and with malice in their hearts they made my land their own possession so that they might plunder its pastureland.'[i] 6Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and valleys: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I speak in my jealous wrath because you have suffered the scorn of the nations.[j] 7There-fore this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I swear with uplifted hand[k] that the nations around you will also suffer scorn.[l]

8" 'But you, O mountains of Israel, will produce branches and fruit[m] for my people Israel, for they will soon come home. 9I am concerned for you and will look on you with favor; you will be plowed and sown,[n] 10and I will multiply the number of people upon you, even the whole house of Israel.
The towns will be inhabited and the ruins[o] rebuilt.[p] 11I will increase the number of men and animals upon you, and they will be fruitful[q] and become numerous. I will settle people[r] on you as in the past[s] and will make you prosper more than before.[t] Then you will know that I am the LORD. 12I will cause people, my people Israel, to walk upon you. They will possess you, and you will be their inheritance;[u] you will never again deprive them of their children.

13" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because people say to you, "You devour men[v] and deprive your nation of its children," 14therefore you will no longer devour men or make your nation childless, declares the Sovereign LORD. 15No longer will I make you hear the taunts of the nations, and no longer will you suffer the scorn of the peoples or cause your nation to fall, declares the Sovereign LORD.[w]' "

16Again the word of the LORD came to me: 17"Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by their conduct and their actions. Their conduct was like a woman's monthly uncleanness[x] in my sight.[y] 18So I poured out[z] my wrath on them because they had shed blood in the land and because they had defiled it with their idols. 19I dispersed them among the nations, and they were scattered[a] through the countries; I judged them according to their conduct and their actions.[b] 20And wherever they went among the nations they profaned[c] my holy name, for it was said of them, 'These are the LORD's people, and yet they had to leave his land.'[d] 21I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel profaned among the nations where they had gone.[e]

22"Therefore say to the house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am going to do these things, but for the sake of my holy name,[f] which you have profaned[g] among the nations where you have gone.[h] 23I will show the holiness of my great name,[i] which has been profaned[j] among the nations, the name you have profaned among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD,[k] declares the Sovereign LORD, when I show myself holy[l] through you before their eyes.[m]

24" 'For I will take you out of the nations; I will gather you from all the countries and bring you back into your own land.[n] 25I will sprinkle[o] clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse[p] you from all your impurities[q] and from all your idols.[r] 26I will give you a new heart[s] and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone[t] and give you a heart of flesh.[u] 27And I will put my ited."[h] 36Then the nations around you for them: I will make their people as

The Valley of Dry Bones

37 The hand of the LORD was upon me,[n] and he brought me out by the Spirit[o] of the LORD and set me in the middle of a valley;[p] it was full of bones.[q] 2He led me back and forth among them, and I saw a great many bones on the floor of the valley, bones that were very dry. 3He asked me,
"Son of man, can these bones live?" I said, "O Sovereign LORD, you alone know.[r]" 4Then he said to me, "Prophesy to these bones and say to them, 'Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD![s] 5This is what the Sovereign LORD says
to these bones: I will make breath[1] enter you, and you will come to life.[t] 6I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.[u]' " 7So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I was prophesying, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones came together, bone to bone.
8I looked, and tendons and flesh appeared on them and skin covered them, but there was no breath in them.
9Then he said to me, "Prophesy to
the breath;[v] prophesy, son of man, and say to it, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come from the four winds,[w] O breath, and breathe into these slain, that they may live.' " 10So I prophesied as he commanded[x] me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet—a vast army.[y] 11Then he said to me: "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel. They say, 'Our bones are dried up and our hope is gone; we are cut off.'[z] 12Therefore prophesy and say to them:
'This is what the Sovereign LORD says:
O my people, I am going to open your graves and bring you up from them; I will bring you back to the land of Israel.[a] 13Then you, my people, will know that I am the LORD,[b] when I open your graves and bring you up from them.[c] 14I will put my Spirit[d] in you and you will live, and I will settle[e] you in your own land. Then you will know that I the LORD have spoken, and I have done it, declares the LORD.[f]' "

One Nation Under One King

15The word of the LORD came to me:
16"Son of man, take a stick of wood and write on it, 'Belonging to Judah and the Israelites[g] associated with him.'[h] Then take another stick of wood, and write on it, 'Ephraim's stick, belonging to Joseph and all the house of Israel associated with him.' 17Join them together into one stick so that they will become one in your hand.[i] 18"When your countrymen ask you,
'Won't you tell us what you mean by this?'[j] 19say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am going to take the stick of Joseph—which is in Ephraim's hand—and of the Israelite tribes associated with him, and join it to Judah's stick, making them a single stick of wood, and they will become one in my hand.'[k] 20Hold before their eyes the sticks you have written on 21and say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take the Israelites out of the nations where they have gone. I will gather them from all

A Prophecy Against Gog

38 The word of the LORD came to me: 2 "Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of[b] Meshech and Tubal; prophesy against him 3 and say: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of[c] Meshech and Tubal. 4 I will turn you around, put hooks in your jaws and bring you out with your whole army—your horses, your horsemen fully armed, and a great horde with large and small shields, all of them brandishing their swords. 5 Persia, Cush[d] and Put will be with them, all with shields and helmets, 6 also Gomer with all its troops, and Beth Togarmah from the far north with all its troops—the many nations with you.

7 "'Get ready; be prepared, you and all the hordes gathered about you, and take command of them. 8 After many days you will be called to arms. In future years you will invade a land that has recovered from war, whose people were gathered from many nations to the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate. They had been brought out from the nations, and now all of them live in safety. 9 You and all your troops and the many nations with you will go up, advancing like a storm; you will be like a cloud covering the land.

10 "'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: On that day thoughts will come into your mind and you will devise an evil scheme. 11 You will say, "I will invade a land of unwalled villages; I will attack a peaceful and unsuspecting people—all of them living without walls and without gates and bars. 12 I will plunder and loot and turn my hand against the resettled ruins and the people gathered from the nations, rich in livestock and goods, living at the center of the land." 13 Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all her villages[e] will say to you, "Have you come to plunder? Have you gathered your hordes to loot, to carry off silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods and to seize much plunder?"'

14 "Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say to Gog: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In that day, when my people Israel are living in safety, will you not take notice of it? 15 You will come from your place in the far north, you and many nations with you, all of them riding on horses, a great horde, a mighty army. 16 You will advance against my people Israel like a cloud that covers the land. In days to come, O Gog, I will bring you against my land, so that the nations may know me when I show myself holy through you before their eyes.

17 "'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Are you not the one I spoke of in former days by my servants the prophets of Israel? At that time they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them. 18 This is what will happen in that day: When Gog attacks the land of Israel, my hot anger will be aroused, declares the Sovereign LORD. 19 In my zeal and fiery wrath I declare that at that time there shall be a great earthquake in the land of Israel. 20 The fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the beasts of the field, every crea-

7" 'I will make known my holy name among my people Israel. I will no longer let my holy name be profaned,[a] and the nations will know[b] that I the LORD am the Holy One in Israel.[c] 8It is coming! It will surely take place, declares the Sovereign LORD. This is the day[d] I have spoken of.

9" 'Then those who live in the towns of Israel will go out and use the weapons for fuel and burn them up—the small and large shields, the bows and arrows,[e] the war clubs and spears. For seven years they will use them for fuel.[f] 10They will not need to gather wood from the fields or cut it from the forests, because they will use the weapons for fuel. And they will plunder[g] those who plundered them and loot those who looted them, declares the Sovereign LORD.[h]

11" 'On that day I will give Gog a burial place in Israel, in the valley of those who travel east toward[q] the Sea.[r] It will block the way of travelers, because Gog and all his hordes will be buried[i] there. So it will be called the Valley of Hamon Gog.[s][j]

12" 'For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them in order to cleanse the land.[k] 13All the people of the land will bury them, and the day I am glorified[l] will be a memorable day for them, declares the Sovereign LORD.

14" 'Men will be regularly employed to cleanse the land. Some will go throughout the land and, in addition to them, others will bury those that remain on the ground. At the end of the seven months they will begin their search. 15As they go through the land and one of them sees a human bone, he will set up a marker beside it until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Gog. 16(Also a town called Hamonah[t] will be there.) And so they will cleanse the land.'

17"Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Call out to every kind of bird[m] and all the wild animals: 'Assemble and come together from all around to the sacrifice I am preparing for you, the great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. There you will eat flesh and drink blood.[n] 18You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls—all of them fattened animals from Bashan.[o] 19At the sacrifice[p] I am preparing for you, you will eat fat till you are glutted and drink blood till you are drunk. 20At my table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind,' declares the Sovereign LORD.[q]

21"I will display my glory among the nations, and all the nations will see the punishment I inflict and the hand I lay upon them.[r] 22From that day forward the house of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. 23And the nations will know that the people of Israel went into exile for their sin, because they were unfaithful to me. So I hid my face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and they all fell by the sword.[s] 24I dealt with them according to their uncleanness and their offenses, and I hid my face from them.[t]

The New Temple Area

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the fall of the city[l]—on that very day the hand of the LORD was upon me[m] and he took me there. 2 In visions[n] of God he took me to the land of Israel and set me on a very high mountain,[o] on whose south side were some buildings that looked like a city. 3 He took me there, and I saw a man whose appearance was like bronze;[p] he was standing in the gateway with a linen cord and a measuring rod[q] in his hand. 4 The man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes and hear with your ears and pay attention to everything I am going to show you,[r] for that is why you have been brought here. Tell[s] the house of Israel everything you see.[t]"

The East Gate to the Outer Court

5 I saw a wall completely surrounding the temple area. The length of the measuring rod in the man's hand was six long cubits, each of which was a cubit[v] and a handbreadth.[w] He measured[u] the wall; it was one measuring rod thick and one rod high.

6 Then he went to the gate facing east.[v] He climbed its steps and measured the threshold of the gate; it was one rod deep.[x] 7 The alcoves[w] for the guards were one rod long and one rod wide, and the projecting walls between the alcoves were five cubits thick. And the threshold of the gate next to the portico facing the temple was one rod deep.

8 Then he measured the portico of the gateway; 9 it[y] was eight cubits deep and its jambs were two cubits thick. The portico of the gateway faced the temple.

10 Inside the east gate were three alcoves on each side; the three had the same measurements, and the faces of the projecting walls on each side had the same measurements. 11 Then he measured the width of the entrance to the gateway; it was ten cubits and its length was thirteen cubits. 12 In front of each alcove was a wall one cubit high, and the alcoves were six cubits square. 13 Then he measured the gateway from the top of the rear wall of one alcove to the top of the opposite one; the distance was twenty-five cubits from one parapet opening to the opposite one. 14 He measured along the faces of the projecting walls all around the inside of the gateway—sixty cubits. The measurement was up to the portico[z] facing the courtyard.[a][x] 15 The distance from the entrance of the gateway to the far end of its portico was fifty cubits. 16 The alcoves and the projecting walls inside the gateway were surmounted by narrow parapet openings all around, as was the portico; the openings all around faced inward. The faces of the projecting walls were decorated with palm trees.[y]

The Outer Court

17 Then he brought me into the outer court.[z] There I saw some rooms and a pavement that had been constructed all around the court; there were thirty rooms[a] along the pavement.[b] 18 It abutted the sides of the gateways and was as wide as they were long; this was the lower pavement. 19 Then he measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner court;[c] it was a hundred cubits[d] on the east side as well as on the north.

The North Gate

20 Then he measured the length and width of the gate facing north, leading into the outer court. [21]Its alcoves[a]—three on each side—its projecting walls and its portico[b] had the same measurements as those of the first gateway. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. [22]Its openings, its portico[c] and its palm tree decorations had the same measurements as those of the gate facing east. Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them.[d] [23]There was a gate to the inner court facing the north gate, just as there was on the east. He measured from one gate to the opposite one; it was a hundred cubits.[e]

The South Gate

[24]Then he led me to the south side and I saw a gate facing south. He measured its jambs and its portico, and they had the same measurements[f] as the others. [25]The gateway and its portico had narrow openings all around, like the openings of the others. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.[g] [26]Seven steps led up to it, with its portico opposite them; it had palm tree decorations on the faces of the projecting walls on each side.[h] [27]The inner court[i] also had a gate facing south, and he measured from this gate to the outer gate on the south side; it was a hundred cubits.[j]

Gates to the Inner Court

[28]Then he brought me into the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate; it had the same measurements[k] as the others. [29]Its alcoves,[l] its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.[m] [30](The porticoes[n] of the gateways around the inner court were twenty-five cubits wide and five cubits deep.) [31]Its portico[o] faced the outer court; palm trees decorated its jambs, and eight steps led up to it.[p]

[32]Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gateway; it had the same measurements[q] as the others. [33]Its alcoves,[r] its projecting walls and its portico had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its portico had openings all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. [34]Its portico[s] faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.

[35]Then he brought me to the north gate[t] and measured it. It had the same measurements[u] as the others, [36]as did its alcoves,[v] its projecting walls and its portico, and it had openings all around. It was fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide. [37]Its portico[w][b] faced the outer court; palm trees decorated the jambs on either side, and eight steps led up to it.[x]

The Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

[38]A room with a doorway was by the portico in each of the inner gateways, where the burnt offerings[y] were washed. [39]In the portico of the gateway were two tables on each side, on which the burnt offerings,[z] sin offerings[a] and guilt offerings[b] were slaughtered.[c] [40]By the outside wall of the portico of the gateway, near the steps at the entrance to the north gateway were two tables, and on the other side of the steps were two tables. [41]So there were four tables on one side of the gateway and four on the other—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were slaughtered. [42]There were also four tables of dressed stone[d] for the burnt offerings, each a cubit and a half long, a cubit and a half wide and a cubit high. On them were placed the utensils for slaughtering the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices.[e] [43]And double-pronged hooks, each a handbreadth long, were attached to the wall all around. The tables were for the flesh of the offerings.

Rooms for the Priests

[44]Outside the inner gate, within the inner court, were two rooms, one[c] at the side of the north gate and facing south, and another at the side of the south[d] gate and facing north. [45]He said to me, "The room facing south is for the priests who have charge of the temple,[f] [46]and the room facing north[g] is for the priests who have charge of the altar.[h] These are the sons of Zadok,[i] who are the only Levites who may draw near to the LORD to minister before him.[j]"

[47]Then he measured the court: It was square—a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits wide. And the altar was in front of the temple.[k]

The Temple

48He brought me to the portico of the temple[a] and measured the jambs of the portico; they were five cubits wide on either side. The width of the entrance was fourteen cubits and its projecting walls were[a] three cubits wide on either side. 49The portico[b] was twenty cubits wide, and twelve[b] cubits from front to back. It was reached by a flight of stairs,[c] and there were pillars[c] on each side of the jambs.

41 Then the man brought me to the outer sanctuary[d] and measured the jambs; the width of the jambs was six cubits[d] on each side.[e] 2The entrance was ten cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were five cubits wide. He also measured the outer sanctuary; it was forty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.[e]

3Then he went into the inner sanctuary and measured the jambs of the entrance; each was two cubits wide. The entrance was six cubits wide, and the projecting walls on each side of it were seven cubits wide. 4And he measured the length of the inner sanctuary; it was twenty cubits, and its width was twenty cubits across the end of the outer sanctuary.[f] He said to me, "This is the Most Holy Place.[g]"

5Then he measured the wall of the temple; it was six cubits thick, and each side room around the temple was four cubits wide. 6The side rooms were on three levels, one above another, thirty[h] on each level. There were ledges all around the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side rooms, so that the supports were not inserted into the wall of the temple.[i] 7The side rooms all around the temple were wider at each successive level. The structure surrounding the temple was built in ascending stages, so that the rooms widened as one went upward. A stairway[i] went up from the lowest floor to the top floor through the middle floor.

8I saw that the temple had a raised base all around it, forming the foundation of the side rooms. It was the length of the rod, six long cubits. 9The outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits thick. The open area between the side rooms of the temple 10and the priests' rooms was twenty cubits wide all around the temple. 11There were entrances to the side rooms from the open area, one on the north and another on the south; and the base adjoining the open area was five cubits wide all around.

12The building facing the temple courtyard on the west side was seventy cubits wide. The wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length was ninety cubits.

13Then he measured the temple; it was a hundred cubits long, and the temple courtyard and the building with its walls were also a hundred cubits long. 14The width of the temple courtyard on the east, including the front of the temple, was a hundred cubits.[k]

15Then he measured the length of the building facing the courtyard at the rear of the temple, including its galleries[l] on each side; it was a hundred cubits.

The outer sanctuary, the inner sanctuary and the portico facing the court, 16as well as the thresholds and the narrow windows[m] and galleries around the three of them—everything beyond and including the threshold was covered with wood. The floor, the wall up to the windows, and the windows were covered.[n] 17In the space above the outside of the entrance to the inner sanctuary and on the walls at regular intervals all around the inner and outer sanctuary 18were carved[o] cherubim[p] and palm trees.[q] Palm trees alternated with cherubim. Each cherub had two faces:[r] 19the face of a man toward the palm tree on one side and the face of a lion toward the palm tree on the other. They were carved all around the whole temple.[s] 20From the floor to the area above the entrance, cherubim and palm trees were carved on the wall of the outer sanctuary.

21The outer sanctuary[t] had a rectangular doorframe, and the one at the front of the Most Holy Place was similar. 22There was a wooden altar[u] three cubits high and two cubits square[f]; its corners, its base[g] and its sides were of wood. The man said to me, "This is the table[v] that is before the LORD." 23Both the outer sanctuary[w] and the Most Holy Place had double doors.[x] 24Each door had two leaves—two hinged leaves[y] for each door. 25And on the doors of the outer sanctuary were carved cherubim and palm trees like those carved on the walls, and there portico were narrow windows with

Rooms for the Priests

42 Then the man led me northward into the outer court and brought me to the rooms[b] opposite the temple courtyard[c] and opposite the outer wall on the north side.[d] 2The building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits[l] long and fifty cubits wide.
3Both in the section twenty cubits from the inner court and in the section opposite the pavement of the outer court, gallery[e] faced gallery at the three levels.[f] 4In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits[m] long. Their doors were on the north.[g] 5Now the upper rooms were narrower, for the galleries took more space from them than from the rooms on the lower and middle floors of the building. 6The rooms on the third floor had no pillars, as the courts had; so they were smaller in floor space than those on the lower and middle floors. 7There was an outer wall parallel to the rooms and the outer court; it extended in front of the rooms for fifty cubits. 8While the row of rooms on the side next to the outer court was fifty cubits long, the row on the side nearest the sanctuary was a hundred cubits long. 9The lower rooms had an entrance[h] on the east side as one enters them from the outer court.
10On the south side[n] along the length of the wall of the outer court, adjoining the temple courtyard[i] and opposite the outer wall, were rooms[j] 11with a passageway in front of them.
These were like the rooms on the north; they had the same length and width, with similar exits and dimensions. Similar to the doorways on the north 12were the doorways of the rooms on the south. There was a doorway at the beginning of the passage-way that was parallel to the corresponding wall extending eastward, by which one enters the rooms.
13Then he said to me, "The north[k] and south rooms[l] facing the temple courtyard[m] are the priests' rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings.
There they will put the most holy offerings—the grain offerings,[n] the sin offerings[o] and the guilt offerings[p]—for the place is holy.[q] 14Once the priests enter the holy precincts, they are not to go into the outer court until they leave behind the garments[r] in which they minister, for these are holy. They are to put on other clothes before they go near the places that are for the
people.[s]" 15When he had finished measuring what was inside the temple area, he led me out by the east gate[t] and measured the area all around: 16He measured the east side with the measuring rod; it was five hundred cubits.[o] 17He measured the north side; it was five hundred cubits[p] by the measuring rod.
18He measured the south side; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. 19Then he turned to the west side and measured; it was five hundred cubits by the measuring rod. 20So he measured[u] the area[v] on all four sides. It had a wall around it,[w] five hundred cubits long and five hundred cubits wide,[x] to separate the holy from the common.[y]

The Glory Returns to the Temple

43 Then the man brought me to the gate facing east,[z] 2and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters,[a] and the land was radiant with his glory.[b] 3The vision I saw was like the vision I had seen when he[q] came to destroy the city and like the visions I had seen by the Kebar River, and I fell facedown. 4The glory[c] of the LORD entered the temple through the gate facing east.[d] 5Then the Spirit[e] lifted me up[f] and brought me into the inner court, and the glory[g] of the LORD filled the temple.[h] 6While the man was standing beside me, I heard someone speaking to me from inside the temple. 7He said: "Son of man, this is the place of my throne[i]
and the place for the soles of my feet.

elites forever. The house of Israel will never again defile[j] my holy name—

they placed their threshold next to my

So I destroyed them in my anger. 9 Now let them put away from me their prostitution and the lifeless idols of their 10 "Son of man, describe the temple to the people of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their sins. Let them consider the plan, 11 and if they are ashamed of all they have done, make known to them the design of the temple—its arrangement, its exits and en-

The Altar

13 "These are the measurements of the altar in long cubits, that cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth: Its gutter is a cubit deep and a cubit wide, with a rim of one span around the edge. And this is the height of the altar: 14 From the gutter on the ground up to the lower ledge it is two cubits high and a cubit wide, and from the smaller ledge up to the larger ledge it is four cubits high and a cubit wide. 15 The altar hearth is four cubits high, and four horns project upward from the hearth. 16 The altar hearth is square, wide. 17 The upper ledge also is square, fourteen cubits long and fourteen cubits wide, with a rim of half a cubit and a gutter of a cubit all around.

The steps of the altar face east."

18 Then he said to me, "Son of man,
this is what the Sovereign LORD says:
These will be the regulations for sacrificing burnt offerings and sprinkling blood upon the altar when it is built: 19 You are to give a young bull as a sin offering to the priests, who are Levites, eighth day on, the priests are to

I will accept you, declares the Sovereign LORD."

The Prince, the Levites, the Priests

44 Then the man brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, the one facing east, and it was shut. 2 The LORD said to me, "This gate is to remain shut. It must not be opened; no one may enter through it.
It is to remain shut because the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through
it. 3 The prince himself is the only one who may sit inside the gateway to eat in the presence of the LORD. He is to enter by way of the portico of the gateway and go out the same way."

4 Then the man brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple. I looked and saw the glory of the LORD filling the temple of the LORD, and I fell facedown.

5 The LORD said to me, "Son of man, look carefully, listen closely and give attention to everything I tell you concerning all the regulations regarding to the entrance[a] of the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary.[b] 6Say to the rebellious house[c] of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Enough of your detestable practices, O house of Israel! 7In addition to all your other detestable practices, you brought foreigners uncircumcised in heart[d] and flesh into my sanctuary, desecrating my temple while you offered me food, fat and blood, and you broke my covenant.[e] 8Instead of carrying out your duty in regard to my holy things, you put others in charge of my sanctuary.[f] 9This is what the Sovereign LORD says: No foreigner uncircumcised in heart and flesh is to enter my sanctuary, not even the foreigners who live among the Israelites.[g]

10" 'The Levites who went far from me when Israel went astray[h] and who wandered from me after their idols must bear the consequences of their sin.[i] 11They may serve in my sanctuary, having charge of the gates of the temple and serving in it; they may slaughter the burnt offerings[j] and sacrifices for the people and stand before the people and serve them.[k] 12But because they served them in the presence of their idols and made the house of Israel fall[l] into sin, therefore I have sworn with uplifted hand[m] that they must bear the consequences of their sin, declares the Sovereign LORD.[n] 13They are not to come near to serve me as priests or come near any of my holy things or my most holy offerings; they must bear the shame[o] of their detestable practices.[p] 14Yet I will put them in charge of the duties of the temple and all the work that is to be done in it.[q]

15" 'But the priests, who are Levites and descendants of Zadok[r] and who faithfully carried out the duties of my sanctuary when the Israelites went astray from me, are to come near to minister before me; they are to stand before me to offer sacrifices of fat[s] and blood, declares the Sovereign LORD.[t] 16They alone are to enter my sanctuary; they alone are to come near my table[u] to minister before me and perform my service.[v]

17" 'When they enter the gates of the inner court, they are to wear linen clothes;[w] they must not wear any woolen garment while ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the temple. 18They are to wear linen turbans[x] on their heads and linen undergarments[y] around their waists. They must not wear anything that makes them perspire.[z] 19When they go out into the outer court where the people are, they are to take off the clothes they have been ministering in and are to leave them in the sacred rooms, and put on other clothes, so that they do not consecrate[a] the people by means of their garments.[b]

20" 'They must not shave[c] their heads or let their hair grow long, but they are to keep the hair of their heads trimmed.[d] 21No priest is to drink wine when he enters the inner court.[e] 22They must not marry widows or divorced women; they may marry only virgins of Israelite descent or widows of priests.[f] 23They are to teach my people the difference between the holy and the common[g] and show them how to distinguish between the unclean and the clean.[h]

24" 'In any dispute, the priests are to serve as judges[i] and decide it according to my ordinances. They are to keep my laws and my decrees for all my appointed feasts,[j] and they are to keep my Sabbaths holy.[k]

25" 'A priest must not defile himself by going near a dead person; however, if the dead person was his father or mother, son or daughter, brother or unmarried sister, then he may defile himself.[l] 26After he is cleansed, he must wait seven days.[m] 27On the day he goes into the inner court of the sanctuary[n] to minister in the sanctuary, he is to offer a sin offering[o] for himself, declares the Sovereign LORD.

28" 'I am to be the only inheritance[p] the priests have. You are to give them no possession in Israel; I will be their possession. 29They will eat[q] the grain offerings, the sin offerings and the guilt offerings; and everything in Israel devoted[y] to the LORD[r] will belong to them.[s] 30The best of all the firstfruits[t] and of all your special gifts will belong to the priests. You are to give them the first portion of your ground meal[u] so that a blessing[v] may rest on your household.[w] 31The priests must not eat anything, bird or animal, found dead[x] or torn by wild animals.[y] to the LORD a portion of the land as a sacred district, 25,000 cubits long and 20,000[x] cubits wide; the entire area will be holy.[a] [2]Of this, a section 500 cubits square[b] is to be for the sanctuary, with 50 cubits around it for open land. [3]In the sacred district, measure off a section 25,000 cubits[a] long and 10,000 cubits[b] wide. In it will be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. [4]It will be the sacred portion of the land for the priests,[c] who minister in the sanctuary and who draw near to minister before the LORD. It will be a place for their houses as well as a holy place for the sanctuary.[d] [5]An area 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide will belong to the Levites, who serve in the temple, as their possession for towns to live in.[c e]

[6]" 'You are to give the city as its property an area 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, adjoining the sacred portion; it will belong to the whole house of Israel.[f]

[7]" 'The prince will have the land bordering each side of the area formed by the sacred district and the property of the city. It will extend westward from the west side and eastward from the east side, running lengthwise from the western to the eastern border parallel to one of the tribal portions.[g] [8]This land will be his possession in Israel.
And my princes will no longer oppress my people but will allow the house of Israel to possess the land according to their tribes.[h]

[9]" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You have gone far enough, O princes of Israel! Give up your violence and oppression[i] and do what is just and right.[j] Stop dispossessing my people, declares the Sovereign LORD.
[10]You are to use accurate scales,[k] an accurate ephah[d l] and an accurate bath.[e] [11]The ephah[m] and the bath are to be the same size, the bath containing a tenth of a homer[f] and the ephah a tenth of a homer; the homer is to be the standard measure for both. [12]The shekel[g] is to consist of twenty gerahs.[n] Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels equal one mina.[h]

Offerings and Holy Days

[13]" 'This is the special gift you are to offer: a sixth of an ephah from each homer of wheat and a sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley. [14]The prescribed portion of oil, measured by the bath, is a tenth of a bath from each cor (which consists of ten baths or one homer, for ten baths are equivalent to a homer). [15]Also one sheep is to be taken from every flock of two hundred from the well-watered pastures of Israel.
These will be used for the grain offerings, burnt offerings[o] and fellowship offerings[i p] to make atonement[q] for the people, declares the Sovereign LORD.
[16]All the people of the land will participate in this special gift for the use of the prince in Israel. [17]It will be the duty of the prince to provide the burnt offerings, grain offerings and drink offerings at the festivals, the New Moons[r] and the Sabbaths[s]—at all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel.
He will provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to make atonement for the house of Israel.[t]

[18]" 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In the first month[u] on the first day you are to take a young bull without defect[v] and purify the sanctuary.[w] [19]The priest is to take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the temple, on the four corners of the upper ledge[x] of the altar[y] and on the gateposts of the inner court. [20]You are to do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who sins unintentionally[z] or through ignorance; so you are to make atonement for the temple.

[21]" 'In the first month on the fourteenth day you are to observe the Passover,[a] a feast lasting seven days, during which you shall eat bread made without yeast. [22]On that day the prince is to provide a bull as a sin offering for himself and for all the people of the land.[b] [23]Every day during the seven days of the Feast he is to provide seven bulls and seven rams[c] without defect as a burnt offering to the LORD, and a male goat for a sin offering.[d] [24]He is to provide as a grain offering[e] an ephah for each bull and an ephah for each ram, along with a hin[j] of oil for each ephah.[f]

six working days, but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon[e] it is to be opened. 2The prince is to engatepost. The priests are to sacrifice his burnt offering[g] and his fellowship offerings.[k] He is to worship at the threshold of the gateway and then go out, but the gate will not be shut until evening.[h] 3On the Sabbaths[i] and New Moons the people of the land are to worship in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to that gateway.[j] 4The burnt offering the prince brings to the LORD on the Sabbath day is to be six male lambs and a ram, all without defect. 5The grain offering given with the ram is to be an ephah,[l] and the grain offering with the lambs is to be as much as he pleases, along with a hin[m] of oil for each ephah.[k] 6On the day of the New Moon[l] he is to offer a young bull, six lambs and a ram, all without defect.[m] 7He is to provide as a grain offering one ephah with the bull, one ephah with the ram, and with the lambs as much as he wants to give,

along with a hin of oil with each ephah.[n] 8When the prince enters, he is to go in through the portico[o] of the gateway, and he is to come out the same way.[p]
9"'When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts,[q] whoever enters by the north gate to worship is to go out the south gate; and whoever enters by the south gate is to go out the north gate. No one is to return through the gate by which he entered, but each is to go out the opposite gate. 10The prince is to be among them, going in when they go in and going out when they go out.[r] 11"'At the festivals and the appointed feasts, the grain offering is to be an ephah with a bull, an ephah with a ram, and with the lambs as much as one pleases, along with a hin of oil for each ephah.[s] 12When the prince provides[t] a freewill offering[u] to the LORD—whether a burnt offering or fellowship offerings—the gate facing east is to be opened for him. He shall offer his burnt offering or his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day.
Then he shall go out, and after he has gone out, the gate will be shut.[v] 13"'Every day you are to provide a year-old lamb without defect for a burnt offering to the LORD; morning by morning[w] you shall provide it.[x] 14You are also to provide with it morning by morning a grain offering, consisting of a sixth of an ephah with a third of a hin of oil[y] to moisten the flour. The presenting of this grain offering to the LORD is a lasting ordinance.[z] 15So the lamb and the grain offering and the oil shall be provided morning by morning for a regular[a] burnt offering.[b]
16"'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: If the prince makes a gift from his inheritance to one of his sons, it will also belong to his descendants; it is to be their property by inheritance.[c] 17If, however, he makes a gift from his inheritance to one of his servants, the servant may keep it until the year of freedom;[d] then it will revert to the prince. His inheritance belongs to his sons only; it is theirs. 18The prince must not take[e] any of the inheritance[f] of the people, driving them off their property. He is to give his sons their inheritance out of his own property, so that none of my people will be separated from his property.'" 19Then the man brought me through the entrance[g] at the side of the gate to the sacred rooms facing north,[h] which belonged to the priests, and showed me a place at the western end. 20He said to me, "This is the place where the priests will cook the guilt offering and the sin offering and bake the grain offering, to avoid bringing them into the outer court and consecrating[i] the
people."[j] 21He then brought me to the outer court and led me around to its four corners, and I saw in each corner another court. 22In the four corners of the outer court were enclosed[n] courts, forty cubits long and thirty cubits wide; each of the courts in the four corners was the same size. 23Around the inside of each of the four courts was a ledge of stone, with places for fire built all around un-

The River From the Temple

47 The man brought me back to the entrance of the temple, and I saw water[a] coming out from under the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was coming down from under the south side of the temple, south of the altar.[b] [2]He then brought me out through the north gate[c] and led me around the outside to the outer gate facing east, and the water was flowing from the south side.

[3]As the man went eastward with a measuring line[d] in his hand, he measured off a thousand cubits[a] and then led me through water that was ankle-deep. [4]He measured off another thousand cubits and led me through water that was knee-deep. He measured off another thousand and led me through water that was up to the waist. [5]He measured off another thousand, but now it was a river[e] that I could not cross, because the water had risen and was deep enough to swim in—a river that no one could cross.[f] [6]He asked me, "Son of man, do you see this?"

Then he led me back to the bank of the river. [7]When I arrived there, I saw a great number of trees on each side of the river.[g] [8]He said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah,[b][h] where it enters the Sea.[c] When it empties into the Sea,[c] the water there becomes fresh.[i] [9]Swarms of living creatures will live wherever the river flows. There will be large numbers of fish, because this water flows there and makes the salt water fresh; so where the river flows everything will live.[j] [10]Fishermen[k] will stand along the shore; from En Gedi[l] to En Eglaim there will be places for spreading nets.[m] The fish will be of many kinds[n]—like the fish of the Great Sea.[d][o] [11]But the swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they will be left for salt.[p] [12]Fruit trees of all kinds will grow on both banks of the river.[q] Their leaves will not wither, nor will their fruit[r] fail. Every month they will bear, because the water from the sanctuary[s] flows to them. Their fruit will serve for food and their leaves for healing.[t]"

The Boundaries of the Land

[13]This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "These are the boundaries[u] by which you are to divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel, with two portions for Joseph.[v] [14]You are to divide it equally among them. Because I swore with uplifted hand to give it to your forefathers, this land will become your inheritance.[w]

[15]"This is to be the boundary of the land:[x]

"On the north side it will run from the Great Sea[y] by the Hethlon road[z] past Lebo[e] Hamath to Zedad, [16]Berothah[f][a] and Sibraim (which lies on the border between Damascus and Hamath),[b] as far as Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. [17]The boundary will extend from the sea to Hazar Enan,[g] along the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. This will be the north boundary.[c] [18]"On the east side the boundary will run between Hauran and Damascus, along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and as far as Tamar.[h] This will be the east boundary.[d]

[19]"On the south side it will run from Tamar as far as the waters of Meribah Kadesh,[e] then along the Wadi of Egypt[f] to the Great Sea.[g] This will be the south boundary.

[20]"On the west side, the Great Sea will be the boundary to a point opposite Lebo[i] Hamath.[h] This will be the west boundary.[i]

[21]"You are to distribute this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. [22]You are to allot it as an inheritance[j] for yourselves and for the aliens[k] who have settled among you and who have children. You are to consider them as native-born Israelites; along with you they are to be allotted an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.[l] [23]In whatever tribe the alien settles, there you are to give him his in-

The Division of the Land

48 "These are the tribes, listed by name: At the northern frontier, Dan[b] will have one portion; it will follow the Hethlon road[c] to Lebo[x] Hamath;[d] Hazar Enan and the northern border of Damascus next to Hamath will be part of its border from the east side to the west side.

2 "Asher[e] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Dan from east to west.

3 "Naphtali[f] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Asher from east to west.

4 "Manasseh[g] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Naphtali from east to west.

5 "Ephraim[h] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Manasseh[i] from east to west.[j]

6 "Reuben[k] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Ephraim from east to west.

7 "Judah[l] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Reuben from east to west.

8 "Bordering the territory of Judah from east to west will be the portion you are to present as a special gift. It will be 25,000 cubits[y] wide, and its length from east to west will equal one of the tribal portions; the sanctuary will be in the center of it.[m]

9 "The special portion you are to offer to the LORD will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits[z] wide.[n] 10 This will be the sacred portion for the priests. It will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. In the center of it will be the sanctuary of the LORD.[o] 11 This will be for the consecrated priests, the Zadokites,[p] who were faithful in serving me[q] and did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray.[r] 12 It will be a special gift to them from the sacred portion of the land, a most holy portion, bordering the territory of the Levites.

13 "Alongside the territory of the priests, the Levites will have an allotment 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. Its total length will be 25,000 cubits and its width 10,000 cubits.[s] 14 They must not sell or exchange any of
it. This is the best of the land and must not pass into other hands, because it is holy to the LORD.[t]

15 "The remaining area, 5,000 cubits wide and 25,000 cubits long, will be for the common use of the city, for houses and for pastureland. The city will be in the center of it 16 and will have these measurements: the north side 4,500 cubits, the south side 4,500 cubits, the east side 4,500 cubits, and the west side 4,500 cubits.[u] 17 The pastureland for the city will be 250 cubits on the north, 250 cubits on the south, 250 cubits on the east, and 250 cubits on the west.
18 What remains of the area, bordering on the sacred portion and running the length of it, will be 10,000 cubits on the east side and 10,000 cubits on the west side. Its produce will supply food for the workers of the city.[v] 19 The workers from the city who farm it will come from all the tribes of Israel. 20 The entire portion will be a square, 25,000 cubits on each side. As a special gift you will set aside the sacred portion, along with the property of the city.

21 "What remains on both sides of the area formed by the sacred portion and the city property will belong to the prince. It will extend eastward from the 25,000 cubits of the sacred portion to the eastern border, and westward from the 25,000 cubits to the western border. Both these areas running the length of the tribal portions will belong to the prince, and the sacred portion with the temple sanctuary will be in the center of them.[w] 22 So the property of the Levites and the property of the city will lie in the center of the area that belongs to the prince. The area belonging to the prince will lie between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin.

23 "As for the rest of the tribes: Benjamin[x] will have one portion; it will extend from the east side to the west side.

24 "Simeon[y] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Benjamin from east to west.

25 "Issachar[z] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Simeon from east to west.

26 "Zebulun[a] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Issachar from east to west.

27 "Gad[b] will have one portion; it will border the territory of Zebulun from east to west.

Daniel's Training in Babylon

1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim[a] king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar[b] king of Babylon[c] came to Jerusalem and besieged it.[d] 2And the Lord delivered Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with some of the articles from the temple of God. These he carried[e] off to the temple of his god in Babylonia[a] and put in the treasure house of his god.[f] 3Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, chief of his court officials, to bring in some of the Israelites from the royal family and the nobility[g]— 4young men without any physical defect, handsome,[h] showing aptitude for every kind of learning,[i] well informed, quick to understand, and qualified to serve in the king's palace. He was to teach them the language[j] and literature of the Babylonians.[b] 5The king assigned them a daily amount of food and wine[k] from the king's table.[l] They were to be trained for three years,[m] and after that they were to enter the king's service.[n] 6Among these were some from Judah: Daniel,[o] Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.[p] 7The chief official gave them new names: to Daniel, the name Belteshazzar;[q] to Hananiah, Shadrach;
to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.[r]
8But Daniel resolved not to defile[s] himself with the royal food and wine, and he asked the chief official for permission not to defile himself this way.
9Now God had caused the official to show favor[t] and sympathy[u] to Daniel, 10but the official told Daniel, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your[c] food and drink.[v] Why should he see you looking worse than the other young men your age? The king would then have my head because of you."
11Daniel then said to the guard whom the chief official had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah, 12"Please test[w] your servants for ten days: Give us nothing but vegetables to eat and water to drink. 13Then compare our appearance with that of the young men who eat the royal food, and treat your servants in accordance with what you see."[x] 14So he agreed to this and tested[y] them for ten days.
15At the end of the ten days they looked healthier and better nourished than any of the young men who ate the royal food.[z] 16So the guard took away their choice food and the wine they were to drink and gave them vegetables instead.[a] 17To these four young men God gave knowledge and understanding[b] of all kinds of literature and learning.[c] And Daniel could understand visions and dreams of all kinds.[d] 18At the end of the time[e] set by the king to bring them in, the chief official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar.
19The king talked with them, and he found none equal to Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah; so they entered the king's service.[f] 20In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king questioned them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians[g] and enchanters in his whole kingdom.[h] 21And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.[i]

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2 In the second year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams;[j] his mind was troubled[k] and he could not sleep.[l] 2So the king summoned the magicians,[m] enchanters, sorcerers[n] and astrologers[d][o] to tell him what he had dreamed.[p] When they came in and stood before the king, 3he said to them,
"I have had a dream that troubles[q] me and I want to know what it means.[e]" 4Then the astrologers answered the 5 The king replied to the astrologers,

"This is what I have firmly decided:[h] If you do not tell me what my dream was and interpret it, I will have you cut into pieces[i] and your houses turned into piles of rubble.[j] 6 But if you tell me the dream and explain it, you will receive from me gifts and rewards and great

7 Once more they replied, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will interpret it." 8 Then the king answered, "I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you realize that this is what I have firmly decided: 9 If you do not tell me the dream, there is just one penalty[l] for you. You have conspired to tell me misleading and wicked things, hoping the situation will change. So then, tell me the dream, and I will know that you can interpret it for me."[m]
10 The astrologers[n] answered the king, "There is not a man on earth who can do what the king asks! No king, however great and mighty, has ever asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or astrologer.[o] 11 What the king asks is too difficult. No one can reveal it to the king except the gods,[p]
and they do not live among men." 12 This made the king so angry and furious[q] that he ordered the execution[r] of all the wise men of Babylon.
13 So the decree was issued to put the wise men to death, and men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to put them to death.[s] 14 When Arioch, the commander of the king's guard, had gone out to put to death the wise men of Babylon, Daniel spoke to him with wisdom and tact.
15 He asked the king's officer, "Why did the king issue such a harsh decree?" Arioch then explained the matter to Daniel. 16 At this, Daniel went in to the king and asked for time, so that he might interpret the dream for him.
17 Then Daniel returned to his house and explained the matter to his friends Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah.[t] 18 He urged them to plead for mercy[u] from the God of heaven[v] concerning this mystery,[w] so that he and his friends might not be executed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 During the night the mystery[x] was revealed to

Daniel in a vision.[y] Then Daniel praised the God of heaven[z] 20 and said:

"Praise be to the name of God for ever and ever;[a]
wisdom and power[b] are his.
21 He changes times and seasons;[c] he sets up kings[d] and deposes[e]
them.
He gives wisdom[f] to the wise and knowledge to the discerning.[g] 22 He reveals deep and hidden things;[h] he knows what lies in darkness,[i]
and light[j] dwells with him.
23 I thank and praise you, O God of my fathers:[k]
You have given me wisdom[l] and
power,
you have made known to me what we asked of you,
you have made known to us the dream of the king."[m]

Daniel Interprets the Dream

24 Then Daniel went to Arioch,[n] whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon, and said to him, "Do not execute the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king, and I will interpret his dream for him." 25 Arioch took Daniel to the king at once and said, "I have found a man among the exiles[o] from Judah[p] who can tell the king what his dream
means."
26 The king asked Daniel (also called Belteshazzar),[q] "Are you able to tell me what I saw in my dream and interpret it?" 27 Daniel replied, "No wise man, enchanter, magician or diviner can explain to the king the mystery he has asked about,[r] 28 but there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries.[s] He has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come.[t] Your dream and the visions that passed through your mind[u] as you lay on your bed[v] are these:[w] 29 "As you were lying there, O king, your mind turned to things to come,
and the revealer of mysteries showed you what is going to happen.[x] 30 As for me, this mystery has been revealed[y] to me, not because I have greater wisdom than other living men, but so that you, O king, may know the interpretation and that you may understand what went through your mind.
31 "You looked, O king, and there bea 4 The text from here through chapter 7 is in Aramaic.

fore you stood a large statue—an enormous, dazzling statue,[a] awesome[b] in appearance. 32The head of the statue was made of pure gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, 33its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of baked clay.
34While you were watching, a rock was cut out, but not by human hands.[c] It struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed[d] them.[e] 35Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were broken to pieces at the same time and became like chaff on a threshing floor in the summer. The wind swept them away[f] without leaving a trace. But the rock that struck the statue became a huge mountain[g] and filled the whole earth.[h]

36"This was the dream, and now we will interpret it to the king.[i] 37You, O king, are the king of kings.[j] The God of heaven has given you dominion[k]
and power and might and glory; 38in your hands he has placed mankind and the beasts of the field and the birds of the air. Wherever they live, he has made you ruler over them all.[l] You are that head of gold.

39"After you, another kingdom will rise, inferior to yours. Next, a third kingdom, one of bronze, will rule over the whole earth.[m] 40Finally, there will be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron—for iron breaks and smashes everything—and as iron breaks things to pieces, so it will crush and break all the others.[n] 41Just as you saw that the feet and toes were partly of baked clay and partly of iron, so this will be a divided kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay. 42As the toes were partly iron and partly clay, so this kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. 43And just as you saw the iron mixed with baked clay, so the people will be a mixture and will not remain united, any more than iron mixes with clay.

44"In the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed, nor will it be left to another people. It will crush[o] all those kingdoms[p] and bring them to an end, but it will itself endure forever.[q] 45This is the meaning of the vision of the rock[r] cut out of a mountain, but not by human hands[s]—a rock that broke the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold to pieces.

"The great God has shown the king what will take place in the future.[t] The dream is true[u] and the interpretation is trustworthy."

46Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell prostrate[v] before Daniel and paid him honor and ordered that an offering[w]
and incense be presented to him. 47The king said to Daniel, "Surely your God is the God of gods[x] and the Lord of kings[y] and a revealer of mysteries,[z] for you were able to reveal this mystery.[a]"

48Then the king placed Daniel in a high[b] position and lavished many gifts on him. He made him ruler over the entire province of Babylon and placed him in charge of all its wise men.[c] 49Moreover, at Daniel's request the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego administrators over the province of Babylon,[d] while Daniel himself remained at the royal court.[e]

The Image of Gold and the Fiery Furnace

3 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image[f] of gold, ninety feet high and nine feet[g] wide, and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. 2He then summoned the satraps,[g] prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials[h] to come to the dedication of the image he had set up. 3So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates and all the other provincial officials assembled for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before it.

4Then the herald loudly proclaimed,
"This is what you are commanded to do, O peoples, nations and men of every language:[i] 5As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp,[j] pipes and all kinds of music, you must fall down and worship the image[k] of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.[l] 6Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace."[m]

7Therefore, as soon as they heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and men of every language fell down and worshiped the image of gold that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.[n]

came forward and denounced the Jews. 9They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever![e] 10You have issued a decree,[f] O king, that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music must fall down and worship the image of gold,[g] 11and that whoever does not fall down and worship will be thrown into a blazing furnace. 12But there are some Jews whom you have set over the affairs of the province of Babylon—Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego[h]—who pay no attention[i] to you, O king. They neither serve your gods nor worship the image of gold you have set up."[j] 13Furious[k] with rage, Nebuchadnezzar summoned Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. So these men were brought before the king, 14and Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods[l] or worship the image[m] of gold I have set up?
15Now when you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes and all kinds of music, if you are ready to fall down and worship the image I made, very good. But if you do not worship it, you will be thrown immediately into a blazing furnace. Then what god[n] will be able to rescue[o] you from my hand?"
16Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego[p] replied to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you in this matter. 17If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God we serve is able to save[q] us from it, and he will rescue[r] us from your hand, O king. 18But even if he does not, we want you to know, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the image of gold you have set up.[s]" 19Then Nebuchadnezzar was furious with Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and his attitude toward them changed. He ordered the furnace heated seven[t] times hotter than usual 20and commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Sha-drach, Meshach and Abednego[u] and throw them into the blazing furnace.
21So these men, wearing their robes, trousers, turbans and other clothes, were bound and thrown into the blazing furnace. 22The king's command was so urgent and the furnace so hot that the flames of the fire killed the soldiers who took up Shadrach, Meshach and nace.

24Then King Nebuchadnezzar leaped to his feet in amazement and asked his advisers, "Weren't there three men that we tied up and threw into the fire?"
They replied, "Certainly, O king." 25He said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire, unbound and unharmed, and the fourth looks like a son of the gods." 26Nebuchadnezzar then approached the opening of the blazing furnace and shouted, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God,[w] come out! Come here!"
So Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire, 27and the satraps, prefects, governors and royal advisers[x] crowded around them.[y] They saw that the fire[z] had not harmed their bodies, nor was a hair of their heads singed; their robes were not scorched, and there was no smell of fire on them.
28Then Nebuchadnezzar said,
"Praise be to the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, who has sent his angel[a] and rescued[b] his servants! They trusted[c] in him and defied the king's command and were willing to give up their lives rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.[d] 29Therefore I decree[e] that the people of any nation or language who say anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be cut into pieces and their houses be turned into piles of rubble,[f] for no other god can save[g] in this way."
30Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the province of Babylon.[h]

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream of a Tree

4 King Nebuchadnezzar, To the peoples, nations and men of every language,[i] who live in all the world:

May you prosper greatly![j]

2It is my pleasure to tell you about the miraculous signs[k] and wonders that the Most High God[l] has performed for me.

3How great are his signs,
how mighty his wonders![m]
His kingdom is an eternal kingdom;[n] his dominion endures[o] from generation to generation.

4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at home in my palace, contented[a] and prosperous. 5 I had a dream[b] that made me afraid. As I was lying in my bed,[c] the images and visions that passed through my mind[d] terrified me.[e] 6 So I commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be brought before me to interpret[f] the dream for me. 7 When the magicians,[g] enchanters, astrologers[i] and diviners[h] came, I told them the dream, but they could not interpret it for me.[i] 8 Finally, Daniel came into my presence and I told him the dream. (He is called Belteshazzar,[j] after the name of my god, and the spirit of the holy gods[k] is in him.) 9 I said, "Belteshazzar, chief[l] of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods[m] is in you, and no mystery is too difficult for
you. Here is my dream; interpret it for me. 10 These are the visions I saw while lying in my bed:[n] I looked, and there before me stood a tree in the middle of the land. Its height was enormous.[o] 11 The tree grew large and strong and its top touched the sky; it was visible to the ends of the earth.[p] 12 Its leaves were beautiful, its fruit abundant, and on it was food for all. Under it the beasts of the field found shelter, and the birds of the air lived in its branches;[q] from it every creature was fed.
13 "In the visions I saw while lying in my bed,[r] I looked, and there before me was a messenger,[j] a holy one,[s] coming down from heaven. 14 He called in a loud voice:
'Cut down the tree[t] and trim off its branches; strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the animals flee from under it and the birds from its branches.[u] 15 But let the stump and its roots, bound with iron and bronze, remain in the ground, in the grass of the field.
"'Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the animals among the plants of the earth. 16 Let his mind be changed from that of a man and let him be given the mind of an animal, till seven times[k] pass by for
him.[v]
17 "'The decision is announced by messengers, the holy ones declare the verdict, so that the living may know that the Most High[w] is sovereign[x] over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he wishes and sets over them the lowliest[y] of men.'
18 "This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now, Belte-shazzar, tell me what it means, for none of the wise men in my kingdom can interpret it for me.[z] But you can,[a] because the spirit of the holy gods[b] is in you."[c]

Daniel Interprets the Dream

19 Then Daniel (also called Belte-shazzar) was greatly perplexed for a time, and his thoughts terrified[d]
him. So the king said, "Beltesha-zar, do not let the dream or its meaning alarm you."[e] Belteshazzar answered, "My lord, if only the dream applied to your enemies and its meaning to your adversaries! 20 The tree you saw, which grew large and strong, with its top touching the sky, visible to the whole earth, 21 with beautiful leaves and abundant fruit, providing food for all, giving shelter to the beasts of the field, and having nesting places in its branches for the birds of the air[f] — 22 you, O king, are that tree![g] You have become great and strong;
your greatness has grown until it reaches the sky, and your dominion extends to distant parts of the earth.[h]
23 "You, O king, saw a messenger, a holy one,[i] coming down from heaven and saying, 'Cut down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump, bound with iron and bronze, in the grass of the field, while its roots remain in the ground. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven; let him live like the wild animals, until seven times pass by for him.'[j] [k] 24 "This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree[l] the Most High has issued against my lord the king: 25 You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like cattle and be drenched[m] with the dew of heaven. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High[n] is sovereign over the kingdoms of

men and gives them to anyone he wishes.[a] 26The command to leave the stump of the tree with its roots[b] means that your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven rules.[c] 27Therefore, O king, be pleased to accept my advice: Renounce your sins by doing what is right, and your wickedness by being kind to the oppressed.[d] It may be that then your prosperity[e] will continue.[f]"

The Dream Is Fulfilled

28All this happened[g] to King Nebuchadnezzar. 29Twelve months later, as the king was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, 30he said, "Is not this the great Babylon I have built as the royal residence, by my mighty power and for the glory[h] of my majesty?"[i]

31The words were still on his lips when a voice came from heaven,
"This is what is decreed for you, King Nebuchadnezzar: Your royal authority has been taken from you.[j] 32You will be driven away from people and will live with the wild animals; you will eat grass like cattle. Seven times will pass by for you until you acknowledge that the Most High is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and gives them to anyone he wishes."[k]

33Immediately what had been said about Nebuchadnezzar was fulfilled. He was driven away from people and ate grass like cattle. His body was drenched[l] with the dew of heaven until his hair grew like the feathers of an eagle and his nails like the claws of a bird.[m]

34At the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes toward heaven, and my sanity[n] was restored. Then I praised the Most High; I honored and glorified him who lives forever.[o]

His dominion is an eternal dominion;
his kingdom[p] endures from generation to generation.[q] 35All the peoples of the earth are regarded as nothing.[r]
He does as he pleases[s] with the powers of heaven and the peoples of the earth.
No one can hold back[t] his
hand[u]
or say to him: "What have you done?"[v]

36At the same time that my sanity was restored, my honor and splendor were returned to me for the glory of my kingdom.[w] My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored to my throne and became even greater than before.
37Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and exalt[x] and glorify[y] the King of heaven, because everything he does is right and all his ways are just.[z] And those who walk in pride[a] he is able to humble.[b]

The Writing on the Wall

5 King Belshazzar[c] gave a great banquet[d] for a thousand of his nobles[e] and drank wine with them. 2While Belshazzar was drinking[f] his wine, he gave orders to bring in the gold and silver goblets[g] that Nebuchadnezzar his father[l] had taken from the temple in Jerusalem, so that the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines[h] might drink from them.[i] 3So they brought in the gold goblets that had been taken from the temple of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives and his concubines drank from them. 4As they drank the wine, they praised the gods[j] of gold and silver, of bronze, iron, wood and stone.[k]

5Suddenly the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall, near the lampstand in the royal palace. The king watched the hand as it wrote. 6His face turned pale[l] and he was so frightened[m] that his knees knocked[n] together and his legs gave way.[o]

7The king called out for the enchanters,[p] astrologers[m][q] and diviners[r] to be brought and said to these wise[s] men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around his neck,[t] and he will be made the third[u] highest ruler in the kingdom."[v]

8Then all the king's wise men[w] came in, but they could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant.[x] 9So King Belshazzar became even more terrified[y] and his face grew more pale.
His nobles were baffled.

Don't look so pale! 11There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods[b] in him. In the time of your father he was found to have insight and intelligence and wisdom[c] like that of the gods.[d] King Nebuchadnezzar your father—your father the king, I say—appointed him chief of the magicians, enchanters, astrologers and diviners.[e] 12This man Daniel, whom the king called Belteshazzar,[f] was found to have a keen mind and knowledge and understanding, and also the ability to interpret dreams, explain riddles[g] and solve difficult problems.[h] Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.[i]"

13So Daniel was brought before the king, and the king said to him, "Are you Daniel, one of the exiles my father the king brought from Judah?[j] 14I have heard that the spirit of the gods[k] is in you and that you have insight, intelligence and outstanding wisdom.[l] 15The wise men and enchanters were brought before me to read this writing and tell me what it means, but they could not explain it.[m] 16Now I have heard that you are able to give interpretations and to solve difficult problems.[n] If you can read this writing and tell me what it means, you will be clothed in purple and have a gold chain placed around your neck,[o] and you will be made the third highest ruler in the kingdom."[p]

17Then Daniel answered the king, "You may keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else.[q] Nevertheless, I will read the writing for the king and tell him what it means.

18"O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar[r] sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendor.[s] 19Because of the high position he gave him, all the peoples and nations and men of every language dreaded and feared him. Those the king wanted to put to death, he put to death;[t] those he wanted to spare, he spared; those he wanted to promote, he promoted; and those he wanted to humble, he humbled.[u] 20But when his heart became arrogant and hardened with pride,[v] he was deposed from his royal throne[w] and stripped[x] of his glory.[y] 21He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal; he lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like cattle; and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he acknowledged that the Most High God is sovereign[z] over the kingdoms of men and sets over them anyone he wishes.[a]

22"But you his son,[o] O Belshazzar, have not humbled[b] yourself, though you knew all this. 23Instead, you have set yourself up against[c] the Lord of heaven. You had the goblets from his temple brought to you, and you and your nobles, your wives[d] and your concubines drank wine from them. You praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or understand.[e] But you did not honor the God who holds in his hand your life[f] and all your ways.[g] 24Therefore he sent the hand that wrote the inscription.

25"This is the inscription that was written:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, PARSIN[p]

26"This is what these words mean:

Mene[q]: God has numbered the days[h] of your reign and brought it to an end.[i]

27*Tekel*[r]: You have been weighed on the scales[j] and found wanting.[k]

28*Peres*[s]: Your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes[l] and Persians."[m]

29Then at Belshazzar's command, Daniel was clothed in purple, a gold chain was placed around his neck,[n] and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.[o] 30That very night Belshazzar,[p] king[q] of the Babylonians,[t] was slain,[r] 31and Darius[s] the Mede[t] took over the kingdom, at the age of sixty-two.

Daniel in the Den of Lions

6 It pleased Darius[u] to appoint 120 satraps[v] to rule throughout the kingdom, 2with three administrators over them, one of whom was Daniel.[w] The satraps were made accountable[x] to them so that the king might not suffer loss. 3Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.[a] 4 At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges[b] against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs, but they were unable to do so.

They could find no corruption in him, because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent. 5 Finally these men said, "We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God."[c]

6 So the administrators and the satraps went as a group to the king and said: "O King Darius, live forever![d] 7 The royal administrators, prefects, satraps, advisers and governors[e] have all agreed that the king should issue an edict and enforce the decree that anyone who prays to any god or man during the next thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be thrown into the lions' den.[f] 8 Now, O king, issue the decree and put it in writing so that it cannot be altered—in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."[g] 9 So King Darius put the decree in writing.

10 Now when Daniel learned that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows opened toward[h] Jerusalem.
Three times a day he got down on his knees[i] and prayed, giving thanks to his God, just as he had done before.[j] 11 Then these men went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help.[k] 12 So they went to the king and spoke to him about his royal decree: "Did you not publish a decree that during the next thirty days anyone who prays to any god or man except to you, O king, would be thrown into the lions' den?"

The king answered, "The decree stands—in accordance with the laws of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."[l]

13 Then they said to the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah,[m] pays no attention[n] to you, O king, or to the decree you put in writing. He still prays three times a day." 14 When the king heard this, he was greatly distressed;[o] he was determined to rescue Daniel and made every effort until sundown to save him.

15 Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, "Remember, O king, that according to the law of the Medes and Persians no decree or edict that the king issues can be changed."[p]

16 So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den.[q] The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue[r] you!"

17 A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den, and the king sealed[s] it with his own signet ring and with the rings of his nobles, so that Daniel's situation might not be changed. 18 Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night without eating[t] and without any entertainment being brought to him. And he could not sleep.[u]

19 At the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' den.
20 When he came near the den, he called to Daniel in an anguished voice, "Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to rescue you from the lions?"[v]

21 Daniel answered, "O king, live forever![w] 22 My God sent his angel,[x] and he shut the mouths of the lions.[y] They have not hurt me, because I was found innocent in his sight.[z] Nor have I ever done any wrong before you, O king."

23 The king was overjoyed and gave orders to lift Daniel out of the den. And when Daniel was lifted from the den, no wound[a] was found on him, because he had trusted[b] in his God.

24 At the king's command, the men who had falsely accused Daniel were brought in and thrown into the lions' den,[c] along with their wives and children.[d] And before they reached the floor of the den, the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.[e]

25 Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations and men of every language[f] throughout the land:

"May you prosper greatly![g] 26 "I issue a decree that in every part of my kingdom people must fear and reverence[h] the God of Daniel.[i]

"For he is the living God[j] and he endures forever;[k] his kingdom will not be
destroyed,
his dominion will never end.[l] 27 He rescues and he saves;[m] he performs signs and wonders[n]
in the heavens and on the earth.
He has rescued Daniel
from the power of the lions."[o]

28 So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus[a][z] the Persian.[a]

Daniel's Dream of Four Beasts

7 In the first year of Belshazzar[b] king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions[d] passed through his mind[e] as he was lying on his bed.[f] He wrote[g] down the substance of his dream.
2Daniel said: "In my vision at night I looked, and there before me were the four winds of heaven[h] churning up the great sea. 3Four great beasts,[i] each different from the others, came up out of the sea.
4"The first was like a lion,[j] and it had the wings of an eagle.[k] I watched until its wings were torn off and it was lifted from the ground so that it stood on two feet like a man, and the heart of a man was given to it.
5"And there before me was a second beast, which looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, 'Get up and eat your fill of flesh!'[l]
6"After that, I looked, and there before me was another beast, one that looked like a leopard.[m] And on its back it had four wings like those of a bird.
This beast had four heads, and it was given authority to rule.
7"After that, in my vision[n] at night I looked, and there before me was a fourth beast—terrifying and frightening and very powerful. It had large iron[o] teeth; it crushed and devoured its victims and trampled[p] underfoot whatever was left.[q] It was different from all the former beasts, and it had ten horns.[r]
8"While I was thinking about the horns, there before me was another horn, a little[s] one, which came up among them; and three of the first horns were uprooted before it. This horn had eyes like the eyes of a man[t] and a mouth that spoke boastfully.[u] 9"As I looked,

"thrones were set in place, and the Ancient of Days[v] took his seat.[w]
His clothing was as white as snow;[x]
the hair of his head was white like wool.[y]
His throne was flaming with fire,
and its wheels[z] were all ablaze.
10A river of fire[a] was flowing, coming out from before him.[b]
